NEWARK A CITY OF IN-DUSTRY AND PROGRESS

JANUARY, 1932.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and the role of the accounting department in ensuring the integrity of the financial statements. It also highlights the need for regular audits and the importance of transparency in financial reporting.

2. The second part of the document focuses on the implementation of internal controls to prevent fraud and ensure the accuracy of financial data. It outlines the key components of a robust internal control system, including segregation of duties, authorization procedures, and regular monitoring and evaluation.

3. The third part of the document addresses the challenges faced by organizations in managing their financial resources effectively. It discusses the importance of budgeting and forecasting, and the role of the accounting department in providing accurate financial information to support decision-making.

4. The fourth part of the document explores the impact of technology on financial management. It discusses the benefits of using accounting software and the importance of ensuring data security and privacy in the digital age.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the role of the accounting department in supporting the organization's strategic goals. It highlights the importance of providing accurate financial information to management and the need for the accounting department to stay up-to-date with the latest industry trends and regulations.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and the role of the accounting department in ensuring the integrity of the financial statements. It also highlights the need for regular audits and the importance of transparency in financial reporting.

Board of Adjustment
City Hall

Newark, New Jersey, Jan. 5, 1932

The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:—

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, that the following structures and uses in variance with the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

197-199 Broome street, Morris Kaplan, owner; construction of a two and four-story addition to present meat products factory.

208 Richelieu Terrace, Honor Bilt Homes, Inc., owner construction of a two-family dwelling.

364-366 Halsey street, John Kirch (993 Broad Street Company, owner); automobile parking station (no Broad Street driveway); approved for three years.

493 So. 19th Street, Haroll Burdett, owner; automobile repair shop for one year.

128-130 Lyons Avenue, Mark B. Warner, owner; two-story store and apartment building beyond prevailing set back line.

368-372 Chancellor Avenue, Isadore Rekoon (Rekoon Construction Company, owner); two-story store and apartment building beyond prevailing set back line.

The Board of Adjustment,

R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Received, copy to be sent to each Commissioner, and further action postponed to January 20, 1932.

The following petition was received and read:

To the Members of the City Commission of the
City of Newark, N. J.

We, the undersigned, citizens and property owners residing on Pennsylvania Avenue in the City of Newark, do hereby request your Honorable Body to have trucks discontinue the use of said Pennsylvania Avenue. The street has been newly paved for which we have been assessed and since it has been paved the street has become an artery to a main highway. The vibration caused by the trucks cause the walls and ceilings to fall and the noise of the said trucks is so great at night that it is impossible to sleep.

Trusting you will grant this request, we thank you in advance..

Signed by William H. Harrington,
98 Pennsylvania Avenue, and fifty-five others.

Referred to Director of Public Safety.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter that he desires to take up with the Commission this morning?

Mr. Rudolph Kruger, 60 Branford Place:

May I ask a suspension of the rules in the case of the zoning matter of 197-199 Broome Street, for permission to make an alteration and extension to a factory building? There is a factory on the premises now and there has been for some years.

Mayor Congleton: It is an extension of a now-existing business?

Mr. Kruger: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: Are there any objectors?

Mr. Kruger: There was one objector from Prince Street, and we straightened the matter out to his satisfaction.

Mayor Congleton: This is on Broome Street?

Mr. Kruger: This is on Broome Street. His was on Prince Street.

Commissioner Egan: What does the improvement represent?

Mr. Kruger: Oh, between twenty and thirty thousand dollars.

Commissioner Egan: I move that the rules be suspended.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Morris Kaplan, owner, for the construction of a two and four-story addition to present meat products factory; premises 197-199 Broome Street;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

John Howe
Jno. F. Murray Jr.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. William Symons, 220 Walnut Street:

Mr. Mayor, I would like to put in a petition to turn around and give the Public Service a chance for to get some more buses down at the airport. It takes me half a hour to get a bus before I can get out eight o'clock in the morning. I am out on my corner, corner of Pacific and Walnut Street, at seven o'clock, and it is sometimes half-past seven or eight o'clock before I move from there, and at night when the wind is blowing there and the men they have been working hard all day, they stand there until half-past five, twenty minutes after five until they get a bus.

Mayor Congleton: Where do you work?

Mr. Symons: Down at the airport.

Mayor Congleton: At what plant?

Mr. Symons: Pick and shovel. There is over three to four to five hundred. Last Monday there was a double gang working down there. There was at least five hundred men down there.

Nothing outside of the regular routine of buses to pick that crowd up there. There ought to be something done, because the men are sweating--

Mayor Congleton: All right, we will see that you get better transportation.

Mr. Symons: (Continuing):—and standing half an hour—three quarters of an hour, with nothing to protect their backs from the wind.

Mayor Congleton: All right.

Mr. Jacob Lubekin, 60 Park Place:

Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, I desire to apply for a suspension of the rules in connection with the application for the erecting of a building upon Chancellor Avenue corner of Leslie Street. The matter came before the Board of Adjustment yesterday and there were no objectors present.

Mayor Congleton: This is an apartment house?

Mr. Lubetkin: Two-story buildings terra cotta on Chancellor Avenue and on Leslie Street. There is a four-story and a five-story on the other side of the street. They are all built out on the line, on the side streets, and on Chancellor Avenue frontage. The type of building supposed to be erected is an unusually pretty building and will be an asset to the neighborhood. It is a terra cotta building on both sides.

Commissioner Egan: The other three corners are all out on the line, aren't they?

Mr. Lubekin: Yes. The owner, Mr. Rekoon, would like to start the building operations immediately. He has his brick upon the lot. It certainly would be a help.

Commissioner Murray: I move that the rules be suspended.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Isadore Rekoon (Rekoon Construction Company, owner) for the construction of a 2-story store and apartment building beyond the required set back line; premises 368-372 Chancellor Avenue;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

The following application was received and read:

Board of Commissioners,
Newark, N. J.

In Re: Application to :
Enlarge Cemetery : Application

To Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, Essex County, New Jersey:

The application of the Evergreen Cemetery respectfully shows:

1. Applicant, The Evergreen Cemetery, is a corporation of the state of New Jersey and owns and operates for cemetery purposes, a large plot of ground known as The Evergreen Cemetery, in the City of Newark, Essex County, New Jersey.

2. Applicant desires to obtain authority to use for cemetery purposes certain lands held by it in fee and other lands obtained by it by the vacation of parts of Dayton Street and parts of Van Vechton Street and Sedgwick Avenue, all of said lands being contiguous to its present cemetery holdings and lying north of the northwesterly line of Dayton Street.

3. On January 14th, an ordinance was passed by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark vacating parts of Dayton Street, Van Vechton Street and Sedgwick Avenue, which said streets and the lands comprising the same then became the property of the Evergreen Cemetery, the vacation of said streets, being part of a program to straighten Dayton Street as it now exists, and for the straightening of which present Dayton Street the said The Evergreen Cemetery conveyed to the City of Newark certain pieces of property, the consideration for which was a verbal agreement entered into by the Commissioners of the City of Newark to permit The Evergreen Cemetery to straighten the lines of its cemetery holdings to conform to the new northwesterly line of Dayton Street and to use said property lying north of said northwesterly line of the present Dayton Street for cemetery purposes.

4. The land which The Evergreen Cemetery now prays permission to use for cemetery purposes, all of which is situate, lying and being in the City of Newark, is described as follows:—

WHEREAS, on January 14th, 1921, an ordinance was passed by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark vacating parts of Dayton Street, as previously laid out, Van Vechton Street and Sedgwick Avenue, which said streets and the land comprising the same then became the property of The Evergreen Cemetery, a corporation of the State of New Jersey; and

WHEREAS, the said The Evergreen Cemetery conveyed to the City of Newark certain pieces of property necessary for the straightening of Dayton Street, as now laid out, and for which conveyances the consideration was a verbal agreement by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark to permit The Evergreen Cemetery to straighten the lines of its cemetery holdings to conform to the new northwesterly line of Dayton Street, and to use said property lying north of said northwesterly line of the present Dayton Street for cemetery purposes;

BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that The Evergreen Cemetery be, and it hereby is, given full consent to use for cemetery purposes the lands now owned by it and more particularly described as follows, all of which property is located in the City of Newark, Essex County, New Jersey:

BEGINNING in the northwesterly line of Dayton Street as recently opened by the City of Newark where the same is intersected by the division line between the Counties of Union and Essex; thence running along the division line between the Counties of Union and Essex north 48 degrees 56 minutes west 298.66 feet to an angle in same; thence still along said division line north 9 degrees 08 minutes 07 seconds west 52.72 feet to the westerly line of old Dayton Street (now vacated); thence along the same north 24 degrees 57 minutes east 218 feet to a point of curvature; thence still along the same on a curve to the right with a radius of 68 feet for a distance of 85.75 feet; thence along the northerly line of old Dayton Street (now vacated) south 82 degrees 48 minutes east 474.37 feet to an angle; thence still along the said northerly line of old Dayton Street north 74 degrees 59 minutes east 69.25 feet to an angle; thence still along old Dayton Street (now vacated) north 55 degrees 54 minutes east 127 feet to the northwesterly line of Dayton Street as recently opened by the City of Newark; and thence along the northwesterly line of Dayton Street as recently opened by the City of Newark south 48 degrees west 768.71 feet to the division line between the Counties of Union and Essex and the point or place of BEGINNING.

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.,

City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., January 20, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of January 13th were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An Ordinance to amend an Ordinance entitled, "An ordinance to provide for the opening and widening of Ferry Street on the southerly side thereof from New Jersey Railroad Avenue southerly to East Mechanic Street; for the opening and widening of Market Street on the northerly side thereof from Commercial Street easterly to Commerce Street; for the opening and widening of Commercial Street on the southeasterly side thereof from Commerce Street northeasterly to the Passaic River", adopted November 6, 1929, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Joseph Zemel, 289 Market Street, objected to the additional appropriation as provided in the ordinance. He said the work so far had cost enough. He said that the Newark tax rate is very little if not short of confiscation.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Zemel, I agree with you in many things which you have said; but so far as the City acquiring that property, you are about a year and a half or two years behind the times. The ordinance to acquire those two triangles as part of this improvement was passed, speaking now from recollection, I think fully a year and a half ago.

Mr. Zemel: That is right, sir.

Mayor Congleton: Practically all of the property has been acquired except a few pieces, three or four pieces, and when that ordinance was before the City Commission this council chamber was crowded with people from the Ironbound District and around that section urging us to pass the ordinance and acquire the property. The reason for this supplemental ordinance is because property owners have apparently demonstrated to the satisfaction of condemnation commissioners and struck juries that their property was worth more than we thought it was. And the purpose of this is to increase and place the city in funds to pay for land which we have already condemned and where the time within which it can be abandoned has passed.

Mr. Zemel: I recall, Mr. Mayor, that I was here at the time that ordinance was passed. I recall also objecting very vigorously to that part of the ordinance which provides for the assessment as a local improvement.

Mayor Congleton: Didn't we tell you at that time that we recognized that the greatest part of this cost would have to be borne by the city at large, but if we did not put the ordinance in as a local improvement no property at all could be assessed for any particular benefit it received; and I think you will agree with me that there will be certain pieces of property that were interior lands that are now given frontage on these, on what I believe will be beautiful plazas, and they should pay some benefit assessment.

Mr. Zemel: That is right.

Mayor Congleton: But you can feel assured that the greatest part of this cost down and around the Pennsylvania Station will be thrown upon the city at large, because I recognize it myself as a general improvement almost wholly, but certain properties that were interior land that are now given frontage on these beautiful plazas on both sides of the railroad, should pay some assessment for benefits for that improvement; and if it is not stated in the ordinance that it is a local improvement we cannot assess a single dollar.

Mr. Zemel: Very well, sir. Thank you.

Mr. Herman Schlesinger, Ferry Street. I am a taxpayer in the Ironbound District close to fifty years, and I know something about the section. I fail to see where the Pennsylvania Railroad—I don't care, with all the highways and byways, the City of Newark is building—will do any good for the Ironbound District. The Ironbound District today is lost beyond any repair, I don't care whether it is near the depot or where it is. What will we have there? A Chinese wall.

Mayor Congleton: No. You will see a station on your side dressed up in limestone just the same as the side that fronts toward Broad Street.

Mr. Schlesinger: That is the rear part.

Mayor Congleton: You may call it the rear, but it will have very excellent entrances and exits, and the station proper will carry just as much ornamentation on that side of the track as it does on the other.

Mr. Schlesinger: Mr. Mayor, you, as well as everybody else, know what the Ironbound District is today. You cannot get the people from up on the hill to move back. What we have left there is the poorer class of people that cannot make any money. There is no reason why Ferry Street should pay what the rest of the city will have the benefit. We won't have any more benefit than on the boundary line from Orange or Montclair or Irvington or anywhere else. Those people have just as much benefit as the people on Ferry Street.

Mayor Congleton: I tried to make that clear in reply to Mr. Zemel, that we all recognize it that in the largest part it is a general improvement, and the cost will be spread throughout the City; but there will be certain specific pieces of property that were interior pieces that will be given frontage on prominent streets, and if our ordinance was not worded as it is worded we could not assess them one dollar for that. That is the purpose of calling it a local improvement.

Mr. Schlesinger: Well, I cannot understand what it will do us any good. One half of Ferry street today is empty. You cannot rent nothing. People don't pay no rent.

Mayor Congleton: I only know this, that as head of the Department that has charge of streets and lighting and things of that kind, that practically ever since I have been in charge of the Department I have had demands from the Ironbound Section that they felt that in times gone by they had been neglected, and they have asked for the pavement of streets, for improvements, and it has been done to the extent of several millions of dollars.

Mr. Schlesinger: Right.

Mayor Congleton: So that it is not fair to say that the Ironbound District did not want them and that their property was not going to be benefited. If that is their present belief it is a recent conversion to that point of view, because since October, 1923, when I took charge of the department the Ironbound District, through its representatives, have been on my back constantly for improvements, and they have gotten them; and part of the debt that we hear so much about now was created to give the Ironbound Section the improvements they were demanding.

Mr. Schlesinger: For the most improvements, paying interest for their assessments, they cannot pay it.

Mayor Congleton: That may be so, but so do I pay assessments.

Mr. Schlesinger: So do I pay. I am a property owner nearly for fifty years. I cannot pay the interest on the taxes or assessments. I was the prince of merchants considered in the Ironbound District.

Commissioner Egan: We always called you the Mayor of Ferry Street.

Mr. Schlesinger: I am talking Ferry Street. My property is affected on Ferry Street as well as the other gentlemen, the same identical thing. It is a pity to put on the taxpayers such a burden as that when we cannot pay it.

Mayor Congleton: I just want to make this one point: You must keep before you, the same as we have to, that the contract calling for these improvements was made in January, 1929, before any so-called Wall Street crash or depression. The contracts were made, and you know what a contract is. The commitments were made at that time. Of course, times have changed and we have cut down on making any new improvements, that we are not permitted to because of the times, but we have got to go ahead with these that we have solemnly obligated ourselves to do, and that is all we are doing.

Mr. Schlesinger: Well, it is mighty tough on the Ironbound District, because the Ironbound District is hit harder—

Mayor Congleton: The Ironbound District as a district will pay very very little toward this improvement. It will be paid by the real estate property of the entire city in the largest part.

Mr. Schlesinger: Why, it is only two weeks ago that we appeared before the Assessment Commissioners and we demanded a reduction to reassess the valuation of property. No property owner today can stand it. It is almost impossible. And today we are facing an increase in taxes yet. Mr. Mayor, if the City paid for the triangle there, that was overpaid. Every living person that knows anything about property knows that. The whole Ironbound District is hit hard because we have no outlet.

Mayor Congleton: We agree with you in that, that we overpaid.

Mr. Schlesinger: Springfield Avenue or Orange Street has an outlet and highways, which does not bring any revenue to the Ironbound District. That was told to me by a man that moved away from there. I urged him to come back. He said "I would rather be dead up on the hill than alive in the Ironbound District." It hurts me to come here, gentlemen, before you in open meeting to say that, because every penny I possess is invested in the Ironbound District today and we do not get any return, absolutely. You can do just as you feel like.

Mr. Louis Adler, 50 Shanley avenue: I agree with the Mayor that he has explained to us that he improved the Ironbound District. He improved the Ironbound District and Doremus Avenue for the factory purposes, but we are on Ferry Street carrying the load, carrying the budget, carrying everything on Ferry Street.

Mayor Congleton: You are going to have your day before the Assessment Commissioners—not the tax commissioners downstairs, but the Assessment Commissioners for improvements.

Mr. Edler: We were there before that thing came up, and they explained to us, away before they started to talk and they told us that it is going to be an improvement for the whole city or for the whole Essex County.

Mayor Congleton: That is what I tried to make clear, that the properties around there will get a very very small assessment, and only where a piece of property gets some particular benefit. The rest is paid for by the City at large.

Mr. Frederick Zipf, Ferry Street: Am I to understand, your Honor, that most of this expense will be put on the abutting property?

Mayor Congleton: No, sir. I have said that most of it would be put upon the city at large.

Mr. Zipf: On the city at large. Because it seems to me inconceivable at this time, with finances as they are, that a small area like the Fifth Ward of the Ironbound District should be called upon to pay such a sum as that.

Mayor Congleton: You won't be called upon to pay but a very very small assessment; and if the Assessment Commissioners think your particular property has not received a special benefit, a benefit over and above what property generally receives, you won't be assessed anything.

Mr. Zipf: Then it is really up to the Assessment Commission to tell us what benefit we received, if anything.

Mayor Congleton: And you will get notice of the hearing before them, and you can tell your story and have your day in court before them on it.

Mr. Zipf: All right. That will be satisfactory. I thank you.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

(No response).

No one else appearing, Commissioner Egan moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance to amend an Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance to provide for the opening and widening of Ferry Street on the southerly side thereof from New Jersey Railroad Avenue southerly to East Mechanic Street; for the opening and widening of Market Street on the northerly side thereof from Commercial Street easterly to Commerce Street; for the opening and widening of Commercial Street on the southeasterly side thereof from Commerce Street northeasterly to the Passaic River," adopted November 6, 1929.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the ordinance by sections:

Title declared open to amendment.

Section 1 declared open to amendment.

Section 2 declared open to amendment.

The ordinance was declared open to amendment in all its parts.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordinance be adopted on second reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that said ordinance be ordered to a third reading.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordinance be taken up on third reading and final passage.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the title of "An Ordinance to amend an Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance to provide for the opening and widening of Ferry Street on the southerly side thereof from New Jersey Railroad Avenue southerly to East Mechanic Street; for the opening and widening of Market Street on the northerly side thereof from Commercial Street easterly to Commerce Street; for the opening and widening of Commercial Street on the southeasterly side thereof from Commerce Street northeasterly to the Passaic River," adopted November 6, 1929," be taken for its third reading.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the title of the ordinance as follows:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Building Commissioner, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Harold Burdett, owner, for an automobile repair shop for a period of one year; premises 493 South Nineteenth Street;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Mark B. Warner, owner, for the construction of a 2-story store and apartment building beyond the prevailing set back line, on condition that there be no store entrance, show window or commercial signs on the Park View side of the building, and that face brick be used on the north, west and south sides; premises 128-130 Lyons Avenue.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Commissioner Egan: Were there any objections?

Mr. Rankin: There were objectors present but they all went away satisfied, as near as I could tell, with the exception of one man.

Commissioner Egan: You do not know whether the Board of Adjustment were of the opinion that these objectors were satisfied or not?

Mr. Rankin: I do, all except one man. Every one else was satisfied, and we adjourned it and straightened all these points out. The main objection was to the store entrance to this corner store, and that has been taken out. The show window that he had here (indicating) has been taken out.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. O'Toole, will you read those conditions?

City Clerk O'Toole: "For the construction of a two-story store and apartment building beyond the prevailing set-back line, on condition there is no store entrance, show window or commercial signs on the Park View side of the building, and that face brick be used on the north, west and south sides."

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

(Upon motion of Commissioner Gillen, seconded by Commissioner Egan, the vote was reconsidered.)

(Upon motion by Commissioner Gillen, seconded by Commissioner Egan, the matter was laid over to January 27, 1932.)

The following communications were received and read:

January 15, 1932.

Dear Sir:-

As a life-long resident of Newark and for the past 16 years a property owner, I wish to protest against any continuation of our present high taxes and wish you and your fellow Commissioners would take a drastic step to bring about a reduction.

Taxes have jumped three times what they were in 1916.

Teachers overpaid.

Request 10% reduction in all City employees.

Life-long Newark Citizen.

Referred to Budget Conference.

207 Aster Street,
Newark, N. J. January 16, 1932.

Mayor Congleton
Newark, N. J.

My dear Mr. Congleton:

It is possible you thought me presumptuous in my remarks and suggestions per my letter of December 21st. However, since that time I have made quite an extensive trip among our trade to ascertain what conditions promise for 1932. After having read various newspapers I brought back several clippings, which I would appreciate your glancing over as they seem to be strictly in accord with my views.

At this time I cannot urge too strongly the matter of getting down overhead, and I do not know of any industrial concern who has not been obliged to cut salaries very extensively to preserve their business. As a taxpayer of this city I most strenuously stand for the reduction of salaries of all city employees of all kinds.

Yours very truly,
George J. Grosman, President,

Court Montefiore, No. 32
10 Charlton Street
Newark, N. J. January 16, 1932.

Hon. Jerome T. Congleton,
City Hall,
Newark, N. J.

Dear Sir:

In accordance with a resolution adopted at a well attended meeting held on January 13, 1932, by Court Montefiore No. 32, Foresters of America, composed of members who are residents of this city that have frequent occasion to use transportation facilities to bring them to and from Springfield Avenue;

I am directed to inform you that the removal of buses from Springfield Avenue will cause considerable hardship and inconvenience for thousands of our citizens that depend on these buses for the most direct means to reach their desired destinations.

Therefore we most earnestly request that you do not permit the deprivation of the now meager means of transportation to our citizens, but, instead, if it is found that congestion must be relieved for free movement of traffic on Springfield Avenue, the cumbersome electric cars should be replaced with modern buses to secure the required relief.

It is further suggested that, for convenience to thousands of our citizens who desire to come and go from Springfield Avenue daily, crosstown bus service be established at strategic points for greater convenience to reach this important section of our city, and for relief of now congested arteries of traffic.

Yours truly,
Court Montefiore No. 32,
Foresters of America
Gotlieb Jacobs, Secretary.

Referred to the Mayor.

Newark, N. J., January 15, 1932.

Hon. Jerome T. Congleton, Mayor,
Newark, New Jersey.

Dear Sir:

As citizens and taxpayers of the City of Newark, we lodge a protest against some of the conditions prevailing on public work in this city.

Station, in which the City participate First. On the new Pennsylvania Station, in which the City participate financially, Jersey City ironworkers are employed 100% to the exclusion of Newark ironworkers. J. Rich Steers is contractor.

Second. On the Passaic River Valley Sewer relocation the same situation as to Jersey City labor prevails. The Foundation Company of New York is the contractor.

Third. On the Weequahic High School a number of Jersey City ironworkers are employed doing work that should be done by Newark citizens.

Economic conditions are such that employment of local men on local projects appears not only advisable but necessary. Other cities are following this plan in their efforts to relieve unemployment distress. This is particularly true of Jersey City where recently in following the plan, Newark workmen on a municipal project were stopped by the police and, later assaulted and driven off the job by armed Jersey City residents.

We believe we are well within our rights in requesting you and your fellow City Commissioners to investigate the situation we outlined above and to take steps to the end that our demand that we Newarker's be given opportunity to work on these semi-municipal jobs be complied with.

Signed by William Weeley and nine other citizens.

Mayor Congleton: I think there is a delegation here who want to be heard. Do you want to be heard further? The Board will hear anything in addition you want to say.

Mr. William L. Brown, 248 Broad Street:

Honorable Mr. Mayor and Commissioners: The communication pretty nearly tells you just what we are after. And what we are here for is to ask if you could do anything for us in regards to getting some of this work that rightfully belongs to us. There is a lot of work in the city at the present time the city is paying part of it, is going on one hundred per cent. foreign labor—that is what we call labor from out of the city and county.

Mayor Congleton: Your communication spoke first of the Pennsylvania Railroad. I have taken that up with the contractors and the Pennsylvania Railroad with the view of trying to see what I can do to get that condition corrected, and I will continue to pursue that. The next work that you refer to is the Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission job. You do not specify in your communication what class of labor or mechanics are working there, because there are no iron workers there, are there?

Mr. Brown: Reinforced iron. That belongs to our local.

Mayor Congleton: That belongs to your work?

Mr. Brown: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: We will take that up with the Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission. The third item you refer to is the new City High School on Chancellor Avenue.

Mr. Brown: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: I have already talked with Mr. Young, president of the Board of Education, and he said he would take it up. He was strongly in favor of only Newark mechanics and laborers being used on a Newark job. Now, what class of people are on that job that are from out of town, steel workers?

Mr. Brown: Structural steel, yes, sir. And I don't know whether we would like to bring up a little about the county work too while we are here.

Mayor Congleton: Of course, we have no jurisdiction over county work. You would have to go before the Board of Freeholders on that.

Mr. Brown: Just to cite what is going on here in our jurisdiction with work that I say rightfully belongs to us, here it is the end of the Victor Taylor job, the highway, the men that is supposed to be fifty-fifty. It is only here a few days ago they started the other end. He has the end in Hudson County.

Mayor Congleton: You are speaking of Route 25?

Mr. Brown: Yes, sir.

Mayor Congleton: That is state highway, that is not county.

Mr. Brown: It is to show what this local in Hudson County is doing to us here. They demand for work fifty-fifty on that work, and when they start work on that approach, no, they don't put number 11, they put 45. When the lay-off came instead of laying off 45 men from out of the county they laid off our men. We have no representative at all. We are supposed to have, but we don't have it. Our representative don't give us no break at all. He is working under orders from somebody else.

Mayor Congleton: You are all steel workers and residents of Newark?

Mr. Brown: Every one of us.

Mayor Congleton: And have been for some time?

Mr. Brown: And have been for the last ten years.

(Two others in delegation answered that they had been residents of Newark for twelve and twenty-three years respectively.)

Commissioner Gillen: There are no Newark men working on this job now?

Mr. Brown: On Route 25?

Commissioner Gillen: Yes.

Mr. Brown: Why, on this end.

Commissioner Gillen: This end of the bridge?

Mr. Brown: Yes, sir, this end of the bridge, it is all in Essex County from the Passaic River this way. They even went as far they demand fifty-fifty, and your Honor, yesterday, they laid off three men from this local.

Mayor Congleton: Personally, I am in favor and will do all that I can to see that all public work that we have any jurisdiction over that is paid for by the taxpayers of Newark is given to Newark mechanics and Newark laborers. I have tried to follow that policy out on the City Railway and on the work of the Pennsylvania Railroad in so far as we have jurisdiction. I will continue to do it and will do my best to assist you in getting some of the work that is being paid for with the taxpayers' money if it can be done.

Commissioner Egan: In order to bring it before the Commission formally, I move you it is the sense of this Commission that all work that the City Commissioners have anything to do with, the labor in connection with it be supplied from residents of Newark in preference to any other residents. I do not think it is fair for outside labor to come in here and be given the opportunity to be employed on jobs that are being paid for out of public funds when our men in Newark are idle.

Commissioner Gillen: I second the motion.

Mayor Congleton: Any further remarks on the motion?

Commissioner Murray: It was agreed by the Pennsylvania Railroad at the time the contracts were signed, by Mr. Hulme, that they would use fair labor and local labor.

Commissioner Egan: They are certainly not fair to local labor when they hire men outside of the city when we have men in the city to do the work.

Mayor Congleton: I would like to state further that in all of the contracts that the City Commissioners prepare and directly let the work, we have clauses in the contracts that the contractors shall not use anything but local labor where it is available, and that he shall pay the prevailing rate of wage; and we reserve to ourselves the right to claim the contract breached if he does not do it. The contract also contains a clause that if there is any dispute as to what is the prevailing rate, that question must be referred to the Commissioner of Labor of the State of New Jersey. In other words, we have put in our local city contracts the language of the statute that was passed by the legislature last year, only changing it from "New Jersey" to "Newark."

Mr. Brown: We have tried everything, other ways and other means to get this work, and this is our last resort. We went to our representatives and they will not do anything for us. It is up to them. They could do it if they wanted to. It is a topic which would take too long—you would not listen to me anyway—but that is the fact, we can not get no place.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen: I think we ought to pass a motion now, Mr. Mayor, to communicate with the State Highway Commission that protest has been made here that Newark citizens have not been given work being done in Newark, and requesting that city residents be given preference on all this work.

Commissioner Howe: I second that motion.

Commissioner Egan: Why don't you include in that motion the same attitude be expressed from us to the Board of Education and to the Board of Chosen Freeholders.

Commissioner Gillen: I will do that.

Mayor Congleton: The State Highway, Board of Education, and I would say Pennsylvania Railroad and Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission.

Commissioner Gillen: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: The City Clerk will be directed to address a communication to all those various bodies in accordance with the motion passed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan Gillen, Howe, Murray Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan: We are all in agreement with you gentlemen.

Mr. Brown: Thank you very much.

Mayor Congleton: Does any other person have any matters they desire to take up with the Board of Commissioners?

A petition from the Ironbound Manufacturers' Association recommending to the City of Newark and to the State Highway Commission the establishment of a new link to the State Highway system in Newark connecting Route No. 25 and Route No. 21 by the use of the Morris Canal for a roadway was read and ordered referred to the Mayor.

Mr. T. McCurdy Marsh, 24 Commerce Street:

Mr. Mayor, May I present the recommendation of the Ironbound Manufacturers' Association in connecting with the establishment of the new link to the State Highway System between Route 25 and Route 21. This proposal contemplates connecting Route number 25 and Route number 21 by the use of the Morris Canal bed running along to the north of Raymond Boulevard and then continuing under the Pennsylvania tracks into River Street and so joining with Route number 21 at or near the Aronson Circle. In giving this recommendation to the Commission, and through them perhaps to the State Highway Commission, the Ironbound Manufacturers have ascertained that Raymond Boulevard as it is presently situated and used, is very greatly congested, and they believe that with the opening of Route 25 Raymond Boulevard will be so heavily congested as to be almost unusable for their purposes by reason of the inflow of through traffic which will come in through Route 25. In order to relieve this condition, therefore, their suggestion is that taking the ramp that comes down from Route 25 where it intersects with the Lincoln Highway, instead of stopping at Lockwood Street to continue on, which is shown in the shaded area on this diagram; then runs under Chapel Streets, parallels Raymond Boulevard between that and the Passaic River, and continues on as shown in this shaded diagram. Now, the reasons which they urge with reference to the congestion on Raymond Boulevard as it now exists, I think is apparent if you are familiar with the conditions of that street today. But when Route number 25 is opened, then you will find a situation at Lockwood Street which we point out, where there will be a very bad point of intersection because the westbound traffic will have to turn into Lockwood Street and then into Raymond Boulevard, making a very sharp point of intersection, with first a right and then a left turn. We think that this plan would eliminate this danger point.

Commissioner Egan: Have you any estimate of the cost?

Mr. Marsh: We haven't gone into the estimate of the cost. By the use of the Morris Canal bed—

Mayor Congleton: Haven't you almost that very thing today with Passaic Avenue? You don't show Passaic Avenue on this map, but Passaic Avenue and Raymond Boulevard, when it comes down underneath the new railroad tracks, will work its way out into Market Street, and in a very short distance hits Passaic Avenue and Passaic Avenue is a new City street made only a few years ago which connects right with Route 25 and goes to Jersey City, and connects with Lockwood Street. Now, so far as the use of the canal is concerned, we have always had in mind that some time sooner or later, and as things are today it will probably be considerably later, the further use of the canal. But it is absolutely impossible for us, and I think it is also impossible for the State Highway Commission, if they are going to follow out in any way the recommendations of the Governor as contained in his message yesterday, to start new projects. We are quite in accord that something has got to be done down there, but we doubt very much if it can be done for some considerable time. The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark is concentrating on trying to have the State Highway Commission complete the things that commitments have already been made for and not to try to spread out for more until they finish what they promised us they would do.

Mr. Marsh: But the reason, of course is two-fold, which brings this matter to a head at the present time. We regard this as really part of Route 25 and Route 21. Now, if this is to be adopted at all it cannot be adopted after the Pennsylvania Railroad has completed the improvements, because this goes under the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad—

Mayor Congleton: So will our new street.

Mr. Marsh: Of course, I haven't that shown on this diagram so I cannot tell exactly where that is.

Mayor Congleton: Raymond Boulevard will go underneath the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks.

Mr. Marsh: That is shown here.

Mayor Congleton: And it will be a very wide street; and you come right out underneath that going up toward the river, and you have got River Street, and you are right on Route 21.

Mr. Marsh: That is shown on this diagram.

Mayor Congleton: Now, you cannot get a second underpass underneath the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Mr. Marsh: I assume you can, when the engineer draws a diagram for us.

Mayor Congleton: Engineers can show almost anything on paper. But it has been our purpose to keep from the river toward Raymond Boulevard, and we are compelled to keep it open for the city dock.

Mr. Marsh: Well, this has that in mind, the city dock, and those just behind it. That is the dock that is north of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Commissioner Egan: You have in mind using the canal bed at Raymond Plaza East?

Mr. Marsh: The canal bed; following this diagram and commencing at River Street—of course, this does not immediately follow the canal bed as it goes past and under the Pennsylvania tracks. Then it picks up the canal bed and follows the canal bed right on down to the junction of Route 25 at Lockwood Street.

Commissioner Egan: I think our plan now takes in part of the canal bed and Raymond Boulevard East.

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

Commissioner Egan: I do not see how you could get another street in there.

Mr. Marsh: By measurement— I am assuming that the engineer who prepared this diagram has measured the ground sufficient to ascertain the possibility of constructing this street.

Commissioner Egan: The only good thing about your plan as I see it at the moment, it is the sort of thing that perhaps the State should pay for entirely.

Mr. Marsh: It proposes to take care of the traffic coming in on Route 25, taking it up, and if it is northbound it takes it up so it can go into Route 21.

Mayor Congleton: They can do that very easily now when we get our new streets—

Mr. Marsh: It takes it off the city streets and puts it into the state highway.

Mayor Congleton: And you will have a strip of land, speaking now from recollection that won't be more than sixty feet deep between Passaic Avenue and your proposed route in the bed of the Morris Canal. Now, our plan has always been, in conjunction with the state highway, that as the need becomes apparent, and after we have gotten finished the things that the state highway has made commitments for here in Newark from time to time as it becomes necessary, to widen Passaic Avenue on what we might call the Passaic River side; and we do now take up in our contemplated improvements in and around the Pennsylvania Station part of the bed of the Morris Canal. And we intended to widen out Raymond Boulevard as it hits Market Street as part of this improvement. We are postponing that because of the times and the difficulty of financing. And several of these matters will have to be left. And, personally, I am in accord with the Governor's program of the State Highway soft pedaling a little bit on undertaking new projects, and completing some of the things that they have started which affect Newark very much,—referring especially now to Route 21 where they have bought a great deal of property, taken it out of our ratables, and we want to get that back into Route 21 before we attempt to start anything else.

Mr. Marsh: I might point out in that connection that the Manufacturers' Association has in mind that by this link the construction of Route number 10 will be perhaps made unnecessary through this section in the immediate present.

Mayor Congleton: Route 10 was never proposed to go down there.

Mr. Marsh: But this will take the traffic coming from the Hudson Tunnels, bringing it out over Route 25, over this link and into Route 21. In other words, it will carry the traffic which Route number 10 would have been otherwise compelled to bear.

Mayor Congleton: You will find a good part of that traffic leaving your highway and going over the Belleville Pike and down into Newark. They will hit Route 21 at the Belleville bridge, which is partly completed—

Mr. Marsh: Route number 10 is completed out on the western part.

Mayor Congleton: That is as far as it will be completed, I think for some time.

Commissioner Egan: Completed beyond the mountain.

Mr. Marsh: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Marsh, this is, undoubtedly, looking to the future, a very good thing; but at this time it is almost impossible for us to think of taking up new enterprises.

Mr. Marsh: We are asking for its serious consideration—

Commissioner Howe: Have you been down that way at any time?

Mr. Marsh: Yes, I have been down that way.

Commissioner Howe: Did you find any canal bed?

Mr. Marsh: You mean a present canal bed or the remains of the canal bed?

Commissioner Howe: The canal bed is filled up to street level. I don't think anyone would undertake to excavate it after having been filled in, and it is running parallel with the new street.

Mr. Marsh: This is the use of the canal bed, not necessarily at the level of the original base of the canal; this is on the surface; but is using the ground that the canal bed used to utilize.

Commissioner Howe: That is different. It is up top.

Commissioner Egan: I move it be referred to his Honor the Mayor so he can have Mr. Costello study it from an engineering standpoint.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does any other person have any matter that he desires to take up with the Commission his morning?

Commissioner Howe: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The ordinance having been read three times was then declared to be upon its third and final passage.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance authorizing the issuance of $1,000,000. Haynes Avenue Bridge Bonds of The City of Newark.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark Do Ordain as follows:

Section 1. Pursuant to Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916 of New Jersey, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, negotiable bonds of The City of Newark, to be known as "Haynes Avenue Bridge Bonds," and to be dated not later than May 1, 1932, are hereby authorized to be issued in the aggregate principal amount of $1,000,000. for the purposes hereinafter stated, for which purposes it is necessary to raise said sum of money.

Section 2. The money to be raised by the issuance of said bonds shall be applied to the purpose of paying for the erection of a bridge or viaduct, of stone, concrete or iron construction, over the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company at Haynes Avenue, from Frelinghuysen Avenue to Carnegie Avenue (a public street in said City), and the grading of said portion of Haynes Avenue necessitated by the construction of said bridge.

Section 3. In the event that there are any outstanding temporary loan bonds or notes issued to pay the cost of said improvements, the money herein authorized to be applied to the cost of such improvements, shall be applied to the payment of such bonds or notes.

Section 4. The following matters are hereby determined and declared, pursuant to the requirements of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended:

(a) The improvements for which bonds are hereby authorized to be issued were not completed prior to May 1, 1931, and said improvements are of the classes described in Subdivisions (k) and (U) of Subsection (2) of Section 4 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended.

(b) The probable period of usefulness of said improvements, computed in the manner prescribed by Section 4 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended, is thirty years, beginning on the date of said bonds.

(c) No part of the cost of the improvements for which bonds are hereby authorized to be issued has been or is to be specially assessed against property specially benefited thereby.

(d) The average assessed valuation of the taxable real property (including improvements) of said The City of Newark, computed upon the next preceding three valuations thereof, in the manner provided in Section 12 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended is $731,272,081.00.

(e) The net debt of said City, computed in the manner provided in said Section 12, as amended, is $45,654,944.97.

(f) The statements required by said Section 12 (showing said net debt, etc.) have been made and filed with the City Clerk, as there-in required.

Section 5. This ordinance shall take effect in the manner provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe moved that February 10th, 1932, at 11 A. M., or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place when and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage, and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading as provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance authorizing the issuance of $600,000. City Building Bonds of The City of Newark.

The Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark Do Ordain as follows:

Section 1. Pursuant to Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916 of New Jersey, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, negotiable bonds of The City of Newark, to be known as "City Building Bonds," and to be dated not later than May 1, 1932, are hereby authorized to be issued in the aggregate principal amount of $600,000, for the purposes hereinafter stated, for which purposes it is necessary to raise said sum of money.

Section 2. The money to be raised by the issuance of said bonds shall be applied in the following sums to the following purposes, respectively, viz.:

(a) The sum of $175,000 for the purpose of paying for the construction of a building, of fireproof construction, on lands owned by the City on Victoria Street near Frelinghuysen Avenue, to be used by the Department of Public Affairs as a garage for the storage of vehicles belonging to the City, as authorized by an ordinance adopted on the 19th day of August, 1931, a purpose of the class described in Clause (c) of Subdivision (I) of Sub-section (2) of Section 4 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended;

(b) The sum of $125,000 for the purpose of paying the cost of reconstructing the Wilson Avenue Bath House (a building of non-fireproof construction) as authorized by an ordinance adopted on the 24th day of June, 1931, a purpose of the class described in Clause (b) of Subdivision (J) of said Sub-section (2);

(c) the sum of $125,000 for the reconstruction of the City's Alms House (a building of non-fireproof construction), as authorized by an ordinance adopted on the 12th day of November, 1931, a purpose of the class described in Clause (b) of Subdivision (J) of said Subsection (2).

(d) The sum of $90,000 for the acquisition of lands at the intersection of Wright Street and Avenue A for use as a public farmers' market and the improvement of said land for said purpose, as authorized by ordinance adopted on the 1st day of April, 1931, and the 3rd day of June, 1931, a purpose of the class described in Subdivision (U) of said Subsection (2).

A communication from the Board of Trustees of The Contemporary Club of Newark, protesting against salary reductions for school teachers, was read and ordered filed.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission this morning?

Mr. O. Henry Grois: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, the Essex Trades Council has a committee here today composed of myself, Mr. Slater, and Mr. Stein; the American Federation of Labor is represented here today by Mr. Henry Hilfers, and the New Jersey Federation of Labor by Hugh V. Reilly.

The above named organizations that I have given you here today are all of them, each and every one, unitedly behind the policies of the American Federation of Labor not to allow at this time any wage cuts in any salaries of any employees. We take that stand and we come here to back up the City Commission and to tell them that we are with them whole-heartedly and that we do not want to see any of the municipal employees affected by any wage cuts. We do not want to see the Chamber of Commerce or any other organization solicit your support in behalf of decreasing the wages of our municipal employees.

Mr. Henry F. Hilfers, 41 Franklin Street:

I am here not alone representing the American Federation of Labor, but I am also a voter and taxpayer of the City of Newark. And for that reason I come here to oppose the conclusion reached by the Newark Chamber of Commerce that the pay of City employees should be reduced at least ten per cent. Has the lowering of wages decreased the unemployment situation? Is the condition in industry and trade improved by the lowering of the earning powers of those that purchase the bulk or use what our factories produce? Has the farmer and other producers of food-stuffs, and the makers and retailers of wearing apparel, and other needs that the workers buy or use, gained anything in any way by the low cost of products and low selling costs? And last but not least, has the wage earner gained anything by these low prices, or could the majority take advantage of that even if they were inclined to? To all this, the answer must be in the negative. In the first place, the cost of living has not decreased in proportion to the earning power of the worker. In the second place, the cost of living and all other commodities cannot remain at the present low level, otherwise everyone will be in the hands of a receiver.

The Chamber of Commerce in the letter directed to the Mayor and the Commission acknowledged themselves that their payrolls have been reduced thirty per cent., that their personnel has been reduced somewhere around twenty per cent., but they only acknowledge a reduction of wages of seven and eight per cent. Now, that latter statement is not based upon facts, and we all know it. We can mention some places where wages have been reduced fifty per cent. Has it helped to better conditions? The bread winners upon whom one fourth of the population of this city is dependent, are out of work and unable to buy the very needs of life. Millions of dollars of work laying dormant because of fear that those that have the money to pay and spend for it and could give out the work, refuse to do it. What is preventing people from having this done? I have answered that already: Lack of confidence, fear, further wage cutting and hoarding. Now it is proposed by the Chambers of Commerce in all of our cities—it is not ours alone, it seems to be an endless chain—to make a bid situation worse. If the City Commission could have the foresight two or three or four years ago to only imagine what was in store for them they probably would not have entered into vast and costly improvements. The Chamber of Commerce did not come here and object to them. No doubt some of the gentlemen in the Chamber of Commerce expected to profit by them. That is business. But those things have started. It cannot be altered. We have got to go along with it to a certain extent. The City has ten million dollars in taxes coming from 1930. Is a further reduction going to bring in all that money into their coffers?

Commissioner Howe: $3,000,000. from 1930.

Mr. Hilfers: $3,000,000. for 1930. but there is a total of $10,000,000.

Commissioner Howe: $10,000,000. for 1931.

Mr. Hilfers: Is a further reduction going to bring further money into your coffers? Why, of course not. The prosperity of this country, gentlemen, rested upon the purchasing power of the working people, which comprised eighty five per cent. of the population of this country. When they are not working they cannot buy, and consequently, all interested suffer. We are going to oppose each and every bill that is introduced in the legislature by Senator Kuser, who even wants to go so far as to reduce the $1200 a year man one per cent. $23 a week he earns, and he wants to reduce him one per cent—$12 a year. $12 a year buys some shoes, clothes and other needful things for children. Perhaps Senator Kuser doesn't think much of $12. I wouldn't either if I were in his place. But the man that only earns $20 a week, it looks great big to him.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Reilly?

Mr. Hugh V. Reilly: I would not be here today, or the committee would not be here today if it was not for what we considered the presumptuous action of a group of our citizens in making suggestions of a salary cut to you. A year ago the country, state and this city were discussing ways and means of finding work to tide us over the then crisis. And during that time, if we can depend upon accounts published in the press last Monday or last Thursday, after a delegation representing the Chamber of Commerce had called upon you—during that time the very men who called upon you reduced the number of their employees by twenty-nine per cent., and thereby threw an added burden upon you gentlemen, upon the state and upon the nation. They increased your burdens by that act by twenty-nine per cent. Not only did they do that, but they cut off the means of paying taxes on the part of many of our citizens. I submit that that kind of a policy is not going to bring us anywhere. I was in this chamber some two or three weeks ago when a delegation from that body appeared before you, and I heard the rejoinder of Commissioner Murray to their proposals wherein he said in substance that if more men are thrown out of work they will only be thrown on his department, and then you will be hard put again to find means of caring for them under poor relief. And I think he put the situation in a nutshell when he spoke in that manner.

Now, one statement in the published account of a week ago that was issued by the tax conference committee, I believe they call themselves, was that it is the belief of the tax conference committee that the city employees, if they were aware of the seriousness of the situation, would not be adverse or antagonistic to a reasonable reduction in compensation. I believe that that phrase in that statement is gratuitous; that the men who wrote it, the men who approved of it before it was submitted to you, knew better to make any statement of the kind.

I have here a few notations taken from many that I have received from city employees, some of them who have not received an increase, although they were entitled to it, in three years time. One fellow—plenty of them pay taxes—one fellow paid taxes of $218.90 in 1931. He had a street assessment of $1222.85, quite an item that he had to pay. I too had to pay only two weeks ago my taxes for 1930. I am not complain about it; I had to pay the added interest, the nine per cent. interest that goes with it, and I am like thousands of others who are in that position, and I dare say I feel myself well off.

It is true proposals have been spoken of for an income tax. Proposals have been made to reduce wages. Proposals have been made for a sales tax which will be paid by the general public and is unjust. But don't you think it is near time—I realize you gentlemen cannot do it—but don't you think it is near time that our whole taxation system was revised?

That exemptions be given to men who own homes for occupancy alone, and that the burden of taxation be placed where it properly belongs, upon the business man and industries of the country. All our business, all our industry, ever since the inception of the government under the very system that we live, has been under the direction and the control of business and commercial interests. And look at what they have brought us to. What a horrible mess they have brought us into. Why then, should we listen to them. Why then should not we give some ear and some consideration to the men who toil? I challenge the statement that Jersey-men favor salary or wage reduction. I realize it has been going on a long while, that it has been going on for a year or two years contrary to the advice of the President of the United States; I realize that the stores and chain stores started it under the guise of making goods cheaper to the housewife; that our department stores carried it on; that even our newspapers, except in the mechanical trade, carried it on and have been carrying it on. It seems everyone has been lending their aid towards making this situation worse. You men may help by making a proposal to our legislature and our federal government to change the taxing system. And if you don't do it, I don't know what may happen in another year. One man has pictured still further reductions, still further stagnation in business. But do you think your average American is going to stand for it forever? Do you think the men and women who have been brought up in our public schools, have breathed the air and imbued the spirit of America, do you think they are going to stand for this twiddle-dum and twiddledee forever? I think they are going to form opinions of their own as to what should be done. But the course of action today is not in wage cutting, it is towards standing by these servants of the public, helping hem to carry the added burden that has been thrust upon them. And if we do that, the tax rate will take care of itself. I thank you.

Mayor Congleton: I think perhaps some short statement should be made. I think all of the city commissioners appreciate to the full the situation that is confronting us. We also recognize that we are rendering a service, municipal service, to the inhabitants of the city of Newark. We are not a business concern, one which in the prosperous days we can build up a surplus to take care of times such as we are now passing through. The commissioners have given very careful study to their budgets of this year, and as the budgets stand today, including the Board of Education, they will show a decrease over the amounts appropriated last year of approximately $633,000. That does not mean, however, unfortunately, that that will be a net reduction when the tax ordinance finally comes before the people, because what we call our debt service, which is interest upon notes that have been issued for the financing of permanent improvements and for the retiring of serial bonds as they come due year by year, will be increased this year $335,000. over last year just as the item was increased last year over the previous year by some $900,000. Now, the reason for that increase is apparent. In our prosperous days and in the early part of January, 1929, the city through its commissioners, at the urgent request, and I might almost say demand, of practically everybody in the city, went forward to make some major improvements that at that time all the people believed were for the benefit of the city. We have made commitments and we have spent, up to date, several millions of dollars. Of course, every time we issue a note at the bank the bank expects the interest paid, and we have only one way to raise it, and that is through the tax budget. When the negotiations for the Pennsylvania and City Railway Improvements were first being conducted it was not contemplated that the Hudson and Manhattan tube trains would be extended to South Street. When the plans came before the public the business interests of the southern end of the city, supported in their demands by practically every other association, demanded that the Hudson and Manhattan tube trains be extended to the southern part of the city. And after negotiations the Pennsylvania Railroad officials, saying that they did not think that the traffic would warrant their making that additional investment, agreed that they would do it provided the city would furnish them with the needed additional right of way. And that was agreed to, and it was all done in the open, and at the hearings on these various matters we received resolutions and personal visits from a great many of the representatives of the associations that now sign the open letter addressed to the Board of Commissioners. One of the signers is the Waverly Manufacturers Association, representing the business interests and other interests of the southern end of the city, who were one of the associations that were most insistent that we should carry the Hudson and Manhattan tube trains to the southern end of the city, and in doing that it involved an additional expense upon the city of several millions of dollars. And again, this letter is signed by the Ironbound Manufacturers Association. When the plans came out, this association, through its representatives and through the property owners of the Ironbound District, appeared here before this Board of Commissioners and insisted that the Ironbound District be taken care of just as well as this side of the railroad tracks. And that resulted in our agreeing to take the two triangles on the east side of the Pennsylvania Railroad which is costing the city very much more than our estimates, the prices having been fixed in many of the cases by condemnation commissioners, made up of the high-class citizens, and I am not criticizing them if it was their best judgment; and further fixed by struck juries after trials in our upper courts. But it was because of the insistent demand of these very associations who now address this open letter to us, that a large part of our debt service, which is the item which will increase our budget, was made. There has been a great deal said about a reduction in pay. The annual payrolls of the city, including the Board of Education, including men that work in the various departments that come under my control who are paid by the hour, referring to the men in the Water Department who work with their pick and shovel, and the men in the Street Cleaning Department pushing brooms and cleaning the streets, and in the Sewer Department and the Garbage Department, including all of them that are paid on the hourly basis, and at not any too great a price today, many of them receiving a rate per hour that even the emergency legislation fixes as the price, including all of them, the annual payroll of the city is approximately $22,000,000. The Board of Education's school budget last year, the total budget was a little over $11,000,000. $9,500,000 of that amount represents salaries; teachers' salaries and janitors' salaries; and the teachers' salaries, under the law as it stands today, cannot be reduced $6,000,000, and a little more, is the payroll of the Police and Fire Departments, and their salaries cannot be reduced. So that would leave about $6,500,000 covering the other municipal employees, in which is included the men that are paid on a weekly basis in the class of work that I previously referred to. So that when these gentlemen say that we could give a ten per cent. cut and make a saving of $2,200,000, I say that it is not possible under the law as it stands today. And taking your $6,500,000 a ten per cent cut would be $650,000, regardless of whether the man is getting fifty cents an hour or is being paid on the monthly payroll at a higher rate. In addition to which, the City of Newark pays approximately sixty per cent. of the county tax. A great many of their salaries are fixed by law just the same as ours are, and for us to be asked to put a ten per cent. cut on a few individuals and continue to pay the others who have protection by statute full salaries, it strikes me is putting the burden, an unfair burden, upon a very small number of people. And for that reason I shall not vote for a reduction in the salaries until it becomes uniform, state, county and municipal.

Commisisoner Murray: Mr. Mayor, in supporting your statement, I would like to comment to the effect that of the 1065 employees in my department, 453 get $20 a week or less, 811 get $40 or less; and including those whose scale of wages have been established by organized labor, the uniform scale, the prevailing rate of which we have always been aware and which we have always met, adds 168, makes a total of 979 out of 1065 who get $60 a week or less. And the deduction of ten per cent. from the salary of a man or woman who is getting $20 a week or $40 a week would be just in line with what the gentlemen who have just addressed this commission this morning said, it would place a shrinkage in the family of the vast majority of each and every one of them, and put the burden where it does not belong; and when it was all said and done it would have only been a flea bite in an attempt to meet the situation. I too am opposed absolutely to the consideration of the question of reduction of salaries except where it is shown that the parties are overpaid.

Mr. Henry Green: I am opposed to reduction of wages, and I believe that we have reached a higher standard of living than we used to have, and it has cut down the Board of Health expense taking care of the sick and diseased. Lower wages means a lower standard of living. I am never in favor of making things lower. The poor people are entitled to all the modern standards of living, and they are entitled to some of the luxuries; automobiles and fine houses were not intended for bankers or chamber of commerce members only, they are intended for the hard producers. Nobody is entitled to the fine things of life so much as the working man; and these gentlemen of the chambers of commerce that think that God made all these luxuries for their own sole purpose, and they are going around to the City of New York administration and this administration, and putting their fingers down and starting to dictate as to what the expense should be. International bankers and national bankers and local bankers think they have got to get hold of the government. When I pass Military Park and I see tin cups of coffee and sandwiches handed out to a line that extends longer that I have ever seen it, and we have today people standing at night in the cold waiting and watching for a place where to get a night's lodging that they cannot afford to pay for their bed, we do not want to make things worse. Nevertheless, we are facing an economic situation of the kind we have never faced before. The city officials and state assemblymen and state senators sooner or later will have to get together and see that whatever power we have on hand to wipe this scourge out if possible. It is not municipal only, it is municipal county and state, as well as national. Two and three years ago I came here and I talked of the terrible situations we are facing, and it is too bad that I came out right. I have constantly applied, and I must say the Mayor and several of the Commissioners held conferences here, and I think we are just beginning to face the situation. I see that Philadelphia is bankrupt, Chicago is bankrupt, and New York City is facing a crisis; and we here in the City of Newark—Judge Freund in this courthouse here says we have in Essex County or in the City of Newark four hundred evictions a month for non-support of rent, and there would be more if it wasn't that some landlords are lenient with their tenants. Nevertheless, the taxpayer is kicking that his taxes are high, and we will have to get together and see what ought to be done. I see in last night's Evening News where the City of Albany, Georgia, by owning its gas plant and its electric plant, municipally run and efficiently run, they have a surplus. The City of Newark will have to, in the future, find ways and means of how to meet the expense of this city, and the gas plant, like our water plant, ought to be owned by the city, and the electric plant ought to be owned by the city, and you would derive a revenue where you could reduce your taxes and pay your working people a decent living wage. And I think that the time is coming shortly that we will have municipal sanitary housing for a reasonable amount of rent, built and constructed on a large scale, so that we can have less of that menace where the people's health, such as smallpox—Commissioner Murray, I think, had over a hundred thousand people to vaccinate, and if these times keep on we will require a whole lot more of vaccination. And gentlemen, I am opposed to reduction in wages. I am in favor of it all over the city of Newark, including officials, should meet and discuss economically the situation. And we need a decent transportation system, municipal buses and municipal railways so that we do not pack our people worse than you would pack cattle and hogs, around five thirty in the afternoon when we try to get home on a bus, and that is a health menace; and the time is coming very shortly that we will have municipal research and have the municipalities develop that which pertains to municipal ownership, gas plants, electric plants, and manage them as efficiently as our water plant is managed, and we will reduce the gas bill cost and electric bill costs, and furnish a fine system of transportation for our people of Newark. And instead of having one bus driver for a two-story bus, have two men there, and you will decrease your unemployment situation there and we will stop creating dividends for idle parasitic owners, who try to reduce the standard of living for those that work, and make the running of this city possible. I thank you.

Newark, N. J., January 21, 1932.

Hon. Jerome T. Congleton,
Mayor, City of Newark,
City Hall, Newark, N. J.

My dear Mayor:

On the first day of July, 1931, on behalf of the Springfield Avenue Merchants Association, I appeared at the open meeting of the City Commissioners and presented in their behalf a protest against the application of the Public Service Co - Ordinated Transport for approval by local consents to change the route of buses on the Springfield Avenue route in the City of Newark, operating between Irvington, South Orange and Newark.

After the hearing, I am informed, the Commissioners by a vote of four to one instructed the Corporation Counsels' office to oppose the application before the Board of Public Utilities Commissioners.

From that date until January 12, 1932, the Board of Public Utilities Commissioners has adjourned the hearings from time to time until Wednesday, when, upon my application on behalf of said Association the hearing on the application was adjourned to Thursday, January 8th, at eleven a. m.

I am advised that at a meeting of the Commissioners held on Tuesday, January 12th, of which neither I nor the Association which I represent had any notice, the matter was moved before the Commissioners and some changes made in the instructions which were given to the Corporation Counsel on July 1, 1931.

I have been requested by the Springfield Avenue Merchants Association to respectfully request a public hearing in connection with this matter before the City Commissioners on January 27th at ten a. m.

Will you be so kind as to arrange for a hearing.

Thanking you, I beg to remain.

Very truly yours,

M. Bilder.

Referred to conference.

A petition, signed by 4,500 citizens protesting against the re-routing of buses off Springfield Avenue, was read and on motion referred to conference.

Mr. Nathan Bilder: Mr. Mayor and members of the Board of Commissioners: I appear here for the Springfield Avenue Merchants Association to protest against the re-routing of buses from Springfield Avenue. Our problem today is not a matter of congestion of traffic, but a question of bread and shelter and food. A trial, I understand, is to be made of the removal of the buses from one of the principal business centers of the community. If you want to see the devastating effect of the removal of a large portion of the traveling public from any concentrated business section, I ask you to visualize Newark Avenue, Jersey City, at one time a very thriving beehive of business activity. Along came the Hudson tubes and removed millions of people from that traveling section, and today that section of Jersey City appears as though some great catastrophe has fallen upon it. That is exactly what we face if you attempt to remove 45,000,000 fares annually that traverse one of the main business arteries of this great city. At the present time there are within a radius of fifteen blocks which will be affected by this removal, some sixty-eight vacant stores. There are nineteen modern buildings that are vacant within a radius of fifteen blocks which is to be affected by this transfer. Can you visualize the result of the removal of this large mass of the traveling public from this thoroughfare? Instead of having sixty-eight vacant stores you will have hundreds of vacant stores; you will have buildings entirely tenantless; you will increase unemployment which has been so graphically described by the Mayor and by the speakers who have preceded me on another question, because, don't forget, that every time one of those stores is closed down, every time one of those buildings is vacated, people are thrown out of work and the unemployment problem becomes more and more acute. At the present time—I don't know, but I venture to say that hundreds of thousands of unpaid taxes are due the city of Newark for property affected by this area. Hundreds of thousands worth of unpaid tax bills by owners of property, by merchants who at best today, with the business problems that confront them, are unable to make both ends meet. That certainly is no help to the city. It is not time for experiment or trial, gentlemen. This is a time when everything should be done to conserve business to keep people employed, not to ruthlessly tear away from one of the main arteries of this city which it has taken two generations of people to establish as an outstanding business section of this city. I have here the petition of 689 business men and property owners who object to this change being made. This is no time, as I have said before, to make this trial. It is proposed to take the buses off Springfield Avenue and Tenth Street and take them along Eighteenth Avenue, running into Spruce Street down to High Street. I traveled that section this morning. I don't know whether you gentlemen have traveled it recently. I do not see how that helps the traffic problem, if we were concerned with traffic instead of bread problems today. I do not see how it helps this in the slightest. One half the distance already has trolley cars on it, and the other half of the distance is made up of broken down buildings, a few tenement houses and a few small neighborhood stores. And forty-five million fares annually use these buses that are to be transferred from this great artery of business activity over a section that neither requires it nor should have it. Neither public necessity nor convenience demand that this change be made. It seems to me that the great problems that the business men of today have confronting them are only increased by adding to them these additional burdens which will result from removing from this sector so many people. Here you have housed five great banking institutions within this radius of fifteen blocks, one of the largest shoe stores in the city of Newark, a furniture center, and a large department store, all of whom depend upon the traveling public for the business which they do. Are you going to utterly destroy this? And won't you destroy it? The answer is made, as one of the Public Service officials said to me, "Why, the other night I traveled up Springfield Avenue and I got as far as to just below Tenth Street, and I was stopped there for three or four minutes because there were trolleys and buses and cars parked, and I was late for my dinner." Well, that is just too bad. I am terribly sorry for the gentleman who is held up in an automobile in which he was traveling to his home, because of the congestion on a rainy day when buses and trolley cars and cars were parked there. If you want to make a trial, try it on some section that won't be as disastrously affected if the experiment is a failure, or wait until problems, the financial problems which confront these business men today are less onerous than they are. I ask you gentlemen to vote to have the Law Department of the city instructed to cooperate with the business men in preventing this great iniquity being done to the business men of this section. I have here the petitions and I am ready to file them.

Mayor Congleton: The City Clerk will take them.

Mr. Herman W. Brams, 951 Broad Street:

I appear in behalf of the Prince Street Merchants Association, merchants who are located within a radius of about three blocks of Springfield Avenue, concerning which Mr. Bilder has just spoken. As you know, between Springfield Avenue and West Kinney Street there is a great center on Prince Street for the Jewish shoppers living in various sections of the city and in the suburbs, as Irvington, Bloomfield, and other places. For twenty-five or thirty years that I know of, that has been a center of shopping, and the people are accustomed to using the Springfield Avenue buses to reach that particular section. And I think that the removing of the buses from Springfield Avenue will be very detrimental to the interests of the people that I represent, because as the intention is to put it on Spruce Street, and Spruce Street being about seven or eight blocks away from Springfield Avenue, all of that section of Prince Street that is south of West Kinney Street is now practically without any business at all; it won't serve the purpose of the people who want to get to Prince Street for their shopping, and I am sure that those people will be greatly harmed. There is one particular phase of this re-routing that I would like to point out to you, and that is that the proposed location of these buses over Spruce Street, I think is a very harmful thing to do, because Spruce Street is comparatively a narrow throughfare. It is on both sides surrounded by tenement houses, it is very densely populated; and I am sure it is going to be a menace to this district and to the inhabitants that live there, because at the present time I think bus number 42 now passes up Spruce Street, a great many automobiles are using that street since it has been paved, and the addition of these buses is going to be very harmful, very detrimental to the people who live there. There isn't much business on Spruce Street, and nobody will be particularly benefited by having these buses; and I know that the people from Irvington and the sections who want to shop on Prince Street will find it most inconvenient to be left off at Spruce Street and Prince Street instead of at Springfield Avenue and Prince Street, and the people that I represent are absolutely opposed to the re-routing as you contemplate it.

Mr. Edward Schöen, 24 Branford Place: After Mr. Bilder's remarks probably nothing more need to be said or can be said upon the subject; he has covered it so well; but I represent some property owners who are very much disturbed about the possibility of this re-routing, and I have been asked to come here, not as an attorney, nor a paid advocate, but as a citizen and taxpayer, who is interested in the welfare of the people of this section of the city. We all know that transportation is the life blood of any business thoroughfare. No business thoroughfare—no thoroughfare ever became a business thoroughfare without transportation; that is what helped make it a business thoroughfare. The whole thought behind the creation of a business thoroughfare is to find means of bringing people to it. Unless you have the means of bringing people to it you have no potential business thoroughfare. In the early days of our city when our transportation system was being developed, real estate men who wanted to develop a section or make a business street out of a thoroughfare, made some effort to have transportation through that street. And men were induced to locate in those streets because transportation was already there, or because there was already a possibility of getting it there. There isn't a business thoroughfare in Newark today that does not owe its business character to the fact that it has had transportation. Mr. Bilder asked you to visualize a street in Jersey City and the result of taking transportation off it. We do not have to go so far; I ask you gentlemen of this commission to visualize our center market. We had a center market in the city of Newark that for years was a place in which many merchants did a very flourishing business, and it was located on our main street where transportation was ample. That market was moved only a very short distance from its old location to a place where it was difficult to get to, to a place which had no adequate transportation, and the result was that that great undertaking of the city of Newark in which millions of dollars were invested, depreciated, business fell off, and merchants who for years had been doing a flourishing business in the old stands were compelled to go out of business; and the net result of it all was that the city of Newark had to get it off of its hands and rent it to some who who was—

Mayor Congleton: Do you know, as a matter of fact, when the Center Market was on Broad Street it was never self sustaining as long as there were any bonds out against it? We had to raise revenue by taxation to retire the bonds.

Mr. Schoen: It may not have been self sustaining, Mr. Mayor, because the rentals there were exceedingly low, practically nominal; but ask the merchants who were doing business in there and they will tell you it was very sustaining and they did a very fine business, and every one of them did a fine business. The merchants who had their places of business there were doing business, and if the city did not get enough revenue out of it by reason of the low rentals, to make it self-sustaining, that is another matter.

Mayor Congleton: I was a member of the Market Committee for one year while I was in the Council. We attempted to do that and we got the same story we get now from the market people, that "We are paying all the rent that the traffic will bear."

Mr. Schoen: Well, it is natural for people to want to pay as little as they can. But the point is, Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of this Commission, that if you drain your main arteries or your business arteries of transportation, all or part, you are going to have these streets die by pernicious anemia. We have got to find ways of bringing people to these streets, not to take them away; and as has already been said, this is the worst possible time for any experiment for doing anything at all that might by any stretch of the imagination decrease business in any part of the city or in any street in your city in the smallest degree. These merchants are working under trying circumstances and under great difficulty at present. The natural and normal volume of business is not there, and to do anything at this time that will make it more difficult for people to get to the street, or will take and remove any convenient method by which they are now getting to the street, if you only hurt this avenue and the business men in it to the extent of a few thousands of dollars throughout the year, in the aggregate it is going to make an enormous difference in the total volume of business done on that avenue. Then there is another phase of the subject that I think merits your serious consideration. Valuations on this real estate are based upon the fact that it has one or more systems of transportation on it, and the city of Newark cannot justify the same rate of valuations, or the same valuation after removing a part of a transportation system from a thoroughfare that it has levied or assessed against the property under other circumstances more advantageous to that property. I believe that every property owner on this avenue would have a just case before the assessment commissioners, the tax commissioners of this city, or elsewhere, to say that their property value has been depreciated because the assessment values of last year and the years prior thereto was based upon the fact that there were two systems of transportation on that street, one of which has been removed, and to that extent their prospects for doing business and bringing people to that street for the purpose of doing business there, have been diminished and decreased, and that their valuations have correspondingly decreased. I do not think it would be stretching the imagination at all, that if these property owners made that kind of a claim, I believe they would be entitled to consideration for reductions in the assessments on this street, and they would have to be made if you change your transportation system. Now, I am in that section every day, and I do not see that there is any reason why any change in the transportation system should remain.

Commissioner Howe: Mr. Schoen, you and I live on Clinton Avenue, and you and I know why we have to ride in the buses, because we do not have enough trolleys on Clinton Avenue.

Mr. Schoen: I am glad you have spoken of that, Mr. Commissioner, and I hope you will try to remove it. I have not come here to complain about the trolley service in Springfield Avenue or elsewhere, but we who do still ride in trolleys and do not use our private automobiles to and from business, know what inconvenience we have to suffer. The waits on Clinton Avenue, as you say, are beyond all reason in a city of this size.

Commissioner Murray: How would your people and Mr. Bilder's people feel if the diversion of traffic took place at Belmont Avenue and down Court Street over High?

Mr. Schoen: That would not help, Mr. Commissioners. There is a very thriving business section from Belmont Avenue up to Tenth Street and beyond, and the idea is this: These business men depend upon people who are coming into the city from the western section and from the north and the south, who come crosstown and get on the buses and make transfers and changes—

Commissioner Murray: My question is, to keep the buses on Springfield Avenue all the way down to Court Street—Court Street almost parallels Springfield Avenue for a very short distance—

Mr. Schoen: But then there is this group of business men from Belmont Avenue, there may be some one in Irvington who would like to come down to the corner of Charlton Street and Springfield Avenue—

Commissioner Murray: They have only got 150 feet to walk in there.

Mr. Schoen: True, but if you are going to do anything to make it more annoying or inconvenient for the prospective customer who is coming from Irvington or East Orange or South Orange or Union, to make it more inconvenient for him to get to the stores they want to get to, to that extent you are hurting the business of that merchant on that avenue. I say this is no time to do anything that might possibly take business away. All our thoughts and effort ought to be directed to find a means of bringing business to these arteries and not taking it away.

Mr. Nathan Bilder: Will you just indulge me for just one more moment? I want to call to your attention that the hearing before the Public Utility Commission is set for tomorrow, and we would like very much to have the cooperation of the Commissioners at that hearing, and if necessary, to have the counsel seek a postponement of it until you have had a further chance, if you need it, to investigate the matter further. We would not like to have that hearing proceed without the cooperation of the city, which is on tomorrow. I thank you.

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Mayor, I move you that we direct the Law Department to appear at the hearing tomorrow and request an extension, and that we take this up in conference again on next Tuesday.

Commissioner Gillen: I second the motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter they desire to bring to the attention of the Commissioners?

Mr. Edward J. Slater: Mr. Mayor, I appreciate that there has been much said this morning in regards to wage cuts, but I would beg your indulgence for a few moments to bring before you this matter for the purpose of bringing out some of the things which have not been brought out here this morning. To begin with, the Chamber of Commerce in advocating a decrease in wages of city employees, to the minds of organized labor is not sound. Now, when I say that I do not say it simply because it is the thoughts of a few, but because it is the thoughts of the entire organized workers of the city of Newark and of Essex County. You have probably noticed here this morning your chamber is quite full. Most of those who are present are members of organized labor and also taxpayers, and they are opposed unalterably to any scheme that has to do with reducing of wages regarding the city employees. There are also other matters which I believe that you commissioners should take into consideration in this matter; Municipal employees have from time to time contributed to these unemployment funds, and they have also contributed to the upkeep and maintenance of this so-called community chest or welfare federation, and I believe and those identified with organized labor in this locality believe that employees of the City of Newark have done more than they really should be asked to do in regards to taking away some of their earnings. We say taken away, because after all, when a man does give part of his salary it is equivalent to taking away from him, because he personally receives no benefit from it.

Mayor Congleton: When he gives it voluntarily he gets a lot of benefit from it in his heart and conscience.

Mr. Slater: As far as his conscience is concerned, he may.

Mayor Congleton: After all, that is what we want to keep right.

Mr. Slater: But I am talking now from a monetary standpoint. I do not intend to keep you gentlemen here, but I do want to leave this thought with you, that organized labor in its entirety is unalterably opposed to the move to cut wages of municipal employees. I thank you.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else wish to be heard?

Mr. Edward Fenias, 1060 Broad Street:

Mr. Mayor and members of the Commission, with respect to the proposed chicken market at Halstead Street, Newark, at this time may I make application for a re-opening? I have been reliably informed by the applicant that the objector who appeared before the Board of Adjustment has withdrawn his objection. In that event, I believe this Commission might reconsider the merit of our application; and therefore, I respectfully urge that this Commission re-open so that we may present further evidence with respect to this proposed chicken market.

Mayor Congleton: Do I hear any motion on the application?

Commissioner Murray: I move the matter be re-opened.

Commissioner Egan: The reason I objected to the matter, Mr. Mayor, was because the people up there objected to it.

Mr. Fenias: Mr. Schlizzi is here this morning and tells me the objector has withdrawn his objection. I don't know.

Commissioner Murray: I move the matter be re-opened for the time consistent with the requirements in the premises, and notice and so forth be given.

Mayor Congleton: The motion is that the matter be put on the calendar two weeks from today and that the applicant be required to give to the property owners the same notice that he would have to give for a hearing on the application before the Board of Adjustment.

(On Roll call Commissioners Egan, Howe and Murray voted aye; Commissioner Gillen and Mayor Congleton voted no.)

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter they desire to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. Peter J. O'Toole, Jr.

City Clerk,

Newark, N. J.

Dear Sir:

Permit me to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 21st instant, advising me of the action of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark in declaring it is opposed to the use of non-resident labor on work paid for by Newark and going on in Newark.

I have forwarded a copy of your letter to our contractor, J. Rich Steers, Inc., asking that they abide by the wishes of the Commissioners.

Yours truly,

Gentlemen:

In behalf of the thousands of buyers and farmers patronizing this market, we are in favor of the recommendation submitted by the Ironbound Manufacturers Association to connect Route 25 with Route 21 by means of a state highway in the Morris Canal bed.

This improvement will be a great asset not only to the manufacturers and industrialists located in this section but also to the City of Newark.

Very truly yours,

Trenton, N. J.

Dear Sirs:

We noticed an article appearing in the Newark Evening News to the effect that a plan to connect route 25 with route 21 near the Pennsylvania Station will be submitted to you very shortly for your consideration.

Being a manufacturer, located in the Ironbound district, we naturally are enthusiastic about the idea and thoroughly approve of the move.

As the expenses incurred in the construction would not be excessive due to the use of the canal bed, we see no reason for any objection.

Judging from the number of business people in this section that the plan would benefit, we should say this certainly would be taking a step towards improving the traffic problems of the State's industries.

Yours very truly,
Lewis Brothers, Inc.

Pfaff & Kendall

Foot of Waydell Street

Newark, N. J., January 21, 1932

Board of Commissioners,
City of Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:

Your kind attention is called to the necessity for a new State Highway Link, over the Morris Canal bed to connect State Highway Route No. 21 with the State Highway No. 25 as advocated by the Ironbound Manufacturers Associations. In giving this subject your serious consideration your courtesy will be greatly appreciated.

We have been located at the present site for over twenty-five years and can see the great advantage accruing to Newark in the building of said highway in the Morris Canal bed to facilitate traffic and take care of the crowded condition of Raymond Boulevard and adjacent streets, when the new bridge and Highway across the meadow are opened for the public.

Very truly yours,
Pfaff and Kendall,
H. C. Pfaff, President.

Ordered filed.

The following reports of City Officers were received and ordered filed:

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the application of Harold Burdett, owner, for an automobile repair shop for a period of one year; premises 493 South Nineteenth Street, be laid over for one week.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, The Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure and use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Firestone Tire and Rubber Co., owner, for the alteration of a public garage so as to permit an exit door for vehicles; on the Fairmount Avenue frontage; premises 444 Central Avenue (9-11 Fairmount Avenue);

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, By the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone here to speak in opposition to this?

Mr. Joseph Zemel, 289 Market Street: I am here in opposition to the matter, representing the property owners—at least, most of the property owners on the block upon which this property is located; namely, the block on the westerly side of Fairmount Avenue between West Market Street and Central Avenue. He spoke in detail of his objections.

Dr. William R. Silverstein, 17 Fairmount Avenue, objected to the parking of trucks in front of his home.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mrs. Edward Fox, 14 Fairmount Avenue, spoke of danger to her children and others because of trucks going in and out of the Firestone building.

Mrs. Liaci, 18 Fairmount Avenue, said she represented her father-in-law, Mr. Liachi of 18 Fairmount Avenue. He is an objector she said.

Mrs. Smith, 7 Fairmount Avenue, told of danger to pedestrians because of the trucks.

Mrs. Nichols, 5 Fairmount Avenue: I am appearing in behalf of a woman who has five children, and I have three of my own.

Mrs. McKenna, 7 Fairmount Avenue: I have six children, the oldest thirteen and the youngest four, and they are all endangered if that door is opened.

Mrs. Tarlis, 5 Fairmount Avenue: I got two boys.

Commissioner Gillen: I move, Mr. Mayor, that this application be refused.

Commissioner Egan: I second the motion.

Commissioner Gillen: The people on the block do not want it, and there is no reason why we should vote for it.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The following communication was received and read:

Board of Adjustment
City Hall
Newark, New Jersey
February 2, 1932.

The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, that the following structures and uses in variance with the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

134-136 Christie Street, Charles Bornstein, owner; public garage.

97-103 Lister Avenue, International Excavating Co. (International Holding Co., owner); public garage.

159-161 Mapes Avenue, Elizabeth Enderle, owner; two 3 family dwellings.

THE BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT,

R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Commissioner Egan moved that the communication be received, copy furnished to each Commissioner, and further action postponed to February 17th.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

A communication dated January 29th, 1932 from the New Jersey State Highway Commission, relative to the employment of Newark labor on State Highway construction through Newark, was received and ordered filed.

A communication dated February 2nd, 1932 from Rev. Father Edward F. Quirk, St. Patricks' Cathedral, protesting against salary reductions of city employes was received and ordered referred to the budget hearing February 4th.

Mr. W. B. Smith, c/o Firestone Tire and Rubber Company: May I have an opportunity to talk on the Firestone request for that door?

Mayor Congleton: We heard you the other day. We appreciate the reason that you advanced for it, but it is the opinion of the Board of Commissioners where there is still this practically unanimous request that we cannot ignore it.

Mr. Smith: I want to bring out the fact that 100 feet from that street is a city park of approximately 40,000 square feet of space in which most of these children play. Directly opposite the place where we want to put this exit door is a business incorporated in which practically every service that we give is given. We do feel that of a change certainly justifies our request for this rear door. One of the complaints that was brought out is the fact that trucks were left parked out there twenty-four hours. We have space for our trucks, and none of our own trucks have been left in or about this place of business. If we are assessed for a value that equals, and more than equals, the total assessment of all the property owners there, and our taxes are more than all the taxes paid by these property owners, we are not complaining about our assessment, nor are we complaining about our taxes; and we feel as long as at this door is a justifiable need to us, it should be considered on that basis.

Commissioner Murray: I do not believe you can consider anything in the matter of business convenience at any time or any place where it jeopardizes in any degree the safety of the children who play around. You happen to have made a very nice place there; you have got a nice wide sidewalk; it is perfectly smooth, and the most natural place for children to play. They play alongside of your building. And your people originally made the mistake of agreeing that you would not have any exit or entrance on Fairmount Avenue. That was voluntarily offered by your own concern. As far as playing in the park, those kids do not go there because they are running in and out that street and on the sidewalk constantly. I see them every day; I pass there at least once every day, some times more, and there is a certain hazard in the neighborhood, and we are bound by the voice of the many as against the voice of the few.

Mr. Smith: I was just wondering if you would not look at these two pictures which show the place of business that opened up.

Commissioner Murray: Now, whether he is there by right, I don't know. He is on the other side of the street back of the corner. He could not make the store do inside, and he put the garage back, and he does a lot of repair work and changes tires, and does a lot of work where he has no right to do it; but two wrongs do not make a right, and that does not make you right. I know the place very well. But we cannot agree with you.

A petition from the North Roseville Taxpayers Protective Association, requesting reduction in taxes was received and read, and on motion ordered referred to the budget hearing February 4th.

John Howe,
Director of Revenue and Finance.

Ordered filed.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission this morning?

Mr. Hugh V. Reilly: Last week representatives of labor called with the request that no wage cuts be made the basis of the next budget. We left you with the impression that you were opposed to it and we still believe that you are opposed to it. However, the next morning we were somewhat amazed to note in the papers that conferences had been held with some banks from New York and that it had been the decision of the Board to meet representative groups of city employees to request them to voluntarily accept a cut in salary.

Mayor Congleton: You are mistaken on that; we did not do anything of the kind. We called various boards and commissions before us and attempted to lay before them the same situation that had been put to us, and left it with them to consider, and we are to meet them again tomorrow.

Mr. Reilly: But the ultimate purpose of it was eventually to possibly bring about voluntarily a reduction in salaries. That thought spread throughout the city. I think it is generally understood that not merely organized labor, but the average citizen of our city is opposed to wage cuts. This proposition, however, coming as it did last Thursday, seems to have aroused our citizens as never before. We have with us today a representative cross-section of Newark's population. We have gentlemen who are manufacturers, clergymen of different denominations, members of the Broad Street Business Men's Association, Weequahic Taxpayers Association, and I believe that under the circumstances they should be heard lest at this moment our citizens and you gentlemen might be influenced to take a step that would be very far-reaching in its consequences. We know full well the problem, as was stated before, that is before you; we know the bankers' problem, or, at least, have a fair idea of it; we know it is the duty of the bankers to conserve the depositors' interests. We also know that two years ago when the stock market was running high the bankers not only of our city, but all cities, dumped their money into the call money market and received rates of interest for it running from twenty to twenty-nine per cent., I understand.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Reilly, in fairness to our bankers I think you ought to say at the same time that they may have been sending part of their money to New York they were taking care of every one of Newark's needs, taking its paper, and at the average interest rate.

Mr. Reilly: I am not criticizing the local bankers in particular, I am merely striving to point out the situation that existed, to point out how they were using the depositors' money at that time. Surely, the matter of risking their money with a corporation such as the City of Newark, whose reputation of paying its obligations dollar for dollar has never been impaired, I think they should bear that in mind and do what is right by the city and meet our municipal notes. However, I do not intend to get into this matter any further, and I want to present to you Mr. Louis V. Aronson, one of the leading manufacturers of this city and a large taxpayer.

Mr. Louis V. Aronson: I warmly commend this honorable body for taking so strong a stand against reducing salaries. If any other way can be found to tide over our difficulties, and I believe between two evils it is better to assume the burden of extra troubles in working out our ways or means of financing, than to imposing hardships on so many who are serving us so faithfully at a return which is not so large as compared with salaries in many other cities, or with the normal run of salaries or wages in other occupations. If any of our New Jersey municipalities is to break down in the obligations it has entered into with its public servants, it should not be Newark. Our reputation for financial soundness and ability to take care of the members of all of our municipal family is too high. For one, I am strongly behind the City Commission in its will to struggle through without resorting to such drastic measures. They might tide over an emergent situation, but I am afraid that in the long run they might do us more harm than good. I thank you.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Aronson, are you a member of the Chamber of Commerce?

Mr. Aronson: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Egan: You know the public attitude of the Chamber of Commerce; and your personal attitude, your individual attitude differs with the attitude of the Chamber?

Mr. Aronson: I differ mostly as a man who has had an experience of forty-four years in the handling of men, and knowing what salaries mean to those men who serve for a salary; and, in particular, our public servants, to get the best out of them we ought to consider that in every way you cannot get their good 100 per cent. efficiency by reducing their salaries. I have learned that lots of times.

Commissioner Egan: Thank you, Mr. Aronson.

Mr. Reilly: We will now call upon Rabbi Silverfeld.

Rabbi Julius Silverfeld: I just want to mention two points in reference to this question. The first point is that firemen and policemen, everybody will admit, are not overpaid, and the work they do is of vital importance to the welfare of our community. We can very truly say that our very lives depend upon their efficiency, upon their loyalty and their faithfulness. Now, if circumstances would compel us to reduce their salaries, which, as I said is not over much, it would expose them to the temptation of graft, and before we know it we will have officials in our community, firemen and policemen, who will also have strong boxes. This is the first consideration. We cannot afford to expose such men to the temptation of getting money because they have to support their families. And in the second place, there is the practical reason, the business reason, although I am not a business man, that should apply to this subject. Any business man will tell you that when he is a little financially pressed if he makes a public spectacle of reducing his expense ostentatiously by changing his residence, by giving up his automobile, instead of helping himself financially he only exposes himself to the people who lend him money and they will lose faith and confidence, and he is liable to meet with ruin. The same thing applies to a community, especially to our largest city of the state, the metropolis of New Jersey. Instead of helping ourselves that way we would only make the bankers and public believe that Newark is broke, and therefore, instead of helping finance the city, selling bonds and so forth, you would only produce the reverse result; and therefore, from a practical standpoint

I believe that should be the last thing we should do. We should try to economize in any way possible, but do not start with the police and fire departments.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: The bankers of Newark, from what I understand, have demanded the City of Newark officials put their house in order. These are critical times; no time to criticize. I read in yesterday's press that the Board of Education paid off its employees with the large sum of $800,000, fourth-fifths of a million dollars. Wonderful payroll. If it was spent properly in Newark, the merchants, the tradesmen, the landlords—everybody would have benefited. But no. They did not benefit as fully as they should have. A great amount of this money went out of Newark, and unjustly so. The Board of Education employs upward to 3,000 people. I know from my own experience that a great many of them do not live in Newark, and in these times it behooves us to take care of our own. We must take care of our citizens, taxpayers, and rent payers and our own dwellers. You want to raise that 2,000,000. It is very simple. You must abolish every position held under the City government by anyone who does not live in Newark, whether he is a property owner or rentpayer. You are robbing every citizen that lives in Newark of his rights. You will say, I suppose, "What are you going to do when you must fill these positions?" Well, you don't have to fill all of them, you can lengthen the school day an hour or two. I know from my own experience some of these school teachers only work four or five hours a day. Policemen and firemen work eight hours a day and most employees in the City Hall work eight hours a day. I am in favor of reducing the salaries of all of the men that earn $15,000 a year in the City of Newark, because no man is better than the Mayor of Newark and should not receive a larger salary than the Mayor of the City of Newark. I am in favor of abolishing all these part-time positions that conflict with every every business man in Newark. You have employes who do not give their full time to the City of Newark, and draw salaries from the City of Newark, and compete with every tradesman, and myself, in my line of earning a living. Only the other day a school principal called me up and says, "Mr. Zemel," he says, "I have got a proposition for you." I says, "What is it?" He said, "I want to sell you a building." I said, "Are you in the real estate business?" "Sure," he said. "I am up in South Orange in the real estate business. That is where I live." What good is he to Newark? I am in favor of abolishing numerous positions held in the public schools such as vice-principals. They are needless. You don't need them. You have too many supervisors. You have numerous employes there that are not needed.

Newark must take care of its own. You cannot be just and cut the salaries of the employees who live in Newark and help carry the burden. You must take care of them. A lot has been said too about what the City has committed itself to. The Pennsylvania Railroad improvements, the Public Service improvements. When it is all done I think it will be worth about $30,000.00. Will it bring all the benefits that they are pictured to bring? I have yet to know or be advised that the Pennsylvania Railroad is going to abolish Manhattan Terminal.

Mayor Congleton: Well, you should know that, Mr. Zemel, because it has been stated time and time again that they were; and it is specifically specified in the contracts between the City and the Pennsylvania Railroad that Manhattan Transfer is to be abandoned.

Mr. Zemel: It will be abandoned. Good. Then you are committed fully to the $30,000,000 expenditure, and it may run more. Don't you think that every policeman, every fireman, every street sweeper and clerk working for the City of Newark is committed for the salary that you have given him when they start to work for the City? You pay policemen $2500 a year. Don't you think he is committed to his family to support them properly? You would not want him to go in rags and barefooted. You would not want him to look like the garbage collectors. They are respectable men, everyone of them. They are committed for that $2500. And I might plead with you gentlemen, don't cut the wages of any city employes who lives within the boundary lines of Newark, New Jersey. Dispose of all those who do not live in Newark, and give those a chance to live that live in Newark, New Jersey. I know for a fact there are truckmen doing work for the City of Newark that live up over the mountains somewhere, and I know Newark's truckmen's trucks are rusting in their garages. That is unfair and unjust to our citizenry of Newark. And now you come along and want to cut their wages. Unjust. If you want to save $2,000,000, cut that payroll to $600,000. A school year is ten months. And you will have $200,000, and the bankers will be satisfied, because they are fully justified in asking you to put your house in order. Thank you.

Mr. Reilly: We will now have Mr. Pearl.

Mr. Max Pearl, Manager of Wallach Brothers: In behalf of Wallach Brothers, I come up here to enter a protest against the cutting of salaries of our city servants. I do not have to tell you our business has been hit hard. Everybody's has. And by reducing their salaries it won't help us any at all. Our expenditures and overhead is the same. Wallach's have not reduced any salaries; they want their men to get every benefit they can.

Mr. Reilly: Mr. H. B. Bowman:

Mr. Harry B. Bowman, General Manager, New Jersey Automobile Club:

I am not appearing in an official position representing our organization, the members of which probably employ sixty per cent. of the labor in this section. But the opinion of the men who have taken up the subject of salary reduction from time to time has been unanimously opposed, particularly in respect to police and firemen.

Mr. Reilly: All of those who have spoken and all who will follow have voluntarily offered to appear here. Organized labor feels that it has the one program which will bring order out of the present industrial and business chaos. Because of that, we have asked Mr. Edward Grady, legislative representative of the American Federation of Labor, to speak for organized labor before you gentlemen on this matter, Mr. Grady.

Mr. Edward Grady: In part I represent the organized labor movement of this city. We want to register with you our emphatic protest against any reduction in wages for city employees. I understand that an attempt has been made to crystallize public sentiment in favor of reduction in wages, and it has come largely from the Chamber of Commerce and the bankers. I want you gentlemen to remember that as far as these two are concerned, banking and commerce, they are always thinking in terms of profits, and I hope that you gentlemen will think in terms of human welfare rather than profit at this particular time. I want to call your attention, gentlemen, to the fact that this proposed ten per cent. reduction in wages would bring firemen and policemen back to where they were over eight years ago. Surely that is not a progressive policy, to turn back the hands of time and ask these men and their families to live on a standard of living that even was not equitable eight years ago. No less a person that the President of the United States, has publicly said that reductions in wages would be a calamity in this country and it would be an act that would affect this city vitally, not only now, for years to come. These men, these firemen, these policemen, these teachers—I understand more than twenty-five per cent. of them are little home owners and practically all of them are carrying mortgages and all of them are aspiring to send their boys and girls to the higher schools for education. They have been living under a standard and they never expected that standard would go down, And remember, when you reduce these wages you are going to break the standards of living. Reductions in wages are not going to solve this problem; reductions in wages is going to increase the problems and make this depression last for a much longer period than it should last. And I want you gentlemen to know, and say it advisedly, there is no reduction of wages of Federal employees by this Congress of the United States. Newark is a solvent city, and the credit of Newark is good and it will continue to be good because Newark has been guided and is now being guided by faithful public servants, men who have experience, and men whom I am sure are going to continue that high standard of credit that Newark has always enjoyed. The way to bring back prosperity to Newark and throughout the entire land is to give the people sufficient money in the form of wages to buy what we are creating. The bankers and the Chamber of Com merce do not represent five per cent. of the citizenship of this City.

Mr. Reilly: We have another labor representative with us, a man who is well known throughout the state: Senator Arthur A. Quinn.

Senator Arthur A. Quinn: President of the State Federation of Labor and President of the Union National Bank:

I am here today, as I might say, as a direct representative of the workers of this state and of this city in opposition in the proposition to reduce the wages of policemen, firemen, and school teachers. We are opposed to it, not only because we consider it unjust, but because we always considered that the policemen, firemen, and teachers are already underpaid. It is not only unjust but it is a dangerous proposition. Not only will you reduce the weekly income of these men and women, but you are going to destroy the morale of your firemen, your policemen and your teachers. You are going to destroy the morale of the men on whom we place our confidence to protect our lives and property. You are going to encourage the wage shaver to reduce wages not only in this community but throughout the state. Policemen and firemen today receive about $48 a week, $48 a week you are paying men who protect your lives and your property. Reduce that wage to $43 or $44 and every gangster in the state, every violator of the law, will sit up and cheer because they figure the morale of the men whom they must contend with will be destroyed. We have every hope that the Commissioners of this great city, the metropolis of our state, will listen to the voice of the masses of the people and refuse to listen to the financiers who believe your future depends on wage cutting. I think this proposition, gentlemen, comes with ill grace from men who were the most urgent in their demands that those improvements be made by your city. They were the most urgent in their demands that the city bond itself for the new right of way by the Pennsylvania Railroad, for Raymond Boulevard, and for other improvements that are under way in this great city. Now, when we are in a temporary depression and the city finds itself unable to meet some of these bills, then they are going to fall back on the wage earners to make good what they are responsible for. I think it comes with ill grace when the representative of one of our great corporations with $400,000,000 of common stock upon which they are paying dividends and there is no reduction of dividends, but they are reducing the wages of the wage earner. I do not think the Commissioners will pay much attention to reducing the wages of your firemen and policemen and your school teachers and your civil service employees. I want to say further, gentlemen, that the men connected with the labor movement look upon this proposition to reduce wages as requiring the workers of the state to pay a dole in capital. We are all opposed to a dole. We made vigorous protests against a dole being established in this country for the idle worker, and now they are asking that labor pay a dole to capital. You are asking your policemen, your firemen, your teachers, and your other civil service employees to reduce their pay by ten per cent., which is nothing less than a dole to capital.

Mr. Reilly: As is usual in private life and private industry, when the wage earner's income is reduced, those who suffer most are the women folks and children. We have a lady with us today who I believe of all the women of Newark is best qualified to reflect the housekeepers' viewpoint. We will hear from Mrs. Elias Kanter of the Maple Avenue Parent-Teachers' Association.

Mrs. Elias Kanter: I am here to represent the Consumers League officially, and incidentally will speak also as the Vice-Chairman of the County-Parent Teachers' Association, and I have been asked to speak for our own Parent-Teachers' Association in Newark. As the spokesmen for the Consumers' League may I first say that the Consumers' League is an organization of thirty years' standing, having to its credit legislation and far-reaching social legislation which is now in effect, which bears upon the improvement of conditions in working for women and children and minors. We have promoted to a large measure such standards as we now have, as the minimum wage and the better hours for women, and the prohibition of working in dangerous industries by minors. We are absolutely opposed to any reduction in wages at this time. We feel it would lower the standard of living; we feel that there is no necessity to saddle the program of economy upon this special class. We feel that there are possibilities of reducing it elsewhere; and we take the stand that those who criticize most severely the public employees are those who have in a very large measure voted this stupendous program of improvement and saddled upon Newark and the state such compulsory expenditures, and now wish to take it out, as it were, upon the small wage earners. We do not believe it is possible for these wage earners with their small salaries that they do receive, to live at the minimum rate if you reduce the salaries; and the Consumers' League is unalterably opposed to it. May I speak for the Parent-Teachers Association and for the teachers? I think the record of the teachers in the public schools, speaks absolutely for itself. You might be interested to know that last year in the community chest there was raised $110,000 through the school system; $12,000 of that was paid by the children and the remainder was paid absolutely as a voluntary contribution to the community chest by the teachers of this community. I defy any of the taxpayers to show that they paid a larger percentage of their salary to the welfare of the community. They are doing their share in bringing about the very best conditions for the people at large. And the teachers should be protected above all others. Those who speak opposing the public school system know nothing at all about it; they merely speak from hearsay and not actually from practice. I severely condemn the Chamber of Commerce and the bankers who at this time, after promoting and inducing and cajoling of the city officials and state officials to make exorbitant expenditures in the city and state, to come at this time and say, "Reduce the cost of the whole program at the expense of the city employees." I thank you.

Mr. Reilly: Counsellor Cohen, of the Weequahic Taxpayers Association.

Mr. Nathan E. Cohen: We find 10,500 employees under the city service that are subject to this possible reduction. And what would result? We know that the consumer, the storekeeper, the property owner himself, would be obliged to reduce his rental, and today with the taxes as they are, reducing his rental would mean a double burden instead of a single burden that he has to face. Now, we also find that a lot of these employees, if you will go into statistics, you will find that a lot of them have and own property, the cost of maintenance being dependent upon their own salaries. And if you destroy that income you are destroying the possibility of continuing ownership of that same property. And what will the burden be? It will be coming right back to the very city, and that is no return on the tax books. And I therefore recommend that the means of economy is not in cutting the salaries of the city employees. Secondly, I say to you on behalf of the taxpayers that do want reductions, we want our rates reduced, but not by that means. The same proportion of increase of 203 per cent. as against a five per cent. salary of the employees of the municipality should be measured in the budget in reducing the cost of government so that the taxpayers proportion of burden would also be reduced.

Mr. Henry F. Hilfers: I read with great interest in this morning's paper of the interview Mr. Rippel had with Governor Moore. Mr. Rippel stated that we would have to lower the standard of living to bring back prosperity. If his argument was right, China ought to be the most prosperous country in the world. He also said we have got to cut out ice cream and cake. They cut out the breweries to make ice cream factories out of them and now they want to close up the ice cream factories and close the cake foundries and bring us down to what? To prehistoric times, maybe. When we come back to that, I feel sorry for the bankers. Will any of these things that have been proposed by these eminent gentlemen at the head of the Chamber of Commerce or the Bankers Association of this City bring back the desired prosperity? It seems to me that we are running around in rings, we are not getting anywhere. If our city employees were overpaid there would be some reason for the argument, but they are not overpaid. Perhaps—I read in the paper that some of the departments may be overmanned. If that is the case, this is no time even for re-adjustment; that will have to take place gradually. Gentlemen, there is only one thing we can do and that is to try to bring back the confidence, try to bring back jobs, and you are not going to do it by cutting wages down to a lower notch by those who have not had to stand for a cut as yet.

Mr. Reilly: We have two more listed speakers. Before we come to them, there was a letter received by the Commission this morning, and I believe referred or placed on file. Might I ask that be read?

Mayor Congleton: It was not placed on file, it was referred to our meeting of tomorrow when as we understood we had planned to adjourn our meeting to tomorrow to devote our entire day to this matter. That was the arrangement we made with the people that previously visited us.

Mr. Reilly: Might I ask that the letter be read now?

Mayor Congleton: Yes, it may be read. But it was not just filed, it was laid over to tomorrow when the time was fixed for this kind of a hearing.

The Clerk then read a communication from Rev. Father Edward F. Quirk, of St. Patrick's Cathedral protesting against any salary cuts in city employees pay.

Mr. Reilly: We have heard from practically every type of Newark life except the medical profession. We have one gentlemen with us today whose views I believe should be heard on this subject, Mr. Edward I. Gluckman.

Dr. Edward I. Gluckman: I come here to protest against the reduction of the city employees. I believe that Newark pays at the present time between fifteen and seventeen per cent. less to their police and firemen than some of our surrounding communities. Newark being the largest city in the state, it would seem unfair at this time to reduce that percentage more.

than that. I understand that the salary in Jersey City, Kearny, East Newark, and the surrounding communities, is greater than it is in Newark.

Mayor Congleton: $3,000.

Dr. Gluckman: They are getting $2500 here, aren't they?

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

Dr. Gluckman: So it does not seem to me as though that is a fair thing to do at this time, or at any other time, to a servant who is serving you faithfully. Thank you.

Mr. Reilly: Mr. V. B. Kane of the Roseville Business Men's Association.

Mr. Valentine B. Kane:

If you men are going to make this cut is going to affect the building and loans. I think that the banks are taking the false stand because it is the depositors' money they do business on. If we are going to cut down the depositors in these banks they are not going to have so much money to work on. Now, if some newspaper man will go back through the pages of the history of this city and see the stand the Chamber of Commerce took on every public movement, they will see that the Chamber of Commerce was wrong. Now, I remember as a boy in the city, and a man, the Chamber of Commerce always opposed anything that was for the good of the citizens and only favored that which was good for the Chamber of Commerce. I am not going to speak very long, but the Chamber of Commerce and bankers of the city are just passing the buck; they are going to make you reduce the salaries of the employees of the City of Newark ten per cent. so the factories and the merchants can cut their own men ten per cent. That is all there is to it.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Kane, the open letter that was addressed to the Board of Commissioners purported to be signed by the building and loan associations as well as these others.

Mr. Kane: I agree with you, Mr. Mayor; but the fact still remains that this money that you are going to take away from the men working for the City of Newark is not going to the building and loans. These men have a certain overhead. You speak about contracts that we have with the Pennsylvania Railroad, the contracts we have with the Public Service, is this not a contract with the men of the city of Newark? Is it not an obligation, where you require high type men? I employ labor, and I have employed millions of men, and I know this City of Newark requires the highest type of men. Pay him what he is worth.

Mayor Congleton: The only reason I spoke about the building and loan associations, I wondered just how extensively the signers of that letter represented them, because I am president of a building and loan association and I know that matter was not presented to the board of directors of the building and loan associations of which I am president.

Mr. Kane: I might say this, Mr. Mayor, that I received a letter as a stockholder of one of the largest banking corporations of the City of Newark, and in that letter the only thing they told me was that one of our respected members had died, and another director was leaving to swim down in Florida. Another thing they said, they had done as much business as ever last year. They haven't cut my dividends, and yet my stock is fifty per cent. wrong. There is something wrong somewhere. Let us sift it out. I thank you.

Mr. Reilly: We have one more speaker and then we are through.

Mr. Peter Gunne.

Mr. Peter Gunne: I think the City Commission should take a stand against any pay cutting or lowering of living standards. These groups in the city are paid little enough. In the fire department, first year firemen work twelve hours a day. He gets forty-eight cents an hour. After the fourth year he gets fifty-six cents. He has got to buy his uniform, his rubber coats, boots, and all other paraphernalia that goes with the job. You see how little he has left out of forty-eight or fifty-six cents. I think that what the City Commission should do is to re-assess the entire city with a high-class commission to re-assess it fearlessly and honestly so the large taxpayers will pay their share. I also think that the City Commission should go on record at this session of the Legislature and advocate a bill for an income tax or a sales tax, as the burden on real property is too heavy. We have got to come to it, and it the only way. By cutting pay you reduce the morale and efficiency of your department and you are making a mistake.

Mr. Samuel Levine, 8-12 Essex Street:

I am a taxpayer—or rather, I am supposed to be a taxpayer. I have not paid my 1931 taxes. Because I haven't got the money. Why didn't I pay? What is the reason that and many others have not got the money to pay? Is it because people got too high wages? There must be some reason for it, or, if that is the reason, by all means let us reduce wages. What is the reason? In 1929 the American people produced ninety billion dollars worth of wealth. That is about $750 per capita, or about $3,000 per family. If the American people would have consumed all they have produced in 1929 we would have been in precisely the same position in January, 1930, as were were in January, 1929, but that did not happen. Out of the 45,000,000 gainfully employed 7,000,000 received salaries above $2,000, and the 38,000,000 received either $2,000 or less. Receiving what they did they could only consume as much as they received in wages. The other few could not possibly consume all they had left, and therefore we have what we have got. It will benefit no one, this reduction. As Dorothy Thompson, wife of Sinclair Lewis, said last Sunday, that the American capitalist can see only as far as their next dividend, and they cannot see any further. They cannot see further than their nose. Now, let them tell us, will a reduction help. Besides, gentlemen, there is another phase to this subject. They pass the buck upon the New York bankers. Is it a healthy state for us to be in that we should be governed by the New York bankers? Do you think that the world at large will submit by being governed by the New York bankers. If they want to change the government in England they tell the New York bankers. If they want to get some concession in Colombia they tell the New York bankers. If they want to reduce the salaries in Newark of public employees they tell our New York bankers. I desire to tell you gentlemen of the Commission that I, personally did not vote for Mr. Holmes, I did not vote for Mr. Rippel. If I thought they were fit men to govern the city I would have voted for them. I voted for Mr. Congleton, I voted for Mr. G'llen, and I voted for Mr. Howe, and it is you gentlemen that I expect to determine the destiny of this city, and not the Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber of Commerce, as I said before, has been and is against any social legislation at all. Every time something good comes up they are opposed to it. What is there about the Chamber of Commerce or the business group of this country? Is it really the fact because they have money that they possess everything else? They just have money. They have accumulated their money simply because of the fact that they concentrate all their energy, all their life, their soul and everything about them upon making money. Let them stick to making money and let the people at large govern themselves. There is another point, and that may even appeal to the Chamber of Commerce. Times are very hard; people are starving; we don't know what may happen. Something may happen; things have happened before. And suppose there will be a riot, as there may be, a bread riot; what are you going to do? Commissioner Egan I suppose, will call upon the police department to stop the riot. Do you think it would be well to have the police, under such conditions, dissatisfied? Not that I personally have any terror of the revolution. No. I have not, because a civilization that will permit bread lines and soup kitchens while the government is paying $4,000,000 a month for storing wheat should be destroyed; but I dread what then after a possible revolution. That is what I dread. And the more you reduce the purchasing power the worse you will make it. Suppose the City of Newark should save $2,000,000 by the cut. Don't you think that there will be $2,000,000 worth less of commodities bought, and in turn, those who make it and sell it will be out of work just as well. How will you help it? Mr. Rippel spoke yesterday about relief, about relief, about relief. Why, it reminds me very much of a restaurant that I was in just a few days ago on the lower East Side of New York. (Here the speaker read from a menu card he carried a long list of food.) He told how he asked for "a plain piece of herring," but the restaurant did not have any.

This is about the size of relief. We had Red Cross relief, Farm Board relief, food relief, moratorium relief, reconstruction relief, tax relief and the people want real relief, just plain relief. I desire to call the attention particularly of the gentlemen of the Chamber of Commerce to an interesting chapter in history. (Here the speaker told the alleged story of a french queen of whom the people asked for bread and she answered by asking why the people did not eat cake. She latter was beheaded by revolutionists.) I hope that history will not repeat itself but if it does repeat itself the blood that will be shed will not be laid to the doors of the Communists, Socialists, or radicals, but to those gentlemen representing bankers and Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Reilly: Mr. Mayor, when Mr. Levine was speaking I was wondering whether there was any mention made in that menu of red herring, or do you have to turn to Mr. Rippel for a red herring? I feel they are trying to draw a red herring across the trail. Now, this hearing has been lengthy. I hope that we have not bored you. It has been an expression of the cross-section of Newark life; we have had practically every group in the city represented. If you would want a bigger representation I think we could fill the armory, and if they became really insistent in opposition to this wage cut proposition, I think it would be an easy matter for the citizens of Newark to fill the Military Park or Branch Brook Park or Weequahic Park, so uniform is the sentiment against wage reductions. We are not closing our eyes to the fact that you have your problems, that Mr. Howe is concerned as to where he is going to get the where-withal to meet his payroll on the fifteenth of this month. We know that is your job. We know you must meet it. But after everything is said and done it is out of the pockets of the citizens of this city, and the wage earners of this city, in the form of rents, that that wherewithal must come eventually; and therefore, they have got a right to be heard, and under the circumstances it is proper they they should be heard; they should voice their objections. I observe in the press there is what they term a growing tide of tax rebellion; taxpayers are rising in their might; and I have attended some of those hearings throughout the state during the past two weeks. I was in one in a little township outside of Camden last Thursday night, Pennsauken Township. The meeting was held in a school house, you might say within voice of where Pete McGuire, the founder of Labor Day, lies buried. Those in opposition to wage cuts were cried down, and those that demanded wage cuts took the stand that they alone should be heard. But one proposition that was made was recalled to me when Mr. Levine spoke. One young woman who was a taxpayer, she arose and wanted to know if the men working on the State Highway who were living in Pennsauken Township were taxpayers; if they were property owners; and the chairman of the Township Committee told her that he did not know. Some one advised, in the meantime, the chairman, and he amplified his statement and said he understood they were not taxpayers. She insisted that those men be removed from the payroll of the State Highway Commission and their jobs be given to property owners. Some one in the audience asked what should they do? Where will these wage earners go when they cannot pay their rent? She said, "Let them move some place else, let them move and find some other means of living. When she did say that I thought of Marie Antoinette that Mr. Levine had spoken of, when he referred to the queen who said that the population could eat cake if they did not have bread. Your American life, as bad as it is, has not got that bad yet, but it is not improving. We are here as a body protesting against a continuation of the steps that have prolonged this situation. I read carefully, at least that part of the letter that was published, from the tax conference board representing the Chamber of Commerce. I noted in particular how different groups had said that they had reduced their wages; and I could not help but thinking, what must business men, let alone workers, and house owners, of this city, what must they think of this steady movement to make this situation worse. However, the situation is in your hands, We trust that under no circumstances that the school teachers or policemen or city firemen or the mechanics employed by the city, those employed in the garbage department, we hope that under no circumstances that they will agree to accept a voluntary reduction in wages. Let us meet this issue four-square. One hundred years ago the American people were confronted with a somewhat similar situation. The banks of the nation, the state banks, were telling the United States Government, in a period somewhat similar—exactly similar, you might say to the present—they were telling them what should be done; and they did not hesitate to assert their power. And Andrew Jackson, of that time, soon squelched their power. They remained decent for a while. I think the time is fast approaching when the American public shall again assert itself. There is not a force that has been represented today, there is not a force in our entire country but what is anxiously looking for work, and would be glad to work if they got a job. Only one factor in our life refuses to work, and that is money. Have the American people, have the residents of the State of New Jersey, have the citizens of Newark got today to a point where they are going to permit that one force in our life, that one power, to say, "No, we will not work; we will bleed you further; we will take advantage of your miseries." I do not believe Newarkers will agree to that; I do not believe Jersey men and Americans will agree to that. And in the last analysis I know enough of you gentlemen and of the men whom I represent to feel confident that you will not agree to any proposition of the kind. You have represented our citizenry before; we rely upon you to do it again. Find some other means of meeting this situation but under no circumstances meet it by reducing wages.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. James R. Giuliano, 744 Broad Street:

I am counsel of the North Roseville Taxpayers Association, and I have been asked to present to this honorable body a petition signed by about 400 taxpayers asking some relief in the reduction of taxes. They are not in favor or not interested in any tax—any salary squabble; but they do ask this body to do something in cutting expenditures to reduce their taxes in order to protect their homes. That particular neighborhood is pretty hard hit. They are mostly wage earners and cannot pay taxes because so many people and tenants are out of work. As I have stated, the petition does not state anything about reducing salaries of city employees; the only thing it asks this body is to cut some expenditures and bring down the tax rate.

Mayor Congleton: Do you specify what expenses?

Mr. Giuliano: No.

Mayor Congleton: That is the trouble with everything. We would like to have some concrete suggestions as to what forms of service that we are now rendering the public they would be content to do without. All we have to render is service. Now, what form of service are we giving you today that you think you could do without?

Mr. Giuliano: I understand from them that they are not squabbling with the City Commission on anything at all, but they ask the City Commission to use their best judgment in cutting whatever expenditure they think are not necessary to be included in this year's budget, not because they do not care to pay for improvements, but because they have not the money to pay their taxes.

Mayor Congleton: It will be referred to our conference.

Mr. Henry Green: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I would like to keep you here until about five o'clock this afternoon, but I will only take five minutes.

Mayor Congleton: I just don't know how this misunderstanding arose. The City Commission had agreed last Friday that we were going to devote all of tomorrow, and where the misunderstanding arose, I don't know.

Mr. Green: The people want taxes reduced, the bankers want the wages of the policemen and the firemen and school teachers reduced. But they want from the municipalities six per cent., an increase on interest. Am I right? They just succeeded in getting six per cent. in New York. They want the wages of everybody reduced, but their income increased. I like the bankers, I like the members of the Chamber of Commerce. They are doing more to further the cause I believe in than I could do on any soap box. I can go over to a policeman today, where years ago he would try to soak me in the head, and he will say, "Brother." He don't like the gentlemen of the Chamber of Commerce nor the bankers. Why, they are as blind as the Czar of Russia was. The Czar of Russia did not know until the day before he was going to be thrown off of a good job. These bankers still retain some of those silver dollars. They got one in front of each eye and they cannot see through the economic situation; they cannot see that people have lost their life; and they are proposing things that will make them lose whatever little they have.

(Here the speaker praised the work of the police, firemen and teachers. He also told of local living conditions). These bankers have the audacity—and I do understand the building and loans have applied to have the school teachers and policemen—

Mayor Congleton: I didn't say that, I said the open letter that was addressed to the Board of Commissioners coming from the tax committee of the Chamber of Commerce was also signed by the building and loan association, Ironbound Manufacturers, and others.

Mr. Green: They approved of it?

Mayor Congleton: They purport to have signed it.

Mr. Green: Now, who forms the building and loans of Newark if it isn't the pick and shovel men; the firemen, policemen and school teachers? Who pays into them? Is it the lawyer from the building and loan or the bankers of Newark that support a building and loan? Or the savings banks? (The speaker here talked of conditions under the Czars of Russia).

Mr. W. Umscheid, 281 North Fifth

Street: He talked about taxes and wages, also living conditions.

Rev. L. Hamilton Garner, 815 South 11th Street: I do feel very strongly with my fellow citizens who have preceded me, in expressing the opinion that out of our love for Newark and for its welfare, we know and we feel sure and we plead to you that you do resist the efforts that are being made to get you to balance the city budget by reduction in wages of those people who are responsible in a large measure for what we can claim of civic pride in Newark. But I think there are no classes of people who do more to create this condition which makes us able to point to our city with pride than these groups we are appealing for today. So I as a citizen of Newark, proud of the fact, present to you as my sentiment and my earnest plea that you take into consideration the arguments that have been presented to you by the various groups in this city, and to find other methods to meet the problem which we all realize is a great one for you to meet.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Herman W. Brams: I appear here in my individual capacity as a citizen and not representing any group. I personally feel that there should be no reduction of wages, because we ought to follow the example as was set forth by the President of these United States, who urged that there be no reduction in wages. I understand that the budget as now being planned is top heavy. I understand that it is made up of certain fixed charges and certain obligations that must be met. Now, I do not know what the bonded indebtedness of this city is, but it seems to me that every one of the citizens who have appeared here this morning, and probably thousands of more citizens, are not the least bit concerned, they are not worried the slightest that the City of Newark has all of a sudden reached the bankruptcy stage. It is only to those people to whom we go for the financing of different projects who now say that the city must pare down its budget. I was here a couple of meetings ago, and at that time Commissioner Howe said that the interest charge, about three or four months ago, was two and one half per cent. Since then he said it has been increased to six per cent. How much does the City of Newark owe, and how much are the interest charges, and on what basis—what percentage is being charged? None of the depositors are now getting any more interest than ever before; they are not getting any more than four per cent. in savings and three and a half in commercial banks. It seems to me that the banks of this city are using the taxpayers' money to loan to the city, and why they should increase the interest to six per cent. I cannot understand. And the six per cent. charge on the amount of indebtedness brings up the budget. Now if they feel that we cannot meet the amount that is needed to pay our bills, then why don't the banks reduce the interest charges? Instead of six, let them ask for five, that will reduce to a very substantial amount the amount of the budget that you are now working upon. There is one other point that I raised at a dinner of the Broadway Association that I want to reiterate at this time, especially because I read in last night's paper that the Senate and the House of Assembly have passed a bill permitting municipalities to sell their bonds in small amounts. It seems to me, as I suggested, that if certain moneys are needed, and if the City Commissioners will go out to the taxpayers and the residents of this city who have money in the bank and are getting four per cent. and they offer it to them at five, I am positive that the money that is needed at his time and that Commissioner Howe is now worrying about, that he is unable to sell these bonds, I am almost sure the citizens of this city will be glad to have five per cent. instead of six per cent. that the bankers are now asking. I offer those two suggestions, and I am sure if we will permit some of the taxpayers who have money in the bank and are receiving four per cent. to pay their taxes in advance and give them an allowance of five or six per cent. discount on their bills, I am sure that Commissioner Howe won't have to worry about raising money through the banks.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Commissioner Gillen moved to adjourn to Feb. 4th, at 10:30 A. M.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

A P P R O V E D :

JEROME T. CONGLETON
W. J. EGAN
JOHN HOWE
CHARLES P. GILLEN
JNO. F. MURRAY, Jr.

The Board of Commissioners of
the City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, Jr.
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., February 4, 1932.

An adjourned meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, N. J. on Thursday, February 4, 1932, at 10:30 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gilen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: The Commission has convened today to hear from anyone who may care to be heard on the subject of the making up of our budget, which, I assume, leads us to the question of salaries received by municipal employees, inasmuch as there has been considerable in the public print about the question of a reduction in salaries of municipal employees. We are ready to hear anyone who cares to be heard on the matter.

Mr. Thomas Scully: I am authorized to speak for the entire membership of the police and fire departments. We have held several meetings since our last interview with you, and the answer is that we are unanimously opposed to any reduction in salaries. I want to present to you our counsel, Judge Osborne.

Mr. John Hogan, representing Essex Council Civil Service No. 1 of New Jersey Civil Service Association:

We have gone into this thing very carefully and join forces with the police and firemen and school teachers in having counsel to represent us as a group. We also have the services of Judge Osborne in our case.

Mr. Harry V. Osborne: The question we seem to have before us today is whether the bankers of the community are to be permitted to exact their pound of flesh for the purpose of fattening upon this group by increasing their dividends. The business men and the bankers of the community have for years stimulated and approved the expenditures of the city upon the theory that we were making a bigger and better city, a busier city and that in doing so they were increasing the prosperity of the city. And the bankers went along with this, encouraged it, and took over the city bonds to meet the expenses of the city between the time of the collection of taxes. Now in this emergency, for which they are in a great measure responsible, they come before you and demand a reduction in the salaries of this group of people who are under civil service and tenure of office, in order to arise $2,000,000. that their interest rate can be increased from three and one half per cent., or thereabouts, to six per cent., on what they are willing to lend the city. And I ask you whether this position is justified, whether it is humane, whether it is equitable and honest. They call this a reduction in salary. Why, gentlemen, this is no reduction in salary; this is a tax, it is tantamount to an income tax upon a selected group who are, perhaps, the best able to bear it as any group in the community, as I will show you presently, and why. This is not an equitable levy upon the community, but they select these people because they know they are practically helpless to defend themselves. And are we going to tax one group or another to meet this situation which has been painted by the bankers for your benefit? Why, I say to you gentlemen, that this is nothing more or less than part of a concentrated pre-arranged program to bring down wages in every line to reduce our standards of living so that it may be possible for capital to enhance its earnings. Sound economists doubt the wisdom of such a course. Are you going to meet this economic problem by aggravating it in this way, by withdrawing from the community two millions of dollars of buying power? Is it possible by taking away from these wage earners a substantial part of their income, so that they must curtail their expenses --perhaps withdraw from their building and loans, perhaps cancel their insurance policies, perhaps buy fewer clothes from the merchants and fewer supplies from the storekeepers -- is that the way to stimulate business? Why, it is simply meeting unemployment by creating more unemployment, because this question of income and spending is purely a matter of degree. It is not my purpose this morning to discuss the legal aspects of this situation. There is no question, I think, in the minds of any of us, that this Commission has not the legal authority to reduce wages of civil service employees; but we prefer rather than stand on that aspect of the situation to discuss it on its merits as an economic, as an equitable situation in which all of the citizens of the community are interested. Only recently President Hoover, in speaking on this subject, said, that the reduction of the standards of living of the American people through the reduction of wages should be avoided at all costs. The Commissioner of Labor of this State has expressed the same view; the Civil Service Commission has gone on record as well. And one of the greatest economists of the country, Professor Leiserson, has written a very able article on the subject in which he demonstrates the unsoundness of such an economic policy. From 1929 to 1930 the dividends on stock increased a half billion of dollars, while wages during the same period decreased from seventeen to eighteen billions of dollars. You see how the ratio moves up and down in a situation of this kind. Why only this morning we read that the President has asked the public to cease hoarding, and put its cash to use. Well, is it possible to do that if you are going to take the cash away from the people who have it, or who are earning it, and who would spend it if you gave them an opportunity? These people are all under either the civil service or the Tenture of Office Act. Now, what does that mean? That means that for years they have received salaries that have been far below the standards of salaries for similar positions in different occupations. And why have they been willing to do this? Because of the fancied security of their positions, because they believed that they were assured of an income that was fixed and determined. They gave up their bargaining power which the ordinary workman or employee has with his employer and they submitted, for the purpose of this security, for the purpose of the continuity of their occupation, to the lower salary fixed by law under the civil service. They must take examinations, and in some cases they must devote years of preparation in order to fit them for the positions which they take and occupy. And for all this they have the assurance that they can raise their families, that they can send their children to school, that they can clothe them properly and fit them properly, and take care, if you will, of their other dependents. Not in a grand style, not munificently, but adequately. They can do it because of the certainty of their position and their income. They are able to budget their expenses, and they have done so, as I will show you presently what it may mean to some of these people who have, in reliance upon the good faith of the State of New Jersey acting through this municipality, in this case, have, in many cases, given up the best years of their life to the service. They have fixed standards of living which are a benefit to the community. We are trying to live up to at least within those standards of living of the American people that we boast so of. In times of prosperity we are very fond of comparing our condition with the condition of some less fortunate foreign country. You all recall how frequently we have boasted of the standards of living fixed by and through the prosperity of America. What has become of it? Where are they going? To what depths will they descend if we continue this breaking down process, which is bound to reflect itself in the morale of every man and every woman and every group that it touches? These 10,000 people who will be affected are a bulwark to the community. They are able to set and to live up to conditions which are an example and which are helpful and which sustain the standards of the community. During the periods of prosperity the occupants of the civil service positions, municipal employees, had to get along with the wages which they were then receiving. Those veterans who are now affected and who will be affected to the number of some twelve or fifteen hundred, were overseas, drawing wages at $30 a month, while others were here receiving twenty and thirty and forty dollars a day. You are going to affect hundreds upon hundreds of those men who were not able to take advantage, because they were doing their patriotic duty, of the economic conditions that were developed during the war. If you will look at this chart just a moment you will see graphically illustrated the situation that I am attempting to picture to you. This brown line indicates a change in the cost of living with the peak in 1920. I want you to notice that the wages of the industries of the United States have never gone below that mark in all that time. That is the free labor of the country: free to bargain with its employers, free to demand its rights, to take advantage of the rise in prices, as well as to acquiesce in decreases. That rise and fall in the wage scale may be justified in those cases, in cases of that kind. But see what a different picture is presented with regard to the civil service employees and the school teachers. Always below the brown line representing the cost; the school teachers never rose with that peak and never rose to the apex of it. It was not until 1922 that the school teachers' pay even paralleled the cost of living. And look at the purple line, the civil service employees: always below, never having the advantage of these sharp rises; going along with practically the same wage scale until 1930 arrived before it even approximates the cost of living. Now, they have had to adjust themselves to that condition. They have adjusted themselves to it. And yet, the suggestion comes now that you tear up all of these adjustments by the roots and compel them, for the benefit of the banking group of this community, to begin all over again and re-adjust their lives to meet this situation. When, even the Chamber of Commerce, I understand, comes in here and asks you gentlemen to strike this blow at the credit of the City of Newark, representing the very people who have encouraged the situation which we now find ourselves in; representing the very people who will later be most adversely affected by the result of this action on your part. We will have to change the slogan of the City of Newark, and it will take us years to overcome. It is a gratuitous blow at the credit of this city. We will have to say and spread to the world: "no, Newark is not bankrupt; the credit of Newark is still sound, even though our own bankers in our own community who live by us and with us and upon us have taken fright and are scuttling." Instead of standing by, instead of encouraging you gentlemen to meet this difficult situation that you are confronted with, they make it worse in their timidity and their fear, because, what is more proverbially timid than capital? What becomes frightened quicker than the rich man's dollar? You see that fright or that avarice, or that combination of both, whatever it may be, reflected in their attitude at this time. The balance sheet of the City of Newark shows that it owns property valued at $171,000,000. $171,000,000; $60,000,000 more than the interest-bearing debt of the city. And back of that, to the credit of Newark, is over a billion dollars of property subject to taxation. And is Newark bankrupt? And in the face of this situation is it necessary to go to this group and take them by the throat and say, "Here, give us ten per cent. of your little salaries because these bankers are demanding six per cent., when for years we have been able to borrow from them and they have been glad to lend at three and one half per cent., and even as low as two and a half per cent. interest." Newark is not bankrupt, gentlemen.

Commissioner Gillen: Who said it was?

Mr. Osborne: Who said it was? The plain inference is, when they come to you with such a demand, that you are bankrupt. Perhaps they wish you were, and then they might demand not six per cent., but even more. These employees of the city have not received the normal increases which under the law they are entitled to, and which they have a reasonable right to expect, because of economic conditions. They have been willing to forego this. They have contributed already to the funds which have been made necessary to take care of the emergency relief situation in the community. The civil service group has contributed $40,000. or seventeen per cent. of the total raised by the Emergency Relief Committee of the city, although they only represent four per cent. of the working population. The teachers have raised and distributed voluntarily a special fund to take care of the needy. In almost every school—I might say in every school without fear of contradiction—the teachers are caring for the underprivileged children, both by service and by money. We know that they are assisting the welfare organizations in their efforts. And are these contributions which are being made and which have been made to be ignored? Are we to forget all this? When we attempt to exact from this group these two millions of dollars, what is going to become of it if you get it? Where is it going? The teachers, gentlemen, through their officers, have authorized me to say that they are opposed, and they feel that they are justly opposed, to any voluntary reduction. The president of the Parent-Teachers Association, in convention within a day or two, came out with an insistent and emphatic demand that the teachers' salaries should not be reduced. You know it is difficult enough to get competent teachers. We know that wonderful profession can scarcely be recruited because of the low pay of teachers.

Mayor Congleton: That has not been our experience in Newark; our trouble is getting teachers we think competent in our system. They go outside of Newark too often, we think.

Mr. Osborne: Perhaps there is better assurance—

Mayor Congleton: No. They come here because the pay is better.

Mr. Osborne: Well, then, Newark is very fortunate. Now, do you want to bring down that situation?

Mayor Congleton: We want to give jobs to Newarkers, if they are competent, before they go outside of Newark.

Mr. Osborne: You can do that; I haven't any objection to that; but you cannot indict a class because some people are either going to leave Newark and go elsewhere for better conditions, or because other people come from outside because you have made conditions in Newark so that you attract the best teachers from everywhere. And that is as it should be. Why should not Newark make her teaching conditions so attractive so that the best will come, so that the children of the City of Newark will have the advantage of the best teaching that the profession affords? Certainly any action of this character must necessarily be conducive to breaking down of the morale, of the fine standards that you say you have set up in the City of Newark. If you say it is so, I have no doubt that it is so, and I am glad that it is so, and you ought to be proud of it, and prouder still to maintain it unimpaired. Now, there are some rather intimate aspects of this situation which I think I should like to in a very general way, and briefly, bring to your attention. I have before me an analysis of the police and fire department personnel of the City of Newark. And what does it show? As you read page after page you find, married, married. I open at random one page, and every officer is a married man. And that is as it should be. That means that you have represented on your force a great majority of stable, sound, family men, good citizens. And you look again and you see that they have dependents, as we all have, and as we should have. Unless the milk of human kindness has entirely oozed from our veins we must have dependents, either of our own or of our less fortunate fellows: dependents anywhere from one to eight. And it is rather surprising to find, in view of the obligations of these men, how many of them own or are attempting to purchase their own homes. As you look over this list, under the column "Do you own your own Home?" and you come to the statement "No. No. No." If you did not stop to realize how ill they can afford to own their own homes you might be somewhat surprised. But many of them do, both in the fire department and the police department. They are mortgaged, and they are paying off the mortgage in the building and loan, or otherwise—usually in the building and loan. And they are supporting a mother. Take these at random: Here the children of a dead brother, here a sister, here a mother-in-law. That is the story, page after page and page after page. And we expect to get this type of man on the police force and in the fire department. We are entitled to have men from the best of our citizenship on our police and fire departments, men who are willing to make the sacrifices that these men make; men who risk their lives day after day; men who lose their lives with too great frequency. You gentlemen who are at the head of these departments appreciate what that means. I do not have to bring the roster here, the roll of honor of the men in these departments who have lost their lives in the performance of duty; who are willing to submit themselves, and do in large numbers, for blood transfusions of utter strangers; who are subject to the call of duty day and night. You know that, gentlemen, far better than I do. And are they over paid in the City of Newark? What establishes these salaries? Comparison with similar occupations or occupations requiring similar duties in other walks of life. Other communities. Where does Newark stand? Is Newark isolated in paying $2500. which they only reach after five years of service, to these policemen and firemen? Why, almost the entire first page of this sheet which I show you, is of cities which pay $2500 or more to its patrolmen. There are three communities, none of which are as large as Newark, in this state, paying their patrolmen $3,000 a year. There are six others paying them from $2550 to $28000; there are probably twenty or thirty, and some of the places very small, which are paying their patrolmen a sum equal to that received in the City of Newark. And the lowest one of any city in the state is $2250. That is a city where conditions are peculiar and unusual, and not parallel in any other community in New Jersey. Now, can you say that these wages are too much? Have you been too generous? Have you been wrong in encouraging the living of a decent family life, the proper bringing up of the children, the meeting of his social obligations? Have you been wrong in encouraging all that, that you must now come in and in this paltry, pitiful way, say, "Now we want you to give some of that back." Of course, we know you cannot afford it, we know we are not giving you a square deal, we know it is uneconomic, but somebody else is putting the pressure on us and we cannot stand up under it and we cannot find any other way." I do not believe, gentlemen, from my knowledge of the history of this city and of the men who compose this commission that we are going to reach any such conclusion. Perhaps I should call your attention to this morning's paper in which the suggestion was made by employers that a certain cut in wages should take place. It is significant, because if you will examine that table in which the wages of the various trades are analyzed, and the present scale is set up, and the new scale, you must be impressed by the fact that nowhere, even under a twenty-five per cent. cut, have the wages reached the low level of that group who are here before you today asking you to consider their rights and their interest. Remember, that this proposition affects not only the higher pay, but every one, to the lowly scrub woman and the laundress in your institutions eking out a bare pittance, receiving enough scarcely to rise above that minimum which is fixed in the giving of gratuitous relief to the unfortunate. And are we going to ask those people to pay ten per cent., to further impoverish themselves, to meet this situation? Perhaps we should, if we follow the doctrines or the teachings of a man who presumes to speak for the banking interests of this community. In yesterday's paper in a published interview, Mr. Rippel—

Mayor Congleton: That was a public interview, if you please, Senator, before Governor Moore in Trenton, at which most of us were present.

Mr. Osborne: Then you gentlemen will appreciate—

Mayor Congleton: We did.

Mr. Osborne (continuing): the significance of the gentlemen's remarks. The man reputed to be the richest man in the State of New Jersey presumes to come out in this public interview and say that we must reduce our cost of living, we must reduce our standards of living. Why, he even says that we are going too far in our welfare programs; that we must be careful that we do not take too much care or too good care of the sick and the halt and the lame and the blind. Who is this man who dares to strike this blow? It is the most astonishing pronouncement that I have seen. He says we mustn't have any radios. I shouldn't be surprised if he would go a step further and say we must close our libraries, we shan't have any books that he would wipe out all culture except for the rich; that you cannot have electric ice-boxes; he says they are a luxury; you must go back to the old drudgery; if your wife cannot afford a servant she must carry this great pan of melted water, or perhaps lift the ice around, because, forsooth, you must not take advantage of modern science; we need this ten per cent. that represents the difference between your necessities and your comforts. Capital needs it in the form of an increased rate of interest. And then he says it is going to become impossible to dispose of the paper of our municipalities. My God, why wouldn't it be impossible after he gets through with it. When this attack is through, if it is carried out successfully, of course you won't be able to dispose of your paper.

Mayor Congleton: Jersey City was not yesterday. Five and a half million of bonds. They received no bids.

Mr. Osborne: Certainly not, with this thing going on.

Mayor Congleton: Six per cent paper.

Mr. Osborne: What happened in New York, though? How many hours was it before the bonds of the City of New York were snapped up out of the market before you could give your broker an order to buy them? And is the administration of the City of New York better, cleaner, abler, than the administration of the City of Newark? If New York can sell her bonds, why can't we? You may ask, and perhaps—I say not perhaps, but no doubt properly, “What do you suggest? What are you going to do about it?” Of course, I might say, say, “That is your responsibility, not mine.” But we are not here in that spirit, gentlemen; we do not say that if we had had the opportunity and the time to analyze this situation that we might not have been able to have made suggestions, perhaps constructive and valuable, perhaps not; because, after all, we recognize the fact that the responsibility is yours and not ours. But it occurs to us that with the $16,500,000.00 of state funds which will be made available, Newark will be entitled to a substantial part of that amount in its allocation to the municipalities. What is it, two million and half? Whatever the sum may be.

Mayor Congleton: $2,800,000, I think, approximately.

Mr. Osborne: That is one place to look as an alternative to this levy, this tax upon this selected group, selected, presumably, because they are the easiest to get at, because they are the handiest, because they are more subject to your will; not selected by you gentlemen, but selected by others for you to take the responsibility of and for. There is due the City of Newark—this is my second proposition—$14,583,266 in taxes due, back taxes; fourteen millions of dollars, fourteen and a half millions. Suggestion has been made that by advancing the penalty date it may stimulate the payment of a large proportion of those taxes, and that would seem to be a good suggestion. And we have this further suggestion to make, that the citizens of this community be permitted to have the advantage of this 6 per cent. by voluntarily coming in and paying their taxes in advance, and receiving for that payment a discount of six per cent., or some other sum which will make the proposition so attractive that our citizens themselves will finance this whole situation. Then there is another suggestion that we desire to make, and that is, that instead of turning all of these bonds over to the bankers to cart off to New York, or somewhere else, and sell at a premium, that they be issued in denominations of such denominations as to permit our own citizens to buy them. (Applause.)

Now, you may say that you cannot sell enough of them. How do you know you cannot sell enough of them? Did you ever try it? And if you cannot, you can at least sell enough to relieve the situation somewhat. Just how far you can go and what the effect will be, you don't know, perhaps; but isn't it worth trying? Why shouldn't the people of the City of Newark get some of these profits? Maybe you will need legislation to enable you to give a premium for prompt payment. I understand there is no reason why the bonds should not be sold to the public if the public is willing to take them. Isn't that so, Commissioner Howe?

Commissioner Howe: Yes.

Mr. Osborne: Of course, it has never been done in the past because the bankers have always been so glad to get them and until they saw this opportunity of squeezing out a higher rate of interest there was no necessity of it. Didn't we buy liberty bonds during the war? Wouldn't the effect of this be to open up the strong boxes and bring out the money which the President in this morning's paper says is being hoarded? He estimates that $1,300,000,000 is being hoarded in strong boxes because of the fear created in the minds of the people by just such suggestions as this. How much of that is there in the City of Newark that would be available if the opportunity were afforded to meet this emergency? We have a Federal Reserve Bank, is the next suggestion. My information is that it is re-discounting paper in south Jersey of the south Jersey banks so as to make funds available. Other cities are being afforded facilities for meeting their economic problems that are denied the City of Newark. Why can't our bankers avail themselves of that situation And there has just been organized—our fifth suggestion—the Federal Finance Corporation, as I understand it, to meet just such emergencies as this so that the banks and industries can borrow money from the Federal government, which, in turn, can be used and passed through to the municipalities to meet their needs. These are the suggestions, gentlemen, that we present to you for your consideration. They are not new; no doubt you have had them in mind. But we would suggest that before you permit yourselves to be stampeded into any such uneconomic unmoral wrong as this, and work an injustice upon this group, teachers, city employees, policemen and firemen, who are already underpaid, who are already giving their best to the City, and who have never yet shirked their duty, that you consider these other remedies, these other potential possibilities, and that you refuse the demand of the banking interests to impose this injustice. (Applause.)

Mayor Congleton: Judge Osborne, the Commission appreciates the splendid presentation of the matter, and we, of course, will take it in conference with us on the further study of our budget. But there are just one or two things that we would like to give you some information about so that you may know that we have not just been sitting still; we have been working on this proposition for a long time. With respect to trying to induce the Federal Reserve of this northern district to rediscount municipal paper; We have taken that up, not this Commission alone, but the governing officials of almost all of the municipalities of northern New Jersey. It is true that the Philadelphia District, which is governed by a different board, does permit, up to a certain percentage, the rediscount of municipal paper. The board in this district does not permit it. And it is governed by one of their regulations. We have appealed to the Governor for his assistance, along with ours, in trying to prevail upon the Federal Reserve Board in this district to follow the practice pursued in the Philadelphia District. Every single one of the members of this Commission were in Trenton all of Tuesday backing up, if you please, the recommendations of Governor Moore, which in effect call for a moratorium on the further undertaking of new projects by the State Highway Commission, and turning back to the municipalities some of the moneys which I care to call loans to them in the early days of their existence. It is inconceivable to me that in this day and generation, when the State Highway Commission has the income that it has from registration fees, from bond issues, from gasoline tax, that we should still be compelled to raise by a direct tax on real estate further moneys for the building of the state highways. It is true that in the bond issue there was arbitrarily set aside $5,000,000 to be apportioned back to municipalities to help relieve them of this mill tax burden we have still got to carry for several years by reason of its being tied up to the original $40,000,000 bond issue. But even after they had apportioned back this five millions, Newark's share last year was $689,000; but we had to raise by direct taxation upon real estate, and pay into the state treasury for state highway purposes, $901,000; so that after this relief given to us we still were to the bad to the tune of $211,000. Now, that should certainly be corrected; and if we got that $211,000 more of cash to anticipate in our miscellaneous revenues it would reduce our tax rate more than two points; and we have been looking at every place that we can conceive of to relieve this situation. One of the troubles that we are up against is the fact that taxes for 1932, which carry the salaries of the city employees, including our own, are not payable until June, and that from the first day of January until then, or certainly from April 15, when people may come in and pay, if they please, until that time the City's business has to be carried on on credit. We have advocated, and we are having prepared, a bill which will be introduced in the legislature next Monday evening, and which the municipal officials at this conference on Tuesday agreed to sponsor, upon our suggestion, a bill which will permit the taxpayers to come in and make payments on account of 1932 taxes on the basis of 1931, offering them a liberal discount and any adjustment between what they are taxed actually as for 1932, as compared with 1931, be re-adjusted at the time of the payment of the second installment of taxes. Even before that bill is introduced and becomes a law, there is no reason why taxpayers who want to assist in this situation cannot come in and make a payment on account of 1932 taxes, and I am sure that they will be properly dealt with. We are alive to the situation and are going to do everything that we can do, and deal with this entire matter in a proper, equitable way. There was just one statement that you made that I would like to correct, in so far as the City of Newark is concerned, and that was your reference to the boys who went overseas working for $30 a month. The City of Newark recognized the inequality of that, and it was my pleasure, as head of the Law Department, to give the City Commission an opinion under which they paid to these boys the difference between what they got from the Federal Government and what their salary was as city employees.

Mr. Osborne: The reference which I made—I am very glad to know that because it is quite characteristic of the attitude of this City government in all matters of this kind—the reference which I made was, of course, without that knowledge; but it was with regard to those who were not in the city employ at that time but are now. But I beg of you gentlemen, in looking about, as you say you are doing, and I have no doubt you are doing, that you do not look too strongly upon the $34.25 which is the average weekly salary of your employees upon which they must live and bring up their families.

Commissioner Murray: Judge Osborne, you might have said by way of opposition, if you want to use the term, that many of the city employees from 1914 to 1920 stayed on their jobs here when industrial plants and other institutions about the neighborhood were offering from $90 to $125 a week, they staying with the City at their lower wage and refused to take the higher job.

Mr. Osborne: Thank you very much. I have no doubt there are many things I could have said, but I did not want to trespass too much upon your patience and your time.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who desires to be heard at this time?

Mr. John D. Lengel, 704 South 14th Street:

I am representing the group of mechanics working for the City of Newark. The International Association of Machinists, of which I am the representative in the City of Newark, through its membership, who are working for the City of Newark, have requested me to appear here before you this morning and voice an objection to any cut or any reduction in salary, whether voluntary or otherwise. Some of the reasons that we have for this we are going to state at this time. First, under the Civil Service Act an agreement had been reached between the officials of this organization and the former commissioners, that these men would voluntarily receive an increase every year of about $150. For the last three years, and some even longer, these men have not received their annual increase, as we call it, which they have a right to expect, because of the fact that that agreement had been reached in previous years with your former commissioners of this city. We realize that from time to time the men who work in all the departments, not only in the mechanical department of the City of Newark, are called upon to make contributions to various funds in order that relief may be had where it is absolutely necessary. The small amount of wages they receive, and the deductions made by their voluntary contributions, still make their wages lower than they should be receiving. We have at the present time between sixty-five and seventy men who are working directly for the city under civil service, and we have figured that without this increase we have lost in wages approximately $25,000 in the last three years. These figures may not seem very large to some people, but I am going to tell you it is exceptionally large to the average wage earner in the City of Newark. The men who are clamoring for this cut or reduction, as it is so put, in wages, are men who will be in the end affected by this very same reduction. I cannot understand how anybody or any group of men could come before you Commissioners here today, or at any other time, and ask for a reduction in wages when it is going to reflect back at them. Don't the workers put their wages, what is left when you are lucky enough to have some left, in the bank? Doesn't the worker buy the products and the merchandise that these business men sell? Put yourself in the place, or put the bankers and manufacturers or chamber of commerce, as it is so-called, made up of some of the business men of this town, in their place, and ask them to take a reduction in wages and see what they would tell you. You would have the biggest holder, as we will put it in plain words, that you have ever heard in your life before. It is all well and good for a man of means, a man who has accumulated plenty of money so that he does not have to worry where his next loaf of bread comes from—it is all right for him to say "Reduction in wages." But put the boot on the other foot and see what happens then. Taxes on homes must be paid. There are certain laws requiring, after the duration of a certain time, that the City of Newark, or any city in the United States, can sell your home if your taxes are not paid. Who is benefiting by that? Surely, it isn't the city. The homes are sold for taxes, and that is all. If the man is lucky enough, perhaps he can redeem that house; but in nine times out of ten he will never redeem it, and the monied interests buy up these homes, therefore creating a hardship again to the men who earn wages, because of the fact that they have to go out and rent a home where rents are high, and in some cases the houses are not fit to live in. I believe if this condition keeps going on the way it is that Commissioner Murray will have plenty more money to expend for relief.

Mr. O. Henry Grois: We are just coming here today to thank you gentlemen of the Commission for your liberality in listening to our pleas in the past relative to this situation. We want to assure you that our stand has not changed one bit. That the Essex Trades Council is one hundred per cent. behind this plan and that we will not be in favor of seeing this Commission, or any other group, trying to use any influence whatsoever to reduce the salaries of the municipal employees. We stand upon that ground firmly, and we are united in that plan. It is impossible for us today to outline to you the many reasons for our assuming that attitude. Most of you realize we have helped this community with all these trade union movements, and that can be assured to you by one example I will show to you. Our organizations are not appealing to this city or to Director Murray's Department of Public Welfare for any help for our members; we are trying to cope with that situation as best we know how. I may say for our own organization, I doubt that it can be proven to me that the bakers organization I represent, that there is a man being helped by the Department of Public Welfare, that there is one cent of the taxpayers' money being used to feed him or his family.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: Have the bankers actually asked you to reduce the wages of the employees of the city of Newark ten per cent?

Mayor Congleton: No, sir.

Mr. Zemel: If the bankers have not asked you—

Mayor Congleton: The Chamber of Commerce has suggested it.

Mr. Zemel: I know nothing about the Chamber of Commerce. But the bankers are being villified for asking you to put your house in order. I do not resent it when the banker asks me, Mr. Zemel, furnish me with a financial statement." And I do, and if it warrants I get the credit I am entitled to. Now, before you undertook that big project for the Pennsylvania Railroad and Public Service, there appeared in the press a statement that the City of Newark was financially capable and able to carry that project forward. Was that false? Why are the bankers being villified? Why put them in a false light? I cannot see it. You can and will put your house in order or you won't get any money, is what they tell me. I don't think that the City of Newark is bigger than its citizens. No, sir. I have suggested ways yesterday. I have another way, too. From what I know and understand the Newark schools, whether they be grammar schools, high schools, day schools, or night schools, are the dumping ground for the surrounding communities; they send their children to the Newark schools and Newark pays the expense without getting a button in return. I know that the Newark City Hospital, the Alms House, and the Poor House is another dumping ground. I know that in your department, Mr. Mayor, you have high priced employees whom I see from day to day, and very little return they give—not $2500 men, no, don't cut them; not $1500 men, no don't cut them; they have got to live, but I do know of one instance which only happened last year and was told to me last week by a man, where $40,000 was thrown away to the winds. This party made an appraisal of some property on the right of way of the Pennsylvania Railroad for the City of Newark. It wasn't satisfactory to the powers that be, and it was rejected. If it wasn't satisfactory, why were they paid for it? Somebody else made the appraisal again, it was paid for again. I only speak here as a taxpayer. I am bled white; I am a beggar today; I cannot collect rents. I am a beggar today. I am more in danger, probably, than any other citizen of becoming a charge upon this city.

(Laughter.)

I speak the truth, gentlemen. I speak the truth. (Applause.)

You have in your departments men who get over $1500 a year that don't put in but part time. I emphasized that yesterday. They have got other businesses, they have other interests. In all departments. Those men, either the city should get rid of them, or they should give their full time to the city. This is no joke; this thing is getting to be serious. It won't be any trouble to you to cut down that $2,000,000 if there aren't any frills and fringes on your budget. There won't be any trouble about it. It has got to be done, that is all. The bankers are criticized regularly. I am in favor of what Mr. Rippel says about doing away with radios, ice cream and Frigidaires, and all that stuff; but we have got to live. I do business with the bankers every day. They treat me fair if I can show them I am entitled to it. The City of Newark must not cut the wages of any employee that is giving his service honestly and is faithful as a policeman, fireman, garbage collector, street sweeper, or any of your clerks; but you have got plenty of men right here in the City Hall who are drawing wages and should not be drawing them.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Zemel, you referred specifically to my department. I would be very glad to receive a list of these men that you say are drawing salaries and performing no service, at your convenience.

Mr. Zemel: They are only performing part time service.

Mayor Congleton: All right, give me a list of them. That is a general statement.

Mr. Zemel: If you will furnish me with a list of your employees—

Mayor Congleton: You mentioned people that you knew. Give me the names of them.

Mr. Samuel Levine: He talked on economic conditions.

Commissioner Gillen: May I interrupt for a moment? There are several speakers to be heard here and I think we ought to get down to the point. You are an intelligent man, a good talker—

Mr. Levine: I accept your correction; I think you are right. All right. They talk about reducing the cost of living. Now, is there any earthly reason why we should reduce the cost of living? Why should we reduce the cost of living? Aren't our natural resources as great as ever? Haven't we as much manpower as there has ever been? Aren't the forests as great as ever? Why reduce the cost of living? What are you going to do with the machinery? I don't see how you can possibly think of reducing the cost of living.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Levine, the question before us is whether or not the City Commission should reduce the salaries of municipal employees in the making up of our budget. Now, we would like you to confine yourself to that. Now, some of these things that you are talking about—

Mr. Levine: You think it has nothing to do with it.

Mayor Congleton: No. We will listen to you on that subject.

Mr. Levine: All right, Mr. Mayor, I think you are probably right; probably I have a chestful, and probably—

Mayor Congleton: We have a problem here, a business proposition, and we would be glad to hear any suggestions you may have.

Mr. Valentine B. Kane: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission—

Mayor Congleton: We have not forgotten what you said, Mr. Kane. We will listen to any new suggestions, but we do not think it is quite fair to us to have it repeated day by day. We have a record made by the stenographer. We will listen to anything new you have to say.

Mr. Kane: I want to leave this thought with you: In my travels from Maine to Florida I see signs put out by the City of Newark: "Newark knows how." This is the time to prove that slogan. Does Newark know how?

Mayor Congleton: This may not be—or rather, this may be a very appropriate time for the City Commission to give vent to a matter we have had on our minds for several years. It has been referred to indirectly here several times today. Reference has been made to the effect of a salary reduction that the merchants would feel, and some reference has been made to the fact that landlords cannot rent their homes and apartments and collect the rents. The City Commission as long ago as three or four years started giving consideration to this matter that I refer to, and that is, that so many of the municipal employees, while under the civil service laws have to be residents of Newark in order to enter the competitive examination, shortly after getting their job move out of the City of Newark. Now, this has been revived again in our conferences, and without saying that this is final, but the consensus of opinion seems to be that if Newark is a good enough place for us to make our livelihood in from general taxation, it ought to be a good enough place for the City employees who are making their livelihood here to live in, and to help the landlords whose apartments and homes are vacant by either spending their money here to buy homes, or to pay rent, and thus take a larger part in the cultural and civic life of our city. It may be that one of the things that will come out of this situation is that the City may have to adopt that as an absolute fixed rule. And I state that now because practically every group of city employees are represented here this morning, and it might be well for them.

to carry it back to their fellow employees.

Mr. Henry Green: I am opposed to a reduction, and I hope you will be opposed to it; and I hope, Mr. Mayor, I am not doing you an injustice, and I hope not to, because it is not a personal matter, and I want to come here again, and I want to be on friendly terms, real brotherly terms—but if you went to Trenton and you told Governor Moore not to have old age pensions this year after we spent $30,000 on that Senator Yates, that beautiful beaut with his dame, and give him highballs in New York where they have an old age pension, they are paying it—we passed one to take effect next June. Are you going to take away bread from the mouths of the old women and men? I hope the newspapers quoted you right, and I hope I am not misquoting you; but God, if you every try to take that pension next June away and have Governor Moore cooperate with you on that, they will hear from us citizens of Newark.

Mayor Congleton: The suggestion was made to Governor Moore, growing out of a conference of municipal officials, that it be postponed to the first of the year because they are not yet ready to function, and the people that will come under that act are now being provided for.

Mr. Selick J. Mindes: It has been stated that the bankers have not requested the City of Newark to decrease the salaries of municipal employees; it has been stated that the Chamber of Commerce has made that suggestion. At a meeting of the Building and Loan League last Friday night, the statement was made that the Building and Loan League and the Building and Loans of the City of Newark were in accord and were in favor of the reduction of the salaries of the city employees in order to reduce the municipal budget. I want to say on behalf of the building and loans of the City of Newark, and also of the County of Essex, and I want to say in behalf of the Building and Loan League and I daresay I have that right to say it without the authority, because I was present at that meeting, that the building and loan associations and the Building and Loan League never went on record, never have expressed themselves in any manner in favor of the reduction of wages of the city employees in order to reduce taxes.

Commissioner Gillen: The Chamber of Commerce said they did.

Mr. Mindes: Mr. Commissioner, I don't know whether they did or did not, but if the Chamber of Commerce said they did, the Chamber of Commerce made a misstatement. Now, I have taken up the matter, and the reason why the building and loans complain, they say that they are getting back a lot of properties because people are unable to pay their taxes, with the result that they have to pay and bear the burden. There is a very large demand on the building and loans by mortgagors to pay taxes because the mortgagors cannot pay them themselves. And as a result there is complaint by the building and loan associations that properties owned by some of their mortgagors, and properties which they have acquired by reason of foreclosure, instead of being assessed at one hundred per cent. on its value, as the law requires it to be assessed, at the present time is assessed at 125 and 130 per cent. of its value. Now, that is a serious thing. That is the complaint of the building and loans. They have appeared before your tax board and they have said, "Gentlemen, we will sell this property for twenty-five per cent. less than what you have assessed it for; we will enter into a contract with any individual or yourselves." And your tax board has replied to them, "That is a forced sale; that is a sale at sacrifice value; we don't think your taxes ought to be reduced. Furthermore, we cannot reduce them because the City has certain mandatory requirements that it must make good, and you have got to pay the taxes in order to assist us in doing that." Now, I say that in passing without any criticism; but I do say this, and I speak as a taxpayer of the City of Newark, not representing any particular association, branch, or in any other manner than an ordinary taxpayer. We are all in accord that taxes must be reduced. Now, it is a very serious thing when you find in the northern part of our city a taxpayer's association rising and stating that they are going to march to the City Hall and make a presentation—

Mayor Congleton: Haven't we always had that?

Mr. Mindes: Yes. But I say it is a serious proposition when you have it from all over the city. That means there is something of complaint somewhere. Now, let us assume that they are justified or unjustified. We must assume that somebody is laboring under an impression that something should be done concerning taxes, and they are in accord in that respect, and we are all in accord in that respect. And we feel that the Chamber of Commerce is perfectly correct and justified in asking that taxes be reduced. We feel that the building and loan associations and all individuals are justified as asking that taxes be reduced. The modus operandi is the question. Now, I do not understand that the Chamber of Commerce has said that you shall reduce your taxes by reducing the wages of the city employees.

Mayor Congleton: Let me read you this paragraph from this letter:

"This Committee is not informed as to whether or not it may be necessary to reduce salaries in order to effect the saving of $2,500,000, but in the event that such a course proves necessary, it recommends a reduction in the salaries of public employees of a sum not less than ten per cent."

Mr. Mindes: That is correct: Mr. Mayor; I have that, and that is exactly what I was going to read. They said, "This Committee is not informed as to whether or not it may be necessary"—

Mayor Congleton: Well, they pretend to be when they come here before us; and they have had their research men in our books for weeks and months, and the only suggestion they have made is a reduction in salaries. Now, let us call a spade a spade.

Mr. Mindes: Now, My Mayor, they say in effect that they don't recommend—that they don't want to recommend, but they suggest.

Commissioner Egan: The Chamber of Commerce has never recommended anything.

Mr. Mindes: They make a suggestion.

Commissioner Egan: They have never been anything but a super-governmental organization, and never any initiative manifested.

Mr. Mindes: I understand that. But what I am getting at is this: That taxpayers are somewhat at a loss to understand why pick on the firemen and policemen and school teachers and the city employees in order to reduce your budget? What have they done to merit reduction? Now, we feel this, that while there are some unnecessary employees, that that is the minimum such as will occur in every business. But we do feel that there are a number of city employees that are underpaid and have been underpaid for a good many years. We recall very distinctly that during the period of inflation when an employee who was earning $50. a week, or $2500. a year, was unable to live decently in rooms unless he paid $75. a month for those rooms. At that time he went through sacrifice and deprivation in order to maintain and support himself; and all these years he went along, and now when he gets down to a situation where the cost of living is just about coming in—not yet within his income—it is proposed out of a clear sky to reduce his salary. Now, we say that is unfair. You cannot get a decent day's work out of any man unless you pay him a living wage. And you cannot get your employees to do conscientious and honest work unless they get fair and reasonable salaries for it. I want to say this, Mr. Mayor; I heard the remark stated by you that teachers from outside come to the City of Newark for employment because of the fact we have got higher salaries here than they get anywheres else. You don't eman that. You mean that they get a living wage here and they may not have gotten a living wage somewhere else.

Mayor Congleton: Don't misunderstand me. I think the salary schedule of the teachers is a perfectly proper schedule. When that salary schedule was adopted by the Board of Education I had recently been made Mayor. The Board of Education took that schedule up with me before they put it into effect, and if I had any objection to it I certainly would have made it known then. I acquiesced in that salary schedule and urged them to adopt it. But the point I was trying to make was that we have competent people in the city of Newark who by education and personality are qualified to become teachers in our school system, and that just as long as we have them here in the City of Newark that are qualified, they should be given the first opportunity for the positions in our system.

Mr. Mindes: Now, I felt that that was your Honor's views, and I felt that a wrong impression might go abroad, and it was because of that I brought that subject up. But I want to say to you, Mr. Mayor, to you Commissioners, that more honor to you that school teachers do seek employment here from other communities, and more honor to you because the City of Newark for years has been known as a city that paid a wage earner a living wage. We were known as having the best artisans in this vicinity, as I recall my boyhood days, and as I remember Newark with its number of citizens, remember how it has increased in population from 200,000 to close on to 500,000, that the thing that did it was the fact that we had specialized artisans here. We paid our men a living wage and they came here, and that increased our population and it increased our tax ratables. Now, shall it now be said that we shall diminish our population by paying them less than a living wage? I defy anybody to show me where any policemen in the city of Newark or any firemen or any school teacher gets any higher pay than in any other city of equal comparison. That is what I mean when I say that we should maintain our standards, and maintain it because of the good of our taxpayers. And I say this, that the moment that you depreciate, the moment you cut your salaries of your employees, you are going to affect every taxpayer in this city, and I will tell you how: When you reduce or attempt to reduce your city employees, what do you suppose they are going to do? It was suggested in the newspaper that a letter was written in which it was suggested that scrip might be issued in place of money. Don't you think that the school teachers and the employees would accept that scrip in preference to a cut? They have got faith in the city's credit; they will maintain that faith and what will happen? They will accept that scrip, but they will withdraw their savings, their life savings, the savings that they maintained for a rainy day and for illness, they will draw that out of our banks, they will reduce their mode of living from three rooms to one room, they will combine their families to meet their wages. And how will that affect your city? Will the merchants' business be increased? Will your landlord have more rooms vacant or will he not? The school teachers and policemen and the firemen and the city employees are one chain in the prosperity of this city. Now, I am somewhat mindful of this: I recall that years ago in a certain municipal administration they went into office with one avowed purpose, to create certain economics. And what did they do? They reduced the number of brooms and the number of cuspidors—the number of cuspidor cleaners, I should say, but not the number of cuspidors. And the result was that they were pennywise and pound foolish, because an unhealthy condition occurred. And so here, if you reduce the wages you are going to create an unhealthy condition. Now, we don't say to you "Don't reduce taxes," but we do say to you that there are other means to reduce taxes than that. And it has been suggested, and there are a number of suggestions, and now it is very difficult for an outsider to come into you and say, "Here, you are to do this and do that; we want to make a constructive suggestion and not a destructive suggestion, and the taxpayers are in accord with you." I dare say that I echo the sentiment of the majority of the citizens of Newark, because your employees are part of that majority. I echo their sentiment when they say that we do not want their salaries reduced at all. We want some other means and some other method of tax reduction and we do not want them picked out, they are faithful, they are honest, they are contributors to our welfare and we want them, we need them—we taxpayers need them and we cannot afford to put them in a position where they are going to injure the city in any way. And that is the view of every building and loan in this city. Every building and loan has said the moment we attempt to reduce the wages of our employees these men will withdraw from the building and loan, and the effect will be bad on us. We do not want it, because they are the ones that are paying their dues, and that is the situation. And we say that now we understand the position, and we ask that these employees continue at a living wage, because we feel that they are getting no more than a living wage at this time.

Mayor Congleton: We, the Commissioners, feel that we are alive to the present economic condition, and we realize that it is necessary to give the taxpayer every consideration possible. And if Mr. Mindes had been following the newspapers he would see that up to the present time we have reduced our budget appropriations in the neighborhood of $900,000.

Commissioner Gillen: I move we adjourn to Tuesday, February 9th, at 11 o'clock A. M.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Mayor Congleton: I think we ought to make a statement to the effect that there are Bills pending in the Legislature which may give the municipalities some further relief and postpone final adoption of the Budget to a later date. I think we should reserve to ourselves the right to change the date of the hearing to a later date if the Legislation should pass, so that we can work further on our Budgets and if we do that we can publish a notice giving any new figures set up as required by law.

Commissioner Gillen: About the Purchasing Board, The Board has submitted a set of rules to all of us and I think you have a set before you.

Mayor Congleton: Rules 1 and 2 as submitted, I think should be combined in one and read as follows:

"The Board of Purchases shall elect from among its own members, a Chairman, Vice Chairman and a Secretary, who shall serve in said offices for a term of one year. The Vice Chairman shall preside and have the powers of the Chairman in the absence of the Chairman.

Mayor Congleton: I do not see any reason why it is necessary for the Board to go outside of its own members for a Vice Chairman or Secretary. It should elect its own members.

Commissioner Gillen: I think we should just put in the word "Clerk." All of your help is going to be transferred to the Bureau, isn't it?

Mayor Congleton: I think we should define what purchases they shall make. You will recall that is one of the questions discussed from time to time. Commissioner Egan raised some questions as to fire apparatus and other things. I think we should define whether these things, such as street pavings and sewers in my department, whether the plans and specifications should be prepared by the Engineering Department. I think we ought to sit down and go over that. For instance, Paragraph 8, hospitals must get in touch with the Purchasing Board. It may be sometime they may have someone on the operating table and required something at once.

Commissioner Murray moved to adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

An ordinance authorizing the issuance of $2,000,000 Public Improvement Bonds of The City of Newark.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark Do Ordain as follows:

Section 1. Pursuant to Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, of New Jersey, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, negotiable bonds of The City of Newark, to be known as "Public Improvement Bonds," and to be dated not later than May 1, 1932, are hereby authorized to be issued in the aggregate principal amount of $2,000,000 for the purposes hereinafter stated, for which purposes it is necessary to raise said sum of money.

Section 2. The money to be raised by the issuance of said bonds shall be applied to the purpose of paying the cost of constructing, on the property formerly constituting a part of the Morris Canal (heretofore acquired from the Morris Canal and Banking Company), and on any other property acquired for use in connection therewith, an electric railway, with all necessary or convenient stations, connections, turnouts, switches, loops, structures, tunnels, entrances, exits, and appurtenances, either under ground, above or upon the surface of said property, and all other means and appliances necessary or proper to constitute the same a complete electric railway, the said railway to extend from the proposed new railroad station north of Market Street to the boundary line between The City of Newark and the Town of Belleville.

Section 3. In the event that there are any outstanding temporary loan bonds or notes issued to pay the cost of said improvements, the money herein authorized to be applied to the cost of such improvements shall be applied to the payment of such bonds or notes.

Section 4. The following matters are hereby determined and declared, pursuant to the requirements of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended:

(a) The improvements for which bonds are hereby authorized to be issued were not completed prior to May 1, 1931, and are of the class described in Clause (U) of Subsection (2) of Section 4 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended.

(b) The probable period of usefulness of said improvements, computed in the manner prescribed by law, is fifty years, beginning on the date of said bonds.

(c) No part of the cost of the improvements for which bonds are hereby authorized to be issued has been or is to be specially assessed against property specially benefited thereby.

(d) The average assessed valuation of the taxable real property (including improvements) of said The City of Newark, computed upon the next preceding three valuations thereof, in the manner provided in Section 12 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended is $731,272,081.00

(e) The net debt of said City, computed in the manner provided in said Section 12, as amended, is $45,654,944.97.

(f) The statements required by said Section 12 (showing said net debt, etc.) have been made and filed with the City Clerk, as therein required.

Section 5. This ordinance shall take effect in the manner provided by law.

2. $1,000,000 Haynes Avenue Bridge Bonds, maturing $30,000 of bonds on March 1st in each of the years 1933 to 1947, inclusive, $35,000 of bonds on March 1st in each of the years 1948 to 1957, inclusive, and $40,000 of bonds on March 1st in each of the years 1958 to 1962, inclusive.

3. $900,000 Sewer Bonds, maturing, $20,000 of bonds on March 1st in each of the years 1933 to 1957, inclusive, $25,000 of bonds on March 1st in each of the years 1958 to 1967, inclusive, and $30,000 of bonds on March 1st in each of the years 1968 to 1972, inclusive.

4. $600,000 City Building Bonds, maturing, $20,000 of bonds on March 1st in each of the years 1933 to 1947, inclusive, and $25,000 of bonds on March 1st in each of the years 1948 to 1959, inclusive.

5. $500,000 Port Newark Improvement Bonds, maturing, $10,000 of bonds on March 1st in each of the years 1933 to 1952, inclusive, and $15,000 of bonds on March 1st in each of the years 1953 to 1972, inclusive.

All of the bonds will be of the denomination of $1,000, will be dated March 1, 1932, will bear interest from their date, payable semi-annually on March 1st and September 1st, and will be coupon bonds, registerable at the option of the holder as to principal only, or as to both principal and interest. Principal and interest will be payable in gold coin of the United States of the present standard of weight and fineness at The National State Bank in the City of Newark.

The bonds will bear interest at the rate of four and one-quarter per centum ($4\frac{1}{4}\%$) per annum. However, if the bids received do not permit the award of any of the issues of bonds as ($4\frac{1}{4}\%$), the bonds of such issue shall bear interest at such higher rate as may be named by the successful bidder. The rate named must be a multiple of one-quarter of one per centum per annum, and must be the same for all of the bonds of such issue. In awarding the bonds of such issue, only the proposals naming the lowest rate named in any proposal for such issue will be considered.

Bidders, in submitting their bids, must use the bidding forms which will be furnished by the undersigned upon request.

The several amounts necessary to be raised by the sale of said five bond issues(exclusive of the amount of any interest accrued on the bonds), respectively, are the maximum authorized amounts of said issues, respectively, as stated above; and no more bonds of any issue will be sold than will produce the amount necessary to be raised by the sale of such issue (exclusive of accrued interest), and an additional sum of less than $1,000 for such issue. If less than the maximum authorized amount of any issue for such is sold, the unsold bonds of that issue will be those last maturing. The bonds of each issue will, unless all bids therefore are rejected, be sold to the bidder or bidders complying with the terms of sale and offering to pay not less than the amount necessary to be raised by the sale of such issue (exclusive of accrued interest) and to take therefore the least amount of bonds of such issue, commencing with the first maturity, and if two or more bidders offer to take the same amount of bonds of the same issue, then the bonds of that issue will be sold to the bidder or bidders offering to pay therefore the highest additional price (such additional price being less than $1,000). In addition to the price bid, the purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Any bidders may condition his bid on the award to him of two or more of said issues, but in that case, if there is a more favorable bidder for any one of the issues for which he bids, his bid will be rejected.

Proposals should be addressed to the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance, City Hall, Newark, New Jersey, and enclosed in a sealed envelope marked on the outside "Proposal for Bonds," and must be accompanied by a certified check for two per centum (2%) of the face amount of the bonds bid for, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company to the order of the "Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance of The City of Newark," to secure the City against any loss resulting from a failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be returned upon the award of the bonds.

The successful bidder or bidders will be furnished with the opinion of Messrs. Reed, Hoyt & Washburn, of New York City, that the bonds are valid and binding obligations of The City of Newark. The bonds will be prepared under the supervision of the Continental Bank Note and Trust Company, which will certify to the genuineness of the signatures of the officials and the seal impressed on the bonds.

By order of the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark.

Dated, February 10, 1932.

Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance of
The City of Newark.

Section 10. The Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance is hereby authorized to cause said bonds to be prepared, and to obtain the opinion of Messrs. Reed, Hoyt & Washburn, Attorneys, of New York City, as to the validity of the bonds, to be furnished to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, and the Mayor, Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance and the City Clerk are hereby authorized to execute said bonds, and the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance is hereby authorized to deliver said bonds to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, upon receipt of the purchase price.

Section 11. In the blank space before the word "Bond" in the heading of the bond form set forth in Section 7 of this resolution, and also in the blank space before the word "Bond" in the coupon form set fourth in said Section, there shall be inserted the words "Public Improvement" for identification of the Public Improvement Bonds, the words "Haynes Avenue Bridge" for identification of the Haynes Avenue Bridge Bonds, the word "Sewer" for identification of the Sewer Bonds, the words "City Building" for identification of the City Building bonds, and the words "Port Newark Improvement" for identification of the Port Newark Improvement Bonds.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, municipalities are able to collect taxes before the assessment on properties has been established, by accepting from the taxpayer on account the amount paid in the previous year's assessment;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, that if any person shall pay the amount assessed against him on any property as of the year 1931, on account of his taxes he shall be allowed credit on his taxes for said year, he shall be allowed the following discounts on the sum paid:

For the period between February 15th and March 1st—One per centum (1%) on the first installment, and four per centum (4%) on the second instalment.

For the period from March 1st to April 1st—One-half of one per centum ($\frac{1}{2}\%$) on the first installment, and three and one-half per centum ($3\frac{1}{2}\%$) on the second instalment.

In no case, however, shall any discount be allowed for payment of the second instalment unless the first instalment has been paid.

Nothing herein contained shall affect any action of this Board in fixing the regular rates of discounts and penalties on taxes regularly payable to the City after April 15th.

The City Clerk presented the application of Harold Burdett, owner, for an automobile repair shop for a period of one year; premises 493 South Nineteenth Street.

Commissioner Murray moved that the application be laid over to February 17, 1932.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent ent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure and use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Joseph Schilizzi (Factory Associates, Inc., owner) for the construction of a poultry market; premises 133-137 Halstead Street.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mr. Edward Fenias, 1060 Broad Street:

At this time, if it please the Board, I desire to withdraw this application.

Mr. Nicholas Dispensiere, 320 Littleton Avenue:

How long can we be compelled to come down before this honorable Board to oppose this thing? I have made three appearances already, and if we are going to be constantly brought down by reapplications, it is putting these people to a hardship to come in here in opposition.

Mayor Congleton: This application is to withdraw the application to re-open. Of course, we cannot prevent them from making an application to re-open.

Mr. Dispensiere: Is there any limit to that?

Commissioner Murray: I never heard of any.

Commissioner Egan: You ought to know that, without being the least bit sarcastic about it.

(Application withdrawn.)

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to bring to the attention of the Commissioners this morning?

Mr. Rudolph Kruger, 60 Brandford Place:

I wish to ask for a waiving of the two weeks for 134 Christie Street, a public garage in a light industrial district. There are factories right alongside of the proposed garage, and vacant land on the opposite side of the street.

Mayor Congleton: On the first day this was up there were objections.

Mr. Kruger: There were no objections since that time.

Mayor Congleton: The day it was first up there were objectors.

Mr. Kruger: Before the commissioners?

Mayor Congleton: Before the Zoning Board on January 5.

Mr. Kruger: And it was postponed twice in order to give the objectors a chance to appear before the Zoning Board, and they never appeared.

Mr. Rankin: We laid it over for two other meetings for the objectors to appear, and they never appeared.

Commissioner Egan: I move the rules be suspended.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure and use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Charles Bornstein, owner, for the construction of a public garage; premises 134-136 Christie Street;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Gentlemen:

Your letter of recent date with reference to the employment of non-resident labor on the contract The Foundation Company has with the Passaic Valley Sewerage Commissioners was presented to the Board at its last meeting.

I was instructed to say to you in reply that our advice is that The Foundation Company employs only union labor recommended for employment by the local delegates. If there is a variation of this we are not aware of it.

A copy of your communication has been forwarded to The Foundation Company and when their reply is received a copy will be sent to you.

Yours very truly,
J. H. Quigg, Secretary.

Board of Adjustment
City Hall

Newark, N. J., February 16, 1932.

The Board of Commissioners
of The City of Newark
Honorable Sirs:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body that the following applications for variations from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

57-65 West Market Street, Charlotte Crossley, owner, gasoline station for a period of five years.

25 Cleveland Avenue, Joseph Warningske (Patrick Dolan, owner); a 2-family dwelling.

464-472 Ogden Street, Williams Contracting Company, owner; gasoline station.

59-61 Seventh Avenue, Hahne Building & Loan Association, owner; amendment to plans for a gasoline station approved October 6, 1931.

The Board of Adjustment
R. B. Rankin, Secretary

Received, copy to be sent to each Commissioner, and further action postponed for two weeks.

Board of Adjustment
City Hall

Newark, N. J., February 16, 1932.

The Board of Commissioners
of The City of Newark

Honorable Sirs:

Your communication of January 29, 1932, referring to this Board for recommendation and report a petition to amend the Zoning Ordinance so as to change a block bounded by Midland Place, Norman Road, Mt. Vernon Place and Ivy Street from a first to a second Residence District was considered by the Board of Adjustment at its meetings of February 2nd and 16th.

On February 2nd the Board listened to arguments in favor of the change from representatives of various properties within this block. Mr. Milton W. Unger, receiver for the Emkay Investment Company which owns eight lots on the east side of Midland Place, has contracted to sell these properties providing the purchaser can erect two-family dwellings. It was the opinion of those who spoke in favor of the proposition that construction work would be started shortly after the requested change was approved.

It so happens that while this entire block is within the one-family zone, it is surrounded on three sides by zones permitting either two-family or multiple-family dwellings. After inspecting the neighborhood on two different occasions the Board of Adjustment has reached the conclusion that some change should be made in the zoning regulations as applied to this block.

The Board is divided in its opinion as to whether the regulations should be changed for this entire block, or whether only the easterly half should be changed. In the former, the same conditions would then hold on Midland Place as now prevail on Norman Road, namely: with one side zoned for 1-family dwellings and the other for 2-family dwellings. If the latter, the block would be divided and the two types of dwellings would then be back to back.

Attached hereto are the statements of four of the Board members, two favoring the change of the entire block and two favoring a change of the easterly half. Mr. McDermitt did not make a written statement.

Respectfully submitted,
R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Commissioner Murray: I move it be referred to conference.

Mr. Milton Unger: There are two and four-families all around it. This is zoned for one-family, and we are asking this be put in a two-family zone.

Mayor Congleton: We have just received the report from the Board of Adjustment this morning. I think it should go to conference. We would not care to pass on it until we have had a chance to discuss it in conference.

Mr. Unger: I present the application as receiver of the Emkay Investment Company. I own, as receiver, eighteen lots in the block which consist of twenty-three. I have made a sale of the land for $18,300. The sale will not go through unless the land is zoned for two-family houses. The taxes against this at the present time, and the assessments, are in excess of $10,000.

Mayor Congleton: The application is to change the zoning ordinance.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, in order to save time in considering the matter, I move you that the Law Department be instructed to prepare the necessary ordinance for next week's meeting. In the meantime we can take it up in conference.

Mr. Ira J. Katchen: I am appearing here for Mr. Israel B. Greene, who represents the rest of the owners in the block, who join in this application. They are in favor of this application.

Mayor Congleton: Just a minute. We will introduce the ordinance and give public notice. The motion is that the Law Department prepare an ordinance and have it ready for next week's meeting.

Mr. Rankin: Half of the members of the Board would favor the entire rezoning of the block, and the others only half of the block. How will you have that ordinance drawn?

Mayor Congleton: I would have it for the whole block. I do not think we should make it piecemeal.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Newark, N. J., February 13, 1932.

Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Gentlemen:

At the meeting of the Board of School Estimate held on Saturday morning, February 13, 1932, it was decided to respectfully recommend to the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the sum of eight million two hundred and sixty thousand dollars ($8,260,000.) be appropriated to the Board of Education for the current expenses of the schools for the school year beginning July 1, 1932, and ending June 30, 1933, as set forth in the attached certificate.

Yours truly,
R. D. Argue, Secretary.
February 13, 1932.

RESOLVED, that the Board of School Estimate does hereby respectfully recommend to the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the sum of eight million two hundred and sixty thousand dollars ($8,260,000.) be appropriated to the Board of Education for the current expenses of the schools for the school year beginning July 1, 1932, and ending June 30, 1933, and that five thousand dollars ($5,000.) of the above amount be specifically appropriated for manual training purposes.

Passaic Valley
Sewerage Commissioners
24 Branford Place

Newark, N. J., February 15, 1932.

Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark,
City Hall,
Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:

The enclosed is a copy of a letter I received from Mr. Geo. R. Johnson, Vice President of the Foundation Company, dated February 11, 1932, with references to labor employed on the relocation of the Passaic Valley sewer.

Yours very truly,
J. H. Quigg, Secretary

Mayor Congleton: It doesn't say, even though they are union men, that they are residents of Newark. I had a similar situation on the canal. They had a lot from Orange and West Orange.

Received, and copy to be forwarded to people that made the complaint.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. Dominick Orgo, 235 Eighth Avenue, protested against "high salaries" in the city government. He asked for a continuation of emergency relief jobs.

Mayor Congleton: Address your remarks to the point.

Commissioner Howe: Mr. Mayor, I positively resent any such remarks. These men can only be laid off by a majority of the City Commissioners. A meeting was to be held today at which the financial condition of the City of Newark would be laid before the City Commission. As a result of the publicity of a certain kind that has been made public, the credit of the City of Newark has been injured. Sensational headlines do not tell anything. I haven't the power to suspend anybody but the twenty-four men who are in my own department, and they do not work for $6 a day. Everyone of them has been getting $24 a week. I do not require any champion for my position. At this time I have the most unpopular position in the City of Newark, to go out and raise money; and if you know where to go and raise enough money to carry on the City of Newark at this time, come down to my office and tell me. I have been working for six weeks visiting the banks and institutions, insurance companies and department stores, to secure sufficient money to carry on the situation in Newark. No one knows better than I what the condition is. And no one feels any worse than I. When anyone says I want to throw out a thousand people, they lie. Positively lie. A conference will be held after this meeting, and it was known that a conference would be held. I may have recommendations to make at that meeting, but until I do make those recommendations I do not want to be quoted as throwing any one man out of work. Now, I hope that is clear and I hope that will satisfy the rest of you. It is unfortunate that the City's condition is as it is, but the City's condition has been injured by the publicity of a certain kind that it has received, and maybe before long you will have other information that won't be any too pleasant for the public to hear.

Mr. Orgo: Well, we said that. Now, we go back—

Commissioner Howe: I resent any personal attack on me because I am only one of the five of the Commission of the City of Newark.

Mr. Orgo: I attack your way of doing business.

Mayor Congleton: Stay to the point. If you think we are not transacting the City's business—

Mr. Orgo: Mr. Mayor—

Mayor Congleton: Wait until I am through. Stay to what we are talking about. If you have any point to make that the City Commissioners are not conducting the City's business in the proper way, we will listen to you. Stay to your point and your facts. But we are not going to sit here and listen to any harangue such as you started on.

Mr. Orgo: Under the aldermanic law we used to have a financial committee to be the responsible body of the City.

Mayor Congleton: We had a finance committee.

Mr. Orgo: Now we hold Mr. Howe responsible.

Mayor Congleton: No. We have a Board of Commissioners and he cannot do anything without the sanction of the Board of Commissioners.

Mr. Herman Lowenberg, 20 Fairview Avenue: I am sorry to have to come as often as I do. It is not a hankering for publicity.

Mayor Congleton: What is it then?

Mr. Lowenberg: But it is a hankering to find out what eventually will become of us.

Mayor Congleton: Didn't my department give you a job right after you were here last time?

Mr. Lowenberg: Positively.

Mayor Congleton: Are you still working?

Mr. Lowenberg: I am working. I want to find out whether we are going to be thrown out.

Mayor Congleton: You will have to wait and see. We cannot do more than the possible. Now, you are being given temporary work.

Mr. Lowenberg: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: And you had better go and sit down and tend to your job and wait until you are relieved from work. We cannot tell what is going to happen.

Mr. Lowenberg: I am not supposed to work today; I didn't lose any time.

Mayor Congleton: Well, wait until you are laid off.

Mr. Lowenberg: I am trying to find out.

Mayor Congleton: Well, we don't know yet.

Mr. Lowenberg: That is different. That is all the information I want.

Mrs. Ellen Duffy, 214 Smith Street:

I come here in reference to some complaints brought to me that there are married women employed in the City Hall whose husbands are on the police and fire departments, and married school teachers whose husbands are employed, and that is entirely wrong at this time. I haven't any objections to any married woman working if times were good, but if such is the case, I think it is wrong. I think there should be a check-up made on the payroll.

Mayor Congleton: I cannot tell you anything about any policemen's or firemen's wives working in the City Hall. I can say to you that there are married teachers working, and I will also say to you that we have no power, after they have gotten their tenure of office, which is three years continuous work, to separate them from their positions simply because they are married.

Mrs. Duffy: No, but I think at this time it is not fair to heads of families.

Mayor Congleton: I agree with you, but we are powerless to change the situation under the State law.

Mrs. Duffy: Can taxpayers in a body object?

Mayor Congleton: You can go to Trenton and get the law changed, if you can.

Mrs. Duffy: I think at this time when there are so many people suffering, it is a crime.

Mayor Congleton: I think myself that at a time like this, and in normal times—

Mrs. Duffy: In normal times it is all right.

Mayor Congleton: I think that a woman whose husband is steadily employed and able to support her ought to stay home and take care of her household duties and raise a family and help to make the community a better place for us all. I do not think, generally, that married women working is to the best interests of the American home.

Mrs. Duffy: Well, I do think it is wrong if there is a man who is on the police department or the Newark fire department here in Newark who has his wife employed here in the City Hall on the City payroll. I think it is a mistake. And I think if it is necessary the names could be furnished. I do not like to mention names without going to a proper way about it first.

Mayor Congleton: Well, you may submit your names if you care to and it will be taken up in conference. But so far as the school teachers are concerned, we have no jurisdiction in the matter.

Mrs. Duffy: Because after all, I think there is so many heads of homes where there are little children suffering, they should have the places that are held by these married women. Of course, I am just a (Republican) district leader, and people come to me with complaints, and they figure I have the time, so I promise I would come before the Commission this morning and speak of it.

Mayor Congleton: Well, I cannot say any more to you than I have, Madam.

Mrs. Duffy: Thank you.

Mr. Henry Green: From what I understand some men are going to be laid off because of the financial situation.

Mayor Congleton: No, Mr. Green, do not say that, because we do not know yet. We are going into conference. We cannot ask people to work if we haven't money to pay them. That is one of the problems we have on our hands today.

Mr. Green: And rightly so; but this situation, it is an international situation, it is not municipal altogether, and it requires planning, it requires action ahead. New York State is getting an income tax, and we need one in the State of New Jersey in order to put the burden on those that can stand it best, and we ought to get busy in this city even if we have to go to Trenton.

Mayor Congleton: Our Board of Commissioners has been to Trenton and gone on record as being in favor of such a thing. We know we cannot do it. We have made an appeal to the State Legislature to do it. Now, you ought to address your remarks to the Legislature.

Mr. Green: If the Legislature was in Newark I would have to be in a position to go to Trenton to speak to the Governor.

Mayor Congleton: No, the members of the Legislature have got to take action before the Governor.

Mr. Green: We ought to call the members of the Legislature into this City Hall, we ought to have hearings on the subject.

Mayor Congleton: If you want to address the Essex delegation of the Legislature you don't have to go to Trenton, they meet every Friday in an open forum at four o'clock in the Elks Club, and you can address all twelve of them. They have invited such suggestions.

Mr. Green: Don't you think that we ought to all do that?

Mayor Congleton: We have done it.

Mr. Green: We ought to keep at it.

Mayor Congleton: All right.

Mr. Green: Until the job is complete, because this thing is going to come up. The bankers are using their influences on the national government and on the local governments, and all they are out for is to get six per cent. on the municipal loan, and then they favor a reduction of wages for the workers.

Mayor Congleton: I think in fairness to the bankers, Mr. Green, that some of your statements should be corrected. The bankers have not at any time either demanded or suggested that wages of city employees should be reduced. On the other hand, the banks have, in my judgment, to the fullest extent cooperated with the city in its financial conditions, and so have the insurance companies.

Mr. Green: You are going to pay six per cent.

Mayor Congleton: Yes, and it is being paid generally through the United States.

Mr. Green: Does that make is justified?

Mayor Congleton: Well, supply and demand is still a law.

Mr. Green: Supply and demand is still a law?

Mayor Congleton: Yes, sir. And the more the demand for money the higher the rate of interest, and you know that as well as I do.

Mr. Green: That is an established form that has been in use for years, but it will die out with the present changes, economic changes that are taking place.

Mayor Congleton: That may be, but they haven't died out yet.

Mr. Green: And the bankers are taking advantage of this situation, as you call economic supply and demand.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to address the Commission?

Commissioner Egan: I move at this time that we adjourn to meet again on Wednesday, February 24, 1932, at ten o'clock in the forenoon at which time we are to take up the budget.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Newark, N. J., February 24, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of meeting of Febru-

Mayor Congleton: The time fixed by the Board of Commissioners in accordance with law for a public hearing on our budget having arrived, we are prepared to hear anyone who desires to be heard? Is there any one who desires to be heard? Mr. City Clerk, I have two letters here I would like you to read and file.

Newark College of Engineering
Newark, New Jersey

February 3, 1932.

Hon. Jerome T. Congleton,
Mayor of the City of Newark,
City Hall, Newark, New Jersey.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

While, as I indicated to you yesterday, I do not feel that we should voice any formal protest concerning the cut on the part of the City Commission, I think I must in all fairness to my boys point out that this, if taken in conjunction with a State cut and the drop in our fees, places us in an absolutely untenable position. It is necessary for me to go before my boys and indicate that it will not be possible to carry on the work next year in some of its departments, and this I have hesitated to do until this time.

I think I appreciate somewhat the position of the City Commission, but I do want the Commission to understand very definitely the situation in which it places us. The cut of $10,- 000 together with the drop of $40,- 000 in fees, which the boys simply cannot afford to pay because they haven't the money, will force us, I am afraid, to discontinue some considerable part of the instruction.

Provided the State follows with a cut, it would seem that we must discontinue. I hope you will understand this letter and appreciate my position, which is simply one of trying to represent my constituents, that is my students, and represent boys who could not secure an education if it were not for the existence of the school.

Very truly yours,
Allan R. Cullimore,
President.

February 18, 1932.

Honorable Jerome T. Congleton,
City Hall, Newark, New Jersey.
My dear Mayor Congleton:

At a special meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Newark Museum held on Tuesday, February 16, 1932, the matter of the budget was taken up and great regret was expressed at the necessity for cutting the budget from $150,000 to $100,000.

The Trustees fully appreciate that you and the Board of Commissioners, in this time of depression, have a very difficult problem on your hands and that you undoubtedly have done as much for the Museum as it is possible for you to do this year. I was asked, however, to make it very plain to you that while the Museum will cooperate most loyally in the effort to effect economics in this critical period, the 33½% cut in the Museums' income makes a radical cut in the Museum's work necessary. To keep within the budget the Museum must be managed on so small a margin that it will be unable to function as it has up to this year. It will not only be necessary to cut the hours of opening, but it will be impossible to have loan exhibitions which attract favorable attention not only to the Museum, but to Newark.

It will also be necessary to dismiss some of the members of the staff and to make a 13½% to 30% cut in the salaries of the remaining members of the staff.

The upkeep of the building, repairs to the plant, in fact, proper care, is not only reduced to its lowest point, but is so left that no emergencies are allowed for.

The Board of Trustees feel that they should keep you informed as to the difficulty of running a live and growing institution under the budget allowance granted, but that every effort will be made to do as much as possible under the changed conditions for the next ten months.

We all hope that next year a change in economic conditions will allow the Museum once more to operate under its former appropriation of $150,000. The reputation of the Newark Museum, known not only throughout this County, but abroad, and the educational work which it carries on in our community are real assets to the City of Newark. It is very regrettable that there should be even a temporary break in its activities, and especially in times like these when institutions which support the morale of our people are of greater importance than usual.

Sincerely yours,
Arthur F. Egner.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone at this time who desires to be heard? In behalf of the Board of Commissioners, then, I would like to say that. I feel keenly disappointed, and I am sure my colleagues do, that after all of the agitation about cutting expenses, that the citizens are apparently not interested, as demonstrated by this meeting, of which due notice and advertisement has been given. There are about fifteen persons in the audience, and no one has a word to say in commendation or condemnation of the work that the Board of Commissioners and the Board of Education in cooperation have been going through.

Commissioner Murray: Might we assume, Mr. Mayor, that the silence of the public gives consent, and thereby approval, to what we have done in the premises?

Mayor Congleton: I hope that might be so, but I doubt it. I think we will hear from the public just the same. I want to suggest a further cut in the budget of the Free Public Library. Their budget as now before us is less than they are entitled to under the statute, but they have consented to a further cut of $12,000.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, at a meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., held on February 9th, 1932, the local budget of the City of Newark for the fiscal year 1932 was adopted; and,

WHEREAS, it is now found that certain changes in reduction of the amount to be raised by taxation can be effected;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, By the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Before we finally adopt the budget, I think it might be appropriate to state in round figures what this budget is, and what we have accomplished in the way of deductions. The budget as it is now before us shows a decrease over the appropriations made last year, upon which the departments and non-departmental bureaus must be operated, of $968,715, including the Board of Education. That is not a net deduction for the reason that our debt service items are increased by the carrying charges upon the City's obligations incurred in carrying on the major improvements that we are now engaged in, such as the City Railway, Pennsylvania Railroad improvements, and so forth. It does, however, provide a cut to the extent of $700,000 less to be raised by taxation this year than last year. Never in the history of the city government, since I first became

We realize to the full the necessity for keeping governmental expenses down, and even though this budget as adopted provides a certain sum of money, it is the desire of every one of us to endeavor to operate our departments during the year to try and show a balance which will be used to reduce the budget of next year. The Clerk will read the resolution:

WHEREAS: The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, at a meeting thereof held on February 9, 1932, did approve of its local budget for the fiscal year 1932, under the provisions of Chapter 192 of the Laws of 1917, and the acts amendatory thereto, and did designate Wednesday, February 24, 1932, at 10 A. M., and the Board Rooms in the City Hall as the time and place when and where all objections thereto might be presented by any taxpayer of said municipality, and did direct the City Clerk to publish said budget together with the notice of time and place of public hearing thereon, as provided for by said act, and also to forward a copy of said budget to the Commissioner of Municipal Accounts; and Mayor Congleton: Any remarks on the resolution?

Commissioner Egan moved that the public hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the following budget be and the same is hereby adopted as the local budget of the City of Newark for the fiscal year 1932.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, before we recess I would like to state publicly, as a member of the City Commission, that I believe Newark is particularly fortunate—and I in parenthesis say I am sorry that you are here when I make this statement—Newark should feel particularly fortunate, and is particularly fortunate, in my opinion, in having as its leader officially as Mayor of the City of Newark, the present incumbent, Jerome T. Congleton. The leadership manifested by the Mayor during these trying times in dealing with very difficult complicated matters is unique. We have had some very important problems to dispose of, and because of the leadership of his Honor the Mayor, Newark has weathered the storm and is now in a position where it enjoys an enviable reputation, not only in the minds and hearts of the people of Newark, but in the financial channels of the nation; and I want to congratulate Newark for having an unusually able chief executive in unusually trying times. Mr. Mayor, I congratulate you, as one of your colleagues, for doing the remarkable work you have done, particularly in the last few months, and more particularly in the last few weeks, which service has been rendered unselfishly, efficiently and substantially, and with excellent results to the City of Newark.

Commissioner Gillen: I join in the congratulations very heartily.

Mayor Congleton: Thank you, gentlemen, very much. The Board will recess now until eleven o'clock for our regular meeting.

Commissioner Egan moved that the Board recess until 11 A. M.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleotn.

The Board of Commissioners reconvened at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen: I move you, Mr. Mayor, to reconsider the vote by which the budget was adopted.

Mayor Congleton: The motion is that the vote by which the budget was adopted be reconsidered. All in favor will say aye, opposed no; the clerk will call the roll.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Frederic W. Smith: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, on behalf of the Welfare Federation of Newark I desire to have drawn to your attention the item of $100,000 which it is requested be included in the budget; and in support of this item I wish to introduce Mr. Ralph Lum who will speak on behalf of the Federation.

Mr. Ralph E. Lum: Mr. Mayor and Mr. Commissioners. I will try to be brief, and I am not speaking in any official capacity for the Welfare Federation. I said to the City of Newark, as you know, "The task thou gavest to me I finished to the best of my ability." I am speaking as a taxpayer as a private citizen, and as one vastly interested in the welfare of Newark. I realize the importance of asking you gentlemen to reconsider your view and to include the figure of $100,000 in the budget, not for anything general, but for a specific cause, which I contend, with no fear of contradiction, is the greatest for which anyone may contend. I am speaking for three classes, primarily, none of whom may speak for themselves, none of whom can raise a hand in protest against any action of yours that may be here made. First, there can be nothing said to you by the babies who are our charges in the Baby Hospital; there can be little said, and perhaps less seen, by the next set of charges for whom I speak, those at the Eye and Ear Infirmary; and little can be done or said by the crippled children, the third for whom I speak. Now, Commissioner Murray, with keen vision and far sight, realized the need and the utmost necessity of our city extending its hospitalization work wider, and plans were under way for a very fine structure which would have included that which could be done by these specialized institutions. The economic condition made absolutely necessary the holding up of all those plans in suspense. And in the meantime we have gone forward carrying this specialized work, work, understand, for which the city has no facilities whatsoever; and that is being done, and it cannot be done without its help. We have gone to the very extreme; we have carried as far as we possibly could carry; we were met as you were met by calls from banks, and we were compelled to meet things which we have been carrying, moneys which we had borrowed to meet emergencies which could not be denied even by a man or woman with a granite heart. They had to be met, and we went out in the disadvantageous situation of last fall and raised nearly $1,450,000, a no mean task. We counted with absolute certainty in that sum on this $100,000. Without it the situation simply cannot be met. I realize full well the pressure being brought to bear upon you five brave men; you are being pressed to cut where it hurts tremendously to cut; you are being abused by individuals who have little knowledge and less understanding of the tremendous tasks with which you are confronted by our great economic machine, a great industrial machine, the greatest machine ever been built in this world in this great country, at the fullest speed being suddenly dropped into reverse, without you being at fault or to blame. Conditions have been presented which are most difficult indeed for you to meet. I want, however, to say, that I am speaking authoritatively on behalf of scores and scores of those who must meet the largest part of practically the one point which would be added to the tax rate by the granting of this request. I don't know whether Mr. Bachellor is here. If not, I may say that he has asked me to speak with approval of this request, and so I might, too; there are here scores to speak for this cause, of those who are our largest taxpayers and those who are most interested, not only in the financial and the economic welfare of our city, but in its heart and soul as well. Bear in mind, gentlemen, that we have carried just as far as we could carry: I am speaking on behalf of this individualized fund for these three institutions which simply must carry on. The price of abandoning the work there being done by the Babies Hospital, the Home for Crippled Children, and the Eye and Ear Infirmary, is too serious for contemplation. I am not speaking at all, and I might, if you had the patience to listen, go on for hours, with other things which are being done. I could mention, for instance, the fact that by the official record of St. Barnabas Hospital last year they took care of nearly $70,000 of free cases, and that in that were $17,000 of free work sent from the Newark City Dispensary, and the receipts from that totaled entirely $2500, the difference carried by the Welfare and by that institution. I could go on through the entire list with similar situations. Miss Shugard here could tell what is being done by the East Side Day Nursery. And I want to see if you will grant this request: If anyone speaks to you, and I care not who he may be, man, woman or child, in protest, ask that individual to do one simple thing, go down to Elm Street to the East Side Day Nursery and see the work that is being done there, and then come back to you, and if they have any objection whatsoever as to this being granted, then to tell you. You may ask what is the connection. The answer is, that if this fund is not taken care of for this specialized work, the East Side Day Nursery cannot function, and there will be scores of men and more scores of women who cannot go to work in this city because they must remain at home to take care of those children. You don't have a critic who dares go down and see the work being done by that institution and come back and challenge your judgment in meeting this cost. I could go on, gentlemen, for hours, with this cause. No greater has ever existed. And the fact that they may not plead for themselves leads me to feel so that I do not apologize for earnestness and the sincerity which I could not have for a less worthy cause, or advocate better able to help themselves. Now, the need is very great, but we dare not cut, we dare not prune our budget, we dare not economize at the expense of the cripples or the blind or the babies. And in all earnestness and sincerity I ask you, make if you will the furthest and most searching scrutinizing examination as to the use put to every single dollar of this fund, dedicated solely and wholly to the cause for which I have spoken. Solely to the cause of health, for which you have appropriated so much money, recognizing it as a paramount and primary consideration for the City. We have no other resources and we must ask that you please reconsider and include this item for this specialized work alone in this body.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Smith: Thank you gentlemen for hearing us.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mrs. George Barker, President, Board of Managers of Babies Hospital: May I say just one word? It seems almost impudent to come here and tell any of you how to run your budgets, because it is just like stepping into a private home and telling anyone what they should do. But it does seem to me that to cut entirely the budget in this one work, you cannot close your City Hospital, and these special hospitals are really branches of your City Hospital. We are doing the work you cannot do in that one hospital. It is not possible for any one hospital to carry on this specialized work, and it has only been within a few years that you have given money to those. The other day a man came from New York to speak to us. He had charge of raising the money for the United Hospital Drive in New York. And he told us the amount of money the City of New York gave to those hospitals, and, approximately, it was about $6. per capita for the inhabitants of the City of New York. Now, the amount of money given by the City of Newark—I think we have about 450,000 inhabitants, at least, that is not fifty cents per capita. So it is not so much in comparison to other cities that has been given. Now, if you cut out all of that, it seems to me that some other budget could be cut in proportion and not cut that entirely. Because it does not do any good, really, to keep your schools open and have a child go there who cannot see. They cannot get the benefits of the school, nor could a child if it is crippled. And these hospitals cannot keep on if the city does not help them. It seems to me to cut off the branches of your city hospital, we have become in doing this work for the poor of the City, that at least a part of it, if not all that you have given, just a small amount, could be kept up this year when it is needed more than ever.

Mr. Curtis R. Burnett: Gentlemen, the Presbyterian Hospital is vitally interested in this. A little mental arithmetic would show the situation. If $100,000, as has been mentioned, is not put in by the City to relieve the three institutions, those institutions must either give up their work for the coming year, or another prorating take effect in the welfare budget. We are only now receiving 92 per cent. That is what has been promised for 1932, because as you all know, the budget did not reach the goal. Our own institution, the Presbyterian, would have to take an additional cut of a substantial amount. And to show you that we have already tried to put our house in order there, may I state this, that last month we borrowed $20,000 to take care of deficits of last year. We are arranging to make them up, as everyone from the Superintendents to the lowest menial has had a reduction in compensation there. Further than that, last September we have arranged that our student nurses hereafter get no compensation.

That will, within a few years, save us several thousands of dollars. And I might say, that we had a larger class and a greater number of applicants under the new arrangement than otherwise. That will take care of itself. But if we are going to be compelled, and that would apply to other institutions of like type, to turn away patients that will be brought there, the reaction is not going to be good, because we will have to say merely one thing, "We haven't the funds to take care of you, we haven't the funds to continue our clinic or to give free treatments." And we expended nearly $100,000 last year for patients who paid either nothing or only paid a part of their cost, I feel a little delicate in coming before you, because I realize, as we all do, the position you gentlemen are in officially; but we cannot make bricks without straw, and you cannot make bricks without straw, and therefore, we appeal to you as man, as fathers, as citizens as well as officials to reconsider the situation and not make us take a further backward step which is almost impossible which you consider the pressure that is on us from the public and those in need. Thank you.

Mayor Congleton: Do you say you were able to borrow $20,000 from the bank last week?

Mr. Burdett: Yes, without endorsement.

Mayor Congleton: You are in a fortunate position.

Mr. Burnett: We make that up by the cuts we made; we will pay that back this year.

Mr. Samuel Kessler: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, I represent, the Conference of Jewish Charities. As you probably know, the conference is composed of approximately one hundred representative men and women who represent the Jewish charities in the City of Newark, and I venture to say that of those hundred men and women, they are perhaps the largest and most substantial taxpayers in the City of Newark of our class. I don't want to make a speech of the character of work because you are just as familiar as I am, and perhaps more so, but I want to say to you this, that representing them, I feel sure when I say to you that they will back this up, that they will support and do support this additional one point in the tax rate by inclusion of this $100,000. They feel that the work would be tremendously hampered and greatly underdone if this money does not come to them; and while they are going to pay the bill, not entirely, but they represent such a tremendous lot of people, that they urge upon you to include that in the tax rate and they will be glad to pay the taxes for that additional.

Miss Louise D. Shugard: Well, Mr. Commissioners, I have never asked a thing of any of you in vain, and I am just as sure I am not asking in vain now for all of Newark's poor children and hospitals, as I have never asked in vain when I asked for my own institution. When I came here today somebody said "A bar of justice." And I said, "In back of it are five men who have always played the game square." And I am telling it to you now, and I know perfectly sure that whatever decision has been made, you are going to reconsider and will help us and help those that need it. Thank you very much.

Mr. Percy S. Young: Mr. Mayor, I appreciate the tremendous responsibility that you gentlemen are under today, and I appreciate the fact that this city and many other cities have got to scrutinize their budget this year as never before. We are going through a crisis that must be met; it is not only the municipalities, but the states and the nation are reviewing their expenditures and determining how they can meet them. Nevertheless, it seems to me that no body of responsible officials can neglect the sick and the afflicted under these conditions. This $100,000 is a large sum, but when we consider what that sum is helping to do in this city, it seems to me that the taxpayers of his city cannot afford to cut out of this budget this amount which has been presented to you. As I am informed, there have been forty thousand days of free service in three of the hospitals of this city. Taking the lowest sum of $5. a day, we have there a sum of $200,000. The committees who have worked to raise this sum have done their utmost. And a very large majority of the citizens of this city have contributed to this cause, but we are short, gentlemen, something more than this sum. Mr. Lum has explained to you the complete situation, and if it is possible in any way for you to include this sum I feel sure that there is no soul in this city that can criticize you, and I think everyone will applaud your act. Thank you.

Mr. Smith: We could go on, Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, we will not trespass upon your time further except to express our appreciation very much for this hearing.

Mayor Congleton: The Commissioners appreciate the position that your organization find yourselves in. We have tried to take care of the sick and the blind and those needing help, but we spent of the taxpayers' money last year in the doing of that task as best we knew how, something over $1,600,000. In the study of our budget we realized that we had that same situation confronting us this year, and we did not think that some of the people that you have referred to who will have to pay the largest part of it through taxes, would, perhaps, prefer to pay it in some other way than on a tax bill. I hesitate, perhaps, to make this statement, but you make reference to the fact that you do not think any one will find any fault. I know they wouldn't with this particular work; but it is a question of financing, if you please; and since this Board has been in session this morning I have been called to the phone and have had an ultimatum laid down to us that unless our budget is cut at least two millions of dollars, the New York syndicate cannot take our bonds and finance our needs. This has been brought about largely by reason of some very extravagant propaganda that has been circulated in this city by people who we supposed had a deep interest in the city. Everywhere I have gone, and where the rest of us have gone with the idea of financing our city, being caught as other people are caught in these particular times with large improvements on our hands that we started before the depression hit us, we have been confronted with their propaganda. The Commission will take your appeal under consideration and dispose of it late in the meeting, or later in the day.

Mrs. Spurr: I am not going to make a plea of any kind, because it is silly; but I think the best investment that could be made is in the work that has been undertaken and carried on so well; and it seems to me that it is rather thoughtless to have all that we have planned for shall be undone. This is the best investment that can be made, and I think if the citizens of Newark went to these different institutions they would feel it was a good investment.

Mayor Congleton: I think you have got to deal with your budget as we have with ours. Take some of your character-forming organizations and cut them down some.

Mrs. Spurr: I quite agree with you, and I think everyone can cut, and I think you cannot cut hospitals.

Mayor Congleton: I think you ought to have money from the Community Chest and cut down some of the others perhaps.

Mrs. Spurr: What do you mean?

Mayor Congleton: I mean some of the so-called character-building organizations in a time like this. Of course, their work is important.

Mrs. Spurr: Haven't they been cut down?

Mayor Congleton: Some.

Mrs. Spurr: I am afraid if you cut too much you will have some more of the very troubles of unemployment which we have, because after all, there seems to me there must be some other place that can be cut rather than our hospitals.

Mayor Congleton: We have cut our budgets that we have jurisdiction over, Mrs. Spurr, $968,000. from the appropriations of last year.

Mrs. Spurr: I don't doubt everybody has cut, everyone, but I do think this an awful thing to cut this. I hope that you will reconsider it and let us cut somewhere else.

Mayor Congleton: I wish I knew where to do it.

Commissioner Egan: I move the hearing be closed on the budget.

The roll being called the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the Municipal Budget of the City of Newark for the year 1932 be adopted.

The roll being called the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled "Zoning Ordinance of the City of Newark," adopted January 8, 1930.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, Do Ordain:

1. That an ordinance entitled "Zoning Ordinance of the City of Newark," adopted January 8, 1930, be and the same is hereby amended by extending the Second Residence District so as to include the area described as follows:

On the west by Midland Place, on the north by Ivy Street, on the east by Norman Road and on the south by Mt. Vernon Place; and that the Zoning Map which accompanies and is part of the ordinance to which this ordinance is an amendment be and the same is hereby changed so as to include within the Second Residence District the area above described.

2. All ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

3. This ordinance shall take effect immediately.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that March 9th 1932, at 11 A. M., or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place when and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage, and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading as provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The following communication was received and read:

BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT

CITY HALL,

Newark, New Jersey.

February 23, 1932.

Mr. Peter O'Toole,

City Clerk, Newark, N. J.

My dear Peter:

At the meeting of the Board of Commissioners held February 17th the Board of Adjustment reported on a proposed amendment to the Zoning Ordinance involving premises fronting Midland Place. In that report the Board of Adjustment was divided on the question whether the whole block or the easterly half of the block should be changed.

Since writing that report I have received a statement from Mr. McDermitt in which he favors changing the whole block. His reasons are as follows:

1. Nearly all of the houses within a mile of the proposed change are either two or four family dwellings.

2. The property is located in a healthy environment and in the neighborhood of the new county park. The vicinity should not be restricted to one-family dwellings, but made available to a greater number of people.

Very truly yours,

R. B. Rankin

Secretary.

Ordered filed.

Commissioner Howe introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission?

Dr. Newton A. Bornstein, 942 Broad Street:

I represent the Central Dental Association of Newark, New Jersey. They held a meeting on February 15 and passed a resolution protesting the action of the Commissioners in depriving the Newark Free Dental Clinic Association of the annual appropriation of $15,000, which action deprives the clinic of their only means of carrying on the work of giving the indigent children of the city their right to obtain free dental service. The following committee was assigned the duty of presenting this protest to the public meeting to be held Wednesday, February 24; Drs. Cook, Crecca, Rauch, Devita and myself. The clinics have operated in Newark for twenty-three years giving good service to the indigent children of Newark. The establishment and control of the clinics by an independent board of directors enabled them to give services to the public and parochial schools alike. The directors have been men of prominence in the community, such as Dr. Laban Dennis, Mr. George Reeve, Mr. Willard Hamilton, Mr. Felix Fuld, Rabbi Solomon Foster, Mr. A. S. Ward, and others. Mr. Richard Denbigh is now the president of the board of directors. The operating staff consists of six dentists and two attendants, who are the only ones receiving a salary.

Mayor Congleton: Who did you say are the only ones receiving a salary?

Dr. Bornstein: Six dentists and two attendants, who are the only ones receiving a salary. The clinics are operated five and half days a week. They perform some 21,000 operations such as fillings, treatments, extractions, cleaning and so forth per year. They pay their own rent buy all supplies, equipment and other expense, all for $15,000 a year. It is inconceivable by the directors that any of this amount is wasted or misused, nor how it would be possible to give this amount of service under any other kind of management. The directors do not claim that the clinics cover all or a majority of the worthy cases that present themselves for treatment. They have for many years endeavored to have the appropriation increased. Newark is far behind other cities in point of free dental service. The news, therefore, came as a most shocking surprise when it was learned of the action of the Commissioners to withhold the usual appropriation. It cannot be a matter of economy of the directors learned on good authority that the fund is to be appropriated to another department, which they feel cannot give as good service. They base that assertion on the plan which they learned, unofficially, is the one adopted by the new clinic. We cannot go into full details with our present knowledge of the new plan, but we do most emphatically protest the withdrawal of this appropriation.

Mayor Congleton: How much time do those six dentists put in, are they full-time men?

Dr. Bornstein: No, each serves a half day.

Mayor Congleton: Why shouldn't they serve the same as doctors and surgeons do in the City Hospital, without charge?

Dr. Bornstein: It cannot be done.

Mayor Congleton: It cannot? Well, it was done, because I was present, at the birth of this clinic and fathered the legislation to make the appropriation available to them; and the representation made to me then as chairman of the finance committee was that was just exactly what you wanted to do. We started out with a small appropriation that you needed to buy your material, and that your dental association would furnish the younger dentists who would perform their services free of charge.

Dr. Bornstein: We did that for about a year, and then the volunteer service became so delinquent — the men would stay away on one excuse or another—it is different in a hospital where the men are getting something, even if they are not getting any money they are getting something, they are getting prestige, or something.

Mayor Congleton: Aren't the dentists getting it in taking care of the poor in the clinic the same as the doctors get it taking care of the poor in the City Hospital?

Dr. Bornstein: I do not think it is just the same.

Mayor Congleton: I would think it was exactly the same, and that any dentist who had a high sense of his profession and wanted to go ahead, would want it to be on a par with the surgeons and physicians devoting part of their time to the poor.

Dr. Bornstein: Well, we found it was impossible to work with a volunteer organization, and that the only way we could get good service was to be able to give the men a small salary. They do not get much salary.

Mayor Congleton: I appreciate it is small.

Commissioner Murray: Your information that the fund is to be used at another point is absolutely wrong. It is not so.

Dr. Bornstein: The clinics are not to be continued?

Commissioner Murray: What clinics?

Dr. Bornstein: The dental clinics.

Commissioner Murray: You mean the Health Department?

Dr. Bornstein: I don't know, the work——

Commissioner Murray: You said your information was this fund was going to be taken away from this free dental clinic and given to some place else?

Dr. Bornstein: Exactly.

Commissioner Murray: That is not so.

Dr. Bornstein: I understand the work is to be continued. How will it be continued?

Commissioner Murray: The work is to be continued in the Health Department clinics just as it has been before, and extended where it is possible to extend it; but there is no connection between the dental clinic in the Health Department and this clinic.

Dr. Bornstein: How will you be able to have the work performed?

Commissioner Murray: That is up to you.

Dr. Bornstein: To us?

Commissioner Murray: Up to your clinic.

Dr. Bornstein: Are we supposed to continue our clinic?

Commissioner Murray: I am not connected with your clinic. I don't know whether you are or not.

Dr. Bornstein: How are we to continue?

Commissioner Murray: I am just correcting your statement that the funds were to be taken away from you and apparently given to other dental clinics run by the city. That is not so.

Dr. Bornstein: I said it was unofficial information; we have not been able to get any information on that subject at all.

Commissioner Murray: There has been nothing done, so far as I know, except that the Commission decided to eliminate this $15,000.

Dr. Bornstein: Well, I don't know how the dental work can be continued without some money, and somebody will have to spend it.

Mayor Congleton: We have clinics in the public schools, we have clinics in the Board of Health, we have clinics in the parochial schools, dental clinics. When we were giving study to this and checking up we thought that we would take care of most of them, so far as we could see.

Dr. Bornstein: All the clinics that you have at present are inadequate to perform one half or less than one half of the work that is required. There are so many children that are growing up with lost teeth or badly decayed teeth, they are losing time in school, their whole character is being changed by the lack of this work.

Mayor Congleton: In other words, our dental work in the schools is not efficient and they are not doing their job?

Dr. Bornstein: I say none of them are efficiently ours either; I say we are not covering the field by any means; and to take away what we are doing I think is a great wrong--or rather, the directors do.

Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein: I appear on behalf of the Newark Free Dental Clinic and as I understand this institution was inaugurated back in 1909, so they have been functioning for twenty-three years. And at that time a crying need for the care of the children's teeth, particularly those that attend school, was determined by the dentists, and they volunteered their services and they found they were so overflowed with applications at that time that it necessitated the passing by the Legislature of an act enabling those first-class cities to appropriate $10,000 for that work. Subsequent to that, in 1924, I think the Legislature increased it to $15,000, at which figure it has been held since then. Now, these clinics are situated, one on Ferry Street and the other on New Street right in the very heart of those people who require this sort of work, and it is an absolute necessity. Statistics show that where children's teeth are not taken care of they require six months additional to complete the term in the elementary school. That costs the City $100 per child per year. Now, I know full well the problems you gentlemen are concerned with at this time, and I say to you, considering the fact that this is run and operated by laymen and dentists, such men as Willard Hamilton, Curtis Burnett, the late Felix Fuld, Rabbi Foster, and Mr. Ward, treasurer of the Howard Savings Institution, who was treasurer of this institution for a long time, those prominent men sought to enable this clinic to continue. Now, I can see a great deal of harm being done by the closing of those clinics. I know that a survey was made only in recent years in the City of New York among school children, and it was determined it would require all the dentists to work on the teeth of just school children for a year and a half, eighteen months, before they would have completed that work. And I can say to you gentlemen from my personal experience, if it is economy that you are looking for, that this would by all means be false economy. I know how reluctant a child is to go to some other part of the city, particularly so an indigent child, a child who is poor, whose parents haven't the mental capacity to ascertain the value of the care of the teeth. My understanding is that in the Board of Health teeth are simply extracted, while in these clinics the teeth are preserved and saved by putting in fillings and carrying the child over to not only a period of where the child is comfortable, but where it is going to affect their entire systems. The medical profession in the last ten years has fully realized the value and effect of bad teeth up the system, how it affects the child's heart, joints, and various other parts of the body. And in the past year in this clinic there were 21,000 dental operations, and the sum expended, including the rental of these two places, fees paid to these operators, was $14,400 which is a neglible amount, considering the fact that so many dental operations were performed. I want to bring to your attention the fact that there were eighteen to twenty per cent. of these school children were from parochial schools, and I know the importance from my personal experience in clinics, that you will find a great deal of difficulty in bringing a child from the eastern part of the city down to the Board of Health to have any dental work performed. They have been accustomed to going to these places, the children know about it; the sum expended is a negligible amount; and I would urge upon you gentlemen that an appropriation in the same manner be put aside for the continuance of those clinics. At present the clinic is supervised by Dr. Stevens and Dr. Hussey, reputable dentists in this city, who receive no remuneration for it. It has the accord, I believe, of all the poor people in the sections of the city where it is located; on the one hand it feeds those children in the south and northwestern parts of the city, and on the other hand below the railroad it assists those children in that section of the city where there is a crying need for that sort of work. I think if you gentlemen will stop to consider the enormous amount of dental operations, the cleaning of teeth, the filling of teeth, and extraction of teeth in those clinics, only a very small percentage of the teeth of the children were extracted. You gentlemen may not be aware of the value of teeth to a child, how it aids the child to masticate, and how it aids the child's digestion; and in many of those cases those children are undernourished if they cannot give proper mastication to the little food they get and they cannot be expected to raise themselves and be valuable citizens to this city. I know the amount received by those dentists in attendance at the clinic is negligible. I heard your Honor say something about these dentists contributing their work. I want to acquaint your Honor with this fact, that the statistics show that the average dentist earns $50 a week, whereas a physician can devote his time and give an hour or two, the dentist, when he devotes his time, as they do in this clinic, giving three or four hours a day either morning or afternoon, that he cannot possibly do it for less than he is making without making many sacrifices. Then too, the Central Dental Association unanimously passed a resolution in favor of continuing the dental clinics. Now, I am a member of the Central Dental Association. I know they take in every single ethical dentist in the city and surrounding neighboring cities. Surely the dentists know what would be to the best interest of those children in those localities. I am urging upon you again that you consider it and consider it carefully, because I do know it would be economic to retain those clinics.

Mayor Congleton: How many dentists have you in Newark?

Commissioner Murray: May I correct your impression that the Health Department clinics do nothing but extract teeth? They treat and fill teeth just the same as if the child were paying for it. A child from down neck does not have to go to the Health Department, there is a very presentable clinic in St. Casimir's School, there is another at St. Michael's at Broadway, and there is another being equipped at St. Lucy's on Seventh Avenue; and I had those in mind when I said the extension of those clinics would be made as rapidly as possible. That is nothing against your clinics, but the Health Department clinics do treat and fill teeth as well as extract them. They only extract them where they cannot be filled or taken care of otherwise.

Dr. Ellenstein: I want to say it is not my clinic—

Commissioner Murray: I mean to say the clinics to which you refer, it is nothing against them.

Dr. Ellenstein: There is this to say, the Legislature having passed such legislation, it was surely their intention that those clinics be entirely divorced from politics, and it is that thing that the members of the Central Dental Association is opposed to. They want to keep it still out of politics, and there cannot be any objection, and there isn't anybody can say the clinics as they are set up now are not run in the most economical fashion. I have the number of dental operations performed there, the number of children treated there, the number of parochial school children, eighteen to twenty per cent. that were treated at that point, why change that? These children have been accustomed to going to these places, and it has been there for twenty-three years. What would be the object in changing that?

Mayor Congleton: How many dentists have you in Newark, or carrying on business here that call themselves Newarkers and who may sleep outside?

Dr. Bornstein: Between four and five hundred, I guess.

Mayor Congleton: I remember very distinctly Mr. Abner S. Reeves was the father of this idea. And all they wanted the City to do was to give them sufficient money to pay the rent and buy material with which they worked, and I was rather surprised when I found out that a good part of our appropriation was used to pay salaries, because the very idea that the fathers of this dental clinic put up to the governing body was that the dentists wanted to do this work as their contribution to the civic life, the same as the physicians and surgeons are doing at our City Hospital.

Dr. Ellenstein: That is true, and they are making great sacrifices when they average $1500 a year when they devote three or four hours per day every day of the week. That is a decided sacrifice. I think you will agree with me, Mr. Mayor, that that is not a large salary for a man who has gone through dental school—

Mayor Congleton: I am not criticizing the amount.

Dr. Ellenstein: Well, he is spending the greater part of the day and he is making sacrifices which would necessitate someone doing the work. The best men in the City are selected to do that work, and there surely is a crying need. I say to you gentlemen that every one of you has to safeguard the health, safety, welfare and morals of the citizens of this city, and health is always put first and that is a very important factor, particularly so in the care of children's teeth. There isn't a more crying need, and I know it would be to the best interests of the city and to the best interests of those poor indigent children, to have their teeth taken care of; and assuming it was necessary to have all these other clinics, these clinics should not be closed up by virtue of the fact that the children in those sections are accustomed to go there, and you know from experience, Mr. Mayor, how reluctant a child is to go to a clinic and how very often when a clinic is in the immediate vicinity the child will take the hand of another and go to that clinic whereas if you place it in some other remote part of the city, the probabilities are they will not attend to those clinics, and as a result of it suffer from it.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Dr. Bornstein: You mentioned Mr. Reeve. Mr. Reeve himself found out it could not be operated under volunteer service, and he was the one who brought the matter before the Mayor at the time, I believe.

Mayor Congleton: I drew the bill and had it introduced and lobbied for it, the original bill, which contained a very much smaller appropriation than the present; and from time to time your association has, through legislation, had the amount increased twice, I think, from the original amount.

Dr. Bornstein: That is right.

Mayor Congleton: It is merely permissive the same as a great many other statutes they pass. They do occasionally pass a permissive act. A great many of them are mandatory.

Dr. Bornstein: We understand that, that it is not compulsory on your part to grant the appropriation; but we show the necessity. We want all over that twenty years ago somewhere in 1913, and showed the necessity, and it was concurred in at that time.

Dr. Ellenstein: I just want to add this, gentlemen of the Commission, that surely four or five hundred dentists, where only six of them receive remuneration surely, four or five hundred dentists would not be in accord on continuing a clinic unless there was an absolute need for it. Now, of $15,000, $14,000 was expended in the last year. That is a negligible amount considering the harm that would be done as a result of closing these two clinics. And these dentists should know the value of those clinics.

Mayor Congleton: I am not in any way meaning to reflect upon the clinic or the work it is doing. My only thought is that you have gotten away from the idea that you started under; and with four or five hundred dentists in the City of Newark that want to carry on this work, it does seem to me that the original thought they had in mind could be carried out just the same as the greatest surgeons and greatest physicians that we have in this community give their services free of charge, not only at the City Hospital, but at St. James', St. Michael's and the other large hospitals of our community.

Dr. Ellenstein: Now, Mr. Mayor, that is hardly a fair comparison. When a surgeon goes to the hospital he gains by that.

Mayor Congleton: Don't these dentists gain by their experience in filling teeth and performing dental operations?

Dr. Ellenstein: Not in the least. That is elementary work, and any dentist, or a man that has been in dental school for one year, is qualified to do that type of work. He may not do it as skillfully as another, but this work is largely temporary work; the permanent teeth have not entirely erupted; and with the exception of one or two teeth, they are called upon to do temporary work. A surgeon gains, if not in dollars and cents, in experience which stands him in later years, which a dentist does not gain. Statistics show that dentists earn no more than $50 a week on the average.

Mayor Congleton: I guess a good many doctors, their average is not so large if you take them all in all.

Dr. Ellenstein: However, I am not stressing that point at all, I am stressing the point of the harm that would be done by the closing up of these two clinics; and it is a negligible amount, $15,000.

Mayor Congleton: Every single item that we have touched in itself is practically in that same class, but in the aggregate they amount to $968,000.

Dr. Ellenstein: I might say, you said they started out that way. That was only continued for one year. The clinic was opened in June, 1909, and in 1910 the Legislature then passed an act permitting first-class cities to appropriate $10,000 for that particular class of work. It was surely the intention of the Legislature at that time to keep it separate and apart from the city budget.

Mayor Congleton: I don't think the Legislature knew anything about it, because we went down there and advocated the bill, and it was a permissive one, and we got it through. They did not know whether it was politics or not politics; and I do not think it is quite a fair statement to intimate that all of our clinics are run on a political basis.

Dr. Ellenstein: I did not intimate that at all.

Mayor Congleton: You made the point that yours particularly is run without any politics.

Dr. Ellenstein: That is right.

Mayor Congleton: And I say there isn't any politics in our clinic either.

Dr. Ellenstein: That is the point that the Central Dental Association takes, that they want to keep it free and apart from politics because it is so intimately concerned with the health of these poor indigent children in those localities.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard on this matter? Does any other person have any other matter they desire to discuss with the Commission this morning?

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Hahne Building & Loan Association, owner, to permit the amendment of plans for a gasoline station approved by the Board of Adjustment October 6, 1931, and by this Board October 28, 1931; Premises 59-61 Seventh avenue;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mr. James J. Quinn: Speaking for the Hahne Building and Loan Association on an application for change of plans that has been approved by the Board of Adjustment, it calls for a change in the paving of the gasoline station on Summer and Seventh avenue, Newark.

Mayor Congleton: A permit has been granted and you are now making some change in your plan?

Mr. Rankin: This was an alteration in the original plan, and as I explained in my report, the changes involved are re-location of the pumps and substitution of cracked stone and Tarvia finish for cement paving.

Mayor Congleton: Are the pumps back further from the street or nearer?

Mr. Quinn: Further from the street.

Mr. Rankin: They are a little further away from the street line.

Mayor Congleton: Did the Zoning Board approve of the changes?

Mr. Rankin: Yes, sir. Twelve feet from Summer avenue and about the same from Seventh.

Commissioner Gillen: I move the changes be concurred in.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

(At this time a recess was taken.)

Mayor Congleton: I declare the recess at an end, and the meeting will reconvene, everybody being present.

The Board of Commissioners have given consideration to the last two appeals that have been made to us for changes in the budget, and we do not see our way clear to include them. The resolution is that the budget be adopted as read. All in favor will signify by saying aye, opposed no; the Clerk will call the roll.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan: I move the Board of Commissioners recess until three-thirty this afternoon.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The Board of Commissioners reconvened at three-thirty P. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray: Do you think Commissioner Gillen, we should take up the final form of the purchasing board?

Commissioner Gillen: Yes.

(Discussion between Commissioners.)

Mayor Congleton: I will dictate the following change to the stenographer. 1. The Board of Purchases shall elect from among its members a chairman, a vice-chairman and a secretary who shall serve in said offices for a term of one year. The vice-chairman, if presiding, shall have the powers of the chairman in the absence of the chairman. His term of office shall be co-terminus with that of the chairman.

Now, do I understand the motion is that with these changes that the stenographer has noted these rules will be adopted?

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Now, as I read the ordinance before the Board, the Board of Commissioners shall provide said bureau with such clerical or other assistance as may be necessary and proper to the conduct of said bureau. Now, I think we ought to immediately get up our list of employees that can go to work on this bureau, and take it up next Tuesday or whenever you want to meet.

Commissioner Gillen: How would you do it, by resolution transferring them?

Mayor Congleton: If we have got the budget in the form it is now, I wonder while we are trying it out if that is the best way to do it. Frankly, I have in mind this: Here is Mr. Adams who has been here for years; he has been a member of the Pension Fund, and if he is transferred out of my department he loses his benefit in this pension fund. Until this is tried out, why can't we leave them where they are?

Commissioner Murray: Let them be delegated to do this work.

Mayor Congleton: Take Mr. Helmsstetter, you do not want him transferred out of your department, and Commissioner Egan does not want Mr. Keenan transferred.

Commissioner Egan: No. Mr. Keenan's work on purchases is incidental to his other work.

Mayor Congleton: They meet every Tuesday morning and whenever they deem necessary.

Commissioner Gillen: I would say they should meet every morning.

Mayor Congleton: Your Board of Purchases shall meet every Tuesday at ten-thirty a. m., and more often if necessary. Variation of meeting dates shall be at the pleasure of the Board of Purchases.

Commissioner Gillen: I think if you go back you will see where we passed a motion or resolution to establish this Board and you will find that it mentioned them meeting every day. The thought in my mind was they should meet every morning at ten o'clock and all requisitions would be sent to them, and this Board would go over the requisitions and everything and arrange through their clerks, or whoever has charge of it to proceed with the advertising or ordering of it. After having done that they can leave the meeting and go back to their work.

Mayor Congleton: Let us try it out that way. And why can't we then for the time being leave the employees that are now engaged in purchasing stay where they are for the time being, and take their orders on purchasing to this purchasing board for a month or two until we try it out. I have no interest in the matter with respect to Mr. Adams that I spoke of other than that pension fund, and I think that while this thing is being tried out he ought not to be deprived of the protection he has there after having paid in for years.

Commissioner Gillen: We have no objection to that; but change it from Tuesdays to every day.

Mayor Congleton: The Board of Purchases shall meet each business day at ten-thirty a. m.

Commissioner Murray: Ten-thirty a. m. of each business day. Because there are lots of requisitions come in on Saturdays.

Mayor Congleton: The City Clerk had better take this draft. I dictated the first paragraph to the stenographer and then I struck this one out.

Rules for organization and purchase procedure as recommended by the Board of Purchases of the Bureau of Purchases.

1. The Board of Purchases shall elect from its members a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman and a Secretary, who shall serve in said offices for a term of one year. The Vice-Chairman, if presiding, shall have the powers of the Chairman in the absence of the Chairman. His term of office shall be co-terminus with that of the Chairman.

2. The Board of Purchases shall purchase or contract for all supplies, materials and equipment needed by any and all City Departments, institutions, Boards and other agencies as may be defined by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, which hereinafter are referred to as the Using Agencies.

3. All Using Agencies of the city shall file detailed estimates of their requirements in supplies, materials and equipment in such manner at such times and for such periods as the Board of Purchases shall prescribe. This shall in no wise prevent any Using Agency from filing with the Board of Purchases at any time a requisition for supplies, materials and equipment, the need for which was not foreseen when the detailed estimates were submitted.

4. As rapidly as any class of supplies, materials or equipment shall have become standardized, it shall be the duty of the Board of Purchases to incorporate such standards as the basis of specifications on which said supplies, materials or equipment shall be purchased or contracted for.

5. The Board of Purchases shall, when deemed necessary, invite into conference any expert or authority in the City Government whose advice is required in the preparation of standards and specifications for the purchase of or contract for supplies, materials and equipment.

6. When it becomes necessary to purchase materials, supplies or equipment not covered by contract, it shall be the duty of the Board of Purchases to obtain at least three prices thereon and to award order to lowest bidder.

7. In case of emergency, any or all Using Agencies may purchase directly any supplies, materials or equipment whose immediate procurement is necessary to the continuance of the work of the Using Agency concerned, providing the amount to be expended does not exceed $..... Requisition covering the emergency purchase must be forwarded immediately to the Board of Purchases for issuance of confirming order.

8. The receiving agent in each Using Agency shall be held responsible by the Board of Purchases for the proper receipt of all materials, supplies or equipment as indicated on the triplicate written order and conforming therewith as to specifications, standards, etc.

9. The Board of Purchases when considered necessary shall prescribe chemical and physical tests of samples submitted with bids and samples of deliveries to determine their quality and conformance with the said standards and specifications. In the performance of such tests, the Board of Purchases shall make use of the laboratory facilities of any agency of the City Government whenever possible.

10. The Board of Purchases shall meet each business day at 10:30 A. M.

Commissioner Howe moved that the rules be adopted.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolutions:

RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that a certain agreement between the City of Newark, County of Essex, and the Public Service Co-ordinated Transport, covering the temporary suspension of street railway service in Jackson Street Newark, New Jersey from the Newark-Harrison Line to Market Street, removal of tracks and/or overhead construction and substitution of bus operation in lieu thereof, which agreement bears date of February 24th, 1932, copy of which is attached hereto, be and the same hereby is approved; and the Director of the Department of Public Affairs and the City Clerk are hereby authorized to execute the same on behalf of the said City on the passage of this resolution.

C

Mayor Congleton: Merely as a precautionary measure in case somebody should come along tomorrow, I would suggest when we adjourn today we adjourn to meet tomorrow at two o'clock in the afternoon because if these bonds are now sold they cannot be sold under that advertisement, they will have to be sold under this new act within sixty days of the time they were advertised. We can sell now at private sale any time within sixty days of the date fixed in the public advertisement, and we would have to pass that kind of a resolution now if they came in and said they would take the bonds.

Commissioner Egan: Do you want to meet again tomorrow?

Mayor Congleton: We will adjourn to meet at two o'clock.

Commissioner Egan: The thought was expressed yesterday about new revenues—

Mayor Congleton: I think this is a good time to discuss it.

Commissioner Egan: I think we ought to have a license fee on open parking stations. I think all engineers in Newark ought to be licensed at about $100 a year.

Commissioner Murray: It would be a good thing to license chain stores in Newark, too. They collect the money in Newark and take it out.

Mayor Congleton: Do you want to discuss that matter, Commissioner Murray?

Commissioner Murray: Yes. It just seemed to me that with the need for increased revenues being as keen as it is, due to the fact that in the case of the open-air parking station today it is in existence because of the eradication of ratables that heretofore existed on the properties, and when you realize that people who built expensive buildings for garage purposes and pay substantial taxes; and the rents are very considerable for open-air parking spaces and yet the city gets no benefit from the fact that the land produces a very substantial income without the investment of what would go in the maintenance of a building that did stand upon the premises formerly; and it occurred to me it would be a good thing to come to some determination that the area should be the basis of the license tax upon each of these stations, and that area would be divided into the number of square feet occupied by a car.

parked thereon and let them pay so much per year per car space in the parking station. A man who had a one-hundred car capacity would pay, for example, $1.50 a car, that would make $150 a year. With our experience with parking stations in the center of the city that might produce a very substantial revenue.

Mayor Congleton: I think that is a very excellent idea. I am ready to go along with it and I think we might instruct the Law Department to prepare an ordinance, and, in the meantime, through proper channels, we could make some investigation as to what fees are charged in other places and we can leave the fee part blank, but get the ordinance ready.

Commissioner Egan: How about gasoline pumps?

Mayor Congleton: We talked about that a lot. I think your department had an ordinance prepared.

Commissioner Egan: The Law Department has got it in its files.

Mayor Congleton: Let us revive that again. Now, there are a lot of you might say itinerant merchants. I am thinking now of those ice cream wagons we had last year that I think paid a dollar a year, and they are going around through the streets competing with storekeepers and merchants that are paying real taxes and real rents for stores. Those fellows buy a little automobile, put a man on it, and occupy our streets, and they park at the corners and have got no other expense. I think a higher fee could be put on businesses of that type, not alone ice cream wagons, but maybe some of those out-of-town peddlers of other merchandise.

Commissioner Egan: Bakery wagons, for instance.

Mayor Congleton: Yes. They put one through up in Irvington a while ago.

Commissioner Egan: It is my desire to refuse to grant licenses to these Good Humor ice cream wagons this year.

Mayor Congleton: They ought to pay a very substantial license fee if they are going to do business. Down in Asbury Park on something of that nature they fixed a license fee of $400, and the courts sustained it. You might have someone look up that case. I think it was Asbury Park; it was one of the seashore towns. On the question of these additional revenues, my department has been working on the question of vaults and construction work and other things where they are using the street; manhole and coalhole covers, they are all charged for in other cities. And we are working on that to see if we can get some more revenue.

While we are talking on these general things, why don't we discuss this proposition further of our city employees living in the City of Newark.

Commissioner Egan: I would suggest and offer a motion before the Commission that all City employees be required to live in Newark.

Mayor Congleton: Let the Law Department prepare an ordinance along that line.

Mr. Boettner: May I report I took that up with Mr. Brogan in Jersey City. He said the way they arranged that with all Board of Education employees, they made them agree, all the new employees—they could not change the old employees—but all new employees had to agree to be residents and to remain residents as long as employed by the Board of Education of the City of Jersey City.

Mayor Congleton: The employees that are now living outside of the city, I think in fairness to them we should give them a reasonable time to dispose of their property, and so forth. If they want to work for Newark they should be required to live in that community.

Commissioner Egan: I do not think I have any in my department.

Mayor Congleton: I think your rules require the police and firemen to live here; but I think I did get a report the other day of a policeman or fireman living in East Orange and his wife is working.

Commissioner Egan: I had two or three complaints and they all checked out.

Mayor Congleton: If you have got only one or two in your department you are fortunate, because I have a lot of them.

Commissioner Howe: So have I got a lot of them.

Mayor Congleton: This ought to be a bona fide residence, and we should define in the ordinance a bona fide residence is the place where if the man is married his family resides. This thing of having the family outside and keeping a voting residence with some relative I think is all wrong.

Commissioner Murray: I want to advise you that our accommodations at the lodging house are at the maximum and the demand is up to the limit. We have about 468 and we have no room for others. They turn away from sixty to 130 a night.

Commissioner Howe: I see a line at half-past five when I am going home.

Commissioner Murray: I suppose we have to face the issue. We hope with the warm weather, and it undoubtedly will very substantially reduce the number of guests there, because it is the cold nights more than anything else, and the stormy nights, that drives them under cover; but I have to say for them, of the thousands we have taken care of, I would say they were ninety per cent. good men, men of good type; not over ten per cent. were even questionable, and only a small portion of that ten per cent. was objectionable.

Commissioner Howe: Are many of them colored?

Commissioner Murray: Yes, a large number of them are colored, but not a preponderance.

Commissioner Howe: Not a majority?

Commissioner Murray: No.

Commissioner Egan: I was over in the lodging house Monday morning between one and two o'clock, and I want to tell you it is a mighty well managed institution, clean and comfortable.

Commissioner Murray: These men are bound to be clean and bound to be fairly comfortable, because they get an examination to show they are clean from communicable diseases, and we have got a showerroom and a man in a bathing suit is there to see they get a good bath and not wet their heads. We have wash tubs and wash boards and soap and water where their soiled linen and underclothing may be washed, and they are required to wash them if they are dirty.

Commissioner Egan: I saw a fellow washing his shirt at half-past one Monday morning as happy as a canary bird.

Commissioner Murray: Those fellows go to bed perfectly clean and they have a comfortable, warm nightgown on, and they dress in clean clothing, all the clothing having gone through the sterilizer and they go out with a meal ticket for their breakfast and they make a very good start; and the general results of that are not limited to the comforts to these men under shelter overnight, they include, perhaps, avoiding the danger of holdups, and so forth, by men who are cold and hungry and desperate; and you have 468 men who do not need police protection or police regulation through the hours of the night. They are there early—Commissioner Howe says he saw them at half-past five—the doors open at six o'clock, and at eight o'clock they are all in bed and the premises have all been entirely cleaned, the baths are scoured and the clothing is on its way through the sterilizer.

Commissioner Egan: I saw one of your employees handling clothes out of the sterilizer the other night and you would think he was handling little babies; he was happy as could be.

Commissioner Murray: The staff is very good, and the general results from a social service standpoint are splendid. Now, we will soon have to go to the question of extended facilities, and I think next Tuesday at our conference—between now and then I will try to get some information as to what available premises there may be where we may establish an annex to take care of this overflow, because I understand the Salvation Army's free accommodations are taxed to the utmost; and when those men are asked why they did not go to the Salvation Army they said they had been there and could not get in because they had no money, and it is tough to turn them out on a rainy stormy night, it is tough to turn them out, but with every corner filled and with every accommodation given that decency would permit, we still, nevertheless have to turn away from 60 to 130 a night. You would not need a place quite as large as this—

Commissioner Howe: How about the South Market Street School, isn't that closed?

Commissioner Murray: I don't know; but that is remote; that is too far away. If you have these things centrally located you get the men better.

Mayor Congleton: I think you can get one floor or two floors in that building right next to you if you want to.

Commissioner Murray: Will they put shower baths in for you?

Mayor Congleton: That is a question you would have to negotiate. They were considering doing it themselves.

Commissioner Murray: There is only one way to do it, and that is the right way. This plan costs about 27 cents a man for his lodging, everything included, plus 15 cents for a meal ticket which gives him a fair start at seven o'clock in the morning, and he must be out at that time. I think it is a very satisfactory working outfit, and I want any annex to be conducted along the same lines and give the same accommodations, privileges, and same requirements as they have in this plant. We will take it up Tuesday, then.

Mayor Congleton: We cannot let the poor devils freeze.

Commissioner Howe: Believe me, it was cold last night at one o'clock.

Commissioner Murray: It was. It was cold to you with a good warm overcoat and warm clothes on you and it is colder to the fellow whose overcoat was new five years ago, the collar of which is worn through from contact with his neck, and without lining, and poor clothing, and very frail, if any, under clothing on, and poor shoes and no socks; and he is the kind of a fellow you have got to take care of. We get a lot of material assistance from the Overseer of the Poor who gathers suits and overcoats without number, shoes and socks and underwear, and we are able to send these fellows out in much better shape than they come in wherever they need it. It is because of that from the social service standpoint it does monumental work. We do not give it much publicity, but it is there, and I think they appreciate it, too.

Mayor Congleton: In reference to that Bayonne contract it is estimated on their present consumption that the City of Newark as their share of the receipts from that contract will collect considerably over a million dollars.

Commissioner Murray: Before we adjourn I would like to raise the question of salary of Overseer of the Poor. It is getting to the end of February now, and when he came here it was agreed if he came at $5,000 for last year, at the end of the year we would give him $6,000 as I recall it, and I do not know why we should not live up to that, because he has done a strenuous job and done it very well, and he has shown what a department like that can be made; and it has been an education to all of us; and he has answered the call under the stress of the present circumstances splendidly and every detail is taken care of. Last week he started in to work at twenty minutes to nine in the morning and finished at twenty minutes to one on the following morning, and in that one stretch of time as a result of an intensive checkup by him and those working under him, there was a return of coal orders totaling nearly $5,000, not fraudulently gotten, not irregularly issued but those orders were, for example, addressed to John Doe and Mary Doe at a certain number of a certain street in the particular district, and between the time the order was applied for and approved by investigation, the family had been put out and had to go somewhere else. And we had this careful check-up of the coal orders. The coal order might have been left at that address and another party not entitled to it might have delivered it to a coal man, and he cannot identify the individual, and the coal might have been delivered to somebody not entitled to it.

Commissioner Howe: What do you do with that?

Commissioner Murray: Bring it back. They are now in the Overseer's office where they are entitled to it under a change of circumstances in their particular circumstances. They will get coal. They will get coal orders. But it is an abundance of caution which suggested this as routine to be followed by his department, and it is done now with frequency; and in a single night it brought in a reduction of grocery orders of about $1,600, and an increase in some orders of perhaps four or five hundred dollars. The families were found to be entitled to more than they were getting, and some families, because somebody had gone to work were entitled to a little less. That adjustment has been made. He has given personal attention to this. I have had regular and constant contact with him and we have worked this thing out now, and I think we should without question concur in the arrangement that was made with him when he came here, and increase his salary back to the first of January.

Mayor Congleton: I have a very distinct recollection of the arrangement made with Mr. Malady. It was first agreed to make his salary $6,000. I was the one who suggested that inasmuch as our budget had been passed and the Overseer at that time was getting $5,000, I asked him if he would not take for the first year $5,000, with the agreement on our part after he had been in for a year we had a chance to judge of his work, it would go to $6,000. I feel under a moral obligation to carry out my contract.

Commissioner Murray: I do not think it is in any sense an increase in salary, it is just carrying out our contract.

Mayor Congleton: It was the arrangement made, the first year he was to get $5,000, and the second year $6,000 if we were satisfied with his work; and I think we can all say—I know I can, because I have been in rather close touch with him—not as close as Commissioner Murray, but I have seen a great deal of it, and Mr. Malady has done an excellent piece of work for us and saved us tremendous sums of money.

Commissioner Murray: And I think he is thoroughly entitled to it.

Mayor Congleton: I make it clear, as far as my vote is concerned, that it is not an increase, it is the salary that was fixed last year when Mr. Malady came to us. Present your resolution on it.

Commissioner Murray offered the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the compensation of Owen A. Malady, Overseer of the Poor, be and the same hereby is fixed at Six Thousand Dollars ($6,000) per annum, effective January 1, 1932, in accordance with agreement entered into with Mr. Malady upon his acceptance of the position.

The Board reconvened at 2:30 P. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Gentlemen, to break the suspense, everything is arranged for. The permanent bonds are sold and the financial needs of the City of Newark for the calendar year 1932 are all taken care of, based on our present commitments, no new capital expenditures are to be made. I had to sign this letter—I say I had to—there are certain things that they wanted which I talked with you gentlemen about and which you agreed to. They wanted it in the form of a letter and the easiest way, I think, is this way. This is the letter addressed to Mr. J. S. Rippel, President, Newark Clearing House:

February 26, 1932.

My dear Mr. Rippel:

The City Commission wants you and your associates in the Clearing House to know that we appreciate very deeply the wonderful assistance and help that you have given us.

We appreciate it so much that I have been directed at the unanimous wish of the Commission to request the Clearing House to appoint a small committee to advise with us in our financial affairs.

The Board of Commissioners and the Board of Education have reduced the budget appropriations for current expenses of their respective departments by $968,715. This, of course, is not all net to the tax payer for the reason that the debt service item in our budget is increased this year over last year by $268,715, thus showing a net decrease of amount to be raised by taxation of $700,000. We are prepared, and will this afternoon re-open our budget and reduce the total of the budget, as it now stands, by an additional $500,000. at least, the reduction being brought about through the cooperation of the Board of Education and the City Commissioners and will affect both departments.

I also would like you to know that I have for some time been working on a revision of the water rates for the City of Newark and the new rates will be fixed at an amount which will be sufficient to meet all operating expenses and fixed charges upon the debt service. As you know, we have been discussing with your Committee the question of additional capital expenditures, and you have the assurance of the Board of Commissioners that no new capital expenditures will be incurred other than those already contracted for.

The City of Newark has balanced its budget for some years past, and it is our desire and purpose to get down to a basis where we can live within our cash income, and in the accomplishment of this we feel the Committee can be of great assistance.

Yours sincerely,

Mayor.

Mr. J. S. Rippel, President,
Newark Clearing House,
Newark, N. J.

That was signed by me for the City. The permanent bonds are going at six per cent; all renewals will be taken care of; all cash needed to meet payrolls and other payments that we have to make by reason of the commitments under these contracts will be financed. With that thought in mind, I think the first thing that we should do would be to reconvene the Board of School Estimate, and then right after that we will reconvene our meeting. And if you are in accord with me, I would ask the Board of School Estimate to formally meet in session.

Commissioner Egan moved that the Board recess.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The Board reconvened at 3:00 P. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The following communication was received and read:

Board of Education

Newark, New Jersey

February 26, 1932.

Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Gentlemen:

At an emergency meeting of the Board of School Estimate held on Friday afternoon, February 26, 1932, it was decided that two hundred and sixty thousand dollars ($260,000.) additional be cut from the current expense budget of the Board of Education for the school year 1932-1933, leaving the amount for the City to raise to be eight million dollars ($8,000,000.), instead of eight million two hundred and sixty thousand dollars ($8,260,000.), as previously adopted.

Yours truly,
R. D. Argue,
Secretary.

RESOLVED: That the Board of School Estimate does hereby respectfully recommend to the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the sum of eight million dollars ($8,000,000.) be appropriated to the Board of Education for the current expenses of the schools for the school year beginning July 1, 1932, and ending June 30, 1933, and that five thousand dollars ($5,000.) of the above amount be specifically appropriated for manual training purposes.

Board of School Estimate.

Ordered filed.

Mayor Congleton: Now that the Commission is reconvened a motion would be in order to reconsider our budget.

Commissioner Gillen: I move you to that effect, Mr. Mayor.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Let the Clerk read this resolution authorizing the sale of $5,000,000. of tax anticipation notes for one month, at six per cent. It is merely for the purpose of furnishing us with cash until the permanent bonds are furnished.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED, By the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, that the sum of Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) shall be borrowed by The City of Newark, pursuant to Chapter 192 of the Laws of 1917 of New Jersey, as amended, to meet the City's lawful expenditures under the appropriations for the fiscal year 1932 in anticipation of the receipt of taxes levied or to be levied for said year, and not delinquent, and that said loan shall be evidenced by tax anticipation bonds of The City of Newark, dated February 29, 1932, bearing interest at the rate of Six Per Centum (6%) per annum, payable at maturity, and maturing March 29, 1932, and to be of such denominations and form as may be determined by the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Mayor, Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance, City Auditor, and City Clerk are hereby authorized to execute said bonds, and that the offer to purchase said bonds heretofore submitted to the Board of Commissioners by Fidelity Union Trust Company is hereby accepted, and the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance is hereby authorized to deliver such bonds to said purchaser, upon receiving in payment therefor par and accrued interest.

Charles P. Gillen
W. J. Egan

Jno. F. Murray, Jr.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: This being out of the way, gentlemen, we have got to get $240,000 off our budget. I don't know where it will come from.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, you can write your own ticket on my department.

Mayor Congleton: That is putting a lot up to me.

Commissioner Egan: Well what do you want from the Department of Public Safety?

Commissioner Gillen: The best way is to put it on a percentage basis, isn't it?

Mayor Congleton: I don't believe we can, Commissioner; I wish we could.

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Mayor, it was your request over the telephone that my department cut its budget still further to the extent of $25,000. That is going to mean pretty close pinching, but we are in a position where we all have to take a part of the load, and my budget will be reduced by the additional $25,000.

Commissioner Egan: You indicated to me over the telephone, Mr. Mayor, you felt if I could further cut my budget $100,000, that might require—

Mayor Congleton: Could you make it $115,000? I have cut mine down to two forty-seven. I don't know where it will come from, but I will take another $100,000—or can Commissioner Gillen take a little of that $15,000?

Commissioner Gillen: I will take it just the same as everybody else.

Mr. Brady: In the Poor and Alms budget you have got $300,000 in there. Under the law you have got to put in at least what you had in 1929. That is only $235,000. You have got at least that much.

Mayor Congleton: We are going to use it. You mean to put it on the Emergency?

Mr. Brady: Yes. You are way over your Emergency now, but that is what we have to put in, at least what we had in 1929.

Commissioner Egan: Would that come in next year's budget if we did go over it?

Mayor Congleton: It would be spread over the eight-year period.

Commissioner Egan: Then I think you ought to take advantage of that.

Mayor Congleton: How much would that be off?

Mr. Brady: $235,000, $65,000—it is a little but more—make it $236,000.

Commissioner Egan: Take $50,000 off it.

Mayor Congleton: If we do that, to make an even half million it leaves $165,000. I would like to show our good faith, as long as we have come this far, and the Board of Education took that extra $10,000, to go not just the even figure but a trifle over it; and if you will take $100,000 I will take $100,000. I don't know where it will come from.

Commissioner Egan: Whatever I take will probably result in my laying off some men. My thought at the moment is that if I do lay off some men I will have to reduce the amount of service rendered in the department. But it is necessary I will lay off the men who are the youngest employees; and if you want $100,000 taken off, I say "yes" now.

Mayor Congleton: All right, $100,000 off there, and we take $100,000 off of our budget I don't know where, but we will take it off.

Mr. Brady: Which figures do you want it taken out of?

Commissioner Egan: Leave that to me. Do you have to have it right away?

Mr. Brady: I will have to get it out of the budget not today, but I will have to have it pretty soon.

Commissioner Egan: Give me a chance. Yesterday I went after it from this point of view: I will have to spread mine out—

Commissioner Gillen: Where do you stand now?

Mayor Congleton: We are all right, $535,000.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, you cut your department pretty close to the bone before. Are you going to find yourself handicapped if you cut it much more? Can we help you some?

Mayor Congleton: I realize that I am way down before I take any more off.

Commissioner Gillen: I will cut $7,500, I think.

Mayor Congleton: Then can I have the credit of that, and make it $535,000?

Commissioner Egan: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: Are we going to go through with these ordinances taxing open air parking stations, and so forth?

Commissioner Gillen: I say yes.

Mr. Brady: Can we do that?

Mayor Congleton: If we are, that is going to produce us some additional revenue. If we get the ordinance ready and put it through by the first of April, for nine months it will swell your miscellaneous revenue a bit.

Commissioner Egan: Couldn't we do this, Mr. Mayor: You say $100,000 for my department. Does anybody have any idea how many open-air parking stations we have?

Commissioner Gillen: And gasoline stations, too.

Commissioner Murrey: There must be 50,000 cars parked in these stations.

Commissioner Egan: What would you figure, $1 a car?

Commissioner Murray: $1.50.

Mayor Congleton: I told some of these people in New York about it, and they thought it was an excellent idea, and did not know why it should not be $1 a month.

Commissioner Egan: Suppose you say $1.50 a car, and say you park 50,000 cars a year.

Commissioner Murray: That is $75,000.

Commissioner Egan: Now, on your gasoline stations, if you did not do anything else but this, you ought to charge at least $25 a year flat as a minimum for every gasoline station. There must be a thousand of them.

Commissioner Murray: About three hundred. That is $7,500 more.

Commissioner Egan: Say $10,000. Itinerant merchants, after we get that studied out your Good Humor ice cream wagons and bakery wagons. that ought to give us another $10,000. don't you think, Mr. Mayor?

Mayor Congleton: I don't know.

Commissioner Egan: There is $95,000.

Commissioner Gillen: You have about four or five hundred farmers and speculators doing business in these public markets here, and they ought all to be taxed, every one of them.

Commissioner Egan: I think you are right.

Mayor Congleton: Wouldn't we be safe if we estimated at least $50,000 from all of these new forms of licenses?

Commissioner Egan: I think you can say $100,000.

Commissioner Gillen: You can say $100,000, the way he is figuring now.

Mr. Brady: I am afraid you are going too high now on that, because I went every peg on miscellaneous revenue, and I don't think I am going to get it, because I have got $166,000 for market rent, and I don't think I am going to get it. I went the very last limit.

Commissioner Egan: Then if you don't change this thing at all, and you have already put that in, you probably aren't going to get it.

Mr. Brady: Then if I get other stuff it will just about offset that.

Commissioner Murray: You have a tremendous number of lunch wagons.

Commissioner Gillen: They ought to be taxed just the same.

Commissioner Murray: They are a very large business and they cost $12,000, $15,000, $18,000, and I doubt very much if any of them are assessed five per cent. of that.

Commissioner Egan: That isn't a bad thought there, Commissioner Murray. You take your lunch wagons, they manage to work it out where they have practically no assessment for real estate. You could increase that; the license fee is $10 now; we could get $25 out of that.

Commissioner Murray: Because they are virtually fixtures; they have to put in plumbing and sewers; and they were originally built—

Commissioner Egan: I move you, Mr. Mayor that we put in the budget as miscellaneous revenue $100,000 covering these contemplated license fees that we will work out for this year.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray. Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: That means that we have got to get right down to business and adopt the ordinances regardless of the opposition that may develop.

Mayor Congleton: Now, Commissioner Howe, this $5,000,000 representing the permanent bonds, they are going to furnish us with the money immediately, because it will be the middle of March before the permanent bonds can be ready; so they are taking, and will take up on Monday and will furnish us the money, $5,000,000 on $5,000,000 worth of tax anticipation notes for one month which the permanent bonds will then take the place of; so you can draw four certificates, each for a million and a quarter, one to the Bankers Trust, one to National City, one to Guaranty and one to Chas-Harris-Forbes Company—they are the syndicate. Of course, they are all made bearer, but you have to fill in your stubs. They are to be dated February 29 due March 29, at six per cent.

Mr. Brady: Now, do I understand that the permanent bonds go at six per cent. Because I have got to notify them to go ahead and do the printing.

Mayor Congleton: Yes. And that resolution should be passed here selling to this syndicate. Will it be all right if I cut that $100,000 to $90,000?

Commissioner Egan: I think so, Mr. Mayor.

Mayor Congleton: I said I would take $100,000. I don't want you to think I am welching by cutting it down, but $90,000 is my limit.

Commissioner Gillen: No, go ahead.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, at a meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, New Jersey, held on February 9, 1932, the local budget of the City of Newark for the fiscal year 1932 was adopted; and Commissioner Howe moved that the ordaining clause of "An Ordinance Relating to Taxes for the Year 1932," which had a first reading at a meeting of the Board of Commissioners held February 24th, be stricken out.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance relating to taxes for the year 1932.

BE IT ORDAINED By the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, New Jersey, that there shall be assessed raised by taxation and collected for the fiscal year 1932, the sum of Twenty-five Million Four Hundred Fifteen Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($25,415,500.00) for the purpose of meeting the appropriation set forth in the following statement of resources and appropriations for the fiscal year 1932:

Public Schools	10,660,000.00
Public Schools (Manual Training)	5,000.00
	$32,122,388.93

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe moved that Friday, March 11, 1932, at 11 A. M., or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place when and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage, and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Now, the resolution before us now is selling $5,000,000 of permanents under this new act at private sale, not getting public sale, to this syndicate, with interest at the rate of six per cent.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, no proposals for the purchase of the $2,000,000 Public Improvement Bonds, $1,000,000 Haynes Avenue Bridge Bonds, $900,000 Sewer Bonds, $600,000 City Building Bonds, and $500,000 Port Newark Improvement Bonds, dated March 1, 1932, were received by the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance, pursuant to the published notice of the sale of said bonds on or prior to the 23rd day of February, 1932, at 11 o'clock, A. M., and, since the time specified in said notice, a proposal to purchase said bonds at par and accrued interest, provided the bonds bear interest at the rate of six per centum (6%) per annum, has been submitted to the Board of Commissioners by the Bankers Trust Company, the National City Company, the Guaranty Company, and the Chase-Harris Forbes Corporation, of New York City, and associates, and the Board of Commissioners has decided it to be to the best interests of the City of Newark to accept said proposal; NOW. THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, That the said proposal to purchase said bonds be and the same hereby is accepted, and the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance be and he hereby is authorized and directed to deliver said bonds to the said purchasers, upon receiving from said purchasers the face amount of said bonds, and any interest which shall have accrued on said bonds at the time they are delivered and paid for.

Charles P. Gillen
W. J. Egan
Jno. F. Murray, Jr.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: I feel that public commendation is due Mr. J. H. Bacheller and Mr. Horace K. Corbin, of the Fidelity Union Trust Company; Mr. J. S. Rippel, acting for himself and for the Newark and Merchants Trust Company; and Mr. Edward D. Duffield and Mr. John W. Stedman, of the Prudential Insurance Company. If it had not been for these gentlemen the City of Newark would have defaulted on its paper.

These men worked untiringly for Newark. The other Newark banks which are renewing their paper now coming due also are to be commended for their help, but the major proposition of selling the $5,000,000 of permanent bonds and the financing of the City for 1932 was brought about by the men I have mentioned.

Commissioner Gillen: I move you, Mr. Mayor that the thanks of the Commission be extended to both the bank and Mr. Rippel.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan: I would like to bring a matter up that I think we ought to seriously consider. I believe we are all agreed that real estate can not carry the load covering taxes; and that it is imperative as has been brought out by Commissioner Gillen and the other members of the Commission in conferences for some time now, that new sources of revenue are imperative. As I visualize Newark, and every other municipality in this county and state, there are many, many citizens who are enjoying the facilities offered under the auspices of the City, who pay nothing toward the cost; and I believe that we should, as a Commission, unitedly urge the Legislature to pass income tax laws at once, and I so move you, that it be the sense of this Commission that we make it very plain to the Governor and the State Senate and the House of Assembly, that the governing body of Newark urges most seriously the passage of a law covering income tax.

Mayor Congleton: Are there any remarks on the motion?

Commissioner Gillen: This has been discussed a great deal, of course, for some time past; and the question was as to whether the income tax or the sales tax would be the better at this time. I understand the Federal Government is going to pass a sales tax.

Mayor Congleton: On the income tax, Commissioner Gillen, I am rather strong for it. On last year's figures the State of New Jersey would start out by receiving $4,000,000 that are now paid by New Jersey people because their place of business is in New York. Now, under that New York statute, just as soon as New Jersey passes a state income tax law and gives New York residents that same reciprocity, that $4,000,000 goes into our state treasury rather than into New York State.

Commissioner Gillen: Then why not have the Law Department prepare a bill right away?

Mayor Congleton: I think there is one in the Legislature.

Commissioner Egan: The Balantine bill.

Commissioner Gillen: Who prepared the bill?

Mayor Congleton: I understand the Attorney General's Office.

Commissioner Egan: If it isn't in the form that might meet the situation it is easy to bring out a committee substitute. And I think we ought to carry on an intensive campaign with the state officials.

Commissioner Gillen: I second the motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, you have certainly done a wonderful job for Newark as its chief executive.

Mayor Congleton: Well, I do not think I did anything; it was just these people that had the approach to these others and were able to make them see what it meant, not alone to Newark but to this entire section of the country. If Newark had not been taken care of as we have been taken care of, we would be the first major city in this part of the country to default, and that would not help any paper that anybody had in their vaults from any state, county or municipality.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, I base my statement on the fact that you have done a remarkable job, not only in the manner in which you have handled the entire situation, but the bare fact we are required to pay six per cent. on a permanent bond issue indicates to me that you had a difficult job to do. A six per cent. rate of interest on a permanent bond issue such as this is something new in the financial world, as I study it, and it is really too bad that we have to pay six per cent.

Mayor Congleton: But it prevails everywhere.

Commissioner Egan: I grant you that; but we are fundamentally in a sound position from a financial standpoint, and when you bear in mind that this is a permanent issue, a long term bond issued and the only question that is confusing is the question of credit because of the present money market, it seems a pity that we have to pay six per cent. for a long term permanent bond issue. And that fact, regardless of all of the other problems that you have done so efficiently, indicates that you gentlemen did a very difficult job efficiently.

Mayor Congleton: If I did anything to help I am tickled to death.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, don't you think we ought to have a conference Tuesday, if necessary morning and afternoon, to have these ordinances covering further revenue whipped into shape as far as possible?

Mayor Congleton: I think so.

Commissioner Egan: I move you that we confer on Tuesday, and if necessary, all day Tuesday, in order to have these ordinances in proper shape for introduction on Wednesday.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen: I want to congratulate the Mayor and Commissioner Howe for carrying on the negotiations.

Mayor Congleton: I don't want any congratulations.

Commissioner Murray: I think we might tender our thanks to the gentlemen who circulated the unhappy information about Newark that probably accounts for the six per cent. and other things more than anything else.

Commissioner Egan moved to adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

MINUTES OF MEETINGS OF THE Board of Commissioners

March, 1932

Newark, N. J., March 2, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of the meetings of February 24th, 25th and 26th, 1932, were read and approved.

Commissioner Murray introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled "An ordinance concerning the muzzling and regulation of dogs for the purpose of controlling rabies in The City of Newark."

The Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, Do Ordain:

1. That the owner of every dog in the City of Newark shall cause said dog at all times, to be adequately and properly muzzled, provided, however, that this shall not apply to dogs on a leash or chained on private premises.

2. Any person or persons violating this ordinance, shall upon conviction pay a penalty not exceeding twenty-five (25) dollars for the first offense and not more than fifty (50) dollars for each subsequent offense.

3. This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon passage and advertising according to law.

4. All ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent with the terms of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray moved that March 16, 1932, at 11 A. M., or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place when and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage, and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading as provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan introduced the following ordinance, and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to license hawkers, peddlers, transient merchants and itinerant vendors and to provide penalties for the violation of the provisions thereof and to put into operation and effect an act entitled "An Act to license and regulate the business of transient merchants or itinerant vendors in this State," being Chapter 88 of the pamphlet laws of the State of New Jersey for the year 1931.

The Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark Do Ordain:

ARTICLE I.

Section 1. All "transient merchants" and/or "itinerant vendors" as defined in Chapter 88 of the Laws of 1931 aforesaid, shall, before offering for sale any goods, wares, merchandise or bankrupt stock, pay to the Director of Public Safety the sum of three hundred dollars ($300) and upon the payment of said sum said merchant or vendor having first made application therefor, shall be entitled to receive a license which shall continue in favor of the person to whom it is issued for a period of 180 days from the day of issue, provided all other provisions of said Chapter 88 of the Laws of 1931 shall have been fully complied with.

Section 2. A separate license must be obtained by a licensed "transient merchant" for each branch or separate place of business in which his business is conducted; and each license shall authorize the licensee to conduct business only at the location which is indicated therein.

ARTICLE II.

Section 1. The purpose of this ordinance is—

(a) To put into effect Chapter 88 of the Pamphlet Laws of 1931;

(b) To prevent unfair competition and dishonest business practices by requiring persons, intending to engage in any of the occupations by this ordinance to be licensed, to furnish certain preliminary information, to conform to the requirements of this ordinance and to the extent set forth in this ordinance, to regulate the conduct of persons engaged in any of said occupations;

(c) To impose upon any person engaged in any one or more of the businesses specified in Section 1 of Article I and subdivisions (a), (b) and (c) of Section 2 of Article III hereof, license fees for revenue.

ARTICLE III.

Section 1. The word "person," as used herein when referring to "transient merchants," "itinerant vendors," "new merchants," "transient merchant peddler" shall be construed to mean an individual, firm, partnership, corporation, voluntary association, incorporated association and principal or agent thereof.

Section 2. For the purpose of this ordinance—

(a) A "peddler" is a person commonly referred to as a peddler or hawker, who goes from place to place or to a common market place, or who travels on the streets or from house to house, and carries with him goods, wares and merchandise for the purpose of selling and delivering them.

(b) A "transient merchant peddler" is a person who engages in business in a manner defined in Chapter 88 of the Pamphlet Laws of 1931 of the State of New Jersey, and in pursuance of said business becomes a "peddler," as defined in subsection (a) of Section 2 of this Article.

(c) A "peddler's helper" is a person who accompanies the peddler and assists and helps him in the sale or delivery of goods.

(d) A "solicitor" is a person selling goods by sample or taking orders for future delivery, with or without accepting an advance payment for the goods.

(e) A "non-profit-making vendor" is a person who sells goods, the proceeds of which are devoted exclusively to the purpose of a philanthropic, charitable or religious society, on whose behalf he acts as an agent without pay.

(f) A "new merchant" is a person who engages in business in this municipality by hiring premises for the sale of merchandise and intending to remain longer than one year subsequent to the opening of said premises.

Section 3. That subsections (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of Section 2 of this Article shall constitute a license classification, a separate license being issued for each class under the terms hereinafter set forth.

ARTICLE IV.

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any peddler transient merchant peddler, peddler's helper, solicitor, non-profit-making vendor or new merchant to offer for sale or to sell or dispose of any goods wares or merchandise within the municipality of The City of Newark without first obtaining a license and paying the license fee hereinafter prescribed for the class for which the license fee is issued, except that new merchants shall not be required to pay the license fee herein provided for until the same becomes due as hereinafter provided.

ARTICLE V.

Section 1. Any person desiring a license to operate under any classification defined in Article III hereof shall file with the Director of Public Safety an application on a blank form to be furnished by said Director. The applicant shall furnish on said blank the following information:

(a) FOR ALL LICENSE CLASSES.
(1) Name of applicant; (2) Permanent home address; (3) Names and addresses of persons from whom goods making up the stock were or are to be purchased; (4) three (3) business references; (5) the place or places of residence of the applicant for the three preceding years; (6) the length of time for which the license is desired; (7) a description of the wares to be offered for sale; (8) the number either of arrests or convictions for misdemeanors or crimes and the nature of the offenses for which arrested or convicted; (9) two (2) photographs of applicant; (10) if applicant represents a person or firm a letter from the person or firm for whom applicant purports to work, authorizing him to act as such person or firm's representative.

(b) FOR TRANSIENT MERCHANT PEDDLER LICENSE.

In addition to the foregoing information the application must show: (1) names and addresses of each peddler acting for said merchant;

(c) FOR NEW MERCHANT LICENSE.

In addition to the foregoing requirements for all classes of licenses, the applicant, for a New Merchant License shall on the application blank state the average quantity and kind, as nearly as can be, and the value of the stock of goods, wares and merchandise intended to be sold or exposed for sale, and shall also, on application blank, give a specific statement as to the location of such goods, wares and merchandise, by street and number and whether on the premises from which they are to be sold or in warehouse or storage. The Director of Public Safety in arriving at the valuation of the stock of goods may require the submission of bills or invoices of such goods, wares and merchandise intended to be sold.

The statements required by this section to be set forth by the applicant on his application shall in every case be verified by the oath of the applicant.

Section 2. Following the filing of the application with the Director of Public Safety said Director shall thereupon with all convenient speed investigate the statements in said application: (a) as to arrests and/or convictions; (b) the alleged present and preceding places of residence of applicant, and shall investigate the financial information contained in said application. If the statements made in said application are found to be correct and satisfactory, the Director of Public Safety shall issue a license to said applicant, provided all other requirements of this ordinance shall have been complied with.

ARTICLE VI.

Section 1. That in the case of an application for a license as a transient merchant peddler or new merchant, the Director of Public Safety is directed to establish the classification of the business by procuring from the applicant a declaration of intention in writing as to whether he intends to remain in business within the municipality temporarily or for longer than one year.

Section 2. Before any license shall issue the applicant for a transient merchant peddler's license or new merchant's license shall file with the Director of Public Safety a bond, executed by the applicant with good and sufficient surety or sureties to be approved by said Director of Public Safety, in the amount hereinafter specified, which said bond shall remain in force for one year and shall be conditioned to indemnify and pay to the City of Newark any penalties or costs incurred in the enforcement of any of the provisions of this ordinance and further conditioned to indemnify or reimburse any purchaser of goods, wares and merchandise in a sum equal to at least the amount of any payment or payments such purchaser may have been induced to make through the misrepresentations as to the kind, quality or value of such goods, wares and merchandise so purchased, whether the misrepresentations were made by the owner or by his servant, agent or employee, either at the time of making the sale or through any advertisement of any character whatsoever, printed or circulated, with reference to the said stock of goods, wares and merchandise, or any part thereof, and further conditioned that the bond shall be due and payable for any falsification of a statement of fact in the application filed for the license or if the business conducted under said license is conducted in a manner contrary to law or against the morals, public health or safety of life or limb of the public, or, in the case of a new merchant if the licensee discontinues the business licensed in the municipality within one (1) year after the date of the issuance of the license without the payment of the license fee or fees required under this ordinance.

The penal amount of the bond in the case of a transient merchant peddler shall be 25% of the value of the applicant's stock, and in no event less than the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

The penal amount of the bond in the case of a new merchant shall be ten (10%) per cent. of the value of the applicant's stock, but in no case shall said bond exceed three thousand dollars ($3,000).

Section 3. That the license issued to any applicant shall not authorize any person except the designated licensee to engage in business under such license. Said license shall not be transferrable from the person to whom issued to any other person excepting upon the transferee complying with all the provisions of this ordinance in relation to original applications and licenses, except that relating to the payment of the license fee, and shall then only be transferable in case the original license fee has been paid or a bond been given to guarantee its payment, the approval of the transfer shall be given by the Director of Public Safety and upon the payment of a transfer fee to the City of Newark in the sum of ten per cent. (10%) of the fee for the original license.

ARTICLE VII.

Section 1, A licensee, not having a permanent place of business, shall carry his license with him while engaged in business.

Licensees carrying on their business by means of vehicles shall have affixed to such vehicle the metal plate or tag bearing the words "Licensed Peddler, Municipality of The City of Newark," together with the number of the license and the year for which it is issued, which metal plate or tag shall be issued by the Director of Public Safety to the licensee at the time of issuance of the license.

A licensee not having a permanent place of business shall also have issued to him by the Director of Public Safety a license button, which shall be affixed to the lapel or other conspicuous portion of his outer garment at all times while engaged in business, and which button shall have imprinted thereon the words "Licensed Peddler."

A licensee conducting his business at a fixed location shall have his license posted at his place of business in a prominent position therein.

ARTICLE VIII.

Section 1. The license fees to be paid annually for conducting the business, trade or calling hereinafter named shall be as follows:

Peddlers of farm produce occupying stands or places in a common market	$ 50.00
Peddlers of farm produce selling the same upon the street or from house to house	25.00
Peddlers of shrubbery, plants, bulbs and products of the nursery.....	100.00
Peddlers of house furnishings, goods	100.00
Peddlers of breads, cakes, pastries and pies.....	50.00
Peddlers of milk and cream (bottled or in cans).....	2.50
Peddlers of butter, cheese and eggs.....	50.00
Peddlers of meats or groceries.....	100.00
Peddlers of candies, soft drinks, sandwiches, cigars, cigarettes and luncheons	50.00
Peddlers of ice cream or ices.....	300.00
Peddlers with baskets, pack, wheelbarrow, pushcart, wagon or automobile vehicle selling any article not hereinbefore provided for, excepting farm produce	25.00
Peddlers of ice	25.00

Section 2. That "transient merchant peddlers," as defined in this ordinance shall pay the same license fee as a "peddler" is required to pay if engaged in the same line of business.

Section 3. The license fee for a "peddler's helper" shall be ten per cent. (10%) of the fee paid by the peddler by whom he is employed.

Section 4. That "new merchants," as defined in this ordinance if such new merchant remove his stock and business from the municipality within said year, shall pay the following license fees for each place at which their business is conducted and which place of business is discontinued:

Florists, nurserymen or greenhouse growers $200.

All other businesses not especially provided for in this section and coming under the classification of "new merchants" shall pay a license fee of $25 for each place of business conducted and discontinued as aforesaid.

ARTICLE IX

Section 1. A license may be revoked by the Board of Commissioners for the violation of the terms of the license or falsification in applying for the license, or when, in the opinion of the Board of Commissioners the business so licensed is conducted in a manner contrary to law or to public morals or to the public health or to the safety of the life or limb of the public. Before a license is revoked the licensee shall be accorded a hearing before the Director of Public Safety. The decision of the Director of Public Safety as to revocation shall be final.

Section 2. A license may be suspended for not more than two (2) weeks by the Director of Public Safety upon probable cause being shown that the license should be revoked.

Section 3. The Director of Public Safety shall hold such hearings and make such investigations as he may deem necessary in carrying out the provisions of this ordinance in relation to suspension or revocation of licenses.

ARTICLE X.

Section 1. That this ordinance shall not apply to honorably discharged soldiers, sailors or marines of the military or naval service of the United States who shall comply with "An Act to authorize the issuing of licenses to honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines, for hawking, peddling and vending of merchandise within this State," P. L. 1904, page 273, as amended and supplemented, nor to peddlers of farm produce who sell the same in the Farmers' Market established by the City and pay the City a fee for so doing.

ARTICLE XI.

Section 1. That all licenses issued under the provisions of this ordinance, except licenses issued to "itinerant vendors" or "transient merchants" shall run from the 1st day of January in one year to the 31st day of December, 12 o'clock midnight, of the same year. If at the time of the application for a license under the provisions of this ordinance less than six months of the current license year have expired the applicant shall be required to pay the full fee for the year; if six months or more shall have expired the applicant shall be required to pay one-half of the full fee for the year. The provisions of this section shall not apply to "transient merchants" or "itinerant vendors" who shall pay the full license fee of $300.

Section 2. The license fees imposed hereunder shall be paid to the City Clerk.

Section 3. In case any person duly licensed to conduct any of the businesses or occupations referred to in this ordinance desires to add to such licensed business any other business not included in the classification for which his then existing license has been issued he shall pay an additional license fee amounting to one-half of the amount prescribed by this ordinance for the business so added. No person shall conduct any such additional business without first securing such additional license as hereinabove provided.

ARTICLE XII.

Section 1. Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed to relieve any person, firm or corporation from complying with the provisions of any ordinance of the City of Newark relating to the manufacture, sale, distribution or handling of food or food products.

ARTICLE XIII.

Section 1. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, pay a fine of not less than twenty-five ($25) dollars nor more than two hundred dollars ($200), or in default of such fine may be imprisoned in the county jail for a period not exceeding ninety (90) days; any corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, pay a fine of not less than twenty-five ($25) dollars nor more than two hundred ($200) dollars, which may be recovered in an action of debt.

ARTICLE XIV

Section 1. That all ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed.

Section 2. This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon final passage and publication according to law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Hoyer, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that March 16th, 1932, at 11 A. M., or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place when and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage, and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading as provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance concerning the operation and maintenance of open air parking stations in The City of Newark, and providing for the licensing thereof.

The Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark Do Ordain:

1. The words "open air parking station," as used in this ordinance, shall be held to mean and are hereby defined as meaning any plot of ground, lot or land, within the City, where motor vehicles are exhibited for sale or are stored, parked, kept, or located in the open air.

2. No person, persons, firm or corporation, shall manage, conduct, or operate or carry on the business of an open air parking station, as defined by this act, without first having obtained a license therefor as herein-after provided.

3. The application for such license for the business of managing, conducting, and carrying on an open air parking station shall conform to the general provisions of the ordinance of the City relating to applications for licenses, and shall specify the location of the open air parking station and the number of motor vehicles that can or may be kept thereon. Every such application shall be made to the Director of the Department of Public Safety.

4. The annual license fee for each open air parking station shall be fixed by multiplying the maximum number of motor vehicles that may be kept at said open air parking station at any one time by One Dollar and Fifty Cents ($1.50). Such permit or license shall run for a period of one year, commencing January 1st and ending December 31st of any year. If at the time of the application for a license under the provisions of this ordinance, less than six months of the current license year have expired, the applicant shall be required to pay the full fee for the year; if six months or more shall have expired, the applicant shall be required to pay one half of the full fee for the year. Permits or licenses are revocable by the Director of the Department of Public Safety for the violation of any of the terms of this ordinance upon due notice and hearing.

5. This ordinance is enacted for the purposes of raising revenue, and for the regulation and control of open air parking stations.

6. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, for the first offense pay a fine not to exceed the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100) and an additional penalty of not more than Twenty-five Dollars ($25) for each day such open air parking station shall be maintained in violation of this ordinance, or in default of such fine may be imprisoned in the County Jail for a term not to exceed thirty (30) days; any corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, for the first offense pay a fine not to exceed the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100), and an additional penalty of not more than Twenty-five Dollars ($25) for each day such open air parking station shall be maintained in violation of this ordinance, which may be recovered in an action of debt.

7. The provisions of this ordinance shall not apply to open air parking stations located on property owned by the City or any of its sub-divisions for the use of which the lessee pays rental.

8. All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

9. This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon final passage and publication according to law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that March 16th, 1932, at 11 A. M., or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place when and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage, and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading as provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan introduced the following ordinance, and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance concerning the operation and maintenance of gasoline stations and gasoline filling tanks in The City of Newark and providing for the licensing thereof.

The Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark Do Ordain:

1. The words "gasoline station," as used in this ordinance shall be held to mean and are hereby defined as meaning any building, structure or premises, enclosure or any other place within the city where a container or containers, tank or tanks, either portable or stationary, containing therein gasoline, liquified petroleum gas, oil or other inflammable liquids are kept or located for the purpose of selling, offering for sale or distributing any such liquids from such container, containers, tank or tanks.

2. No person, persons, firm or corporation shall manage, conduct, operate or carry on the business of a gasoline station without first having obtained a license therefor as hereinafter provided.

3. The application for such license for the business of managing, conducting or carrying on a gasoline station shall conform to the general provisions of the ordinances of the city relating to application for licenses, and shall specify the location of the building, structure, premises and enclosure of every place in which it is proposed to keep such gasoline station, and the capacity or capacities in gallons of the container, containers, tank or tanks. Every such application shall be made to the Director of the Department of Public Safety and shall be approved by the Fire Commissioner before a license is issued.

4. The annual license fee for each gasoline station shall be as follows:

(a) Ten dollars for each container or tank having a total capacity of one hundred gallons or less.

(b) Fifteen dollars for each portable wheel tank.

(c) Twenty-five dollars for each container or tank having a total capacity of more than one hundred gallons, but not exceeding four hundred gallons.

(d) Fifty dollars for each container or tank having a total capacity of more than four hundred gallons, but not exceeding one thousand and sixty-five gallons.

(e) For each container or tank having a total capacity in excess of one thousand and sixty-five gallons, the license fee shall be one hundred dollars for the first thousand and sixty-five gallons, and an additional fee of fifty ($50) dollars for each additional one thousand and sixty-five gallons capacity or fraction thereof; provided, however, that any container or containers, tank or tanks used exclusively as initial storage container or containers, tank or tanks, from which the sale of any of the inflammable liquids mentioned in this article is not made direct to the consumer, the license fee for each initial container, containers, tank or tanks is to be five dollars for each one thousand gallons or fraction thereof.

5. Every such license shall remain in force and be valid until December thirty-first of the year in which it is issued and shall not be assignable. If at the time of the application for a license under the provisions of this ordinance, less than six months of the current license year have expired, the applicant shall be required to pay the full fee for the year, if six months or more shall have expired, to pay one half of the full fee for the year.

6. Each gasoline station shall be conducted and maintained in accordance with the provisions of the Ordinances of the City of Newark. Each filling station shall be inspected at least twice in every year by the Bureau of Combustibles and Fire Risks of the City of Newark. It shall be the duty of the person making such inspection to see that the premises are maintained in compliance with this and other ordinances of the City, to see that there is no dangerous accumulation of waste or other combustible material on the premises, and to report to the Director of the Department of Public Safety any violation of the Ordinance which may be discovered during such inspections.

7. Tanks or containers used in any gasoline stations for the storage of any of the inflammable liquids named herein shall be free from leaks, and shall be constructed in accordance with the Ordinances of the City of Newark, and the laws of the State of New Jersey. It shall be unlawful to permit or maintain any accumulation of waste or other material which is combustible so as to create a fire hazard on any premises used as a gasoline station. Except as is otherwise permitted by ordinance, no tank for the storage of inflammable liquids in a filling station shall be located within any building.

8. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, for the first offense pay a fine not to exceed the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100), and an additional penalty of not more than Twenty-five Dollars ($25) for each day the violation continues, or in default of such fine be imprisoned in the County Jail for a term not to exceed ten (10) days; any corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, for the first offense pay a fine not to exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and an additional penalty of not more than Twenty Five Dollars ($25.00) for each day the violation continues, which may be recovered in an action of debt.

9. Licenses are revocable by the Director of the Department of Public Safety for the violation of any of the terms of this ordinance upon due notice and hearing.

10. All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

11. This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon final passage and publication according to law.

12. This ordinance is enacted for the purposes of raising revenue and for the regulation and control of gas-line stations.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that March 16th, 1932, at 11 A. M., or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place when and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage, and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading as provided by law.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, and act of the Legislature, approved February 24, 1932, and known as Chapter 6 of the Laws of 1932, authorizes the receipt by municipalities of taxes to become due for the current year, in advance of the date upon which said taxes are due, payment to be made based upon the taxes of the previous year, and authorizing a discount on all such advance payments;

Therefore, Be It RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, that the Receiver of Taxes be and he is hereby authorized to accept payment on account of taxes for the year 1932, based upon the tax bills for the year 1931, and shall issue a receipt for any payment made and credit the same to the account of the party making such payment, provided such payments are made in an amount equal to the instalment due for one-half year's taxes as shown on the 1931 assessment; and there shall be allowed to the payee of such taxes the following discounts on the sum paid:

For the period between February 15th and March 1st—One per centum (1%) on the first installment, and four per centum (4%) on the second instalment;

For the period from March 1st to April 1st—One half of one per centum ($\frac{1}{2}\%$) on the first installment, and three and one-half per centum (3½%) on the second installment.

In no case, however, shall any discount be allowed for payment of the second installment unless the first installment has been paid.

Nothing herein contained shall affect any action of this Board in fixing the regular rates of discounts and penalties on taxes regularly payable to the City after April 15th.

And, Be It Further RESOLVED by this Board that all acts of the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance and the Acting Receiver of Taxes done under a resolution heretofore passed on February 10, 1932; in accepting the payment of taxes and allowing the discounts thereon, be and the same are hereby ratified.

Williams Contracting Company
443 Broad Street
Newark, New Jersey

March 2, 1932

City Commission,
City Hall,
Newark, N. J.

Honorable Sirs:

It is our desire to withdraw application for permit for gas station at Bridge and Ogden Streets, Newark, as we contemplate another use for the property.

Thanking you to grant withdrawal of applications, we are,

Very truly yours,
Williams Contracting Company
By President Herman Frech

Commissioner Egan moved that the request of the Williams Contracting Company to withdraw application for permit for gas station at Bridge and Ogden Street be granted.

The roll being called, the motion was adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented the application of Harold Burdett, for an automobile repair shop for a period of one year; premises 493 South Nineteenth Street.

Mayor Congleton: This is the case where the automobile repair shop is to be in a private garage in the rear of premises 493 South Nineteenth Street. The people next door are complaining. We have had it up any number of times. Other people who do not live immediately next door were for it.

Commissioner Egan: I think it is dangerous right there where people are living.

Commissioner Murray moved that the application be not granted.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Joseph Warnitzke (Patrick Dolan, Owner) for the construction of a 2-family dwelling; premises 25 Cleveland Avenue;

Therefore Be It RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Commissioner Gillen: That is a deviation from the one-family restriction.

Commissioner Egan: That is of the whole block?

Commissioner Murray: That block is all vacant, isn't it?

Mayor Congleton: There were no objections. Midway between Sanford Avenue and Bayard Place. Are we just permitting this one building?

Mr. Rankin: We had others; and yesterday the Board of Adjustment approved three.

Mayor Congleton: Why not just change the whole block?

Mr. Rankin: It is in between a one-family zone. Ivy Street is a one-family zone, and further over this way it is a one-family zone.

Mayor Congleton: Is there any objection to this one?

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

A communication from Mr. Frank A. Miele, 212 Academy Street, in reference to the application of Charlotte M. Crossley for the construction of a gasoline station at 57-65 West Market Street was received, read and on motion order filed.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Charlotte M. Crossley, owner, for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 57-65 West Market Street; such use to run for a period of five years concurrently with the automobile parking station now conducted on the same premises;

Therefore be it RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mr. Herman Marx, 17 Academy Street: I appear on behalf of the applicant. This matter has rather an interesting history, as you can easily gather from that letter.

Mayor Congleton: I think all of the commissioners are very familiar with the location, so much so, that when this matter originally came up Commissioner Gillen, who has in his department the playgrounds, tried to get from the owners of this property this particular tract of land at the same rent they were going to get from the people who were going to establish a parking station, and use it for a playground. Now, Commissioner Gillen must have been pretty well satisfied there were a pretty good number of children in that neighborhood to want a playground; and the owner would not let us have it but preferred to let it for a parking station.

Mr. Marx: I have no doubt the Commissioner is familiar with the neighborhood, and I cannot account for the owner refusing to let the Commissioner have it for a playground. I submit to your honors that Mr. Neilan, who has been running the parking station there, has performed somewhat of a favor to the neighborhood by operating this station.

Mayor Congleton: They have a permit for a parking station and they want now a permit for the construction of a gasoline station upon the same premises.

Commission Egan: Where, on Market Street?

Mayor Congleton: 57-65 West Market Street.

Commissioner Egan: I move the matter be laid over for one week so we can go up and look at it.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who desires to be heard?

Commissioner Murray: Is Mr. Neilan here?

Mr. Neilan: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Murray: Are you Mr. Neilan?

Mr. Neilan: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Murray: You heard that letter read?

Mr. Neilan: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Murray: Did you ever get any assurance from me?

Mr. Neilan: No, sir I haven't ever spoken to you.

Mr. Marx: I would like to say for the Commission that that letter indicates the caliber of the man who wrote it, a man who would make a false statement of that kind that Mr. Neilan would have any communication with an honorable member of the Commission must be off his mind or must be trying to fill your ears with plain falsehoods. Mr. Neilan feels just as indignant about it as Commissioner Murray does.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The following communication was received and read:

Board of Adjustment
City Hall, Newark, N. J.

March 1, 1932.

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark

Honorable Sirs:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day, resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body that the following applications for variations from the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

789-791 Sanford Avenue, Dornbusch Estate, owner, gasoline station;

31-35 Cleveland Ave., Kawalchuck & Jacenty (Building Co., Inc., owner) 2-two family dwellings.

793 Summer Ave., Nicolas Ricca, owner; retail ice depot; for one year;

27-29 Cleveland Ave., Alexander Wanczky (Patrick Dolan, owner); a 2-family dwelling.

The Board of Adjustment,
R. B. Rankin,
Secretary.

Commissioner Egan moved that a copy be sent to each Commissioner and further action postponed for two weeks.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to take up with the Board of Commissioners?

Mr. Edward Schoen, 24 Branford Place:

Mr. Commissioners, I desire to make an application for a rehearing. The matter was before this Commission some weeks ago, and the action of the Zoning Board, or the Board of Adjustment, in granting a permit for a chicken slaughtering market on Peddie Street was not confirmed or ratified by the Commissioner, I feel that there are a number of the objectors to the market have had a very decided change of heart regarding the matter, so much so, that they are willing to appear here and advocate the granting of the permit.

Mayor Congleton: How long ago did the the Board act upon it?

Mr. Schoen: About three weeks ago, I think.

Commissioner Murray: More than that. Months ago.

Mr. Schoen: It seemed to me only a short time since it was heard here. Perhaps I am wrong. I did not verify the date, but it is sometime.

Commissioner Murray: It is several months ago.

Mayor Congleton: Judge, I just feel that there ought to be a limit to the opening of these cases. We had this matter before us and we had a very, very large delegation here in opposition. Now, I assume that everything that could be said on both sides was said, and I do not think it is quite fair to the property owners that they should be brought down time and time again; I think there ought to be some limit of time within which such application to re-open could be made. I do not think these property owners should be kept on the anxious seat all the time.

Mr. Schoen: I do not think they are on the anxious seat, Mr. Mayor.

Mayor Congleton: Well, if you had been here the day we sat and heard this case you would have thought so.

Mr. Schoen: I have no doubt you had a large number of objectors here. But that storm of protest that you saw that day was rather instigated and more artificial than real. It was a protest that was fomented and artificially created. If I cannot show that when we have the hearing on that I will retire from the thing.

Commissioner Murray: I move a re-hearing be granted.

Mayor Congleton: The motion is that the matter be re-opened and a re-hearing granted.

Commissioner Murray: You will have to notify all these people again the same as in the original instance. Three weeks from today.

Mayor Congleton: Three weeks from today. I want to say I expect I may be away on that day, but if I were here and there were any objectors I should certainly vote against the granting of the chicken market permit. I will not vote for them where there are objectors in the neighborhood, where they are asking for a permit in a district which is other than the one fixed by the ordinance for them.

Commissioner Murray: Make it four weeks from today so the Mayor will be here.

Commissioner Murray moved that the matter be laid over for four weeks, March 30th.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: The same notice must be given that is required for an original hearing before the Board of Adjustment.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Meyer Zemel, the speaker, filed a protest against an increase of salary to the Overseer of the Poor. He said he wrote a letter to the Overseer and the latter replied to the effect that he did not understand Mr. Zemel's writing. Mr. Zemel said the City of Newark understood his tax checks.

Mayor Congleton: You mean the bank recognizes the signature.

Mr. Zemel: No, but the filling in must be correct or the City of Newark won't take it either.

The speaker said that the old Washington Street School, now a free municipal lodging house is a fire trap.

Commissioner Egan: Why do you think it is a fire trap?

Mr. Zemel: Why? Because it is, because there is wooden ceilings, no fire escapes.

Commissioner Murray: Is the fire room fireproof?

Mr. Zemel: I wasn't in the fire room. I was in the building proper and saw the wooden ceilings, wooden partitions, and I saw no fire escapes.

Commissioner Murray: You saw no fire escape? Then you don't know what a fire escape is.

Mr. Zemel: I do.

Commissioner Murray: There are east and west stairs the north and south ends of the building, fire-proof absolutely, inside stairways, fireproof.

Mr. Zemel: The building is not sprinklered.

Commissioner Murray: It doesn't have to be. There isn't any fire in it.

Mr. Zemel: Then I suppose, Commissioner Murray, you do business under the adage that the king can do no wrong, but his subjects must comply with the law.

Commissioner Egan: Wait a minute, Mr. Zemel, perhaps technically you are right. We will look into that end of it. You will have to grant the fact it has housed a lot of poor fellows that otherwise would have been out on the streets. Mr. Zemel said that he and his brother offered loggments at the rate of twenty-five cents each and that the City is now under its own management paying more than that sum.

Mr. Harry Green: From what I understand there is going to be a curtailment of the night schools and summer schools. Is that decided?

Mayor Congleton: It has not been decided, and we do not decide it. If you want to discuss that question you should discuss it with the Board of Education. We do not have anything to do with the running of this school.

Mr. Green: You haven't anything to do with it?

Mayor Congleton: No, sir. We furnish the money and they run the schools.

Mr. Green: I understand you appoint the members of the Board of Education.

Mayor Congleton: I did, sir. And I appointed men whom I think are competent to run the school system of the City of Newark.

Mr. Green: I did not come to give you an argument about that; I never thought you incompetent. You are mighty competent.

Mayor Congleton: I said the men of the Board of Education were competent; I am not making any comments about myself.

Mr. Green the speaker, spoke of home welfare and its relation to summer schools. He was sorry there was no labor man on the Board of Education.

Mayor Congleton: I thought I had appointed one.

Mr. Green: Mr. Mayor—

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Byrne, one of the labor representatives affiliated with the Essex Trade Council.

Mr. Green: I wish he would raise his voice in this particular situation.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Miss Sara M. Lewitt, 128 Market Street: I want to ask for a favor, I represent both myself and my family as taxpayers in the City, and I want to know if it is not possible at the present time under the distressing conditions that we are all going through, for the Director of Revenue and Finance to allow us to pay our taxes in what we would call installments.

Mayor Congleton: Have you tried to make payments in that fashion?

Miss Lewitt: I haven't dared.

Mayor Congleton: Well, I think if you make the offer you will find the City taking the money. There is no difficulty about making payments on taxes that are in arrears on the installment plan.

Miss Lewitt: Can we do that?

Mayor Congleton: Absolutely.

Commissioner Howe: We have been doing that for months.

Miss Lewitt: Will you take $50 or $100 or $25 and apply it on a certain tax bill?

Commissioner Gillen: Just give it to him and see if he will take it.

Commssioner Howe: Certainly.

Miss Lewitt I just wanted to know.

Commissioner Howe: The place to find out should have been downstairs.

Miss Lewitt: I tried it once before.

Commissioner Howe: I did not mean to be discourteous. You will find down there we are taking any money that is presented, even to odd cents.

Commissioner Gillen offered the following resolution:

Be It RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the Director of the Department of Parks and Public Property be and he is hereby authorized and directed to enter into an agreement with the firm of John J. Berry & Brother for brokers' commissions in consideration of a lease made by The City of Newark with the Down Town Parking Corporation authorized by this Board by resolution of March 2, 1932; that the said agreement shall authorize the payment to said firm of 5% of the rentals and shall be payable annually on the 1st day of each year of the term of the lease provided the lease is still in force; should the premises be recaptured by the City or surrendered by the tenant no commissions shall be payable for any portion of the term for which no rent is paid.

W. J. Egan
Jno. F. Murray, Jr.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commisisoner Murray moved to adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

A P P R O V E D :

JEROME T. CONGLETON
W. J. EGAN
JOHN HOWE
CHARLES P. GILLEN
JNO. F. MURRAY, JR.

The Board of Commissioners of
the City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, Jr.
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., March 9, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gilen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of meeting of March 2nd were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An Ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled "Zoning Ordinance of the City of Newark," adopted January 8, 1930, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mrs. K. Tepper, 60 Tuxedo parkway: We have there in Tuxedo parkway and Midland place, we have close to seven hundred feet of ground, and it was restricted three years ago.

Mayor Congleton: What street, please?

Mrs. Tepper: Midland place and Tuxedo parkway.

Mayor Congleton: Where is Tuxedo parkway here? This is Ivy street and Mt. Vernon place.

Mrs. Tepper: It is on the corner of Mt. Vernon place.

Mayor Congleton: But it is a block west

Mrs. Tepper: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: So that your property does not abut on this block that we are thinking of changing, does it?

Mrs. Tepper: Yes, we have a block there almost four hundred feet right opposite this block.

Mayor Congleton: On Midland place?

Mrs. Tepper: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: Is it built on?

Mrs. Tepper: Not yet; but we have a one-family house.

Mayor Congleton: How many one-family houses are there on Midland place between Ivy street and Mt. Vernon place?

Mrs. Tepper: None.

Mayor Congleton: None.

Mrs. Tepper: But we have a one-family house on Tuxedo parkway.

Mayor Congleton: That is a block further away; it does not abut on this block we are considering, does it?

Mrs. Tepper: Well, it is right one block away.

Mayor Congleton: It is one block away.

Mrs. Tepper: Yes. But we have four hundred feet right opposite.

Mayor Congleton: Vacant land?

Mrs. Tepper: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: All right, we will note your objection.

Commissioner Murray: Is your land restricted to one-family?

Mrs. Tepper: Yes, all restricted.

Commissioner Murray: She says she has got four hundred feet just across from it.

Mayor Congleton: But it is vacant.

Mrs. Israel Din, 98 Vassar avenue: I am here—

Mayor Congleton: Where is the property that you own in this neighborhood?

Mr. Dinn: Midland to Mount Vernon, that corner one hundred by one hundred.

Mayor Congleton: Which corner?

Mr. Din: Midland and Mount Vernon, opposite their ground.

Mayor Congleton: The northwest corner?

Mr. Din: Yes, facing their ground. I would not like to change it.

Mayor Congleton: Do you know the street numbers of your property?

Mr. Din: No.

Mayor Congleton: 99-101?

Mr. Din: I think so. That is a corner there.

Mayor Congleton: Well, there are four corners there. I am trying to find out which one is yours.

Mr. Din: Well, it is across the street from where they want it.

Mayor Congleton: You object to this change?

Mr. Din: Yes. I would have a customer for one families, but if he heard it is going to be two—

Commissioner Gillen: How many blocks removed are you?

Mr. Din: Across the street.

Mayor Congleton: But it is all vacant land?

Mr. Din: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: How long have you owned it?

Mr. Din: Well, I own it a few years.

Commissioner Gillen: We are not going to change this part of it. Here is your property here (indicating).

Mayor Congleton: We change that whole block.

Commissioner Murray: Do you want this changed to two families, too?

Mr. Din: I don't know. At present I got a customer for one.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Isadore Scolkin, 95 Mead street: I have the property on the easterly side of Tuxedo parkway from Ivy street up to approximately 150 feet away from Mt. Vernon street. Also I own the westerly side on Tuxedo parkway where a one-family house is built already.

Mayor Congleton: That is a block away, isn't it? There is a whole solid block in between?

Mr. Scolkin: Well, there is a solid block between, yes, two hundred feet, and I sold the property what I sold, they also bought on the strength it would be one-family only. That is the way I sold them, and the people really are disappointed.

Mayor Congleton: Isn't the block across from your property already zoned for apartment houses?

Mr. Scolkin: No, sir, it is only one-families there.

Mayor Congleton: The block between Midland and Tuxedo parkway south of Mt. Vernon place is zoned for apartment houses.

Mr. Scolkin: They are on the other side of Mt. Vernon place, but this side is only for one-family houses.

Mayor Congleton: Well, there are four-family houses in there. It is pretty hard to get a one-family house next to a four-family.

Mr. Scolkin: Well, there is a couple up there. If we are crowded all around with fours and twos, the people living in there would not buy before if they know it would be changed.

Commissioner Murray: You mean to say the people who want to buy land won't buy it if it is changed to a two-family zone?

Mr. Scolkin: The people who already bought the house bought for one-family, and now they hear about it being changed.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard in opposition?

Mr. Ernest F. Miller, 49 Tuxedo parkway: We bought the building at 49 Tuxedo parkway, understanding that it was zoned down to Midland place as a one-family zone. Although we do not butt up against this property, it influences the entire community in that section, because the more two-family places they have in there the less desirable the one-family places are.

Mayor Congleton: That is the block between Midland and Norman not between Midland and Tuxedo.

Mr. Miller: Well, the closer they come, it is like a poorer class of section coming closer to us, and consequently, the nearer they come the less our property can be valued at.

Mayor Congleton: Four-family houses are permitted on the south side of Mt. Vernon place all the way up on Tuxedo parkway now.

Mr. Miller: That is way down in the other section.

Mayor Congleton: Oh, no. Mt. Vernon is one of the streets that abuts on his block that we are considering, and there are four-family houses on the north side of Ivy street, which is the other side of this block.

Mr. Miller: Four-family houses on the north side?

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

Mr. Miller: Two of them there.

Mayor Congleton: I don't know how many there are, but it is zoned for four-family houses.

Mr. Miller: All the others that are built in there are single homes. Of course, that retrogresses and brings down the valuations even having those two there.

Mayor Congleton: I don't think two-family houses do where you are surrounded by four-family houses and apartment sites.

Mr. Miller: But inasmuch as they were restricted originally, and all the people that bought in there understood they were to be restricted, I see no reason why they should change the restrictions and consequently bring in a tenement class instead of a residential class into our section of the country.

Mayor Congleton: You say you are 49 Eastern parkway. Between what side streets is that, Mr. Miller?

Mr. Miller: In between Mt. Vernon place—Ivy street does not go beyond Tuxedo parkway.

Mayor Congleton: So that you are on Tuxedo parkway up here between Mt. Vernon and what would be Ivy street extended?

Mr. Miller: We are just a little jog from Ivy street north. Where is that zoned for four-families?

Mayor Congleton: The south side of Mt. Vernon place.

Mr. Miller: That is way over.

Mayor Congleton: It is one of the streets that butts on the block we are considering.

Commissioner Gillen: Look at this map.

Mr. Miller: This is Norman road here (indicating).

Mayor Congleton: Here is the block we are considering, here is Tuxedo parkway; this is zoned for four-family houses and this is zoned for four-family houses (indicating).

Commissioner Gillen: This is zoned for apartments here.

Mr. Miller: There are only two four-family flats in there.

Mayor Congleton: Here is what I say is zoned for four-families.

Mr. Miller: This down to here (indicating).

Mayor Congleton: But this is the block we are considering from Midland to Norman. There is another whole block in between your property.

Mr. Miller: This entire section in here has all been considered as one-family residences.

Mayor Congleton: And zoned as such.

Mr. Miller: Then this is where we do all our trafficking down through here; this is where the bus comes up, comes down here, comes around there (indicating).

Commissioner Gillen: You are about here? (indicating).

Mr. Miller: No, right there (indicating).

Mayor Congleton: Not on here?

Mr. Miller: Yes, they want to build one-families on that street.

Mayor Congleton: Two-families. That is what their application is now.

Mr. Miller: On this side?

Commissioner Gillen: The application now is to turn that whole entire block—

Mr. Miller: But there are no building in there.

Mayor Congleton: There are none in here yet.

Mr. Miller: There are lots of people in there that want to build one-family places.

Commissioner Egan: I live on Longfellow avenue, which is all a one-family street, and Monticello, a block below, is all two-families, and I do not see where it deteriorates the type of neighborhood at all.

Mr. Miller: Your property won't sell as high on the market.

Commissioner Howe: Do you find any better families living in one-family houses than in two-family houses?

Mr. Miller: They are more careful.

Commissioner Howe: My deed is restricted to 1950 to a one-family house, and we have better families living in that block in two-family houses. We found a still there.

Mr. Miller: There is a four-family flat down there that has a still.

Commissioner Howe: They stuck the still in a one-family house right on my block, and they raided it.

Mr. Miller: Well, all I want to say is I object to it, and all the other people object too.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who desires to be heard in opposition to this matter?

Mr. James Zanzonico, 101 Mt. Vernon place: I did not come down to hear what change of zone means. So I got a two-family house on Mt. Vernon place, and we own that, and they change it, and we don't find no principal changing the zone.

Mayor Congleton: All right, sir. We will consider what you say. Is there anyone else in opposition? Now we will hear anyone who desires to speak for the change.

Mr. Milton M. Unger, Lefcourt building: I am appearing purely on a representative capacity. I am Receiver of the land company which owns all of the ground in this block which fronts on Midland place. I have been Receiver since May, 1930, and have endeavored to sell it for use for one-family houses, but have met with no success. The land logically ought to be either zoned for two-families or four-families.

Commissioner Murray: Do you say if this re-zoning matter went through there would be nine two-family houses built on it?

Mr. Unger: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Murray: What assurance have we that that will be done? Mr. Unger: My contract with the person who is buying them calls for the immediate erection of the houses and the payment of the price as he goes along.

Commissioner Gillen: Your people are going to build there?

Mr. Unger: Yes. We have sold the lots on Midland place provided we can secure a change in the zoning from one-family to two-family.

Commissioner Gillen: You have sold it to someone who is going to build?

Mr. Unger: Yes, sir. He is here.

Mr. Ira J. Katchen, 26 Thirteenth avenue: I am appearing for Mr. Isreal B. Greene, Receiver for the Urban Land and Mortgage Company, who joins with Mr. Unger in asking for the re-zoning of that block. At present this property that is to be re-zoned is filled-in ground. Any improvement by way of two-family houses or any other sort of building must certainly be an advantage to the owners of one-family houses a block or two away. In the past five years only two houses have been erected in that block, and both of them were abandoned during the course of construction because of inability to obtain a mortgage on any one-family houses there. We just repeat that for five years taxes and assessments have been unpaid on this property, they have just been accumulating, with the result that out of the prospectiv sale of approximately $18,000 by Mr. Unger for that ground, over $11,000 of that money will go immediately to the City for payment of those tax arrears.

Mr. Harry Phillipson, Kenney building: Mr. Commissioners, I appear for the Receivers who hold the mortgages upon the land owned by Mr. Unger as Receiver—

Mayor Congleton: Is everybody interested in this property in the hands of Receivers?

Mr. Phillipson: Not everybody. The mortgagees are. A portion of it owned by the mortagors is in the hands of Receivers also.

And, of course, unless this property is rezoned for two-family houses it would be impossible, as Mr. Unger has pointed out, to dispose of the same. It means tax sales, and eventual complete loss.

Mayor Congleton: The property has been put up at tax sales and nobody bid for vacant land.

Mr. Phillipson: That, of course, is an indication as to the value of it zoned in the manner that it is at the present time.

Mr. Charles Handler, 790 Broad street: I appear for somebody who is not in receivership. I appear for the company that owns the northeast corner of Mt. Vernon place and Midland avenue. They own about a lot and a half or two lots on the corner. It is impossible to do anything with it. My people also own the easterly side of Midland place south of Mt. Vernon place. They have commenced a building operation there for a two-and-one-half-family house, because that is zoned for that. They will come to the end of that in two months and they will be ready to go into this tract here, and they will be stopped, just because of this not economical or justified zoning arrangement.

Mr. R. L. Haas, 58 Park place: I represent the parties to whom the land was sold. We have made a number of attempts over a period of time to sell this for one-family houses, unsuccessfully, and finally succeeded in finding a buyer providing the property could be zoned for two-families.

Commissioner Gillen: Are they builders?

Mr. Haas: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Gillen: Ready to build?

Mr. Haas: They have obligated themselves to build nine houses on tract, beginning immediately, and, in fact, have one house sold already.

Mayor Congleton: Are they typical two-families?

Mr. Haas: Yes, sir, typical; and they have built many in that neighborhood and built high-type houses.

Mayor Congleton: I have ridden up through there, and looking at this situation I have been astonished the way the adjoining blocks have built up and I wondered just why this block did not.

Mr. Haas: That is the reason.

Mayor Congleton: I can readily see now that it being surrounded on three sides—and I for the life of me cannot see how two-family houses in any way are a detriment to the neighborhood. I know from my own experience, having lived in them for a good many years, a community of two-family houses I think is a very healthy and wholesome kind of a community for our city.

Mr. Haas: I might say we also represent the owner of the southeast corner of this block, and that owner is desirous of having the property zoned also for two-family houses.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

(No response).

No one appearing, Commissioner Gillen moved that the public hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Hoye, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled "Zoning Ordinance of the City of Newark," adopted January 8, 1930.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, Do Ordain:

1. That an ordinance entitled "Zoning Ordinance of the City of Newark," adopted January 8, 1930, be and the same is hereby amended by extending the Second Residence District so as to include the area described as follows:

On the west by Midland place, on the north by Ivy street, on the east by Norman road and on the south by Mt. Vernon place;

and that the Zoning Map which accompanies and is a part of the ordinance to which this ordinance is an amendment be and the same is hereby changed so as to include within the Second Residence District the area above described.

2. All ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

3. This ordinance shall take effect immediately.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark (Department of Public Affairs) that the claim against Irving Haas for $106.07, be cancelled for the reason that this debtor's last known residence was in the State of Michigan and as a consequence thereof the authorities have been unable to enforce collection of the claim; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the claim of Rudolph Petrole for $20.25 be cancelled for the reason that it appears that it would cost more than that amount to have a suit to enforce this collection; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the claim against Sidney Franklin for $19.00 be cancelled for the same reason.

A communication from Mrs. A. Principe, dated March 7, 1932, approving application of Charlotte M. Crossley for a gasoline station at 57-65 West Market street, was read and ordered filed.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Charlotte M. Crosssley, owner, for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 57-65 West Market street; such use to run for a period of five years concurrently with the automobile parking station now conducted on the same premises; .

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Rankin, on this application does it take in the full tract?

Mr. Rankin I have the plan here, Mr. Mayor. The gasoline station shows just the West Market street frontage to be used for the full width.

Mayor Congleton: You know, we are widening Silk street. Was that piece eliminated? We do not want that included in the lease and then have to pay damages, because there is a piece of property included in the lease. There is an ordinance gone through for the widening of Silk street.

Mr. Rankin: I don't know whether that includes all of it.

Commissioner Gillen: You can get that from the City Atlas.

Mayor Congleton: What is the width of your property on West Market street?

Mr. Neilan: 126 feet front.

Mayor Congleton: That is excluded from the lease, on the application, the piece that is to be taken for the widening of Silk street?

Mr. Herman Marx: Yes, provision has been made for that.

Commissioner Gillen: Is that permit limited?

Mr. Rankin: Yes, it is limited to five years, and we also limited the parking station for the same period.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

John Howe,
Director of Revenue and Finance.

Mayor Congleton: Does any citizen have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission this morning?

When we adjourn we will adjourn to meet Friday morning at eleven o'clock for the purpose of acting upon the tax ordinance.

There are several licensing ordinances that are scheduled for hearing at our next meeting on next Wednesday. Because of the great interest that has been manifested with respect to them, and the numerous requests for further time to study them, the hearings will not take place next Wednesday, but will then be adjourned to Wednesday, March 30. I state that now so people who are interested in them need not come here next Wednesday if they do not care to.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance concerning the operation and maintenance of gasoline stations and gasoline filling tanks in the City of Newark and providing for the licensing thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordinance be laid over until March 30th.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray.

Commissioner Howe: These ordinances have been laid over because we feel the Mayor, who is away, would prefer to be here, and we would prefer to have him here so that the ordinances will be given the consideration of the whole City Commission. So any of you who are interested in any of those ordinances, you may leave now if you care to. They will be heard on the 30th of March and not today.

Commissioner Murray introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance providing for the opening of Raymond boulevard from a point about 220 feet west of Broad street westerly to Plane street.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, Do Ordain:

Section 1. That Raymond boulevard from a point about 220 feet west of Broad street westerly to Plane street shall be opened as a public street or highway, as follows:

Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark,

City Hall, Newark, N. J.

Dear Sirs:

We represent Mrs. Ruth Dim and Mrs. Katie Tapper who desire to make an application that an ordinance entitled "Zoning Ordinance of the City of Newark" adopted January 8, 1930, be amended by extending the second residence district so as to include the area described as follows:

Premises on the northwest corner of Mt. Vernon Place and Midland Place running north 460.22 feet to the southwest corner of Midland Place and Ivy Street and having a depth of one hundred (100) feet, and that the Zoning Map which accompanies and is a part of the ordinance to which this ordinance is an amendment be changed so as to include within the second residence district the premises above described.

Our clients desire to make this application for the reason that they are of the opinion that the premises above described are no longer useful for one family residences.

If you desire a more formal application made, kindly send us the necessary form and we will be pleased to prepare the same and return to you.

Hoping you will take the necessary steps to amend said ordinance to include said premises and thanking you in advance for any courtesy you may extend to us in this matter, we remain

Yours very truly,

Levy, Fenster & McCloskey
By Abraham Fenster.

Referred to Law Department for preparation of ordinance.

A communication from Walter R. Darby, Commissioner of Municipal Accounts, dated March, 1932, relative to tax collections in advance, sale of bonds at private sale and 1931-1932 budget totals was read and ordered referred to the Director of Revenue and Finance.

Commissioner Howe: Does any citizen have anything to take up with the Commission?

The following petition was received and read:

March 12, 1932.

Hon. Jerome T. Congleton,
Mayor of the City of Newark,
City Hall, Newark, N. J.

Dear Sir:

We, the undersigned, property owners and tenants on South Thirteenth Street, between Clinton Avenue and Avon Avenue, having ascertained that Clinton Place bus #14 has been rerouted to run through the above mentioned street to Avon Avenue, and down said Avenue, (although the City authorities, a few years ago, promised not to reroute said bus line unless we were first offered an opportunity to be heard on the same, having filed our petition against the same a few years ago), hereby respectfully petition your Honor for a hearing on this matter, as we feel that said South Thirteenth Street, at the present time, has more than its proportion of traffic, and that to add to the present burden would be injurious to our health and happiness, and would destroy the character of said street as a residential street.

Signed by Frank Voigt, 869 South
13th Street, and 83 others.

Referred to the Mayor.

Mr. Frank Voigt, 869 South 13th Street:

Mr. Commissioners, I appear here for myself and for the property owners on South Thirteenth Street between Clinton Avenue and Avon Avenue, relative to the re-routing of your bus line No. 14 through that street. This is a petition of protest signed by everybody who lives on that street on those two blocks, except three men who are out of town. In other words, there are eighty-four signatures here out of eighty-seven. Some few years ago we filed the same kind of a petition protesting against the re-routing of this car line through this street on account of its strictly residential section, and we were assured at that time that no action would be taken in a matter of this kind again unless we were first notified.

Commissioner Howe: Is that a permanent bus line?

Mr. Voigt: As I see it it is the re-routing of the bus line I think at the present time you want to run express buses through the street; I think that was your object, as I was surprised to see a notice in one of the buses when I rode in it one day, and that is the first information I had of it, and I don't know just what your intention is, but we don't want any opening wedge for any line running through this street. We bought our properties there thinking it was a quiet residential neighborhood, and we don't want it spoiled.

Commissioner Howe: I happen to live in that neighborhood.

Mr. Voigt: I know.

Commissioner Howe: If my neighbors want it to run through Twelfth Street I am satisfied, but if my neighbors do not want it I am against it.

Mr. Costello: This line was instituted at the request of the people living south of Clinton Avenue, for morning and evening express service. The morning service is run on a ten-minute headway, eastbound seven buses from seven-fifty to eight-fifty, and in the evening from four-fifty to six-twenty-two; Saturday three buses eastbound, none westbound. There is an average of fifty people a day on each bus trip and they save ten minutes running time turning at Clinton Place and going down Clinton Avenue.

Commissioner Howe: That is an hour in the morning?

Mr. Costello: An hour in the morning and a little over an hour in the afternoon, and three buses on Saturday with no return trip. And as I say, it was done at the request of the people living down there, and we have had very favorable comments on the service. It is just the morning and evening rush hours.

Mr. Voigt: I am sure, Mr. Commissioners, you will be able to find another way to satisfy the people south of Clinton Avenue. You have a number of avenues running east from Clinton Avenue that would satisfy them to go down quicker. I don't think you ought to use our street for the purpose of satisfying the people south of Clinton Avenue.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I live at the corner of Thirteenth Street and Madison Avenue. I bought that property for my own family to live in the house. The neighborhood is restricted until 1950. And the neighbors, one hundred per cent., excepting three men who were not home, signed this petition against the routing of these buses on Thirteenth Street. And we ask you Commissioners to protect our property rights.

Commissioner Egan: How long has this been going on?

Mr. Zemel: Since the ninth of this month, sir.

Commissioner Egan: I think, Mr. Zemel, that you are justified in your complaint so as you knew nothing about it in advance. And this is a very nice residential section up there.

Mr. Zemel: I know, Commissioner Egan; you used to live in the neighborhood and you know it.

Commissioner Egan: I think the Mayor's department will take care of it. Probably it was something done for emergency purposes. I think if it is referred to the Mayor you will get relief.

Mr. Zemel: I have been informed by Mr. Costello that it was an experiment, but why experiment on us. Let them experiment on somebody else.

Commissioner Howe: Does any other citizen have anything to bring before the Commission?

Mr. Fred W. Romaine, 851 South Thirteenth Street:

I am the one who secured all of the signatures and interviewed the owners and the tenants on Thirteenth Street. And I secured everyone but three who are away, and every one of them was opposed utterly to the bus going over Thirteenth Street.

Commissioner Gillen: Do you live there,

Mr. Romaine: Yes, I live there. The street is a narrow street, and following the remarks of Mr. Costello as to the buses being run one hour a day, this morning I left the house at twenty minutes of ten and there was a bus going one way, and I waited for ten minutes more and there was a bus came the other way. Friday at eleven-thirty the buses were in operation both ways. Thursday at ten-thirty the same. Now, what hour he means through the day—if rush hours are from ten-thirty to eleven-thirty, that is something new to me.

Commissioner Egan: I do not blame you for not wanting them.

Mr. Romaine: We don't want them, and I hope to get a decision in our favor.

Commissioner Howe: I think that is sufficient. Does any other citizen have any other matter to bring before the Commission?

Mr. Henry Green: A couple of years ago we thought that this depression by this time would be over, at least, even his eminence the President of the United States thought that it was around the corner, but until then we did not know that there was any round corners. And today we have a bread line in Military Park. The Evening News does not know who runs it. It is a Mr. X. The Star-Eagle doesn't know any more than the Evening News The Ledger—

Commissioner Howe: Are you going to talk on something that is of vital interest to the people, or are you going to harangue the President or the newspapers? If you have got anything worth while I will sit here and listen to you.

Mr. Green: Every time I have come here I come here on a proposition, and I don't come here to harangue the President or the newspapers. That isn't my object.

Commissioner Howe: He is your President as well as mine.

Mr. Green: Yes.

Commissioner Howe: He has got his own troubles, so don't add to it.

Mr. Green: It may be your fault, but not mine

Commissioner Howe: He would be my president if he was a Socialist.

Mr. Green: All right, Commissioner Howe, personally, you know that I never had anything against any one man, but there are conditions that we are dealing with. What I want to ask you in particular, to get down to the final analysis—

Commissioner Egan: We thought what you had in mind was that there is another slump in the depression.

Mr. Green then described the deserving men and boys who stand in the bread lines daily and who he felt should receive proper lodging by the City aside from the food line charity of citizens.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Green, you know perfectly well that Commissioner Murray had done a very fine piece of work in looking after the citizens and residents who are in distress. He has done a very fine piece of work.

Mr. Green: I don't find fault with the things that were done.

Commissioner Egan: You think more should be done?

Mr. Green: But there is a lot more, and we would not feel it. You can see that line. Stop over there between six and seven and you will see women, and it break anyone's heart, I don't care how tough his heart is. It is bad to be unemployed, it is bad to suffer from worry, and it is a bad thing not to know where to get your night's lodging. And I am not here to run counter to Commissioner Murray.

Commissioner Egan: He hoped we would not need it.

Mr. Green: It is not a personal matter. I did not come here to have an argument with you or Commissioner Howe or Commissioner Gillen.

Commissioner Egan: We are not arguing with you, we are discussing it with you.

Mr. Green: Another thing, there is a big manufacturer not far from here who has just locked out 125 people, threw them all out after they could not stand a wage cut anymore. He is a member of a merchant's club, and he enjoys luxury. And he told these people when they asked for better conditions, he said, "There are seven thousand people living on charity now. I will give them 125 more families."

Commissioner Howe: You and I have been very good friends for a good many years and we have had many discussions similar to this.

Commissioner Gillen: And you will have many more.

Mr. Green: You said a mouthful, Commissioner.

Commissioner Howe: Thank you, Mr. Green.

Mr. Raymond Lemassena, 810 Broad Street:

I brought here photographs of some work that I have been at for over a year. I have been promised and I have been told that the work that I had undertaken would be considered and some action be given.

Commissioner Howe: I might say in answer to that, this matter is in the Mayor's department, and I think—

Commissioner Gillen: We cannot do anything until the Mayor comes back.

Mr. Lemassena: I understand all that.

Commissioner Howe: You won't lose anything by waiting.

Commissioner Gillen: Two weeks from today the Mayor will be here and we will take the matter up.

Mr. Edward Fenias: At this time, with respect to the Halstead Street chicken market application of Mr. Schilizzi, at this time may I make a motion to have a re-hearing in this matter. The reason for our withdrawal several weeks ago was the inability of Schilizzi to finance this enterprise. Since that time we have not only received definite assurance, but it is a reality we can finance it.

Commissioner Howe: I think we are all familiar with it.

Mr. Fenias: I assume so.

Commissioner Murray: You want a re-hearing now?

Commissioner Egan: Not today.

Mr. Fenias: No, not today.

Commissioner Egan: You make an application for a re-hearing?

Mr. Fenias: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: I move it be granted.

Commissioner Egan: I will second the motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray.

(Hearing on April 6, 1932.)

Commissioner Gillen: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray.

Absent: Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe, presiding.

The minutes of meeting of March 16th were read and approved.

Commissioner Egan introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled "Zoning Ordinance of The City of Newark," adopted January 8, 1930.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark Do Ordain:

1. That an ordinance entitled "Zoning Ordinance of The City of Newark," adopted January 8, 1930, be and the same is hereby amended by extending the Second Residence District so as to include the area described as follows:

On the east of Midland Place, on the north by Ivy Street, on the south by Mt. Vernon Place, and on the west by a line one hundred feet (100') west of and parallel to Midland Place;

and that the Zoning Map which accompanies and is a part of the ordinance to which this ordinance is an amendment be and the same is hereby changed so as to include within the Second Residence District the area above described.

2. All ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

3. This ordinance shall take effect immediately.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray.

Commissioner Egan moved that April 6th, 1932, at 11 A. M., or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place when and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading as provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray.

Commissioner Murray introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The Clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to amend Sections 1116-1117 - 1118 - 1119 - 1120 - 1121 - 1122-1123 - 1124 - 1135 - 1136 - 1137 - 1138-1139-1140 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Newark (Revision of 1913), and prescribing penalties for the violation of the provisions thereof.

Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark Do Ordain:

1: That Section 1116 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Newark (Revision of 1913) be amended to read as follows:

Section 1116. Every practicing physician in this City shall report in writing to the Department of Health the name of every patient, he or she may have examined, affected with cholera, smallpox (including varicella), diphtheria, membranous croup, yellow, typhus, typhoid or scarlet fevers, or any other contagious disease that may be publicly declared by the Department of Health to be dangerous to public health, together with the precise locality where such patient may be found, immediately after such physician shall ascertain the nature of such disease. Any person or persons failing to comply with, violating or offending against any of the provisions of this section, shall on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars for each offense.

2: That Section 1117 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Newark (Revision of 1913) be amended to read as follows:

Section 1117. Whenever it shall be deemed necessary by the Department of Health to establish the true character of any disease which they may believe to be communicable, a medical examination of the person or persons affected by such disease may be ordered, the medical attendant selecting any physician engaged with the Board of Health as he may desire, and such examination shall be permitted by all attendants and persons. Any person or persons offending against any of the provisions of this section shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for each such offense.

3. That Section 1118 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Newark (Revision of 1913) be amended to read as follows:

Section 1118: No principal, teacher or superintendent of any school, and no parent or guardian of any child attending any school, shall permit any child sick with any disease mentioned in Section 1116, or with any other communicable disease, or any child residing in any house in which such disease shall exist, to attend any school, until such time as the attending physician certifies that it can be done without danger of communicating the disease to others. Any person or persons offending against any of the provisions of this section shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for each offense.

4: That Section 1119 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Newark (Revision of 1913) be amended to read as follows:

Section 1119. In case any contagious or communicable disease occurs in this city, the person affected thereby shall, at the discretion of the Health Officer, be isolated, or said person may be removed to such locality as the Health Officer may order and direct; and all buildings, clothing, property and premises and vehicles which may become infected by the presence of persons affected by contagious or communicable disease, shall be disinfected or fumigated at the expense of the tenant, occupant or owner thereof, and said disinfection or fumigation shall be made and performed in such manner and with such materials and within such stated time and under such supervision as the Health Officer may direct. Any person or persons offending against any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars for each such offense.

5: That Section 1120 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Newark (Revision of 1913) be amended to read as follows:

Section 1120. It shall, under the direction of the Health Officer, be the duty of the keeper of any hotel, boarding, rooming or public house, or the owner or occupant of any private residence, or tenement house where any person may be sick with any contagious or communicable disease, to close any such house or place, and keep it closed as against all lodgers, customers and persons desiring to visit the same until such time as in the opinion of the Health Officer all danger of communicating said disease from any such house or place, or the inmates thereof shall have passed; and no person or persons brought in to direct contact with those so affected shall go about the City, or any common or public or private place so as to endanger the health of other persons; provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply to either the physician or clergyman in attendance on such sick person or persons. Any person or persons failing to comply with, violating or offending against any of the provisions of this section shall upon conviction thereof forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars for any such offense.

Section 1121. When any person or persons shall be sick or infected with smallpox, scarlet fever or diphtheria, or any other contagious disease to be hereafter specified by the Health Officer, in any dwelling house, store, shop or rooms in the City of Newark, it shall be the duty of the Health Officer to put up and maintain in a conspicuous place on the front of said dwelling house, store, shop or other building, a card or sign on which the name of the disease shall be written or printed in plain letters, of such size as the Director in charge of the Department of Health shall direct, which card or sign shall be so maintained until the same shall be ordered or removed by the Health Officer. Any person, persons or corporation who shall remove, deface, injure, obscure, hide or cover up said card or sign, or cause same to be removed, defaced, injured, obscured, hid or covered up, shall upon conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars for each such offense.

7: That Section 1122 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Newark (Revision of 1913) be amended to read as follows:

Section 1122. No person shall let or hire any house, or room in a house in which cholera, smallpox, diphtheria, yellow, typhus, typhoid or scarlet fever has existed without having caused the house or premises connected therewith to be disinfected to the satisfaction of the Health Officer. Any person or persons failing to comply with, violating or offending against any of the provisions of this section shall upon conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a penalty not to exceed fifty dollars for each such offense.

8: That Section 1123 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Newark (Revision of 1913) be amended to read as follows:

Section 1123. No person shall bring or cause to be brought into the City of Newark, any person infected with any contagious disease, except the same be a resident of said City.

and then only on a permit granted by the Health Officer. No person shall bring or cause to be brought into said City any article, liable to propagate a communicable disease. Any person, persons or corporation offending against any of the provisions of this section, shall upon conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a penalty not to exceed fifty dollars for each such offense.

9: That Section 1124 of the Revised Ordinance of the City of Newark (Revision of 1913) be amended to read as follows:

Section 1124. When death has been caused by cholera, smallpox, diphtheria, membranous croup, typhus, scarlet or yellow fever, or any other contagious disease that may be hereafter specified by the Department of Health, no dead body shall remain unburied for a longer time than twenty four hours without a permit from the Health Officer. When death has been caused by any of the above specified diseases, the body shall be immediately thereafter disinfected and prepared for burial in such manner as may be directed by the Health Officer and the funeral of such person shall be strictly private, only members of the immediate household being permitted to be present, and a hearse shall be employed for the removal of the body. Any person or persons failing to comply with, violating or offending against any of the provisions of this section shall upon conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars for any such offense.

10: That Section 1135 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Newark (Revision of 1913) be amended to read as follows:

Section 1135. That if any person sick with the disease of smallpox shall refuse to be removed to the Isolation Hospital from a building where he or she may be, upon the direction of the Health Officer, or if any person shall forcibly resist or attempt to resist such removal, the Health Officer shall apply to a Magistrate of the City of Newark for a warrant to remove such infected sick person in accordance with law and the provisions of this ordinance. Any and all persons who shall forcibly resist or attempt to resist the removal of any such infected sick person by the Health Officer or under his direction, shall forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars for such offense.

11: That Section 1136 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Newark (Revision of 1913) be amended to read as follows:

Section 1136. Every person having authority to solemnize marriages shall transmit to the City Clerk of this City the marriage license required by law, and a certificate of every marriage solemnized before him, within five days next thereafter, and said certificate shall be made out on blank forms furnished by him for that purpose and shall include all the facts required by said forms. Any person or persons failing to comply with, violating or offending against this provision shall upon conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for each such offense.

Section 1137. The physician or midwife present at the birth of any child born in this City, and in case there is no physician or midwife present, the parent or witness present at said birth shall report in writing to the City Clerk of this City all particulars concerning said birth, called for on the blank forms furnished him for that purpose, and said report shall be made within five days next after the date of said birth. Any person or persons failing to comply with, violating or offending against any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for each such offense.

13: That Section 1138 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Newark (Revision of 1913) be amended to read as follows:

Section 1138. No undertaker or other person shall bury in or bring into this City, or remove from the City, the dead body of any person without first having received from the City Clerk of this City a permit so to do; said permit shall be granted only upon presenting to him the certificate of death, which shall be in accordance with the requirements of the next following section, or when the body is brought into the City from without, upon recommendation of the Health Officer or County Physician of Essex County. Any person, persons or corporation failing to comply with, violating or offending against any of the provisions of this section shall upon conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars for each offense.

14: That Section 1139 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Newark (Revision of 1913) be amended to read as follows:

Section 1139. When any person shall die within this City, the physician who may have attended during the last illness shall furnish the undertaker or any member of the family a certificate of death, which certificate shall be made out on, and shall comprise all the facts stated in the blank forms furnished for that purpose by the City Clerk. Any person or persons failing to comply with, violating or offending against any of the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars.

15: That Section 1140 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Newark (Revision of 1913) be amended to read as follows:

Section 1140. No person shall disinter or remove from one burial place to another the body of any person, without a permit so to do from the Department of Health, and all graves shall have at least four feet of earth between the top of the coffin and the surface of the ground. Any person, persons or corporation failing to comply with, violating or offending against any of the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars for any such offense.

16: All ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

17: This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon final passage and publication in accordance with law.

The following reports of City Officers were received and ordered filed:

Overseer of the Poor for January and February, 1932.

Department of Public Welfare for February, 1932.

Commissioner Howe: Does any person have any matter to bring before the Commission?

Mr. Frank J. Kosh, 63 Mott Street: He said he was a cripple due to lack of lighting on State Highway in Newark. He tried without success to obtain compensation.

Commissioner Egan: We certainly used every effort to get the Highway Commission to illuminate that highway. The Mayor of Newark has been in constant touch with them for over a year. I understand now they are working out a plan where it will be illuminated in the very near future.

Commissioner Howe: We have taken it up with the State Highway Commission.

Mr. Kosh: Yes, I have been speaking to Mr. Wolber yesterday. He said it is up to the State Highway Commission to try to do something.

Commissioner Egan: We haven't anything to do with the State Highway Commission.

Mr. Kosh: I will show the letters that I have sent to the State Highway and to the Governor.

Commissioner Murray: What happened, did you get hurt on the highway,

Mr. Kosh: Yes, sir. I had a little gasoline station and repair shop, and I was called out on the highway to fix a tire and I was hit.

Commissioner Egan: Whereabouts did it happen, here in Newark.

Mr. Kosh: Yes, sir, on the elevated highway.

Commissioner Egan: Near where?

Mr. Kosh: Right near Christie Street on the elevation.

Commissioner Murray: You never found out who hit you:

Mr. Kosh: No.

Commissioner Gillen: Is that over towards the Lincoln Highway?

Mr. Kosh: It is on Highway No. 1, Route 25. I was on the elevation.

Commissioner Gillen: What were you doing, walking along the street?

Mr. Kosh: No, I was up there on business.

Commissioner Gillen: You were hit at night?

Mr. Kosh: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Gillen: It was dark?

Mr. Kosh: Yes, it was dark. So when I was in the hospital they told me that the leg had to be amputated, that gangrene is in there.

Commissioner Gillen: Did they take the leg off?

Mr. Kosh: Yes, sir, above the knee.

Commissioner Gillen: I think that highway ought to be lighted.

Commissioner Egan: It is the State Highway's responsibility. We have been after the State Highway, and Mayor Congleton has taken it up many, many times. He has conferred with them, he has written them letters.

Commissioner Howe: Did you see Senator Wolber?

Mr. Kosh: I have spoken to Senator Wolber, and every lawyer I speak to tells me they cannot sue the State.

Commissioner Egan: I think the State Highway Commission is the body you will have to deal with. They might be able to work out something whereby they can give you consideration.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that we communicate with the State Highway Commission through the City Clerk and present this case of this citizen of Newark.

Commissioner Murray: It is on account of such accidents as this that we have been fighting three years to have it lighted.

Commissioner Gillen: Ask them to give the case special consideration.

Commissioner Egan: I second the motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:.

.Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe and Murray.

Commissioner Egan: We will give you our moral support.

Mr. Kosh: I thank you.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that we adjourn.

A P P R O V E D :

JOHN HOWE
W. J. EGAN
CHARLES P. GILLEN
JNO. F. MURRAY, JR.

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., March 30, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of meeting of March 23rd were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to license hawkers, peddlers, transient merchants and itinerant vendors and to provide penalties for the violation of the provisions thereof and to put into operation and effect an act entitled "An Act to License and Regulate the business of transient merchants and itinerant vendors and to provide penalties for the violation of the provisions thereof and to put into operation and effect an act entitled "An Act to License and Regulate the business of transient merchants or itinerant vendors in this State," being Chapter 88 of the pamphlet laws of the State of New Jersey for the year 1931, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance relating to hawkers and peddlers?

Mr. Manuel Pogash, 24 Commerce Street: I represent the Newark Fruit Peddlers Protective Association, an organization composed of about one hundred fruit peddlers in the City of Newark. We are not opposed in any way to the $25 license fee for fruit peddlers, nor are we opposed to the ten per cent. fee for peddlers' helpers. We are opposed, nevertheless, to the provision in the ordinance, article 11, which provides that after six months of the year have elapsed the fee for licenses shall be reduced fifty per cent. The reason for our opposition to this, in the first place, that the fruit peddler makes whatever money he does make during the summer months of the year. During the winter there is very little or no profit. If, as provided for in the ordinance, a peddler can, after the 30th of July, obtain a license for $12.50, there will be an influx of peddlers for the summer months, for the only profitable months of the fruit people. We propose instead that this provision be substituted for Article 11: Instead of giving licenses at all in the middle of the year, the licenses be granted only for one month. I am given to understand that this provision is in effect in East Orange. If licenses are to be granted on January 1st, then a fruit peddler can obtain his license only during the month of January. After the month of January has elapsed there shall be no licenses issued at all. So that those who are regularly engaged in the business may be given an opportunity to earn a living.

Commissioner Gillen: You mean the period of granting licenses shall be for one month only?

Mr. Pogash: Only thirty days. That is to eliminate those factory workers who having seasonal work in their factories, come out in June or July and become fruit peddlers for a period of three months, and then go back to their regular trade, thus furnishing unfair competition to those peddlers who serve their customers throughout the whole year regularly. In the second place, Section 2 of Article 11, which provides that in case a peddler desires to take on a different line from that for which he has obtained a license—

Mayor Congleton: Are you referring to the right section and the right article?

Mr. Pogash: Section 3, I beg your pardon.

Commissioner Egan: Of article 11?

Mr. Pogash: Article 11—providing for a fifty per cent. license fee if a peddler desires to take on another line not provided for in his license. It has been the practice in the past years for fruit peddlers to deal a little bit in eggs. Now, most fruit peddlers—

Mayor Congleton: Wouldn't he announce that when he put in his application for the original license?

Mr. Pogash: Before this year?

Mayor Congleton: No, now under this ordinance wouldn't he list in his application all the various things he wanted to peddle during the year?

Mr. Pogash: Yes, but apparently as it reads now, if a fruit peddler were to list a desire to carry eggs as a side line he would be required to get a license fee for eggs, which would cost him $25, fifty per cent. Now, most fruit peddlers carry about thirty dozen eggs or fifteen dozen eggs on their wagon a day. Fundamentally that provision is sound. We cannot expect fruit people to peddle one day fruit, the next day eggs or flowers. But an exception should be made for those peddlers who desire to carry a small quantity of eggs as a side line. Now, being in favor of the ordinance as it reads, with the two exceptions, we request and strenuously urge that the Commissioners give us better protection than they have given us in the past. I dare say today there are about a thousand fruit peddlers in Newark, whereas five hundred have licenses.

Mr. Arthur L. Forrest, 24 Branford Place: I represent the Retail Trade Council of the Chamber of Commerce.

The Retail Trade Council is in favor of the ordinance, with certain revisions which I understand are to be made, and is opposed to it the way the ordinance is printed, namely, providing specified fees for peddlers whose trades are not specifically mentioned in the ordinance, and so forth.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard on this particular ordinance?

Mr. Abraham S. Getchman, Lefcourt Buiding: I represent the Good Humor Ice Cream Company, and it appears to us that in view of the fact that we are being substantially taxed in the city, and we employ approximately 100 people, and we in no way offer unfair competition in view of the fact our products is not like any other product sold by any store or any vendor, we feel the proposed fee of $300 directed at us is highly excessive, and what you are doing there is merely legislating us out of business. We can, if we so desire, go in under the provision that veterans are beyond the scope of the ordinance. We do not propose to use the veteran as a subterfuge to do business in the city, but we do contemplate doing business by paying a fair license fee.

Commissioner Egan: Don't you know it is your particular client that caused most of the dissension among our store owners last summer? The Good Humor ice cream wagon goes through a street, and every kiddie on the street rushes into the house to get a dime to pay for his ice cream.

Mr. Getchman: Thanks for the advertising.

Commissioner Egan: And the corner store suffers accordingly. I have had the experience in my own home with my own kiddies.

Mr. Getchman: That is fine I am glad they like it. The fact remains, nevertheless, that the Good Humor ice cream or the type of confection which they carry, is not like what they carry anywhere else. It is no more fair to tax Good Humor ice cream than to tax any other commodity which is carried by anyone else.

Mayor Congleton: You are using our streets and public places for the purpose of conducting a private business. You do not rent stores and you do not employ people in your stores, and you are conducting absolutely unfair competition, as I view it.

Mr. Getchman: I beg to differ with you. We certainly do rent.

Mayor Congleton: You have a place down on Frelinghuysen Avenue which you use for deliveries from Brooklyn and to load up your wagons, and then you go around the streets, and I say again you park your trucks or wagons at the corners of public streets and other public places, which I say is a nuisance. That is not what streets are for.

Mr. Getchman: Where, of course, a condition like that exists, it is up to the Police Department to remedy it.

Mayor Congleton: Yes, and it kept us pretty busy last summer.

Mr. Getchman: Of course, they are not following the orders of the company.

Mayor Congleton: I object to the wagons going through the streets after we have got home and want to rest, and ringing their bells.

Mr. Getchman: Those things can all be remedied. We have never received complaints before.

Mayor Congleton: Oh, yes, they have. Your people have been spoken to time and again.

Mr. Getchman: The fact remains, nevertheless, that we are employing about a hundred people right on Frelinghuysen Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: It will keep several hundred more in work by reason of doing away with some of the unfair competition that you are carrying on, as I view it, in parking your wagons right alongside of a little store whose owner is paying rent for twelve months in the year and employing help.

Mr. Getchman: That has been a subject which has arisen on one or two occasions, and we have investigated it and we found those complaints usually arise from the fact that different ice cream companies feel that is a good argument to present to the fathers of the various municipalities.

Mayor Congleton: I am speaking from my own personal observation, not what somebody brought to me.

Mr. Getchman: We can limit our trucks to certain streets and stay away from certain neighborhoods. But to legislate us out of business after we have the large capital invested which we have, and you accept our taxes—

Commissioner Egan: We do not get very much taxes out of you. We get no tax on the automobiles and you rent a building on Frelinghuysen Avenue.

Mr. Getchman: We do pay taxes on the stock which we carry on an average.

Commissioner Egan: You do not have very much on the first of October in the way of ice cream.

Mr. Getchman: No, but under the regulations of your tax department we have got to pay on the fair value of the average amount of stock. If we operate six months a year and we carry $10,000 a day in stock, we naturally pay on $5,000.

Commissioner Egan: We have had numerous complaints from the store owners of the city who feel they have been made to suffer unfairly because of your enterprising activities.

Mr. Getchman: May I suggest as a compromise of some sort that we limit the scope and the parts of the city over which our trucks may travel?

Commissioner Murray: You have a seasonal business. There are large plants in Newark which maintain very expensive premises and pay very substantial taxes for their premises, and their ice cream is delivered to stores all over Newark. Now you come in. They carry on for twelve months of the year and they meet the slow business of the winter and they carry their expenses just the same. And you come along in the rush season of the ice cream business and you put your trucks on the streets and you carry this commodity at the most enticing and seductive hours of the day, through the early evening, in all the neighborhood; and, as Commissioner Egan says, every youngster when he sees that white wagon, he rushes into his home to get ten cents, and that ten cents worth of business is taken away from the neighborhood.

Commissioner Egan: My kiddies have even opened up charge accounts with your drivers.

Mr. Getchman: That is splendid; that is advertising, something we did not contemplate when we came down.

Commissioner Murray: You are urging as one of your reasons the fact that you employ a hundred people. Now, the ice cream companies here in Newark employ their people twelve months a year.

Mr. Getchman: They do not have them all the year round. They work on a skeleton plant in the wintertime.

Commissioner Murray: They reduce, of course; but just the same, they are in business twelve months of the year and they are meeting their expenses and they are paying twelve months taxes and paying employees for twelve months a year.

Mr. Getchman: As a matter of fact, we operate with a skeleton force during the winter months as well.

Commissioner Murray: You do not have your wagons around here.

Mr. Getchman: No, but we employ people during that time.

Commissioner Murray: You just come in and pick the cream of the year during the summer months.

Mr. Getchman: There is nothing unlawful about that; it is just good business to do that.

Commissioner Murray: It is good business to do it, but if you do it under regulations that put your competition on a fair basis with the permanent residents and occupants of property—

Mr. Getchman: That certainly is not unfair competition. I want to call your attention to the fact our product is unlike anything carried by any other store or any other factory in town.

Commissioner Egan: It is just a subject of taxation, and that is not under very serious consideration.

Mr. Getchman: May I suggest, therefore, that you reconsider this before you make this final as to the amount of license you intend—

Mayor Congleton: Have you anything to suggest?

Mr. Getchman: I suggest we pay a reasonable license fee of $50 to $75. That would be ample.

Mayor Congleton: All right, we will take your suggestion under consideration. Does anyone else desire to be heard on this particular ordinance?

Mr. Meyer Zemel: Your attitude on these hucksters and licensing the business of peddlers is exactly right, but you have not made the fee high enough. Unfair competition does not describe it.

Mr. Henry Green spoke on local economic conditions.

Mayor Congleton: Now, Mr. Green, we are willing to listen to you with respect to this ordinance, but, I, for one, am not going to sit here and listen to you indulge in personalities. If you have any comments to make about this ordinance I will sit and listen to you.

Mr. Green: Mr. Mayor, I think you are right. For the first time I am going to agree with you. But you know, not that I want to accuse you of being insincere, but I think—

Mayor Congleton: I have been accused of most everything; I do not think that will hurt me.

Mr. Richard J. Congleton, Lefcourt Building: I am appearing for McCarter & English on behalf of Dugan Brothers, bakers in Newark. Dugan Brothers have a large plant here in Newark taking up a full city block at Third Street and Abington Avenue.

The property of Dugan Brothers is assessed on the tax books at $323,900. They employ in their plant here in Newark approximately 360 men. They have in addition to this plant, fifty wagons that have routes in Newark; and under the proposed peddlers ordinance you intend to put a tax of $50 on each of these wagons. And if such a thing is done to a firm which is already paying taxes, and paying large taxes in Newark, it might necessitate their removing that plant from Newark to some other place where it can fairly carry on business. For that reason we wish to object to the peddlers ordinance in the present form, because it does not exclude people who have plants in Newark and already paying taxes.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Alexander Loeb, Halsey Street: If it is necessary to tax hucksters, and I think every city has hucksters, and we will all admit that you ought to confine them to certain streets.

Commissioner Gillen: I move the public hearing be closed and the matter be taken up in conference and further action postponed to April 13th.

Commissioner Howe: I second the motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance concerning the operation and maintenance of open air parking stations in the City of Newark, and providing for the licensing thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Edward B. Jacobson: I want to say I am not opposed to this parking ordinance, or this ordinance regulating parking places, excepting that I believe that if it applies to all places equally it will work an injustice to a certain class. In order to explain and bring to your mind what I mean by that class, may I just make it personal by saying that adjoining the Bears Stadium we have prepared a recreation field known as the Iron-bound Field where hundreds and hundreds of under-privileged boys and young men seek recreation in organized games of various kinds. In front of that field we have a plot for parking. We have sublet that to Mr. Reno, who parks cars during the playing season of the Newark Bears Baseball Club. There are about 85 days that they use that for parking, and of those 85 days, about three hours a day that it is used. Now, it is manifestly unfair to charge the same rate for three hours a day for eighty-five days as you would charge for uptown parking where they park, some of them, twenty-four hours a day, 365 days of the year.

Mr. Harold A. Miller, 763 Broad Street: I represent Mr. Dinger, a man who has a small open air parking station on East Alpine Street. If this ordinance is put through with that $1.50 per car per year tax, it will simply mean this man will have to go out of business. It is all he has to live on. I am not appealing for this one man in particular, but I think you will find that he is in the class with hundreds, and perhaps thousands, of others, who have similar open-air parking stations. But, if in addition to that situation you impose now on the class of open-air parking stations this man I mention has, and there are lots of others, in that class, a tax of $1.50 per year per car—

Mayor Congleton: Per car space.

Mr. Miller: That is what I meant, based on the capacity of his space—you are going to drive this man, and I fear lots of others like him, out of business; and I respectfully submit to you gentlemen, before you take any final action on this ordinance that you consider these different phases so you will not work an injustice and hardship on the small man who is simply now hanging by the skin of his teeth, so to speak.

Commissioner Murray: How many cars can this client of yours get into his space?

Mr. Miller: I cannot tell you, but offhand I should say probably twenty-five or thirty.

Commissioner Murray: If he has twenty-five or thirty cars parked there—

Mr. Miller: He doesn't have them, that is the trouble.

Mayor Congleton: That would be $37.50 a year.

Commissioner Murray: He has space for those cars. We will say twenty-five cars. If he has any proportion of that occupied by cars stored during the day and the night he is just taking that many cars out of a garage building which some garage owner is paying taxes upon, and he is taking the business away from another man, because he hasn't the overhead to meet that the garage man has, and it is not fair to the garage man.

Mr. Miller: When a person goes to a garage for indoor parking they get better accommodations and they expect to pay more. There are certain classes of people that go to the outdoor parking stations that would not under any circumstances go to the indoor parking stations because they cannot afford to do it, especially in this section I speak of, East Alpine Street, there is no competition with any indoor parking station.

Commissioner Murray: You are bringing up your man's business to something nearer the plane on which the garage man does his business. A man has to pay almost as much to get in an open-air parking station for all-day parking as he will pay to a garage.

Mr. Miller: I am not opposing any tax. I think it is a proper thing to do. But I do say at this time this figure is too much.

Commissioner Egan: That would be only about $37.50 a year for your man.

Mr. Miller: Assuming that is his capacity.

Commissioner Egan: Say twenty-five cars at $1.50 a car.

Mr. Miller: Yes.

Mr. Egan: It would run into about $37.50.

Mr. Miller: That would not be so bad if he had the business; but at the present time, for example, he has got in there, I suppose, on an average now of four or five parking, and that is all, every day, and business is gradually getting worse.

Commissioner Murray: If he can pay his rent out of the parking receipts for four or five cars a day, he is a wiz.

Mr. Miller: He can do it only because he is paying a small rent.

Mayor Congleton: $37.50 more a year is not going to break him.

Mr. Miller: As a matter of fact, the rent he is paying is $10 a year for one year to give him a start.

Mayor Congleton: This would make it $47.50.

Mayor Congleton: This would make it $47.50. And if an open-air parking station won't stand $47.50 a year rent there cannot be much demand for it, I would say.

Mr. Miller: There isn't.

Mr. Charles Handler, Kinney Building, representing West Park Parking Station, 14 West Park Street, capacity 70 cars; Center Parking Station, 20 Commerce Street, capacity 30 cars; Hahne's Parking Station, 74 Halsey Street, capacity 150 cars; Rector Parking Company, 17-27 East Park Street, capacity 100 cars; 21-23 Mechanic Street, capacity 35 cars; 145-149 Washington Street, capacity 50 cars; 363 Washington Street, capacity 75 cars; 75-79 New Street, capacity 50 cars; N. J. Parking Company, 1040 Broad Street, capacity 200 cars; 366 Plane Street, capacity 50 cars; 152 Washington Street, capacity 50 cars; Smith-Cooke, City Hall, capacity 250 cars; Essex Street, capacity 60 cars; Halsey Street and Treat Place, capacity 100 cars; Plane Street and Academy Street, capacity 75 cars; Halsey Street and Washington Street, capacity 125 cars, total capacity 1,470 cars. I represent about sixteen parking stations in the center of Newark, and we are here to protest against the ordinance, not in principle of taxing, but as against the theory upon which this tax is based.

Commissioner Egan: What is the difference between the principle and the theory?

Mr. Handler: This, Mr. Commissioner: I think that in principle the parking station business is one that would justly support license regulations, and would therefore be justly taxed a license fee; but I think the theory upon which this tax is worked out is not a regulatory license fee basis, because in the amount per unit, because of the class of unit you select to make your basis for your rate, and because of the amount that would be involved in these downtown stations I think it is entirely inconsistent with what has been the policy of the law towards license fees. I say that for this reason, that first of all, $1.50 per car in most of these places would entail a tax of somewhere between $150 and $300. Now, it does not seem to me that the amount of supervision, or that the amount of licensing red tape would anywhere approximate a return for that amount of tax paid for the licensing purpose.

Mayor Congleton: We anticipated that argument might be made, and we have specifically stated in our ordinance that this is for the purpose of revenue.

Mr. Handler: I have observed that too, Mr. Mayor, and I assumed it was put in there for that purpose. However, I think that the ordinance is so plain in its provisions as purely a licensing ordinance, that we must take it up with that thought in mind. If you want to view this ordinance from the standpoint of a revenue raising ordinance, then I think regardless of what words you put into it that you are coming in direct conflict with the State constitutional provisions against taxing property except by general laws. In the parking station business, if you want to develop that argument, it is a business. You do not tax any other business—

Mayor Congleton: Yes, we do.

Mr. Handler: For revenue purposes, except either on a real estate tax or personal property tax.

Mayor Congleton: Oh, yes, we do. There are several ordinances in effect now.

Mr. Handler: I don't know about the validity of those ordinances; but as regards this and the general theory of the constitution of taxation, both in this state and throughout the country—

Mayor Congleton: When I was in charge of the Law Department I drew many, many ordinances that are still in effect: Restaurants, soda water fountains, bootblack stands, and many others.

Mr. Handler: They were license ordinances?

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

Mr. Handler: Based on a per unit?

Mayor Congleton: Yes; bootblacks based on the number of chairs, and the others are restaurants based on the number of tables, and so on.

Mr. Handler: If we do go on the question of capacity, your Honor, I do think—I don't know about the other ordinances that you mention, because my attention has not been called to them; but I do think this, that the amount of license fee they pay is more or less commensurate with the idea in the law as to what the license fee should be. I think, and my people, I believe, would back me up in this, that a license fee for those places should vary somewhere between twenty-five and seventy-five dollars a year, and no more.

Mayor Congleton: Regardless of the size of the parking place and regardless of the buildings they have torn down?

Mr. Handler: Your Honor, as to buildings torn down, I cannot see whether because Newark has become so progressive as to make a certain type of building out of date and to create a condition where it is untenanted and unoccupied and cannot be rented, I cannot see why the penalty of progress should be inflicted on any property owner who cannot rent his building and must tear it down to prevent the cost of insurance mounting, and the cost of upkeep through taxes.

Mayor Congleton: I do not think it is any sign of progress to take vacant lots on the main street of our city and make them open-air parking spaces and places for the sale of second-hand automobiles.

Mr. Handler: It is backhanded progress. It is because conditions have changed and properties and factories downtown are not desirable any more, and they have left the city for other reasons, and the landlord cannot rent his building. Now, I cannot see where the City should make its premise because the building was made him keep his building up, and make him keep his building up, and out-of-date building that he cannot rent. I think it is a sign of progress when he tears it down, because eventually a modern building will come and take the place of the old one.

Mayor Congleton: And in the meantime he does not want to bear his fair share of the burden of supporting the city.

Mr. Handler: There is nothing in the theory of our law, anything that compels a man to erect a certain type of building for the purpose of creating revenue for the city.

Mayor Congleton: There are provisions of the Home Rule Act which give governing bodies the power to fix a license fee on practically every line of business; and when land such as we are dealing with today is taken and put in a line of business that is not paying any kind of a license tax, I say again that it is unfair competition with the fellow around the block who has spent thousands and thousands of dollars to build the type of building that is used ordinarily for the parking and storing of automobiles.

Mr. Handler: If your Honor please, we have heard unfair competition so much this morning on several occasions. I cannot see, for the life of me, where a City Commission is entitled, by the use of its taxation power to alter economic conditions of competition. I cannot see why if one man elects to operate his business under a plan that costs a million dollars, which same business can be operated under a plan that only cost $50,000, that the City is compelled to step in and make up for his lack of business judgment by taxing the other fellow. I cannot see that where land is vacant in the City of Newark and is assessed at tremendous rates, and the landlord must pay taxes on that vacant land, why that landlord is not entitled to rent it out for any lawful business, and if that business happens to be parking, and if you think parking is a business that should be licensed and regulated, then I say the only question remains is, is it a reasonable license fee, or are you simply trying to make up something on this man unjustly. If the City needs revenue let them increase their taxes, but don't let them under the guise of a license tax soak a man more than he could be soaked for license purposes. Let them make a general increase in taxes and settle the argument.

Commissioner Egan: Under the provisions of this proposed ordinance, what would be the amount your largest parking place would have to pay?

Mr. Handler: About $137 or $145. I haven't got the figures exactly worked out.

Commissioner Egan: Do you represent some of the big ones?

Mr. Handler: Yes, your Honor. I do. I represent 1040 Board Street, one of the biggest ones.

Commissioner Egan: What would that cost under this ordinance as proposed?

Mr. Handler: I haven't worked them all out. There is a 200 foot frontage and I think there is about a 300 foot depth.

Commissioner Egan: You represent the largest, we will say.

Mr. Handler: I think I do.

Commissioner Egan: The approximate amount would not be over $150 to $175.

Mr. Handler: We can work this out in a minute, your Honor. It won't take a half a minute. That one there would cost about $300.

Commissioner Egan: Now, this public hearing is for the purpose of getting the viewpoint of the interested parties. Is $300 a year an exorbitant tax on a property as big as that particular one is?

Mr. Handler: Yes.

Commissioner Egan: I daresay you pay $10,000 a year rent.

Mr. Handler: Yes.

Commissioner Egan: You don't think a $300 license fee on a property that is costing you $10,000 a year to rent is too high, do you?

Mr. Handler: I do in this case, yes, because many a man downtown is paying rental and not making a profit. He has been caught on a lease that was executed in boom times. Now you know what conditions are all over. These spaces have capacity, but they are not occupied by any means to capacity; and probably the man who is paying $10,000 on his lease is losing money every year, but he cannot drop his lease, he has got to make something every year to pay his rental. I daresay any man paying rental on a lease executed two and one half years ago is losing money on a downtown parking station. It might have been a good way to figure if the leases had been figured with enough foresight to pay their rent today.

Commissioner Murray: When you referred to 1040 Broad Street as being 250 to 200, that gives you about 50,000 square feet. That means a capacity of perhaps 250 cars, allowing idle space, and so forth; and while that is not occupied to capacity and while he might only have 75 to 100 cars a day, he may have 75 to 100 cars three or four or five times, in twenty-four hours.

Mr. Handler: That is all probable.

Commissioner Egan: That is history.

Mr. Handler: It may be history as far as the figures you have are concerned, but these people are by no means making comfortable livings out of these parking stations. Most of them are absolutely sweating to pay their rent, and some of them are not doing that. Even aside from that, I don't think you can measure it that way, Mr. Commissioners. I think if you are going to tax a business, then tax all businesses on that theory. But we are speaking about a license tax, and I think in common justice a license tax should be apportioned on the amount of regulation required.

Mayor Congleton: If you will go over on Washington Street some afternoon, any day, and see those open-air parking spaces with people trying to get in and out of them, and the assistance that our police have to give them, I think you will agree with me then that $1.50 per car space per year, even from the strictly regulation standpoint, is still a very low figure.

Mr. Handler: Business could not exist there unless the public patronized it, and if there are a lot of cars coming in and out it is the public of Newark that is going in and out; and if they are going in and out there they are keeping the streets free of a certain amount of congestion when they come downtown to patronize our department stores and office buildings, and they pay these big taxes. That is what the police department is for.

Mayor Congleton: And the people who get the service should pay some of the burden. And I say the folks running the open-air parking stations are not today paying their fair share of the cost of the government for the service they get in return for that.

Mr. Handler: You would not turn around and soak Orbach on Market Street and Halsey Street an extra tax because they have to have policemen there on days of extra sales to keep the crowd clear. The City would give him police regulation to help business. The parking stations are just as much a convenience for downtown shopping conditions as they are a source of revenue.

Mayor Congleton: Your Department stores are paying very substantial taxes on merchandise in their stores that people are going in to buy, and your parking station is paying absolutely nothing.

Mr. Handler: And the store is not paying any more for police protection.

Mayor Congleton: Oh, yes, he is, through his assessment on personal property, which you have none on your property that is taxed.

Mr. Handler: It is an even rate for any store, regardless of whether they have sales or not. Well, that is the position of sixteen owners in the City of Newark, and we strenuously object to the passing of the tax on the basis of this proposed ordinance on the ground the unit and the yield are unjust in our case, illegal and does not comport with what a proper license tax should be.

Mr. Clarence H. Lane, Vice-President, Garage Owners Association, 465 Clifton Avenue: I want to say a word in defense of this ordinance, gentlemen, as the open-air parking station, in my opinion, is a necessary thing in some respects, but if it is not properly regulated and guarded against very strongly, it stands to ruin a fifteen million dollar business. That is just exactly what it means. These fellows rent a piece of property and store cars for all kinds of rates in competition against a man with a building that has cost him all the way from twenty to fifty thousand dollars and more. The Washington Terminal Garage pays almost $20,000 a year taxes, and has to store cars just as cheap as they do in a parking station. It costs every garage-man in Newark $10. a year tax for every car space he has got. Now, I wish these fellows with open-air parking stations would swallow that. I wonder what they do if they had to do business under those conditions? It makes me tired to stand here and hear them plea about a forty-five dollar tax on a piece of property 200 by 200. It is absolutely ridiculous. I do not think this Commission has got the tax half high enough.

Mr. William L. Morgan, 744 Broad Street: I represent the Newark Automobile Trade Association. This ordinance provides that it shall apply to motor vehicles which are exhibited for sale. I need not say to you gentlemen—

Mayor Congleton: Isn't it limited to open-air parking spaces?

Mr. Morgan: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: Having cars for sale.

Mr. Morgan: Having cars for sale. I need not say to you gentlemen that one of the most difficult problems in connection with the operation of the sale of motor cars is the disposition of the so-called second-hand or used car which is taken back from the customer. The members of this association are all of the highest type of business conducted in the city; they are all paying taxes; they are employing a large number of people. I think that the last census showed that ten per cent. of the people employed in Newark were employed in the automobile business or the automobile industry—that is the people employed in retail sales. At any rate, in order to properly conduct the business it became necessary to have a large space for use to exhibit and to sell the second-hand or used automobile which is taken back in connection with the purchase of the new car. These open-air spaces are not used for the purpose of getting back any revenue whatever. They are used in order to conduct the business successfully, which is fighting for its existence today. Every effort is being made to revive the automobile industry and automobile business. And unless we can conduct our business successfully it simply means that we are adding to the problem of unemployment. While this does not seem to be burdensome, yet I give you the assurance which comes to me from the members of this association, that it is extremely burdensome to their business. And we respectfully petition that an exception be made in charges against the legitimate automobile dealer who is paying his taxes and doing his share toward the business structure in this economic situation.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard on this particular ordinance?

Mr. Meyer Zemel appeared and said open-air parking stations are "a monstrosity." He approved the modern type structural garage. He favored the tax as proposed on open-air stations.

Mr. Frank G. Fanning, Elmhurst, L. I., representing Ogden and Rector Parking Company: Our parking station is on Ogden Street at the foot of Rector. When we purchased our property four years ago we had in mind to erect a garage, but on account of the proposed widening of that street for highway purposes we were stopped. Therefore, it was necessary for us to convert part of our premises for parking purposes. We have no particular objection to the $1.50 per car per year tax, but we do object to the promiscuous parking of cars in the streets. You have mentioned before that the Police Department renders valuable assistance to open-air parking spaces. In that case

I must take serious objection to what you have said. We find daily in the three streets surrounding our property almost four hundred parked cars there, sometimes two deep. The Police Department occasionally will give tickets for parking beyond the legal limit, but the following day the cars are there just the same.

Commissioner Egan: Two deep where?

Mr. Fanning: On Fulton Street.

Commissioner Egan: I will be glad to check that specially for you.

Mr. Fanning: On Rector Street they park on both sides, and they should not be allowed to park on Rector Street at all; the buses go through Rector Street.

Commissioner Egan: I think you are right.

Mr. Fanning: And today it is a serious menace, not alone to traffic, but to the pedestrians, to cross the street to get to our parking space. All we ask from the City of Newark is some police protection, in return for which we will gladly pay the $1.50 car tax. In addition to that, I might mention, in view of what some of the others have said relative to the tax that garages pay, that on our property today we pay approximately $17 a year for each car space that we have, and that is on vacant land, so therefore, the parking property is certainly much more expensive from an owner's point of view than a garage. We might incidentally mention that in the last two years we have lost two of our lessees because of the fact of poor business. Poor business occasioned particularly by this promiscuous and free parking of cars surrounding our property. If you will give us your cooperation we certainly will be glad to pay this additional tax, which we think is small enough. Thank you.

Mr. Joseph J. Duffy, 562 Ogden Street: It seems to me that you are taxing the property twice. The landlord pays a tax for his property, and if the landlord happens to go into business there you are charging him a tax for the same piece of ground again. Am I right or do I stand to be corrected?

Mayor Congleton: That would be right.

Mr. Duffy: In other words, he is paying a tax twice for the same article.

Commissioner Gillen: If the man who runs the parking owns the land.

Mr. Duffy: That rates being taxed twice.

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

Mr. Duffy: Supposing he has a capacity of 100 cars; it is almost impossible to fill it up due to the fact of his location. He would be taxed for the hundred cars just the same. In other words, he is paying a tax for something he hasn't got.

Commissioner Murray: He has to go out and hustle for business and settle it up.

Mr. Duffy: I really am in favor of taxing the parking stations. I own one myself. But I think the answer to the problem is this, to zone them, zone the parking stations.

Commissioner Gillen: You think there ought to be higher fees charged for ones located in the center of the City?

Mr. Duffy: Yes, zone them all.

Commissioner Gillen: Do you receive as much per car in your place?

Mr. Duffy: No, sir, it is impossible; and we do not do any night parking because there is nothing to draw from this factory neighborhood.

Commissioner Gillen: Where are you?

Mr. Duffy: Ogden and Fulton. I think I know the answer to the problem. If somebody just tried to solve the thing in a zoning proposition, a per capita rent, a man's business and his capacity and the location, the number of cars going in and out, it is easily solved.

Commissioner Gillen: I move the hearing be closed and the ordinance be referred to conference, and further action postponed to April 13, 1932.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance concerning the operation and maintenance of gasoline stations and gasoline filling tanks in the City of Newark and providing for the licensing thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Communications protesting against the proposed ordinance were received and read from the Independent Oil Dealers Association of New Jersey; Modern Auto Service Company, Alpha Radio and Battery Service and Mulman Auto Service Company, and on motion referred to the weekly conference of the Commission.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone who desires to address the Commission on this ordinance?

Mr. W. Umscheid, 281 North 5th Street, stated he favored the proposed license. He said he spoke in the interests of the taxpayers.

Mr. Harold A. Miller, 763 Broad Street: I represent Frank J. Finley who has a gas service station at 456 West Market Street. We feel, in fact, we know, that the tax at the present proposed rate will be so excessive as to drive this man out of business. Considering the competition which he has around there, considering the time of depression when people are buying as little as possible and from hand to mouth—many are not driving cars, at least as much as usual—Mayor Congleton: The receipts from the Motor Vehicle Department do not indicate that less gasoline is being bought.

Mr. Miller: I don't know what statistics you refer to, but I know this man is not, and a tax at this rate at the present time would simply operate to drive him out of business. Gas stations today are in the position of the saloons years ago, when there were so many that none of them could do business and make money.

Commissioner Murray: Does your man offer any suggestion as to what he thinks would be a fair tax?

Mr. Miller: I did not go into that with him; he is here; if you want to ask him that question.

Mayor Congleton: He has all these various tanks because of his desire to cater to the wishes of the people who are customers of the various kinds of gasoline. He is the independent dealer and he carries every brand of gas that there is.

Mr. Miller: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: That is the reason he has ten pumps.

Mr. Miller: Yes. Commissioner Murray, Mr. Finley is here if you would like to ask him that question. I don't know whether he is prepared to answer it or not.

Commissioner Murray: Well, you can write us a letter about it.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else wish to be heard?

Commissioner Howe: Mr. Mayor, I wish to state in answer to the gentlemen who spoke before Mr. Miller, that I am in a position to know that every gas station in the City of Newark is taxed and on the same basis that any other property is taxed, your home or mine; and, in many instances, the tax on the gas stations exceeded the shacks that were taken down before the gas stations were put on there.

Mr. Miller: May I just reply to the Commissioner? Possibly you misunderstood me.

Commissioner Howe: I said the speaker before you.

Mr. Arthur Phillips, 173 Frelinghuysen Avenue: I am here in the interests of the garages, automobile dealers and service stations in Newark, to protest against the ordinance now under consideration. While I appreciate your endeavor to balance the budget of the City of Newark and the necessity for doing so, at the same time, the men you are now attempting to further burden with this additional tax have had greater difficulty balancing their budgets than the City of Newark, and probably greater difficulty than a great many other lines of industry. It appears that every time the Federal, State or City governments want to balance budgets, they hit what might appear to be the source of their present largest revenue-producing factor, and that is the automobile, the user, the garage, the dealer, and the auto accessory dispenser.

Mayor Congleton: Isn't it fair to say that all of the money that has come in from those various forms of taxation, the gasoline tax, has gone back for the building of roads for those very people to use?

Mr. Phillips: That is true, but they are being overburdened at the present time.

Mayor Congleton: That may be. But it has gone to their special use.

Mr. Phillips: But the burden has become so heavy that I am afraid if you enforce this tax you will probably lose more than you will gain. Probably you are not aware that the garages and service stations have about four or five hundred new competitors in this City, and that is the chain grocery stores. They have recently started to sell oils.

Mayor Congleton: How long has that been going on?

Mr. Phillips: It has been going on for some time. And the suggestion I have is an ordinance—an act that was recently introduced in the State of South Carolina. Other states are also adopting similar acts. This act, by the way, has been declared constitutional.

Mayor Congleton: Is that the tax on chain stores?

Mr. Phillips: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: It was sustained by the United States Supreme Court?

Mr. Phillips: This law provides a tax of $5 on the first chain store, each additional store $5 up to thirty stores. The thirtieth store pays $150 and every store above that pays $150. I think, gentlemen, that is your solution.

Mayor Congleton: The chain stores are getting like drug stores which sell everything but drugs.

Commissioner Howe: You have seen the oil displays in the A & P. Stores?

Mr. Phillips: Yes.

Commissioner Howe: That is what you referred to?

Mr. Phillips: That is right.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: I represent my own tenant who has a small gas station on the corner of Sixteenth Street and Springfield Avenue. And if you impose the tax that you have advertised in the paper, it means that that man goes out of business.

Mr. Frederic J. Faulks, 763 Broad Street: I represent today directly the corporations whose names I will mention in just a moment, but I trust that what I say will also be regarded as good on behalf of the dealers who buy their gasoline and oil from these companies, and on behalf of the independents as well. They have not asked me to speak for them; they are quite able to voice their own sentiments. But I think that under the existing conditions we are all in the same boat, the companies and the clients. The companies I represent: Standard Oil Company of New Jersey—and I wish you would be good enough to take the names of the men here who are prepared to give you any more definite information you desire, either now or by mail—that company is represented by Mr. Boesma; the Texas Company by Mr. A. C. Smith; the Sun Oil Company by Mr.

Ware; the Tidewater Oil Sales Company by Mr. Drinkwater; the Gulf Refining Company by Mr. Bacon; the Continental Oil Company by Mr. Holmes; the Crew Levick Company by Mr. Lynch; the Pure Oil Company by Mr. Rohrbach; the Pan-American by Mr. Scholl and Mr. Cohn; Peerless Oil Company by Mr. Ritchie; Northern New Jersey Oil Company, Mr. Osbar; Shell Company by Mr. Harris. Now, Mr. Commissioners, I think I appreciate the needs of the city for revenue at this time, and I find no fault whatever on the part of you gentlemen turning to any possible source of revenue. But there are some things in the way of revenue that are not warranted, and there are some that come too high; that is, you can get the money temporarily, but in the long run you will kill the goose that lays the golden egg. I think no one will question that there is no business in the world that is as overexpended, and I think I can say properly, overtaxed, as the oil business today. One of my clients, walking down, told me his company, although it lost many, many millions of dollars last year, paid $54,000,000 in taxes. Another of them told me that on $64,000,000 of business done they paid $67,000,000 of taxes. That cannot go on indefinitely. When you come to the dealer, he is a replica of the same thing in a smaller way. All of these gentlemen have gone every place they could think of to get business. The result is that a dozen of these companies—I represent a dozen companies—six of them will sell to the same dealer, and six of them will sell gasoline with ethyl, and six without ethyl. That means the man must have, if he is going to compete with the fellow across the street, ten or a dozen tanks. I am told that the average tax here—I don't know, but I am told by men who should know—the average tax on these dealers represents from $200 to $300. They cannot stand it. Now, is there any real warrant for this particular kind of tax? I have listened to the remarks with reference to the other ordinances this morning, both pro and con, and I have heard the views very well expressed by the Mayor that where there is some particular property in Newark out of which people are making money, but on which they are not paying a fair share of the tax burden of the City, it should be subjected to a special tax, an occupational tax of the kind that is so frequent. And I think that the notion may prevail with some of you gentlemen that expensive buildings have been torn down to make way for building a station shack and that Newark is therefore losing a great deal of revenue on properties—from properties which it would have obtained if they had not been changed into filling stations and the like. Now, that is not the fact, and I hope to be able to convince you on that with a very few figures. They are subject to check—I have not checked them personally—they are not furnished me under affidavit, but they are furnished me by business concerns of good character and I know that they must be approximately right. Now, bear in mind this thing that I undertake to demonstrate, namely, that every one of these oil companies, and I think, on the whole, all of these dealers for whom I have no direct warrant to speak, are paying their share, and perhaps somewhat more than their fair share as compared with other people, in direct property taxes. The Mayor pointed out the difference between a large department store and a peddler, that it had a large amount of stock in trade, valuable buildings, and it bore a fair share of the tax raised by the City. Now, in the first place, this tax—and I want to say a very serious word about that in just a moment—extends to bulk stations as well as filling stations. The bulk stations owned by clients—I think there are nine out of the twelve who own bulk stations in Newark, the taxes that were paid on those stations when they were acquired, I mean the assessments on all of those stations in the aggregate when they were acquired by the respective companies, was $249,554. A similar assessment on the very same properties for the year 1931 was $1,047,467—I beg pardon, it is $1,557,986; in other words, an increase of $1,308,432. Now, that increase is not due in the main to the stepping up of all tax rates, something to which we all have to contribute. These are modern plants that have been put here within the last two years. And on those properties there have been erected buildings which have increased ratables from $249,000 to $1,308,000. I do not want to take much of your time, but just let me be specific in the cases of two of the companies in order to convince you, if I may, that this is not a situation for an occupational tax or a privilege tax. The Texas Company, for instance, erected a bulk plant here only a few years ago when the tax was, at the time it acquired the property, it was assessed at $4,875 and in 1931 it was assessed for $115,700, an increase of 2273 per cent. In the case of the Sun Oil Company, their property, when they bought it, was taxed at $8,900 and last year it was taxed at $203,500, an increase of 2186 per cent. Now, surely they are bearing their share of the general property tax of the City, and they are increasing the ratables, I think, quite as fast as any other industry can be doing. Take the matter of these filling stations where it is said that a grand or storage building is torn down and a shack is put up. As a matter of fact all of the filling stations served by these twelve clients of mine were taxed on an assessment of $1,047,000 as of the date that they were acquired, and for last year they were assessed at $1,614,000, and increase of $567,000. And in the case of ten out of the eleven—I haven't the figures for one, in fact, this one has no filling stations—the Shell has no filling stations in Newark, and, of course, never will have—it is planning to have but cannot have if we are going to have taxes like this—but with the exception of that one company where there was a slight decrease, every other one has increased very, very substantially in value since the property was acquired. Now, there again that is not the gradual stepping up of rates, because I think we have only had filling stations in any quantity for the last six or seven years. Now, we think that is a good wholesome business. We have about every kind of competition that anybody can think of. The word “boot-legger” no longer applies to the whiskey and gin business alone, it applies probably in great degrees to the oil business. Every one of these companies pay three cents a gallon. Of course, it is placed on to you and to me, but it figures in the cost of business, it figures in the ability to do business. There are probably people selling—I don’t know what proportion of the total gas that is sold by all of these companies that pay nothing at all. Now, I think the tax as a whole is unwarranted; I believe that it will cost the City money; I believe that it will, if it is confined to the filling stations alone — but there are two things, Mr. Mayor and Commissioners that you want to be very clear about in deciding whether or not you are going to pass this particular ordinance; one of those is whether bulk stations should be taxed at all. I have read you the figures as to the substantial property tax they already pay. They are all located on the water where the contents are brought by barge from the various refineries. They can be located outside of Newark. It would be infinitely cheaper, for instance, for the Standard Oil Company to truck from Bayway, Linden, than to pay $17,000 of taxes that they will have to pay for licenses on the bulk station, minimum tax. In other words, there is over $100,000 of tax that you may think will arise from this ordinance, that in all probability cannot arise. Now, don’t find fault with those gentlemen for saying they are going to leave Newark. They don’t want to. They have come here in preference to any other place, they are competing with several plants which are advantageously located in East Rutherford, bulk station plants. The industry will simply not bear that additional tax. As I figure this out, if you are going to tax bulk plants according to this ordinance, even at the minimum rates it provides for the large tanks, you are going to get in the neighborhood of $200,000 if none of them go. I think as far as the bulk stations are concerned, the companies will have no option but to go. They can go readily. They don’t want to, and I hope you won’t drive them out. Then, the ordinance is not clear in one other respect; that is whether it applies to all kinds of oils and greases. These filling stations, they are like little department stores now. You go there and you want to get a little of this kind of oil and that kind of oil, Nujol; it is there, it is in a bottle, and that is a container. According to the strict interpretation of this ordinance, if it applies to every kind of a container and every kind of oil, they will have to pay a tax of ten or fifteen or twenty-five dollars on every one of those bottles. Of course, you don’t mean that, nobody means it, but I think the ordinance should not pass. I do not think there is any warrant for it. I think if you will not drive these companies out of business they will continue to do business in Newark, you will not be able to avoid the tax on the filling stations. Of course, they will not bear it; eventually the dealer will have to bear it as one of the expenses of the business, and he cannot survive. He is a good fellow; he has put ten or fifteen thousand dollars into these stations; he is a good citizen; he is paying his fair share of the property tax; and I think it is a mistake to add two or three hundred dollars to his burden which I think he cannot bear. But speaking particularly for my own clients, I ask that you do not pass this ordinance, first, because I think it is wrong in principle; and second, because in any event bulk stations should not be included; and in the third place, the fees, if there must be fees, should be limited to gasoline and motor oils and not cover medicinal oils and fuel oils and lubricating oils, and things you put on your hands to get rid of chaps. I thank you, and I hope I have not taken too much of your time. And if you want any further information these men whose names I have given you, they will be glad to furnish it.

Commissioner Gillen: Do you say some people are not paying the three cents?

Mr. Faulks: The bootlegging industry has grown up, a great industry.

Commissioner Gillen: Bootlegging?

Mr. Faulks: Gas is brought from Camden, from New York, or anywhere, and sold at random. That accounts for the different rates you will see posted. Now, the average good company—

Commissioner Gillen: They are not paying the three-cent gasoline tax to the state?

Mr. Faulks: The average good company is, but the bootlegger is not. Now, that means this, that competition has driven all of the good companies—I hope you do not mind my calling my companies good companies, they are; they are the best people in the business, they are the backbone. They make money in good times, they are all losing money now. Now, they are selling gasoline on an average of about twelve or twelve and a half cents to those dealers in Newark. They haven't any right in God's world to be selling that gasoline at that price. After they pay the cost of drilling, whether it be out in Oklahoma or down in Texas or down in South America, where a great deal of crude oil comes from, after they transport that to Bayonne or Rahway and crack it off, refine it and store it in their tanks, they have got four cents left with which to bring that gasoline to Newark or Saratoga Springs or anywhere else and market it, and four cents does not leave a penny's profit in the business today. Now, they are charging twelve cents because the bootlegger is charging nine and a half, ten or eleven. If they charge the fair cost they would not get the customers. And, of course, they have all of the other burdens that go with any business today, and I think a little more than their share; part of them brought on, I think, by their own excessive competition. But that must not affect your judgment and it must not be allowed to further them or hurt the dealers.

Commissioner Gillen: Some of these gasoline station owners or operators, are they in cahoots with the bootlegging industry?

Mr. Faulks: No. Any man we sell pays the three cent gas tax. In other words, you drive up, he has bought his gasoline from us for twelve and a half cents. He adds three cents tax and little something for profit, and he sells it to you for seventeen cents. Now you pay the three cent tax and he has to pay that to this company, which in turn has to send it down to Trenton. But you can drive up to another place right next door, I don't know the name of the company, and you don't have to pay seventeen cents, but you can get gas for fourteen and a half cents if you are willing to take the chance on the quality, because that bird has not paid the three-cent tax, he has sneaked the thing in, and he is an outlaw; but he is getting away with it and there is no way of stopping it that I know of. And I come back to the one thing—

Commissioner Gillen: Can't the State check up on that thing?

Mr. Faulks: They ought to. I have been consulted by these people from time to time as to what can be done about it. I make no appeal for sympathy for either companies or dealers. Take the figures I have given you and check them in the Tax Department or wherever you will, or check them against the companies' records. Aren't they bearing their fair share of the tax burden of Newark just as Bamberger, the Prudential or anybody else is who is paying a fair tax on a fair value of the property. If they have abolished valuable buildings to put shacks in their place, that is one thing, but they have not.

Mayor Congleton: It is very interesting to hear about this bootlegging of gas. I assume that all kind of efforts have been made to detect it and stop it. I am particularly interested this morning because I am informed that some liquor was bootlegged in over Port Newark the night before last, and there is great consternation because I happen to be in charge of that port, that I did not detect it.

Mr. Faulks: The City Attorney told me that this morning. I said I thought it could not be true.

Commissioner Howe: You might have heard what I said a moment ago, that I was in a position to know, as head of the Tax Department, that every station in the City of Newark is taxed. That increase that you set on the buildings and real estate is $1,865,000 more than it was before?

Mr. Faulks: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Howe: Personal $549,000. Our estimate is two million, which is $135,000 and $500,000, which is $49,000 different from you. In one you are less and in the other you were ahead.

Mr. Faulks: That is probably accounted for by the fact I do not represent everybody, I only represent filling stations supplied by these companies.

Commissioner Howe: You are $1,865,000 and we are $2,000,000. On the other we are $500,000 and you are $549,000.

Mr. Faulks: On the whole property that was taxed for $1,200,000 when we bought it not so long ago—I do not think it is fair to compare conditions now with 1890 to four, five and six years ago when we bought this property. The total assessment on that was $1,200,000, and today it is—

Commissioner Howe: I want you and the public to know that every gas station is taxed.

Commissioner Gillen: There is no way of estimating the amount of bootleg as compared with the legitimate?

Mr. Faulks: I have not come into contact with this particular matter except as these agents told me; but I have been asked by the officers of these companies to recommend somebody who could stop it. I have made recommendations, but what they have done I don't know.

Commissioner Murray: There are a number of gasoline stations I have noted in Newark and out of Newark which do not tell the name of the company whose gas is sold. They have a sign up, "Gas 11½ cents, tax included." Is that one of these bootlegging outfits that you refer to?

Mr. Faulks: I don't know, sir; you can draw your conclusions just as well as I and the gentlemen whose names I have given the stenographer can tell. I haven't any information. I have simply been consulted about bootlegging gasoline for the last two years.

Commissioner Gillen: What is the wholesale price to the dealer of legitimate gasoline?

Mr. Faulks: Eleven and nine-tenths cents.

Commissioner Murray: Wholesale?

Mr. Faulks: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Murray: That is the bulk producer to the dealer?

Mr. Faulks: 11.9 including the tax. Now, the man charges perhaps two cents profit and he has to do all this work that some other speaker spoke about.

Commissioner Murray: Isn't it a fair inference then that where you see a sign up "Gasoline 11½ cents, tax included," a pretty fair assumption that it is off color?

Mr. Faulks: It is either bootleg gas or awful poor gas.

Mayor Congleton: It might help if our ordinance was amended to provide that each pump was labelled with the type of gas they were selling, and then the salesman of that company would know whether or not it was his gas.

Mr. Faulks: Of course, we put Standard gas into a Standard tank and Texas gas into a Texas tank and would not put it anywhere else.

Mayor Congleton: The other fellow that was selling at a price that indicated bootleg gas would have to disclose the kind of gas, and if he had to put that sign up, your salesman going around that territory would know that was not so and it might lead to some detection.

Mr. Faulks: There certainly should be some way of working it out, and I think the companies in their own interest would have to work it out.

Mr. William L. Morgan, 744 Broad Street: Again representing the Newark Automobile Trade Association. I wish to bring your attention to their relation to this particular ordinance. Undoubtedly this ordinance as prepared is intended to operate against the distributors of gasoline and motor oils. And while it is true that the members of the Newark Automobile Trade Association have in their different places of business storage facilities for providing gasoline and fuel oils, yet in every single case of every member of this association, who are legitimate automobile dealers in the City of Newark, that supply of gasoline and of lubricating oil is kept for the convenience of the customer. They are not in any way trying to make a profit on the sale of these commodities.

Mayor Congleton: You are speaking now of established garages?

Mr. Morgan: Established garages, established automobile businesses of the members of the Newark Automobile Trade Association. And to prove to you the situation, I have had taken off from the books of the Cadillac Motor Car Company their experience in relation only to the gasoline which they have been consuming at that office during the past year. The average consumption of gasoline—purchase of gasoline amounted to an average of 4,000 gallons per month, of which 2,000 gallons are used by the salesmen and 1,500 gallons are put in the used cars and used by the service department. The gas sales to customers amounted to about 500 gallons. And if this ordinance should be passed in its present form and the taxes should be levied on the storage arrangements of the gasoline alone without reference to the motor lubricating oils and other inflammable oils which are included in this ordinance, the tax would be $160 for the sale of approximately 500 gallons of gas. I don't know whether it was the intention of the Commission to include businesses of this character as being subjected to this tax, but I submit to you that any other business which is being operated as our automobile sales business is in the City, that it is an unjust burden to a business which is already carrying its fair share of the burden in every way.

Mr. Jacob Lubetkin, 60 Park Place: There is one element affected by this ordinance more so than any other, and that is the owner and operator of the garage in conjunction with which gasoline and oil is sold. I do not think there is any question that Paragraph 1 or section 1 of the proposed ordinance includes garages where gasoline and oil is sold. I represent the Weequahic Auto Service Station at 1020 Bergen Street, Newark, and to illustrate the effect of this ordinance upon the general garage owner, I would just give you some facts concerning this particular garage. The lot is 50 by 90. The building on it is 50 by 65. The remainder of the lot, the front portion being used for a gasoline station. His property is assessed for $19,000 and he pays $756.20 taxes a year. If this ordinance is adopted he will be required to pay $370 more to the City to operate his own business, and he owns the garage—and, by the way, his taxes for 1930 and 1931 have not been paid. That is a condition which you will find prevails amongst many garage owners. Now, this garage has been there for a number of years. Within the past two years the Standard Oil Company erected a station at the corner of Scheerer Avenue and Bergen Street, two blocks away, and within a few months after that his Standard Oil pump was removed. Only very recently Warner-Quinlan established a station another block away, causing him the loss of more patronage. That is a problem that the owner of a garage who has had a substantial investment, and which was built when things were high, has got to face. Besides that, these gasoline stations, besides selling gas and oil, have gone into the accessory business and are selling automobile tires, batteries and incidentals, which formerly the garageman used to make a few dollars on the side to help tide him over. Then the depression came along and the average garage today is twenty per cent. occupied. This man has a capacity of thirty cars and he has about ten there. McFee's has a capacity of eighty and he has twenty. You have cars standing out in the street and parked on the lots.

Mr. Clarence H. Lane, Vice President, Garage Owners Association, 465 Clifton Avenue: I think this is a fine time for the garage man to thank you gentlemen for reducing our tax rate twenty points. It has been a big help to us. It seems in this ordinance, though, that the definition of garage is so broad that it includes a class of business that is very much depressed, and a business that pays a lot of tax in the City of Newark. It does seem to me that we as garage owners, that is all I represent, deserve to be exempt from any part of this ordinance. And our grounds for claiming such is that we pay to Newark, three hundred garages pay to the City $342,-697.36, taken from the Tax Office. Now, it seems to me that that seems to be a lot of money, when you consider the condition of the times. In speaking of gasoline and speaking of taxing the garageman for his gas tank and his oil tank and every other kind of a tank he has got, it does seem to me that the garage man today is only handling gasoline and oil because he has to. It is a necessity in his business, he cannot do business without it. We are forced to carry it, and lots of them at a loss. Now, we certainly feel that this tax which applies to gasoline service stations is so broad in the ordinance that it includes the garageman, which I don't think it should, in view of the fact of the money we pay the City of Newark. If this ordinance is put over and the gagages are included instead of us enjoying a twenty point reduction in our tax rate it will increase our tax rate 150 points, 100 to 150 points; and according to a questionnaire that we put out among our members, we find there isn't two-thirds of them that have paid their 1930 taxes yet. Now, gentlemen, you can readily see that this business, which incidentally represents between fifteen and twenty million dollars investment in the City of Newark, garages have been since the automobile came, you have seen new buildings going up, and I think that it is a vital question for this City Commission to consider, because an industry with fifteen million dollars is something to be considered. I feel that we ought to be exempt from this ordinance because we are in such condition, and the gasoline and oil business that we do does not warrant any such a charge, because lots of us would sooner take the money that we would have to pay the City and put it in our pockets and throw gasoline and oil out, if we could.

Mayor Congleton: You carry it largely as a convenience for people who store their cars in your garage?

Mr. Lane: Yes, sir.

Mayor Congleton: I get your point.

Mr. Lane: We feel that the City Commission really needs a new source of income. But on the other hand, we as garagemen are in such shape that we really cannot stand any more tax. And if this tax should be put upon us it would reduce our earning power, and when our earning power is reduced our valuations are reduced, and our valuations are the same today as they were in the highest period of time.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

(No response).

Commissioner Murray: I move the public hearing be closed, the matter referred to conference, and further action postponed for two weeks.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen., Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen introduced the following ordinance, and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark believe that a majority of those who labor in the diversified industrial occupations of the city are in favor of an hour's daylight saving, and that it is beneficial for mental improvement and physical recreation.

THEREFORE, the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, do ordain:

1. That at 2 o'clock A. M. on the last Sunday in April, 1932, the standard time throughout the City of Newark shall be advanced one hour in all of the departments of the municipality over which the Board of Commissioners have jurisdiction, except that where the time is fixed by any statute of this state, in which case the time shall be the standard time as fixed by such statute, and at 2 o'clock A. M., on the last Sunday in September in the year 1932, such time shall be retarded one hour.

2. All ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

3. This ordinance shall take effect immediately.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that April 13th, at 11 A. M., or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place when and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage, and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading as provided by law.

the Estate of Harriet N. Currier in settlement of a judgment in condemnation of the original sum of Five hundred fifty-seven thousand and ninety three dollars ($557,093.00) for lands more particularly described as follows:

BEGINNING at the southeasterly corner of Commercial Street and Commerce Street; thence along the southerly line of Commerce Street south 40 degrees 42' east 192.50 feet to a point in the westerly line of Margherito L. Pariso; thence along the last mentioned line south 49 degrees 18' west 39.80 feet; thence still along the same south 15 degrees 58' 45" west 39.80 feet to the northerly line of Market Street; thence along the same north 74 degrees 1' 15" west 219.20 feet to an angle in same; thence still along the same north 40 degrees 42' west 24.86 feet to the northeasterly corner of Market and Commercial Street; thence along the easterly line of Commercial Street north 47 degrees 23' east 193.48 feet to the place of beginning.

AND WHEREAS, no payment has been made under the authority of the said resolutions; and

WHEREAS, the parties in interest are now claiming interest on the amount of the settlement;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, that the resolutions aforesaid, appropriating sums to the Estate of Harriet N. Currier, which resolutions are Nos. 7729-P and 7798-S, be and they are hereby rescinded, and the City Clerk is hereby directed to cancel the warrants issued in pursuance thereof; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the sum of Five hundred and thirty-three thousand dollars($533,000.00) for principal, and the sum of Eight thousand dollars ($8,000.00) for interest, be and the same is hereby appropriated to the said Estate of Harriet N. Currier as to purchase price, with interest, on the sale of the lands aforementioned, said sum to be paid upon the filing of a deed conveying the lands aforesaid to The City of Newark, approved as to form by the Law Department, which deed shall convey said lands free and clear of all encumbrances, except current taxes which are to be apportioned as of closing of title.

Commisisoner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Building Commissioner, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which the application was made be allowed:

Application of Charles Salerno (John R. Farrell, owner) for an automobile parking station; premises 104-106 Bergen Street; for the period of one year from date;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard?

Mr. Daniel L. Rieber, representing Merchants and Newark Trust Company:

I represent the Merchants and Newark Trust Company of Newark, and as such it is executor of the Estate of Charles L. Hutter. The Estate of Charles L. Hutter is the owner of numbers 108, 110, 112 and 114 Bergen Street. Application has been made to the Board of Adjustment for permission to operate a parking station at 104-106 Bergent Street. The application has been granted by the Board of Adjustment. In order for the Board of Adjustment to grant this application it had to have a hearing. The person seeking the application filed an affidavit to the effect that notices of this application were filed with the property owners in the immediate vicinity. The Merchants and Newark Trust Company, as executor of the Estate of Charles L. Hutter, did not receive such a notice. We have filed a written protest with the License Bureau that this application should be denied and not granted.

Mayor Congleton: Just let me get my facts right. You are executor of the estate that owns what property?

Mr. Rieber: 108, 110, 112 and 114 Bergen Street.

Mayor Congleton: You say you did not get a notice of the hearing before the Board of Adjustment?

Mr. Rieber: We did not.

Mayor Congleton: All right, we will hear any objections that you want to make right now.

Mr. Rieber: The objection is that it is in violation of the ordinance, and further, that we pay taxes to the City of Newark on these garages, nineteen individual garages, and that if this parking station were opened it would probably, as Commissioner Egan mentioned, it would take automobiles that we have stored in these individual garages and they would be parked in this parking station. We object to that. We also object because it is a violation of the ordinance. We object because we did not hear or receive word of the application when it was made before the Board of Adjustment. In a letter received from the Board of Adjustment it states that the party seeking this permit served notice to Charles L. Hutter—

Mayor Congleton: Just a moment. Let us see if there is anyone here in favor of it. Is there anyone here in favor of this application?

Commissioner Gillen: I think the objections made here about permitting outdoor parking stations outside of the busy center of Newark are proper, and that they should not be permitted. Several statements were made to that effect, and I think they bear a great deal of weight, at least, to my mind. I think every outdoor parking station is cheap competition with the garage that is established in the neighborhood. In the center of the City it is permitted because of the extreme congestion and because of the tremendous number of automobiles that are brought into one spot, and there it is a necessity; but not on the outside; and I would be opposed to granting any permit for any automobile parking stations hereafter outside of the center of the city.

Commisisonery Murray: In addition to that, they have nineteen individual garages here, and right here east of the corner of Hunterdon and Twelfth Avenue is a public garage.

Commissioner Gillen: I move the application be rejected.

Mayor Congleton: All in favor of concurring in the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment will signify by saying aye; contrary, no.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared lost by the following votes:

Nayes: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board and it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use of which application was made be allowed:

Application of Walter Jansen, owner, for the construction of a five-car garage for the storage of commercial and passenger automobiles; premises 113 Columbia Avenue;

Mayor Congleton: You have already got a four-car garage on the back of this lot.

Mr. J. Arthur Quinn, 31 Clinton Street:

Yes, sir.

Mayor Congleton: Now you want to put in five more?

Mr. Quinn: Yes sir. May I speak.

Mayor Congleton: Surely. This is a residential section?

Mr. Quinn: Yes sir.

Mayor Congleton: It is to take the place of one already there? It is not in addition?

Mr. Quinn: I appear for Mr. Jansen, the applicant here. Mr. Jansen owns property situate 113-117 Columbia Avenue. The application in question refers to the property at 113. At the present time there are four frame garages there which are fire hazards, and what we propose to put there is to replace this four-car garage with a five-car garage with a white faced enamel front. At the present time there are such garages in back of 117, and this application met the favorable approval of the Board of Adjustment and there was no opposition. As to the question of commercial vehicles, what it is, it is more or less a converted passenger car, a small half-ton Ford truck.

Mayor Congleton: When you get through you will have garage for five cars instead of one now for four?

Mr. Quinn: That is it.

Mayor Congleton: And your client owns 117 as well as 113, which is immediately adjacent?

Mr. Quinn: That is right.

Commissioner Gillen: The five-car garage will be built on the two plots?

Mr. Quinn: No, the five-car garage will be built directly in back.

Commissioner Gillen: Of 113?

Mr. Quinn: Yes, it is a large plot.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Application of John Klinger & Son, Inc., (J & R Corporation, Julia Osterweil, et al, owners) for an automobile parking station; premises 1063-1077 Raymond Boulevard; for one year, on condition that there be but one entrance and exit for each street, that lighting standards be not over 15 feet high, that a steel wire fence be erected around the property, and that no signs be erected without the approval of the Board of Adjustment;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

The following communication was received and read:

Springfield Avenue Merchants Association

203 Springfield Avenue

Newark, N. J. March 28, 1932.

To the Honorable
Jerome T. Congleton, Mayor, and
The City Commissioners of
Newark, New Jersey.

At a special meeting of the Springfield Avenue Merchants Association on March 28, 1932, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, the City Commissioners have decreed that to aid in the reduction of city expenditures, street light throughout the city shall be curtailed;

AND WHEREAS, although both merchants and property owners of Springfield Avenue realize the serious and urgent need for reduction of city expenditures, it is nevertheless their firm belief that in view of the fact that 80% of business on Springfield Avenue is done between the hours of 7 P. M. and 10 P. M., reduced lighting during said hours in this important business artery will result in considerable loss of business to its merchants and a loss of revenue to property owners, resulting in turn in a decreased demand for rental of stores on said avenue, which fact must of necessity reflect itself in a material reduction of income to our city from taxes;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that light reduction on Springfield Avenue with its disastrous effect to merchant and property owner can only result in decreased tax revenue to our City, the loss of which will prove far greater than the benefit to be derived from reduced cost of lighting in this thoroughfare;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we most respectfully petition our commissioners to continue street lighting in its entirety in the business section of said avenue.

Respectfully submitted,

Springfield Avenue Merchants
Association

Adolph Klein, President.
M. J. Feldman, Secretary.

Referred to the Mayor.

Mr. Edward Schoen: He said he had been on brief notice requested to appear in the Springfield Avenue lighting matter, but had learned it was a departmental matter. He felt it could be handled through a committee meeting with the Mayor and his engineers.

Mayor Congleton: I will be very glad if after the meeting is over you will step into the office. I will be glad to fix a time.

Mr. Herman W. Brams, 951 Broad Street: He appeared in the lighting matter in behalf of the Broadway Association. He also desired to appear at the hearing.

Mayor Congleton: All right sir. I will be glad to make an appointment with you, but not for today.

ANNUAL REPORTS

Annual Reports of the following Departments were received and ordered filed:

Department of Revenue and Finance for the year 1931.

City Clerk for the year 1931.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion

was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

A P P R O V E D :

JEROME T. CONGLETON
W. J. EGAN
JOHN HOWE
CHARLES P. GILLEN
JNO. F. MURRAY, Jr.

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, Jr.
City Clerk.

MINUTES OF MEETINGS OF THE Board of Commissioners

April, 1932

Newark, N. J., April 6, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of meeting of March 30th were read and approved.

Commissioner Howe introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The Clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

A Further Supplement to an Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to Establish the Names of Certain Streets in the City of Newark."

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, Do Ordain:

Section 1. That the names of the following public streets or highways situate in the City of Newark, be and the same are hereby changed and shall hereafter be known and designated as follows:

Mechanic Street to be changed to EDISON STREET,

East Mechanic Street to be changed to EDISON STREET.

Section 2. That this ordinance shall take effect immediately and all ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance, be and the same are hereby repealed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: This is an ordinance to change the name of Mechanic Street to Edison Street. We have held up action on this because of some other suggestions, but in further discussion the Board of Commissioners believe that it is very appropriate that this street should be named Edison Street because it was upon this street that Mr. Edison had one of his very earliest work shops and laboratories.

Commissioner Howe moved that April 20th, 1932, at 11 A. M., or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage, and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading as provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented an ordinance to amend Sections 1116-1117 1118 - 1119 - 1120 - 1121 - 1122 - 1123 1124 - 1135 - 1136 - 1137 - 1138 - 1139 1140 of The Revised Ordinances of The City of Newark (Revision of 1913), and prescribing penalties for the violation of the provisions thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

(No response).

No one appearing, Commissioner Gillen moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance to amend Sections 1116 - 1117 - 1118 - 1119 - 1120 - 1121 1122 - 1123 - 1124 - 1135 - 1136 - 1137 1138 - 1139 - 1140 of The Revised Ordinances of the City of Newark (Revision of 1913), and prescribing penalties for the violation of the provisions thereof.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The Clerk then read the ordinance by sections:

Title declared open to amendment.

Section 1 declared open to amendment.

Section 2 declared open to amendment.

Section 3 declared open to amendment.

Section 4 declared open to amendment.

Section 5 declared open to amendment.

The ordinance was declared open to amendment in all its parts.

Commissioner Gillen moved that said ordinance be adopted on second reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that said ordinance be ordered to a third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the ordinance be taken up on third reading and final passage.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the title of "An Ordinance to amend Sections 1116 - 1117 - 1118 - 1119 1120 - 1121 - 1122 - 1123 - 1124 - 1135 1136 - 1137 - 1138 - 1139 - 1140 of The Revised Ordinances of The City of Newark (Revision of 1913), and prescribing penalties for the violation of the provisions thereof," be taken for its third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The Clerk then read the title of the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to amend Sections 1116 - 1117 - 1118 - 1119 - 1120 - 1121 1122 1123 - 1124 - 1135 - 1136 - 1137 1138 - 1139 - 1140 of The Revised Ordinances of The City of Newark (Revision of 1913), and prescribing penalties for the violation of the provisions thereof.

The ordinance having been read three times was then declared to be upon its third and final passage.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An Ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled "Zoning Ordinance of The City of Newark," adopted January 8, 1932, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: This involves Midland Place, Ivy Street and Mt.

Vernon Place. Does anyone desire to be heard upon this ordinance?

(No response).

No one appearing, Commissioner Egan moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled "Zoning Ordinance of The City of Newark," adopted January 8, 1930.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, Do Ordain:

1. That an ordinance entitled "Zoning Ordinance of The City of Newark," adopted January 8, 1930, be and the same is hereby amended by extending the Second Residence District so as to include the area described as follows:

On the east by Midland Place, on the north by Ivy Street, on the south by Mr. Vernon Place, and on the west by a line one hundred feet (100') west of and parallel to Midland Place;

and that the Zoning Map which accompanies and is a part of the ordinance to which this ordinance is an amendment be and the same is hereby changed so as to include within the Second Residence District the area above described.

2. All ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

3. This ordinance shall take effect immediately.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the ordinance by sections:

Title declared open to amendment.

Section 1 declared open to amendment.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordinance be taken up on third reading and final passage.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the title of "An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled "Zoning Ordinance of the City of Newark," adopted January 8, 1930, be taken for its third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The Clerk then read the title of the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled "Zoning Ordinance of the City of Newark," adopted January 8, 1930.

The ordinance having been read three times, was then declared to be upon its third and final passage.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An Ordinance providing for the opening of Raymond Boulevard from a point about 220 feet west of Broad Street westerly to Plane Street, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Joseph S. Zemel, 289 Market Street, protested, saying he did not think that the City of Newark is at this time in a position to spend a million dollars or a million cents on any improvement.

Commissioner Gillen: The idea is to come right through to Broad Street. We are negotiating with the Post Office Department now to open the thoroughfare right on up. We have the width from Plane Street right on up; that has already been acquired.

Mr. Zemel: I only saw the description in the local papers.

Commissioner Gillen: This is to prevent a dead end or a neck in the bottle, as you call it; this is a part of the Raymond Boulevard improvement from the new Pennsylvania Railroad Station all the way through to New and Lock Streets which was urged upon us shortly after the making of the agreement for the building of the City Railway, so that there will be a continuous highway from the Pennsylvania Station over the top of the City Railway as far as New and Lock Streets at this time.

Mr. Zemel: Then do I understand it is the intention of the Commission later to acquire the post office property, or part of it, because as I see it now the post office is right in the way.

Mayor Congleton: Congressman Lehlbach has introduced a bill in Congress which has the approval of the Treasury Department which controls the post office. Another bill gives us the right to go in under the edge of the one-story building so as to not hold up the construction of the City Railway. It will be a continuous street.

Mr. Zemel: He objected to the ordinance as providing that the work shall be done as a general improvement. He said that the proposed improvement would give the Kresge Store additional street frontage.

Mayor Congleton: The reason for the ordinance being as it is, Mr. Zemel, you have referred to the Kresge property. We have negotiated, as I understand an agreement with the Kresge Company permitting us to have entrance and access through their building which does not make it necessary for the City to condemn that right, and it will be gotten either one way or the other.

Mr. Zemel: Of course, I realize that the Kresge Company is not required to give the City a right of way.

Mayor Congleton: And the post office property cannot be assessed; it is government property.

Mr. Zemel: I realize that, sir. But while I realize that, it is desirable to have the right of way—

Commissioner Gillen: You mean to have the assessment zone there?

Mr. Zemel: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Gillen: Not only the abutting properties, but other properties.

Mr. Zemel: Whatever property is peculiarly benefited, as providing in the Home Rule Act, just as is being done on Mulberry Street at the present time and this afternoon hearings are being held. It seems to me in fairness to the property owners they ought to pay whatever is proper. As for the Kresge property and other properties along there, I don't know their names, it is very kind of them to give a right of way either gratuitous or for some other consideration; nevertheless, it has been the practice of assessing the property peculiarly benefited in any event, and when you realize if the Kresge Company gives the City a right of way through there, that right of way will be as much a benefit to them as it is to the City in that it will bring customers there and make it more convenient for customers to get into their store from the City Railway. I cannot see why that should be any reason for the other property owners not to share in some part of the cost of this improvement.

Mr. Herbert J. Hannoch, 17 Academy Street: Mr. Mayor, may I read objections which I wish to file with you in connection with this ordinance? I have entitled this, in the matter of the ordinance and I addressed it to Board of Commissioners by Alexander S. Rice and Louis Hood as executors and trustees under the last will and testament of Florence R. Strauss, and as substituted administrators of the will annexed under the Estate of Bernard Strauss, as holders of title to the real estate of which Bernard Strauss died seized, which is situated on the westerly side of Halsey Street immediately south of the Morris Canal; and Irving Strauss, the life tenant.

The following communication was then received and read:

In the Matter of the Proposed Ordinance of The City of Newark entitled "An Ordinance for the Opening of Raymond Boulevard from a point about 220 feet West of Broad Street westerly to Plane Street."

Alexander S. Rice and Louis Hood, as Executors of and Trustees under the Last Will and Testament of Florence R. Strauss, deceased, and as Substitutionary Administrators, C. T. A. under the will of Bernard Strauss, deceased, as holders of the title to real estate of which Bernard Strauss died seized, situated on the westerly side of Halsey Street immediately South of the old Morris Canal, and Irving Rice Strauss, as life tenant therein, herewith present their protest and remonstrance against the adoption of the above entitled ordinance which had its first reading on March 16, 1932, and which will be taken up for further consideration before final passage at the meeting of the Board of Commissioners on Wednesday, April 6, 1932.

The ordinance contemplates the taking of a plot of land on the westerly side of Halsey Street where it is crossed by the old Morris Canal immediately South of the Canal, having a frontage of 31.41 feet, an approximate depth of 159 feet and a rear width of 30.80 feet.

Some months ago the Commissioners authorized the taking of this same land under the Eminent Domain Act. The avowed purpose of such taking was the construction of a City Railway and the laying of a public highway. Under the proceedings taken by the City of Newark, the value of the land so to be taken, together with the damage to the remainder, was determined to be $410,000.00. The Commissioners were dissatisfied with this award and took steps to abandon the proceedings. It is now proposed to institute proceedings under the authority of the above named ordinance, to take the same parcel of land for the same purposes contemplated by the earlier proceeding, and it has not been concealed that the reason for the contemplated action is to have a new assessment of damages conducted by other commissioners, to wit; the Board of Commissioners of Assessment, in the expectation of a lower award. The foregoing statement of facts demonstrates that the abandonment of the first proceeding was specious and not bona fide. Such an abandonment is not authorized by law, for, otherwise a corporation clothed with the right of eminent domain would be empowered "to abandon any judicial ascertainment that does not conform to its wishes and through the instrumentality of a new procedure submit anew the question of just compensation" until an award was reached which the condemnor would "give undue advantage to one of the parties to the controversy and work a rank injustice on the citizen and property owner." Objection is, therefore, made to the present proceeding at this time for the preservation of the objectors' rights in the litigation which must ensue upon the adoption of the ordinance and to negative any contention that objectors' silence constitutes consent or waiver; and attention is called to the fact that the ordinance undertakes to create a new public highway of a public highway already in existence.

There are other objections to the taking of the land under the proposed ordinance which relate to the act under which the Commissioners are operating and involve both legal and constitutional questions. It is not deemed necessary at this time to particularize the objections beyond stating that the taking of the objectors' land under the proposed ordinance would be a taking without due process of law, and would compel the objectors to participate in a hearing in which there is no process for the compulsory attendance of witnesses or the production of documents.

Dated: April 4th, 1932.

Respectfully submitted,
Louis Hood.

For himself and Alexander S. Rice,

Executors of and Trustees under the will of Florence R. Strauss, and Substitutionary Administrators, C. T. A. under the will of Bernard Strauss, deceased, holders of the title, and as attorney for Irving Rice Strauss, life tenant.

Ordered referred to Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: It is quite apparent, Mr. Hannotch, that your clients want to have their cake and eat it too. The reason that we were forced to take this proceeding is because you, for the very people who have signed this protest, applied for a writ of certiorari attacking our proceedings for the taking of the land for the City Railway. We abandoned those proceedings when your writ was allowed, and have proceeded in the manner that you said in your application for a writ of certiorari that we should proceed.

Mr. Hannotch: I suppose it will do no good—

• Mayor Congleton: I would ask that the further consideration of the ordinance, after anyone who desires to be heard on it has been heard, be postponed for a week. This protest may act as a veto, I don't know. But I ask that further consideration of the ordinance be laid over for one week.

Commissioner Murray: I so move you.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to order and cause the change and establishment of the Grade of Raymond Boulevard from a point 105.19 feet east of the easterly curb line of Cherry Street to a point 291 feet east of the easterly curb line of Raymond Plaza East, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Harry Lichtman, 241 Frelinghuysen Avenue: We do not feel that it can be fairly said that this improvement will benefit our property.

Mayor Congleton: If it does not, your property will not be assessed.

Mr. Lichtman: I thought that the notice was itself a notice that our property would be assessed.

Mayor Congleton: It is a notice that the property may be assessed if it is benefited. If it is not, it won't be.

Mr. Lichtman: I feel that the improvement is part of the general improvement in connection with the new station, and therefore is an improvement that should be borne by the City at large.

Mayor Congleton: You will have your day in court before the Assessment Commission to argue that question. The point is if it is not done in this fashion and the property is benefited it cannot be assessed.

Mr. Herbert J. Hannotch, 17 Academy Street: May I, with respect to this ordinance, call attention to the fact that there is affected by this ordinance the plant of the Borden Company, known as M. Augenblick & Brother, on the south side of the canal.

Mayor Congleton: The north side.

Mr. Hannoch: The north side of the canal. This proposed ordinance, as all concede, will of necessity require a complete reconstruction of that building. It is going to put them out of business for some six months. I think the City builders and the experts who have been advising your department have so stated. The damages that may arise in connection with the reconstruction of the building are liable to be quite large. I am simply mentioning it, because, it seems when damages become large everybody seems to be criticized. I am telling you now what is liable to happen.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

(No response).

No one else appearing, Commissioner Murray moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance to order and cause the Change and Establishment of the Grade of Raymond Boulevard from a point 105.19 feet east of the easterly curb line of Cherry Street to a point 291 feet east of the easterly curb line of Raymond Plaza East.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen,

Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The Clerk then read the ordinance by sections:

Title declared open to amendment.

Section 1 declared open to amendment.

Section 2 declared open to amendment.

Section 3 declared open to amendment.

Section 4 declared open to amendment.

The ordinance was declared open to amendment in all its parts.

Commissioner Murray moved that the ordinance be adopted on second reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray moved that said ordinance be ordered to a third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray moved that the ordinance be taken up on third reading and final passage.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray moved that the title of "An ordinance to Order and Cause the Change and Establishment of the Grade of Raymond Boulevard from a point 105.19 feet east of the easterly curb line of Cherry Street to a point 291 feet east of the easterly curb line of Raymond Plaza East," be taken for its third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the title of the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to Order and Cause the Change and Establishment of the Grade of Raymond Boulevard from a point 105.19 feet east of easterly curb line of Cherry Street to a point 291 feet east of the easterly curb line of Raymond Plaza East.

The ordinance having been read three times, was then declared to be upon its third and final passage.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, by an act of the Legislature of 1932, and a prior resolution by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, the Receiver of Taxes was authorized to accept pre-payment of 1932 taxes, based on the amount paid by the owner in 1931, with the understanding that the over-payment would be refunded after the correct assessment had been determined; and,

WHEREAS, the Receiver has collected from various taxpayers sums in excess of the amount which they should properly pay, amounting to Thirty-Eight Thousand Four Hundred Sixteen Dollars and Seventy-Four Cents ($38,416.74);

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, that the sum of Thirty-Eight Thousand Four Hundred Sixteen Dollars and Seventy-Four Cents ($38,416.74) be appropriated to John Howe, Receiver of Taxes, to be deposited by him in a special bank account to be known as "Tax Refund Account," and from there paid out to all taxpayers who have heretofore paid amounts in excess of their proper assessments.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Joseph Schilizzi (Factory Associates, Inc., owner) for the construction of a poultry market; premises 133-137 Halsted Street;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above described.

Commissioner Egan: I think this matter is so controversial that we City Commissioners ought to inspect this neighborhood. If it is agreeable to the other members of the Commission, I move you it be laid over for one week so an inspection can be made.

Mr. Edward Fenias: Mr. Pappalardo says his counsel is not here, and I have no wish to press this case.

Commissioner Egan: We want to lay it over to inspect it.

Mr. Pappalardo: I think that would be better

Mr. Fenias: Do you wish to hear our evidence this morning?

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Pappalardo, you are opposed to it?

Mr. Pappalardo: I am opposed to it.

Mayor Congleton: Wouldn't you rather make your remarks, Mr. Fenias, when the other party is here and after the Commission has inspected it, because we will then have the location much more definitely fixed in our minds.

Mr. Fenias: I would prefer that.

Mayor Congleton: Will your attorney be here next week?

Mr Pappalardo: I think he will.

Mayor Congleton: Tell him it is coming up next week.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Nathan Goldsmith, 60 Park Place:

A permit was granted for a parking space and I think it came before this Commission last week, or the week before last, and it was held over pending an application for a gasoline station. The matter came up yesterday and it was referred to this Commission.

Mayor Congleton: The Board of Adjustment did not take any action on the gasoline station?

Mr. Goldsmith: They took this action: There wasn't any objection, but they thought that you gentlemen had something in mind—

Mayor Congleton: What we did, we postponed action on the parking station to see what action they would take on the gas station and we would deal with them both at the same time so as not to have to bring people, if they were interested in it, up here twice. That was our only reason for postponing it last week.

Mr. Goldsmith: Their only reason for referring the application to this Commission was because there was certain things you were supposed to have in mind.

Commissioner Gillen: Is there a building on it now?

Mr. Goldsmith: The building is coming down.

Mayor Congleton: The state highway is coming through.

Mr. Goldsmith: All of it is taken down. In other words, the City is taking the balance of it down—

Commissioner Gillen: They take part of it and you take the rest down?

Mr. Goldsmith: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: We settled with Mr. Goldsmith for a change of grade for merely what it would cost to tear his building down.

Mr. Goldsmith: The City is grading it.

Mayor Congleton: Have you got the application for the parking station, Mr. Rankin? It came up last week and we were informed there was to be an application for a gasoline station, and we laid it over to them up at the same time. The Board of Adjustment did not take any action, evidently.

Commissioner Murray: I do not see any reason why he should not be given assurance to go ahead with the parking station.

Mr. Goldsmith: The reason they did not pass on the gas station yesterday, as I understood it, was they did not know what the Commission had in mind.

Mayor Congleton: Whether we were going to grant the parking station permit?

Commissioner Murray: I move that we reconsider the vote of last week laying over the application for the parking station for two weeks and move that he should be granted permission to proceed with his parking station.

Commissioner Egan: Second the motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of John Klinger & Son, Inc. (J & R Corporation, Julia Osterweil, et al, owners) for an automobile parking station; premises 1063-1077 Raymond Boulevard; for one year, on condition that there be but one entrance and exit for each street, that lighting standards be not over 15 feet high, that a steel wire fence be erected around the property, and that no signs be erected without the approval of the Board of Adjustment;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

The following communication was received and read:

Board of Adjustment
City Hall

Newark, N. J. April 5, 1932.

The Board of Commissioners
of The City of Newark

Honorable Sirs:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, that the following applications for variations from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

344 Elizabeth Avenue, Tide Water Oil Sales Corporation (United Real Estate Co., owner); addition to present gasoline station, to be used for greasing of cars;

967 Eighteenth Avenue, Joseph Szikora, owner; rebuilding of present gasoline station;

72-80 Mt. Vernon Place, Handler Realty Company, owner; construction of stores, extending to Florence Avenue property line and beyond the prevailing set back line;

249 Walnut Street, Bertha Grossman, owner; construction of a gasoline station.

The Board of Adjustment
R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Received, copy to be sent to each Commissioner, and further action postponed for two weeks.

Mr. Charles Handler, Kinney Building:

There was a matter before the Zoning Board yesterday, the Board of Adjustment, and I appear today because I made public notice of it yesterday before the people up before the Board of Adjustment here, that I would appear here today for a suspension of the rules to see if it might be approved of.

Mayor Congleton: What case?

Mr. Handler: 72-80 Mt. Vernon Place, where we filed our plans to build a row of stores and we followed the code that has been in existence for several years.

Mayor Congleton: Were there any objectors?

Mr. Handler: There was a few objectors but the Board passed it.

Mayor Congleton: Personally, I won't vote to suspend the rules where there are objectors. They know our procedure that it is laid over for two weeks and then comes up.

Mr. Handler: If your Honor please, the objectors made a suggestion at that time that the side of the building, that is, the rear of the building be stuccoed or covered with face brick 25 feet in from the street and that would take care of their objection. That amendment was made by the Zoning Board, and we are willing to stand by it.

Commissioner Egan: Is this for more stores up there?

Mr. Handler: Another store building. The property has been zoned for stores at the time when the zoning ordinance went through for the Sheldon Park block, they took out one block for a community park section.

Commissioner Egan: Then why was it necessary for you to go before the Board of Adjustment?

Mr. Handler: When the architect prepared his plans, of course, he followed the code which he followed a year and a half ago which was passed without question, and in the meantime the company bound itself with a contract to build, a mortgage has been granted, and they have been held up two weeks on starting work. There is a time limit set in the contract and a penalty for non-performance. And I feel certain——

Mayor Congleton: Who held it up for the year or so that you speak of? Why was it held up for that long a time?

Mr. Handler: It was not held up any long time.

Mayor Congleton: I thought you said your contract was made a year ago.

Mr. Handler: No I said the other building was put up a year ago.

Commissioner Egan: The question is the setback of seven feet?

Mr. Handler: Yes.

Commissioner Egan: Your interpretation of the ordinance was you did not require a setback because the ordinance, being ambiguous—in the mind of whom?

Mr. Handler: The ambiguity only came up at this time when we filed—

Commissioner Egan: By the Building Department?

Mr. Handler: I believe so. Superintendent Bigelow—of course, I may state this—told me that he believed our interpretation was correct. I think the question came up on some Clinton Avenue property and the Law Department filed an opinion clearing up the ambiguity the other way.

Mayor Congleton: Clearing it up or making it more ambiguous?

Mr. Handler: I think so. There was no objection, and I felt the Board would pass it anyway two weeks from today, but to prevent any legal technicalities we will want to go ahead we are ready, and I don't think any harm will be done. I did announce up there yesterday that I would appear here this morning, and I don't think there will be any hardship worked on anybody.

Commissioner Egan: Were the objectors satisfied after Mr. Handler's presentation of the case?

Mr. Rankin: I think the stuccoing of the rear wall—some of the objectors were located quite a ways away from this place.

Mr. Handler: There wasn't one objector there who was on the same side of the street or near our property. There were only three there.

Commissioner Egan: How big a building are you putting up?

Mr. Handler: Fifty deep by 120 long—120 frontage.

Commissioner Egan: One story?

Mr. Handler: One story. A very beautiful store job. We have a duplicate of the same thing we told them we would give them, a very fine type of architecture. And I would not urge this if I thought for a moment it was in the nature of putting something over on somebody; but it is an economic necessity for us to get going.

Mayor Congleton: It is part of that land that was annexed from Maplewood?

Mr. Handler: It is part of that same tract.

Commissioner Egan: What street is it on?

Mr. Handler: Mt. Vernon Place, corner of Florence Avenue, on the southwest corner. We are allowed to go in one hundred feet for business, and we are only going in fifty feet.

Commissioner Egan: This brings you in fifty feet?

Mr. Handler: That is all.

Commissioner Egan: Are there any residence right next door to this particular lot?

Mr. Handler: No, there is fifty feet between our building and the first residence.

Mayor Congleton: What is the setback on that house?

Mr. Handler: Why, on the map it shows fifteen feet, but I think it is closer to ten feet; and the man who owns that house and the row of houses right there did not come down to protest.

Mayor Congleton: All that you say, Mr. Handler, is probably so, but we have been criticized a number of times when we acted in this fashion because there have been some objectors that wanted to be heard. Personally, I do not believe that where there are objectors and it involves a setback line and there is a house within fifty feet of it, that we have any right to deprive those people of their day before this Board. I hate to see any building held up, but at the same time I think that the property owners who took the trouble to come before the Board of Adjustment, if they want to appear before this Board they are entitled to their day.

Mr. Handler: Your Honor, I do not want to urge anything that might result in criticism to the Board.

Mayor Congleton: Perhaps you have not been here to some of our meetings when we thought we were helping building and we have done what you have asked, and then had property owners come before us.

Mr. Handler: Your Honor, I wondered if we could do this: Is it possible to get that approval, because the contract is let and they are ready to go to work, and the contract means a great deal because the stores have to be ready by the first of May.

Commissioner Egan: Why can't you notify the property owners within the zone that the matter will be considered next Wednesday. Let us compromise on a week. We are likely to be criticized if we pass upon it today without giving the other side a chance; and I think you will find labor available to do it in a hurry.

Mr. Handler: All right, I will withdraw my application.

Commissioner Egan: Do you want to do that, let them know by next week?

Mr. Handler: The Building Department told us they would give us a provisional permit. I think we will start operating under that and let it take its regular course without making a cause for criticism of anybody.

Mayor Congleton: I think that would be better.

Does anyone else have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission?

Mr. Herbert J. Hannoeh, 17 Academy Street:

May I come back again? I represent the property owner at the southeast corner of Broad and Chestnut Street. In July of last year you introduced and adopted a resolution establishing a setback line of forty feet. In the fall we asked permission to put a gasoline station in there so that we could rent it out for parking purposes and get some income. The Board of Adjustment approved it, and you rejected it, and therefore we were not allowed to go on. A real estate man told us that he thought he might be able to rent stores from plans, so I prepared a set of plans and had them submitted to the Building Department for approval, and the Building Department told me they are in perfect accord with the Building Ordinance, but because of the setback line they have instructions not to award building permits. I appeared before the Tax Board in connection with the assessment. We do not dispute the amount of assessment, the rate, but say there is forty feet of land that we cannot use, and they say it is just too bad. Now, if you will tell me what I should do with that property, I would like to know. You won't allow me to build on it, you won't give me a permit to temporarily for a parking place.

Mayor Congleton: You have a permit for a parking place.

Mr. Hannoeh: I want a gasoline station there. You say I have to pay taxes on it and you do not go ahead with your ordinance to complete the widening of Chestnut Street.

Commissioner Egan: And we will not for a long while.

Mr. Hannotch: Now, then, in that situation I should think that we should at least have the right to use this property in such a way as we feel we ought to be able to use it, without being hampered and the difficulty we are in. Now, you tell me what to do with that property.

Mayor Congleton: I think the Building Department has misconceived—

Mr. Hannotch: They have a big map across there.

Mayor Congleton: That may be, but until the ordinance is passed—I think they misconceive the legal effect of the first proceeding that we took.

Mr. Hannotch: Can somebody tell them they are wrong

Commissioner Egan: I think if you are courageous enough to build stores on that corner now—

Mr. Hannotch: I am going to draw plans and try to rent them from the plans.

Mayor Congleton: I think that matter will be straightened out with the Building Department.

Mr. Hannotch: May I ask one other thing: This afternoon there is set for hearing before your Board of Assessments the question of the assessment to be made to property owners for the widening of Mulberry Street. I appear on behalf of the Alice Gummer-sell Estate that owns property on Mulberry Street south of Market. And you have adopted an ordinance widening Mulberry Street from Market to Mechanic. The hearings have progressed and have covered a period of time—I think they started last fall, and the City has not yet completed the introduction of its testimony. The last hearing was held in February and we are unable to get any word as to whether the hearings are going to proceed or whether the project is going to be abandoned. In the meantime the tenants having been told the property is going to be abandoned, have moved out. One of them has built himself a store across the street. We cannot lease the property. And we appeared before the Assessment Commissioners and asked them whether they would not require the City either to complete its hearings or to discontinue, and they said that was a matter which we would have to bring before your body. We are now confronted this afternoon with a hearing in which it is proposed to assess us for the widening of North Mulberry Street. We probably should be assessed, but we cannot tell how much we own. If you go through with your improvements we own a piece of property of one size, and if you do not go through with the improvements we own a property of another size. We cannot go on with hearings, the Board of Assessment will not compel a completion of the proceedings, and our tenants have moved out and we cannot do anything there.

Commissioner Egan: There is nothing complex about that.

Mr. Hannotch: But as soon as we proceed to court to ask for a writ to ask you to either fish, cut bait or go ashore—

Commissioner Egan: How you love those writs.

Mr. Hannotch: If you were to own that property, Commissioner, and found your tenants moved out because of the action of the City, it would be a different situation. Now, we cannot do anything; we are deprived of the income. We assumed when the project went through that it was going to be completed and we prepared a set of plans and specifications—

Mayor Congleton: So did we.

Mr. Hannoch: Can't we be told if you are either going through or not going through?

Mayor Congleton: I would suggest that you get in touch with Mr. Casale. I had a conference with him yesterday on this situation.

Mr. Hannoch: Mr. Groel has been handling it. I have been doing all my negotiating with him—

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Casale attends the hearings before the Assessment Commission.

Mr. Hannoch: Yes, but Mr. Groel has been given the South Mulberry Street job.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Casale yesterday had a long conference with me. Now, maybe he came at the request of Mr. Groel, but if you will see him—

Mr. Hannoch: This hearing is going on this afternoon and I told Mr. Soffel would be here today to find out what he should do this afternoon.

Mayor Congleton: You see Mr. Casale.

Mr. Henry Green: He requested that a public welfare conference, based on hard times conditions, be held in anticipation of local conditions next winter.

Mayor Congleton: For what purpose? Can't you state what you want? We have our agencies set up taking care of these matters. If you have something to recommend it will be given consideration.

Mr. Green: Well, I think I have stated it many times.

Mayor Congleton: What do you want to present to the conference?

Mr. Green: You are doing that in a friendly mood, I suppose?

Mayor Congleton: Surely.

Mr. Green: I know you are. The cause of the conference is that your present situation with the lodging houses are not large enough, that is admitted by Commissioner Murray. He asked for other quarters. The last time I was here I said, and I think Commissioner Egan supported that as well as Commissioner Gillen—I don't know exactly, but I think Commissioner Howe is not against it—you are the only one that was in doubt—during the summer we will need sandwiches for those people—

Mayor Congleton: No, I did not say any such thing.

Mr. Green: Well, whether I read the paper wrong or whether the paper put it in wong—

Commissioner Egan: Let me set you straight. The Mayor was perhaps more expressive in his desire to take care of those who were in need of food than any other member of the Commission. For once we will have to chalk you up wrong.

Mr. Green: I was wrong once, and I don't expect to be wrong this time only; I expect if I live longer—it is only dead men that are never wrong.

Mayor Congleton: It is a question of lodging houses and feeding?

Mr. Green: Lodging and feeding.

Mayor Congleton: Let me set you straight with the City Commission: We have that matter in hand, and Commissioner Murray is today getting some prices on fixing up another building; and the question of feeding has been discussed and determined by the Board of Commissioners.

Mr. Green: You mean it has been agreed upon?

Mayor Congleton: Yes. And the papers carried that also.

Mr. Green: He suggested that the city supply food to those unemployed and their families who now depend on charity. He described a man employed on emergency relief construction. This man's child begged Mr. Green for five cents with which to buy milk.

Mayor Congleton: If he is working for the City he is getting $4 a day.

Mr. Green: If he works for the State Highway he gets only $3?

Commissioner Egan: $4.

Mr. Green: If he is paid for three days he gets $12. If he has a rainy day he gets $8. If he has two rainy days he only gets $4. He says, "My kid is asking me for five cents to contribute for milk in the classroom." He says, "I cannot afford to give it to him, and still that kid pesters me to death." We ought to find out how many parents of these children are out of work, how many children go foodless. Furthermore, Commissioner Murray has provided sleeping space for the male unfortunates. Do we know how many female unfortunates are covering the streets of Newark and wanting a sandwich and a night's lodging. If we were living in the Third Ward we would see. All right, let us make provisions for men only. But there are as many female unemployed today as there are male unemployed, and I know we are started in the way where you will cooperate, the housing situation, the general situation, the feeding situation; it requires a conference. We ought to have the Red Cross. That organization is organized for the purpose of taking care of some of these unfortunates. Are they doing anything in this City?

Mayor Congleton: They are.

Mr. Green: Well, if they are, I am sorry that it is done in that manner that I cannot notice it; it is hardly noticeable. The situation is not getting better; people are getting laid off; you are having more unemployed. And I believe we ought to have a conference. We ought to have the State Tenement Department as well as the City Housing Corporation, including the Board of Health. In the Evening News printed this week they said that conditions in the Third Ward and a few other wards are darker than they were in the darkest days of darkest Russia. And do you believe me, I am telling the truth, and I know it. There is prostitution there and there are bad houses. Of course, Dr. Craster answered the Evening News. He is evidently under the impression that the conditions are bad in the Third Ward and we must take the people out of it. I am of a different opinion. I think we must go after the conditions and not after the people.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission?

Mr. Samuel B. Seidel: He also described general conditions due to the hard times.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission?

Mr. Maurice J. Donovan, 38 Underwood Street:

I have an application in for an alteration to a present gas station at 967 Eighteenth Avenue, and this was approved yesterday by the Board of Adjustment, and there were not any objections there. Now, it has taken us five weeks to reach this point, and inasmuch as we would like to start operations at once, and it will afford employment for about ten men, I appeal to you to consider this application.

Commissioner Murray: Where is this?

Mr. Donovan: 967 Eighteenth Avenue.

Mr. Rankin: It is the rebuilding of an existing gas station. The present office building is to be removed and a new one built to the south.

Commissioner Gillen: Did the Board pass favorably on it?

Mr. Donovan: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Gillen: No objections to it?

Mr. Rankin: None at our hearing.

Commissioner Gillen: I move the rules be suspended.

Commissioner Murray: Second the motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Joseph Szikora, owner, for the rebuilding of present gasoline station, relocating pumps and building; premises 967 Eighteenth Avenue; on condition that new building sets back at least three feet from Alexander Street property line;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above described.

Jno. F. Murray, Jr.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: I want to announce for the Commission that last week we had very extensive hearings on numerous ordinances for the licensing of itinerant merchants and peddlers, gasoline stations, and so forth. The Commission has had those ordinances up in conference and numerous changes are being made. We are giving notice now that because of the changes the ordinances cannot be acted upon next week, and anyone who is interested in them need not attend next week if they do not care to, because there will be no final action taken. New ordinances or amendments will be introduced, and they have to be advertised and be laid over for two weeks. We are simply giving this notice so that the interested parties need not come next week if they do not care to.

Newark, N. J., April 4, 1932.

Mr. Peter O'Toole,
City Clerk,
Newark, N. J.

Dear Sir:—

We are the leasee of a plot of ground Numbers 18 to 24 Paris Street, Newark, which is adjacent to our property and which is used in our business, and have had several requests by our customers to use same for parking their automobiles during baseball games. For your information, this property is 120 front and 225 feet deep.

We have been informed that a permit to do so is necessary and if this is the case kindly advise what steps are necessary.

Thanking you for your attention.
Very truly yours,
John J. Sturm.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen,
Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

A P P R O V E D :

JEROME T. CONGLETON
W. J. EGAN
JOHN HOWE
CHARLES P. GILLEN
JNO. F. MURRAY, JR.

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., April 13, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark., at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of the meeting of April 6, 1932, were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to license hawkers, peddlers, transient merchants and itinerant vendors and to provide penalties for the violation of the provisions thereof and to put into operation and effect an Act entitled "An Act to license and regulate the business of transient merchants or itinerant vendors in this State," being Chapter 88 of the Pamphlet Laws of the State of New Jersey for the year 1931, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Mayor Congleton: New ordinances are being prepared. I do not see the sense of carrying these along and would ask that the ordaining clause be stricken out.

Commissioner Murray moved that the ordaining clause be stricken out.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: All of the ordinances pending before us now with respect to the licensing of various businesses will be stricken out and new ones meeting some of the conditions are not ready. When they are introduced they have to be advertised again for two weeks, so that everybody interested will have notice. These ordinances we will dispose of at this meeting.

The City Clerk presented An Ordinance concerning the operation and maintenance of open-air parking stations in the City of Newark, and providing for the licensing thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Commissioner Murray moved that the ordaining clause of the ordinance be stricken out.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance concerning the operation and maintenance of gasoline stations and gasoline filling tanks in the City of Newark and providing for the licensing thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for the hearing on the same.

Commissioner Murray moved that the ordaining clause of the ordinance be stricken out.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented an ordinance "WHEREAS: The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark believe that a majority of those who labor in the diversified industrial occupations of the city are in favor of an hour's daylight saving, and that it is beneficial for mental improvement and physical recreation," and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

(No response).

No one appearing, Commissioner Gillen moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

"WHEREAS: The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark believe that a majority of those who labor in the diversified industrial occupations of the city are in favor of an hour's daylight saving, and that it is beneficial for mental improvement and physical recreation."

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the ordinance by sections:

Title declared open to amendment.

Section 1 declared open to amendment.

Section 2 declared open to amendment.

Section 3 declared open to amendment.

The ordinance was declared open to amendment in all its parts.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the ordinance be adopted on second reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that said ordinance be ordered to a third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the ordinance be taken up on third reading and final passage.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the title of "WHEREAS: The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark believe that a majority of those who labor in the diversified industrial occupations of the city are in favor of an hour's daylight saving, and that it is beneficial for mental improvement and physical recreation," be taken for its third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the title of the ordinance as follows:

WHEREAS; The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark believe that a majority of those who labor in the diversified industrial occupations of the city are in favor of an hour's daylight saving, and that it is beneficial for mental improvement and physical recreation.

The ordinance having been read three times was then declared to be upon its third and final passage.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An Ordinance providing for the opening of Raymond Boulevard from a point about 220 feet west of Broad Street westerly to Plane Street, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Commissioner Murray moved that the ordinance be laid over until April 20th.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The Clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance providing for the planting of shade trees and the erection of guards for the protection of the same in certain streets and portions of streets of the City of Newark during the year 1932.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, Do Ordain:

That shade trees, with guards for the protection of the same, be planted in the following named streets and portions of streets of the City of Newark during the year 1932, or later, to wit:

Arsdale Place, Bayview Avenue, Crescent Avenue, Eastern Parkway, Ellery Avenue, Field Place, Florence Avenue, Forest Place, Goodwin Avenue, Grand Avenue, Grove Terrace, Hansbury Avenue, Huntington Terrace, Ivy Street, Keer Avenue, Lehigh Avenue, Melrose Avenue, Midland Place, Norman Road, Oak Street, Parkview Terrace, Richelieu Terrace, Saint James Place, Sixteenth Avenue, South Munn Avenue, Schuyler Avenue, Shepherd Avenue, Synott Place, Tuxedo Parkway, Van Velsor Place, Vermont Avenue, Wainwright Street, Woodbine Avenue, Wyndmoor Avenue, under and by virtue of the provisions of an act entitled "An Act providing for the regulating, planting, care and control of shade trees and shrubbery upon the public highway, and in municipal parks; and for the care, control and improvement of such parks; authorizing the continuance of existing shade tree commissions and prescribing their powers and duties (Revision of 1915), approved April 14, 1915, as set forth and shown on a plan for said work on file in the office of the Department of Parks and Public Property of the City of Newark."

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that April 27th, 1932, at 11 A. M., or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place when and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage, and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading as provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to require all officers and employes of the City of Newark to be bona fide residents therein as a condition of their continued employment.

WHEREAS, under the provisions of Chapter 134 of the pamphlet laws of 1924, the Civil Service Commission is required to limit the eligibility of those entering the examination or seeking appointment to positions and employments in the classified service, where the service is to be rendered in a particular municipality and payment for such service is made from the funds of such municipality, to the qualified residents of the municipality in which the service is to be rendered and from the funds of which the employe is to be paid; and,

WHEREAS, it is also the opinion of this Board that it is the best interests of the City, as a proper and reasonable condition of their continued employment, to require that all officers and employes of this Board be bona fide residents of the city during the term of employment;

THEREFORE, The Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark Do Ordain:

1. That all officers and employees of the Board of Commissioners now in the employ of or hereafter to be employed by the City of Newark be and they are hereby required, as a condition of their continued employment to have their place of abode in the City of Newark and to be bona fide residents therein. A bona fide resident, for the purpose of this ordinance, is a person having a permanent domicile within the city and one which has not been adopted with the intention of again taking up or claiming a previous residence acquired outside of the city limits. Failure of any officer or employee, except as hereinafter provided, to comply with this regulation shall be deemed a sufficient cause for removal or discharge from the services of the city.

2. The Director of any department is hereby authorized in his discretion, for good cause shown, to permit any officer or employee of the city in his department to remain in the employ of the city without complying with the provisions hereof, where—

(a) The health of any officer or employee necessitates residence outside of the city limits;

(b) The nature of the employment is such as to require residence outside of the city limits;

(c) Special circumstances attach permitting residence outside of the city limits.

3. If any officer or employee of the city not now a bona fide resident having his actual place of abode therein is unable to comply immediately with the provisions of this ordinance he shall file with the Director of the Department in which he is employed, within ten days after the adoption of this ordinance, a statement setting forth his actual non-resident address, and said Director shall fix a time within which the officer or employee must comply with the provisions of this ordinance, which time shall be not more than one year from the filing of said statement.

4. All ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions hereof be and the same are hereby repealed.

5. This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon final passage and publication according to law.

It appearing that Sections 1 and 2 of the Meadow Brook Sewer having been completed, and it further appearing that on September 2, 1931, this Commission passed a resolution appropriating a sum to make the final payment on the said sewer, and it further appearing that the question has now arisen whether or not such resolution constituted acceptance of the work under the conditions and in compliance with Chapter 75 of the Laws of 1918 and the amendments and supplements thereof so that certain materialmen, who are attempting to collect from the surety on the bond furnished by the contractor on the said work in accordance with the said statute are having difficulty; it is

RESOLVED, that since in fact the said sewer, both Sections 1 and 2 have been completed and were in use on September 2, 1931, and that since the said sewer had been in fact accepted by this commission when the final payment was authorized on September 2, 1931, that it was the intention of this commission on September 2, 1931, in passing the resolution above referred to to accept the work; but, if for any reason it shall appear that the resolution of September 2, 1931, was not sufficient acceptance of the said work to comply with the said statute, it is further RESOLVED that the said Sections 1 and 2 of the Meadow Brook Sewer be and the same are hereby accepted.

The City Clerk presented the application for Joseph Schilizzi (Factory Associates, Inc., owner) for the construction of a poultry market; premises 133-137 Halsted Street.

Mayor Congleton: Are the parties here ready with that matter?

Mr. Edward Fenias, 1060 Broad Street: He urged granting of a permit.

Mayor Congleton: How long has your man owned the property, Mr. Fenias?

Mr. Fenias: I don't know.

Mayor Congleton: A considerable time?

Mr. Fenias: I don't know. He is here.

Mayor Congleton: Is there a building on it now?

Mr. Fenias: There is no building on it now.

Commissioner Murray: No building on that block except on the corner.

Mr. Fenias: That is the point. And, as a matter of fact, we have made this concession to the objector, that we were willing to set this chicken market back thirty-odd feet in order to convince him that our intentions were O. K., but evidently there is ill feeling between these two and no rational argument would convince the objector that we should erect this chicken market.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard in opposition?

Mr. J. Victor D'Aloia, 744 Broad Street:

I cannot understand why Mr. Fenias says there is only one objector. I have fourteen property owners in the immediate vicinity of this site who object to this chicken market.

Commissioner Murray: Where are these objectors?

Mr. D'Aloia: They are here.

Commissioner Murray: Where do they live?

Mr. D'Aloia: I will give you their addresses. One of them is Ralph Loprete, 114 Telford Street.

Commissioner Murray: He is not within 200 feet of the place.

Mr. D'Aloia: He owns property in the neighborhood. (Mr. D'Aloia reads names and addresses of objectors signed to petition of protest.)

Commissioner Murray: I move the matter be laid over for a week to check up the addresses of these objectors to see how many are in the zone.

Mr. D'Aloia: We ask the Board to keep the restrictions imposed by the zoning ordinance intact.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard in opposition?

Commissioner Egan: I will second Commissioner Murray's motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented the application of Joseph Weisberger, owner, for the construction of a poultry market; premises 82-84 Peddie Street.

Mayor Congleton: does anyone else desire to be heard in this matter?

Mr. Edward Schoen: 24 Branford Place:

I am advised that since the matter was before the Commission that those who objected before have no further objection at this time.

Commissioner Murray: Have they been notified to be here?

Mr. Schoen: Yes. Mr. Schoen then spoke in favor of the granting of the permit.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard in this matter? If not, all those in favor of concurring in the resolution of the Board of Adjustment will signify by saying aye; opposed no; the Clerk will call the roll.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared lost by the following votes:

60 Park Place
Newark, N. J., April 12, 1932

Honorable Board of Commissioners,
City of Newark,
City Hall,
Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:

During the latter part of last January you granted me a permit for the erection of a two story building to contain three stores and apartment above, located at the southwest corner of Lyons Avenue and Parkview Terrace, known as No. 128 Lyons Avenue, Newark, New Jersey.

Due to financial difficulties, I have been unable to finance the proposition contemplated. I believe that within three months I shall be in a position to start the project, and would therefore request a three month extension of the permit which you granted to me.

Thanking you kindly,
Very truly yours,
M. B. Warner.

Ordered filed.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, on January 27, 1932, the Board of Commissioners on the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment dated January 5, 1932, adopted a resolution approving the construction of a two-story store and apartment building at 128-130 Lyons Avenue; and

WHEREAS, the applicant, Mark B. Warner, was unable to proceed with the work of construction within the allotted time; therefore be it

RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, that an extension of three months be granted to the said Mark B. Warner or his assigns for the commencement of the aforesaid work, said extension to expire July 27, 1932.

Riker & Riker
24 Commerce Street

Newark, N. J. April 11, 1932.

To the Honorable
The Board of Commissioners,
City Hall,
Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:

On behalf of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Newark, I herewith make application for a permit to use the following described property for cemetery purposes:

Beginning at the intersection of the northerly line of South Orange Avenue and the easterly line of Maybaum Avenue as laid out on the map hereinafter mentioned; thence running (1) north twenty degrees sixteen minutes east along the said easterly side of Maybaum Avenue ninety-nine feet and fifty hundredths of a foot to the southwesterly corner of lot #84 on said map; thence (2) running south sixty-nine degrees forty-four minutes east along the line of said lot #84 fifty feet to the division line between lots #9 and 10 on said map; thence (3) running south twenty degrees sixteen minutes west along said division line ninety-nine feet and thirty hundredths of a foot to the northerly line of South Orange Avenue; thence (4) westerly along said side of South Orange Avenue fifty feet to the point or place of Beginning.

Being known and designated as Lots 10 and 11 as laid out on a map of property of A. Maybaum & Sons, Inc., situated in the City of Newark, N. J., made by Harrison Van Duyne, Surveyor, December 1908.

The above property mentioned adjoins the tract of land recently purchased by my client from the Receiver of Montefiore Cemetery Association and is now being operated as a cemetery. There is erected on said property an old building which is an eye-sore to the surrounding neighborhood. In the event that the permit is granted, said building will be immediately destroyed.

Trusting that this application will receive favorable consideration by your honorable body, I am,

Very truly yours,
Thomas E. Fitzsimmons
Attorney for Roman Catholic Diocese of Newark.

Referred to Law Department.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, our esteemed fellow-citizen Henry F. Hilfers departed this life on Tuesday, April 12, 1932, thus terminating a distinguished career of useful service in the interests of the working people of this city, state and nation; and

WHEREAS, he served with high honor and distinction as financial and corresponding secretary of the Cigar Makers Union, Local 138, for forty years; as secretary of the Essex Trades Council for twenty-five years, as secretary of the New Jersey State Federation of Labor for twenty years, and as general organizer of the American Federation of Labor for many years. As additional evidence of the confidence and trust reposed in him by the working people of his home community, upon the formation of the Union National Bank of Newark, which is owned by the members of organized labor, he was chosen as its Vice-President, and a member of the Board of Directors; and

WHEREAS, Henry F. Hilfers throughout his career stood out as a symbol of the highest ideals of unionism. Possessed of the highest standards of personal honor and integrity, he accomplished an incalculable amount of good for the working people of this nation, both within and without organized labor. Based upon their faith in him as a representative of the best ideals of unionism, industrial, commercial and civic leaders generally sought his counsel and assistance in all matters relating to the labor movement, and unhesitatingly accepted him as a true spokesman in the best interests of the working people. Throughout his entire career, he was a relentless and untiring foe of the forces of evil within the labor movement, and unto the end of his life fought vigorously to eliminate them.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, on behalf of the people of Newark, record this expression of deep loss which the City, and particularly its working people as represented by organized labor, has suffered through the death of Henry F. Hilfers, and that we express to his bereaved family our deep sympathy in the great loss they have sustained.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to present to the Commission this morning?

Mr. Herman Schlesinger: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen, I was more surprised today when I came down Ferry Street and saw the light removed. I would like to find out the reason why those street lights were removed.

Mayor Congleton: Because we did not have any money in the budget to continue all the lights.

Mr. Schlesinger: Wouldn't that be possible to economize somewhere else and leave the lights there?

Mayor Congleton: We have done that too.

Mr. Schlesinger: No, he has no lights in the Ironbound District which is actually a neglected neighborhood. There is no woman today, Mr. Mayor, that is safe enough to go out evenings on Ferry Street. I know the neighborhood more than half a century. And there is not a corner today in the Ironbound District—I am speaking for Ferry Street alone—where a woman can pass she should not be annoyed by young fellows.

Mayor Congleton: Have you made any complaint of that condition to the police?

Mr. Schlesinger: It would not do no good. They cannot put a policeman on every corner.

Mayor Congleton: I do not agree with you.

Mr. Schlesinger: He said the trolley car service was such on Ferry Street that there was more than thirty minutes between cars.

Commissioner Egan: What part of the day was this?

Mr. Schlesinger: Between ten and twelve o'clock yesterday.

Commissioner Egan: Night time or daytime? Morning or evening?

Mr. Schlesinger: Morning. I am not there evenings. Something will have to be done.

Mayor Congleton: There has been no discrimination. When we were considering the budget I stated one way to economize was to cut down on street lighting. It was done, and you have not been discriminated against; Springfield Avenue, Washington Street, Halsey Street, Broad Street, Clinton Avenue, Orange Street, West Market Street and a great many other streets in the City of Newark have had some of their lighting curtailed until such time as we can restore it.

Mr. Schlesinger: I know; but Mr. Mayor, we haven't got the light the same as Springfield Avenue. I did not come here to knock Springfield Avenue, or anything like this. Nevertheless, there was a cluster of lights, there was a white way. We did not have them. Our street was dark as it was.

Mayor Congleton: I will go over it again and see if there are any places where perhaps lights ought to go back; but I can say to you that we cannot go on with the lighting as it was last year. During this year there must be a curtailment of lighting. It is one of the items that we cut for the purpose of reducing the budget.

Mr. Schlesinger: It just so happens on my corner opposite the bank they don't make no lights evenings, they only are small windows. Those corners look something terrible without lights and it is quite dangerous. Then it has quite a traffic there at that. There is no reason why that light should be taken off. Give us service with the trolley cars. There is quite a few more people there.

Mayor Congleton: I will go over the street again and see what I can do.

Mr. Schlesinger: I wish you would look around and see how many stores are empty there.

Mayor Congleton: Well, you know every store cannot have a light in front of it.

Mr. Schlesinger: I don't claim that.

Mayor Congleton: There are stores vacant where there are lights in front of them, so I am not so impressed with that argument. I have been over these streets and have heard these arguments, and some of the stores where there are lights right smack in front of them are vacant, so it cannot be that the store is vacant because there is no lights.

Mr. Schlesinger: But the neighborhood is killed; where there is no light there is no business.

Mayor Congleton: I will go over it myself personally and see what restoration we can make to correct any bad judgment that has been made in the removal of them.

Mr. Schlesinger: It is a cheap neighborhood, mostly business in the evening, nothing doing in the day.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Schlesinger, you think the trolley service down there has been lessened right along?

Mr. Schlesinger: I took it up—as I say, I don't want the man to lose his job, but there is a man that stays and watches the cars. Now, the first car came thirty-nine minutes, it took the next twenty-nine, the third was thirty-three, the fourth twenty-one and the fifth was thirty-seven. I made it my business, because it was always in my brain, people moving away, some of them used to come back to shop yet.

Mayor Congleton: Which line of trolley is that?

Mr. Schlesinger: Ferry Street. They all come as far as Market Street depot and then turn back. They all turn back. The Kinney line coming a number of times and this is the only line what goes to Ferry Street. We business people suffer, property owners suffer. I am paying $5,000 for taxes for Ferry Street and I sweat blood to get that money.

Mr. Louis Adler, 50 Shanley Avenue: In addition, Commissioners, to Mr. Schlesinger's expression at the last time we were up here there was mentioned to us that we were going to benefit a whole lot by improving the station. At the present time, it is only a little short time that we are now suffering by it. The Public Service went ahead and made a loop on Union Street where it cuts off Ferry Street altogether. It takes some time ten or fifteen minutes until a car turns around and you cannot even pass by.

Mayor Congleton: We will look into it and see what we can do.

Commissioner Egan: I think you are right on your trolley service down there.

Mr. Adler: We have terrible trolley service. I was waiting on Broad Street for twenty-five minutes. Then I walked down and came down to Jackson Street, and then ten minutes later I had a trolley car.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak on this particular matter?

Mr. Ernest Scuorzo, 80 Jefferson Street: He said the Ferry Street car service was inefficient.

Mayor Congleton: What car goes down Ferry Street?

Mr. Scuorzo: The South Orange Avenue car that goes down as far as the Pennsylvania station. Very few cars run beyond that.

Mayor Congleton: Is it the South Orange line that does run down Ferry Street?

Mr. Scuorzo: Yes. There is also a Newark car that operates along that line. It runs from the Public Service terminal along Mulberry Street to Market, down Market, and then along Ferry Street; but that does not render the service that the people down there really need.

Commissioner Egan: I think Mr. Adler's idea of a jitney bus line from down around Doremus Avenue up to South Orange Avenue would be the thing.

Mr. Scuorzo: That is the most desirable thing that can be expected in the Ironbound. The Ironbound needs something of that kind. It is unfortunate we have such a thing as a law that would prohibit the operation of a bus line parallel to the trolley line, but if that law was made it can also be taken off the books. We must have different service. We have to have perfect service and not haphazard service. The Ironbound is mostly to blame for the conditions that exist.

Commissioner Egan: I think you are right there; you have been asleep.

Mr. Scuorzo: We must shoulder that responsibility, but there must be an awakening, and now that there is an awakening we intend to push it to the limit. So much for the lack of trolley service.

Commissioner Egan: You have the Kinney line practically eliminated from down there.

Mr. Scuorzo: Which was an injustice.

Commissioner Egan: You have very little trolley service as compared with the old days, and you have no bus service to take the place of the elimination of the trolley service. It certainly has done a lot to put the Ironbound section sound asleep. I think if you just simply concentrate on Mr. Adler's idea to get a bus line right through from Vailsburg, Dover Street, right down to Doremus Avenue, you would at least get a pretty good ride for a nickel, anybody who wants to go the whole distance, and have some activity on Ferry Street.

Mr. Scuorzo: That is what we want. I can recall the time—

Commissioner Egan: You want to get them to urge more trolley service down to Jackson Street instead of looping at Union Street.

Mr. Scuorzo: That is the horrible condition.

Commissioner Egan: Well, you had the loop at the Market Street station.

Mr. Scuorzo: But the traffic was was then centered at a point where they could take care of it.

Mayor Congleton: Don't you think the loop at Union Street is an improvement over the one at the Pennsylvania Railroad Station?

Mr. Scuorzo: No.

Mayor Congleton: Because it permits the traffic to go through and it looked to me very much better.

Commissioner Egan I think it will be better when they make the improvements that are now under way.

Mr. Scuorzo: That may be so; but the present condition of the loop there is simply unbearable.

Commissioner Egan: Wouldn't it minimize that congestion at Union Street if they did not have so large a loop there?

Mr. Scuorzo: If these trolleys could be made to run down Ferry Street and along Magazine Street and back it would be a far better condition than we have now and it would be giving us more of that service that we are looking for. We want that trolley service to take us from the Ironbound to where we want to go, from the Ironbound to Broad and Market and from the Ironbound to the tube station.

Commissioner Egan : You have practically no service along Wilson Avenue, up Avenue L and over Magazine Street.

Mr. Scuorzo: Very little except what the Ironbound Transportation may care to do. There is a line that has been doing wonderful service. I hold no brief for them or the Public Service, but the Ironbound have done more for us than the Public Service has ever cared to do. At least when they get out to do something they consult the people in the neighborhood and ask them what they want and try to carry out their wishes. The Public Service does not consult us in the matter. We must be satisfied with what the newspapers tell us, and if we do not happen to find one of these insertions in the newspaper, if they insert it, we are just out of luck.

Commissioner Egan: I think you are magnifying the change of the loop from the Market Street station to Union Street. What you want is more trolley or bus service on Ferry Street down through Wilson Avenue, Avenue L, Magazine Street and up Ferry Street again.

Mr. Scuorzo: That is right. We want the restoration of that service and we want bus service, if we can get it.

Commissioner Gillen: I move the Traffic Supervisor be instructed to make a report to the Board on this service.

Commissioner Egan: Second that motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Scuorzo: In connection with that I might say this: We now have an Ironbound Improvement Association, and if the Traffic Supervisor would care to have a little talk with the officers of the Ironbound Improvement Association it might go a long way towards helping this situation.

Commissioner Gillen: I will include that in the motion.

Mayor Congleton: We will ask him to get in touch with you.

Mrs. Anna Puro, 21 Homestead Park: We are a committee from the Americanization classes and we want that our classes should continue. We cannot have them closed because it is a necessity for us. We are all foreigners and citizens of the United States, and we have to have those classes. Otherwise we will be lost, because it is really a necessity to us. We want you to see that our classes should continue. That is all I have to say. That is enough, isn't it?

Commissioner Murray: You ladies were here yesterday morning?

Mrs. Puro: No, we are from a different class.

Commissioner Murray: You are talking on the same subject?

Mrs. Puro: Yes, we do.

Commissioner Murray: They came before the Commission yesterday in conference and we said that we would do what we could to urge the Board of Education to continue these classes.

Mrs. Puro: In order to strengthen that we came because it is a great necessity for us. We need those classes to give us a good lift, and we need them and want them to continue. I thank you. I hope and trust it will be so. Can we go home with good hopes?

Commissioner Egan: You are a nice lady, you do not say much.

Mrs. Puro: We do not have to say much, it means much.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission this morning?

Mr. T. W. Lamasena, 810 Broad Street: I want to say a few words regarding the north side of Mechanic Street and the east side of Mulberry Street widening. I have here a list of five men that own 500 feet on Mechanic Street. Also there are here property owners of a large number of the properties on the east side of Mulberry Street. Although Mr. Matthews was supposed to be here to represent them, I did not want to leave them out, I want to mention they were supposed to have a word to say here. But speaking now for those I directly represent, property owners on the north side of Mechanic Street, we ask that some action be taken to complete the purchase of the property that is needed to widen that street. There are many reasons why delays have occurred which the property owners are familiar with, as I am, and I have received a lot of information from you direct, and I have tried to convey in the same words, almost what I have been told; but still they say they have been unjustly dealt with by the City of Newark, because they were notified over a year ago to be prepared to sell their property to the City. They have had their property properly appraised, their prices were given to the City of Newark through Dr. Kramer. Dr. Kraemer promised to make offers within a few days, which was never done. He stalled and said that he could not decide—

Mayor Congleton: There is no use of trying to pass the buck to Dr. Kramer or any other individual. If your clients are present I will make a statement, being the one directly in charge of the matter. I agree with them that a hardship has been worked upon them. The City passed the ordinance for that improvement to the east side of Mulberry Street from Market to Mechanic in the best of good faith. We had hoped to go ahead with those improvements. Conditions have changed. We cannot get the money to pay your clients for the property, and I do not assume that they want to give up their property without being paid for it.

Mr. Lemasena: I am sorry, your Honor, you did not let me finish my statement.

Mayor Congleton: I want to clear the atmosphere with you and your clients.

Mr. Lemasena: I had already done so.

Mayor Congleton: There is no use of trying to pass the buck to some one individual.

Mr. Lemasena: I do not do that. I want you to understand it right now. But I will say to you this, that we are prepared to offer a solution so that you may go ahead and do your duty to the City of Newark and to these property owners.

Mayor Congleton: You have told me that your clients would take bonds, but as soon as those bonds are issued the interest has got to be paid on them and they have got to mature.

Mr. Lemasena: True, your Honor.

Mayor Congleton: And when we were able to make arrangements with the objectors to carry us through on what had actually been started, this Commission, not Dr. Kramer, but each and everyone of the members of this Commission agreed, in order to make arrangements for the renewal and the continuance of our financial needs for the year, that improvements that had not been actually started and those that had been that could be stopped, would be stopped until the money situation changed.

Mr. Lemasena: Now, let me say one word more to you. It is two weeks ago when I spoke to you right here after the meeting was over. The question of how to take care of the interest came up on those bonds. You said, "Could it be so arranged if bonds were ever used that the interest could be in some way taken care of so the City would not have to pay interest?"

Mayor Congleton: What?

Mr. Lemasena: That the interest could be allowed for, so the City would not be paying interest on those bonds to these property owners and thereby making the property cost them more money than the bonds represented. You remember just one remark you mentioned to me along those lines.

Mayor Congleton: No.

Mr. Lemasena: Well, I understood—I will make it as near as I can correct—I understood you to say that that was one of the drawbacks in using bonds, that the interest—

Mayor Congleton: And the maturity of the bonds. All bonds issued now are serial bonds and they have to be commenced to be taken up a year after they are issued.

Mr. Lemasena: To try to get somewhere, to have something definite in our minds, can you tell us when this time will arrive that you will be able to do something, so that these people may know what to do with their properties.

Mayor Congleton: I wish, Mr. Lemasena, that I had that power or vision of the future to tell you. I cannot prophesy that any better than you and your clients can. It is a great disappointment to me that those improvements are held up. I think that when some of the other improvements under way are completed and thrown open for use, that we are going to have a nasty situation by reason of those two streets still being narrow which will create two very bad necks in the bottle. I wish we could go ahead; but just now it is impossible to do it. I could have come in and asked my colleagues to repeal the ordinances, which would have put the thing to an end, perhaps for a long, long time. I purposely have not done that in the hope that with the ordinances there, some money spent on them, that the conditions would so change that we would be able to go ahead.

Mr. Lemasena: Mr. Mayor, may I say one word more? I am sure you do know that yesterday a way was provided by our legislature so that those bonds could be used. There is no question about it, when you get ready to use bonds, it was definitely provided yesterday—I had Senator Harrison here to verify my statement that City bonds can be used—maybe they could have before, whether or not legally they could be used in part payment of the property—

Mayor Congleton: No, that was not the purpose of the statute at all. The purpose of that statute was, the bond attorneys that go over these proceedings for the prospective purchasers had raised a question that they did not believe that the City had the right to issue permanent bonds to take up the City's share of an improvement that had been completed, and for the purpose of removing that doubt this bill that you refer to was introduced by Senator Wolber and passed the Senate yesterday, and we hope it is going through the House today; and if the Governor signs it it will then enable us to issue permanent bonds for what we roughly estimate is the City's share of improvements that have been made that were financed upon temporary bonds which are now outstanding, so that we can endeavor to sell these permanent bonds and take up those temporaries as they fall due. It was not with the idea of furnishing any authority to give bonds in payment of property at all.

Mr. Lemasena: Of course, your legal mind knows better about that than mine, although I asked Senator Harrison and he said they could be used.

Mayor Congleton: We have been issuing bonds for some property, we did not require legislation for that.

Mr. Lemasena: May I say in concluding, this, that I think the very demonstration prior to this represents that we hear of the conditions in the neck, and shows that we need Mechanic Street more than any other street you are working on this minute, and if any should have preference it is Mechanic Street because you have got a congestion there at that Pennsylvania Station now that you can ask the Public Service all you please and they cannot take care of conditions there without having Mechanic Street in their loop. I am absolutely satisfied some action should be taken in some way if you don't want congestion.

Mayor Congleton: I agree with you that the improvement is absolutely necessary or we would not have passed the ordinances authorizing them.

Mr. Lemasena: All right, Mr. Mayor; where there is a will there is a way. If you will give me the opportunity I will keep on my job and find a way and present it to you.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission?

Commissioner Gillen: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City of Newark being unable to collect these taxes as the Port Newark Bank went into the hands of a receiver and the Padula Bank turned their charter back to the State of New Jersey is the reason for this cancellation.

A communication from Samuel H. Hollander, dated April 18, 1932, objecting to the granting of license for a poultry market on premises 133-137 Halstead Street, for and in behalf of the Leviathan Building and Loan Association of the City of Newark, was read and ordered filed.

The City Clerk presented the application of Joseph Schilizzi (Factory Associates, Inc., owner) for the construction of a poultry market; premises 133-137 Halstead Street.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this matter? Any objections, rather?

Mr. Fenias, this is the Halstead matter. Are you still interested in it?

Mr. Edward Fenias: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: All right. Mr. Fenias, is there anything new that you want to add or shall we hear the objections with the right reserved to you to reply?

Mr. Fenias: I would prefer the latter course.

Mayor Congleton: All right. Mr. Hollander, do you want to say anything more than is in your letter? We have had your letter read to us, yesterday, at our conference.

Mr. Samuel M. Hollander: Well, with the additional statement, the Leviathan Building and Loan Association, of course, is vitally interested in the property adjoining the premises, which is now under consideration. If this Honorable Board permits a poultry market to be erected there, with all the attendant nuisances that necessarily follow, we fear that the income of the property in which we hold this mortgage will become so jeopardized by vacancies that the income will not be sufficient to even pay the carrying charges, and, in addition, I am informed by one of the parties in interest that, if a poultry market is permitted to be erected there, that there is now threatened and a serious danger of a large number of the tenants moving out.

Commissioner Murray: How long ago did you give your mortgage on that?

Mr. Hollander: I think the present mortgage is less than a year old.

Commissioner Murray: You never objected to it before.

Mr. Hollander: We didn't know about it before.

Commissioner Murray: Oh.

Mr. Hollander: I don't know how long this thing is pending.

Commissioner Murray: Oh, long enough to make you sick of hearing it.

Mr. Hollander: Well, this is the first time it has been brought to our attention, the first our board knew of it.

Mayor Congleton: If your property is next door you must certainly have had notice of the hearing before the Board of Adjustment.

Mr. Hollander: This is the first time we have heard anything about it and that is why I am here, and I am not being paid by anyone to be here.

Commissioner Murray: You are still counsel for the building and loan.

Mr. J. Victor D'Aloia: He repeated his protest, in behalf of his client, against the granting of a permit.

Mr. Fenias: He declared that the proposed chicken market would be a neighborhood improvement.

Mayor Congleton: Anyone desire to be heard?

Mr. D'Aloia: I might say that since I spoke I have been asked to also register a protest of Israel Epstein, who has 426 feet front in the immediate neighborhood of this particular site.

Mr. Fenias: Now, where is that place?

Mr. D'Aloia: 328 Seventh Street.

Mr. Fenias: What?

Mayor Congleton: What?

Mr. D'Aloia: 328 Seventh Street.

Mr. Fenias: Is that within the 200 feet?

Mr. D'Aloia: No, it is without the 200 feet.

Mayor Congleton: Seventh Street is not near Halstead Street.

Mr. D'Aloia: He is going to be affected by this particular structure.

Mayor Congleton: This is three or four miles from Seventh Street.

Mr. Fenias: You might just as well go to Irvington.

Mr. D'Aloia: They say it affects that property. I don't know.

Mr. Fenias: I want to say—

Mayor Congleton: He has probably told you where he lives.

Mr. D'Aloia: No. He says it is opposite.

Mr. Tony Poppolardo: The mortgage, the building and loan, my house at Seventh Street it—I don't know what you call it—took the house and I lost the house at Seventh Street, too.

Mayor Congleton: You lost two of them?

Mr. Fenias: No he has not lost the one on Halstead Street.

Mr. Poppolardo: I have lost a great deal from the mortgage and put on the house on Seventh Street—I don't know what they call—Commissioner Murray: I move the hearing be closed, Mr. Mayor.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: All in favor of concurring in the motion as to granting the permit will say aye, opposed no the clerk will call the roll.

Nays: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The following communications were received and read:.

Board of Adjustment
City Hall

Newark, N. J., April 19, 1932.

The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, that the following applications for variations from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

192 Lafayette Street, Nathan Gross, owner; gasoline station.

179-183 Charlton Street, William Fisher, owner; alteration of the front of an existing public garage to provide for gasoline station; approved for ten years.

1063-1077 Raymond Boulevard, John Klinger & Son, Inc. (J. & R. Corp., Julia Osterweil, et al., owners); gasoline station; approved for three years.

100-104 Clinton Place, Clinton Place Garage, Inc., owner; alteration of front of existing public garage to provide for gasoline station; approved for ten years.

6-8 Elder Place, Frank J. Cloran, owner; automobile parking station and one stationary gasoline pump; approved for three years.

601 Central Avenue, A. Battiste & Wm. Ramundo (Jos. Ehrich & Philip Deshowitz, owners); lunch wagon (moved from 599 Central Avenue); approved for ten years.

329 Halsey Street, William J. Joy (Louis Beller, owner); lunch wagon; approved for five years.

403 Elizabeth Avenue, James R. Pierson, owner; alteration of front of an existing public garage to provide for gasoline station; approved for ten years.

The Board of Adjustment,
R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Received, copy to be sent to each Commissioner, and further action postponed to May 4, 1932.

Passaic Valley Sewerage
Commissioners
24 Branford Place

Newark, N. J., April 18, 1932.

City Clerk of the City of Newark,
City Hall,
Newark, N. J.

Dear Sir:—

I am sending you herewith enclosed report of the audit of the accounts of the Passaic Valley Sewerage Commissioners by the Comptroller of the Treasury of New Jersey for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1931.

Yours very truly,
J. H. Quigg, Secretary.

Referred to Director of Revenue and Finance.

A communication from Walter R.
Darby, Commissioner of Municipal Accounts, dated April, 1932, relative to 1932 statutes enacted to date and 1932 budgets, was read and referred to the Director of Revenue and Finance.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission this morning?

Mr. O. Beller: In reference to 329
Halsey Street, the Board of Adjustment granted a permit for a lunch wagon. I would like to have it so we can go ahead with it.

Mayor Congleton: What was on it?

Mr. Beller: It was a golf course, it is a vacant lot, it was a golf course.

Mayor Congleton: What is your pleasure, gentlemen?

Commissioner Egan: I move a suspension of the rules.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen,
Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of William J. Joy
(Louis Beller, owner), for the establishment of a lunch wagon; premises 329 Halsey Street; for a period of five years;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED
by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Anyone else any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission?

Mr. Sidney G. Goldberg: On the 18th of this month, Monday last, bids were received for the wrecking of thirty buildings on the Pennsylvania Railroad site. There were eight bids put in. The lowest of which was submitted by the Eaton Wrecking Company, originally of Albany, New York. Their bid was approximately $1,750—

Mayor Congleton: Now, just a moment. There has been no action on that. And you have sent in this morning a written protest, haven't you?

Mr. Goldberg: I have.

Mayor Congleton: The Commissioners know nothing about it. It is in my hands, in the first instance. And, until you find out what action I am going to take, I think you might better save your remarks to the Commission to have them overrule any action that I may take, if they do not agree with me.

There has been no action taken in this matter yet, and I have a long written protest, and for that reason I have not presented any resolution awarding a contract this morning, and I have the matter before me.

Mr. Goldberg: Mr. Mayor, would suggest I see you?

Mayor Congleton: Do you want to add anything more to what you have said in your letter?

Mr. Goldberg: I would.

Mayor Congleton: Then suppose you add a statement to your letter and send it to me and I will have it before me, because I do not have a stenographer there to take down all the various things, you see. You have already sent me one long letter.

Mr. Goldberg: Thank you.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter to bring before the Commission?

Mr. Anthony J. Castellano: I appear here for the party who made an application for the removal of a lunch wagon from 599 Central Avenue to 601 Central Avenue. The matter came up before the Board of Adjustment yesterday with no opposition and the permit was acted favorably upon by the Board of Adjustment. The applicant is a monthly tenant; his term expires tomorrow. In order to move there within the month he is compelled to give the landlord thirty days notice. He is to make certain repairs to the new place where he is going and for that reason I ask this Board to suspend the rules.

Commissioner Egan: Were there any objections?

Mr. Castellano: There were no objections. The petition was signed by nearly all the property owners.

Commissioner Egan: I move we suspend the rules.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made, be allowed:

Application of Albert Battiste & William Ramundo (Joseph Ehrich & Philip Deshowitz, owners), for the establishment of a lunch wagon (moved from 599 Central Avenue); premises 601 Central Avenue; for a period of ten years;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the the application above set forth.

W. J. EGAN
JOHN HOWE
CHARLES P. GILLEN
JNO. F. MURRAY JR.

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE JR.
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., April 27, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of April 20, 1932, were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance providing for the planting of shade trees and the erection of guards for the protection of the same in certain streets and portions of streets of the City of Newark during the year 1932, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

(No response).

No one appearing, Commissioner Howe moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance providing for the planting of shade trees and the erection of guards for the protection of the same in certain streets and portions of streets of the City of Newark during the year 1932.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the ordinance by sections:

Title declared open to amendment.

Section 1 declared open to amendment.

The ordinance was declared open to amendment in all its parts.

Commissioner Howe moved that the ordinance be adopted on second reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe moved that said ordinance be ordered to a third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe moved that the ordinance be taken up on third reading and final passage.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe moved that the title of "An ordinance providing for the planting of shade trees and the erection of guards for the protection of same in certain streets and portions of streets of the City of Newark during the year 1932," be taken for its third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the title of the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance providing for the planting of shade trees and the erection of guards for the protection of the same in certain streets and portions of streets of the City of Newark during the year 1932.

The ordinance having been read three times was then declared to be upon its third and final passage.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to require all officers and employees of the City of Newark to be bona fide residents therein as a condition of their continued employment, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Meyer Zemel, 826 South 13th Street; appeared and spoke in favor of the ordinance.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak on this ordinance?

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, in connection with my vote on this: I think from what you have explained to the members of the Commission every effort has been made to have the employees of the Board of Education live in Newark and, as I understand it the members of the Board of Education are going to cooperate to the fullest extent, and we have no authority to pass an ordinance covering them, Mr. Zemel. I think they all ought to live in Newark. And what Mr. Zemel says about their living outside of Newark, I know some who live outside the state.

Mayor Congleton: We cannot pass that ordinance, but the matter is being considered, and I hope something will come out of it.

Mr. Zemel: If Director Howe is instructed by this Commission, and with his vote, to draw no checks that will benefit any outside employee that does not live within the boundary lines of Newark, if there is no money appropriated or provided for they will soon live in Newark.

Mayor Congleton: Of course, this ordinance does not cover that situation and cannot as an ordinance. Now, about your other criticism about certain people being exempt from this ordinance, I am quite certain that you do not really appreciate what that is meant for. You, of course, would not expect us to compel the people that work in the watershed—

Mr. Zemel: Oh, no.

Mayor Congleton: That is the reason for one of those clauses being there. They live there where their work is, and it would be very expensive for the city to transport those men back and forth forty miles every day.

Mr. Zemel: That is right.

Mayor Congleton: That is what the provision is there for. And there is another provision there that I am quite certain that you would agree with, which is intended to give the Director discretion. I have one in my own department, a man who has been very much concerned about this ordinance. He is living in Caldwell on his doctor's orders, temporarily because of his health. In a case of that kind, on proper medical advice, I think it is perfectly proper that the head of a department should be permitted to let him go out for a year or a year and a half or whatever the doctor thinks, to benefit his health.

Mr. Zemel: But, Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, in these emergency appointments we have numerous outside men that don't come under civil service. In this emergency, these men who have been appointed in this emergency just now—

Mayor Congleton: I don't know who you mean.

Mr. Zemel: I do, and I am calling your attention to it.

Mayor Congleton: I would be very glad to know something of them.

Mr. Zemel: There are plenty of them working in the City of Newark depriving good unemployed men in the City of Newark. They do not live in Newark and are not entitled to Newark's pay.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Zemel, I do not think there are any of that sort working in my department.

Mr. Zemel: Director Egan, I commend you, I have been coming here—

Commissioner Egan: Of course, where you are handling a great amount of this emergency work it might be possible that one or two will sneak in. If they do, and you let me know about it, we will correct that situation.

Commissioner Murray: Do you know of anyone who cannot afford to pay for insulin who has been refused?

Mr. Zemel: The rule was made and it was made for everybody, and instead of giving them the full amount of insulin that the doctors prescribed for them, the Board of Health now gives them only one half.

Commissioner Murray: If they can buy the other half. But if they cannot they get all they have to have.

Mr. Zemel: No, Director, I know different.

Commissioner Murray: You have got people who have been getting insulin from the Department of Health for five or six or seven years, not in this depression period alone, but for years, and they have made no attempt to buy it for themselves. This amounted to thousands of dollars. Where they need it and cannot buy it they can get all they require, but where they can buy half of it they are expected to pay for every third dose.

Mr. Zemel: Those that cannot afford it should not be cut in half.

Commissioner Murray: They should not be given a burden beyond their ability to carry. If they can buy one dose out of three they are expected to do it, and if they cannot buy it we give it to them and give it to them very cheerfully.

Mr. Zemel: That would be all right, but the rule applies to them all, because I was over there and talked to Dr. Craster and verified that statement or I would not make it.

Commissioner Murray: It does apply if they cannot afford to pay for it they can have it, and if they can afford to pay for it they have got to buy it.

Mr. Zemel: That isn't my understanding of what Dr. Craster told me.

Commissioner Murray: Well, I am Director of the Department and I am telling you.

Commissioner Egan: In connection with employees of the Board of Education, I agree with you if Newark is good enough to work for it is good enough to live in, and as one member of the Commission, and I think the entire Commission feels the same way, every effort will be used to see that they live in Newark. I do not suppose we have over fifty per cent. of the employees of the Board of Education living in Newark today; they are living in the suburbs or New York City.

Mr. Zemel: They pass their examinations here and they stay here three years and they have got tenure of office, and they snap their fingers at you, "Do as you please about it." Is that fair to the employees in your department and everybody else's department?

Commissioner Egan: It is not fair to anybody in Newark.

Mr. Zemel: That is what I am calling your attention to and they should be included.

Commissioner Murray moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance to require all officers and employees of the City of Newark to be bona fide residents therein as a condition of their continued employment.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance authorizing the issuance of $4,000,000 Street Opening Bonds of the City of Newark.

The Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark Do Ordain as follows:

Section 1. Pursuant to Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916 of New Jersey, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, negotiable bonds of The City of Newark to be known as "Street Opening Bonds," and to be dated not later than July 1, 1932, are hereby authorized to be issued in the aggregate principal amount of $4,000,000, for the purpose hereinafter stated, for which purpose it is necessary to raise said sum of money.

Section 2. The money to be raised by the issuance of said bonds shall be applied in the following sums to the payment of the part of the cost of acquiring the lands necessary for the opening and widening of the following respective portions of public streets in said City which it has been determined by ordinance shall not be specially assessed against property specially benefited, viz.:

- (a) The sum of $2,000,000 for Ferry Street from New Jersey Railroad Avenue southerly to East Mechanic Street and Market Street from Commercial Street easterly to Commerce Street and Commercial Street from Commerce Street northeasterly to the Passaic River, as authorized by ordinance adopted on the 6th day of November, 1929;
- (b) The sum of $1,000,000 for Raymond Plaza West from Market Street northerly to River Street, as authorized by ordinance adopted on the 7th day of May, 1930;
- (c) The sum of $1,000,000 for Mulberry Street from a point about 27 feet south of the southerly line of Market Street northerly to Aronson Square as authorized by ordinance adopted on the 14th day of May, 1929.

Section 3. The bonds authorized to be issued by this ordinance for each of the purposes described in Section 2 of this ordinance are authorized to be issued in lieu of or to fund a like amount of temporary loan bonds or notes heretofore authorized to be issued for such purpose pursuant to the provisions of Section 13 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended. The proceeds of the bonds authorized by this ordinance to be issued for such purpose, shall, to the extent necessary, be applied to the payment of any such temporary bonds or notes issued for such purpose and outstanding at the time said bonds authorized for such purpose by this ordinance are issued. The amount of such temporary bonds or notes authorized for such purpose shall be deemed reduced by the amount by which the amount of the bonds authorized for such purpose by this ordinance exceeds the amount of such temporary bonds or notes issued for such purpose and outstanding at the time the bonds authorized for such purpose by this ordinance are issued.

Section 4. The following matters are hereby determined and declared, pursuant to the requirements of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916 as amended:

- (a) The improvements or properties for which bonds are hereby authorized to be issued were not completed or acquired prior to July 1, 1931, and are of the class described in Subdivision (M) of Sub-section (2) of Section 4 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended.
- (b) The probable periods of usefulness of the improvements and properties described in Section 2 of this ordinance are in each case, thirty years, and the average of said periods, computed in the manner prescribed by Section 4 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended, taking into consideration the amount of bonds to be issued on account of each of said purposes, is thirty years, beginning on the date of said bonds.
- (c) The average assessed valuation of the taxable real property (including improvements) of said The City of Newark, computed upon the next preceding three valuations thereof, in the manner provided in Section 12 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended, is $731,272.081.
- (d) The next debt of said City, computed in the manner provided in said section 12, as amended, is $45,520,549.23.

(e) The statements required by said Section 12 (showing said net debt, etc.) have been made and filed with the City Clerk, as therein required.

Section 5. This ordinance shall take effect in the manner provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe moved that May 11, 1932, at 10 A. M., Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time, or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place when and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage, and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading as provided by law.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter now that they desire to take up with the Commission?

Mr. Frank J. Koch, 63 Mott Street: He said he had been crippled as a result of neglect by the State Highway Commission.

Mayor Congleton: I would suggest that you ask your attorney to get in touch with Judge Boettner, the head of our Law Department, and if there is any information we can give or anything we can do to help, we will be glad to do it. Have your attorney see Judge Boettner, the head of our Law Department.

Mr. Koch: Thank you.

Mr. William Umscheid, 281 North Fifth Street: He urged the enforcement of a city ordinance relating to the collection of garbage.

Commissioner Egan: How about putting an alarm clock on each can?

Mr. Umscheid: Make them put their name and initial on each can. Put them on everything.

Commissioner Gillen: I move this, complaint be referred to the Mayor.

Mr. Umscheid: Now, Mr. Egan, you give me an argument. I get your argument.

Commissioner Egan: I think you are right.

Mr. Umscheid: He renewed his suggestion as to enforcement.

Commissioner Gillen: I move it be referred to the Mayor and the Department of Public Safety.

Commissioner Egan: I second the motion. It ought to be referred to the Department of Parks and Public Property, too.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Costello and Mr. Doremus are sitting there and I know they will take care of this complaint and get after their foremen.

Mr. Frank Pellagrino, 90 Bloomfield Avenue: I read in yesterday's News that the railroads of New Jersey would be unable to complete their payments of taxes, and I would like to know what the government would do in that matter?

Mayor Congleton: The same as we do with anybody else that cannot pay their taxes.

Mr. Pellagrino: What would that be?

Mayor Congleton: Levy on their property and sell it the same as we do any other individual's property.

Mr. Pellagrino: It would still go in the same hands?

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

Mr. Pellagrino: The government is composed of the men of the Interstate Commerce Commission and goes right to them and goes right back to them.

Mayor Congleton: We have no control of those taxes, we do not collect them. I saw the article in the paper.

Mr. Pellagrino: Yes, it was last night.

Mayor Congleton: I guess the railroads will pay their taxes.

Commissioner Howe: I might say for your benefit that the railroads have paid the City of Newark all the money they owe up to date.

Mr. Pellagrino: What I mean to say, if the taxpayers of the City of Newark, if they could not pay their notes and building and loans and all that sort you would go after them. They are just as great as the men who enforce industry.

Mayor Congleton: I wish you could tell me how people can pay taxes if they haven't got the money.

Mr. Pellagrino: I believe we do not need any taxes at all.

Mayor Congleton: Then I cannot tell you.

Mr. T. W. Lemassena, 810 Broad Street: He renewed an appeal for the widening of the north side of Mechanic Street. He said: "I have been told indirectly that the bankers are dictating who shall receive attention and who shall not.

Mayor Congleton: Well, now, let us square that right now. You may have been told indirectly. I will say to you directly that the banks are not doing any such thing.

Mr. Lemassena: I am thankful to know that.

Mayor Congleton: The banks have cooperated with the City administration in these times in helping to finance us one hundred per cent.

Mr. Lemassena: That is fine, and I am thankful to know it. That is all right, Mayor. On the other side, you do know that there are ways by which this property can be taken over. I know it has been talked of a number of times. One that I have in mind is the use of those bonds. In fact, one of my clients has offered to take all bonds from the City of Newark and said they would be glad to get them. Another case where they said they would take two-thirds bonds and one-third cash. Another case where they would take half bonds and half cash. And so it goes on. And I find a majority of the people are willing to help in every way that the Commissioners want them to help, and they are trying to get somewheres. That is what I am here for today, to try to bring the thing along in some way so I can go back and report progress at least and not go back every time and say nothing was accomplished.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Lemassena, you have made the statement before when you have had many of your clients with you, and we have told you and we have told your clients the exact situation, and the situation today is the same as it was the last time we explained it to you.

Mr. Lemassena: All right.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who has any matter to bring before the Commission?

Mr. Sidney G. Goldberg, 165 Market Street:

At the meeting last Wednesday I desired to bring your attention to the fact that the Eaton Wrecking Company today put in a certain bid, and, Mr. Mayor, you told me to supplement my remarks with a letter, which I did.

Mayor Congleton: And which letter was dated the 20th of April and was delivered to my office yesterday afternoon at four-fifteen.

Mr. Goldberg: Well, I believe, Mr. Mayor, that there was time for consideration of this bid.

Mayor Congleton: The bid has been considered, and your letter, the letter of your client, which we had last week and we referred to was before us, the matter was explained by me to the Board of Commissioners, and the contract has been awarded to the lowest bidder, which you know, under the law, we have to follow. The specifications for the doing of this work requires the contractor to comply with the state statute and pay the prevailing rate of wage. Your client was the second bidder, and, as a matter of fact, his bid should have been thrown out as being informal, because it was.

Mr. Goldberg: The fact that his bid was informal, Mr. Mayor, I do not believe is, in my opinion, goes to the essence of the contract, in view of the fact that in the end I believe it will be a direct economy to the City of Newark if the respective bids were considered.

Mayor Congleton: Now, Mr. Goldberg, the contract has been awarded to the lowest bidder under specifications that require him to pay the prevailing rate. You are a lawyer and you know that a public body has no authority to throw out the low bidder because another bidder comes in and says that the man who is low has not on some other job paid the prevailing rate. Now, if your client is interested in seeing that this man pays, if you will look up the statute you will find if he does not do what he is called upon to do it is a misdemeanor. And we have no authority to award the contract in any other way than we have awarded it.

Mr. Goldberg: Do I understand, Mr. Mayor, that it is merely a matter of form for the City Commission to approve the lowest bidder without going into the details of the why and wherefore?

Mayor Congleton: Now, I do not take very much stock in complaints that come from another bidder because he has been ousted by someone else. The Eaton people came to the rescue of your clients on the Debevoise building, didn't they?

Mr. Goldberg: The Eaton Company did not come to the rescue, we hired the Eaton Company. And, Mr. Mayor

Mayor Congleton: They were good enough for you to work with yourselves before. Because I had this same thing with your client and the Eaton Company on the destruction of the Debevoise building.

Mr. Goldberg: If I am not mistaken the City Commission has a right to reject or affirm or approve the bid of the Eaton Company, and it is not mandatory upon the City Commission to approve the highest bidder if all the facts show that it would be to the benefit of the City of Newark if the second bid were accepted.

Mayor Congleton: Well, you had better go and read some of the cases that deal with the awarding and rejecting of bids, Mr. Goldberg. I do not mean to be smart about it, but we have been through this time and time again. There is no valid reason that has been alleged by you why the contract should not be awarded to the lowest bidder. The mere fact that they had some other job that you think they did not pay the prevailing rate of wage on does not give us any justification for throwing them out. We have provided in our specifications that they have bid under that they must pay the prevailing rate.

Mr. Goldberg: Well, under those circumstances, Mr. Mayor, I would suggest to yourself, being the head of this particular department under which the bid comes, that that job be supervised, and I believe it is under your power to remove the contractor if he does not live up to the specifications, and I heartily hope that you do so; and I believe that upon investigation on your part when the job is undertaken that my words will bear fruit.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission?

Mr. Ernest Scurzo, 80 Jefferson Street: He protested against buses on Norman Road.

Mayor Congleton: Let me get the bus line clearly in my mind. Is it the one that goes from South Orange Avenue and then turns around the block?

Mr. Scuorzo: I think it is the Devine Street bus that is supposed to run to the City line.

Mayor Congleton: Is the complaint you make where they have gone off South Orange Avenue and gone around the block?

Mr. Scuorzo: They have gone on to Norman Road. Norman Road is a purely one-family and two-family residential section.

Mayor Congleton: I am just trying to find out which one it is.

Commissioner Murray: It is the Devine Street bus line.

Mayor Congleton: Is it the one that goes almost up at the Alms House?

Mr. Scuorzo: Yes, that is the one.

Mayor Congleton: Or just around the block from South Orange Avenue.

Mr. Scuorzo: My understanding is it is supposed to go up to the Alms House property.

Commissioner Murray: The South Orange Avenue buses do not go over there, at all, it is the Devine Street bus. I came down Mount Vernon Avenue the other day and had to call a supervisor or checker or whatever they call them, a Public Service man, over, because there were five buses on one block and they were out on the street so far that I had to go almost to the north curb of the street to get by. I asked him why he did not use his head and keep them in some kind of a line to avoid just that sort of situation, which he very promptly did; but at that time he had them all spread all over the street, but he did straighten them out at once.

Mr. Scuorzo: I am glad Director Murray saw the condition, because there was some disagreement the last time I spoke to this gentleman in your department. I complained that the condition ought to be remedied, and he tells me the people in that neighborhood have been complaining for a long time for service and now that they have it they don't know what to do with it. Now, that is not service. What the Public Service is doing here is depriving the City of Newark of another ratable. If the Public Service could be compelled to establish its own private terminal at that point where it could harbor its buses, it would mean they would purchase property, they would invest in a building, and that building would be taxable. Now, it is very offensive, to my way of looking at it.

Mayor Congleton: Your complaint is that they are parking their buses in the street at the end of their line?

Mr. Scuorzo: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Murray: I do not see why they cannot time that bus line so the buses would keep on rolling and not more than one or two at the most be waiting to start out at any time. Five or six of them makes an encumbrance on anybody.

Mr. Scuorzo: That is not the only objection, gentlemen.

Commissioner Murray: That is the rear entrance to the Alms House. The Convalescent Hospital is off Mount Vernon Avenue. I go up and down there very frequently.

Mr. Scuorzo: The parking of buses is not the only objection, although it is the principal objection. Apparently those drivers have not the proper sense of proportion, they haven't a sense of decency; their lady friends call upon them on that particular block, and the love scenes are quite scandalous, I understand. Now, this should not be permitted. It is a public thoroughfare. If it must be done, let them do it privately; those things should not be permitted on a public street. Now, I have asked the particular property owner whom I represent to give me a schedule showing how many buses and at what times they are in that particular block. This is Monday's schedule. Two buses at seven fifty-five a. m., three buses at seven fifty-seven, two buses at eight, three buses at eight five, one bus at eight two, two buses at eight seven, one bus at eight ten; afternoon, three buses at three thirty-nine, three buses at five, two buses at five one, three buses at five two, two buses at five twenty-nine, two buses at five thirty-five, four buses at five forty-five, three buses at five forty-seven, three buses at five forty-nine. Now, for yesterday, seven forty-seven in the morning there were four buses on that street. Now, it seems to me that such a condition is not justifiable. It seems to me that those buses, if it is the terminal of the line, the buses must be kept off the streets. The streets are not made for the Public Service to make a terminal out of. The public can have no objection, and, in fact, it is a public service when buses stop at a point to let off or take on passengers, but the Public Service is under no circumstances rendering a service when it parks its buses there when they wait there for the time of leave or departure. That makes it a terminal, and under the circumstances they must have their own private garage to house their buses. Now, if it is not feasible for the Public Service, if their complaint is that the profit on that line does not warrant their having a private terminal at that point, why can't they pull the buses up on the street towards the Alms House. That street is not inhabited, it is not improved, and there are not any properties on that street. They could just as well do that.

Mayor Congleton: I will have it looked into. I am sorry that any employee of the City treated you discourteously. I will try and have that corrected. So far as the service is concerned the Public Service did not want to go up in there.

Mr. Scuorzo: That I know.

Mayor Congleton: And I ordered them to do so, telling them they had to take the bad with the good, and I did that at the request, almost, you might say the unanimous request, of the people living up there on those streets. If they are now parking their buses as you say, I will take it up and see if we cannot get some relief for you. But the Public Service did not want to go up there.

Mr. Scuorzo: I know they did not.

Mayor Congleton: But that territory has been built up, so when I had what seemed like a unanimous request from all of the property owners to go in there, I ordered it done.

Commissioner Murray: If they go up five hundred feet above the corner of Mount Vernon Avenue they can go into the right-hand curb and won't interfere with anybody, because the streets is a dead end at the Alms House.

Mr. Scuorzo: Now, another matter: We have not heard anything further about the Ferry Street matter and the loop on Union Street.

Mayor Congleton: A report came to me and it did not contain all of the information I wanted. I sent it back and I should have had it in time for our conference yesterday to lay before my colleagues as they requested that information. I will see to it that it is before the Commission next Tuesday.

Mr. Scuorzo: Now, there is one other matter which probably has not come to your notice. It may be small and if it is it may be disposed of immediately. The question of this ash can business.

Mayor Congleton: It is a difficult matter. It is very difficult to get all those rules and regulations lived up to. You know as well as I the type of employee that does that work.

Mr. Scuorzo: The four to six o'clock feature can be remedied.

Mayor Congleton: That is difficult too. When we started collecting later the people complained their ash cans with the refuse and garbage and so forth were out in the street when the children were playing. It is a very difficult thing to work out.

Mr. Scuorzo: There are a lot of children in the neighborhood who like to sleep during that hour of the day. and their fathers and mothers like to sleep in the night.

Mayor Congleton: I do not think children are bothered very much, it is the fellows your age and my age. Children can sleep through anything.

Mr. Scuorzo: It is a small matter and I think it can be handled so that instead of doing it at four o'clock they will do it at seven.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Lemassena: To try to save time I want to ask you to answer one question. I have been asked to figure out what the assessment is going to be on one of the properties north of Market Street, between Market and Centre, what their assessment should be on this particular piece of property. In order to do that I have got to know what the total assessment will be on that street. Is there any way of finding that out at this time?

Mayor Congleton: Go to the Assessment Board. They are working on it now and have got all their figures before them. Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Harry Dudkin, 17 Mechanic Street: I represent 750 voters and citizens of the Thirteenth District and Thirty-seventh District in the Thirteenth Ward. They are materially affected by applications 4432V respecting the granting of a permit to the Royal Laundry Company respecting the construction of a second-story addition to premises known as 771 South Sixteenth Street. A hearing was held before the Board of Adjustment last Tuesday. Their decision was postponed to next Tuesday, and that is why we are here, to appeal to your sense of fairness and your sense of justice, because we cannot get it from the Board of Adjustment. About two years ago application for a permit for the construction of an addition was made by the Royal Laundry Company and it was granted upon the following conditions: That the smoke nuisance be removed, that the building or construction or addition be only used for office purposes, and that working hours be limited to certain hours. And every one of those conditions have been violated, and being violated they come before the Board of Adjustment with unclean hands—

Mayor Congleton: What is it that you think we ought to do now before the Board of Adjustment has taken any action?

Mr. Dudkin: If you will just let me finish—

Mayor Congleton: No. We have nothing before us and there is nothing we can do until they have taken action.

Mr. Dudkin: It is true the regular procedure is to wait—

Mayor Congleton: We do not attempt to dictate to them what they should do before they have given a decision.

Mr. Dudkin: Your Commissioners represent the public.

Mayor Congleton: Yes, sir, and you will have your hearing before us if they grant it.

Mr. Dudkin: We feel if you were to take a hand in it now it would spare us the necessity of coming before you and of having these people pay good money every time to be represented by counsel.

Mayor Congleton: They do not need to be represented by counsel. We have hundreds of cases come before us without counsel and we have always heard them.

Mr. Dudkin: Mr. Mayor, I do not like to say the things I would like to say here, but I think some remarks are in order, because we feel that the people were not given a fair deal before the Board of Adjustment.

Mayor Congleton: If you want to make charges against the members of the Board, of course, it is proper for you to do it and we will hear you. But so far as trying to influence a decision which the Board is called upon to make, I don't think you would really want us to do that.

Mr. Dudkin: Mr. Mayor, as I understand it the Board of Adjustment are appointees of the Commissioners of Newark?

Mayor Congleton: They are created under an ordinance and have certain powers, the same as the Board of Assessment Commissioners are created; and when they are hearing cases I do not think that your legal training would indicate to you that we should go to the Board that is supposed to sit and hear and to render a decision, and tell them how we think they ought to decide that case when we are not sitting hearing the evidence.

Mr. Dudkin: That is another point, we wanted our evidence at that hearing taken down, but it was refused. We wanted everyone to be sworn in but it was refused. And we know that the permit will be granted.

Mayor Congleton: If it is, then it will be before us and all of the property owners—and they do not need counsel if they do not want counsel—will have a full opportunity. But, for one, I do not think that we should tell a board that is charged with a duty how they ought to decide a case before the case is concluded.

Mr. Dudkin: Yes, but I do not consider this a case, your Honor, I consider this just a fact and circumstance. It is something not governed by rules and proceedings in the law courts. That is why I come before you. I know the procedure was not correct, because under the Zoning Ordinance and the State law we have sixty days to appeal their decision, and it goes before you for ratification, but I came here because I thought their conduct was unwarranted.

Mayor Congleton: If you want to formulate charges against the board or any member, of course, that is your privilege and we will give it full consideration.

Mr. Dudkin: Very well, Mr. Mayor; thank you.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Commissioner Howe: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen,
Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

MINUTES OF MEETINGS OF THE Board of Commissioners

May, 1932

Newark, N. J., May 4, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioner's Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of meeting of April 27th were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance providing for the opening of Raymond Boulevard from a point about 220 feet west of Broad Street westerly to Plane Street, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordinance be laid over until May 18th.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray moved that An ordinance regulating the sanitary control and licensing of barber shops, hair dressing establishments and beauty parlors of the City of Newark, presented for information be laid over until May 18th.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:.

An ordinance to supplement the ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to provide for the opening and widening of Ferry Street on the southerly side thereof from New Jersey Railroad Avenue southerly to East Mechanic Street; for the opening and widening of Market Street on the northerly side thereof from Commercial Street easterly to Commerce Street; for the opening and widening of Commercial Street on the southeasterly side thereof from Commerce Street northeasterly to the Passaic River," adopted on the 6th of November, 1929.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark Do Ordain:

Section 1. The cost of opening and widening Ferry Street from New Jersey Railroad Avenue southerly to East Mechanic Street, and Market Street from Commercial Street easterly to Commerce Street, and Commercial Street from Commerce Street north-easterly to the Passaic River, as authorized by the ordinance entitled "An ordinance to provide for the opening and widening of Ferry Street on the southerly side thereof from New Jersey Railroad Avenue southerly to East Mechanic Street; for the opening and widening of Market Street on the northerly side thereof from Commercial Street easterly to Commerce Street; for the opening and widening of Commercial Street on the south-easterly side thereof from Commerce Street northeasterly to the Passaic River," adopted by the Board of Commissioners on the 6th day of November, 1929, shall, to the extent of Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000), not be specially assessed upon property specially benefited by said improvement, anything in said ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding. The amount of such cost to be specially assessed upon property specially benefited by said improvement shall be Four Hundred Ninety-five Thousand Dollars ($495,000), or such part thereof as shall equal the benefits received by such property.

Section 2. This ordinance shall take effect at the time and in the manner provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that May 18, 1932, at 10 A. M. Standard

Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time, or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, under the terms of an agreement dated the 30th day of March, 1932, between the City of Newark and The Prudential Insurance Company of America, the Prudential has acquired all the tracts or parcels of real estate in the City of Newark comprised within the block bounded by Waverly Avenue, Barclay, Spruce and Somerset Streets, and the block bounded by Spruce, Barclay, Montgomery and Somerset Streets, with the exception of two parcels situated in the southerly block and known as 75 Somerset Street, and 141-143-145 Spruce Street, said lands to be used in part for the erection of new housing facilities the plans of which are to be submitted at a subsequent date by the said company, for the approval of the Commission, and

WHEREAS, by said agreement, the Prudential has agreed to sell and the City has agreed to buy a strip of land 140 feet wide running north and south through each said block in the center thereof, and

WHEREAS, the City and the Prudential desire that the buildings upon all of the said land so acquired by the Prudential be removed, and the Prudential has signified its willingness, at its own cost, to remove said buildings and to bring such land to grade,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark hereby consents to the removal by The Prudential Insurance Company of America of the buildings and improvements on that portion of the land now owned by the Prudential described in the recitals hereto, which the City is to acquire under the terms of the aforesaid agreement, and approves such proposed action on the condition that the lands now occupied by said buildings shall be filled to grade after such removal.

Commissioner Giller. offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS: The League of Municipalities has advocated a plan to relieve every real estate taxpayer in New Jersey by the suspension of the one mill state highway tax, restoring the lost revenue to the State Highway Department by means of increasing motor truck fees; and

WHEREAS: These purposes could be accomplished by legislative approval of Assembly Bills 22, 345 and 349; and

WHEREAS: The passage of these bills would shift a substantial yet reasonable share of the cost of highway and street construction and maintenance from overburdened real estate to the under-taxed motor trucks; and

WHEREAS: This plan would result in a ten point decrease in the tax rate of every municipality, and in the tax bill of every taxpayer in the State;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: By the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that we heartily endorse the tax relief plan of the League of Municipalities, including adoption by the Legislature of Assembly Bills 22, 345 and 349 in such amended form as conference may develop;

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That copies of this resolution be sent to each member of the legislative delegation of this county and to the League of Municipalities and to the press.

A Resolution Fixing the Form and Terms and Providing for the Sale of $4,000,000 Street Opening Bonds of the City of Newark, to be Issued Pursuant to An Ordinance Heretofore Introduced.

BE IT RESOLVED, By the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, New Jersey, as follows:

Section 1. The $4,000,000 Street Opening Bonds of The City of Newark, the issuance of which was authorized by an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance authorizing the issuance of $4,000,000 Street Opening Bonds of The City of Newark," introduced in the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark on April 27, 1932, shall be four thousand in number, numbered from 1 to 4000, inclusive, of the denomination of $1,000 each, and shall mature and be payable in annual installments, as follows, viz.: One hundred and ten bonds of June 1st in each of the years 1933 to 1942, inclusive, one hundred and thirty bonds on June 1st in each of the years 1943 to 1952, inclusive, and one hundred and sixty bonds on June 1st in each of the years 1953 to 1962, inclusive.

Section 2. The said bonds shall be dated June 1, 1932, shall bear interest from their date at a rate to be hereafter determined, payable semi-annually on June 1st and December 1st in each year, and shall be coupon bonds, registerable at the option of the holder as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest. They shall be signed by the Mayor, countersigned by the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance, and the seal of The City of Newark shall be thereto affixed and attested by the City Clerk. The coupons to be attached to said bonds shall bear the fac-simile signature of the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance. Both principal and interest of the bonds shall be payable at The National State Bank, in the City of Newark, in gold coin of the United States of America of the standard of weight and fineness existing on the date of said bonds, or its equivalent in lawful money.

Section 3. The said bonds shall be issued in substantially the following form:

Section 4. The bonds shall be sold at public sale upon sealed proposals, at 2 o'clock, P. M., on Tuesday, May 17, 1932, at the office of the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance of The City of Newark, in the City Hall, after notice of such sale published in the manner required by law. The Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance is hereby authorized and directed to cause such notice to be published and to receive such proposals and the power of the Board of Commissioners to award the bonds and reject bids therefor is hereby delegated to him.

Section 5. The notice of sale of the bonds shall be in substantially the following form:

NOTICE OF SALE
THE CITY OF NEWARK
NEW JERSEY
$4,000,000

STREET OPENING BONDS

Sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned at his office in the City Hall, Newark, New Jersey, until Tuesday, May 17, 1932, at 2 o'clock, P. M., Daylight Saving Time, when they will be publicly opened for the purchase at not less than par and accrued interest of bonds of The City of Newark, New Jersey, of the following authorized issue, viz.: $4,000,000 Street Opening Bonds, of the denomination of $1,000 each, dated June 1, 1932, maturing serially $110,000 of bonds on June 1st in each of the years 1933 to 1942, inclusive, $130,000 of bonds on June 1st in each of the years 1943 to 1952, inclusive, and $160,000 of bonds on June 1st in each of the years 1953 to 1962, inclusive. The bonds will be coupon bonds, registerable at the option of the holder as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest. Principal and interest will be payable in gold coin of the United States of the present standard of weight and fineness, at The National State Bank, in the City of Newark, New Jersey.

The bonds will bear interest at the rate of four and one-quarter per centum (4 $\frac{1}{4}$ %) per annum. However, if the bids received do not permit the award of the bonds as 4 $\frac{1}{4}$ % bonds, then the bonds shall bear interest at such higher rate, not exceeding five and three-quarters per centum (5 $\frac{3}{4}$ %) per annum, as may be named by the successful bidder. The rate named must be multiple of one-quarter of one per centum per annum, and must be the same for all of the bonds.

In awarding the bonds, only the proposals naming the lowest rate named in any proposal will be considered.

The amount necessary to be obtained by the sale of said bonds (exclusive of the amount of any interest accrued upon the bonds), is $4,000,000, and no more bonds will be sold than will produce the said amount (exclusive of accrued interest) and an additional sum of less than $1,000. If less than the maximum authorized amount of bonds is sold, the unsold bonds will be those last maturing. Unless all bids are rejected, the bonds will be sold to the bidder or bidders complying with the terms of sale and offering to pay not less than the amount necessary to be obtained, as above stated, and to take therefor the least amount of bonds, commencing with the first maturity, and if two or more bidders offer to take the same amount of bonds, then the bonds will be sold to the bidder or bidders offering to pay therefor the highest additional price (such additional price being less than $1,000.) In addition to the price bid, the purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The right is reserved to reject all bids.

Bidders, in submitting their bids, must use the bidding forms which will be furnished by the undersigned upon request.

Proposals should be addressed to the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance, City Hall, Newark, New Jersey, and enclosed in a sealed envelope marked on the outside "Proposal for Bonds," and must be accompanied by a certified check for two per centum (2%) of the face amount of the bonds bid for, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company to the order of the "Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance of The City of Newark," to secure the City against any loss resulting from a failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be returned upon the award of the bonds.

The successful bidder or bidders will be furnished with the opinion of Messrs. Reed, Hoyt & Washburn, of New York City, that the bonds are valid and binding obligations of The City of Newark. The bonds will be prepared under the supervision of the Continental Bank and Trust Company, which will certify as to the genuineness of the signatures of the officials and the seal impressed on the bonds.

By order of the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark.

Dated May , 1932.

JOHN HOWE
Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance of the City of Newark.

Section 6. The Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance is hereby authorized to cause said bonds to be prepared and to obtain the opinion of Messrs. Reed, Hoyt & Washburn, Attorneys, of New York City, as to the validity of the bonds, to be furnished to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, and the Mayor, Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance and the City Clerk are hereby authorized to execute said bonds, and the Director of Revenue and Finance is hereby authorized to deliver said bonds to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, upon receipt of the purchase price.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, it appears that the policy of the State Emergency Relief Administration favors the abandonment of all work relief programs by municipalities seeking aid from State funds, and has made the cancellation of programs a condition precedent to the obtaining of further monies out of the funds now available, and has intimated that in its recommendation to the Legislature as to subsequent emergency relief measures, work relief will be eliminated and only direct relief considered; and

WHEREAS, this Commission can find no fault with the policy of the said administration in arriving at this conclusion as to the continuance of work relief in other municipalities of the State, if, as has been intimated by members of the administration, work relief has been found too costly to afford aid to the extent demanded, nevertheless, this Commission feels unanimously that conditions in Newark cannot be compared or likened to those elsewhere; and

WHEREAS, this Commission has promoted its original program of work relief for the period from October to June with great benefit to not only those receiving relief, but to the community at large; and

WHEREAS, investigation discloses that the payment of wages to recruits from the unemployed list has accomplished:

1. A large reduction in the monies that would otherwise be expended for direct relief.
2. A huge benefit in the form of capital accumulation by the work done.
3. A greatly increased morale in the unemployed ranks that could be accomplished by no amount of expenditure through direct relief.

and,

WHEREAS, The City of Newark has an unlimited amount of work to be done that would otherwise be let on contract, but which can be economically performed by recruits from the unemployed list; thus continuing to cut down the expenditures through direct aid or doles from the Department of Poor and Alms; thus continuing in employment the 3,500 or more persons now employed, 90% of whom would become utter dependents; and thus realizing on the expenditures already made to the amount of approximately $150,000 for materials and equipment; and

WHEREAS, a thorough survey of conditions in The City of Newark having revealed that while the recruiting of unemployed labor on City work has not been 100% efficient; there is plenty of evidence to prove that the work has been economically done and that the relief afforded more than offsets any efficiency loss that might be ascertainable;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, that the Mayor of The City of Newark, as municipal director appointed by the State Director of Emergency Relief, be and he is hereby authorized to urge upon the State Administration of Emergency Relief the continuance of work relief for The City of Newark, both for the balance of the term ending June 1st and for such further work relief programs as may be deemed by this Commission in its discretion advisable, and that the State Administration be urged by the Mayor to make some provision that State funds set aside for the use of The City of Newark for emergency relief may be used both in direct relief and work relief administration, interchangeably.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, heretofore, to wit, on November 30, 1931, the City of Newark, County of Essex, State of New Jersey, did submit its program for Dependency Relief, pursuant to Chapter 394, P. L. 1931, which program shows an estimated expenditure of

$1,000,000 for Dependency Relief; and

WHEREAS, said Program was thereafter approved by the County Director for the County of Essex and, under date of December 30, 1931, was approved by the State Director of Emergency Relief, as will appear by Special Order No. 548, whereby the amount reserved as State Aid for said City of Newark for Dependency Relief was fixed and determined at the sum of $305,631.37; and

WHEREAS, on or about February 24, 1932, the State Director of Emergency Relief caused the transfer to the General Relief Fund (Fund C) from the Dependency Fund (Fund B) of the sum of $48,238.23, so far as regards the City of Newark; and

WHEREAS, it appears that the expenditures made by this City for Dependency Relief from the 13th of October, 1931, to the 20th of April, 1932, aggregate the sum of $884,173.31, and that the additional sum of $525,000 will be required to be paid out for Dependency Relief from the 20th of April, 1932, to June 1st, 1932, which last said amount includes the necessary payment of bills incurred during the month of March, 1932, thus making a total actual and estimated expenditure by this City for Dependency Relief of $1,409,173.31 from October 13, 1931, to June 1, 1932; and

WHEREAS, the expenditures made by this City for Dependency Relief for the year 1929 amounted to the sum of $235,921.58; and

WHEREAS, the amount of said reimbursement for Dependency Relief would therefore have amounted to the sum of $469,300.69 if this City had foreseen, at the time of the submission of the aforesaid Program, such actual and estimated necessary expenditures for Dependency Relief; and

WHEREAS, after applying the amount reserved by the State for Dependency Relief, as aforesaid, of $305,631.37, it follows that this City, as matters now stand, will not be reimbursed for moneys expended and to be expended by it as aforesaid, for Dependency Relief, to the extent of $163,669.32, representing the difference between the amount so reserved and the amount of reimbursement it otherwise would have earned; and

WHEREAS, the aforesaid sum of $48,238.23, transferred as aforesaid, to the General Relief Fund, if restored to and reserved for the benefit of this City would in part reimburse it for the money spent and to be spent on Dependency Relief, as aforesaid;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and City Commission of the City of Newark, hereby amend the aforesaid Program for Dependency Relief in the following respect:

The estimated amount of expenditures for Dependency Relief between October 13, 1931, and June 1, 1932, shall read the sum of $1,409,173.31 instead of $1,000,000;

and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the State Director of Emergency Relief be, and he hereby is, requested to approve said amendment and transfer from the General Relief Fund (Fund C), the sum of $48,238.23 to the Dependency Relief Fund (Fund B), and to restore and reserve the said last mentioned amount for the City of Newark for Dependency Relief, in addition to the sum of $305,631.37 heretofore reserved for that purpose by special order No. 548.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the present economic crisis has thrown thousands of workmen out of employment whereby they have been unable to meet the burden of taxes imposed upon them by municipalities, thus decreasing the revenues of such municipalities aside from placing a heavy burden for maintenance and support of the poor on such municipalities; and

WHEREAS, it is the opinion of this Board that the enactment of legislation permitting the manufacture and sale of light wines and beer would add substantial revenues by taxation aside from furnishing employment to many people in the diversified industries connected with the manufacture and sale of such products; and

WHEREAS, it is the belief of this Board that any effective action along this line must be initiated by Congress;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that it is the opinion of this Board that the present economic situation demands the prompt enactment of legislation permitting the manufacture and sale of light wines and beer; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Board request the President of the United States, as head of the Nation, to use his influence and good offices to have Congress enact legislation permitting the manufacture and sale of light wines and beer; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the President of the United States of America for such action as he may deem proper.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard?

Mr. Meyer Kessel, Lefcourt Building:

This is the alley behind the Elks Club right down here. The locality has always been used, at least, for a good number of years, for garages and parking stations. As you gentlemen undoubtedly know, the land right behind the Elks is used for parking. There is not sufficient space for the parking of automobiles for the patrons of the Elks nor for the tenants of 1060 Broad Street. The land we are interested in—

Commissioner Murray: They have plenty of parking space out on Broad Street.

Mr. Kessel: They don't permit it over a certain time.

Commissioner Gillen: Is this vacant land now?

Mr. Kessel: It is vacant land except on one corner on 8 Elder Place there is a garage now, I think large enough for four cars. All we want to do is to use that for an open-air parking place and for the installation of one pump for commercial purposes.

Commissioner Gillen: And tear down the garage?

Mr. Kessel: No, I think we are going to let that stand.

Mayor Congleton: Will you promise to get some of the cars that park along the curb of our park on Broad Street if we give you this permit?

Mr. Kessel: Yes, sir.

Mayor Congleton: Cars belonging to the people from the Elks and Industrial Building are parked all day long from early morning, and they do not park parallel with the curb, but at right angles, and they block off the curb in great shape; and there is a big open-air parking space between Camp Street and Chestnut Street vacant.

Newark, N. J., May 3, 1932.

The Board of Commissioners
of The City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:—

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 272, P. L. 1928, that the following applications for variations from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

3-43 Lexington Street, Saul M. Singer, archt. for Specialty Handle Mfg. Co.; outdoor parking of automobiles; approved for two (2) years.

262-268 South Street, Alvin Lewis (Mary E. Riordan, owner), gasoline station; approved for five (5) years.

805 So. 14th Street, Gustave Steck, owner; retail ice depot; approved for two (2) years.

580 So. 10th Street, Albert Horowitz (William Aschenbush, owner), two portable gasoline wheel tanks; approved for one (1) year.

57 Rutgers Street, Otto Defiino (Max Resenkrantz, owner), retail ice depot; approved for two (2) years.

The Board of Adjustment
R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Received, copy to be sent to each Commissioner, and further action postponed two weeks.

John Howe

Director of Revenue and Finance.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to call to the attention of the Commission this morning?

No reply.

Mayor Congleton at this point in the meeting introduced a number of school boys representing local institutions and who are students of civics. The boys and the institutions were as follows:

Carmen Fernicola of the County Vocational School was Mayor of Newark for the day.

Other officers were:

Robert Bopp of South Side High School, Deputy Mayor; Fred Feind of Barringer High School, Director of Revenue and Finance; Samuel Graw of South Side, Director of Parks and Public Property; Charles J. Reilly of St. Benedict's Prep School, Director of Public Works; Dudley Booth of West Side, Director of Public Safety; Paul C. Hulsenbeck of Newark Academy, City Clerk; Anthony Masi of Central High School, Corporation Counsel, and George Francis McGuire of East Side, Chief Engineer.

The junior mayor and city commission sat with the City Commission as it transacted routine business.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, I notice in the audience a gentleman who is very active in boys' work, representing the civic clubs, the Reciprocity particularly, and I think we will all be glad to hear from him, speaking for the boys for just a second—Mr. Frank Heller.

Mr. Frank Heller: Mr. Robnett, our chairman, is here. We are not prepared to make response to that invitation. Mr. Robnett, our general chairman, Mr. Mayor and gentlemen.

Mr. Edwin H. Robnett: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, the civic clubs council, and as general chairman of the Boys' Week celebration we are deeply indebted to you for your interest in the boys, but I think it would be very nice to have our chairman of this committee, Mr. Mahor, say something at this time.

Mr. Mahor: We want you to know that we are certainly deeply grateful for the wonderful co-operation you have given us, Commissioners, in helping us to put this day across. We know the boys appreciate it a lot, and the other arrangements you have made for the day. I know they will be deeply delighted with. Thank you very much for your co-operation.

Mayor Congleton: Mayor Fernicola will now address you.

Junior Mayor Fernicola: Mayor Congleton and honorable members of the City Commission: On behalf of the boys of this great city of Newark permit me to thank you for your many kindnesses during Boys' Week. These days as Junior Mayor, I am really getting a big kick out of. Thank you. (Applause).

We will ask Director Egan's man to get up. Dudley Booth.

Junior Commissioner Booth: I am very proud to be here this morning representing West Side High School as Director of Public Safety. Commissioner Egan has just told me that he has managed to get hold of seventeen or eighteen horses and an equal number of motorcycles, and if any of the Commissioners care to join us we can go riding this afternoon.

Junior Mayor Fernicola: Director Gillen's successor, Samuel Graw.

Junior Commissioner Graw: I cannot say much more than has already been said, but I feel that a great honor has been bestowed upon me to act as Commissioner of Parks and Public Property in place of our Honorable Commissioner Gillen. When I was introduced to Commissioner Gillen I was introduced as his successor. I can hope for nothing more than when Commissioner Gillen will probably be a higher official in this state I will really and truly be his successor.

Junior Mayor Fernicola: Charles Reilly will get up and say a few words. He is Commissioner Murray's successor.

Junior Commissioner Reilly: Mr.

Mayor and Honorable Commissioners. Mr. Murray has told me that his department is the headache department of the city, and therefore I am glad I am only Junior Commissioner. And I thank everyone who has helped to make this week a big success.

Junior Mayor Fernicola: Director Howe's successor, Fred Feind.

Junior Commissioner Feind: Mr. Mayor and Honorable Commissioners, I thought that Mr. Howe's department was the headache department of the city, especially in these times; and in these times of non-payment of taxes and depression I am certainly glad this position of mine is only temporary.

Junior Mayor Fernicola: City Clerk O'Toole's successor, Paul Huelsenbeck.

Junior City Clerk Huelsenbeck: I can only say that as the representative of the city's oldest school I am more than proud to be here.

Junior Mayor Fernicola: Anthony Masi, corporation counsel.

Junior Corporation Counsel Masi: I wish to take this opportunity to thank not only the Commissioners, but also the civic committee, for their work in the Boys' Week. Naturally, as you all know, I consider it a great honor.

Junior Mayor Fernicola: Mr. Costello's successor.

Junior Chief Engineer McGuire: Well, gentlemen, I am very glad to be here and I thank you for the interest taken in us.

Junior Mayor Fernicola: The Deputy Mayor, will he get up.

Junior Deputy Mayor Bopp: I am very proud to fill the office of Deputy Mayor under Mr. Gammons.

Junior Mayor Fernicola: Robert Urwin, Commissioner of Newark Airport.

Junior and Traffic Manager Urwin: I want to thank everybody for the way they allowed us boys to take their positions, and I hope again in the future we will occupy them in real life. Thank you.

Mayor Congleton: Boys, we are mighty glad to have had you here with us, and I hope that you will come in and see us from time to time during the year, because having been elected to these various offices, it is not for a day, I take it, but that you are going to continue now until you are put out of office by the election of your successors. So feel free to come in any time you care to.

Is there any other business to come before the meeting?

Commissioner Gillen: I move we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioner's Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioner Egan.

The minutes of meeting of May 4th were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An Ordinance authorizing the issuance of $4,000,000 Street Opening Bonds of The City of Newark, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

(No response).

No one appearing, Commissioner Murray moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance authorizing the issuance of $4,000,000 Street Opening Bonds of the City of Newark.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark Do Ordain as follows:

Section 1. Pursuant to Chapter-252 of the Laws of 1916 of New Jersey, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, negotiable bonds of The City of Newark, to be known as "Street Opening Bonds," and to be dated not later than July 1, 1932, are hereby authorized to be issued in the aggregate principal amount of $4,000,000, for the purposes hereinafter stated, for which purposes it is necessary to raise said sum of money.

Section 2. The money to be raised by the issuance of said bonds shall be applied in the following sums to the payment of the part of the cost of acquiring the lands necessary for the opening and widening of the following respective portions of public streets in said City, which it has been determined by ordinance shall not be specially assessed against property specially benefited, viz.:

- (a) The sum of $2,000,000 for Ferry Street from New Jersey Railroad Avenue southerly to East Mechanic Street and Market Street from Commercial Street easterly to Commerce Street and Commercial Street from Commerce Street northeasterly to the Passaic River, as authorized by ordinance adopted on the 6th day of November, 1929;
- (b) The sum of $1,000,000 for Raymond Plaza West from Market Street northerly to River Street, as authorized by Ordinance adopted on the 7th day of May, 1930;
- (c) The sum of $1,000,000 for Mulbery Street from a point about 27 feet south of the southerly line of Market street northerly to Aronson Square, as authorized by ordinance adopted on the 14th day of May, 1929.

Section 3. The bonds authorized to be issued by this ordinance for each of the purposes described in Section 2 of this ordinance are authorized to be issued in lieu of or to fund a like amount of temporary loan bonds or notes heretofore authorized to be issued for such purpose pursuant to the provisions of Section 13 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended. The proceeds of the bonds authorized by this ordinance to be issued for such purpose, shall, to the extent necessary, be applied to the payment of any such temporary bonds or notes issued for such purpose and outstanding at the time said bonds authorized for such purpose by this ordinance are issued. The amount of such temporary bonds or notes authorized for such purpose shall be deemed reduced by the amount by which the amount of the bonds authorized for such purpose by this ordinance exceeds the amount of such temporary bonds or notes issued for such purpose and outstanding at the time the bonds authorized for such purpose by this ordinance are issued.

Section 4. The following matters are hereby determined and declared, pursuant to the requirements of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended:

- (a) The improvements or properties for which bonds are hereby authorized to be issued were not completed or acquired prior to July 1, 1931, and are of the class described in Subdivision (M) of Subsection (2) of Section 4 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended.
- (b) The probable periods of usefulness of the improvements and properties described in Section 2 of this ordinance are, in each case, thirty years, and the average of said periods, computed in the manner prescribed by Section 4 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended, taking into consideration the amount of bonds to be issued on account of each of said purposes, is thirty years, beginning on the date of said bonds.

- (c) The average assessed valuation of the taxable real property (including improvements) of said The City of Newark, computed upon the next preceding three valuations thereof, in the manner provided in Section 12 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended, is $731,272,081.
- (d) The net debt of Said City, computed in the manner provided in said Section 12, as amended, is $45,520,549.23.
- (e) The statements required by said Section 12 (showing said net debt, etc.) have been made and filed with the City Clerk, as therein required.

Section 5. This ordinance shall take effect in the manner provided by law.

PASSAIC VALLEY SEWERAGE COMMISSIONERS

24 Brandford Place,
Newark, N. J.

May 4, 1932.

Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark,
City Hall, Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:

In reply to your telephone inquiry of your Mr. Brady of this morning with reference to the financial situation in connection with the contract for the relocation and construction of the main intercepting sewer, please be advised that the total receipts to date are $401,641.20. The total disbursements to date are $396,743.36. There is a balance in hand of $4,879.-84 and there are accounts payable of $28,253.92. Unless there are some bills of which I do not have any knowledge at this time the amount we will require from the City of Newark to wind up the account will be $23,856.08.

The Passaic Valley Sewerage Commissioners would be pleased to have you designate some one to come to this office and audit the accounts of this work.

Yours truly
H. J. Quigg,
Treasurer.

Ordered referred to Commissioner Howe.

Commissioner Gillen offered the following resolution:

APPLICATION having been made by the Roman Catholic Diocese of Newark for permit to use the following described property for cemetery purposes:

BEGINNING at the intersection of the northerly line of South Orange Avenue and the easterly line of Maybaum Avenue as laid out on the map hereinafter mentioned; thence running (1) north twenty degrees sixteen minutes east along the said easterly side of Maybaum Avenue ninety-nine feet and fifty hundredths of a foot to the southwesterly corner of lot No. 84 on said map; thence (2) running south sixty-nine degrees forty-four minutes east along the line of said lot No. 84 fifty feet to the division line between lots No. 9 and 10 on said map; thence (3) running south twenty degrees sixteen minutes west along said division line ninety-nine feet and thirty hundredths of a foot to the northerly line of South Orange Avenue; thence (4) westerly along said side of South Orange Avenue fifty feet to the point of beginning.

Being known and designated as Lots 10 and 11 as laid out on a map of property of A. Maybaum & Sons., situated in the City of Newark, N. J., made by Harrison Van Duyne, Surveyor, December, 1908.

Which premises adjoin a tract of land recently purchased by the Roman Catholic Diocese of Newark for cemetery purposes, upon considering the said application,

BE IT RESOLVED, By the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, that the application for the permit to use the aforesaid property for cemetery purposes be and the same is hereby granted, upon condition that the said Roman Catholic Diocese of Newark pay to the City of Newark the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.) in lieu of taxes which the City would have received if the land were not used for cemetery purposes, and because the property will be taken out of the tax ratables of The City of Newark.

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission this morning before we go into a hearing on the licensing ordinances?

Mr. John J. Merck, 441 South 18th Street: Last week before the Zoning Board I represented Mr. Steck on his petition to sell ice from a vacant garage at 805 South 14th Street. It was passed by the Zoning Board.

Mayor Congleton: That is the process.

Mr. Merck: I am wondering if you gentlemen could concur in that at today's meeting. There are no objectors.

Mayor Congleton: What is it, Mr. Rankin?

Mr. Rankin: A retail ice depot converting an existing garage for that purpose. There were no objectors.

Mayor Congleton: Whereabouts is it?

Mr. Rankin: 805 South 14th Street, south of Avon Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: The application is to suspend the rules. You only have to wait one week more, and the Commissioners think in a matter of this kind they do not want to suspend the rules. We would like to go and look at the location. I think you had better wait a week.

Mr. Merck: All right.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter they desire to discuss with the Commission other than the licensing ordinances?

Mrs. Catherine Callaghan, 16 State Street, appeared and said that she had requested City aid but it was refused her because she owns property. Commissioner Murray informed Mrs. Callaghan that he would take it up.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter? If not, we will go into a discussion of the proposed licensing ordinances. We will take up first the one relating to open-air parking stations. Is there anyone who desires to discuss that ordinance with us? I think everyone is familiar with it.

Mr. George B. Astley, 790 Broad Street. Relative to the open air parking stations, I understand this ordinance contemplates one cent a square foot instead of car space fees. Representing closed garages in the center of the city, both Brandford Place and Center Street garages, I would state that taking a 100 by 100 foot plot as a basis for argument, the fee at one cent a square foot would amount to $100. Now, you take a one-story building on the same 100 by 100 feet, would cost about $15,000 to $20,000 to build, and would be assessed at the very least at $10,000. Your present rate on $100. would be a $388. tax on that building. Now, for the purpose of competition in the business a man would open up a parking space next door to me and pay one cent a square foot, and he would be paying $100. for the same space of storage that I would be paying $388. as taxes on the assessed value of the building, and I do not think that is quite fair for the purpose of competition in business. Now, if I appear before you and ask you to tear down my building, which would tear down a ratable of $388. a year, you would hesitate in giving me that privilege whereby I could do my same business at $100. tax as against the $388. I am paying for the building. My point is that it would tend to lessen the applications to tear down ratable property if there was a little closer fee there in comparison with the tax fee. In other words, I think if that was raised to two cents or two and one half cents—Now, just as a comparison on the 100 by 100 basis, they would pay a tax under this proposed ordinance of $100; at two and one half cents they would pay $250. Now, on $10,000, the assessed value of that building, $388 is paid. Now, that is just a comparison of the figures on a plot 100 by 100, and therefore, I think that rate should be increased and that is my request to the Board in considering the ordinance to increase that to at least two and one half cents from one cent a square foot.

Commissioner Gillen: For the open-air parking stations?

Mr. Astley: Yes.

Commissioner Howe: As compared to a building.

Mr. Astley: That would be less than the value of a building, but it would give a man with a building an opportunity to compete for the business, and it would also tend to lessen the application to tear down these ratables.

Commissioner Gillen: How much would you suggest for the building?

Mr. Astley: The building is fixed now at $388. This is open-air. In other words, I will tear down my building that I am paying $388. taxes on a year, and I can pay $100. under one cent a square foot, and do the same business; and it is not fair to a man in the center of the city who has a building of that kind. I think it should be increased a cent and one-half over the proposed one cent

Commissioner Gillen: Two and one-half cents?

Mr. Astley: Yes, on 100 by 100-foot basis That would be $250 he would pay as against the other man paying, we will say, on a one-story building covering the same area, $388.

Mayor Congleton: Are there any of the enclosed garages assessed for $10,000 on a 100 by 100 lot, do you know?

Mr. Astley: The two I represent do.

Mayor Congleton: On the building.

Mr. Astley: Do they what?

Mayor Congleton: Are they assessed $10,000 on the building?

Mr. Astley: They pay more because it is more than a one-story building.

Mayor Congleton: I was wondering how many garages there are assessed as high as $10,000.

Mr. Astley: Where this is principally effective is in the center of the city.

Commissioner Howe: Wouldn't that apply anywhere?

Mr. Astley: You cannot build a building one story high, 100 by 100, for less than $15,000, and I think it would be assessed at at least $10,000. I know the buildings I represent are practically new buildings and they are assessed way beyond that. Of course, they have other floors above.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak with respect to the ordinance relating to the licensing of open-air parking stations?

Mr. Arthur L. Forrest, 24 Brandford Place: The Retail Trade Council of the Chamber of Commerce asked me to represent them and indicate their opinion as favoring in principle the proposed licensing of open-air parking stations on a square foot basis at a rate that will be established by the City Commission as an equitable rate.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Charles Handler, 790 Broad Street: I understand the only change now is instead of making it $1.50 a square foot—making it one cent a square foot.

Mayor Congleton: $1.50 per car space.

Mr. Handler: I believe that the tax you are proposing is absolutely an unjust license tax, is discriminatory, and you are levying it upon a class of people who you are simply going to drive into bankruptcy or out of business. I challenge any of the Commissioners, or anybody who has investigated the matter, to show me where any of these people in the open-air parking places are making any money. You can take the place—

Mayor Congleton: I wonder, then, why we have so many new applications week after week for them.

Mr. Handler: It is the condition of the times, Mr. Mayor; a man will grasp at a straw to try to make a living. At one cent a square foot some of these people will have to pay as high as $900. or $1,000 a year taxes. I say some of those places do not make that much profit a year. The argument that the people in the center of the city are raising who have garages that this tax should be put on for the purpose of making some sort of fair competition is absolutely without the province of this commission or any tax-fixing body. Questions of competition and the wisdom of going into one form of business or another with a certain kind of equipment or not, is a matter of judgment for the individual, and mistakes in judgment cannot be equalized by this board.

Mayor Congleton: Justice Brandeis of the United States Supreme Court did not file a dissenting opinion along that line, did he?

Mr. Handler: Justice Brandeis, while a very eminent jurist, is not the whole court, and the court's majority opinion was the other way.

Mayor Congleton: He had a lot of good food for thought there.

Mr. Handler: Perhaps because it was so startling and radical in regard to the government regulation of business rather than to the strict legal merit of the question; but so far, under the theory we are proceeding under in Newark, I think nobody can come up here and say it is the function of the commission to equalize competition between business by raising one tax against one set of men in favor of another, because that is purely discrimination, and I think this tax amounts to that. They raise the argument that on some pieces of land you have a fine building and they pay taxes, or you haven't got the building. But, Mr. Mayor, you are not fixing this tax on the improvements, you are fixing this tax for the license for the right to perform a certain type of business and carry it on.

Commissioner Gillen: We want revenue, and as I understand it, all these tax ordinances are to provide revenue.

Mayor Congleton: The ordinance specifically so states.

Mr. Handler: I think one sentence in the ordinance may not cover it—

Mayor Congleton: The courts have decided so in this State many times.

Commissioner Gillen: I would not vote for any ordinance that would impose further burdens on the people. I want to see money come into the city treasury, and we need the money.

Mr. Handler: I agree we need the money, and I am not urging that the commission do not find other fields of revenue; but I say if you are going to tax the right to do business, then if that distinction is the amount of regulation one as to the other, that is unfair; but if the right to do business on a certain street is taxed uniformly, if I run a millinery shop and you run a parking station, tax them all alike wherever they are doing business, but don't pick out the parking stations merely because it is a parking station.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard on this particular ordinance? If not, the hearing on this one will be closed.

Commissioner Gillen: I move the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: The next one is an ordinance to license transient merchants and itinerant vendors. Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Arthur L. Forrest, 24 Brandford Place: I spoke previously, Mr. Commissioner, that the Retail Trade Council of the Chamber of Commerce favors the ordinance in principle.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone want to speak on the transient merchants, which is the fly-by-night, six months period.

(No response).

Commissioner Gillen: I move the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: We will then take up the ordinance to license hawkers, peddlers' helpers and non-profit-making vendors and solicitors.

Mr. George B. Astley: The Borden Milk Company did not receive word of this license until this morning; the Sheffield did not receive word until this morning; the Alderney Milk and Cream heard of it last night. My application is, first to have the hearing in this matter go over for a week to give these gentlemen an opportunity to be heard.

Mayor Congleton: This is merely for the purpose of getting some information. The ordinances have to be introduced and then come up for the regular hearing fixed by law.

Mr. Astley: You mean for a hearing on second reading?

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

Mr. Astley: May I make the suggestion then relative to the drafting of this particular ordinance. In cases like Sheffield, Borden and Newark Milk and Cream, who have fleets of wagons, they are not peddling, they are delivering; and I do not see where there is any difference in that case than in Bamberger and Kresge's delivering goods from their stores.

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Astley, goods sold by the department stores or any other stores are sold in the store, they are sent out and specifically delivered at the address of the buyer who went to the store to buy. In this other case they are going around and soliciting business, and it is questionable whether on any two days they deliver the same amount.

Mr. Astley: I would like to answer that, Mr. Commissioner, in this way: The Bamberger, Kresge and these stores send me letters continually of certain bargains they have, soliciting my buying them. I telephone in and order them, and I telephone Borden, Sheffield, or the Newark Milk and Cream and order so many quarts of cream or so many quarts of milk. It is exactly the same; I do not see any difference at all. We do not go on the street two o'clock in the morning yelling "MILK" or ringing bells. We are delivering milk ordered from these concerns exactly the same as if I telephoned to Kresge and order a suit of clothes.

Commissioner Murray: Kresge's don't go next door to you and try to sell the same order they sold to you.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

A resolution from the New Jersey Bakers' Board of Trade Essex Division, signed by Paul Handler, President and Henry F. Dylle, Secretary, urging the adoption of regulating licensing baker peddlers, selling bread, cakes, pastries and other bakery products, was received read and on motion ordered filed.

Mr. Louis Auerbacher, Jr., 60 Park Place: I am appearing here particularly for the Essex Division of the New Jersey Bakers Board of Trade. This organization is composed largely of the independent retail bakers in the City of Newark. In this Essex Division there are 130 independent retail bakers maintaining establishments in the City of Newark. They have adopted a resolution, the details of which I will state later; but I wanted to state also that it is of interest to a total of 400 independent retail bakers in the City of Newark, all of whom, I believe, are in favor of a tax against the peddling or vending of bakery products from house to house. These independent retail bakers are a large part of the life of this city; they have maintained establishments for years; many of them employ help; they pay taxes to the city; and they are confronted with the situation today where certain bakers go from house to house and solicit orders carrying the bakery products in a tray or basket and solicit orders for cake and bread and pie. Our organization feels that the City of Newark should not only regulate these bakery peddlers by a license fee, but that there should be imposed upon them a substantial license fee to equalize the unfair competition. The New Jersey Bakers feel that a fee of $300 ought to be imposed on every vehicle which carries on a business of that kind in the city. It is a very dangerous situation, gentlemen, which confronts the independent retailers, the independent merchants of the city, with competition of this kind.

Mr. Abraham S. Getchman, Left Court Building: I am representing the Good Humor Company. It is quite apparent that the ordinance that is about to be presented is to a greater or lesser extent a revenue measure, am I correct in that?

Mayor Congleton: Very largely.

Mr. Getchman: We have a five year lease on a piece of property belonging to the Blanchard Securities Company on Frelinghuysen Avenue, for which we pay a rental of $6,000 a year. This rental is going to be increased considerably because of larger quarters which are taking from the same company. Our expenses in the last year have totaled over $87,000, over $60,000 of which went out for payrolls to men living mostly in Newark. The balance, approximately $30,000, went out in power, light, telephone and other expenses. Now, we purchase supplies in New Jersey, principally Newark, such as oil, gas, refrigerants, paper cartons, and many others too numerous to mention here. As a matter of fact, our raw products are milk and cream and are purchased in and around Newark or close to Newark. Now, if it is the object of the Commission to bring in a revenue measure that will legislate us out of existence, you are only killing the goose that lays the golden egg.

Mayor Congleton: I understand your clients have sent a letter out to all people around Newark and vicinity that you buy from that if this ordinance is passed you won't deal with them any more.

Mr. Getchman: I would like to see a copy of that letter, Mr. Mayor.

Mayor Congleton: And have had them all coming down and pestering us about it.

Mr. Getchman: I do not believe there would be anything improper in that if such was the case. I would like to see a copy of the letter. This is the first I heard of it. We have received no reasons from the commission here, from the council, indicating why our tax should be increased over anybody else's; it is six times as large as some of the others. It is purely discriminatory, and there is no reason for it.

Mayor Congleton: I think we get that idea from some of the cases that have been litigated and reported in our advance sheets of the Law Reporter.

Mr. Getchman: That is quite possible. I believe if you gentlemen pass this ordinance you will probably force us to move out of the city and take up quarters elsewhere. The present property owners obtaining this rental from us will be unable to get that from anyone else.

Mayor Congleton: So he has told me.

Mr. Getchman: I didn't know that. Thank you.

Mayor Congleton: You have not lost or missed any bets; you have had them all after us, bank accounts, and so forth and so on.

Mr. Getchman: Everybody is taking a crack out of it?

Mayor Congleton: Yes. You have stirred them up in good shape, your clients have, and they come all the way from very high places right on down.

Mr. Getchman: I hope it has the desired effect.

Mayor Congleton: Well, that kind of pressure does not influence me very much.

Mr. Getchman: I don't think it does. As a matter of fact, I know very little concerning that kind of pressure.

Mayor Congleton: If my mind was clear as to what was the right thing to do, it would not make much difference what the pressure that had been put on me was.

Mr. Getchman: It is quite natural, Mr. Mayor, for people to try to safeguard their business in any way they can see proper.

Mayor Congleton: I am not finding fault, I merely say your clients have not missed any bets.

Mr. Getchman: The only thing I say, you will find the very object of your measure will fail if you legislate them out of existence. A $300. license fee is greater than we can afford to pay under any circumstances anywhere; and if we give us the premises we occupy at this time—

Mayor Congleton: I am certain your taxes on that property will receive some re-consideration.

Mr. Charles H. Stewart, 810 Broad Street: I am speaking in behalf of the farmers and the Newark Farmers Market on this ordinance. The ordinance, in its first or second section, by an arbitrary definition, makes farmers who patronize a common public market, I think is the phraseology, peddlers or hawkers. Your board well knows that some six or seven hundred farmers, at a large expense, purchased a tract of land, and leased part of it, and own the rest of it, down at Chapel Street in Newark, and have developed a very substantial business proposition down there; and now that they have a business in the initial stage of success, the city Commission sees fit to propose to tax each farmer who comes in there a license fee of $50. It means those who do come down here and have to pay that $50. are going to pass that on to the consumer, because you all know, the newspapers are full of it, the United States government and our government—

Mayor Congleton: That would be somewhat in the nature of a sales tax, wouldn't it?

Mr. Stewart: It would be in the nature of a sales tax.

Mayor Congleton: Which would relieve real estate to some extent, which is one of the purposes we are after.

Mr. Stewart: I do not believe it would reduce real estate for one reason, you would not decrease our taxes down there.

Mayor Congleton: We would not have to increase them.

Mr. Stewart: The amount which you will derive from 600 farmers at $50. a year is not going to make such a great reduction in the tax rate.

Mayor Congleton: Not that alone, but that is the same situation that they have been confronted with down in Washington, they all agree they have got to have more revenue; but everybody that is in a particular line wants it put on the other fellow and does not want their own particular line touched. It is the aggregate that we are after, Judge Stewart, and that we think we should get.

Mr. Stewart: You well know that the farming industry is in a rather bad situation. As I was about to say—

Mayor Congleton: Do you know of any that is not?

Mr. Stewart: Well, they are in worse because of both conditions that prevail in other industries and also because of the fact that when they have, as they had last last year and as they are going to have this year, for example, a peach crop that is going to be exceedingly large, it does not even pay to market their product and bring it in.

Mayor Congleton: We might send some of our unemployed up there to his orchard.

Mr. Stewart: What I want to point out is simply this, if this tax goes on it is going to drive a large number of farmer right from our district; they won't come in; they cannot afford to pay that. The small farmer cannot afford to pay that additional tax.

Mayor Congleton: Of course, I realize the merit in some of your statements. Your statement about the farmers business being poor, but I don't know of any business that is harder hit and more people affected by it than the municipalities business; and we have got to look at it too from that angle. It is a very troublesome question and these are very troublesome times.

Mr. Stewart: The attempt is, in every municipality, I think, today, to keep taxes down; but by levying a special tax on a special industry, while it may keep taxes down with regard to the people who are not in those special industries, it simply is a matter of raising the taxes to the people who are in that industry; and wherever they can they pass that tax along. That is what is going to happen.

Mayor Congleton: Your commodities are very very much lower than they were, and the cost of government seems to stay up, and we have got to make strenuous efforts along many lines to reduce the cost of government.

Mr. Stewart: I am going to admit, sir that the cost of farm products is away down.

Mayor Congleton: So the consumer is getting them cheaper than at any time.

Mr. Stewart: And therefore the farmer cannot afford to pay another tax.

Mayor Congleton: You were talking about his passing it on.

Mr. Stewart: I say he will have to pass it on to those who can stand it.

Mayor Congleton: So the ultimate consumer will be better off. Does anyone else want to speak on this ordinance?

Mr. A. Frosch, 1068 Bergen Street, appeared and stated he supplemented the statement by Mr. Auerbacher about the Newark bakers and house-to-house peddling.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. T. J. Mahoney, 350 Madison Avenue, New York: Do I understand that this is a proposed ordinance to include the taxation of vehicles used to distribute milk products?

Mayor Congleton: Yes, sir.

Mr. Mahoney: I would like to, as long as I am here, register a protest on behalf of the Borden Farm Products Company.

Mayor Congleton: You have already had one representative here this morning.

Mr. Mahoney: I would like to say I do not believe that you could fairly say that we are peddlers or itinerant vendors or any other classification that you may have in this proposed ordinance. I think one of the members of your Commission well knows, for he opened up the milk plant that we have in this city, which is, I believe, the finest in the world of its kind. At the present time we pay personal property tax on our vehicles, we pay real estate tax on our real property, we pay a Board of Health tax, we pay a gasoline tax, and on our motor distributors we pay an automobile license tax.

Mayor Congleton: So does everybody else who runs an automobile.

Mr. Mahoney: Of course, but I mention these to show you at the present time at least we have five burdens of taxes to remain here as a milk distributor and a seller of milk. We are not peddlers, we are an established business here, and I respectfully ask to be permitted to at least at this time register our protest against the enactment of this ordinance. And I might further say at the time I believe there is a question of law which I think may be raised as to whether or not if the ordinance does go through, assuming that it is to cover milk wagons or milk vehicles, whether or not that would be lawful.

Commissioner Gillen: You can get a copy of the ordinance.

Mr. Mahoney: I would like to get a copy of it.

Commissioner Gillen: You can take it with you and study it.

Mr. Mahoney: Thank you very much

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Manuel Pogash, 24 Commerce Street:

I attended the first public hearing on the peddlers ordinance. At that time I pointed out to you gentlemen that the Newark Fruit Peddlers Protective Association, which I represent, is not in any way opposed to the $25 license fee, but is opposed to the provision of the ordinance which provides for a fifty per cent. reduction in the license fee for those obtaining licenses after six months of the year have gone by. I see that that provision of the ordinance has not been eliminated. While it may be fair to have such a provision in the case of other kinds of peddlers such as bread peddlers or milk peddlers, it is very unfair for the fruit people who do all their business and make whatever they do make throughout the summer months, during the months of July and August.

Mayor Congleton: I think there is merit in your contention. Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. O. Henry Grois: He said he represented the Essex Trades Council. We have in the baking industry employers that deliver and employers that are engaged in what we call store business. Naturally we know not what is the intent of this Commission in proposing any regulation on these specific wagons, and we feel that we would like to reserve the right for future comments on the ordinance as it is introduced. We represent in the neighborhood of 900 organized bakers in Essex County. There are three locals. Naturally, we are vitally interested in the clause pertaining to bakers, and we feel that some sort of protection should be given to men who establish themselves in their local places of business over a period of years, and at the same time we are fearful of some great injury that may be caused to those other people that are in this industry that have had that investment in there over a long period of years.

Mayor Congleton: These ordinances are not officially before us.

Mr. Grois: I understand that. As soon as they are officially before you we want an opportunity to study them and digest their contents.

Mayor Congleton: When they are introduced on first reading they will lay over for two weeks. Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Commissioner Gillen: I move the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen: I move we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

A P P R O V E D :

JEROME T. CONGLETON
JOHN HOWE
CHARLES P. GILLEN
JNO F. MURRAY, JR.

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., May 18, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioner Murray.

The minutes of meeting of May 11th were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance providing for the opening of Raymond Boulevard from a point about 220 feet west of Broad Street westerly to Plane Street, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordinance be laid over until May 25th.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An Ordinance to supplement the ordinance entitled "An ordinance to provide for the opening and widening of Ferry Street on the southerly side thereof from New Jersey Railroad Avenue southerly to East Mechanic Street; for the opening and widening of Market Street on the northerly side thereof from Commercial Street easterly to Commerce Street; for the opening and widening of Commercial Street on the southeasterly side thereof from Commerce Street northeasterly to the Passaic River," adopted on the 6th day of November, 1929, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Before we take up the consideration of these ordinances I would like to make a statement with respect to them, because there seems to be some misapprehension in the minds of some of the property owners. These ordinances are passed by virtue of the statute passed this year which permits the City to issue bonds for some part of the city's share of these improvements. It doesn't in any manner interfere with the proceedings before the Board of Assessments for Local Improvements. Take Mulberry Street for instance. We are taking up a million dollars now and they are in the bond issue that we sold yesterday so as to take up some short time paper. The balance of that improvement, if the Assessment Commission should assess two hundred thousand dollars against the abutting property, the balance would be upon the City at large. I make that statement so that the interested property owners will know that it doesn't in any manner disturb the proceedings before the Assessment Board, and whatever their final report is, and as confirmed, the City's share will again be absorbed in the bond issue.

Is there anyone who desires to be heard on these ordinances here on Ferry Street?

Mr. Herman Schlesinger: What effect will this have on the property owners?

Mayor Congleton: This is a matter that will be determined by the Assessment Board, Mr. Schlesinger, and this proceeding is taking out of the cost a certain sum and putting it on the city, so as to get rid of the short time paper. It doesn't interfere with the proceedings that are pending there at all.

Commissioner Egan: I move the public hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance to supplement the ordinance entitled "An ordinance to provide for the opening and widening of Ferry Street on the southerly side thereof from New Jersey Railroad Avenue southerly to East Mechanic Street; for the opening and widening of Market Street on the northerly side thereof from Commercial Street easterly to Commerce Street; for the opening and widening of Commercial Street on the southeasterly side thereof from Commerce Street northeasterly to the Passaic River," adopted on the 6th of November, 1929.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the ordinance by sections:

Title declared open to amendment.

Section 1 declared open to amendment.

Section 2 declared open to amendment.

The ordinance was declared open to amendment in all its parts.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordinance be adopted on second reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that said ordinance be ordered to a third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordinance be taken up on third reading and final passage.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the title of "An ordinance to supplement the ordinance entitled 'An ordinance to provide for the opening and widening of Ferry Street on the southerly side thereof from New Jersey Railroad Avenue southerly to East Mechanic Street; for the opening and widening of Market Street on the northerly side thereof from Commercial Street easterly to Commerce Street; for the opening and widening of Commercial Street on the southeasterly side thereof from Commercial Street northeasterly to the Passaic River,'" adopted on the 6th of November, 1929, be taken for its third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the title of the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to supplement the ordinance entitled "An ordinance entitled 'An ordinance to provide for the opening and widening of Ferry Street on the southerly side thereof from New Jersey Railroad Avenue southerly to East Mechanic Street; for the opening and widening of Market Street on the northerly side thereof from Commercial Street easterly to Commerce Street; for the opening and widening of Commercial Street on the southeasterly side thereof from Commerce Street northeasterly to the Passaic River,'" adopted on the 6th of November, 1929.

The ordinance having been read three times was then declared to be upon its third and final passage.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

AND WHEREAS, The Board of Commissioners signified its intention by a resolution to construct such a sewer in Harper Street from Avenue C to 425 feet easterly at a meeting of said Board held on April 27, 1932;

AND WHEREAS, A copy of such resolution together with a notice stating that objections to the making of said improvement would be heard by the Director of the Department of Public Affairs on May 9, 1932, at 10 o'clock A. M., was mailed or caused to be mailed by the said Engineer to the last known address of the last owner of record, as shown by the tax maps of such city, of the property abutting on the portion of the street or highway through which such sewer is proposed to be constructed;

AND WHEREAS, a copy of such resolution and notice was posted conspicuously in the City Hall at least five days prior to the introduction of this resolution, setting forth the final decision of said Board to cause the construction of said sewer;

ANDWHEREAS, At least two weeks have elapsed since the passage of the first resolution to which this resolution refers;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That this Board hereby hereby signifies its final decision to construct a sewer in Harper Street from Avenue C to 425 feet easterly, and the construction of such sewer to be done by day labor under the direct supervision of the Department of Public Affairs.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: I would like to call the attention of my colleagues to the fact that one of our old City employees passed away last night, Mr. Joseph Crawford. I would like to suggest that a proper resolution be prepared and inserted in today's minutes.

All in favor say aye, opposed, no.

Mr. Crawford has been with the City for thirty-two years and has always been a very faithful and efficient public servant.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS: Our beloved associate, Joseph H. Crawford, departed this life on Tuesday, May 17, 1932, terminating a career of exceptional service which was devoted to the interests of the people of his home city and state; and

WHEREAS: As Supervisor of Transportation for the City of Newark for thirty-one years, Mr. Crawford was in a large degree responsible for the development of the City's modern systems of transportation, manifesting in his chosen field of endeavors skill and ability of a high order, and a degree of fidelity to duty so conspicuous as to make him outstanding as a faithful public servant; and

WHEREAS: Recognizing Mr. Crawford's exceptional qualities and broad experience, Governor A. Harry Moore, in 1926, called upon him to serve as a member of a commission to devise a uniform system of enforcement of all of the state motor vehicle laws, and Governor Morgan F. Larson in 1930 appointed him a member of the State Traffic Commission, thereby bringing his knowledge and skill to assist in the solution of the vital problem of developing adequate systems of state-wide transportation and traffic movement,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, acting on behalf of the people of Newark, record this expression of deep loss which the city has suffered through the death of Joseph H. Crawford, and that we express to his family our deepest sympathy on their great loss.

REPORTS OF CITY OFFICERS

The following Reports of City Officers were received and ordered filed:

Trial Balance, Auditor April 30, 1932.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter to take up with the Commission this morning?

Mr. Samuel Koldorf, 398 Orange Street: He said he represented a committee of 127 produce merchants known as speculators. He said this committee wished to protest against the proposed $100 annual license fee. He said all speculators lived in Newark. He talked about general economic conditions.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who has any matter to speak of?

Mr. George B. Astley, Kinney Building: I represent leading milk concerns, delivering milk in the city, the People's, Jensen Dairy, the Newark Milk and Cream, the Alderney Dairy, Orange Dairy, Walsh, Sheffield Farms, Borden, and the Dairymen's League. All are paying large taxes in the city. This ordinance, as I understand, is for the purpose of raising revenue. At the same time, these wagons are assessed as ratables for raising revenue, so you get the position where the one wagon will be assessed $2 by a license, Board of Health, assessed ratables, personal property, and then, under this ordinance, be taxed again for revenue. In other words, it will be three raps to one wagon, and, if the Board feels that there should be a license here, I should think it should be a low license, in order to save us litigation in the matter, and then, again, it might be arranged on a fee basis, because these people have anywhere from 25 to 100 wagons going about, and it does not seem fair to pay tax on them, as long as the Board of Health is taxing them now.

I bring this matter in view of the fact the Commission will go in conference before the first reading of the bill that they give that consideration.

Mayor Congleton: All right, we will, Mr. Astley.

Anyone else?

Mr. J. Heller, representing the Ironbound Improvement Association: He filed a protest against the lessening of city lights on Ferry Street. He said it hurt business. He pointed out that much business was done at night in the stores.

Mr. Heller also spoke of the Ferry Street trolley service. It is bad, he declared.

Mayor Congleton: We will look into it, again, Mr. Heller.

Has anyone else any matter to take up with the Commission?

Mr. Herman Schlesinger: Now, I believe that Ferry Street is entitled to lights more than any street in Newark. It actually looks today like the coal mines in Pennsylvania; it does not look like a city street at all.

As we go farther under the Central Railroad bridge it is dark, filthy, dirty, no sidewalks. I don't believe there is a city in the United States or Europe with such conditions as exist under the railroad bridge.

Springfield Avenue is still an open street; even if they have not as many lights, there is no obstruction, but we have nothing but obstructions on Ferry Street. We intend to have a beer parade and we want lights for the evenings, because we only can do it in the evening and not during the day.

Mayor Congleton: I will go into it again, Mr. Schlesinger, and see what we can do.

Anyone else?

Mr. Harry Petchesky, 93 Girard Place: He said he operated several candy and ice cream stores. He protested against granting licenses to itinerant ice cream retail wagons. They injured his business. He said one of these wagons refused to move from in front of one of his stores.

Mayor Congleton: Let me have the number, please, Mr. Petchesky.

Mr. Petchesky: The number is X-21055.

Mayor Congleton: What section of Newark does he operate in?

Mr. Petchesky: From Renner Avenue—I mean, Huntington Terrace and Sheppard Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: I think you are right.

Mr. Petchesky: I pay over $25,000 a year taxes, and I pay it no matter what I get, but I would like to have protection because I will have those stores vacant, they told me so.

Commissioner Egan: We have that same condition up in my neighborhood.

Mr. Petchesky: It is terrible, we are just simply starving to death. We will stay here as long as we like.

Mayor Congleton: They are not only doing that but they are helping to litter the street.

Mr. Petchesky: I hope you do something for us.

Mayor Congleton: It will be taken care of today.

Commissioner Egan: It is not fair, they come around and take away the business that belongs to the little neighborhood store.

Mayor Congleton: The Commission will now recess until two o'clock.

(At this time a recess was taken to two P. M.)

The Commission reconvened at 2 P. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioner Murray.

Commissioner Gillen: I move we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

JEROME T. CONGLETON
W. J. EGAN
JOHN HOWE
CHARLES P. GILLEN

The Board of Commissioners of the
City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., May 25, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioner Murray.

The minutes of meeting of May 18th were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance providing for the opening of Raymond Boulevard from a point about 220 feet west of Broad Street westerly to Plane Street, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordinance be laid over until June 8th.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The Clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance providing for the vacation of Exchange Alley from the northerly line of Hamilton Street about 150 feet northeasterly; for the vacation of Hamilton Street lying between the westerly wall, as now existing, of the present United New Jersey Railroad & Canal Co. elevation and a line crossing Hamilton Street, said line having a bearing of South 44° 25' 30.25" West and intersecting the northerly line of Hamilton Street at a point distant South 63° 45' 16" East, 113.00 feet, measured along the present north line of Hamilton Street from the intersection of the westerly line of Ward Street with the northerly line of Hamilton Street; and for the vacation of a portion of New Jersey Railroad Avenue on the westerly side thereof approximately 32 feet in width and extending from its northerly terminus at Hamilton Street southerly to the southerly line of Lafayette Street.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, Do Ordain:

Section 1. That the following described streets in the City of Newark, viz:

Exchange Alley from the northerly line of Hamilton Street about 150 feet northeasterly, as follows:

All that part of Exchange Alley extending from the northerly line of Hamilton Street northeasterly about 150 feet to a line in straight extension easterly of the division line between land of the Central Railroad of New Jersey and Wilson & Co.

Hamilton Street lying between the westerly wall, as now existing, of the present United New Jersey Railroad & Canal Co. elevation and a line crossing Hamilton Street, said line having a bearing of South 44° 25' 30.25" West and intersecting the northerly line of Hamilton Street at a point distant South 63° 45' 16" East, 113.00 feet, measured along the present north line of Hamilton Street from the intersection of the westerly line of Ward Street with the northerly line of Hamilton Street, as follows:

All that part of Hamilton Street existing between the westerly wall, as now existing, of the present United New Jersey Railroad & Canal Co. elevation and a line crossing Hamilton Street, said line having a bearing of South 44° 25' 30.25" West and intersecting the northerly line of Hamilton Street at a point distant South 63° 45' 16" East, 113.00 feet, measured along the present north line of Hamilton Street from the intersection of the westerly line of Ward Street with the northerly line of Hamilton Street.

A portion of New Jersey Railroad Avenue on the westerly side thereof approximately 32 feet in width and extending from its northerly terminus at Hamilton Street southerly to the northerly line of Lafayette Street, as follows:

All that part of New Jersey Railroad Avenue approximately 32 feet in width lying west of the westerly side of the present United New Jersey Railroad & Canal Co. elevation and extending from its northerly terminus at Hamilton Street southerly to the northerly line of Lafayette Street.

All as shown on a map prepared under the direction of this Board, which map is hereto attached and made a part hereof and a copy of which map is on file in the office of the Chief Engineer, Department of Public Affairs, known and designated as Map No. 1413-V, dated September 18, 1931, shall be vacated as public streets or highways.

Under and by virtue of the provisions of Section 1, subdivision (b) of Article XXII, of an Act of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, entitled "An Act Concerning Municipalities,," approved March 27, 1917, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto.

Section 2. That this ordinance shall take effect immediately and all ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance, be and the same are hereby repealed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that June 8, 1932, at 10 A. M. Standard Time 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time, or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place when and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage, and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading as provided by law.

Commissioner Howe offered the following resolution:

Resolution Authorizing the Renewal of $750,000.00 Temporary Loan Bonds on Account of Street Openings.

WHEREAS, The City of Newark on March 28, 1932, issued its short time obligations known as Temporary Loan Bonds in the aggregate amount of Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($750,000.00) for money borrowed in anticipation of the receipt of money expended for Street Openings, said Temporary Loan Bonds being numbered 2686—2687—2688—2689—2690—2691—2692—2693 and 2694, and dated March 28, 1932, and payable May 28, 1932;

AND WHEREAS, the improvement for which said Seven Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($750,000.00) was issued was for Street Openings now in the course of construction or have been completed within six years and is an improvement for which the City is authorized to issue bonds, and the City is without funds to pay said Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($750,000.00) of Temporary Loan Bonds issued;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That in pursuance of the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, entitled "An Act to authorize and regulate the issuance of bonds and other obligations and the incurring of indebtedness by county, city, borough, village, town, township or any municipality governed by an improvement commission," approved March 22, 1916, and the amendments thereto, there shall be issued Temporary Loan Bonds in the amount of Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($750,000.00) for the purpose of temporarily financing the improvement aforesaid and renewing said Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($750,000.00) of Temporary Loan Bonds issued therefor;

FURTHER RESOLVED, That each of the Temporary Loan Bonds authorized by this resolution amounting in the aggregate to Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($750,000.00) shall state in general terms the purpose for which it is issued, shall be dated as of the date of its issue, shall mature not exceeding six months after its date, shall bear such rate of interest not exceeding six per centum per annum, and be issued in such denominations and be executed in such manner as the Director of Revenue and Finance shall determine, and the Mayor, the Director of Revenue and Finance, the Auditor of Accounts and the City Clerk be and they are hereby authorized and directed to execute in the name of the City the bonds authorized by this resolution, subject to the provisions of Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916;

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Director of Revenue and Finance be and he is hereby authorized and directed to sell said Temporary Loan Bonds at not less than par, either all at one time or from time to time.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the City of Newark is the owner of certain property known as the Submarine Boat Corporation lands, formerly leased to the United States Government, which lease was later assigned to the Submarine Boat Corporation, and which lease contained an option of purchase for a tract containing one hundred and twelve (112) acres lying on the north side of the inshore channel; and,

WHEREAS, the said lease lately expired and efforts were made by the tenant to exercise the said option through a purchaser of the same, H. R. Hanlin; and,

WHEREAS, the said H. R. Hanlin expended in the purchase of the said option by payment to the receivers for the same the sum of Sixty-Five Thousand Dollars ($65,000.00), and has filed with The City of Newark a claim for that amount, together with his expenses, in maintaining the said property during the period of negotiations with the City for the purchase of the lands, which expenses amount to Ten Thousand Three Hundred and Fourteen Dollars and Eighty-Four Cents ($10,314.84); and,

WHEREAS, after negotiations with the said H. R. Hanlin and the representatives of the City, a check was made of the claims, resulting in a reduction of the said claim to the amount of Four Hundred and Seventy-Two Dollars and Twenty-Six Cents ($472.26), leaving a total claim against the City of Newark in the sum of Seventy Four Thousand Eight Hundred Forty-Two Dollars and Fifty-Eight Cents ($74,842.58); and,

WHEREAS, in addition to the option the said H. R. Hanlin purchased from the receivers of the Submarine Boat Corporation all the right, title and interest in a certain railway charter held by the Atlantic Port Railway taking over therewith all the capital, stock, charter, rights, equipment, and assets of the said railway company; and

WHEREAS, the said H. R. Hanlin has offered to deliver to The City of Newark all the assets and rights of the Atlantic Port Railway; to surrender his option to purchase the said lands; and to execute a release to The City of Newark for any and all claims which he may have as a result of his purchase from the Submarine Boat Corporation of its rights under the lease; and,

WHEREAS, it appears to the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that it is desirable in order that litigation may be avoided, and that a clear title may be established to the lands, and that the Atlantic

Port Railway franchise and charter may accrue to the City;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED By the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, that the sum of Seventy-Four Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-Two Dollars and Fifty-Eight Cents ($74,842.58) be and the same is hereby appropriated to H. R. Hanlin, to be paid to him upon the transfer to the nominee of the City, as trustee, of all the stock in the Atlantic Port Railway Company, and upon his furnishing to The City of Newark a proper release of all claims and of the option contained in the lease made by the City of Newark for the said property, which release shall be approved by the Law Department and filed with the Acting Auditor of Accounts; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the stock in the Atlantic Port Railway Company shall be taken in the names of the present City Commissioners jointly, and that they shall hold the same for the benefit of The City of Newark until the further action of this Board.

Mr. Sidney Simandl: I represent the applicant.

Mayor Congleton: Where is this, Mr. Rankin?

Mr. Rankin: 192 Lafayette Street. It is on the north side of Lafayette Street, an inside lot.

Mr. Simandl: This application is made by Nathan Gross. This house is an antiquated house which he cannot rent any more for living purposes, and he feels that even if this permit was denied he would have to knock the house down. Therefore he thought he would demolish it and put up a gasoline station, which is really needed in that neighborhood.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Gross owns that property on the corner doesn't he?

Mr. Simandl: You mean on the same side, Director?

Commissioner Egan: Yes.

Mr. Simandl: He does. He owns about eighteen or twenty pieces of property in the locality.

The Board of Commissioners
of The City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, that the following applications for variations from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed.

419 Fifteenth Avenue, Joseph Contino, owner; retail ice depot.

822-824 S. 14th Street, Stephen M. Himpele, owner; three additional individual garages.

239 Oliver Street, Agnesa Monaco, owner; public garage.

50-54 Sherman Avenue, Minna Tietz, owner; gasoline station.

27 Read Street, John Lawton, owner seven individual garages.

34 Eleventh Avenue, Frank Di Nicolo (Mary Cross, owner); retail ice depot.

581-591 Raymond Boulevard, Edgar W. Quinby (C. Feigenspan, Inc., owner); gasoline station.

The Board of Adjustment
R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Received, copy to be sent to each Commissioner and further action postponed two weeks.

Mayor Congleton: Do you have a matter passed on yesterday that you want to speak on?

Mr. M. A. Bauer, 1060 Broad Street:

I am appearing for Mrs. Tietz whose application for a gasoline station was passed upon by the Zoning Board last week. If we get the vote of your Honors today it would mean an income of $300 saving to Mrs. Tietz, who is the owner of the premises. She is a widow, her husband was killed, and every dollar would mean much to her.

Mayor Congleton: What is your reason for wanting us to suspend the rules instead of letting it come up next week?

Mr. Bauer: We have got to give the present two tenants thirty days notice to vacate. That would mean we could start demolishing July 1.

Mayor Congleton: Have you been running the business since your husband was killed?

Mrs. Tietz: I had sold it but I had to take it back.

Commissioner Gillen: There is a three-story building there?

Mrs. Tietz: Yes.

Commissioner Gillen: What is that assessed at?

Mrs. Tietz: $18,600.

Commissioner Gillen: I mean the building itself.

Mrs. Tietz: It isn't exactly the building. The ground is much higher than the building.

Commissioner Gillen: You have got it leased to a company?

Mrs. Tietz: Yes.

Mr. Bauer: A ten-year lease, your Honor.

Commissioner Gillen: I move the rules be suspended.

Commissioner Egan: I second the motion.

Board of Commissioners,
City Hall,
Newark, N. J.

Honorable Sirs:

The attached is a copy of the resolutions adopted at a meeting of the Central Dental Association of Northern New Jersey, May 16, 1932.

We respectfully request that these resolutions be brought to the attention of your Commission at its next meeting.

Yours very truly,
R.E. Door, Secretary.

Resolution respectfully petitions the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark to restore the usual appropriation to the City Budget for the Newark Free Dental Clinics and to permit the continuance of these Clinics along the highly satisfactory and non-partisan lines in which they have been conducted in the past.

Referred to Commissioner Murray.

A communication from the Workers Tax-Payers Council, dated May 23, 1932 requesting a moratorium on taxes for all unemployed workers, taxpayers, during the entire period of unemployment, was received and read:

Referred to Commissioner Howe.

Commissioner Gillen: Mr. Mayor, in reading the newspapers I notice there is an account in here of a hearing at Washington on the disposition of the Army Base, which is part of Port Newark; and in this account it says that Edmund W. Wollmuth, executive vice-president of the Newark Chamber of Commerce, urged the committee not to disturb the present setup. He said Newark would like to buy the property but had no money. He said the City was very anxious to have the Army Base status quo reserved for fear of cancellation of the contract with the Mercur Corporation and cause a disturbance to business conditions in Newark. It also referred to Mr. Fagg. I do not know who authorized Mr. Wollmuth to speak for the City of Newark. I did not. I don't suppose you gentlemen did. And I do not know who told him to go to Washington and tell the people down there that Newark had no money. I have been poor myself, and if prohibition keeps on I will be poor again, I guess; but I never went around advertising it. I do not think Mr. Wallmuth had any right to go down there and represent the City of Newark in that manner. He does not know what the governing body of the City of Newark wants to do with this Army Base, he does not know what our wishes are with respect to the disposition of it by the government. Sometime ago there was a proposition made, and I believe you still have it before you, in which the proposers want to lease the space formerly occupied by the Submarine Boat Corporation, which the City has now recovered, plus the Army Base, providing the City of Newark can acquire the Army Base. Now, it may be that if this lease could be finally executed and it would be of real advantage to the City of Newark, that the City of Newark could arrange, even if our finances are not very strong at the present time, with the Federal government to acquire this Army Base, to take it back in some manner. And if that thing could be worked out so as to benefit the City of Newark and the taxpayers here and so as to bring new business, additional business to Port Newark, it should be done; and I do not think that the Chamber of Commerce or any person claiming to speak for the Chamber of Commerce, has the right to go to Washington and give the views of the City of Newark without consulting the governing body of the City of Newark. I resent this very much, and I would request that the Mayor take up with the War Department the further negotiation for this Army Base. As I understand it, we have never relinquished the idea of eventually repossessing ourselves of the Army Base. I remember very distinctly when the City of Newark sold that property to the government we sold it under protest. It was the policy of the City of Newark at that time to hold there all the property at Port Newark and lease it, but the government insisted on acquiring title to it because they were going to spend—at that time they had the notion of spending something like forty or fifty million dollars. They eventually spent $12,000,000. We sold it to the government under protest, and it was always understood that if the government should eventually dispose of it after the war was over that the City would have the first right to buy it back. So I think that when these people go from Newark to represent the Chamber of Commerce or any other body or any other organization in that body, that they should first consult with the governing body of Newark to determine what our wishes are. I think we are the ones who are supposed to speak for the people.

Mayor Congleton: I want to say that there is no officer or official of the Chamber of Commerce ever discussed this matter with me. My attention was called to the newspaper article yesterday, and before I came to the meeting this morning I addressed a letter to the Chamber of Commerce asking them where they got their authority to speak for the City of Newark. It looks to me as though they either consciously or unconsciously were gumming up the works, to use a term that is very often used these days. The proposed legislation looking to the sale of this property we discussed with Congressman Lehlbach, and he has been fathering this so that we could be in a position to recapture this property, for the reason that we have a prospective tenant who has been negotiating with us, and we have not been in a position to close with him until we knew the situation in Washington. If that proposition is consummated the City will recapture the property, and a proper rent, assuming we can make proper terms with the government, will not increase our bonded indebtedness, but the income from the property will make the payments to the government within a short period of years and we will have a real live going business at Port Newark. I was very much astonished when I had this article called to my attention.

Does any person have any matter they desire to address the Commission upon?

(Reads petition 8717.)

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any further matter to discuss with the Commission?

Commissioner Gillen: The owners of some vacant land on Littleton Avenue near Thirteenth Avenue have a plot of some two hundred feet and they offer the use of this land to the City for a playground and recreation purposes, and all that is necessary to do is to level it off. The offer is made by S. Willard Coleman, Charles L. Hedden, and the Homeopathic Hospital. It is where the old Homeopathic Hospital was on Littleton Avenue. The offer was made to the Recreation Department, and they have asked us to level it off. And if it meets with your approval I can put a force of men on there to level it off and then turn it over to the Recreation Department. I would now move that a vote of thanks be tendered to the owners of this property and that the offer be accepted.

Commissioner Egan: I will second that motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

May 28, 1932.

Dear Sir:

Please be advised that there will be a special meeting of the Board of Commissioners at 10 o'clock A.M. Daylight Saving Time, Tuesday, May 31st, by order of the Mayor, for the purpose of considering a resolution authorizing the sale of $5,000,000 Temporary Loan Bonds of the City of Newark to Fidelity Union Trust Company, said bonds to run for a period of six days.

Very truly yours,
P. J. O'Toole, Jr.
City Clerk.

Ordered filed.

Commissioner Howe presented the following resolutions and moved their adoption:

RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE RENEWAL OF $4,100,000.00 TAX ANTICIPATION BONDS.

WHEREAS, The City of Newark on March 19th, 1932, issued its short time obligations known as Tax Anticipation Bonds in the aggregate amount of Four Million One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($4, 100,000.) for money borrowed in anticipation of collection of 1932 taxes, said Tax Anticipation Bonds being numbered 380-381 - 382 - 383 - 384 - 385 - 386 - 387-388 - 389 - 390 - 391 - 392 - 393 - 394 - 395 - 396 - 397 - 398 - 399 - 400 - 401 - 402 - 403 - 404 - 405 - 406 - 407 - 408 - 409 - 410 - 411 - 412 - 413 - 414 - 415 - 416 - 417 - 418 - 419, and dated March 19th, 1932, and payable June 1, 1932; and

WHEREAS, The City is without funds to pay the said Four Million One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($4, 100,000.00) of Tax Anticipation bonds issued;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That in pursuance of the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, entitled, "An Act to authorize and regulate the issuance of bonds and other obligations and the incurring of indebtedness by county, city, borough, village, town, township or any municipality governed by an improvement commission," there shall be issued Tax Anticipation Bonds in the amount of Four Million One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($4,100,000.00) for the purpose of renewing said Four Million One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($4,100,000.00) of Tax Anticipation Bonds issued therefor;

FURTHER RESOLVED, That each of the Tax Anticipation Bonds authorized by this resolution amounting in the aggregate to Four Million One Hundred Dollars ($4,100,000.00) shall state in general terms the purpose for which it is issued, shall be dated May 31st, 1932, and shall mature June 6th, 1932, shall bear such rate of interest not exceeding six per centum per annum, and be issued in such denominations and be executed in such manner as the Director of Revenue and Finance shall determine, and the Mayor, the Director of Revenue and Finance, the Auditor of Accounts and the City Clerk be and they are hereby authorized and directed to execute in the name of the City the bonds authorized by this resolution, subject to the provisions of Chapter 192 of the Laws of 1917;

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Director of Revenue and Finance be and he is hereby authorized and directed to sell said Tax Anticipation Bonds at not less than par, either all at one time or from time to time.

MINUTES OF MEETINGS OF THE Board of Commissioners

June, 1932

Newark, N. J., June 1, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Savings Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioner Murray.

The minutes of regular meeting of May 25th and special meeting of May 31st were read and approved.

Commissioner Howe introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance concerning the operation and maintenance of open-air parking stations in the City of Newark and providing for the licensing thereof.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, Do Ordain:

1. The words "open-air parking station," as used in this ordinance, shall be held to mean and are hereby described as meaning any open-air plot of ground, lot or land, within the City, where motor vehicles are exhibited for sale, or are stored, parked, kept or located for compensation.

2. No person, persons, firm or corporation shall manage, conduct, operate or carry on the business of an open-air parking station, as defined by this act, without first having obtained a license therefor as herein-after provided.

3. The application for such license for the business of managing, conducting and carrying on an open-air parking station shall be made to the Director of the Department of Public Safety on forms to be supplied by him, and shall specify the location of the open-air parking station and the number of square feet of area occupied thereby.

4. The annual license fee for each open air parking station shall be determined by multiplying the number of square feet of area occupied by said open-air parking station by one cent. Such permit or license shall run for a period of one year, commencing January 1st, and ending December 31 of any year. If at the time of the application for a license under the provisions of this ordinance less than six months of the current year have expired, the applicant shall be required to pay the full fee for the year; if six months or more shall have expired, the applicant shall be required to pay one-half of the full fee for the year. Where an open-air parking station is used exclusively by the patrons of a business that is seasonal in its nature such as an amusement and/or athletic parks, the Director of the Department of Public Safety may issue a seasonal permit or license in lieu of the annual license. Such seasonal license shall run for the number of months which it is contemplated to use such open-air parking station but in no event shall it run for less than two (2) months. The fee to be paid for such seasonal license shall be determined by multiplying the number of months for which said license is issued by one-tenth of the annual license fee for operating said open-air parking station. All permits or licenses are revocable by the Director of the Department of Public Safety for the violation of any of the terms of this ordinance upon due notice and hearing.

5. This ordinance is enacted for the purpose of raising revenue and for the regulation and control of open-air parking stations.

6. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, for the first offense, pay a fine not to exceed the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) and an additional penalty of not more than twenty-five dollars ($25) for each day such open-air parking station shall be maintained in violation of this ordinance, or in default of such fine may be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not to exceed thirty days (30), and any corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, for the first offense pay a fine not to exceed the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) and an additional penalty of not more than twenty-five dollars ($25) for each day such open-air parking station shall be maintained in violation of this ordinance, which may be recovered in an action of debt.

7. The provisions of this ordinance shall not be construed so as to impair the obligations of any contract or lease entered into by the City of Newark with any individual or corporation.

8. If, for any reason, any section or provision of this ordinance shall be questioned in any court, and shall be held to be unconstitutional or invalid, the same shall not be held to affect other sections or provisions of this ordinance.

9. All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions hereof are hereby repealed.

10. This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon final passage and publication according to law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe moved that June 15, 1932, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time, or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place when and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage, and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading as provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to license newly established merchants, transient merchants and itinerant vendors and to provide penalties for the violation of the provisions thereof.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, Do Ordain:

ARTICLE I

Purpose

Section 1. The purpose of this ordinance is—

(a) To put into effect Chapter 88 of the Pamphlet Laws of 1931;

(b) To prevent unfair competition and dishonest business practices by requiring persons, intending to engage in any of the occupations to be licensed by this ordinance to furnish certain preliminary information, to conform to the requirements of this ordinance and to the extent set forth in this ordinance, to regulate the conduct of persons engaged in any of said occupations.

(c) To impose upon transient merchants and itinerant vendors license fees for revenue.

ARTICLE II

Definitions

Section 1. The following terms and words shall for the purpose of this ordinance have the meaning and effect as set forth:

(a) "Transient merchant and/or itinerant vendor" is used herein as the term is defined in Chapter 88 of the Pamphlet Laws of the State of New Jersey of 1931.

(b) A "new merchant" is a person who engages in business in this municipality by hiring premises for the sale of merchandise and intending to remain longer than one year subsequent to the opening of said premises.

(c) The word "person," as used herein shall be construed to mean an individual, firm, partnership, corporation, voluntary association, incorporated association and principal or agent thereof.

ARTICLE III

License Required

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any transient merchant, itinerant vendor or new merchant to offer for sale or to sell or dispose of any goods, wares or merchandise within the municipality of the City of Newark without first obtaining a license and paying the license fee hereinafter prescribed, except that new merchants shall not be required to pay the license fee provided for until the same becomes due as hereinafter provided, nor shall a person who sells goods, the proceeds of which are devoted exclusively to the purpose of a philanthropic, charitable or religious society, on whose behalf he acts as an agent without pay, be required to pay the license fee or meet the bond requirement as hereinafter provided;

Section 2. A separate license must be obtained by a licensed "transient merchant," "itinerant vendor," or "new merchant" for each branch or separate place of business in which his business is conducted; and each license shall authorize the licensee to conduct business only at the location which is indicated therein.

ARTICLE IV

Application for License

Section 1. In the case of an application for a license as a transient vendor or new merchant, the Director of Public Safety is directed to establish the classification of the business by procuring from the applicant a declaration of intention in writing as to whether he intends to remain in business within the municipality temporarily or for longer than one year.

Section 2. Such applicant desiring a license to operate as a transient merchant, itinerant vendor or new merchant shall file with the Director of Public Safety an application on a blank form to be furnished by said Director. The applicant shall furnish on said blank the following information: (1) Name of applicant; (2) permanent home address; (3) names and addresses of persons from whom goods making up the stock were or are to be purchased; (4) three (3) business references (5) the place or places of residence of the applicant for the three preceding years; (6) the length of time for which the license is desired; (7) a description of the wares to be offered for sale; (8) the number either of arrests or convictions for misdemeanors or crimes and the nature of the offenses for which arrested or convicted; (9) if applicant represents a person or firm a letter from the person or firm for whom applicant purports to work, authorizing him to act as such person or firm's representative; (10) the average quantity and kind, as nearly as can be, and the value of the stock of goods, wares and merchandise intended to be sold or exposed for sale; (11) the location of such goods, wares and merchandise by street and number and whether on the premises from which they are to be sold or in warehouse or storage. The Director of Public Safety in arriving at the valuation of the stock of goods may require the submission of bills or invoices of such goods, wares and merchandise intended to be sold.

The statements required by this section to be set forth by the applicant on his application shall in every case be verified by the oath of the applicant.

Section 3. Following the filing of the application with the Director of Public Safety said Director shall thereupon with all convenient speed investigate the statements in said application: (a) as to arrests and/or convictions; (b) the alleged present and preceding place of residence of applicant, and shall investigate the financial information contained in said application. If the statements made in said application are found to be correct and satisfactory, the Director of Public Safety shall issue a license to said applicant, provided all other requirements of this ordinance shall have been complied with.

ARTICLE V

Bond Required

Section 1. Before any license shall issue the applicant for a transient merchant's, itinerant vendor's or new merchant's license shall file with the Director of Public Safety a bond executed by the applicant with good and sufficient surety or sureties to be approved by said Director of Public Safety, in the amount hereinafter specified, which said bond shall remain in force for one year and shall be conditioned to indemnify and pay to the City of Newark any penalties or costs incurred in the enforcement of any of the provisions of this ordinance and further conditioned to indemnify or reimburse any purchaser of goods, wares and merchandise in a sum equal to at least the amount of any payment or payments such purchaser may have been induced to make through the misrepresentations as to the kind, quality or value of such goods, wares and merchandise so purchased, whether the misrepresentations were made by the owner or by his servant, agent or employees, either at the time of making the sale or through any advertisement of any character whatsoever, printed or circulated, with reference to the said stock of goods, wares and merchandise, or any part thereof, and further conditioned that the bond shall be due and payable for any falsification of a statement of fact in the application filed for the license or if the business conducted under said license is conducted in a manner contrary to law or against the morals, public health or safety of the life or limb of the public, or, in the case of a new merchant if the licensee discontinues the business licensed in the municipality within one (1) year after the date of the issuance of the license without the payment of the license fee or fees required under this ordinance.

The penal amount of the bond in the case of a transient merchant or itinerant vendor shall be 25% of the value of the applicant's stock and in no event less than the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).

The penal amount of the bond in the case of a new merchant shall be ten per cent. (10%) of the value of the applicant's stock but in no case shall said bond exceed $3,000.

ARTICLE VI

License Fees and Terms

Section 1. Upon payment by an applicant to the City Clerk of the sum of $300 the Director of the Department of Public Safety is authorized to issue a license as a transient merchant or itinerant vendor provided that such applicant shall otherwise comply with the provisions of this ordinance. Such license shall continue in favor of the person to whom it is issued for a period of 180 days from the day of issue.

Section 2. No license fee shall be required of a new merchant as a condition precedent to the granting to him of a license as a new merchant by the Director of the Department of Public Safety. If, however, such new merchant removes his stock and business from the municipality within said year he shall pay to the City Clerk the sum of $300 for each place at which his business is conducted and which place of business is discontinued.

Section 3. The license issued to any applicant shall not authorize any person except the designated licensee to engage in business under such license. Said license shall not be transferrable from the person to whom issued to any other person excepting upon the transferee complying with all the provisions of this ordinance in relation to the original application for a license, except that relating to the payment of the license fee, and shall then only be transferrable in case the original license fee has been paid or a bond given to guarantee its payment and the approval of the transfer given by the Director of Public Safety upon the payment of a transfer fee to the City in the sum of ten per cent. (10%) of the original license fee.

Section 4. A licensee shall have his license posted at his place of business in a prominent position therein at all times during the valid period of existence of such license.

ARTICLE VII

Revocation of License

Section 1. A license may be revoked by the Director of Public Safety for the violation of the terms of the license or falsification in applying for the license or when, in the opinion of the Director of Public Safety the business so licensed is conducted in a manner contrary to law or to public morals or to the public health or to the safety of the life or limb of the public. Before a license is revoked the licensee shall be accorded a hearing before the Director of Public Safety. The decision of the Director of Public Safety as to revocation shall be final.

Section 2. A license may be suspended for not more than two (2) weeks by the Director of Public Safety upon probable cause being shown that the license should be revoked.

Section 3. The Director of Public Safety shall hold such hearings and make such investigations as he may deem necessary in carrying out the provisions of this ordinance in relation to suspension or revocation of licenses.

ARTICLE VIII

Section 1. Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed to relieve any person, firm or corporation from complying with the provisions of any ordinance of The City of Newark relating to the manufacture, sale, distribution or handling of food or food products.

ARTICLE IX

Section 1. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, pay a fine of not more than two hundred dollars ($200) or in default thereof, may be imprisoned in the county jail for a period not exceeding ninety (90) days; any corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall upon conviction thereof pay a fine of not more than two hundred dollars (200), which may be recovered in an action of debt.

ARTICLE X

Section 1. If, for any reason, any section or provision of this ordinance shall be questioned in any court and shall be held to be unconstitutional or invalid, the same shall not be held to affect other sections or provisions of this ordinance.

ARTICLE XI

Section 1. All ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed.

Section 2. This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon final passage and publication according to law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The following communication was received and read:

Franklin Conklin, Jr.
136 Chestnut Street

Newark, N. J., May 31, 1932.

The Honorable City Commission,
City of Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:—

Upon the invitation of the Overseer of the Poor, Mr. Owen A. Malady, a number of persons interested in the care of the homeless unemployed in the City of Newark met in the office of the Overseer on Friday, May 27, 1932, and discussed the various phases of the problem. The following persons in addition to Mr. Malady attended:

Miss J. Isabelle Sims, Mrs. Florence T. Jenkins, Mr. Russell P. Walker, Mr. Frederick W. Smith, Colonel Joseph D. Sears, Mr. George E. Potter, Mr. Joseph P. Murphy, Mr. Arthur H. Jones, Mr. Charles R. Hardin, Mr. Charles J. Roh, Mrs. Charles Niebling, Mr. Franklin Conklin, Jr.

All of these persons are desirous of seeing the continuance of private voluntary effort in the feeding of the unemployed homeless so as to minimize the cost for this purpose to the Municipal Government. The members of the Committee realize the tremendous burdens which are now being carried by the City in its relief activities and we desire to preserve the fine spirit of practical Christianity which has motivated the work of feeding many of this group at Old St. Paul's Church under the direction of Mrs. Florence T. Jenkins. It was the feeling of the Committee expressed in two resolutions, which were adopted, that the housing facilities which are now being prepared on Mulberry Street by the City, be privately operated by Mrs. Jenkins in the manner now carried on at Old St. Paul's Church and with the support and under the direction of the Newark Committee for Employment, which now includes those who met in Mr. Malady's office Friday morning. The Committee also felt that the means of gathering foodstuffs and the source of aid for this work should be more systematically organized and that Mrs. Jenkins have the aid of municipal resources under the direction of the Overseer of the Poor for this purpose.

It is our wish and we believe that we will have the cooperation of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark in the furtherance of this project. I recognize and appreciate the splendid manner in which your body has functioned both in the matter of emergency work relief programs as well as the provision for temporary relief during the past several years in this project. We hope to aid you in continuing the high standards which have heretofore been maintained during the present emergency.

Respectfully yours,
Franklin Conklin, Jr., Chairman
Newark Committee for Employment.

Mayor Congleton: The letter will be received and referred to conference. I think there is a great deal of merit in their suggestion. At any rate, I am sure the Commissioners are all very grateful to the people named for being willing to undertake such a task.

Commissioner Egan: I think it is a fine thing, Mr. Mayor, to be able to provide themselves to feed the homeless. The matter of panhandling in the City of Newark has gotten to a point where it seems a necessity on the part of those who are in need, but at the same time it is a great nuisance to the pedestrian public and some of the riding public. And if some organized plan could be made effective to take care of the homeless and the hungry we could eliminate a great deal of this begging on the streets. I think it is a fine spirit manifested by this group of citizens to do this.

Mr. Joseph Contino, 419 Fifteenth Avenue, appeared.

Mr. Rankin: This is an ice depot; at 419 Fifteenth Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: 419 Fifteenth Avenue?

Mr. Contino: Yes, sir.

Mr. Rankin: We had in this case a petition protesting against it, but the applicant brought out that was instigated by another man in the same business.

Mayor Congleton: If there were objections I won't vote to suspend the rules.

Mr. Rankin: Our Board passed this by unanimous vote.

Mayor Congleton: In this case there were objections to the granting of the permit, and it is not the policy of the Board of Commissioners to suspend the rules where there are objectors who may want to be heard. You will have to wait until next week to bring your case up. We must give them their day in court.

Mr. Contino: Would a competitor have anything to say at all?

Mayor Congleton: Anybody that wants to be heard on it will be heard.

Mr. Contino: All right.

Mayor Congleton: Does any citizen have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission?

Mr. O. Henry Grois: Representing the Essex Trades Council, I would like to know if as reported by the newspapers the contemplated action of reducing salaries of all municipal employees is in effect, and when?

Mayor Congleton: There has been no official action taken as yet.

Mr. Grois: Will we have an opportunity to be heard?

Mayor Congleton: I don't know. You have an opportunity today if you want to be heard, Mr. Grois.

Mr. Grois explained that the Essex Trades Council supports the plan advocated by the American Federation of Labor not to reduce any salaries of any employees, because it would in effect reduce the standard of living as enjoyed now by those who are still fortunate enough to be employed. He suggested the elimination by the Board of Commissioners of municipal automobiles unless absolutely necessary. He also urged the elimination of all unnecessary help. Mr. Grois suggested the licensing of all places that sell beverages. He asked that the Board of Commissioners oppose the proposed State sales tax. The speaker criticised the canal bed improvements and other expenditures of city monies. He referred to the Board of Education.

Mayor Congleton: The other Commissioners are not responsible for the Board of Education, I alone am.

Mr. Grois: And in turn the Mayor is responsible to the Board of Commissioners.

Mayor Congleton: Not for my appointments to the Board of Education.

Mr. Grois: I think they have the right to criticize if they feel it is wrong.

Mayor Congleton: They have no power of veto. I am merely calling your attention to the fact that any criticism you want to make about the Board of Education should be made to me and not my colleagues.

Mr. Grois: This is not criticism. We are trying to be constructive. We are not here to criticize today, don't let us misconstrue that, because the newspapers will do enough of that. We are not activated by any personal desires, I am not activated by any office calling, I am not running for office and I never will.

Commissioner Egan: That is a broad statement, you are young.

Mr. Grois: But I say labor is honest when they say this about the Board of Education: They just suggest to you that you suggest to the Board of Education that in their construction programs—take, for instance, on the West Side High School they built a monstrous cement wall fence around that school at a great cost, whereas had there been a wire fence it would have beautified that school more so than now and it would have saved the City considerable money. The speaker also said he believed the purchasing board of the Board of Education was overmanned. He suggested a decrease in the number of city government cars.

Commissioner Egan: We have got a lot of them in the police and fire department.

Mr. Grois: They are a necessity. We grant that. But we feel if they were always in use for police work, which someone suggested they are not, it would save wear and tear on a car, it would save gas, it would save oil; small items, but in the aggregate they amount to a lot of money.

Commissioner Egan: Do you suggest we should use roller skates?

Mr. Grois: I don't say they don't need them. I am only one of a great number. I present the views as they are given to me.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

A resolution from the Workers Taxpayers Council of Newark relative to a moratorium on taxes for all unemployed workers and small taxpayers during the entire period of unemployment, etc., was read and ordered filed.

Mr. Albert Woods, 107 Seventh Avenue, Secretary Workers Taxpayers Council of Newark:

This organization is not made up of wealthy taxpayers but taxpayers who happen to be in the position of losing their homes on January 7 for non-payment of taxes.

Mayor Congleton: June 7.

Mr. Woods: And we have gathered on May 27 and drew up the following resolution which I will read to you.

(Read resolution 8755.)

Mayor Congleton: With respect to your moratorium on taxes, of course, if you know anything about the state government you know we have no discretion in the matter, and I am just wondering if you have addressed that request to the legislature that is now in session, the only body that would have any control over it. We work under the State Tax Law which requires us to sell for taxes. The relief you are seeking in that respect you should address to your state legislature now in session.

Mr. Woods: Yes, but what about our Commissioner of Taxes, hasn't he anything to say?

Mayor Congleton: Absolutely nothing.

Mr. Woods: We direct this right to him.

Mayor Congleton: He has no power to postpone tax sales under the law.

Mr. Woods: Do you mean to tell me 5,000 people losing their houses in Newark does not mean anything to the Commission or anything else, that we have to go to the formality of going to the state legislature and having the buck passed back and forth?

We have in this hall now taxpayers, and I can have them all raise their hands and you can see what it means.

Mayor Congleton: If you are as intelligent as you would have us believe, and if you have made a study of the subject, you ought to know what I have told you is correct. It is not a means of passing the buck. A municipality is merely creature of the state and we can only do what the state permits us to do, and we must do the things they tell us to do in the manner they direct.

Mr. Woods: But cannot our Commissioners recommend anything?

Mayor Congleton: No.

Mr. Woods: Something must be done.

Mayor Congleton: We are trying to do our best.

Mr. Woods: Does anybody have anything to say?

Mr. R. P. Angelo, 151 Newton Street: As a member of the Workers Taxpayers Council, and also as a son of a taxpayer and one who has helped to pay taxes, I just want to say a few words to back up what Mr. Woods, the organizer of the Workers Taxpayers Council, has said. The speaker urged a moratorium on home tax payments. He read a program suggested by the Workers Taxpayers Council.

Mayor Congleton: We heard Mr. Woods read that.

Mr. Angelo: I just want to reiterate these demands.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak?

Mr. Charles Mitchell, 547 South Nineteenth Street:

We have an organization called the Workers and Taxpayers Council composed of the majority of the people whose homes have been advertised in the local press to be sold for taxes. At one of the meetings on the 25th—or the 18th of May, we passed a resolution and forwarded this resolution to the Commissioners here and asked them to act upon it. As a reply to this communication we have received a letter in which it is stated that our communication has been received and acknowledged and that certain persons—or rather, the Commissioners acted upon on May 25th. And the whole matter has been referred to the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance, Mr. Howe. Today we hear here that Mr. Congleton the Mayor of the City of Newark, said that nothing can be done and it is up to the state legislature, it is up to the people that are in the state offices. Now, we once more emphatically state that the workers taxpayers today is determined to convince the Commissioners and Mayor that they must take action today and prevent a sale of their homes next June 7 at ten o'clock in the morning. Give the workers taxpayers a moratorium of two years and prevent the sale of their homes.

Mr. Harry Harrison, 815 Hunterdon Street:

I just want to ask the Commissioners what the Commission have done with the demand?

Mayor Congleton: You seem to know. All your previous speakers have said we have done nothing.

Mr. Harrison: It seems so.

Mayor Congleton: Well, that shows how much you know about it. We have had these matters up and we are doing our utmost to try to help out in the situation.

Mr. Harrison: If this is your utmost. I don't think it is very much.

Mayor Congleton: We do not care very much what you have to say. If you want to come here and be discourteous we do not want to listen to it.

Mr. Harrison: You can take it whichever way you like it. Here is an article in the newspaper "Newark—er ends life." Notes left in his pocket"—(Reads newspaper article.) You cannot do anything, you cannot tax people, you cannot find people to tax.

Mayor Congleton: I wonder if we cannot tax them where we are going to get this $8 and $10 and $12 a week that you are demanding.

Mr. Harrison I will answer that if you want me to.

Mayor Congleton: The trouble with you people is you are talking about a lot of things that we have no power over. We do not make the state laws. Go to Trenton and put your propositions up that you are arguing here this morning.

Mr. Harrison: The point is this, Mr. Mayor: Something strikes me funny here when the newspapers come out about the budget, straightening out the budget, and the bankers start in dictating and there was talk of cutting wages of employees of the City of Newark. The same day I noticed that statement in the paper there was a statement Mr. Malady's salary was raised $1,000. Certain people's salaries are raised while they talk of cutting the fellow that earns a few lousy dollars. Where is the sense of that? There are speakeasies right here in Newark. Of course, they are illegal institutions, but let us be practical, they are here. We have got to tax them. Therefore, I say we can tax people earn taxes, tax church property, tax these religious racketeers and these church racketeers who make millions off charity like the Y. M. C. A. and the Salvation Army. Something must be done. (Applause.)

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else wish to be heard? Have you anything more, Mr. Grois?

Mr. Grois: No.

Mayor Congleton: I desire to make a statement with respect to the position I have taken with respect to believing that the time has come when there must be a reduction in salaries of municipal employees. I feel that at the same time there should be a reduction in the salaries of state and county employees. The business of the City is not different in any manner from private business. We levy taxes, and from the day those taxes are levied they are on our books as accounts receivable. When those accounts are not paid we can borrow on them for a certain length of time; and just as private business, when it cannot collect in its accounts receivable, something else must be done. Until the present time I have opposed a salary reduction. Recently, however, I have been forced to the conclusion, and not a pleasant one, that it is now necessary. It is not any different with our employees than it is with the employees in private business. I have gathered some data which further convinces me that because we happen to work for the public and have a pretty secure tenure for the time for which we were elected, we are not in any different position. This data relates to the trades around here. The bricklayers have taken a decrease of almost thirteen per cent., carpenters fifteen per cent. plus, cement finishers twelve per cent. plus, dock builders fifteen per cent. plus, elevator construction twenty per cent., engineers six and one-half per cent., hod carriers twenty-four per cent., laborers twenty-four per cent., firemen ten per cent., lathers eighteen per cent. plus, painters twelve and one-half per cent., plasterers twelve per cent. plus, plumbers nine per cent. plus, sheet metal workers twenty-five per cent., stone cutters twelve per cent. plus, tile setters twelve per cent. plus, marble setters twelve per cent. plus. Since I gathered these I have read in the paper only this week that the steam fitters and steam fitters helpers have come to the point where in order to try and help in this very trying situation they have proposed a new contract showing a reduction. The textile trades have offered to take a cut of twenty per cent., the iron molders have offered to take a twenty per cent., and so on down the line. I am glad to have heard the first speaker today state that this is not a political question. I agree that it is not a political question, it is strictly an economical one. And to show that people have approached it other than from a political angle, all you need to do is to look through this state and see the different municipalities where very reluctantly, as I am, they have come to the conclusion that there must be a reduction in salaries. Camden has done it, Trenton has done it, Atlantic City has done it, Jersey City and Hudson County, Paterson, and others throughout the state where it has been necessary, in order to prepare for the future and to get in sufficient money to pay city employees. Now, a lot has been said about the poor wages and the low wages. I ask any of you who want to be fair,—and I think municipal employees are not overpaid,—but if you will look over the records you will see that during what we have called prosperous times the salaries of municipal employees were raised. Both the policemen and firemen received increases; their last one in January, 1927, following one made in 1925. And if you will examine the salary schedule of the Board of Education you will see it increased over a million dollars in a three-year period and so in all of the city departments. So you see the City officials have at all times tried to be fair with their employees. Now when we are in the position that we are, I think that the question should be approached with some reasoning. I have gathered, through the National Industrial Conference Board, figures which are very illuminating. They are relied upon by business and the press of the country as accurate and impartial. The figures relate to the purchasing value of the dollar, the changes in the purchasing value on a retail price basis. They reflect changes in the cost of living since the year 1929. Included in the basis are all the items which enter into the average man's cost of living. The base rate or the rate with which comparison is made is the 1923 average, which is taken as one hundred. It is an interesting fact that this figure was returned to in 1929, the average for that year being the same as in 1923. That is, one hundred. And from 1923 then on up until 1931, the purchasing value of the dollar has risen to 113.4; and in April of this year it has raised to 126.9. The figures mean, if you take the 1923 cost of living as normal, the dollar which bought one hundred cents worth of the usual necessities in 1923 was capable of buying more in 1928; and in 1929 the same as in 1923. The drop in prices which began in the latter part of 1929 added 2.1 cents purchasing value to the dollar of April, 1930. By April, 1931, this had increased to 13.4 cents and by April, 1932, last month, to 26.9 cents. In other words, in 1932 the dollar in which private and public employees are paid, will buy approximately twenty-seven per cent. more of the things required by the average family at retail current prices than it bought during the year 1929, the most prosperous for the most of its length the country has known. This is equivalent to an increase of twenty-seven per cent. in wages, measured by the purchasing power of the dollar in 1929 or in 1923. Now, this is not local. In Chicago salaries and wages of employees have undergone reductions ranging up to twenty-seven per cent., and the personnel has been greatly reduced, and it is now proposed to eliminate 2,479 more employees. Salaries in excess of $2,000 a year for all employees in the general City departments have been reduced ten per cent. Eight hundred employees, it is reported, have been laid off to eliminate the necessity of a twenty-six per cent. general salary reduction. Go to Detroit. The salaries of all employees receiving less than $4,000 a year were reduced ten per cent. on January 1, 1932; salaries in excess of $4,000 a year were reduced ten per cent., and the amount over $4,000 an additional ten per cent. Salary increases, either automatic or promised, were not allowed. Schools. All salaries in the school system were reduced three per cent. the beginning of the school year in 1931, and an additional salary reduction of seven per cent, was made on January 1, 1932. Salaries exceeding $4,000 were first reduced ten per cent. and the amount over $4,000 an additional 10 per cent. Los Angeles, a general salary reduction; Cleveland: salaries less than $1,200, no reduction; $1,200 to $3,000 eight and one-third per cent. $3,000 to $5,000, twelve per cent.; over $5,000, fifteen per cent. The same thing applies to Pittsburgh; salaries over $4,000 were cut from eight to twenty per cent. Minneapolis the same. Kansas City, Rochester, Toledo, St. Paul, Oakland. And others round about us. In coming to the conclusion that I have I never had in mind any formula such as has been put into effect in some other places. My thought has always been that the first $1,000 or $1,200, whichever amount might be arrived at, should be exempt from any reduction, and that the percentage fixed should apply to the excess over and above the minimum fixed; and I do not think it is fair that, starting from that point, the same rate of reduction should apply to all. I believe it should be a graduated scale. Those receiving the smaller salaries taking a less reduction, and those of us receiving the larger salaries bearing the larger percentage.

When we closed our books on December 31, 1931, out of $35,000,000 of taxes levied there was over $10,000,000 of taxes unpaid, and that money was spent in the support of the City government and was represented by paper, to a very large extent, in the banks. And on that date we had an accumulation of back taxes, including the year 1931, of almost $15,000,000. So I say that we, after all, must conduct our business as private business has to be conducted. The mere fact that we have power to sit and adopt a budget, which then goes into a tax levy does not put us in possession of the cash. If we cannot collect the taxes which are needed to run the government we cannot survive any more than private business can survive. It seems to me that the statement of one of the great presidents of our country, the late President Grover Cleveland, that "It is a condition and a very distressing one, not a theory which confronts us," applies today just as strongly as it did at the time those words were spoken. It is not a pleasant task for any public official to have to think of the reduction of salaries. I have come to the conclusion, very reluctantly, that it is necessary, and that it is the only salvation for the city to come through.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Board of Adjustment
City Hall

Newark, N. J., June 7, 1932.

The Board of Commissioners
of The City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, that the following applications for variations from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

395 South Tenth Street, Frederic J. Ullrich; two portable gasoline tanks for the period of one year;

304 South Nineteenth Street, Charles Blank and Agnes Nothnagle, owners; construction of two-story porch beyond set back line;

37-39 Lombardy Place, H. W. Dutcher (Charles S. Wood, owner); automobile parking station, for the period of one year;

786-792 Sanford Avenue, F. W. & C. J. Wilderotter, owners; gasoline station;

124 Norman Road, Guiseppi Testa, owner; construction of four-family dwelling;

10-12 Third Street, Joseph Pace, owner; automobile show room and addition to public garage;

146-152 Broadway, Harry Petchefsky, owner; alteration of public garage to provide for drive-in gasoline station;

110 Oraton Street, Sam Sbarro (Jafes Birdsong, owner); retail ice depot.

The Board of Adjustment
R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Received, copy to be sent to each Commissioner, and further action postponed for two weeks.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to discuss with the Commission this morning?

Mr. Frank J. Schmidt: At a meeting of the Zoning Board held on Tuesday, June 7, 1932, it was recommended that a permit be granted in favor of Charles Blank and Agnes Nothnagle, after no objectors appeared, for the erection of a two-story porch enclosure at premises owned by them at 304 South Nineteenth Street, Newark. The applicants are desirous of having these porches erected forthwith as they want to have their screens installed and enjoy the use of their porches. We ask you, Mayor and Board of Commissioners, to waive the rules and grant an order forthwith that a permit be issued by the Building Department for the immediate erection of these porches.

Commissioner Gillen: I move the rules be suspended.

Commissioner Gillen: These resolutions are regarding the bills that the City Commission wanted enacted, and all of them have been enacted excepting those three, I believe, passed by the House and they have gone to the Senate and they are held up by the Senate. The Legislature is going to adjourn, they say, next Tuesday, so this resolution would urge the Senate to pass these bills. One of them affects gasoline stations.

Commissioner Egan: We ought to send certified copies of that to Trenton by messenger. There is a meeting this afternoon.

Commissioner Gillen: I move the adoption of the resolution.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Assembly Bills 51, 470, 502, have been passed by the House and are now in the Senate; and

WHEREAS, it has come to the attention of this Board that the Legislature will adjourn on June 14; and

WHEREAS, said bills above mentioned affect municipal projects, and it is for the best interests of the City that said bills pass the Senate and become enacted into law as speedily as possible;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, that Assembly Bills 51, 470 and 502, are hereby approved by this Board; and this Board hereby urges the prompt passage of said bills by the Senate and the enactment of the same into law, the same being for the proper carrying out of public improvement and otherwise in the interests of this municipality.

207 Market Street

Newark, N. J., June 3, 1932.

Honorable Jerome T. Congleton,
Mayor City of Newark, N. J.,
City Hall, Newark, N. J.

Honorable Sir:

We have been informed that the purchasing board that has been created for the various departments of the City of Newark permitted considerable printing to go to printers outside of the City of Newark, N. J., as well as to non-union establishments. We believe that this is an unfair practice as the printers of this city are tax payers and contribute to the support and maintenance of this city and we believe they are justly entitled to first consideration when it comes to producing any work for this city.

Trusting that you will give this matter your earnest and sincere consideration and if possible have all printing produced in this city as well as union shops. Thanking you for any action in adjusting matters to this end, we are Very sincerely yours,

Essex County Allied Printing

John Howe,

Director of Revenue and Finance.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission?

Commissioner Egan: I move we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Mayor Congleton.

A P P R O V E D :

JEROME T. CONGLETON
W. J. EGAN
CHARLES P. GILLEN

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., June 15, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioner Murray.

The minutes of meeting of June 8th were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance providing for the opening of Raymond Boulevard from a point 220 feet west of Broad Street westerly to Plane Street, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordinance be laid over until July 13th.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled "An ordinance to regulate the construction, repair, alteration and removal of buildings within the City of Newark, New Jersey," adopted July 15, 1924, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

(No response).

No one appearing, Commissioner Egan moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled, "An ordinance to regulate the construction, repair, alteration and removal of buildings within the City of Newark, New Jersey," adopted July 15, 1924.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the ordinance by sections:

Title declared open to amendment.

Section 1 declared open to amendment.

Section 2 declared open to amendment.

Section 3 declared open to amendment.

The ordinance was declared open to amendment in all its parts.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordinance be adopted on second reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that said ordinance be ordered to a third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordinance be taken up on third reading and final passage.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the title of "An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled 'An ordinance to regulate the construction, repair, alteration and removal of buildings within the City of Newark, New Jersey,'" adopted July 15, 1924, be taken for its third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the title of the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled "An ordinance to regulate the construction, repair, alteration and removal of buildings within the City of Newark, New Jersey," adopted July 15, 1924.

The ordinance having been read three times was then declared to be upon its third and final passage.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance concerning the operation and maintenance of open-air parking stations in the City of Newark and providing for the licensing thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. William L. Morgan, 774 Broad Street: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, I represent the legitimate automobile dealers of the City of Newark, and members of the Automobile Board of Trade. This ordinance as it is before you provides that the words "open-air parking station" as used in this ordinance shall be held to mean any open-air plot of ground, lot, or land, within the City, where motor vehicles are exhibited for sale or are stored, parked, kept, or located, for compensation." The part of this ordinance to which these gentlemen object is that which relates to the exhibiting of vehicles for sale. In the conduct of the motor vehicle business it is essential that the used cars be kept in some space which is larger than the space which would be required if they had to pay rental for a closed building. These gentlemen are all taxpayers, indirectly or directly: Directly on the properties which they own and which they pay the city for, pay the taxes on, and indirectly through the premises which they lease at satisfactory rentals to the landlords. It does seem that it is unreasonable to burden a business which is now struggling for existence, with an extra tax. They get no direct compensation, and it is not like a parking space in which the compensation is daily collected for the use of the space, but it is simply an added expense to their business and is unwarranted. If this ordinance could be amended so that the land which is used for the exhibition of used cars by legitimate dealers would be eliminated, it would mean everything to these men who are now struggling for their existence.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Arthur L. Forrest, Chamber of Commerce; representing the Retail Trades Council of the Chamber of Commerce. I spoke previously of putting the council on record as favoring this ordinance in principle, and we merely wish to reiterate that stand at this time.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. C. H. Lane, 465 Clifton Avenue: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, in reference to this open-air parking, we are here this morning not on open-air parking, but it runs along that line. Open-air parking is probably a very good thing right in the center of the city where congestion on the streets is so bad that they have to resort to parking in spaces available. But, Mr. Commissioners, I would like to say right now that the open-air parking is ruining a fifteen-million dollar industry in the City of Newark today. In the last thirty days there have been thirteen foreclosures, and most of them building and loan foreclosures, on public garages costing a good many thousands of dollars, and they paid thousands of dollars into the City of Newark in taxes. The rate per car space per garage in the City of Newark today for an ordinary garage runs from twelve to fifteen and eighteen dollars per car in taxes. It seems to me that it is a very vital question in this city. There are three hundred garages in the City of Newark, and the average garage that is capable of parking one hundred cars has eight and nine cars in them today. But in reference to the parking stations I think that they should be taxed the same as we are. They are taking the business away; the ordinary garage man who in former years, through demand, has invested his money into a property which brings in a ratable to the City of Newark and he has been paying these taxes for years. Along comes a man with a building, he hasn't got it rented, he tears it down and rents it out to a parking station. Does the City of Newark get any ratable out of that? They do not. They lose a ratable. I think it is a great menace to one of the largest industries this city has at the present time, and I think it is high time some action was taken in this matter.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

(No response).

No one else appearing, Commissioner Gillen moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance concerning the operation and maintenance of open-air parking stations in the City of Newark and providing for the licensing thereof.

WHEREAS, The City of Newark is the residuary legatee under the will of Alice W. Hayes, deceased, and has received from the estate monies and securities to the approximate value of Nine hundred thousand dollars ($900,000.00); and

WHEREAS, in 1929 a settlement of the estate was affected by the late Alfred F. Skinner, trustee under the will, whereby all the funds and securities of the estate were turned over to the City, except a mortgage for Twelve thousand dollars ($12,000.00), which was retained by him in order that the income therefrom would be available to pay an annuity provided for in the will of Five hundred dollars ($500.00) to Mary Howell Jones; and

WHEREAS, the said mortgage has been foreclosed and the premises purchased at the Sheriff's Sale in the name of The City of Newark; and

WHEREAS, an arrangement has been made with the substituted trustee for The City of Newark to continue to pay the annuity of the said Mary Howell Jones and to take title to the property on which the mortgage was formerly held;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, that the sum of Five hundred dollars ($500.00) be and the same is hereby appropriated to Daniel B. Smith, substituted trustee of the Estate of Alice W. Hayes, as a refund to said estate, without prejudice to any rights that the City may have to obtain any monies due from said estate in the future, and to require an accounting should it be deemed necessary.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, that the sum of eighteen thousand dollars ($18,000) being the amount found to be due to William A. Jones, Jr., and Ella D. C. Jones, his wife, by a jury in the Essex County Circuit Court, on an appeal from the award of Commissioners appointed in proceedings in the New Jersey Supreme Court on the application of the City of Newark to condemn lands of said William A. Jones, Jr., and Ella D. C. Jones, his wife, necessary for the opening and widening of Commercial Street, be and the same is hereby appropriated to William A. Jones, Jr., and Ella D. C. Jones, his wife, for certain lands of said William A. Jones, Jr., and Ella D. C. Jones, his wife, necessary for the municipal project aforesaid, which lands, situate in the City of Newark, Essex County, New Jersey, are more particularly described as follows:

BEGINNING in the northerly line of East Mechanic Street at a point therein distant easterly 132 feet from the northeast corner of East Mechanic Street and New Jersey Railroad Avenue, said beginning point being in the division line between lot No. 20 and lot No. 18, block 181, on Newark City tax maps, thence northerly along said division line 80 feet to a point in the southerly line of lot No. 26, block 181, on Newark City tax maps, thence easterly along said southerly line of lot No. 26 and the southerly lines of lots 3 and 4, block 181 on Newark City tax maps 50 feet more or less to a point in the division line between lot No. 18 and lot No. 17, block 181, on Newark City tax maps, thence southerly along the same 80 feet to the northerly line of East Mechanic Street; thence westerly along the same 50 feet to the place of BEGINNING.

said sum to be paid to them upon their filing with the Acting City Auditor of Accounts their deed, conveying the lands aforesaid to The City of Newark, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances excepting the second half of the taxes for the year 1932, which are to be remitted by the City as part of the consideration for the giving of the Deed aforesaid, which deed shall be approved as to form by the Law Department of the City of Newark.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented the application of Specialty Handle Manufacturing Company, owner, for an outdoor automobile parking station; premises 3-43 Lexington Street; for a period of two years.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that the application be laid over to June 29, 1932.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented the application of John Klinger & Son, Inc. (J. & R. Corporation, Julia Osterweil, et al., owners) for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 1063-1077 Raymond Boulevard; for a period of three years, on condition that all signs and lighting fixtures meet the approval of the Board of Adjustment.

Mr. Nathan Goldsmith: I understand that that application—I did not know it was postponed. Was there any objection to it?

Mayor Congleton: The Board was not ready to pass it at the previous meeting and it is up before us today in our regular order of business.

Commissioner Egan: I move that the application be laid over to June 22, 1932.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Frederick A. Frost, 74 Broad Street:

I would like to ask you to suspend your rules for the purpose of taking up this application for a parking station at 37-39 Lombardy Place, running through to 34 Atlantic Street. It was scheduled to come up at your next week's meeting. It has been passed by the Board of Adjustment and there were no objectors appearing.

Mayor Congleton: There are quite a number of other open-air parking stations nearby, aren't there?

Mr. Frost: I do not think there is quite a number. There is one on Lombardy Street—

Mayor Congleton: There are two on Ogden Street and they have been before us when we were putting through this ordinance providing for a tax on open-air parking stations, telling us how they were starving to death.

Mr. Frost: If your Honor please, this particular station has been maintained as a garage by Mr. Dutcher for about nine years. He has had a place of business on this street for as long as twenty years. He is directly in back of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company, whose employees use this station as the most convenient. In maintaining his garage he has not had enough room there to take care of these cars. It has been practically an addition to an old established garage business which he has maintained there for a number of years. The garage is marked "shed and auto" just above the red line (indicating on blueprint). The entrance there is from Atlantic Street.

Mayor Congleton: Is that where Mr. Wood carried on a business?

Mr. Frost: Mr. Wood owns this property.

Mayor Congleton: And he just tore down a building?

Mr. Frost: Partly. There was an old rooming house on Lombardy Street for which not tenant could be obtained.

Mayor Congleton: Didn't you tear down the Ogden Street shop where Mr. Wood carried on his business?

Mr. Frost: I do not think Mr. Wood owns any property on Ogden Street.

Mayor Congleton Or Lombardy Place, whichever they call it there.

Mr. Frost: Isn't that the property of the Fidelity Union Trust Company through an estate? I am not sure. I cannot answer you definitely.

Mayor Congleton: I only know Mr. Wood's name was up there carrying on some line of business. The Board does not feel it wants to suspend the rules in a matter of this kind until it has had a chance to make more of an inspection. It will come up next week regularly.

Commissioner Gillen offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS: Concluding a life time of active service devoted largely to the advancement and betterment of his fellowmen, our beloved associate,

Francis A. Higgins, departed this life on Saturday, June 11, 1932; and

WHEREAS: Having chosen the profession of journalism for his vocation Mr. Higgins in 1897 embarked upon a long and honorable career serving with high distinction as a news writer and commentator on contemporary events, his range of activities extending from reporter to managing editor. Equipped with a deep understanding of public affairs and a broad grasp on current events generally, he combined these talents with a zeal and industry a cheerful wit and charm of personality which, reflected through the columns of the public journals of his adopted city, the Newark Evening News, the Newark Evening Star and the Newark Ledger, enabled him to contribute much toward the progress and development of the City of Newark to its present high position among the municipalities of the land; and

WHEREAS: Bringing with him a vast knowledge and wide experience which fitted him admirably for civic service, he entered the municipal government in 1917, first as Secretary to the Mayor and later as Secretary to the Director of the Department of Parks and Public Property. During his incumbency in these positions he was chosen also, in recognition of his marked ability and industriousness, to serve the city as a member of its Board of Adjustment and its Board of Purchases, and so discharged his duties in these various capacities that he gained a standing of high honor among his associates and the general public.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark acting on behalf of the people of Newark, record this expression of deep loss which the city has suffered through the death of Francis A. Higgins, as well as our own sense of personal loss, and that we express to the family of Francis A. Higgins our deepest sympathy on their great loss.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, two of our very able fire executives are retiring under the law of the state, and I offer resolutions in behalf of Deputy Chief James J. Dolan and Battalion Chief Charles G. Storch, and ask the City Clerk to read them.

WHEREAS: Our esteemed fellow worker in service of the people of Newark, James J. Dolan, having reached the age of 65 years, will, as required by law, retire as an officer and member of the Newark Fire Department in which he holds the office of Deputy Chief Engineer; and

WHEREAS: The retirement of this officer will terminate a career of 36 years of notable achievement, his association with the Newark Fire Department having begun on January 16, 1896, following which in a series of promotions he assumed the rank of Lieutenant on May 3, 1906, and then Captain on January 6, 1908, Battalion Chief on June 1, 1918, and Deputy Chief on June 16, 1925; and

WHEREAS: Deputy Chief Dolan further distinguished himself and upheld the highest traditions of the Department for personal bravery and disregard of danger by most effectively performing his duty under especially hazardous conditions, and at the risk of his life during an explosion on the premises of 273 Elizabeth Avenue, Newark, on September 14, 1916, in recognition of which his name was inscribed upon the Department Honor Roll; and

WHEREAS: Deputy Chief Dolan, noted as an able executive administrator, possessed a national reputation for high talent in this respect among the fire fighting authorities generally, and occupied an outstanding position among the leaders who built up the Department to its present stage as a modern metropolitan fire fighting agency. Combining his natural qualities for intelligent leadership, personal courage and fidelity to duty, he represented the ideal in an officer of the Newark Fire Department.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That we, the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, on behalf of the people of Newark, herewith record our expression of appreciation of the services rendered by Deputy Chief James J. Dolan, and of the high ideals of civic duty which actuated him in devoting his life to the public good; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a copy of these resolutions, suitably engrossed, be presented to Deputy Chief Dolan.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, I move the adoption of the resolution.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS: Our esteemed fellow fellow worker in the service of the people of Newark, Charles G. Storch, having reached the age of 65 years, will, as required by law, retire as an officer and member of the Newark Fire Department in which he holds the office of Battalion Chief; and

WHEREAS: This officer retires after a long and honorable career of 36 years of active duty protecting the lives and property of his fellow-men from the destructive element of fire, his official connection with the Newark Fire Department having begun on January 16, 1896. Rendered conspicuous among his associates by his unswerving faithfulness to duty he earned a series of promotions as a result of which he became a Lieutenant on May 15, 1905, Captain on May 1, 1907, and Battalion Chief on July 1, 1914; and

WHEREAS: Battalion Chief Storch was particularly distinguished by his exceptional ability as a leader of men under actual fire fighting conditions, and in this respect was commended in the public press on several occasions. His record of accomplishment includes meritorious services rendered by him at virtually all of the larger fires in the City during the past generation, and the record includes numerous occasions upon which he fearlessly risked his life in the performance of his duty; and

WHEREAS: In addition to his natural ability as a fire fighter Battalion Chief Storch, throughout his career, displayed unusual capability for administrative direction and leadership, and was of inestimable service to the Department as a member of its executive staff of officers;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That we, the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, on behalf of the people of Newark, herewith record our expression of appreciation of the services rendered by Battalion Chief Charles G. Storch, and of the high ideals of civic duty which actuated him in devoting his life to the public good; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a copy of these resolutions, suitably engrossed, be presented to Battalion Chief Storch.

Commissioner Egan: I move the adoption of the resolution, Mr. Mayor.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan: Chief Towey, the Mayor and Commissioners will join you and your staff at lunch after the meeting. You may leave now if you care to.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. G. H. Lane, 465 Clifton Avenue:

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, at a meeting last night of the Garage Owners Association it was decided to make another appeal to your honorable body to see if there was not some ways and means by which you could save the industry, the garage business. We have been struggling for the past three years under difficulty, but at the present time it is beyond toleration. Automobiles are stored in lots which have no right whatever to store them; the owners of several lots that we know of are being compensated to the extent of two or three dollars a month.

Mayor Congleton: And they have no permit from the Board?

Mr. Lane: No permit from the Board. We formally have gone to the Bureau of: Combustibles with complaints of cars being stored opposite churches and schools, and they say they have no jurisdiction whatsoever.

The fact remains that we are absolutely destitute, and our businesses are all shot; we have witnessed fires between houses where cars are parked between houses; we have on record a fire in a lot, which if it had not been for the quick action of the fire department it might have been disastrous. We find cars parked in lots with one half of the car over the building line; we find that private homes that have two or three cars in the garage in the back yard, are taking two or three dollars apiece for as high as twelve or thirteen cars in the back yard. We can show whereby the majority of these cars are used for business. We can also show where in neighborhoods where people are paying as high as $150 a month rent, they are storing cars in lots illegitimately. Something has got to be done. Our city is founded on industry, and if you kick the legs out from under industry what is going to happen? In former years I can remember where garages were full, if we happened to leave a couple of cars outside every night the police would come along and say, "You have got to get them inside." On Broad Street there is a church yard packed with automobiles every night; opposite schools. The Bureau of Combustibles will visit our garages once a month and look around and see if the sand pails are full and fire extinguishers are in good order. But I wonder how many sand pails and fire extinguishers they find on the lots? They no not find any. The Commission has cooperated with the Broad Street Association to help them in their business; you can read lots of instances where the Commissioners help industry. We have a zoning ordinance in this city which does not mean a thing, so far as parking automobiles is concerned; we have a Bureau of Combustibles that has a perfect right to stop cars from making a public parking station of a place where there is no fire protection. The amount of taxes that the boys pay that went bankrupt last year—this month—amounted to somewhere in the neighborhood of $12,000. The building and loans that were on these garages. One garage we know of had a one-hundred-thousand dollar building and loan mortgage on it. And the building and loan cannot rent the garage for $200 a month.

Mayor Congleton I think there is a great deal of merit in what you say, and I am sure the Commissioners will take it up and give it serious thought.

Mr. Albert H. Biertuempfel: Father Knappek of St. Casimir's Church is arranging a reception for Flyer Hausner. He asked me to come along and come before you gentlemen and ask if you would be kind enough to assist him and give this man an official reception.

Commissioner Egan: I move you the Commission go on record and extend to Flyer Hausner an official reception when he comes back to Newark.

Mr. Biertuempfel: I will take the matter up with you later on and make arrangements for all the other work. The man won't be back before the 27th. It will be the first of the month, I believe.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Louis J. Ferring, appearing for Ferdinand D. Masucci, Lefcourt Building:

I represent the New Jersey Master Bakers' Union which urges the adoption of a resolution and passing of an ordinance prohibiting the sale of bread on Sundays and delivering of bread on Sundays, the sale to be prohibited in bakery shops only.

Mayor Congleton: What?

Mr. Ferring: Be prohibited in bakery shops only. It can be sold in stores.

Commissioner Gillen: Regular bakeries where bread is baked?

Mr. Ferring: Yes. The reason for the resolution is this: Owing to the present economic conditions many of the bakers are selling bread on credit, probably about eighty per cent. of the members of the union at the present time extend credit on the sale of bread, and due to this condition they have had to lay off many of their employees and take the business in their own hands. As a result they devote all their time to the business and their wives and children as well, and I think they should have a day of rest as well as everyone else. But outside of this fact, if this resolution is adopted and passed there should be some provision made to stop the outside tradesmen from coming into the City of Newark and delivering bread to the customers and people of the City of Newark. The resolution is the only thing to prohibit the sale of bread, only in bakery shops, and delivering of bread by bakers. There are about two hundred members in the organization. Most of them are taxpayers and citizens and rent payers, and they should be given some opportunity to safeguard their interest.

Mayor Congleton: Under the other ordinance which was advocated, and which we passed, the people would have to go without bread except they ate stale bread, and you cannot sell bread that is more than a certain number of hours old under the ordinance that we passed.

Mr. Ferring: Bread is always delivered on Saturday nights to the stores, so therefore you would get fresh bread as is customary now.

Commissioner Gillen: The ordinance you speak of now would not prohibit the baking of bread on Sunday?

Mr. Ferring: No, merely the sale and delivery of bread by bakers on Sunday. Now, the bread would be delivered to the different grocery stores and delicatessens on Saturday night, so therefore, you would have fresh bread on Sundays. I think the custom is that now.

Mayor Congleton: The matter will be taken up in conference by the Commission. Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Fred Mancini, 32 Garside Street:

I happen to be business agent of the Master Bakers, and the main trouble we have, all our organization passed a resolution a month ago to stop the baking and delivering of bread on Sunday, but we checked up three weeks ago and we find there is over sixty wagons coming in from Long Island, Brooklyn, and New York, to sell bread on Sunday. That will put our local bakers, which the lawyer previously explained are taxpayers and citizens of Newark, out of business. Ninety per cent. of the bakers in Newark today have their wives and children helping them out because they cannot afford to pay their laborers, and I think we are entitled to some kind of protection where we are local people.

Mayor Congleton: We will take it up in conference.

Mr. Nathan Goldsmith: I am not familiar with the ordinance that was passed this morning on open-air parking spaces, but I presume it is for some charge.

Mayor Congleton: Based on the area.

Mr. Goldsmith: I presumed that, and I am heartily in favor of it. At the same time I was wondering what the Commission is doing in regard to protecting their own interests, as well as the property owners' interests, in connection with the parking on the various highways that are being cut through. You take, for instance, Route 21, there is competition—I don't know how it is affecting the tenants of the city—but they are parking cars down there at fifteen cents a day.

Mayor Congleton: That street is under the jurisdiction of the State Highway Commission. Have they granted any permission that you know of?

Mr. Goldsmith: I wrote them and they said they had not.

Mayor Congleton: I have been trying to get the State Highway Commission to fix that one block up, pave it, so it would give us an outlet there. If they did that it would stop it.

Mr. Goldsmith: All around that center they are parking cars at fifteen cents a day.

Mayor Congleton: If the State

Highway Commission has not given any permission, and you say you have a letter to that effect, you send that letter to Commissioner Egan and I think he will probably attend to it. Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Harry Petchesky, 93 Girard Place:

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I never used to come here but now this is my second time. I come here for the purpose of saving people's lives. I have a case in my residence on Girard Place, in the First Princt. I have a sidewalk, two inches higher than the other. Which is right? My sidewalk lays opposite, maybe seven or eight years, at least when I bought the property, and we had flagstones next to them. The flagstones settled away down, and I asked my neighbor many times to fix it up and he did not. When I went to the proper party in the city hall a year and a half ago he did not do it. I was here two weeks ago again and made the same complaint and nobody pays attention. In the meantime somebody fell and I got a lawsuit on. I am insured, but that is not the thing: I do not want to see anybody hurt. If it is my duty, I wish you people to send down and I will have it fixed if it is my duty; but it is not; some of them say my sidewalk is absolutely o. k., and everybody that goes by trips over that.

Mayor Congleton: Give the stenographer your address. That comes under my department and I will see why you have not had some service.

Mr. Petchesky: Then there is another one: I have also an apartment on Stratford Place, and back of me is an old homestead whereby it is torn down two sides of the wall and the whole roof is hanging on there. They put a "Danger" sign on now. You know how the danger is to children and some day it will cave in and we will probably have—

Commissioner Egan: I understand they passed a law in Trenton this winter that gives us the right to have that building completely removed. We will have that taken care of.

The following communication was received and read:

State of New Jersey
Civil Service Commission

Trenton, N. J., June 8, 1932.

Hon. Jerome T Congleton, Mayor,
City of Newark,
Newark, N J.

Dear Sir:

We beg to acknowledge receipt of an ordinance adopted by the Board of Commissioners requiring officers and employees of the City of Newark to be bona fide residents therein as a condition of their continued employment, which was adopted on April 27, 1932.

This ordinance was presented to the Commission at its meeting on May 31, 1932, and it was directed that the same be recorded.

Very truly yours,
The Civil Service Commission,
Charles P. Messick,
Chief Examiner and Secretary.

Ordered filed.

The following communication was received and read:

The Prudential Insurance Company of America
Newark, New Jersey
June 16, 1932.

To the Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Sirs:—

The Prudential Insurance Company of America reports to the Board of Commissioners that the project for the construction of new housing facilities on the block bounded by Fleming Avenue, Oxford Street, Raymond Boulevard and Lexington Street in the Twelfth Ward of the City of Newark, more fully described in a certain application filed with the Board December 15, 1930, and approved by resolution adopted December 17, 1930, has now been completed. This Company, therefore, requests the Board of Commissioners in accordance with the statute pursuant to which the project was approved and has been carried out, to fix the maximum rental per room that may be charged by this Company to the tenants of the new housing facilities upon the scale prescribed by the statute (Chapter 202, Laws of 1929).

Very respectfully,
The Prudential Insurance Company of America
By Edward D. Duffield,
President.

Ordered filed.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

Draft of Resolution Fixing Maximum Rentals for Chellis Austin Apartments

WHEREAS, The Prudential Insurance Company of America, an insurance company incorporated under the Laws of the State of New Jersey, heretofore on the fifteenth day of December, 1930, presented to and filed with the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark an application for approval of a certain project for the improvement of the whole of a certain tract of land therein particularly described situated within the City of Newark, by the construction upon such tract of land of new housing facilities in accord with proper standards of sanitation and safety at the expense of such applicant and pursuant to the said project as fully set forth and described in the said application and the several exhibits thereto annexed, and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark on the seventeenth day of December, 1930, by resolution approved the said application and authorized said The Prudential Insurance Company of America to undertake and carry to completion the said project, and

WHEREAS, the said new housing facilities have now been completed pursuant to said project, and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided it has now become the duty of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark to fix the maximum per room that may be charged by said The Prudential Insurance Company of America to the tenants of such new housing facilities upon the scale prescribed by the said statute,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That said the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark does hereby fix the maximum rental per room that may be charged by said The Prudential Insurance Company of America to the tenants of such new housing facilities upon a scale that will produce an average rental of Sixteen Dollars and Twenty-five Cents ($16.25) per room per month, and said the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark does hereby determine that the aggregate of the rentals so fixed will produce a return of at least Five Per Centum but not in excess of Six Per Centum upon the cost of the entire project as set forth in the estimate marked "Exhibit E" annexed to the said application.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this application?

Mr. Frederick A. Frost, 74 Broad Street:

If your honors please, that is a matter which we requested last week under a suspension of the rules and which you decided not to do, and it comes up regularly today. If there are any further questions that I may be able to answer I would like to do it.

Commissioner Howe: How long have you been there?

Mr. Frost: Mr. Dutcher has maintained a garage on Atlantic Street in the neighborhood of twenty years.

This particular one he tells me he has had between eight and nine.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

A communication from James H. Brown of 343 Chapman Street, dated June 13, 1932, favoring the construction of a gasoline station on the southeast corner of Sanford Avenue and Mount Vernon Place, was read and ordered filed.

A communication from David Harper of 1 Clinton Street, dated June 13, 1932, protesting against the construction of a gasoline station at 781 Sanford Avenue, was read and ordered filed.

The following petition was received and read:

We, the undersigned property owners and residents, object to the erection of a gasoline service station at the southeast corner of Sanford Avenue and Mount Vernon Place, Newark, N. J., as there are already two stations at this corner, and this would make it three, and there are three other stations within a block of this corner.

Signed by 23 property owners.

Ordered filed.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of F. W. & C. J. Wilderotter, owners, for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 786-792 Sanford Avenue; on condition that signs, lighting fixtures and fences meet the requirements of the Board of Adjustment;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Rankin, how many times has this application been before the Board and how many times has it been denied?

Mr. Rankin: It was denied in August, 1930, and July, 1931.

Mayor Congleton: How many have been granted right in that immediate neighborhood since this application was first made?

Mr. Rankin: Two of these four corners now have gas stations.

Mayor Congleton: Granted since this application was turned down?

Mr. Rankin: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: Do you know any reason why these others were granted and this one constantly turned down?

Mr. Rankin: I do not. The last one approved across the street from here had been previously denied also.

Commissioner Howe; I voted against the one across the street.

Mr. Rankin: I suppose if this one had come in before these other ones—

Mayor Congleton: This has been in several times and it has been turned down several times, and subsequently we have granted on the other corners. Why, I ask.

Mr. F. W. Wilderotter: The others were granted and there were no objections.

Mr. Seymour Klein, 20 Clinton Street:

I appear in opposition. I represent a number of property holders and residents in the immediate vicinity.

Mayor Congleton: Did you object to the one on the other corner?

Mr. Klein: No, sir, I did not. I was not retained at that time.

Mayor Congleton: Did your clients?

Mr. Klein: I don't know. I think, Mr. Mayor, if the Board of Adjustment made a mistake in the first instance, there is no reason why the Commission should tolerate a continuance of this situation.

Mayor Congleton: They granted several on Sanford Avenue after they turned this down two or three times.

Mr. Klein: If they grant many more they will substitute Halsey Street and name this gasoline alley. You have five gasoline stations in two blocks. If you allow this one there is no question this corner will become extra hazardous; and I think the neighbors should be given some consideration. You are changing the neighborhood which is almost residential into an automobile section. I am informed—

Mayor Congleton: Sanford Avenue used to be a residential street but it isn't any more.

Mr. Klein: I have been informed—I can't say myself, that objections have been made to the gasoline permit granted last time for the one across the street, and urge that the owners be given some consideration at this time and that the Board of Adjustment be called to a halt in giving these permits promiscuously in this vicinity.

Mr. Wilderotter: May I ask one of the petitioners that is within the prescribed area? I have on file the consent of seventy-five per cent. of the property owners, and almost all of those seventy-five per cent. are owners of one-family houses. I have the consent of three one-family houses that immediately adjoin this gas station, their rear yards, and each one of these people have signed their consent for this gas station.

Commissioner Gillen: I move it be laid over for two weeks.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Guiseppi Testa, owner, for the construction of a 4-family dwelling; premises 124 Norman Road;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Board of Adjustment
City Hall

Newark, N. J., June 21, 1932.

The Board of Commissioners
of The City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, that the following application for variations from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

203-205 West Market Street, William F. Conway (Patrick T. Corrigan, owner); gasoline station.

The Board of Adjustment,
R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Received, copy to be sent to each Commissioner, and further action postponed to July 6, 1932.

REPORTS OF CITY OFFICERS

The following reports of City Officers were received and filed:

Auditor's Trial Balance for May, 1932.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission this morning?

Mr. Harry Green: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, in regards to that Third Ward plot that the Prudential bought for to build, and they have done no building, I think that Mr. Duffield would be public spirited enough to throw down those buildings and open the ground for the children as a playground until they decide to do something with it.

Mayor Congleton: You say, will they do that?

Mr. Green: I thought if they would do that—

Mayor Congleton: They are tearing the building down now.

Mr. Green: It would be a good thing if they are not going to use the ground immediately, to make an open space—

Mayor Congleton: They have offered to do that and they have the consent of the city to do that. The Prudential is prepared to go ahead with the building as soon as the city is in a position to do its part under the contract. If the city cannot go ahead the property will be rough graded and thrown open to public use. I think you will get some information within the next few days which will clear up the entire doubts in your mind.

Mr. Green: Another thing, Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, is the present situation of the unemployed. I understand that some people borrow a quarter or so and go down among these cheap merchants in the foodmarket and they sell them food unfit for consumption, and the man is out a quarter if he buys two pounds of meat. I know that food is being handled in an unsanitary manner, and they are the cheapest grades of food. It would be a fine thing if we got a little more rigid inspection and find out what kind of foods are being handled and sold to these unfortunates at this time.

Mayor Congleton: I know of my own knowledge that the Food Department of the Board of Health is working at high speed doing the very best they can, and I know that they would undoubtedly welcome any information you could give them about any specific places that you know of, and I know that it would be taken care of immediately. Of course, we can not have an inspector in everyone of those stores all the time, but I know they are doing a very wonderful work in following through on that very thing; and if you have any knowledge of any special places where things are going on as you say, I know that the Health Department would welcome that information.

Mr. Green: I look at it more from a social matter than just chasing individual cases or matters and instances. I know that it would not hurt if our foods and vegetables were handled and not expensed to dust as they are.

Commissioner Howe offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The City of Newark, in Essex County, New Jersey, heretofore filed its program for Emergency Relief, dated November 30, 1931, pursuant to Chapter 394 P. L. 1931, showing an estimated expenditure of $1,000,000 for Dependency Relief, and

WHEREAS, said program was approved as will appear by Special Orders Nos. 229 and 548, whereby the amounts reserved as State Aid of the City of Newark, were fixed and determined in the sum of $305,631.37 for Dependency Relief, and

WHEREAS, by Special Order No. 1195, an additional sum of $48,238.23 was reserved for Dependency Relief reimbursement as regards the City of Newark, thus bringing the said reservation to the full legislative limit, and

WHEREAS, by Special Order No. 1163, an additional grant of $60,000 was made available to the City of Newark for Dependency Relief reimbursement from the general relief fund in view of the City's abnormal relief burden, this making a total reservation of $413,869.60 for reimbursement for Dependency Relief expenditures, and,

WHEREAS, to date of May 21, 1932, the City will have earned a total of $390,861.40 in Dependency Relief reimbursement, thus leaving a balance of $23,008.20 for reimbursement purposes during the month of June, 1932, and

WHEREAS, the amount of Dependency Relief expenditures for the said month of June, are estimated in the sum of $170,000.00 upon which amount the City would earn $68,000.00 were it not for the fact that as matters now stand, the Dependency reserve balance as aforesaid is insufficient to meet such reimbursement, and

WHEREAS, the Municipality desires to proceed with its Dependency Relief on the present basis of 40% reimbursement from the State Relief funds and to date has so proceeded, and

WHEREAS, such continuance of Dependency Relief is urgently necessary inasmuch as 15,000 families, with an average of five per family, are being entirely or partially supported through aforesaid relief channels.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the State Director of Emergency Relief be and he hereby is requested to grant to and reserve to the credit of the City of Newark, the sum of $45,000.00 for the same purpose of reimbursement on the 40% basis on expenditures for said Municipality for Dependency Relief for the month of June, 1932, estimated in the amount of $170,000.00, which sum is already appropriated by resolution.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the program for Dependency Relief of the City of Newark, heretofore filed with and approved by the State Emergency Relief Administration, under present circumstances will continue until the 1st of July, 1932, and

WHEREAS, it is understood that as of July 1, 1932, the Dependency Relief program as aforesaid will be cancelled by Special Order to be issued by the Emergency Relief Administration.

WHEREAS, said City of Newark is desirous of proceeding with its relief program for Dependency and is desirous of taking advantage of the provision as stated in General Order 41 to the effect that the Relief Administration will entertain requests for allotments for Dependency Relief after July 1, 1932, for a one-month period only, from which sum the Municipality may draw on 40% reimbursement basis.

WHEREAS, the estimated Relief expenditures for the month of July amount to the sum of $170,000.00, upon which expenditures the Municipality will ask reimbursement in accordance with the filled out certified State Administration forms provided for such purpose and attached hereto.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, That the State Director of Emergency Relief be and he hereby is requested to grant to and place to the credit of the City of Newark, the sum of $68,000.00, as a reserve upon which the Municipality may draw in requesting reimbursement on the 40% basis on expenditures for Dependency Relief for the month of July, 1932, to the amount of $170,000.00, which sum is already appropriated under the budget.

Jerome T. Congleton
John Howe
W. J. Egan
Charles P. Gillen

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, on November 30, 1931, the City of Newark, County of Essex, New Jersey, heretofore filed its program for Emergency Relief, pursuant to Chapter 394, P. L. 1931, showing an estimated expenditure of $1,190,252 for wages for Employment Relief, and

WHEREAS, said program was approved as will appear by Special Nos. 229 and 548, whereby the amount reserved as State Aid for the City of Newark was fixed and determined in the sum of $442,337, as regards Employment Relief, and

WHEREAS, By Special Order No. 1163, an additional Special grant of $175,000 was made by the State Director from the General Relief Fund for reimbursement for wages to the extent of 50% of payrolls on approved projects within the program up to July 1, 1932, and to the extent of 25% of payrolls for completion of said projects during the month of July, 1932, thus making a total reservation of $617,337 as regards Employment Relief, and

WHEREAS, as of June 8, 1932, the City of Newark has earned the sum of $586,640.41 in reimbursement against said total reservation of $617,337, thus leaving a balance of $30,696.59, and

WHEREAS, the estimated amount of wages to be expended from June 8th to June 29th, 1932, is $150,000 and the estimated amount to be expended during the month of July is $200,000, thereby allowing Newark to earn in accordance with aforesaid Special Order No. 1163, 50% and 25% respectively of said sums to the amount of $75,000 and $50,000, or a total of $125,000, by date of August 1, 1932, and

WHEREAS it appears that as matters now stand, the City of Newark will not be reimbursed on expenditures made and to be made by it during the months of June and July, to the extent of approximately $95,000, and

WHEREAS, the City Commission of the City of Newark opine that all of the reasons and logical arguments of the Resolution made for it on May 4, 1932, requesting the Special Grant aforementioned and approved by aforesaid Special Order, are full and sufficient reasons for requesting a supplemental sum for the same purposes.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, By the City Commission of the City of Newark, that the State Director of Emergency Relief be and he hereby is respectfully requested to grant to and to reserve to the credit of the City of Newark, a supplemental amount of $95,000, for reimbursement for wage expenditures by said City in accordance with the Employment Relief procedure as set forth in Special Order No. 1163.

MINUTES OF MEETINGS OF THE Board of Commissioners

July, 1932

Newark, N. J., July 6, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton

Absent: Commissioner Murray.

The minutes of meeting of June 22nd and meeting of June 29th were read and approved.

Commissioner Egan moved An ordinance regulating the sanitary control and licensing of barber shops, hair dressing establishments and beauty parlors of the City of Newark presented on information be laid over until September 7th.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented an ordinance to provide for the rebuilding of a portion of the Central Relief Sewer, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance.

(No response).

No one appearing, Commissioner Egan moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance to provide for the rebuilding of a portion of the Central Relief Sewer.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the ordinance by sections:

Title declared open to amendment.

Section 4 declared open to amendment.

The ordinance was declared open to amendment in all its parts.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordinance be adopted on second reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that said ordinance be ordered to a third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordinance be taken up on third reading and final passage.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the title of "An ordinance to provide for the rebuilding of a portion of the Central Relief Sewer," be taken for its third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the title of the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to provide for the rebuilding of a portion of the Central Relief Sewer.

The ordinance having been read three times, was then declared to be upon its third and final passage.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance respecting the salaries or compensation of officers and employees of and persons holding an office or position under the government of The City of Newark, New Jersey.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Meyer Zemel: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners: I would like to ask a question: Did this body investigate every department of the city, including the Board of Education, which is appointed by his honor, the Mayor, before attempting this drastic reduction in salaries?

Mayor Congleton: Speaking for myself I can say that I did, sir. We did that at the beginning of the year when we were making up our budget, and have been doing it constantly ever since; and it is going to be with the greatest difficulty that we will be able to continue in my department for the balance of the year on the money available, and keep all hands on the payroll.

Mr. Zemel: If you recollect, Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, some time ago this same question was up about reducing salaries, and I made the assertion that no man in the employ of the City of Newark was worth more than the Mayor of the City of Newark. I still adhere to that. The Mayor, he has the appointment of the Board of Education and in that Board fifty employes are drawing a salary of over $400,000 a year. Mr. Logan, the Superintendent, is getting $15,000; Mr. Shirley, $13,500; and Mr. Argue, $10,000; and they have counsel getting a big salary. Some of those principals getting seven to eight thousand dollars a year. Remember, gentlemen, when a man or woman in the employ of the city earns from fifteen, twenty, up to $100, they just about provide the necessities of life with that wage. No man or woman's salary in the employ of the City of Newark should exceed $100, and that goes for all employees excepting the Commissioners and the Mayor. $10,000 deducted from Mr. Logan's salary will provide for the cut that you propose to make in the salary of 100 men and women, approximating about nine thousand people in the employ of the City of Newark, I suppose it will figure, averaging about $110 per employee. Mr. Shirley with $13,500 does not even live in Newark.

We will go to Mr. Howe's Tax Department. He has two fine men down there, Mr. O'Brien and Fitzsimmons running that entire business. They have five tax commissioners drawing about $3,500 each, all got private businesses of their own. In Mr. Howe's private office, a lady is his private secretary, drawing about $5,000 a year, and a married woman.

Commissioner Howe: Just a minute. She does not draw $5,000 and she is not secretary; she holds a civil service position.

Mr. Zemel: The Mayor has a deputy Mayor—

Mayor Congleton: No! Deputy Director.

Mr. Zemel: The Deputy Director draws $5,000 a year. Director Egan is short of police, hasn't enough. I want to know why there are three policemen over there.

Mayor Congleton: There aren't three policemen assigned to the Mayor's office.

Mr. Zemel: In the Engineering Department, we have Mr. Costello at $15,000 a year. Is he worth over $5,000 when another man has his wages cut that is only drawing $1,000, $2,000, $3,000, $4,000 or $5,000? Mr. Dudley Coles, drawing seven or eight thousand, and a man by the name of Smillie drawing ten or twelve thousand; and Address and Doremus drawing excessive wages. Port Newark has a flying man by the name of Aldworth getting about twelve thousand; and Mr. Ray Dempsey.

Gentlemen, this must stop before you cut a penny from any poor man's wage whose wages do not exceed $5,000. In the City of Newark approximately thirty per cent. of the tax money goes to the Board of Education. The West Side High School is only five blocks away from Vailsburg Park, the upkeep of which Newark pays about fifty-five or sixty per cent. The Board of Education expended $200,000 to construct a playground there, and within four blocks of Riverbank Park, three blocks, they have another playground. Up on the hill at Eighth Avenue and Factory Street there is a playground a stone's throw from Branch Brook Park. The people they employ do not benefit Newark, most of them live out of town. I understand that the City has made preparations down in Mulberry Street to open a new lodging house. Jersey City, Elizabeth, Paterson, Irvington, Orange, Montclair, Bloomfield, East Orange, haven't any lodging houses. But it costs $100,000 to maintain those two lodging houses. Now, I sincerely plead with you gentlemen before you attempt to make any cut in any class salary to investigate all these statements that I made. You will find that I have only scratched the surface. I thank you.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. O. Henry Grois: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, as heretofore, the Essex Trades Council, whom I represent here today with Mr. Slater and Mr. Stein, come before this body again reiterating our position relative to salary reductions. We have been and are still opposed to the reduction of any of the salaries of any of the municipal employees that earn them. We have cited in the past many instances whereby your taxpaying public could be somewhat helped by a reduction of your expenditures in your various departments. We do not feel that because we are not working that he who is working should be penalized. We have a park that was given to the Prudential Insurance Company at the expense of the city's money, but I fail to see where the Prudential Insurance Company has as yet assisted the unemployed by giving them any free rents in their model apartments. When time like this comes before us and the abolition of positions is necessary in order to save money, abolition must come. Because we cannot afford to keep on the city's payroll anyone, regardless of whom he may be if they do not earn the compensation that they receive over a prescribed period as their pay checks. Street lighting is costly and there can be some money saved along that line by later lighting and earlier extinguishing of those lights. The canal speedway, the cost of condemnation along that speedway, and acquisition. Its appropriation has been consumed and it is only partially constructed. And in the end who are to be benefited by this structure? Are the citizens of this entire city and outlying suburbs, or a private interest, the one to be benefited by it? We ask for a better system of assessments that those that are receiving the benefits of the City of Newark and that are in these locations that are known as great business interest zones should be assessed more equally and more properly. We have now with the relief work that has come on, seen many a man taken out that was on the city's payroll as a steady employee and placed on relief work, when that relief work should have gone to those that were in need. When men and women receive what we call a living wage, we ask that their salaries be not reduced, because we do not want what we call the American standard of living any further reduced. The Trade Union movement is not selfish. It pleads at all times for a square deal to all and special privileges to none; it asks for a checkup on your payrolls, for the elimination, or we can call it abolition, of any unnecessary positions where taxpayers' money is being expended; it asks closer scrutiny of your various departments and it asks, as never before, a closer watch on your activities of your own personal and in your personal department. We come here to lay our cause before you. We have not singled out any one group. We ask that this consideration be shown us by not giving these reductions in salary or by not passing this ordinance until such time as you properly reduce your personal affairs in your separate departments, and that you eliminate your high-paid salaries that are being given to individuals that are not worthy of their hire.

If you pass this ordinance there will be just as many homes lost next year than there was last year; and if you were successful in reducing your tax rate fifteen or twenty points through this reduction of salaries, that would not make these individual home owners or rent payers get any material benefit from it, but would allow the bankers and the huge interests that are attacking labor and the unemployed to gain great profit for themselves.

Mr. Henry Green: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission: I am opposed to any salaries being reduced from those that work for a living. I am sorry that our school system has been crippled, that you shut down the educational institutions that took 250 years to develop and you have already taken away the summer schools from the majority of the children and you took away the schools from the people that work in factories and could go to night school to improve their mental faculties so they could get higher jobs and have higher earning capacity. From the smallest official in towns, cities, and counties, as well as state and national administration, in this particular economic situation that we face, most political people will not understand if it they come from the old school. We have an economic situation now like the United States never faced in all its history, or the whole world. When you started in with this overproduction and a stagnation of markets and employment, people that understand economics said, "We got to increase the earning capacity of the people that work so that they could purchase this surplus." Instead, our officials turned around and cut wages and reduced hours and give men furloughs. Now, we will have more over production and less power of consumption; and I cannot see how they are so blind to the situation. And this situation that we are facing now is worse than the earthquake of California, it is worse than any pestilence, disease, including infantile paralysis, that we ever had in this nation; but the people don't begin to realize what they are up against. By next winter you will have more of the things to realize, you will see it much better. We do not see things until they happen. I should not like to see you reduce wages. You should not. The City of Milwaukee, when every city faces bankruptcy, has $4,000,000 surplus and its bonds sell with no six per cent. interest, the bonds are in demand. They are constantly making improvements there, the unemployed are cared for, and no homes are being sold for nonpayment of taxes, nor did they have the number of evictions for nonpayment of rent that we have in the City of Newark. And you are going to have more of them.

I met a woman in Military Park, plain dressed, an honest soul, a clean face, a real American woman. She came over to me and she said, "I had all I can do to fight off the shutting off of my gas" where she could cook some lunch for her children. she said, "I am facing eviction." That was a clean person.

Mr. John B. Alfone, 45 Stone Street: Commissioners, we are the workers of the canal and my feelings are those of my fellow workers Mayor Congleton: You mean now on the emergency work?

Mr. Alfone: Yes, sir.

Mayor Congleton: We will hear you later. We want to hear everybody on this ordinance first and you are not involved in this ordinance. We will give you a chance to be heard. Does anyone else want to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Hugh Reilly: Mr. Chairman, I know that your proposal is based on the lack of tax income that you had anticipated. I do not share the suggestion that was made here this morning that the salaries of your higher officials be cut as a means of meeting this problem that now confronts you. I feel that the city was wise in its selection of Mr. Costello, Mr. Brady, and any other heads of the various departments that have been mentioned. I believe that their selection saved far more to the taxpayers in days gone by than would equal the salaries paid them. As trade unionists we believe that the best men available should be selected for every position, and likewise in the administration of our school system. Surely the trade union movement cannot raise any word of objection to the creation of new schools and playgrounds that means work to our mechanics. I feel that you are making a mistake. I feel that by this proposed action you are merely following in the steps of our large department stores, and our newspapers, so far as their non-mechanical forces were concerned, and our large employers, in cutting down wages, your only thought is to save the taxpayer from bankruptcy. You want to reduce his tax rate if possible. Now, let us suppose that that proposition is sound, that your proposal does become an ordinance of this city; let us suppose still further that the ordinary man who has a property worth say eight or ten thousand dollars and has an annual tax bill of $240 or $260 might I ask in the event of the passage of this ordinance where is that home owner going to get the other $230 or $240 even though you may save him $20 by this proposed action. I am going to add the additional thought that you, by your conduct here today, plus the conduct of the other large employers of this country, that you are doing everything, unwittingly, perhaps, you are doing everything you possibly can to make his problem, the taxpayer's problem of next year, still harder. You may ask, how are the citizens, how are the employees of the city of Newark to be paid? And I grant you that it is a perplexing question, one that perhaps the average man cannot answer offhand.

What problems will you men consider one year from now when you are meeting again and perhaps your tax anticipation of next year is found to be more mythical than it is today? What is going to be your thought and what action will you take at that time? I believe the only sane and safe course for you gentlemen to take is to come down four-square on this proposition and say, "No. No wage cuts; so far as Newark is concerned we do not believe in them." And that action, the morale of that action will be far-reaching. When this depression came on everyone seemed to concern themselves with getting work, getting employment for those who are out of work. It is up to you men to do it, it is up to the men in our legislatures to do it, and in our congress. All that is needed is confidence, a little pressure from our legislatures, that would put additional taxes upon those vultures who are always lying in wait to buy up a man's property that has been sold for taxes. Get money out of these people. You will find sooner or later they will come to realize that after all the best way of getting out of this trouble is to compel them to put their money to work, and when that is done we will get scemwheres. In addition, your wage cut proposal will not solve this problem.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak on this ordinance?

Mr. Henry C. Reier, 827 South 19th Street: Your Honor and members of the Board. I am here in opposition to the proposed wage cut particularly affecting the policemen and firemen of our city. I just want to bring before you a few facts which will probably enlighten you before disposing of the proposed ordinance. I have here a certified and verified copy of the salaries of the various cities of our United States beginning the fiscal year of January, 1932. We have a minimum salary for policemen of $2,500 for Jersey City, and the maximum salary of $3,000. For the City of Newark we have a minimum salary of $2,100, and a maximum salary of $2,500.

Mayor Congleton: You thought we did not know that?

Mr. Reier: I am just trying to repeat it.

Mayor Congleton: I thought you said you wanted to recite some facts that we probably did not know about that would enlighten the subject.

Mr. Reier: Probably that you and your Board, if your Honor please, did not consider that.

Mayor Congleton: We have considered it, and we have considered it very, very carefully, and the representatives of the police and firemen, when we had this matter up before us, filed a schedule of all the salaries hereabouts with us.

Mr. Reier: I agree with you wholeheartedly. We have at the present time what we call a depression. The policemen and firemen of our city or of any city in the United States, are the one who protect the citizenry and therefore, under the circumstances, is there any reason why they should be cut. At a fire on Broome Street nineteen firemen were felled because of smoke. A number of years ago there was a proposed ordinance to increase the wages of our policemen and firemen, which did not take effect; and at this time there is a proposal to reduce the salaries of our policemen and firemen.

Mayor Congleton: No, you are mistaken in your facts. There was a referendum, and the voters of the City turned down a proposal to increase the police and firemen when they were not getting what they are now getting. Upon the initiative of the members of this Commission as it then existed, I prepared a bill which was introduced and passed by the Legislature, that notwithstanding the referendum, gave the governing body the power to increase the salaries, and we did so.

Mr. Reier: I am in error then, if your Honor please.

Mayor Congleton: Yes, you are very much in error.

Mr. Reier: Considering then the circumstances which the policemen and firemen give of their salaries, such as uniforms which they are compelled to buy out of their own money; donations contributed by the policemen and firemen out of their salaries. Before considering the wage cut take into consideration the services that policemen and firemen have to render to the city. That they are not being remunerated sufficiently.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak on this ordinance,

Mr. John Hogan, President, Essex Council Civil Service Association: Mr. Mayor, Commissioner Gillen, Commissioner Howe, and Commissioner Egan: Last February we appeared here in opposition to any wage reduction. We appreciated very much the attitude that you took at that time by stating that in view of the fact that the state or county had not set a precedent in the reduction of any salaries that you would take the stand. Since then conditions have changed that have put you in the rather embarrassing position, and we know that you have introduced a resolution contemplating the reductions of salaries. The Civil Service organization has held a meeting since that time and they seem to think that they have been discriminated against in view of the precedent that has been set by the State and the County. They think they are being more heavily taxed as employees of the City of Newark, which contribute a proportionate share of the taxes of the county, and their pension rights would be affected. The State in its statute that has been enacted specifically states "Deductions" and not "Reductions" in salaries, and that it would stipulate it for one year; and the consensus of opinion expressed at that meeting was that they should be given the same consideration as the State and County employees and that they should not be discriminated against nor their pension acts affected.

Mayor Congleton: There is no desire on the part of any Commissioner to in any way disturb the benefits that any member is entitled to under any pension fund, whether police, firemen, municipal, Board of Works, Board of Health, and what not, and it was for that reason we stated in our ordinance that if during the period of these reduced salaries or compensation anyone retired or died, that the men who retired or their beneficiaries, in case of death, should obtain the same benefits from the pension fund as though this ordinance was not passed.

Mr. Hogan: That is true; but the wording of the ordinance in itself says "Reduction in salaries," and, of course, reduction in salaries means reduction, where deduction would act more as a contribution and it would in no way affect the salaries when it came to the question on pensions.

Mayor Congleton: Do you think the employees you represent would be willing to sign waivers as well as the others?

Mr. Hogan: I do not believe any waivers have been sent out to the State employees, and as far as I can learn they have trusted to the honesty of the employees to go along and be perfectly satisfied with the arrangement with the word "Deduction" instead of "Reduction."

Mayor Congleton: Do you think your group would sign a waiver if we changed the wording?

Mr. Hogan: Well, I presume—

Mayor Congleton: It is a legal proposition and we want to protect you in every way we can. Therefore, we feel we ought to be protected.

Mr. Hogan: We feel that way, and we will be glad to do our utmost to cooperate in every way to make it as lenient on the taxpayer as possible. We are only asking to be covered in our positions in regards to pensions, and stipulate a year's time, and then if conditions warrant it we will have to reconsider the matter and discuss it further a year hence.

Mayor Congleton: We are in a little bit different position than the State. The State's fiscal year is July to July, and the State Legislature made up their appropriation bill during this last session. If we say a year we will be confronted with the proposition in January when we are making up our tax budget, and my thought would be if a time limit should be fixed, it should certainly be a year and a half, because otherwise you put it right back to us in January when we are making up our tax budget, and the outlook today is not so good. You might better fix it a year and a half now and see what the situation is, rather than to have this whole question opened up again in January. We fix our budget for the calendar year.

Mr. Hogan: The original State act was retroactive from January 1st, and when we spoke to Senator Wolber and Senator Kuser on the matter then they agreed to have it effective from July 1st.

Mayor Congleton: You see, their fiscal year is July to July and ours is January to January. The Commission will take your suggestions in conference.

Mr. Oliver T. Wood, 630 South 19th Street: Mr. Mayor and members of the City Commission, as representative of the moulders union in Essex County, I have two things I wish to bring to your attention. First of all, we wish to reiterate the position as taken by the representative of the Essex Trades Council, of which we are a member, as regards wage cuts, and if they must come that they should come to those who have been receiving compensation in excess of normal conditions and times rather than those who have been receiving a minimized pay as city employees. The other matter we wish to bring to your attention is in reference to the statement made, I think it was three weeks ago, by you, Mr. Mayor, in reference to the Moulders attempting or proposing to accept a twenty per cent. wage reduction. This was not exactly correct, as I stated to you afterwards.

Mayor Congleton: And I want to say that in looking at the stenographer's minutes I saw that I had said that the cut had been made. What I should have said and what I meant to say was that the cut had been agreed to and new contracts had been submitted taking effect as of July 1st.

Mr. Wood: Which is incorrect. The accepted wage reductions were for seven per cent. only in such places where the wages were in excess of the minimum rate of wages, bringing them down to the minimum rate of wages in the district.

We are unanimously opposed to any wage reductions whatsoever.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak on the ordinance?

Mr. Thomas Scully: Mr. Mayor, Commissioner Howe, Commissioner Gillen, and Commissioner Egan: Representing the Police Department of the City of Newark, we stand now as we have always stood, ready and willing to cooperate in any way with the City Commission. Nevertheless, we are opposed to any decrease in salary at this time. We realize thoroughly that there is a depression and a majority of our members have been affected by this depression. I will safely say that ninety per cent. of our membership are affected by this depression, that they are contributing in some way to somebody not directly connected with their immediate families. A reduction would be very detrimental to our ranks at this time.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak on this ordinance?

Mr. Andrew J. Brady, Jr., 17 Academy Street: Mr Mayor and Commissioners of the City of Newark I appear here in the role of a friend of a group employed in the Department of Public Works, and it is with a spirit of cooperation that we submit slight changes in the proposed ordinance in regards to salaries of the city employes. We respectfully ask this Commission to consider as an amendment or as a change in the proposed ordinance, one that will more likely correspond with other ordinances that have been adopted by the State and by the County. We feel that the City of Newark, being one of the biggest contributors to the taxes of the County, and being one of the biggest contributors to the taxes of the State, that it would be a double hardship upon the employes of the City to ask them at this time to accept a salary reduction or deduction in excess of the salary reduction or deduction that will be accepted by the County employees and by the State employees. We respectfully recommend therefore, that the schedule as adopted by the State be adopted by this Commission in regards to this ordinance.

Mayor Congleton: We will take it into conference. Does anyone else desire to speak on this ordinance?

(No response).

Commissioner Egan: I move the public hearing be closed and that further action on the ordinance be postponed until after the Commissioners confer immediately after this meeting.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, since the last meeting of this Commission Andrew K. Brady, Acting Auditor of Accounts, on July 1, 1932, completed forty years of service to the City of Newark;

So conspicuously valuable have been those services rendered by him to this municipality that it is only fitting and proper that an expression be here made of acknowledgment and appreciation to him; he has ever been the highest type of public servant, setting a standard inspiring to all about him by his ability, efficiency, and devotion to duty; not only the officials of the City, knowing well his integrity, but the whole citizenry of Newark have been confidently assured of the safety of City finances under his careful supervision; while he has been a valuable adviser to all City officials in helping them to work out their problems of government, fear nor favor have never deterred him from duty; his contact with his associate City officials has been genial and friendly, untainted with the remotest suggestion of partisan politics; he has seen the City business grow during these forty years of service, and has taken the lead in seeing that the City system of handling business has developed proportionately.

His advice is frequently sought and graciously given to the problems of other municipalities throughout the State and elsewhere, and he has taken a leading part in sponsoring State legislation for the protection of municipalities;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we, the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, do earnestly tender to Andrew K. Brady the sincere appreciation of the citizens of Newark for his long, faithful service to them. We know that we are under mandate from them, as their representatives, to let him know that they are justly proud of him and sincerely grateful to him. For ourselves and for his other associate officials, we congratulate him on his record of usefulness and fidelity, and adopt the example of his public life as a standard for all public employees to emulate. We hope that Almighty God may spare him in health for many years of further service to Newark.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe: I move that the City Clerk be authorized to forward a copy of the same to Mr. Brady.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented the application of F. W. & C. J. Wilderotter, owners, for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 786-792 Sanford Avenue; on condition that signs, lighting fixtures and fences meet the requirements of the Board of Adjustment.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this application?

Mr. Seymour Klein, 20 Clinton Street:

Two weeks ago I appeared here in opposition to this permit and I pointed out that on this intersection we have two gasoline stations, and this one, if granted, would make the third; and within a space of five or six blocks there are now five gasoline stations. The Mayor at that time seemed to be in favor of this permit because he thought that these men who are making the application at this time were discriminated against; and I pointed out to the Mayor and the Commissioners that if the Adjustment Board used bad judgment in the past it was no reason or this Commission to sanction a continuance of this bad judgment. I submitted at the last appearance a petition signed by twenty-three property owners and residents in the immediate vicinity all vehemently opposed to granting this permit. I cannot see any advantage either to the city, the neighborhood, or even in an economic way in granting this permit. I think that Mr. Wilderotter was interested, or some member of his family was interested in the obtaining of a permit directly across the street. I just received this information this morning and have not been able to check up on it, and I say that with reservations. There was a permit granted—

Mayor Congleton: But saying it for the purpose of influencing us, with reservations.

Mr. Klein: No.

Mayor Congleton: Why do you say it, then?

Mr. Klein: Perhaps Mr. Wilderotter can enlighten us.

Mayor Congleton: Why didn't you ask him instead of making the statement? Go ahead.

Mr. Klein: The neighborhood in the immediate vicinity is a residential one, and the continuance of granting permits, even though it be on the main thoroughfare, will make this residential neighborhood deteriorate.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak in opposition?

Mr. David I. Harper, 1 Clinton Street:

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I object to the gas station going where it is supposed to go. I own a property on the corner of Sanford Avenue and Mt. Vernon Avenue, and there is a gas station there now directly opposite my apartment. There is also one directly opposite Sanford Avenue on the same corner, on the east side. There are three others within a block. There are five altogether within three blocks. My property is assessed for about $90,000. I have seven vacancies now and three more going out on account of the last gas station that was put there, and I strenuously object to any more gas stations going there.

Commissioner Egan: Which is your property, the apartment house?

Mr. Harper: On the northwest corner. I have a twenty-four-family.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to speak in opposition?

Mr. F. W. Wilderotter: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen, in answer to Mr. Harper, Mr. Harper bought this property about two or three months ago. I happened to be counsel for the party selling it to Mr. Harper, and when Mr. Harper purchased this property there were these two stations operating. Therefore, I cannot see why this other station should in any way interfere or harm the vacancies in Mr. Harper's apartments. I also know and have knowledge, representing the owner who sold to Mr. Wilderotter, that there were five or six vacancies at that time, so I do not see that there are any more vacancies at this time, or why if Mr. Harper had knowledge of the condition of Sanford Avenue, and knowing that this other corner was vacant, he certainly must have assumed that at some future time a gas station would be erected.

Mr. Harper: Could I correct a statement of the gentleman?

Mayor Congleton: Yes, sir.

Mr. Harper: I bought that property in April. Since that time I am not being notified at all. There has been another gas station placed there and I was not even notified about this gas station. I just want to correct that statement.

Mayor Congleton: The other gas station permit was granted in March, wasn't it?

Mr. Harper: I don't know, but it has been placed there last month, in the month of June.

Mr. Wilderotter: Mr. Harper, that has been operating over two months. Building operations were going on at that time.

Mr. Harper: I am making a statement which I will verify.

Mayor Congleton: Of course, Mr. Harper, if you bought that property as recently as you say, it may be the transcript of the deed from somebody to you has not yet been recorded on the tax books and that would account for your not getting notice; but I think it is fair to assume that the notice was mailed to the previous owner.

Mr. Harper: This young man attended to his party that I bought the property from. He knew that I bought that property, and I was not notified of the last gas station that was put there on the southeast corner of Mt. Vernon Avenue and Sanford Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: You did not own the property then.

Mr. Harper: No, sir, I did not. I owned it when it was put there but I was not notified of it going to be put there.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared lost by the following votes:

Yeas: Mayor Congleton.

The following communications were received and read:

Board of Adjustment
Newark, N. J.

July 5, 1932.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:

I have been instructed by the Board of Adjustment to acknowledge your letter of June 21st in which this Board was directed to cause a survey to be made of all locations in the city where parking is permitted but where no permits have been obtained.

On completion of the survey, the Board will communicate further.

Very truly yours,
Russell B. Rankin,
Secretary.

Referred to Director of Public Safety.

Board of Adjustment

July 5, 1932.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, that the following applications for variations from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

54 Jacob Street, Jacob Bernstein, owner; wood-working shop (for two years); North Eighth Street, Nicola Sarracco, owner; poultry market; 138 Summer Avenue, Mrs. Frank Ferry, owner, construction of two-story enclosed porch beyond set back line.

The Board of Adjustment,
Russell B. Rankin,
Secretary.

Copy ordered sent to each Commissioner and further action postponed for two weeks.

Mayor Congleton: Does any citizen have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission?

Mr. John B. Alfone, 45 Stone Street:

Commissioners, we are workers of the canal, I am here in behalf of my fellow workers. We all have large families, we are unable to get along with the pay that we are getting now, and still you want to cut our wages.

Mayor Congleton: No, we do not want to cut them; but we cannot get sufficient aid from the State Emergency Fund to do anything different than we are doing; and that appropriation was made with the proviso that we could continue work relief for one week more from July 1. The first orders were that we stop relief work July 1. After much urging and the filing of many papers with the State Board, we got permission to continue it for one week with a reduced appropriation from the State Fund. As it looks today, all work relief will stop one week from July 1. We are still working on it, however, and hope that you may continue. If we do, it will have to be at the reduced rate, because we are not getting the funds from the state to do anything different. This is not of our doing at all.

Mr. Alfone: But, Commissioners, our cut has been thirty per cent.

Mayor Congleton: Well, you are not a regular city employee, dear man; this is work that we tried to make to give you a chance to do something, and we have got to cut our garment according to our cloth. We cannot pick money off trees, and if the state does not come to our assistance we are just through.

Mr. Arthur Scuarano, 279 Orange Street:

Mr. Mayor and Honorable Commissioners, as I understand you, you are going to cut the wages, but it is not your fault. I am going to ask your Honorable Commissioners that when it rains why not allow the men to be paid for that day.

Mayor Congleton: Simply because we haven't the money, dear sir; we would like to give every man that is out of work a position at fair pay. We simply haven't the funds.

Mr. Scuarano: But, Mr. Mayor, I am asking you that if it should rain for two days, at the present scale of wages consider what a man must earn.

Mayor Congleton: I understand; and if we do what you ask you will all be through just that much quicker, because we only have a certain amount of money. The allotment to the City of Newark was based on population the same as it was in other parts of the state, and when that money is gone we are through. We are working and doing our utmost to have the state continue giving the aid that they have been giving heretofore; and as I say, the night before July 1, we got word that we could continue for one week further with a reduced contribution from the state. We are hoping that the final word will not come through to stop. They are saying to us that relief is too expensive and we will have to go to the other alternative of direct relief through the Department of Welfare. I personally am very much opposed to that. I think it is much better for the morale of the people to permit as many as we can to earn some money, supplementing where we have to in the other direction. We are doing our utmost to try and get ourselves in the position where we can carry on.

Mr. Peter Barbatio, 162 Oliver Street:

Don't you think it would be better if there was more investigation made down at the airport? There is men working down there that own property and have a business. If those men were put off, at least other men that need work could be put in their places.

Mayor Congleton: I have no doubt that there may be some cases creep in, but we have used our best endeavors through all the agencies that we have at our command, and they are many, to try and give the work to those that needed it most. Now, where you have got something over six thousand men working part time, I have no doubt that a fraud has been perpetrated upon us in some instances; but I am convinced in my own mind from my own investigations and tabulations that it is a very, very small percentage. Of course, we will continue to do what we have been doing by investigating that, and whenever we get any information that looks reliable we never fail to follow it up.

Mr. Barbatio: But the thing is, when you make investigations there is only one way you can investigate that thoroughly if you have men working right down there with a pick and shovel to get the information out of them in that way. As far as going to investigate from house to house, that is no investigation at all.

Mayor Congleton: You may think so. Our experience has shown to the contrary. There is no place to get better information than from a person's neighbors and from his church. We have been very fortunate in having all of the churches, practically, in this community, cooperate with us, and we have used them to the fullest extent in getting the real low down condition of a person's family condition; and I know of no one who is better qualified to tell us what those conditions are than the clergyman or priest or rabbi, whoever he may be; and they have cooperated with us one hundred per cent.

Mr. Barbatio: You are right there. But there is a lot of people, all they do is going around crabbing they haven't got no money, and go to their minister, priest, or rabbi, whatever it may be, and naturally, he takes their word for it.

Mayor Congleton: Oh, no, they do not; they know home conditions better than you do.

Mr. Barbatio: To a certain extent they do; but there is hundreds of them down there that really don't need it.

Mayor Congleton: Well, we will look into it if you will give me the names of any of them.

Mr. Barbatio: I don't like to go ahead and give any names out.

Mayor Congleton: I don't mean for you to give them publicly; you can send them to me or you can tell them to someone in my office. We will be only too glad to find out any person who has perpetrated a fraud upon us.

John Howe,

Director of Revenue and Finance.

Ordered filed.

Mayor Congleton: Does any other person have any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission?

(No Response).

Commissioner Egan moved that a recess be taken until two-thirty P. M.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The meeting then adjourned until 2:30 P. M.

The Board reconvened at 2:30 P. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioner Murray.

Mayor Congleton: The Board of Commissioners have been in conference and have given consideration to everything that was spoken this morning, and we have come to a unanimous decision as to what we feel we can do; and with that in mind the ordinance will be amended, inserting in section 1 before the commencement of that paragraph the words "That from the salary" and so forth; and then after the 1932 insert the words "There shall be—The "shall be" is there—strike out the word "reduced" and put in the word "deducted." In section 6 at the end of the sentence as it now stands insert there after the word "and shall become inoperative December 31, 1933."

Commissioner Egan moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance respecting the salaries or compensation of officers and employees of and persons holding an office or position under the government of The City of Newark, New Jersey.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the ordinance by sections:

Title declared open to amendment.

Section 1 declared open to amendment.

Section 2 declared open to amendment.

Section 3 declared open to amendment.

Commissioner Egan moved that Section 3 be amended as follows:

By striking out on the fifth line of Section 3 the word "reduction" and substituting in lieu thereof the word "deduction."

The roll being called, the amendment was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Section 4 declared open to amendment.

Commissioner Egan moved that Section 4 be amended as follows:

By striking out on the twelfth line of Section 4 the word "reductions" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "deductions."

The roll being called, the amendment was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Section 5 declared open to amendment.

Section 6 declared open to amendment.

Commissioner Egan moved that Section 6 be amended as follows:

By adding the words after July 1, 1932, "and shall become inoperative December 31, 1933."

The roll being called, the amendment was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The ordinance was declared open to amendment in all its parts.

The Clerk then read the ordinance as amended as follows:

An ordinance respecting the salaries or compensation of officers and employees of and persons holding an office or position under the government of The City of Newark, New Jersey.

The Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, do ordain:

Section 1. That from the salary or compensation now paid to any officer or employee of or person holding an office or position under the government of The City of Newark, beginning with the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two, there shall be deducted the following sums, any ordinance or resolution of the City to the contrary notwithstanding, to wit:

One per centum where the salary or compensation does not exceed $1,200 per annum.

Two per centum where the salary or compensation exceeds $1,200 and does not exceed $1,500 per annum.

Three per centum where the salary or compensation exceeds $1,500 and does not exceed $2,000 per annum.

Five per centum where the salary or compensation exceeds $2,000 and does not exceed $2,500 per annum.

Seven per centum where the salary or compensation exceeds $2,500 and does not exceed $3,000 per annum.

Eight per centum where the salary or compensation exceeds $3,000 and does not exceed $3,500 per annum.

Nine per centum where the salary or compensation exceeds $3,500 and does not exceed $4,000 per annum.

Ten per centum where the salary or compensation exceeds $4,000 and does not exceed $4,500 per annum.

Eleven per centum where the salary or compensation exceeds $4,500 and does not exceed $5,000 per annum.

Twelve per centum where the salary or compensation exceeds $5,000 and does not exceed $6,000 per annum.

Thirteen per centum where the salary or compensation exceeds $6,000 and does not exceed $10,000 per annum.

Fifteen per centum where the salary or compensation exceeds $10,000 per annum.

Section 2: The monies thus deducted from salaries or compensations in 1932 shall form a part of Surplus Revenue and are hereby appropriated therefrom to reduce the amount to be raised by taxation in the 1933 Tax Budget.

Section 3: If any officer or employee of, or person holding an office or position under the government of the City shall receive two or more salaries or compensations from said city, such salaries or compensations shall be added together and the total thereof shall be considered and treated as one sum, and the deduction herein authorized shall be made from such total sum, as constituting the salary or compensation received by such officer or employee.

Section 4: Notwithstanding the adoption of this ordinance the amount to be deducted from the salary or compensation of any officer or employee, or person holding an office or position under the government of the City, by reason or membership in any retirement or pension fund, shall be from the total salary or compensation such officer or employee of, or person holding an office or position under the government of the City, without regard to the amount deducted from such salary or compensation pursuant to the provisions of this ordinance, and upon the death or retirement of a member of any such retirement or pension fund such member or his beneficiaries shall receive the same benefits as if this ordinance had not been adopted and deductions from salary or compensation had not been made.

Section 5: Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be considered to affect or impair the rights of any person in any retirement or pension fund, or under any Civil Service law or tenure of office statute.

Section 6: This ordinance shall take effect July 1, 1932, and shall become inoperative December 31, 1933.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

A P P R O V E D :

JEROME T. CONGLETON
JOHN HOWE
W. J. EGAN
CHARLES P. GILLEN

The Board of Commissioners of the
City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR

City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., July 13, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton

Absent: Commissioner Murray.

The minutes of meeting of July 6th were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance providing for the opening of Raymond Boulevard from Broad Street northwesterly to Warren Street and Wickliffe Street, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Ralph E. Lum, Griffith Building: Mr. Mayor, may I ask whether there has been or is to be a like ordinance covering Raymond Boulevard East as well as west?

Mayor Congleton: From Broad Street to the Pennsylvania Railroad?

Mr. Lum: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: As I recollect the canal bed has been thrown into the street.

Mr. Lum: There will be no ordinance whatever to make that a local improvement?

Mayor Congleton: I would say no because the properties there all have street frontage now.

Mr. Lum: The property of the Bowers Company on Washington Street has three streets.

Mayor Congleton: That is west.

Mr. Lum: That is on the west. And it is in much the same situation as property on the east.

:Mayor Congleton Except that this would give them a new street frontage.

Mr. Lum: Which would be a disadvantage rather than an advantage with the three already there, with the dimensions of the property. We have cooperated with the City, and protest against this as a special improvement, a local improvement. We feel that if this was a matter of merely opening up a street there would not be much substance in that objection; but with this feature that the street is a mere second thought, a very small incident in connection with a very large project which your engineering department has in the plans for the railway, this is a method of providing a railway which is to serve the entire city. The street will be an artery of traffic to the station. The original plan, as we understood it, contemplated this as a general improvement and we think the commission was on a sounder basis when you were considering that.

Mayor Congleton: For your information, Mr. Lum, I would like to say you are correct in that, and both ordinances are before us today. The ordinance providing for this as a general improvement was very strenuously objected to, and for that reason we have kept that one alive and introduced the other, and they are both here today. I agree with you that it will be a main artery and any assessment levied against any of the abutting properties, compared with the total cost, would undoubtedly be very small compared to what it would be if it was a brand new street. So far as Raymond Boulevard being a second thought, to some extent you are correct in that. Our original plans did not contemplate it. It has only been undertaken at the insistence of many of the civic groups and business interests of the community, looking forward to another connection with Route 10 when it is finally fixed, which will bring the people, down into the center of the city; and if I mistake not, you represented one of the associations that advocated that very strenuously.

Mr. Lum: The Broad Street Association. And it will be a very great public improvement and advantage to the city, without doubt.

Mayor Congleton: Of course, you will have your day before the Assessment Commission when all those matters will be taken into consideration.

Mr. Lum: I understand that. Might I suggest if you do come to fixing it as a local improvement that you make every possible effort to fix with definiteness the limits for which the properties affected would be assessed?

Mayor Congleton: I do not think we would want to do that.

Mr. Lum: If you can do that. And if you cannot do it, will you see that the situation is drawn with such definiteness that we can avoid a very, very fruitful lot of litigation, as you can see, as to where the railway ends and the highway begins; the floor of one is the roof of the other and there is a chance for very fruitful litigation, all of which can be avoided.

Mayor Congleton: If we had not gone ahead with Raymond Boulevard it would have been an open cut and then you might have been entitled to quite some damages.

Commissioner Egan: I might say this to you, Mr. Lum: I was one who objected to this ordinance being a general improvement ordinance. I felt and do feel it should be a local improvement. Property in close proximity of that proposed thoroughfare will undoubtedly benefit greatly because of this artery for pedestrian and vehicular traffic; and I want the record to indicate in so far as I am concerned, that this Commission has no sympathy with your thoughts in the matter having to do with the definite area to be explained to the Board of Assessments when they deal with this assessment. I think that it will be utterly unfair to pass upon the city at large all of this cost, when, in my opinion, the territory in that locality will benefit so greatly because of this improvement; as I visualize it, the center of the city, the Broad and Market will be at Broad and Raymond Boulevard instead of at Broad and Market as it is today; and property values are bound to increase tremendously in that section, and I do not think that property owners in the neighborhood should be permitted to pass it on to the city at large and to gain the benefits, in my opinion.

Mr. Lum: Wouldn't that all be very much to the point if we were speaking of Raymond Boulevard East?

Commissioner Egan: It is both east and west.

Mr. Lum: You have covered east as a general so that you are distinguishing and differentiating against the people who simply happen to be by a misfortune of chance on one side of Broad Street rather than on the other; and if anything, the property on the east being much closer to the station would be vastly more improved. And it seems to us you are making fish of one—

Commissioner Egan: Two wrongs do not make a better right.

Mr. Lum: We think we started right, that is the only difference.

Commissioner Egan: I disagree with you.

Mayor Congleton: I think there is a great deal of difference, Mr. Lum, because the property east of Broad Street has had street frontage where people could drive in front of then, they had North Canal Street and South Canal Street; but you take west, take for instance, just to illustrate, the Kresge Store: When Raymond Boulevard is there with a sidewalk along it don't you think that property will be benefited for show-room purposes, entrances and exits, with a street there rather than just the open cut?

Mr. Lum: I think every property in the city would be benefited by it, but some more than others. Ours has already Plum, Plane, and Washington. I think we will be damaged and not benefited.

Mayor Congleton: The people just across the street do not feel that way, because in the taking of property there are some little narrow strips and they are crazy to get me to sell it to them because it will give them access to this new street which they think will enhance the value of their property greatly.

Mr. Lum: We desire to register our protest at this.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Harvey D. Leuin, Lefcourt Building: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, on behalf of the Kresge Foundation, the Splittorf Electrical Company, and the High Street Realty Company, I wish to go on record on substantially the same grounds that have already been stated by Mr. Lum, in protest against the opening of Raymond Boulevard as a local rather than a general improvement.

Mayor Congleton: I imagine that the Assessment Commission will take care of you so far as the Splittorf property is concerned, because Raymond Boulevard will be way below the grade there under-passing High Street. But east of Plane Street where Raymond Boulevard will be at the same grade as the other streets, those properties I think will be benefited.

Mr. Leuin: Then the Kresge Foundation property and the High Street Realty property are more directly affected in that connection?

Mayor Congleton: You will have your day before the Assessment Commission on the question of benefits. Your objection here will be noted. Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Morris Weinstein, 17 Academy Street: Mr. Mayor, on behalf of the Strauss Estate I desire to present a written communication and objection.

Mayor Congleton: Will you read it?

Mr. Weinstein then read the communication as follows:

In the Matter of the Proposed

Ordinance of the City of Newark entitled "An Ordinance providing for the Opening of Raymond Boulevard from Broad Street Northwesterly to Warren Street and Wickliffe Street."

To The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark:

Alexander S. Rice and Louis Hood, as Executors of and Trustees under the Last Will and Testament of Florence R. Strauss, deceased, and as Substitutionary Administrators, C. T. A. under the will of Bernard Strauss, deceased, as holders of the title to real estate of which Bernard Strauss died seized, situated on the Westerly side of Halsey Street immediately south of the old Morris Canal, and Irving Rice Strauss, as life tenant therein, herewith present their protest and remonstrance against the adoption of the above entitled ordinance which had its first reading on June 22, 1932, and which will be taken up for further consideration before final passage at the meeting of the Board of Commissioners on Wednesday, July 13, 1932.

The ordinance contemplates the taking of a plot of land on the Westerly side of Halsey Street where it is crossed by the old Morris Canal immediately South of the Canal, having a frontage of 31.41 feet, an approximate depth of 159 feet and a rear width of 30.80 feet.

Some months ago the Commissioners authorized the taking of this same land under the Eminent Domain Act. The avowed purpose for such taking was the construction of a City railway and the laying of a public highway. Under the proceedings taken by the City of Newark, the value of the land so to be taken, together with the damage to the remainder, was determined to be $410,000.00. The Commissioners were dissatisfied with this award and took steps to abandon the proceedings. It is now proposed to institute proceedings under the authority of the above named ordinance, to take the same parcel of land for the same purposes contemplated by the earlier proceedings, and it has not been concealed that the reason for the contemplated action is to have a new assessment of damages conducted by other commissions, to wit; the Board of Commissioners of Assessment, in the expectation of a lower award. The foregoing statement of facts demonstrates that the abandonment of the first proceeding was specious and not bona fide. Such an abandonment is not authorized by law, for, otherwise, a corporation clothed with the right of eminent domain would be empowered to "to abandon any judicial ascertainment that does not conform to its wishes and through the instrumentality of a new procedure submit anew the question of just compensation" until an award was reached which the condemnor regards as sufficiently low. It is clear that such a procedure would "give undue advantage to one of the parties to the controversy and work a rank injustice on the citizen and property owner." Objection is, therefore, made to the present proceeding at this time for the preservation of the objectors' rights in the litigation which must ensue upon the adoption of the ordinance and to negative any contention that objectors' silence constitutes consent or waiver.

Objection is also made because the ordinance undertakes to make a new public highway of one already in existence, and proposes to do this as a local improvement and at the expense of a limited district. It is common knowledge that several millions of dollars have been expended by the City in acquiring the fee to realty lying within a description of Raymond Boulevard as it appears in the ordinance—an expenditure which was justified because the improvement was general in fact as in name, i.e., one for the benefit of the whole of Newark and not only for a part of it. This view is supported by the ordinance on the same subject which had its first reading on March 16, 1932. and which, except for postponements, has not been acted on subsequently. Is it not pertinent to ask why such an improvement so undertaken is now declared to be local in name and in fact? And is it not pertinent to ask why the owners of property in a given locality alone shall be at the expense of paying for the same?

Dated: July 13, 1932.

Respectfully submitted,
Louis Hood

For himself and Alexander S. Rice, Executors of and Trustees under the will of Florence R. Strauss, and Substitutionary Administrators, C. T. A. under the will of Bernard Strauss, deceased, holders of the title, and as attorney for Irving Rice Strauss, life tenant.

Mayor Congleton: It will be received and included in the minutes. Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. F. R. Sandford: I represent the Deshler Realty Company, 276-280 Central Avenue. We wish to lodge a protest on any assessment on their property, feeling that there is no benefit, direct or indirect, in the enhancement of the value of their property.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard on this matter?

Mr. John Messino, 125 Newark Street: I would suggest that the present line which is set for the property owners to be assessed for this boulevard will be stretched out about three blocks outside further than the line at present and that these people then will not be so heavily taxed for the assessed property.

Mayor Congleton: Where is your property located?

Mr. Messino: 125 Newark Street.

Mayor Congleton: Your assessment will be very small.

Mr. Messino: We just got through paying an assessment for the New Street pavement there which is two and one half blocks from our home.

Mayor Congleton: If your house did not abut on a street that was paved you did not pay one penny for paving. The assessment for paving is never spread beyond the property that abuts on the street.

Mr. Messino: Here is the bill we paid for.

Commissioner Howe: Let me see it.

Mayor Congleton: It isn't for paving unless your property abuts on it. Is there anything further you want to say?

Mr. Messino: That is the only suggestion I make.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else desires to be heard?

Mr. Isaac W. Seiler, 145 Broadway, Bayonne: On behalf of Michael Bodenstein, owner of the property on the southeast corner of Norfolk and Central Avenue, I wish to enter a protest toward the fixing of this assessment as a local improvement in view of the fact that this particular property is removed about six blocks from Wickliffe Street the end of this proposed highway.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Rev C W. Walker, 7 Sayre Street: I am the Minister of the Union Chapel, A. M. E. Church and we received a letter concerning the Boulevard coming through there. Our church is 82 and 84 Sussex Avenue, near the corner of Lock Street and Sussex Avenue, and we wanted to know whether or not it will interfere with us?

Mayor Congleton: No.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

(No response).

No one else appearing, Commissioner Egan moved that the hearing be closed.

Union Building Company
9 Clinton Street
Newark, N. J.

July 11, 1932.

Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark,
City Hall, Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:

The Union Building Co., the owners of the Academy Building at 17-19 Academy Street, Newark, N. J., is interested in the ordinance to be considered by you on July 13th providing for the opening of Raymond Boulevard.

We understand that you now have two ordinances under consideration, one which provides for the work to be done as a general improvement, and the other as a local improvement.

It is our opinion that this proposed improvement is one which enures to the benefit of both the City at large, and property owners, such as ourselves who will acquire new street frontages as a result thereof.

We are quite willing that some reasonable assessment be levied against us for this improvement, the amount thereof to be considered hereafter under the usual practice adopted by law. We, however, do vigorously oppose assessing the entire cost of this improvement to the property owners. We feel that the improvement is one which enures to the benefit of the City at large and that a substantial portion of the cost thereof should be assessed to the City at large.

When this improvement was undertaken originally, we understood that it was to be financed by the sale of bonds and that such bonds have been sold, and that almost all of the property involved has already been acquired and paid for by the City. This project was presented to the public at large as a general improvement project, we feel that it is unfair and improper now to endeavor to assess the adjacent property owners for the cost thereof.

We, therefore, enter our objection to the adoption of the ordinance providing for the carrying on of this improvement as a local improvement.

Very truly yours,
Union Building Co.

I. J. Rachlin, President.

Ordered filed.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance providing for the opening of Raymond Boulevard from a point about 220 feet west of Broad Street westerly to Plane Street, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Commissioner Egan: I move the ordaining clause be stricken out of that ordinance.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to license hawkers, peddlers and sellers of vegetables, green goods, farm produce, shrubbery, plants, bulbs or products of the nursery in a common market or in stands or places in a common market in the City of Newark and providing penalties for violation thereof.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, Do Ordain:

1. No person, persons, firm or corporation shall hawk, peddle or sell any vegetables, green goods, farm produce, shrubbery, plants, bulbs or products of the nursery in a common market or in stands or places in a common market in the City of Newark without first having obtained a license therefor, as hereinafter provided.

2. The application for such license shall be made to the Director of the Department of Public Safety on forms to be supplied by him and shall specify the location where the business to be licensed will be carried on, the nature of the goods to be sold or disposed of and the name of the person or persons from whom the goods have been obtained.

3. The annual license fee to be paid for conducting the business aforesaid shall be the sum of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars.

4. This ordinance shall not apply to the hawking, peddling or selling of said goods above mentioned in the market operated by the City of Newark, for which privileges a rental and license fee is paid to the City.

5. This ordinance shall not apply to honorably discharged soldiers, sailors or marines of the military or naval service of the United States who engage as individuals in their own hawking, peddling or selling business, trade or calling, and who shall comply with "An Act to authorize the issuance of licenses to honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines for hawking, peddling and vending of merchandise within this State," P. L. 1904, page 273, as amended and supplemented.

6. This ordinance is enacted for the purpose of raising revenue and for the regulation and control of the business of hawking, peddling and selling vegetables, green goods, farm products, shrubbery, plants, bulbs or products of the nursery in a common market or in stands or places in a common market in the City of Newark.

7. Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed to relieve any person, firm or corporation from complying with the provisions of any ordinance of The City of Newark relating to the manufacture, sale, distribution or handling of food or food products.

8. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall upon conviction thereof pay a fine of not more than two hundred dollars ($200) or in default of such fine may be imprisoned in the county jail for a period not exceeding ninety (90) days; any corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, pay a fine of not more than two hundred dollars ($200), which may be recovered in an action of debt.

9. If, for any reason, any section or provision of this ordinance shall be questioned in any court and shall be held to be unconstitutional or invalid, the same shall not be held to affect other sections or provisions of this ordinance.

10. All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed.

11. This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon final passage and publication according to law.

WHEREAS: We have learned with deep regret of the death of our esteemed associate and fellow-citizen Michael J. O'Connor, who departed this life on July 7, 1932; and

WHEREAS: Throughout a business career of forty-five years duration, Mr. O'Connor achieved a community-wide-reputation for his high ideals of honesty, integrity and ability, and occupied a prominent position among the foremost leaders of business and commerce in this, his native city; and

WHEREAS: By reason of his life-long residence in Newark, and his active participation in the civic affairs of the community he not only gained a wide and ever increasing circle of friends and acquaintances, but he was also on numerous occasions sought out for public office and other honors which he consistently declined, until in the later years of his life he accepted appointment to the Board of Adjustment, of which he was President at the time of his death;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, acting on behalf of the people of Newark, record this expression of deep loss which the city has suffered through the death of Michael J. O'Connor, as well as our own sense of personal loss, and that we express to the family of Michael J. O'Connor our deepest sympathy on their great loss.

Genelemen:

At the organization meeting of the Board of Education of 1932-1933 held on Friday, July 1, 1932, the following resolution was adopted:

"RESOLVED, that Henry Young, President, and William H. Seely, Vice President, be and they are hereby appointed as members of the Board of School Estimate, and that the Secretary be directed to notify the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark of this action of the Board."

Yours truly,

City of Newark,
Mayor and Council,
City Hall,
Newark, N. J.

Hon. Jerome T. Congleton,
Mayor.

Dear Sir:

Concerning the City Railway project, on which bids were taken June 30th, by your City Engineer, Mr. Costello, for the construction of Railway tracks, etc., etc.

We respectfully address you and call your attention to the fact that the general specification covering this work specifically stated that an unbalanced bid would not be considered as formal and the tabulation of bids received indicate the following for Item No. 16 of the proposal, namely, "Stone Ballast in Place."

Parker & Graham	$34,200.00
J. R. Steers	50,400.00
Debridgia	50,760.00
Erie Contracting & Eng. Co.	51,300.00
Thomas Kiernan	58,050.00
E. R. Moorehouse	68,400.00
McElroy & Kiernan	77,400.00
Sigretto	90,000.00

It will be noted that there is a difference of $16,200.00 between R. J. Steers Comany and the lowest general bidder, and $17,100.00 between our bid and the lowest general bidder.

The lowest bidder has submitted a unit price on this item of $1.90 per cubic yard, which is without any doubt an inadequate figure for the furnishing of specification stone, placing same in track and tamping to conform with specifications.

The following is a tabulation of the unit prices bid on this unit.

Parker & Graham	$1.90
J. R. Steers	2.80
Debridgia	2.82
Erie Contracting & Eng Corp.....	2.85

It is thereore the contention of this company that the lowest tabulated bid received on this work is unbalanced, and has not been submitted in conformity with the general specification requirements, and therefore informal.

We further respectfully request that the above mentioned facts be considered when awarding this contract.

Respectfully,

Erie Contracting & Engineering Corp.

E. H. Moore.

Referred to Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the sum of Five thousand, five hundred twenty-four dollars and six cents ($5,524.06) be and the same is hereby appropriated to the City Treasurer, as per annexed certified list, being the weekly payroll of the Employment Relief Fund (Fire Division), as follows:

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they dpesire to address the Commission on this morning?

Mr. Meyer Zemel: Mr. Mayor, Commissioners and citizens: I understand there is a movement afoot by a number of men to oust the present form of government that Newark now enjoys and has enjoyed without blemish or scandal for the past seventeen years. This group of men who are trying to restore mayor and aldermanic rule to our city call themselves "Newark Property Owners Association," and are being led by a man who is only a citizen of the United States for about six or seven years, whom we know nothing about—we know nothing about his past only that he came from Canada—and he has resided in Newark less than ten years. So what does he know about Newark, New Jersey, and mayor and aldermanic rule when he is only what I term a carpetbagger and a false Moses, because he promises, over his signature, the impossible: A fifty per cent. cut in everybody's tax bill. What does this Moses know about the Alderman Lee and Alderman Baker-Kelly contract scandal? What does this Moses know about Alderman Schmidt selling a horse to the City of Newark while a city official, thereby causing a scandal and being compelled to resign as an alderman? Citizens of Newark, remember, if you restore mayor and aldermanic rule you will restore the notorious spoils system. "To the victor belongs the spoils" was the aldermanic slogan, and you will instill into every Newark employee's heart the fear of losing their position, because civil service rule and the spoils system do not blend or mix, neither does oil and water. Citizens of Newark, be careful; you are being misled—misled, cajoled, hoodwinked and fooled by a Canadian carpetbagger.

And I will tell you some Newark history, and each and every citizen and employee can thank Mayor Congleton for this true story. In 1909 Woodrow Wilson was elected Governor of New Jersey and civil service rule was also enacted by the voters. Mayor Congleton was an alderman then, and before the civil service law was put into effect, Alderman Congleton was asked by the then Republican boss, Dalrymple, to vote for the discharge of ninety-five or one hundred employees who were labeled Democrats. Did Mayor Congleton take the bread and butter out of the mouths of these employees? He did not. And some of them are still working for Newark. Remember, citizens, under commission government rule we are not labeled Democrats, Republicans, Socolists, or Communists; we vote for men, we do not vote for parties. Do you think thirty-two aldermen can live on the $500 a year salary that they used to receive? We have the best fire protection. The Board of Health protection is perfect. We have clean streets and they are well lighted; we have a wonderful library system; we partly support the Newark Technical School; we have the best schools, City Hospital and the free doctors' service for the poor, and dispensary for people to get doctors and medicine there.

Now, Mr. Parnell and your associates, let us say that you have sufficient legitimate signatures of voters to recall these five commissioners. Take into consideration the cost of the recall election, which will be about $100,000, a primary election to pick your candidates that will cost $100,000, then the cost of the mayor and aldermanic election, which will cost another $100,000; then remember you must hold an election every year thereafter to cost $200,000. What will the taxpayer gain in the end? Higher costs make higher taxes that you cannot deny. Now, just bear in mind that Newark, through its Welfare Department for the poor, is taxed to the limit, the City of Newark is burdened to the limit and cannot at this time safely spend $100,000 for a recall and $100,000 for a primary and $100,000 for a mayor and aldermanic election. You have been led astray by false promises. The idea of aldermanic government is old, obsolete, and tainted with bossism. Since the advent of commission government the political bosses have disappeared. We want to move onward and forward, we want to be progressive and still have a low tax rate.

When we had thirty-two aldermen we had thirty-two additional high-pressure salesmen in Newark, because each alderman had a connection with some firm that was selling something, and unless a person seeking a permit of some kind bought his supplies from the firm the alderman represented, he got no permit. That leads up to Mr. Parnell. Is he here? Step up. I guess he isn't here—the reason of getting out of the Mayor's office: Is it not a fact that while you were connected with the Mayor's office you used the Mayor's stationery in trying to sell a concern some commodity at the time when this concern was bidding on a Newark contract, and Mayor Congleton found it out and fired you? Citizens, that is the man that is trying to force aldermanic government on Newark. Use your own judgment.

Mr. T. C. Cavanaugh, 70 James Street:

Mr. Mayor, I would like to endorse the former speaker who introduced that resolution which we might call a resolution to endorse his whole speech.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to address this Commission?

Mr. Simon J. Griffinger: I have one thing to bring before this Commission, and that is the Ironbound Section and the taxation question. We feel that the matter of assessments should be considered by the Board of Commissioners because the Ironbound Section will have to pay the taxes according to the rate, but at the same time the property owners can be helped and aided to the extent of their assessment.

The property owners in that section have been burdened with large assessments, especially the unit value per foot. We feel that the unit value per foot is antiquated in that section due to the fact that the section, with regrets, has depreciated in value.

Commissioner Howe: Just a minute. I was born in the Ironbound District, lived there for over fifty years, am interested in the Ironbound District more than possibly any other section of the city, financially. I would like to ask you where you received your information that the Ironbound District is going to be raised per front foot or unit foot, and I feel, as head of that department, that I should know, mainly because of my interest in that section, and that if it was to be raised I would be one of the first to know it, and I have never heard of it. The reason I am asking you publicly, I think it is another one of those Fifth Ward political stories, and I want to kill it right away.

Mr. Griffinger: Commissioner Howe, I do not want to take issue with you, but you put the question to me and I will answer it. And I feel, after I have answered it you will find it is not one of those Fifth Ward political stories, because the Ironbound Improvement Association, I want it mentioned right now, is not in any way politically inclined.

Commissioner Howe: I did not mention anything about the Ironbound Improvement Association.

Mr. Griffinger: And I feel that the Commissioners would know, due to the fact that I am a member of the Bar, if I made such a statement it would not come from a political highlight.

Commissioner Howe: You might not know.

Mr. Griffinger: The information I received was received at the time that I was before the Essex County Board of Taxation, and at that time I appeared for the purpose of appealing a certain assessment that was on a property in that section; and at that time the matter was taken up they stated if there was any consideration it will be for this year only, because the unit value per foot is going to be changed. That is my information.

(Applause).

Commissioner Howe: Up or down?

Mr. Griffinger: The statement was that the unit value was not enough in the Ironbound Section.

Tax Commissioner Macksey: There was no such thing said. At the time I happened to be there defending the City of Newark and nothing was said.

Mr. Griffinger: The statement was made the unit value would be changed in the Ironbound Section, or that part of the city.

Tax Commissioner Macksey: Up or down?

Commissioner Howe: That is what I asked you. Nobody would object to it being lowered.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Louis Adler, 50 Shanley Avenue:

Gentlemen, regarding Mr. Griffinger was just now talking, I am from the same organization. As Commissioner Howe just expressed himself, it was some political information, I cannot say what it was but we are absolutely out of politics. We are in the Ironbound section and we suffer a lot in every respect. Every property owner in the Ironbound Section in proportion is assessed between ten and twelve per cent. of his value of the property.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Theodore Grotta, 46 Farley Avenue:

As a taxpayer and one hundred per cent. American citizen, I protest against the way the city of Newark is being run. I as a landlord have come down fifty per cent., vacancies galore. As far as I am personally concerned, I am not against increasing wages or anything of that sort. I am in favor of going to the City Hall and looking in each and every department and seeing where overheads can be eliminated.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to address the Commission?

Commissioner Egan: I move we adjourn and the Commission go in conference in the Mayor's office immediately after the meeting.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe: I move that we adjourn.

The Board of Adjustment
Newark, N. J.
July 19, 1932.

The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment, held this day, I was directed to report to you that this Board has compiled a list of automobile parking stations based on the records of this Board, the records of the Bureau of Combustibles and a survey completed by the Police Department.

This list has been turned over to the Zoning Enforcement Officer, and our office is cooperating with him and the License Bureau under Director Egan in the enforcement of the Parking Zone Ordinance.

The Board of Adjustment,
R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Referred to Commissioner Egan.

Board of Adjustment
Newark, N. J.

Newark, N. J., July 19, 1932.

The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, that the following application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

221 Verona Avenue, Charles Babinski, Jr., and William R. Walsh (Paul E. Heller, owner); for the construction of a gasoline station.

The Board of Adjustment,
R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Received, copy to be sent to each Commissioner and further action postponed for two weeks.

Commissioner Gillen offered the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that William J. Schwindt be and he is hereby appointed as a laborer in the Shade Tree Division, Department of Parks and Public Property, at the rate of Seventy cents (70c) per hour, said appointment to become effective July 11, 1932.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter he desires to address the Commission on this morning?

Mr. Fred W. Dunn, 730 High Street:

Gentlemen, I represent about at least 250 ironworkers of Local 11. There has been factions in our local for the last year and a half. I represent one faction and Mr. Sherlock the other. This city work is all going to Sherlock. We haven't a chance to get our men on this work unless we get you gentlemen to help us. This 25 Highway all last year was done practically by 45 men of Jersey City and Mr. Sherlock's members. There was a meeting of men, and before even letting the foreman put our side to work he had them bring men in from New York and work all the way through on that job. We went to the foreman, the man that we had worked for, and he said he was powerless to hire anybody only Sherlock and Mr. Brandle sent him. We pay the same dues that Mr. Sherlock's gang does, we pay $10 a month dues. We have men who have families that are almost starving just on account of Sherlock. If we are in the wrong the International can throw us out, but we are right. We won a decision by Vice Chancellor Berry doing away with this card and permit index system. We are licked still unless you gentlemen come to our rescue, because this Pennsylvania station is being manned by Local 45 men and Sherlock's gang.

Mayor Congleton: What is Local 45?

Mr. Dunn: That is Jersey City.

Mayor Congleton : Jersey City men working down here?

Mr. Dunn: Yes, sir, there is a few. I checked on the job yesterday, and since I have brought this to your attention there is very few 45 men left there, possibly a half dozen. We are citizens of Newark and we are taxpayers. What we want on these city jobs is fifty per cent. of the work.

We want Mr. Sherlock's gang to work as much as we do, but we want our share of it and we are powerless to get on any of these jobs because they have what is known as a shop steward sent down there by Mr. Sherlock. Whenever the company wants a couple of men, that shop steward calls Mr. Sherlock's office and he sends his men out. We would like to have you gentlemen help us get fifty per cent. of this work.

Commissioner Gillen: I move it be referred to the Mayor's department.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter they desire to address the commission on this morning?

Commissioner Egan: I move we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: The commission will adjourn to go into conference in the Mayor's office.

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., July 27, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gil-
len, Howe, Mayor Congleton

Absent: Commissioner Murray.

The minutes of meeting of July 20th were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to license hawkers, peddlers and sellers of vegetables, green goods, farm products, shrubbery, plants, bulbs or products of the nursery in a common market or in stands or places in a common market in the City of Newark and providing penalties for violation thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Hon. Walter D. Van Riper: Mr. Mayor, I would like to address the Commission, if I may, for a moment, on this ordinance. I assume that the ordinance that is now before the Commission is the same ordinance that has been published for the past two weeks, is that correct?

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

Judge Van Riper: I represent the Newark Farmers Market, Inc., the corporation which owns the market known as the Farmers Market. The stock of this corporation is owned by the farmers who use the market as a place for selling their goods. The corporation has paid out and obligated itself to the extent of approximately $400,000 for the land which it has purchased and contracted to purchase, and for the improvements which it has put on that land consisting of improving what was heretofore swampland so as to make it adaptable for market purposes, and the putting of electric lights all without cost to the city. The streets surrounding the market have been improved by the city and the assessment has been levied upon this land owned by the Farmers Market Corporation, so that the investment which the farmers have put into this enterprise is entirely without any burden upon the city. Now, under normal circumstances an investment of approximately $400,000 entitles one to some standing as a substantial business concern; and I think under normal circumstances an investment of that kind, subject as it is to the property tax which it carries, is enough of a burden for the owners of that business to carry. I would like to make it clear that we do not appear in any attempt to evade any responsibility for payment of any obligation which we ought to be called upon to pay in order to run the business of the City of Newark. We say to you that while we feel by reason of that investment, by reason of the fact that we relieve the City of Newark of the responsibility for investing its money for a market for us and have taken a piece of property and developed it and are paying taxes on it, despite the fact we are entitled to consideration by reason of that fact alone, that if in the judgment of this commission it is necessary for the conduct of this city, in order to raise money, that we pay a further share of the burden of the city government we are perfectly willing to pay that share provided it is a fair and reasonable share, and provided that it is taxed alike upon all men who do business in the city in our line of business. This ordinance appears to be most vicious on its face because it exempts from the payment of this $100 license fee those farmers who occupy the market owned by the City of Newark. Now, we haven't any argument if the City of Newark wants to own its market and wants to go in the market business. But it seems to me most unfair, gentlemen, if the City of Newark erects a market and says to the farmers, "You can stand in our market free so far as the license is concerned, or each and every man here pay a nominal license, which amounts to practically nothing, by paying us a rental or stand fee, it does not anymore than cover the amount of taxes which this corporation has to pay to the city by way of taxes upon its property. And what this ordinance seeks to do is to discriminate between the man who stands in the city-owned market and pays simply his stand fee as he comes in, and the man who stands upon what practically is his own property and for which he pays a tax to the city.

Now, if you want to get revenue, and after all, that is the purpose of this ordinance—it says so on the face of it—what about the farmers who come into the City of Newark, drive up to a commission house, unload their produce and go back home. They do not pay the City of Newark any license fee, and they are exempt from this ordinance because it only provides for those who do business in a common market. I say on the basis of fairness, justice, and in the hope and belief that this Commission will see that this revenue is raised in a manner that is fair and just and does not discriminate against any one man in a class.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Louis Auerbacher, Jr.: Mr. Mayor and members of the Commission, as president of the Steuben

Holding Company, I want to protest against this ordinance in its present form.

Commissioner Gillen: Does it apply to your market?

Mr. Auerbacher: It says the ordinance is enacted "for the purpose of raising revenue for the regulation and control of the business of hawking, peddling and selling vegetables in any market or any stands or places in a common market." The Essex Market has about twenty-five stands which would come within the language of this ordinance.

Commissioner Gillen: It was not the intention to include your market in it. Whatever change may be made necessary in the ordinance will be made to exclude your market, because you have put up a big building there and the tenants are mostly Newark citizens who are taxpayers outside of the market.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. William Meachon, 261 Bruce Street: Gentlemen, I represent the Unemployed Council, composed of unemployed—

Mayor Congleton: This has to do with the market ordinance. You will have to wait until this matter is over. Does anyone else—

Mr. Robert Davis, 385 Springfield Avenue: Don't we have an opportunity to speak about—

Mayor Congleton: We are going ahead with our business. You have always had an opportunity to speak.

Mr. Louis Adler, 50 Shanley Avenue: I want to speak on the market and some of those auctioneers stores.

Mayor Congleton: We have a specific ordinance before us.

Mr. Adler: This includes to raise revenue from that too. This proposition I want to bring up will help the taxes of the city.

Commissioner Gillen: You do not want to speak on this ordinance that is now before us?

Mr. Adler: It is something on this ordinance of taxation.

Mayor Congleton: All right.

Commissioner Egan: This is not the ordinance that is before us.

Mr. Adler: Where revenue could be brought in—

Mayor Congleton: He wants to broaden it out to include something else.

Mr. Adler: Gentlemen, I just happened to see about that market to raise revenue for the city. We have in Newark quite a few stores, people coming in and opening a store for two weeks, for a month; they don't pay any revenue and they kill the other locations.

Mayor Congleton: We have already passed an ordinance to take care of those itinerant merchants. Does anyone else desire to address the Commission on this particular ordinance?

Commissioner Gillen: I might say about this ordinance, in reply to Judge Van Riper, that the reason we did not include farmers who come to the city-owned market is because they pay what we thought was a suitable fee for the privilege of selling goods in the city-owned market. We thought that at the end of the year the accumulation of those fees of each farmer would pay the city-owned market a sufficient revenue to compensate the city for their privilege of doing business. Judge Van Riper says the farmers who come to the farmers' owned market also pay indirectly to the city for doing business there; he says they formed a corporation and they own the land and they pay taxes on that land to the City of Newark. That is true, they do pay taxes. But the previous owners of that same land were forced to pay taxes before the farmers took it over.

Now, some time ago the City Commission took up the question of licensing all sorts of peddlers and itinerants that come to the city and do business here, including many corporations that sell goods from wagons, running their wagons through the streets and selling from house to house. Many of these companies are outside companies, they come from outside of the City of Newark and do not belong here, and they are doing a very grave injury to the merchants who are doing business in the stores of our city, and they are doing a very grave injustice to the owners of these properties in which these merchants are doing business. And the Commissioners at that time prepared a sort of omnibus ordinance to impose license fees on many of these companies, and for one reason or another, fear of one legal technicality or another, that ordinance has been put aside and nothing has been done upon it. And I think that the City Commission now is faced with the serious situation of a very big drop in real estate valuations, a big constant decrease in the ratables from which the city must collect its taxes. And we agreed then, and I guess we are agreed now, that we must look to many other sources for sufficient revenue to pay the operating expenses of the city government. Real estate no longer can bear the heavy burden that has been imposed upon it. Judge Van Riper said there are a great many who want to tax everybody else except themselves, they want the burden to fall on everybody but themselves. That is true. But the City Commissioners must not recognize those people or give them any special privilege, we must tax them all. I am seriously thinking that the heaviest kind of tax should be imposed on all chain stores and all of those itinerants who operate wagons through the streets of Newark, because unless there is a very heavy tax imposed upon them, all of the small merchants—maybe not all of them, but a great percentage of them, will be forced out of business even in normal times. I think of all the bad things that has come to modern life, the big chain stores, formed by companies throughout the country and coming into a city and in one way or another underselling the legitimate native merchant who always did business here, and putting him out of business, leaving his store empty and the property non-productive and the city is unable to collect its tax from that property, the chain store is the worst. The only way you can fight this evil of chain stores that is offering the most unfair kind of competition to the small merchants, to my way of thinking, is by imposing such a heavy tax upon that class of business and upon the itinerant merchant that sells from the wagon and offers the same unfair competition to the small storekeeper, put the heaviest kind of tax upon him so that he won't come to the City of Newark and he won't enter into unfair competition here and put our small native merchants out of business, destroy our properties and values and prevent the city, through its taxing department, from collecting taxes on such properties. Now, Judge Van Riper says the farmers who own their own market down there are in a different position from this, and says they are willing to pay some tax, but they think that the amount of tax imposed by this ordinance would be too heavy; and he also says that we must extend that tax to the farmers who already pay to the city a fee in the city-owned market for the privilege of doing business there. The difficulty, Judge—I am going to talk to you a little bit more free than I would if I were up to the court-house and you were on the bench.

Judge Van Riper: I will remember when you do get up.

Commissioner Gillen: The difficulty with the farmers whom you represent is that just before the time we were about to abolish the farmers market over on Commerce Street, which had been there for a great many years and operated by the City of Newark, they undertook to go into the real estate business, and they thought they saw a very bright prospect in taking over a city function, in buying property and making that a very profitable thing for themselves. That is all right, we haven't any serious objection about that either. But from time on they have been trying to dictate to the City Commission what it should do. They have been trying to dictate in more ways than one. They are trying to dictate now when we say they ought to pay. These farmers come from outside. They do not come to Newark because they like the city at all, they come here because they want to make a dollar, they want to come in here and exchange their farm products for our good money and take it out with them. We need their farm products and we have no objection to that, but we do object to these non-residents who have no interest in the City of Newark save and except to do business here without paying rents in stores, regularly designated stores as other merchants are forced to do. And in addition to that they want to dictate the city's policy; they have done it from the time that this whole controversy started. Down where the city-owned market is there was a wholesale provision market established there by a great many merchants who had been doing business in Newark for years, most of whom are residents of Newark and taxpayers of Newark. They went there and put up their buildings and have been conducting the wholesale provision business there for a long time, and they sell products that are raised right here on farms near Newark and throughout the State of New Jersey and they also sell a vast amount of products that are raised all over the United States, and in foreign countries, if you please,—products that the people of Newark want and the merchants of Newark want. And when the change was to be made from Commerce Street they interceded with us as heavy taxpayers and men who had been doing business in Newark for years, and men who had employed a large number of citizens of Newark to work for them, and now employ a large number of Newark citizens who are now working for them and who pay a very substantial tax bill to the City of Newark. These men suggested that the city open a farmers market close to their provision market on Miller Street and Avenue A, and they pointed out that there were plenty of facilities for that purpose, lots of vacant land with rail facilities, very ample rail facilities, better facilities than in most any other part of the City of Newark. And if your clients, the farmers who went down to the Island and started that market, had gone to some place in the vicinity of the wholesale provision market on Miller Street and opened a farmers market there, there never would have been any desire on the part of the City of Newark to continue the operation and ownership of a city-owned farmers market. But they went off a long distance away from the wholesale provision market and left the wholesale provision dealers who were citizens of Newark, heavy taxpayers of Newark, employing Newark citizens to work for them, they left them high and dry. And then the City decided that that was bad policy; that from an economic standpoint, and from every standpoint affecting the situation, that both markets should be located adjoining or very close together, and that they could operate more economically that way, because the merchants and those having to buy the products handled by the farmers and by the provision dealers, could go there and shop very quickly without going from one point of the city to another, with the consequent delay. The farmers located down on Hog Island, and the City created and owns and operates a farmers market on Miller Street and Avenue A. And now we say they ought to pay some tax in accordance with the policy discussed and adopted some time ago by the City Commission, that all of these itinerants should pay taxes, all of these outsiders should pay taxes. There ought to be a substantial tax placed on the farmers coming in from outside of the city and doing business there on what you say is their own market. I still can not see any serious objection to that. If there is anybody that does see any serious objection to a policy of that kind, all they have to do is look at Atlantic City. In Atlantic City everybody that does business there is taxed and taxed plenty, whether they pay rent in a store or a public market or wherever they go; they are all taxed in Atlantic City, and there doesn't seem to be any difficulty in collecting the taxes down there, notwithstanding many of our own fears that there are some legal obstacles to imposing and collecting certain kinds of taxes. So I think the farmers are in bad standing and do not come in here with clean hands to object to this ordinance. If the chief objection is the amount of the tax there might be some discussion on that subject and the City Commission might take under advisement and discuss it at their own leisure and decide whether it is too heavy or not. That is a question that is open to discussion. But when you say that we can use our judgment as to whether we are getting sufficient revenue from the farmers who occupy the city-owned market and do business in the city-owned market, without imposing a further tax upon them, you are getting into our business, and I do not think you are right about it. I think the City Commissioners themselves must decide whether that revenue which comes from these farmers in the city-owned market is sufficient without imposing any further tax on them, and that the other market owned and operated by outsiders, we think what they are paying in taxes now on this property which they own is not sufficient and that a further tax should be imposed upon them, we have a right to do that. But there may be some legal technicality about that. But if we sit here listening to and considering legal technicalities we will never collect any taxes at all, because there was never a tax that was imposed that you could not raise a hundred legal technicalities to show that that tax was illegal. In view of the protest made, and to consider the objections, I would move that the final passage of this ordinance be laid over for two weeks and that the matter be taken up in conference.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Judge Van Riper: Mr. Mayor, I think Commissioner Gillen misunderstood me if he got the impression that I said you could not use your own judgment. I remember saying if in the judgment of the Commission we should pay this tax or any other fair tax, so long as it was passed upon everybody alike, we were willing to abide by it. I want to express appreciation for the fact you put this matter off so as to give it further consideration.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance providing for the vacation of an Un-named Street shown on the map of the Commissioners to lay out streets, avenues and squares, running on a course north 3° 20' west, 60 feet in width, said Un-named Street being located in part between Joseph Street and Catherine Street, and the center line of said Un-named Street intersecting the center line of Albert Avenue at a point 126 feet northwesterly from the intersection of the center lines of Albert Avenue and Joseph Street; said vacation to extend from Raymond Boulevard northerly 2,070 feet more or less to the northerly terminus of said Un-named Street; excepting from such vacation all those parts of said Un-named Street lying within the limits of Euclid Avenue, Albert Avenue, Lister Avenue, Catherine Street and Joseph Street, and stated that today was the time fixed for the hearing on the same.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Resolution authorizing the renewal of $20,000.00 Temporary Loan Bonds on account of Grading, Curbing and Flagging.

WHEREAS, the City of Newark on February 3, 1932, issued its short time obligations known as Temporary Loan Bonds in the aggregate amount of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) for money borrowed in anticipation of the receipt of money expended for Grading, Curbing and Flagging, said Temporary Loan Bond being numbered 2535, and dated February 3, 1932, and payable August 3, 1932;

AND WHEREAS, the improvement for which said Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) was issued was for Grading, Curbing and Flagging now in the course of construction or have been completed within six years and is an improvement for which the City is authorized to issue bonds, and the City is without funds to pay said Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) of Temporary Loan Bonds issued;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That in pursuance of the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, entitled, "An Act to authorize and regulate the issuance of bonds and other obligations and the incurring of indebtedness by county, city, borough, village, town, township or any municipality governed by an improvement commission," approved March 22, 1916, and the amendments thereto, there shall be issued Temporary Loan Bonds in the amount of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) for the purpose of temporarily financing the improvement aforesaid and renewing said Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) of Temporary Loan Bonds issued therefor;

FURTHER RESOLVED, that each of the Temporary Loan Bonds authorized by this resolution amounting in the aggregate to Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) shall state in general terms the purpose for which it is issued, shall be dated as of the date of its issue, shall mature not exceeding six months after its date, shall bear such rate of interest not exceeding six per centum per annum, and be issued in such denominations and be executed in such manner as the Director of Revenue and Finance shall determine, and the Mayor, the Director of Revenue and Finance, the Auditor of Accounts and the City Clerk be and they are hereby authorized and directed to execute in the name of the City the bonds authorized by this resolution, subject to the provisions of Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916;

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Director of Revenue and Finance be and he is hereby authorized and directed to sell said Temporary Loan Bonds at not less than par, either all at one time or from time to time.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The following reports of City Officers were received and ordered filed.

Auditor's Trial Balance as of June 30, 1932.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to address the Commission upon?

Mr. Meyer Zemel: Mr. Mayor, I read in last night's News that the owners of the new lodging house on Mulberry Street demand a five year lease. I hope the depression does not last five years more. I am tired of it now.

Mayor Congleton: I am with you on that.

Mr. Zemel: Another item I read is that they are going to ask for free taxes on the building but they are going to collect rents.

Commissioner Howe: I am against that.

Mr. Zemel: I am with you because every dollar spent for all things in the City of Newark touches my pocket. Commissioner Egan has the right idea, nobody in the city of Newark, after they come here, is entitled to any aid from the city in the way of being given shelter, aid, or food unless they are here five years. Most of these lodgers are transients. Some of them just come here because Newark is down on the map as an easy town. The lodging house keepers of Newark occupy valuable property and pay taxes, or if they pay rent they help the landlord pay the taxes. Most of them are suffering because we have no lodgers. The city has entered into competition with them, very serious competition. These lodging house keepers are willing to lodge the worthy.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Harry Green: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, I am glad you have established the municipal lodging house regardless of business interests or competition being fair or unfair. I have not seen the lodging house owners come here in a body and complain about your lodging men.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. William Meachon, 261 Bruce Street:

Gentlemen, being a member of the Unemployed Council composed of unemployed workers and part-time workers, at our last meeting a vote showed all members were opposed to forced labor because in 1927 the State of New Jersey passed a law that it would pay no labor with anything but money. Also, we are opposed to sending the colored man back south.

Mr. Robert Davis, 385 Springfield Avenue:

Mr. Mayor and City Commissioners, I am speaking for several thousand unemployed workers who have elected and delegated a body to come here and present their demands and wishes. We have been here several times. On the few relief jobs that are given out there is discrimination. The negroes are discriminated; they are given the dirtiest work, and when it comes to giving relief they are given the least, and the great majority of them are getting none. Single workers are not given any relief and neither are the youths. Workers on city jobs are deprived of accident compensation.

Mayor Congleton: Now, you don't know what you are talking about.

Mr. Davis: All right, I think—

Mayor Congleton: Just a minute.

Mr. Davis: I think there is a customary procedure which is given to any speaker.

Mayor Congleton: You will be interrupted just as often as I see fit to correct an error you are making. The city has paid compensation to every person engaged in work relief who has been injured, so that I want you to get that fixed in your mind.

Mr. Davis: Is it correct that it is illegal to pay a worker in anything but cash, according to your law?

Mayor Congleton: No, it is not. And under the statute passed recently for the emergency,—it is not the city that has fixed that policy, it is the state legislature.

Mr. Davis: If that legislation was passed, as I agree with you, it was passed without the consent of these workers on these jobs nor without the consent of the great majority of this city and this state. You are even going further now. I see in the press you expect to go to those food producers to get the food that is edible but not salable, which means that the people with money refuse to buy it because it is rotten, and those people without money will be forced to eat it. We reject that. And not only in words, as will be seen later.

Commissioner Egan: Wait a minute. What do you mean "Not only in words"?

Mr. Davis: I mean we will refuse to eat it.

Commissioner Egan: You infer that you would be glad to lead in physical movements. Now, let me say this to you—

Mr. Davis: I say we refuse to eat it.

Commissioner Egan: You just wait a minute. Let me say this to you, when you address this governing body you will act like a normal citizen. And if you come here possessing all of the characteristics of a professional "Red" you will not be accorded the privilege of addressing this board. Now, just keep your feet on the ground, do not do any shouting, and present your proposition in a normal fashion. Otherwise, we will deal with you in the manner in which you should be dealt with. You do not represent any thousands of people; you and two or three others have stepped into this situation when the authorities were attempting to do the best they could, in the hope of developing a mob scene. And you brought into the City Hall this morning just a few poor fellows who are suffering because of this economic depression. The government is set up to do the best it can under trying circumstances. And at no time in Newark, and I speak to you now as the Director of Public Safety, at no time in Newark will your type be permitted to take any position where you attempt, not truthfully, but because of your own elaborated ideas, to represent a great mass of people. (Applause).

You do not and you will not. And let me conclude by saying this to you: The rest of your presentation of this matter before the governing body will be done in a gentlemanly fashion. You will not try to question the right of the Chair to maintain proper parliamentary procedure, and you will not attempt to create any feeling in the minds and hearts of these men who happen to be assembled here in the audience, who perhaps are suffering today, as are many other citizens. Many of your points are sound, but you do not come here as a normal citizen, you come here in the role of a professional Red. And at no time in Newark, no matter what the conditions are, will your type of professional Red be given any consideration. And bear that in mind, and that goes twenty-four hours a day regardless of you and those you are representing.

(Loud applause).

Mr. Davis: If I have the role of a professional Red, you mean that—

Commissioner Egan: I mean that you are a professional Red in my opinion, and that is how we have you tabulated in the Police Department, and I want you to know it and I want Newark to know it.

Mr. Davis: The Police Department, getting the orders from above—

Commissioner Egan: Orders from me.

Mr. Davis: About ten days ago—

Commissioner Egan: Wait a minute. You proceed with your presentation and no extraneous discussions of other propositions. Submit your propositions that you have to the governing body, and the stenographer will take them down and the matter will be properly considered by the City Commission. And when you conclude your talk you will take your seat.

Mr. Davis: I also come here to protest against the breaking up of an open-air meeting held about two weeks ago on the corner of Waverly and Charlton Streets. However, about a week later I may mention that we had succeeded in winning the right to hold an open-air meeting at the same corner. I want to mention one more point, a point of special importance, concerning its future effect. Attempts are being made here to evict and transport the negro people from the city of Newark to the southern states: North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama. These five states are well known, not only throughout the country but throughout the world as having the highest lynch record: The record of these five states amounts to about over three thousand since 1882. At present in one of these particular states, Alabama, an attempt is being made to legally lynch eight boys, in Scottsboro, Alabama.

Commissioner Egan: That has nothing to do with this city.

Mr. Davis: I just want to point out why the negroes—

Commissioner Gillen: We do not want to deport anybody except some person who is illegally trying to get aid from the city of Newark. We are asking the state to take them back, and we are willing to pay their transportation. It does not refer to the negro race, we have no prejudice against the negro race, it is against any person who is illegally here trying to get money from the city of Newark.

Mr. Davis: You imply then that the newspapers were wrong here, because the newspapers did say—

Commissioner Gillen: It is your own inference, it is the inference from the way you want to read the newspaper stories. Your mind is distorted.

Mr. Davis: The negroes will refuse to do what one way they can do the other, if they are carried there dead, that they will resist. I want to say the white workers of the Unemployed Council will support the negro workers who wish to remain here and who will refuse to go.

The demands in short are:

1. Against force labor. We demand wages for work at the prevailing union scale.

2. We demand compensation for injury on all public works.

3. No evictions, no shutting off of gas, water or electricity of all unemployed or part-time workers.

4. Free food and clothing to be given to the children of the unemployed at the public schools and public playgrounds.

5. No evictions of negroes or white families from Newark.

6. Cash payment of relief to families regardless of length of time in Newark: $4 a week for a single person, $8 a week for a couple, $1 additional for each dependent.

In conclusion I want to say that the patience of the unemployed people of Newark has been taxed; it is very difficult as it is today for the unemployed council to try and stop these unemployed workers from taking independent action. However, the unemployed council will not play the role any more of stopping the unemployed workers of taking independent action.

Mayor Congleton: You are the kind that will be held responsible for trying to start an agitation.

Mr. K. V. Knapp, Chairman of Governmental Cost Reduction Group, 107 Lincoln Avenue:

Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission: The time is approaching, of course, for the new budget, and the group that I represent would like to have some definite action taken publicly before the actual presentation of the budget. We would like to know costs and where economies are going to be practiced, and the various other factors that go to make a solid city.

Mayor Congleton: What groups do you represent?

Mr. Knapp: The Governmental Cost Reduction Group.

Mayor Congleton: Of where?

Mr. Knapp: Of Newark. Commissioner Egan pointed out some ten days or so ago that it is only a matter of a short time when Newark will own all of the properties, which is quite true; and as Commissioner Gilen pointed out this morning, it is necessary to get additional revenue. And we would like to know before the fifteenth or the first of January what is going to be taxed.

Mayor Congleton: If you follow the public press you will find that anyone who has been interested enough to know what was going on, has been perfectly free to sit in conference when we are discussing our budgets and going over them, and we would be glad to see you and your group there. We spend weeks on our budget before it comes out.

Mr. Knapp: That is very nice the way you say that, and we appreciate it greatly; but we feel that there are economies that can be practiced that possibly are not.

Mayor Congleton: If you attend these conferences you will hear these matters discussed back and forth.

Mr. Knapp: I thank you very much. I have attended the usual budget meeting, but it has usually resolved itself in a demand on the part of the persons present for the commission to pick out specific instances at that particular moment, which is quite impossible.

Mayor Congleton: That is when the budget has been formally approved and submitted. But for weeks before that we sit with open doors and people come there.

Mr. Bernard Razanski, 306 Lafayette Street:

Gentlemen, I am an unemployed worker. Today the young workers go into the city relief stations and are refused relief of any sort. The reason for this, we are told, is because us young single workers have no dependents, and don't need any relief. They discriminate against negro workers, as negro workers have told me and I have seen myself. We young workers when we worked in factories we supported families. When we worked in the factory we had fathers and mothers to support. Young workers too have stomachs and we demand we get city relief and jobs of the city government just like any other adult worker.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anything further?

Commissioner Gillen: I move we adjourn.

P. J. OTOOLE, JR.
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., August 10, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioner Murray.

The minutes of meetings of July 27th and August 3rd were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to license hawkers, peddlers and sellers of vegetables, green goods, farm produce, shrubbery, plants, bulbs or products of the nursery in a common market or in stands or places in a common market in the City of Newark and providing penalties for violation thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the ordinance be laid over until August 17th.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The following communications were received and read:

Caldwell, N. J., August 1, 1932.

Honorable Jerome T. Congleton,

Mayor of Newark, N. J.

Honorable Sir:

It took my breath away when I read in a recent issue of the "Newark Evening News" that the Farmer's Market is again a subject of debate by your Board of Commissioners. The "News" wrongly stated that the Department of Agriculture was for the move to force farmers to go to the City Market. From the outset we "supposed" agricultural experts tried to get an ideal situation where the farmer and all were together, but lack of space and past treatment given the farmer were obstacles and we finally gave up in favor of the present farmer-controlled and farmer-owned market.

I personally know that ten Essex County farmers quit the old City Market because of inhuman treatment received there by those in charge. They went to New York and Paterson markets. That was true of farmers from eight other counties. These market gardeners have now returned to the Island Market to the advantage of consumers in Newark.

Agricultural experts from nine eastern states have visited the present Island Market and believe it to be the best farmers' market in the east. Nor was this market established hastily by farmers. The Agricultural Experiment Station, the State Department of Agriculture and County Agricultural Agents from ten counties were called in for advice.

At one of the largely attended hearings before your body on the market question the acting Mayor asked complaining farmers why they had not brought their complaints to the Mayor. These farmers (oftimes with myself) took such complaints to the office of Mr. Corbett upon whose door were the words, "Personal rep-representative of Director Gillen." Evidently they went no further. On two different occasions I wrote Director Gillen personally about the dog-like treatment given the farmers by (I believe) Mr. McSpearitt, then in charge of the market. Most of the farmers worked all day in the heat and could (humanly like) only take so much at 10.00 at night from said gentleman.

My feeling is that the imposition of the contemplated fee will not bring farmers to the City Owned Market. It will, however, cause some to go to New York, Paterson, Trenton and other markets to the disadvantage of Newark consumers. The farmers are now in the midst of establishing their own market in Paterson. Stock has been over-subscribed and the leases have been signed.

If you or any of your commissioners have questions about the market situation in your city, I believe, I am safe in saying I can obtain the services of at least twelve of the so-called experts who advised the farmers on their recent market adventure which to date has been more of a success than anyone dreamed of. All of us have studied and visited many successful farmers markets in this country.

I trust that this will be treated as confidential as I would not go to the trouble of supplying any information not asked for to your commissioner under whose supervision the markets come. As I see it the market question is one of health and your commission need only concern itself with getting an abundance of fresh produce to your consumers. A trip to the Island Market any evening (Friday in particular) should convince the most skeptical that it is being accomplished by the present set-up.

Very cordially yours,
R. E Harman,
County Agricultural Agent.

Ironbound Manufacturers' Association, Inc.

August 8, 1932.

City Commission,
City Hall,
Newark, New Jersey.

Gentlemen:

The Ironbound Manufacturers Association would respectfully request your honorable body not to enact the ordinance now before you which would impose a license fee of $100 annually on farmers bringing their products into the Newark Farmers Market, Inc., which is located in the Ironbound District.

Such action, we believe would be discriminatory, and accordingly unfair and unjust, and a handicap which in our opinion should not be placed on any business enterprise. When you appreciate that between 300 and 400 farmers trade at the market nightly at the peak of the season, it can easily be seen what a burden would be placed on this business. It would jeopardize an investment of approximately $400,000 made in the honest and honorable pursuit of business, and which we do not believe the citizens of Newark would wish your body to do.

The levying of such a license fee we believe would mean an increase in the cost of Newark's food bill as there is no question but that the greater amount of produce consumed by Newarkers come from the Newark Farmers Market, Inc. Six hundred different farmers have been registered in this market in the course of the past year and with the imposition of a license fee of $100 each, it would mean an addition of $60,000 annually to our living costs.

The farmer who brings his produce to market here is an asset to Newark. He aids Newarkers by bringing to them the best produce at a minimum cost. He deals with Newark merchants, purchasing here much of his supplies in the way of machinery, motor trucks and motor cars, fertilizers, seeds, household goods and wearing apparel. His market helps the City of Newark by the payment of taxes, and it aids Newark enterprizes in the purchase of numerous things which are necessary for the market's maintenance and operation.

Very truly yours,
Ironbound Manufacturers' Ass'n

Fred W. Radel,
President.

Attest:

Joseph H. Gunn,
Executive Secretary.

Ordered referred to conference.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark.

We, the undersigned, being property owners and residents in the Ironbound District of the City of Newark, do hereby strongly oppose the ordinance taxing the farmers using their own market. This market is owned and operated solely by farmers. The Newark Farmers Market, Inc. is a great asset to the Ironbound District and the City should do everything within its power to assist in making it the largest market in the country. Hundreds of men living in the Ironbound District have been given employment in the market. The Ironbound District has enjoyed business brought therein by the farmers who are now of great benefit to this section, both financially and charitably.

A majority of the merchants in the Newark Farmers Market, Inc., are city residents wherety most of the merchants of Miller Street are non-residents.

Furthermore, the tax contemplated to be charged is unfair and exorbitant and the City is attempting to induce the farmer to sell his merchandise in a market where there is very little business.

(Signed by 294).

Ordered referred to conference.

To The Honorable Mayor and
Members of the City Commission of the City of Newark.

Gentlemen:

We, the undersigned, wish to take this opportunity of objecting to the passing of an ordinance now pending before your commission, the effect of which is to impose a license fee of one hundred ($100.00) dollars each on the farmers who sell farm produce in the Newark Farmers Market.

We are citizens of Newark and are engaged in the retail fruit and vegetable business, selling our merchandise in stores located in all parts of Newark.

When the farmers built their market located on the Island we patronized their market, because of its location away from congestion. We are also pleased with the management in their efforts to keep inferior produce from entering the market.

(Signed by 93).

Ordered filed.

To The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

We the undersigned being residents of Newark, N. J., residing in the vicinity of the Newark Farmers Market, located on Joseph Street, Albert Avenue, Catherine Street, Euclid Avenue, and Cornelia Street do very strongly protest against the ordinance introduced by Commissioner Chas. P. Gillen to tax the farmers a license fee to sell their products in their own market. This market has been the best and most beneficial enterprise to locate in the City of Newark. This market has brought business into the City, which would never have come here if it was not for the Market. We think this is a bad piece of legislation, solely to make the farmer sell his product where he cannot dispose of them as he can where he is now located. Commissioner Chas. P. Gillen stated that the farmer was not a citizen of Newark and should pay a tax. After making a survey we find that the largest businessmen in Newark do not live in the City. Is this fair taxation? The farmers would gladly locate in the City if the City would be good enough to find farms for them to till. The farmer does not care to drive fifty or one-hundred miles if he can locate near any market. The farmers do all their trading in Newark and are an asset to the City. The market has given employment to hundreds of men in the vicinity of the market. We strongly urge that the citizens of Newark oppose this ordinance, so as to keep the price of foodstuffs within the reach of all.

(Signed by 114).

Ordered referred to conference.

To the City Commission:

The undersigned citizens of Newark strongly urge the City Commission to oppose a prohibitive tax upon the farmers coming into the City. The farmers are an important factor to the food supply in the City, and an asset to a large part of the city surrounding their market.

The Farmers Market has given employment to hundreds of unemployed since it has opened. We have heard rumors from several farmers, that, they will leave the City of Newark if the tax is imposed. We, therefore, plead that the City Commission do everything in their power to use fair play. Why tax the farmer on the grounds that he is an out of town citizen, when, almost everyone of our large businessmen are from out of town?

(Signed by 167).

Ordered referred to conference.

To The Honorable Mayor and
Members of the City Commission of the City of Newark.

Gentlemen:

We, the undersigned, desire to protest to the members of your Commission against the passage of an ordinance now pending to the effect that a license fee will be imposed on farmers selling farm produce at the Chapel Street market. We are citizens and businessmen of Newark engaged among other things in the business of selling farm produce.

The farmers who occupy this market do not in any way compete with local business men, but on the other hand they provide us with goods, with which to carry on our business.

They have established their own market with their own money and have provided a very handy and convenient place for us to go and purchase our goods and have so equipped and handled their market as to render us very helpful service in the conduct of our business. We would much rather have the farmers' market located at its present location than any other place in the city, and we feel that the passage of this ordinance, imposing such a high license fee, would be the means of driving many of the farmers out of this market and subsequent detriment to the small merchants who depend upon the farmers for their farm produce.

(Signed by 20).

Ordered referred to conference.

To The Honorable Mayor and
Members of the City Commission of the City of Newark.

Gentlemen:

We, the undersigned, wish to take this opportunity of objecting to the passing of an ordinance now pending before your Commission, the effect of which is to impose a license fee of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars each on the farmers who sell farm produce in the Newark Farmers Market.

We are citizens of Newark and are engaged in the wholesale fruit and produce business, selling our merchandise from stores immediately adjoining the Newark Farmers Market on Chapel Street.

After the farmers built this market we located our businesses in its present location, moving there from other places. We have established our businesses at the present address and have obligated ourselves on leases, etc.

We decided to establish our places of business in this location because of its proximity to the farmers' market and because we believed it an ideal location for farmers and wholesale commission merchants due to the fact that it is easily accessible to and not congested from a traffic viewpoint. We feel the farmers have rendered a service to the wholesale fruit and produce merchants of the City by establishing this market and in view of the fact that they have paid for and improved the property with their own money and pay taxes on it, we, citizens and businessmen of Newark believe that their market is a real asset to the City and we respectfully suggest that in view of this that if any license fee at all is to be imposed upon them, it should be merely a minimum fee and should be equally imposed upon all farmers doing business in the city.

The City Clerk presented the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Charles Babinski, Jr., and William R. Walsh (Paul E. Heller, owner) for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 221 Verona Avenue; on condition that signs, lighting fixtures and fences meet the approval of the Board;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard in this matter?

Mr. Joseph L. Lippman, 17 Academy Street: I represent thirty residents of this district, and property owners, who object to the erection of this gasoline station for numerous reasons. This gas station will be listed as Verona Avenue, but it is really on Mt. Prospect Avenue and Verona Avenue. There are a number of gas stations in the immediate district. The Board took the attitude sometime ago that where a gas station is being constructed on a proposed highway they would hold the granting of that application; and I call the Mayor's attention to the application made on Frelinghuysen Avenue and Haynes Avenue, where I think the Mayor objected at that time to the erection of the gas station—

Mayor Congleton: This is not on the corner.

Mr. Lippman: It is on the corner of Mt. Prospect Avenue and Verona Avenue. Now, the highway is coming through there.

Mayor Congleton: What highway is coming through?

Mr. Lippman: Well, they are talking of this Route 10.

Mayor Congleton: And they have been for two or three years. It isn't in any of the programs that the Highway Department is working on now.

Mr. Lippman: That is because they have withheld most of their stuff and in all probability will come there.

Mayor Congleton: No; it is principally because the people and the State Highway can not come into agreement as to where it should go.

Mr. Lippman: Until that is definite I ask it be withheld on that ground.

Mayor Congleton: Where do your people live?

Mr. Lippman: I have them living on Mt. Prospect Avenue, on Verona Avenue, on Clifton Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: On Mt. Prospect Avenue where? Because this block is between Verona Avenue and the Erie Railroad and is part of a site that was used for manufacturing purposes for years and years.

Mr. Lippman: That is right.

Mayor Congleton: And across the street is another great big factory.

Mr. Lippman: Well, I have the list here.

Mayor Congleton: Can you think of anybody building a residence there between the Erie Railroad and that factory?

Mr. Lippman: No, I do not.

Mayor Congleton: What would you suggest it be used for,—just held vacant?

Mr. Lippman: It just happens to be an unfortunate situation a lot of property owners are in.

Mayor Congleton: I try to be consistent and not have too many gas stations; but if there is one location where it might be proper to put a gas station, a place like that seems to be it.

Mr. Lippman: That isn't a more proper situation than on Frelinghuysen Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: Much, in my mind.

Mr. Lippman: Your Honor objected to that.

Mayor Congleton: Yes, because it is a heavily travelled—

Mr. Lippman: So is this.

Mayor Congleton: I live up that way. A gas station on this particular plot, to my mind, would be an improvement to what has been there and on the way it is now. I think a nice gasoline station is far superior to a great big corrugated shed. I go by it almost every day and I know what the situation there is.

Mr. Lippman: Well, I desire to file this with the Board showing the objections which were brought forward.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that the application be laid over to August 17, 1932

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton,

The following petition was received and read:

We, the undersigned residents in the vicinity of Mt. Prospect and Verona Avenues, are opposed to the erection of a gasoline station on that corner. There are now within one block of this location three gasoline stations, and one garage selling gasoline, one of them just recently built. It is not our wish to oppose some legitimate enterprise, but we do not wish to make Mt. Prospect Avenue a gasoline alley.

Signed by 29 residents.

Ordered filed.

A communication from various merchants, dated August 3, 1932, protesting against out-of-town men working on the new Pennsylvania Depot and City Railroad job, was read and ordered referred to conference.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter that they desire to take up with the Commission this morning?

Mr. Henry Green: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission: I want to call your attention to the fact that I was unjustly arrested in Military Park while speaking to an orderly crowd. Two officers came over and broke up the meeting, and I want the matter looked up. I acted in an orderly manner, I had a permit, and I told the two officers, "Have you orders to break up this meeting?" They said, "Orders or no orders." I said, "You had better call up the Lieutenant and see if he wants you to break up this meeting." No, they wouldn't; and they brought a patrol wagon over and took me over to the box, and a large crowd followed. The two officers acted illegally. I am willing to forgive. But anyhow, it would not be any more than right to look it up to see if they had any orders to do it. I think I am entitled to a little investigation of the matter.

Commissioner Egan: I am glad you called it to our attention; it is the first I knew of it.

Mr. Green: I just want it called—

Commissioner Egan: If the Commission will refer it to my department—

Mr. Green: I don't want them punished, I just want them instructed and given to understand that if I acted disorderly it would be wrong; it is just as wrong for them wearing a uniform. They pushed the crowd.

Mayor Congleton: The matter will be referred to Commissioner Egan.

Commissioner Egan: I spent two hours up in the Park last night. It was very interesting. And I saw no disorder there. I will look into this matter.

A communication from a member of Local No. 112 of Hod Carriers and Common Laborers, protesting against the use of out-of-town labor on the Pennsylvania Railroad Depot, was read and ordered referred to conference.

Mr. Thomas Lennon, 193 North 13th Street: I represent a body of men who are laborers and I would like to read this little statement to the Commissioners.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, I move this matter be referred to conference.

Mayor Congleton: I would like to correct one statement that you made that this Commission has done nothing. We have had battles day in and day out with contractors every time a case has been called to our attention, insisting they use local labor.

The following communication was received and read:

International Association of Bridge, Structural and Ornamental Iron Workers

Local No. 11

Newark, N. J., August 3, 1932.

Comm. Wm. J. Egan,
City Hall,
Newark, New Jersey.

Dear Commissioner Egan:

Herewith find list of names and addresses. The names and addresses were supplied the Richard J. Steers Company by Fred Dunn as applicants for work, and this, I believe, is the list of two hundred and fifty men of whom he spoke in his complaint concerning the city relief work. I have had the office record of their addresses typed next to his list. These addresses were obtained from the member's insurance cards, and should be correct inasmuch as they are supposed to notify us of any change of address. You will notice that many do not coincide with that of Dunn's and that many live outside of the city.

The address given in Dunn's list, "21 Prince Street" is a saloon with a hall in the back, and no one resides there. This I believe, is nothing but another falsification of the true facts.

I am giving you this information so that you may have something to work on if you are called upon to do so.

Very truly yours,
Thomas J. Sherlock,
Business Agent.

Referred to conference.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, I have another letter addressed to me and signed by Mr. Sherlock, business agent of the Iron Workers Union, to the effect that some eleven men on this work have given fictitious addresses in Newark, and ask the Clerk to put this in the folder for conference too; and I think we ought to use every effort to insist upon the railroad company and the contractor to engage local labor. I do not see why we should be required to permit the expenditure of public money to labor outside of the City. It is not over two weeks ago that I discovered on a highway job they not only had non-residents of Newark, but non-citizens of the United States, who had been imported here, as I understand it, from the Middle West; being employed on a State Highway job and being paid out of public funds. I think the entire Commission should do everything possible to eliminate that practice from the contractor and railroad company, or any other group that is given work to do in this City.

Mr. Alexander Loeb: Gentlemen, I come here to speak about taxation a little. I trust you won't say I should take my plea over to the Assessment Board, who are strangers to me compared to you; and being a property owner here, owning my one-family house—but I was an owner of a six-family apartment which I have sold—in a way I am speaking to you indirectly for the owner of this property. I have a slight mortgage on this property and he can not pay me because the rent is not paid. Landlords have no security for their rent. I refer to the property owner here. We need laws to better protect the owner of property, as now with our one month's notice, not to forget allowing the tenant $200 exemption. I have got a bill here, The City of Newark to Uncle Sam—I made it out for you—where it cost the City of Newark since 1920 to date, since we had Prohibition, $38,000,000, a law which we don't want.

John Howe,

Director of Revenue and Finance.

Mr. Herman W. Brams: Gentlemen, I appeared here about six months ago and I attempted at that time to bring to your attention the question of clearing the slums in the Third Ward and erecting model houses. But I think the time has come, by reason of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and the Home Loan Banks and other institutions that have been established to seriously consider that proposition. There are a number of blocks in the Third Ward that should be torn down and model houses erected. The Prudential, I understand, contemplates starting to do something with their project sometime in the Fall.

There should be established a committee of city officials or city engineers, leading citizens who are interested in planning certain improvements in the city. That committee ought to get together for the purpose of looking into that matter with the idea of planning something concrete. Money is now available for that sort of work. New York State Housing Commission has undertaken to carry forward their project of clearing some of those districts in New York City, and elsewhere in New York State.

Mayor Congleton: There is no machinery set up under our state laws for the city to go into any such enterprise.

Mr. Brams: I don't mean it from that angle. I don't think the city can as a government help to finance any work of that kind, but I think that the city can be the leading spirit in carrying that project forward by showing their interest in it.

Mayor Congleton: The Commission will take it under advisement.

Mr. Gaetano M. Belfatto: Gentlemen, high taxation is a mortal blow to the property owners, because the property owner does not get enough rent to pay the interest on the mortgage. Thousands of property owners have lost their property because they are unable to pay the taxes. In have a memorandum containing a suggestion how to remedy the present condition. All taxes in arrears should be cut one-half because they can not be paid. The other half should be paid in five years in equal installments.

Properties are not producing anything and they have decreased in value about fifty per cent. Now, about taxation in the future: Gentlemen, these taxes must be remedied. To tax fifty per cent. a piece of property, why, that is too much. They should be taxed one-quarter, because fifty per cent., as a rule, is a mortgage. If a property is worth $50,000 and there is a mortgage of $25,000, why should we pay taxes on that mortgage? We pay six per cent. interest. That part of the property which is mortgaged should be immune from taxation.

Mayor Congleton: Would you tax the mortgage then?

Mr. Belfatto: I won't tax that mortgage. Why should you be penalized for taking or drawing $25,000 from your bank and putting it into real estate and then pay four per cent. on it? The other one-quarter should be allowed for vacancies, which are inevitable. We all know properties are not always rented, therefore, taxation should cover one-fourth of the property.

Now, gentlemen, I regret to say that our Mayor here first thought that salaries should not be touched. Well, he was right at that time. And he is also right now by taking the stand that salaries should be out. We have deluxe salaries in our city: $10,- 000, $15,000. Gentlemen, this is not right.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Belfatto, might I interrupt you for just a moment at that point, because there seems to be not only in your mind but in the minds of a great many people in the City of Newark that we have large, large numbers of city employees that are getting very high salaries. Now, I would like to state it as a positive fact that out of the thousands and thousands of city employees that come under this Commission, that there are just seventy-four that get over $4,500.

Mr. Belfatto: Well, I am glad to know that situation, Mr. Mayor; but I suggest salaries above $10,000 should be cut down 40 per cent.

Mr. Frederick J. Ullrich, 459 South 10th Street: Gentlemen, I come before you to ask you whether you would reconsider the proposition turned down on June 22 for portable tanks at 395 South 10th Street.

Commissioner Egan: I move the matter be reconsidered and taken up in conference.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: The matter will be taken up in conference.

Mr. Thomas Dunsmore, 44 James Street: Mr. Mayor, I am one of the delegation that brought that resolution down from the idle carpenters in reference to the Pennsylvania Depot. Would you mind telling me what happened to it?

Mayor Congleton: It was referred to conference.

Mr. Dunsmore: What does that mean?

Mayor Congleton: It means the Commissioners will take it up in conference and see what we can do about it.

Mr. Dunsmore: There is any number of us here and we are just a little bit anxious to know what is going to happen, and we know these men are out-of-town men, any number of them, perhaps eighty-five of them.

Mayor Congleton: It is the desire of every member of this Commission that all work that can be given to local people be given to them, and we have been battling that battle right along, and we intend to continue to do so.

Rev. P. M. Beverly, 106 West Market Street: We come to bear a message from a committee created by a mass meeting of colored citizens held in the Union Baptist Church on the evening of August 4, 1932. And we come to ask this Commission to help create a better atmosphere in that very dense part of the city.

Now, we would like each of these Commissioners, with the host of employees, to use their good offices to bring about better relationship with the departments of the city. Appoint men who live in the area of the Fourth Precinct to committees to bring about better relationship and let us have a more healthy atmosphere. All the trouble that happens comes from bad feeling between the citizenry.

Mayor Congleton: All right, sir; we will be very glad to take the matter up and assist wherever we can.

Mr. Frank J. Kosh, 63 Mott Street.

Gentlemen, I have been before you several times and you made a resolution to the State Highway Commission. It seems that I am making no headway. The Legislature hasn't done anything for me. I went to the Attorney General's assistant to get information and asked him why there wasn't anything done. He told me the Legislature hasn't done anything and they have adjourned. He told me the State Highway should put me on some position, which they haven't done.

Mayor Congleton: Well, I don't know what more we can do than to continue urging the State Highway Department. We have no jurisdiction or power in the matter. We sympathize with you, but I know that doesn't help you much. But we will continue to urge the State Highway to do what they have held out to you that they would try to do. We will continue trying to assist you.

Commissioner Gillen: I move the whole matter be referred to the State Highway Commission.

Mr. Samuel Koldorf, 398 Orange Street:

Mr. Mayor and Honorable Commissioners: My protest is against the chain stores. They are handling groceries, butcher, vegetables, hardware and they don't pay taxes. I will admit it that I didn't pay taxes. They get soda from Brooklyn. Why don't they buy in Newark? There is plenty places in Newark selling soda. They sell near beer. I wouldn't be a bit surprised if I get acquainted with a good manager they might be selling whiskey in the place.

Mayor Congleton: When you find that out let us know.

Commissioner Gillen: I move we take the protest up in conference.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Rev. Thomas D. Tucker, Pastor, Union Baptist Church: I am here in the interests of the religious life of the Third Ward. I am pastor of the Union Baptist Church here. I am here to enter a protest against the brutality of the policemen in the Third Ward. And I am here to ask that this Commission do something to relieve the situation on the hill. It is absolutely necessary that the situation should be relieved. There is a spirit of brutality on the part of the officers of the Third Ward that is unbecoming to any officers in the city.

Commissioner Egan: Are there any particular officers you have in mind?

Rev. Tucker: No. I am speaking about the condition in general in which it has disturbed the peace of our people; good people of the city who keep the religious life alive are afraid to walk the streets on account of the brutality that has been exhibited in the Third Ward.

Commissioner Egan: I would be very glad to take that up with you and correct any condition that you think is not proper. I wonder if you wouldn't come in to see me and I will be very happy to go into it thoroughly. You see what it is here. We leave here and then go in conference, and then I have police trials at one o'clock. I will make an appointment with you.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

JEROME T. CONGLETON
W. J. EGAN
JOHN HOWE
CHARLES P. GILLEN

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., August 17, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioner Murray.

The minutes of meeting of August 10th were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to license hawkers, peddlers and sellers of vegetables, green goods, farm produce, shrubbery, plants, bulbs or products of the nursery in a common market or in stands or places in a common market in the City of Newark and providing penalties for violation thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The following communication was received and read:

L. Bamberger & Company
Newark, N. J.

To The Honorable,
The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark,

Gentlemen:

The final decision reached on the construction of Route No. 21 is a splendid example of public service, and one not to go unrecognized. I address to you and to the Honorable City Commissioners my earnest appreciation of your conduct of these negotiations, and of the just and intelligent attitude of the State Highway Commission.

This organization, in the early part of the study of the various methods proposed for the handling of the problem of Route No. 21 and other highways, threw the resources at its disposal into an educational campaign to enlighten the public on the various aspects of the matter. We stand ready to render this service at any time, but after all it is only a service. The final decisions must be made by our governing bodies. It is a pleasure to write in recognition of a decision so distinctly in the public interest as this one on Route No. 21.

It was indeed a public spirited and far-sighted governmental act, to provide that the State's greatest municipality shall not be by-passed.

Yours very sincerely,
Wm. J. Wells,
Vice President.

Ordered filed.

New Jersey State Federation of Labor

850 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

August 10, 1932.

Honorable Peter O'Toole,
City Hall, Newark, N. J.

My dear Mr. O Toole:

I have been instructed by the Executive Board of the New Jersey State Federation of Labor to extend this invitation to you and the City Commissioners to attend its Fifty-fourth annual convention which will be held in the Newark Labor Lyceum, on September 6th, 7th and 8th.

Trusting that we will have the pleasure of seeing you, I am,

Respectfully,
Hugh V. Reilly,
Secretary.

Commissioner Egan moved that the communication be received, filed and that as many of the Commissioners as can, attend.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

RESOLVED, By the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, that Jerome T. Congleton, Director of the Department of Public Affairs, and John Howe, Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance, or either of them, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered for and in the name of, and on behalf of The City of Newark, to execute and deliver to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation an application for a loan for financing the construction, completion or improvement of City projects that may be financed under H. R. 9642, to be made on forms prescribed and approved by the said corporation.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission?

Mr. Meyer Zemel: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I am interested in the affairs of the Centre Market. I would like to know exactly how much rent these people are in arrears, and I would like to know how much of that original $100,000 the City still has, and I want to know what the Commissioners intend to do with this building; whether you are going to dispossess the present tenant. I represent a corporation that is interested in leasing the Centre Market. They have authorized me to offer, on a five-year lease, $25,000 a year, and the privilege in the next five years for $35,000. And these people will put up a security of $10,000 cash, of course, to bear interest, I suppose, at five or six per cent. What I want to know is the exact status, the exact balance sheet on the market.

Mayor Congleton: Of course, we cannot give you the exact figures here. We can easily get them. They are in arrears in rent for a substantial amount. Commissioner Gillen has the matter in hand, and had the matter up in conference with the Commissioners yesterday, and I am sure he would give you every bit of information you want.

Mr. Zemel: That would not be sufficient. I think the citizens of Newark are entitled to know.

Mayor Congleton: There is no intention to keep anything back, but you are asking for specific figures and we haven't them here on our desk.

Mr. Zemel: I agree with you; but I want to know if the original $100,000 is wiped out.

Mayor Congleton: My recollection on that is that there is still $50,000 cash in hand. If you want positive information—

Mr. Zemel: How much are these people in arrears as against that in rent? Is that $50,000 wiped out yet or isn't it?

Commissioner Gillen: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: By rent? Yes.

Mr. Zemel: Then according to that you are in a position to dispossess the present tenant

Commissioner Gillen: Yes.

Mr. Zemel: That is what I want to know. And are you in a position to do business as to a new tenant?

Commissioner Gillen: We have not decided on that, Mr. Zemel. We had it up yesterday, we have had it up frequently, and we have been trying to work the matter out with the lessees; and last spring they promised to do certain things by July or August. They thought they could re-finance, reorganize, get in some things in the building which would add to the revenue and which would place them in a position to pay the rents agreed upon. July is past and August is here and they have not yet decided just what they can do.

Mr. Zemel: The corporation I represent is reliable, responsible and has the required amount of money to put up; and that is their bona fide offer.

Commissioner Gillen: Well, $25,000 a year I would say offhand would not interest the City at all.

Mr. Zemel: For the first five years; and $35,000 for the next five.

Commissioner Gillen: It would not interest the City for the first half of it.

Mr. Zemel: I understand you are only getting $26,000 now, isn't that so?

Commissioner Gillen: That is all since April. We are supposed to get $100,000. But they are in arrears on that $100,000 a year. They paid $100,000 up to April, and since then they have been in arrears and have paid only $26,000 a year. But they are supposed to take that matter up this month or last month; and they were supposed to take it up this month and agree to pay the arrears and pay for the balance of the year at the rate of $100,000 a year.

Mr. Alex Loeb: Gentlemen, you know I appeared before you on August 10th for better protection of the landlord. If the landlord had better protection the City of Newark would have better protection and could pay its debts and pay everybody. A man can move into a place and say, "I will take it for a year." The landlord decorates it and paints it—

Commissioner Gillen: How can the City cure that? We are operating under state laws.

Mr. Loeb: You have got a lobby at Trenton, and you could have bills introduced to correct that and make it better for the City. Your best customers are real estate owners. You should give them protection.

Mayor Congleton: Well, we are not in any position to correct all the economic evils of the day, and we cannot pass any legislation to guarantee the landlord that a tenant is not going to move out owing him money any more than we can a groceryman if somebody he gives credit to is not going to stick him. I got people who owe me money, I wish I knew how to collect it. They haven't got it and I can't collect it.

Mr. Loeb: You can very well change it. It formerly was that a tenant had to give three months notice.

Mayor Congleton: And that is still the law.

Mr. Loeb: I notice Mayor Hague had to change it and make it one month's notice.

Mayor Congleton: Not if you have a lease.

Mr. Loeb: As soon as he gives a chattel mortgage the lease ain't worth a snap of your fingers, and he can give it to his brother.

Mayor Congleton: What you need to do is investigate your tenants a little bit before you put them in your house.

Mr. Loeb: Is that so? You can't do that.

Mayor Congleton: Well, we are not going to do it for you, so far as I am concerned. You must go to Trenton if you want that law changed. Does anyone else desire to address the commission?

Mr. Frank Pellegrino, 90 Bloomfield Avenue: Your Honor, have you the authority to regulate prices and rates on any products?

Mayor Congleton: No, we haven't any right to regulate the prices of commodities.

Mr. Pellegrino: Anything, whatever it is, maybe taxes, assessments of property, and water taxes, gas electric—Mayor Congleton: We own our own water plant and we fix our own water rates. That is the only thing I know of.

Mr. Pellegrino: Have you the right, Mayor, to regulate and adjust prices accordingly?

Mayor Congleton: No. You want to go to the Public Utility Commission; they are the ones that regulate rates of transportation, gas electricity, and other utilities.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission this morning?

(No response).

Commissioner Gillen moved to adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

CHARLES P. GILLEN

The Board of Commissioners of the
City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., August 24, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioner Howe and Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioners Egan, Gilen, Murray.

Mayor Congleton: There being no quorum the meeting will be adjourned until next Wednesday. If there is any citizen present, however, who has any matter that he desires to call to our attention that we ought to know about so that we may give it some attention during the week we will hear him.

Mr. Alex Loeb: Your Honor, last week you and I had a little argument about the character of the tenant.

Mayor Congleton: Now, I am not going to discuss that with you week by week; this is the third time you have come in to discuss it. I am not going to sit and listen to it any more. You have made that statement and I have made mine, that we have not authority to regulate landlords and tenants; you have got to go to the legislature; so far as I am concerned I am not going to have any further argument with you about it.

Mr. Loeb: It is not an argument between you and me, it is an incorrect report in the newspapers.

Mayor Congleton: I am not responsible for what the newspapers publish. Don't put any more on our backs. Your complaint should be addressed to the Editor of the paper. If that is all you have got to complain about, a newspaper that quoted you wrongly,

I am not interested in it. They have done that with me lots of times—at least, I thought they had—and I have not got excited over it.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anybody else who has any matter to call to our attention?

Mr. George F. Keegan, 19 Vermont Avenue: Mr. Mayor, we had a permit taken out through the Zoning Board to build a two-family house on Cleveland Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Rankin has spoken to me about it, and so far as Commissioner Howe and I are concerned we are agreeable to have the permit extended, but we cannot act officially through lack of a quorum; but I do not think you will have any trouble about it.

Mr. Keegan: We are just anxious to put the men to work.

Mayor Congleton: I think you are perfectly justified! and if you speak to the Building Superintendent he will take care of you. Mr. Rankin will you take that up with the Building Department and say that Commissioner Howe and I have both signed a resolution extending it and we do not see any grave reason why we should not permit this man to go to work. Is there anyone else who has any matter to bring to our attention?

Mr. James Conole, Bloomfield, N. J.: Mr. Mayor, I have plans here for an apartment house on Roseville Avenue, Newark, and we are also making up plans for another one on North Broad Street, Newark, and on inquiry at the Tenement House Board he tells me to go to the Building Department of Newark. They have a law here since 1924, no new apartments with kitchenettes. This particular plan calls for fourteen and the other plan calls for fifty, and we are wondering if anything could be done about it.

Mayor Congleton: I would suggest that you take the matter up with Commissioner Egan who can call in the head of his Building Department and discuss it with you and see whether or not he thinks that the ordinance that we have at this time should be changed.

Mr. Joseph Shuster, 194 Eastern Parkway: The City Hospital and Alms House are working engineers temporarily who live in Irvington.

Mayor Congleton: They live in Irvington?

Mr. Shuster: Yes. Over a month and a half ago I took that up with Mr. Helmstetter and nothing has been done.

Mayor Congleton: I will have it looked into. The answer probably is we had to take them from a civil service list.

Mayor Congleton: Is there any other citizen who has any other matter to take up with the Commission?

(No response).

Commissioner Howe: I move the meeting be adjourned and all matters scheduled for today be taken up at the adjourned meeting on next Wednesday, August 31, 1932, at eleven o'clock in the morning.

Mayor Congleton: The meeting stands adjourned until next Wednesday at eleven o'clock in the morning.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

(No response).

No one appearing, Commissioner Egan moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion

was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance to repeal an ordinance entitled, "An ordinance providing for the opening and widening of Mulberry Street (Part No. 12) on the easterly side thereof from the southerly terminus of the same as opened and widened (Parts No. 1 to 11 inclusive) by ordinance adopted on final passage May 14, 1929, from a point about 27 feet south of the southerly line of Market Street northerly to Aronson Square, southerly about 227.38 feet to the northerly line of Mechanic Street as the same is laid out on Map of the Commissioners to lay out streets, avenues and squares 36 feet in width," adopted September 16, 1931.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The Clerk then read the ordinance by sections:

Title declared open to amendment.

Section 1 declared open to amendment.

The ordinance was declared open to amendment in all its parts.

Commissioner Egan moved that said ordinance be adopted on second reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen,
Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Cofmissioner Egan moved that said ordinance be ordered to a third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen,
Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordinance be taken up on third reading and final passage.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen,
Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the title of "An ordinance to repeal an ordinance entitled, 'An Ordinance providing for the opening and widening of Mulberry Street (Part No. 12) on the easterly side thereof from the southerly terminus of the same as opened and widened (Parts No. 1 to 11 inclusive) by ordinance adopted on final passage May 14, 1929, from a point about 27 feet south of the southerly line of Market Street northerly to Aronson Square, southerly about 227.38 feet to the northerly line of Mechanic Street as the same is laid out on the Map of the Commissioners to lay out streets, avenues and squares 36 feet in width," adopted September 16, 1931," be taken up on third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen,
Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The Clerk then read the title of the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to repeal an ordinance entitled, "An ordinance providing for the opening and widening of Mulberry Street (Part No. 12) on the easterly side thereof from the southerly terminus of the same as opened and widened (Parts No. 1 to 11 inclusive) by ordinance adopted on final passage May 14, 1929, from a point about 27 feet south of the southerly line of Market Street northerly to Aronson Square, southerly about 227.38 feet to the northerly line of Mechanic Street as the same is laid out on the Map of the Commissioners to lay out streets, avenues and squares 36 feet in width," adopted September 16, 1931.

The ordinance having been read three times was then declared to be upon its third and final passage.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen,
Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to license hawkers, peddlers and sellers of vegetables, green goods, farm products, shrubbery, plants, bulbs or products of the nursery in a common market or in stands or places in a common market in the City of Newark and providing penalties for violation thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the ordaining clause of the ordinance be stricken out.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to license hawkers, peddlers and sellers of vegetables, green goods, farm produce, shrubbery, plants, bulbs or products of the nursery in a Farmer's Market or in stands or places in a Farmer's Market in the City of Newark and providing penalties for violation thereof.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, Do Ordain:

1. No person, persons, firm or corporation shall hawk, peddle or sell any vegetables, green goods, farm produce, shrubbery, plants, bulbs or products of the nursery in a farmer's market or in stands or places in a farmer's market in the City of Newark without first having obtained a license therefor, as hereinafter provided.

2. The application for such license shall be made to the Director of the Department of Public Safety on forms to be supplied by him and shall specify the location where the business to be licensed will be carried on, the nature of the goods to be sold or disposed of and the name of the person or persons from whom the goods have been obtained.

3. The annual license fee to be paid for conducting the business aforesaid shall be the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

4. This ordinance shall not apply to honorably discharged soldiers, sailors, or marines of the military or naval services of the United States who engage as individuals in their own hawking, peddling or selling business, trade or calling, and who shall comply with "An Act to authorize the issuance of licenses to honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines for hawking, peddling and vending of merchandise within this State," P. L. 1904, page 273, as amended and supplemented.

5. This ordinance is enacted for the purpose of raising revenue and for the regulation and control of the business of hawking, peddling and selling vegetables, green goods, farm produce, shrubbery, plants, bulbs or products of the nursery in a farmer's market or in stands or places in a farmer's market in the City of Newark.

6. Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed to relieve any person, firm or corporation from complying with the provisions of any ordinance of The City of Newark relating to the manufacture, sale, distribution or handling of food or food products.

7. Any person or persons, violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall upon conviction thereof pay a fine of not more than two hundred dollars ($200) or in default of such fine may be imprisoned in the county jail for a period not exceeding ninety (90) days; any corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance, shall, upon conviction thereof, pay a fine of not more than two hundred dollars ($200) which may be recovered in an action of debt.

8. If, for any reason, any section or provision of this ordinance shall be questioned in any court and shall be held to be unconstitutional or invalid, the same shall not be held to affect other sections or provisions of this ordinance.

9. All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed.

10. This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon final passage and publication according to law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that September 14, 1932, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time, or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place when and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage, and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading as provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to order and cause the Change and Establishment of the grade of Market Street from a point 53.75 feet west of the westerly curb line of Raymond Plaza West easterly to a point about 155.65 feet easterly from the intersection of the southerly curb line of Market Street with the north-easterly curb line of Ferry Street; and for the Change and Establishment of the Grade of Ferry Street from a point opposite the division line between Nos. 16 and 16½ Ferry Street and No. 18 Ferry Street northwesterly about 183.53 feet to Market Street.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, Do Ordain:.

1. Section 1. That the grade of Market Street from a point 53.75 feet west of the westerly curb line of Raymond Plaza West easterly to a point about 155.65 feet easterly from the intersection of the southerly curb line of Market Street with the north-easterly curb line of Ferry Street shall be changed and established, the new grade to be established to include the roadway, gutters and curb, and described as follows:

Grade of the southerly curb:

Beginning at the grade of the southerly curb of Market Street at a point distant westerly 36.10 feet from the westerly curb line of Alling Street at an elevation of 15.20 feet; thence descending easterly 2.04 feet in 100 feet for 31.40 feet to an elevation of 14.56 feet; thence descending easterly 2.52 feet in 100 feet for 4.70 feet to the westerly curb line of Alling Street at an elevation of 14.44 feet; thence

Beginning at the intersection of the easterly curb line of Alling Street with the southerly curb line of Market Street at an elevation of 13.69 feet; thence descending easterly 2.52 feet in 100 feet for 151.02 feet to an elevation of 9.88 feet; thence descending easterly 1.70 feet in 100 feet for 30 feet to an elevation of 9.37 feet; thence descending easterly 1.00 foot in 100 feet for 30 feet to an elevation of 9.07 feet; thence descending easterly 0.50 feet in 100 feet for 30 feet to an elevation of 8.92 feet; thence ascending easterly 0.50 feet in 100 feet for 31 feet to an elevation of 9.08 feet; thence ascending easterly 1.00 foot in 100 feet for 31 feet to an elevation of 9.39 feet; thence ascending easterly 2.00 feet in 100 feet for 63.31 feet to the westerly curb line of New Jersey Railroad Avenue at an elevation of 10.66 feet; thence

Beginning in the southerly curb line of Market Street at a point distant easterly 48.65 feet from the intersection of the southerly curb line of Market Street with the northeasterly curb line of Ferry Street at an elevation of 12.66 feet; thence ascending easterly 2.00 feet in 100 feet for about 57 feet to an elevation of 13.80 feet; thence ascending easterly 1.60 feet in 100 feet for 25 feet to elevation of 14.20 feet; thence ascending easterly 1.00 foot in 100 feet for 25 feet to an elevation of 14.45 feet.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to provide for the paving with asphalt macadam pavement, the construction of the necessary drainage system, and the street lighting of Raymond Boulevard from Washington Street to New Street.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, Do Ordain:

Section 1. That Raymond Boulevard from Washington Street to New Street shall be paved with asphalt macadam pavement, provided with the necessary drainage system, and the street be publicly lighted, together with the necessary new curbing or resetting of curb, together with all other appurtenances incidental to the lighting, draining and paving of said street, including the laying of concrete sidewalks at street intersections and elsewhere wherever needed, and the laying or relaying of a sidewalk or sidewalks, or such portion or portions of sidewalks as may be disturbed or may become necessary or expedient, or the grade of which may be affected on account of the laying of the pavement or the setting or resetting of the curb, under and by virtue of the provisions of an act entitled "An Act Concerning Municipalities," approved March 27, 1917, (P. L. 1917-319) and the supplements thereto and amendments thereof, in accordance with the plans, specifications and profiles dated August 31, 1932, and now on file in the office of the Department of Public Affairs.

In order to avoid the necessity of excavating and tearing up the improved portion of said street after the making of said improvement, the owners of any and all lands on the line of said improvement, are hereby ordered and directed to make the necessary connections with the sewer, gas and water mains to the curb lines in said street for each lot fronting upon said street within thirty (30) days after the passage of this ordinance. Upon failure of any such owner to make or cause said connections to be made, the same will be made by the Department of Public Affairs, in which case the costs and expenses of making said connections will be assessed upon the lands benefited. Each 25 feet of frontage upon said street for the purposes of this improvement shall be considered a lot.

Section 2. That said improvement shall be undertaken as a general improvement and the cost thereof shall be assessed against the City at large.

Section 3. That the sum of $105,600.00 is hereby appropriated to pay the cost of said improvement, and for the purpose of meeting said appropriation and temporarily financing said improvement, temporary bonds or notes shall be issued from time to time in an amount not to exceed $105,600.00, under and by virtue of the provisions of an act entitled "An Act to authorize and regulate the issuance of bonds and other obligations and the incurring of indebtedness by county, city, borough, village, town, township, or any municipality governed by an improvement commission," approved March 22, 1916, (P. L. 1916-525) and the supplements thereto and amendments thereof, which bonds or notes shall bear interest at the rate not to exceed six per centum per annum. All other matters in respect to such temporary bonds or notes shall be determined by the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance who is hereby authorized to execute and issue said bonds or notes.

Section 4. That this ordinance shall take effect immediately and all ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance, be and the same are hereby repealed.

State of New Jersey—State Highway Commission

Trenton, August 17, 1932.

Taking Over Route 21,
KDR:PC

Mr. Peter J. O'Toole,
City Clerk, Newark, N. J.

Dear Sir:

I am directed by the State Highway Commission to forward to you the enclosed certified copy of a resolution adopted by the Commission at its meeting held August 15th, taking over a portion of Broad Street, in the City of Newark, as a part of State Highway Route 21.

Very truly yours,
A. Lee Grover,
Secretary.

RESOLUTION

On motion by Mr. Reeves, seconded by Mr. Jelin, the following resolution was unanimously adopted by the State Highway Commission at a meeting held August 15, 1932.

WHEREAS, a formal hearing has been held concerning the taking over of State Highway Route 21 in accordance with the requirements of the statute,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the State Highway Commission of the State of New Jersey does hereby designate and take over for construction and maintenance after construction, as a part of State Highway Route 21, that portion of Broad Street, Newark, described as follows:

Beginning at the intersection of Broad Street and the south side of Poinier Street in the City of Newark; thence (1) along Broad Street in a southerly direction a distance of about 550 feet to the end of Broad Street, as shown on map attached hereto.

RESOLVED FURTHER that the right be and the same is hereby reserved in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 319, Laws of 1927, and amendments thereto, to abandon or vacate at some future date all or any portion of the road described above, to a length not exceeding five (5) miles, the discontinuance of which it may deem necessary for the improvement of the existing line and grade, and when abandoned, the same will revert to the governing body that previously had jurisdiction over the same.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a certified copy of this resolution be forwarded to the City of Newark.

It is the intention of the State Highway Commission to take over all the portion of Broad Street, Newark, described above between the right-of-way lines of said Broad Street.

An anonymous communication, dated August 19, 1932, addressed to the Mayor re: Employment of local labor on post office and Pennsylvania Station was received, read and on motion ordered filed.

Mayor Congleton: I have had that letter read because it is anonymous, in order that the commissioners might be able to put themselves on record. We, of course, have no jurisdiction over the erection of the post office building, that is a Federal building, but each and every one of us has done his utmost in the way of persuasion and appeal to have as much of the work done by local mechanics and to have as much of the sub-contracting work let to local contractors as possible. We have made appeal to the representatives in the Federal government to assist us in that respect. I know of nothing more that we can do except to pursue what we have already undertaken. And I have had the letter read so we may, in justice to ourselves, have you understand that we are deeply interested in getting employment for all the Newark people that we possibly can. But this is a building over which we have no control at all.

A communication from Mr. Jack David, Campaign Manager of the Communist Party, dated August 31, 1932, re: Interference from police at outdoor meetings was received, read and on motion ordered referred to Commissioner Egan.

A communication from Chas. Mitchell, dated August 29, 1932, re: Interference at outdoor meetings of Communist Party, was received, read and on motion ordered referred to Commissioner Egan.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

In order to maintain the high credit heretofore enjoyed by The City of Newark and with a view of an independent investigation of its financial affairs, and if possible through that investigation devise ways and means by which the expenses of the municipal government can be further controlled, its percentage of debt decreased, the necessity of borrowing so heavily on short term obligations eliminated, and its taxes lowered, in other words to gather facts for the consideration of the Commissioners of The City of Newark in the effort to keep secure the credit of the City,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the appointed members of the Sinking Fund Commission be requested to appoint a committee of which they shall be members for the purpose of reviewing City expenditures, both of a capital and operating nature, and to make suggestions from time to time as they deem necessary to the commissioners as a body or to any individual commissioner toward economy and efficiency of operation of City government, and to further carry out the purposes mentioned in this preamble.

To that end the Commissioners agree to make available to this committee any figures or facts which they may desire, and hereby authorize said committee, when appointed, either themselves individually or through their duly authorized agents to have full access to all books and data which may be necessary in order to carry out this purpose. The Commissioners also agree on their part to consider the findings of this committee as facts and so far as is possible and practical and consistent with good government to put into effect the committee's recommendations.

Mayor Congleton: This resolution is self-explanatory, but it might be wise to add just a word or two. We know, as everyone else knows, the financial situation that every municipality in the country finds itself in at this particular time, and municipalities are no different from private corporations. We found ourselves, when the depression struck us, with very large major improvements under way which it was necessary to complete in order to receive any return upon the millions which we had already spent. Newark's credit needs are very great. The Newark banks have assisted to the utmost. It is necessary for them, in order to carry on, because Newark is not their only customer, they have other municipalities and they have private commercial business which they must also take care of, and it is necessary for us to sell some of our short-time paper in the New York market or in any market that we can find. In order to give the ultimate purchaser of municipal bonds every assurance that we can, it has been thought advisable by the entire Board of Commissioners, and I know Commissioner Murray, were he with us, would join in the resolution, to ask the Sinking Fund Commission, consisting of Mr. John R. Hardin, President of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, one of the very old institutions of the city, Mr. J. Harry Bachellor, President of the Fidelity Union Bank, another member of the commission, and Mr. Christian W. Feigenspan, the third appointed member of the commission, President of the Federal Trust Company, to select a committee to make an independent investigation of the financial affairs of the city; in other words, to become a fact-finding body; and having found the facts, use them to give the information to the financial institutions and investment bankers and individuals investing in municipal securities, to give them a true picture as they find it. It is our firm belief that this independent investigation will tend to keep up the high credit the city has always heretofore had. With that explanation we will take a vote on the resolution. I want it clearly understood that this is a resolution not offered by any individual commissioner, but by the entire board.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The following reports of City Officers were received and ordered filed:

Overseer of the Poor for May, June and July, 1932.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter now that they desire to take up with the commission?

Mr. Charles Mitchell, 497 South 19th Street:

Mr. Mayor, I represent the election campaign of the Communist Party, also as a candidate of the Communist Party for Congress in the Twelfth Congressional District, and am here to present this resolution to the commissioners. In the recent weeks the Communist Party and a member of other workers' organizations attempted to hold outdoor open-air meetings to discuss vital problems facing the working people in the City of Newark. In the present election campaign we have been attacked, our meeting broken up by the police who, arrested a dozen or more men, women and young people. These attacks were particularly present last Thursday evening, August 25, when the police on foot, as well as mounted, charged a crowd of Communists, as well as men, women and children.

The Communist Party with national, state and local candidates for officers in the present election campaign, has held its meetings and asking the right to hold such meetings on the streets of the City of Newark. We demand of you, the City Commissioners of Newark, as the authority in the City, to immediately order your police to stop interference with the proper function of the Communist Party in its present election campaigns. We will go on holding these meetings again. We demand rights as any other political party in the City of Newark to hold meetings anywhere in the city. I think it is very obvious to us and to those in power in the City of Newark the reason why they are trying to suppress the Communist Party, particularly at this time, to present the message of the Communist Party to the workingmen and women, unemployed and part time employed, is because the Communist Party was the first political party to raise the cry of unemployment insurance and led an organized delegation to Washington last year demanding unemployment insurance. The United States is the only country today—

Mayor Congleton: Are you addressing us on a grievance you have against the city or are you trying to make a stump speech? If you are, we are not going to listen to you. We will listen to you with respect to any grievance you have against the city, but we are not here to listen to stump speeches.

Mr. Mitchell: The grievance I have against the city and Police Department is they are interfering with the political organization from carrying out its policy, presenting its program to the voters and the citizens of this city in the present election campaign.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mitchell, didn't your organization make a request for permits to hold meetings at certain street intersections?

Mr. Mitchell: Yes, they did.

Commissioner Egan: Didn't the Department of Public Safety grant you permits to hold meetings at certain street intersections?

Mr. Mitchell: I think that—

Commissioner Egan: Don't think, you know.

Mr. Mitchell: No. I have—

Commissioner Egan: You know you are here speaking for your organization, Did they or did they not?

Mr. Mitchell: They did not grant no permit.

Commissioner Egan: You sit down or get out, you are one of the men who was arrested on the 25th of August?

Mr. Mitchell: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Egan: Because of your holding a meeting at an intersection that was not permitted because of the congestion. Your organization made formal application and your organization was extended the same treatment as would any other organization be extended by the Department of Public Safety under my supervision. But you were not satisfied to carry out the program agreed upon by the Department of Public Safety and submitted to you with our approval. You picked out other street intersections with the idea of creating a condition that would warrant the police department to take an official position. And so that you might not misunderstand the attitude of the Department of Public Safety, we are not afraid of you or your associates; we are perfectly willing to extend to you the courtesy and treatment that you are entitled to in this city, organized as it is in this form of government. If you do not like that treatment, then you have the right to appeal. I take it that you are doing that today in appearing before the entire city commission; if you have any other matter to submit to the governing body, you please do it.

Mr. Lloyd Brown: 7 Charlton street:

Mr. Mayor and City Commissioners, I speak as a representative of the Young Communist League, not only against the breaking up of meetings of the Communist Party, but against the action of the police in arresting young people, some of them members of our organization, who distribute leaflets calling upon the people to come to these meetings. We know there is a law against littering the streets, however, this is not the reason why they were arrested, because they were not littering the streets, they were distributing these circulars to the people on the streets and in their homes. They have been arrested not because they were passing out slips of paper, but because these slips of paper called upon the people to come to the election program of the Communist Party.

Mr. Jack David, 7 Charlton Street:

Commissioners, in February we held meetings on Broome Street that were broken up, no permits were granted. Later on I went down for permits for a Scottzboro meeting on the corner of Charlton and Waverly as well as two other corners. They were approved by Captain Brady, approved by Mr. McRell of the Police Department, and suddenly, at the last minute, these permits were revoked. We tried to hold the last of these meetings at Charlton and Waverly after getting a permit and having it revoked at the very last minute. The police claim that we produce riots, the only times there has been riots or trouble is when the police come in and broken up meetings. When Mr. McRell says that we are an organization that goes around and producing discontent, that is one of the nerviest statements to make on his part, because when we go to these corners we speak only on problems that effect the working class.

Mr. D. R. Crowley, 259 Weequahic Avenue:

Gentlemen, we come before you as citizens and taxpayers of the City of Newark. How are chances of getting in on some of the work at this Pennsylvania depot and the canal? I mean some share of it. We need your help on this job. Out of five or six carpenter foremen or men in charge on the job, I believe there is one local resident there. We have capable men and foremen and mechanics in Newark who would like to share in this work.

Mayor Congleton: We have tried to follow up the proposition that you have been discussing, and day in and day out we have been insisting that Newark mechanics be employed. And we have found out-of-town people and we have insisted that they be discharged and Newark people employed. We intend to keep at that from day to day. We feel where the money of taxpayers of the City of Newark is in part paying for the work, although that Pennsylvania job that you speak of is not a Newark contract, it is the Pennsylvania Railroad, but we are indirectly contributing through street changes, and so forth, that the work should be given to the bona fide residents of Newark; and so far as I can do so I will lend every effort that I can to see that accomplished, and I know the others feel the same way, because we have discussed it many times.

Mr. Phillip Burns, 52 Stocker Street:

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I am the representative of the International Labor Defense, which is the organization now conducting the defense of Tom Mooney; and I come here to protest the beating of the workers on the corner of Charlton and Waverly. I was there. I was called up by the Communist Party. They told me they were holding a meeting there and I came down because it is the duty of this organization to hire lawyers and conduct defenses of all working class organizations. When I came there to the corner of Charlton and Waverly the police drove the crowds down the street.

Commissioner Gillen: I move this matter be referred to the Director of Public Safety.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any other matter to take up with the Commission.

Mr. Gaetano M. Belfatto: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I was here about a month ago and made certain suggestions with reference to unemployment and depression. Now, gentlemen, in order that I may give force and effect to my remarks of a month ago, you will permit me to read to you what ex-president Calvin Coolidge said in an article which appeared in the Evening Post of March 26, 1932. Now, he said this: "High expenses have created debts and heavy taxes. The disaster is felt most keenly by wage earners. Taxing, borrowing, and spending beyond the means of the people to pay calls for selling the property and destroys values. It is demoralizing to borrow to pay the cost of government. It breaks down public confidence and destroys credit. Borrowing is justified only in emergency cases. Local governments have been the worst offenders and find themselves in the most serious difficulties. Nothing but drastic retrenchment will restore land to financial health." It may be that the public improvements are indispensable, but as I said before, just now they are not. The people have no money. With reference to high paid salaries, some of the gentlemen feel hurt that I said that they should be cut, not because I questioned their efficiency or ability as experts, if you please, but I do say that at this time everybody should be human enough to accept the reduction with grace. Let us not spend millions for public improvements which are not indispensable.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Belfatto, the city has not undertaken any new improvements for a long time. We had to go along with the ones that were under way.

Mr. Belfatto: I understand the city is going to lease a piece of property at Port Newark and get $300,000 covering a period of fifty years. Now, I understand that these people are rather mysterious; they do not want to be annoyed. I would like to tell these gentlemen who come here and rent property to put the money on the table and give a solid guarantee so that the city of Newark don't have to go crazy in order to collect the just rents which are due on a contract of that kind. And that is all I have to say.

Mayor Congleton: Do you require a guarantee bond from a tenant when you lease him a piece of property, to secure payment of the rent during the term of the lease?

Mr. Belfatto: Many times we do that. We do that because we lose rent and the tenant.

Mayor Congleton: Well, we have nothing to lose in this; we are giving them vacant land on which they are to build a building, and if they default, the land comes back to the city with the buildings upon it: and they give a bond guaranteeing completion of the building.

Mr. Belfatto: But as a lawyer I would like to have security from anybody who comes from the other side of the ocean or the river.

Mayor Congleton: These people do not come from the other side of the ocean, and when their identity is disclosed I think you will be very happy that the city entered into a lease with them.

Mr. Belfatto: We are nothing else but taxpayers and we feel the heavy burden on our shoulders.

Mayor Congleton: We are making this lease to try to lighten that burden.

Mr. Belfatto: And this taxation should be reduced heavily so in order to make Newark a desirable place to live in.

Mayor Congleton: I agree with you on that conclusion.

Mr. Henry Green: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, I came here to ask that some provision be made for the unemployed to help feed them: I don't know, Mr. Malady said if anything like that has been undertaken he don't know anything about it. And I say now is the time, there are plenty of people that are hungry now, and if they had some food it would come in handy for them.

Mayor Congleton: Commissioner Murray is sick, unfortunately; but the commission as a whole have taken up the matter, Mr. Green, and within a very short time I think you will be satisfied with the new facilities that are provided to take care of the feeding of the men that is now being done in the church. The Commission has it up.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Building Commissioner, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Frederick J. Ullrich, owner, for the sale of gasoline from two portable tanks; premises 395 South Tenth Street; for the period of one year;

Therefore Be It RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer, in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Commissioner Egan moved that the application be laid over until September 14, 1932.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Frederick J. Ullrich, 495 South Tenth Street:

In reference to that re-hearing of the permit at 395 South Tenth Street—

Mayor Congleton: Motion was made it be reopened, but no date was fixed so notices might be sent out.

Commissioner Gillen moved to adjourn.

Newark, New Jersey

September 6, 1932.

Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:—

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, that the following applications for variations from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

268-274 Heller Parkway, Albert H. Hedden (Nellie F. Hedden, owner); gasoline station;

707 South 14th Street, Nicholas Spano, owner, retail ice depot;

437 Broadway, Leo Bauman (William B. Adam, owner); dining car; for a period of five years;

199 Peshine Avenue, Harry Weberbauer (Nunziato Falcone, owner); addition to an automobile parking station; for five years;

23 Cleveland Avenue, Joseph Warnitzke (Patrick J. Dolan, owner); construction of a two-family dwelling.

The Board of Adjustment,
R. B. Rankin,
Secretary.

Commissioner Egan moved that the communication be received, copy sent to each Commissioner, and further action postponed for two weeks.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

To The City Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Gentlemen:—

We have complied with the request set forth in the resolution passed by your Honorable Body on the 31st day of August, 1932, and herewith transmit for your records the names of the Committee we have appointed.

In sending you these names we deem a few words appropriate.

We understand that time is of the essence of the present effort and we anticipate the cooperation on your part pledged in the resolution. We have, therefore, assumed in selecting the Committee, that the purposes of the resolution cannot be promptly or effectively promoted by efforts involving substantial delay and enabling-legislation, to fundamentally change the existing municipal machinery; and that practical, rather than theoretical, suggestions are most likely to advance economy, eliminate waste and conserve the taxpayers' dollars. We have had in mind, also, that the City's legitimate needs require borrowing beyond the capacity of local financial institutions, and that the marketing of municipal obligations, both of the temporary and permanent type, is an essential of City administration. We have, further, recognized that residence does not determine taxpaying responsibility, and we have not hesitated to invite to this opportunity to serve the City of Newark, qualified representatives deeply concerned in the City's welfare through tax relationship, although not actually resident within the City's limits.

We are confident that suggestions emanating from this Committee will deserve your approval.

Respectfully,
John R. Hardin
J. H. Bacheller
C. W. Feigenspan

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission this morning?

Mr. Alexander Loeb appeared and requested to City to protect property owners against defrauding tenants.

Mr. Henry Green: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, I am sorry that the Municipal Lodging House was shut down and about two hundred people sent away from having their night's lodging. Now that the cool weather has set in it will make it hard. I hope you will do something to reopen it at once. I actually believe, it would make one believe that the lodging house was closed down to drive these people to the mean and selfish, dirty, filthy, lodging houses. It looks as if this were shut down to give business interests a chance to fleece the unemployed.

Mayor Congleton: That was not the purpose, Mr. Green; before we took the action that we took we made an investigation and there are ample facilities at the Salvation Army and the Rescue Home and the other charitable lodging houses for the small number that were still using our lodging house. Their population had fallen off just as ours had.

Commissioner Gillen: This is not a permanent closing, as I understand it. It was suggested by the Overseer of the Poor's Department that it be shut down for a month or so and then opened up when the cold weather came, and in the meantime these men were to be taken care of through the Poor and Alms Department and the Salvation Army and the Rescue Home. If they are not, I would like to know about it myself, because I was not in favor of shutting it down unless those two hundred were taken care of elsewhere.

Mr. Green: You know that our industrious people that are honestly, and through no fault of their own, out of work, they hate to go to those good-will missions and Salvation Army and be stained with charity. We had a fine thing there in spite of the fact that the building is not luxurious nor the most sanitary situation, but it was a Godsend at that, and you treated those people better than they are being treated; you gave them pajamas, you gave them a shower bath, you gave them a place where they could lodge at night without going over and seeking charity and go to the charity institutions. And it would be my desire that you kindly open it at once. Last night was an extreme cold night, and it looks if you need it already. And may I ask you, Mr. Mayor, with the cooperation of Commissioner Egan, that you send out at once the police force and find out the exact number of unemployed people. Mr. McKee of New York is doing that now, he is sending out his police force. I asked Commissioner Brennan before he died, to do that, and I think he was going to do it; and it would be a fine thing if you send the police force to work now to find out the exact number of unemployed people. You will need it very soon, and it isn't any too early to do it now; and you will find, Commissioner Egan,—I hope I am not right—that you did a fine thing in doing it early.

Commissioner Egan: I think you are right, Mr. Green, and if the Commission is in accord, I will arrange to do that.

Mr. Green: I hope the Commission will be in accord. I do not come down here with any signs of threats, I come down here with the feeling of cooperation. I haven't any malice in my heart, but I know that the coming winter is going to be a torturous one, and anything we can do now is only to foresee matters and handle things as they should be. You won't regret it if you do it now. There may be cause for regret if we don't: I thank you.

Commissioner Egan: I might say this to you, Mr. Green: We are having a survey made of our industrial activities in the City of Newark, and it is not complete yet, but so far it shows an improvement over last year. It is not so good as 1930, but it is better than 1931.

Mr. Green: Commissioner Egan, you cannot send out the police force any too soon. Let them find out the exact number. Mr. McKee said they found people drawing money that was not entitled to draw it at all. This police information will tend to weed out the undesirable element and give a chance to the deserving.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any mater they desire to address the Commission on?

(No response).

No one else appearing, Commissioner Gillen moved to adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

September 10, 1932.

Hon. Peter J. O'Toole, Jr.,
City Clerk,
Newark, N. J.

Dear Sir:—

I hereby call a special meeting of the Board of Commissioners, in the Commissioners Chamber, Monday morning, September 12th, at 11 o'clock, to take action on the death of Commissioner Murray.

Very truly yours,
Jerome T. Congleton,
Mayor.

Ordered filed:

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

The people of Newark are bowed in grief by the death of our beloved colleague and friend, Commissioner John F. Murray, Jr., which occurred Saturday, September 10, 1932, and we his associates are stricken with deep sorrow.

Commissioner Murray's entire course of life was actuated by a passion for the welfare and improvement of conditions of those of his fellow-men who, in one way or another, were beset by misfortune. To this end he devoted his life, and as a result has left for posterity an impressive record of great acts of charity, which forms his greatest monument in the minds of all who knew this true humanitarian.

Filled to overflowing with the milk of human kindness, Commissioner Murray served his community long and indefatigably in caring for the sick and needy of Newark. Living proof of this exists today in the thousands of his fellow citizens enjoying restored health and happiness as a result of his administration of the City Hospital which was perhaps his most notable success as a public official.

Commissioner Murray gave equally of his time and energy toward the betterment of that underprivileged group whom he found in need of community assistance, and throughout his career as a Commissioner of Newark worked assiduously toward the proper development of its institutional system including the Alms House at Ivy Hill, the Boys' Home at Verona, the Convalescent Hospital and Camp Newark, as well as toward increased efficiency in the administration of the Poor and Alms Department during the most serious economic crisis with which the Department has had to cope since its inception.

Commissioner Murray served his country patriotically when the call to duty came at the outbreak of the World War in 1917. As Chairman of Draft Board No. 6, he rendered his full share of service in the formation of the National Army which later was to bring that great conflict to a successful conclusion in France.

In innumerable other activities Commissioner Murray gave of his great capacity for public service. For years he worked energetically in the interest of the affairs of his church and religion; more than any other person he was responsible for the enactment of the law granting pensions to indigent widows; for several years he served conspicuously well as Police Magistrate of Newark, and likewise he served with distinction for a full term as a member of the Essex County Board of Elections.

It is altogether appropriate that proper respect be shown the memory of Commissioner Murray by the entire City, and we therefore deem it fitting that all activity within the corporate limits of the City of Newark, whether in the homes or places of business, and including all traffic, vehicular and pedestrian, shall cease on Tuesday morning, September 13th, at eleven o'clock sharp, for the period of one minute during which everyone is earnestly urged to offer up a silent prayer for our deceased Commissioner.

And we further proclaim the existence of a thirty-day period of mourning throughout the city, dating from the date of his death, during which the colors on all public buildings, business houses and other places shall be flown at half mast.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED That we, his colleagues of the Board of Commissioners, in this our hour of sorrow, record our expression of the loss of a lovable and true friend, an ever ready and helpful counselor and guide, an associate whose fidelity to duty was an inspiration to us.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this Board of Commissioners, acting on behalf of the people of Newark, bespeak the deep loss which the City has suffered through the death of Commissioner Murray and that we express to his bereaved family our sincerest sympathy in their hour of grief.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions suitably engrossed, be presented to the family of Commissioner Murray.

Jerome T. Congleton
W. J. Egan
Charles P. Gillen
John Howe

Commissioner Giller: I move the adoption of the resolution.

Commissioner Egan: I second the motion.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: The general activities will be postponed tomorrow until after the funeral services. There will, however, be someone in attendance to receive payment of taxes and payment of water bills, and at other windows where money is received; and in the City Clerk's Office there will be someone; but general activities will cease until after the funeral tomorrow.

Commissioner Howe: I move we adjourn.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Building Commissioner, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Frederic J. Ulrich, owner, for the sale of gasoline from two portable tanks; premises 395 South Tenth Street; for the period of one year; on condition that the tanks be kept on the Fourteenth Avenue side of the property;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this matter?

Commissioner Gillen: Tenth Street or around on the side street?

Mr. Ulrich: This is to have them on Fourteenth Avenue, not on Tenth Street.

Commissioner Gillen: There is a car line on Tenth Street. You will keep them on the side street?

Mr. Ulrich: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Egan: I do not think any of them will be in there very long. I think it is all right to give them temporary relief.

Mr. Ulrich: The lease will be made to that effect.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe.

Nays: Mayor Congleton.

A petition from 17 citizens and voters of Newark, dated September 2, 1932, protesting against their summary removal in the closing of the Municipal Lodging House, was read and ordered referred to conference.

The following communication was received and read:

William S. Cantalupo
Counsellor at Law
11 Commerce Street

Newark, N. J., September 6, 1932.
Newark City Commissioners.

City Hall,
Newark, N. J.

Honorable Commissioners:

Several property owners in the City of Newark called to my attention the fact that they have not been fairly treated in respect to delinquent tenants who are being helped by the City of Newark. They have asked me to make an appeal to your honorable Board to curb the advice and recommendation of the City investigators.

in respect to advising and requesting delinquent tenants to move from the premises they occupy.

The property owners have in many instances kept tenants for several months without payment of any rent with hopes of recovering some of the back rent in the event the tenant obtained work. During all of this time the running expense of the properties have been charged to the owner and then suddenly, without any reason, tenants have reported to their landlord of the fact that in order to get help from the City toward the payment of their rent they have been requested to move into other quarters. I feel that this is very unfair and certainly uncalled for. I cannot see what purpose there is in the investigator requesting delinquent tenants to move. If the landlords have been fair enough to carry these delinquent tenants and then the City is willing to make some payment for the delinquent tenant, there is no reason why the landlord, who has been carrying the tenant for a long period of time, is not entitled to this help.

I feel that if your Honorable Body will instruct the investigators to give preference to the landlord who has been helpful in carrying the tenant, great good will be done.

Thanking you for the courtesy you show the unfortunate landlord, I am

Very truly yours,
William S. Cantalupo.

Referred to conference.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to address the commission upon?

Mr. Henry Green, 280 Goldsmith Avenue:

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, last week I was here and I asked the mayor for an investigation of the unemployed situation be made by the policemen and firemen.

Commissioner Gillen: I move the matter be referred to Commissioner Egan with power.

Commissioner Howe I second the motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Green: Infantile paralysis is on the way now close around Trenton. I hope Newark will be immune.

Mr. Charles Handler, Kinney Building:

Gentlemen, I would like to apply for a suspension of the rules and consideration of the application for a lunch wagon at Broadway near the cemetery, which was passed by the Board of Adjustment unanimously about two weeks ago.

Mayor Congleton: If it was passed two weeks ago it would be before us.

Mr. Handler: Perhaps only last week. This man has not done any work for a considerable number of months; he has ordered his lunch wagon and the installments will be coming due. While it only involves a small matter of money, nevertheless, this delay is very serious to him.

Commissioner Egan: Is that an empty lot there?

Mr. Handler: Yes, your Honor.

Commissioner Egan: I move the rules be suspended.

Commissioner Gillen: I second the motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Leo Bauman (William B. Adam, owner) for a dining car on the premises 437 Broadway; for a period of five years;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does any other person have any matter they desire to take up with the commission this morning?

Mr. Meyer Zemel, 826 South Thirteenth Street:

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, the drive starts tomorrow for delinquent taxes. You are justified in your action and you should have your money. But one of the reasons the people do not pay their taxes is because in the city of Newark the people are over-assessed.

In the last statement issued by the City of Newark you have over $900,000,000 in ratables that brings in in the neighborhood of $35,000,000 a year in taxes. In October we have what you call tax time. Everything is assessed as of some date in October. And being so, and seeing that all commodities at the present time are down lower than they were before this $900,000,000 figure was arrived at. Real estate, stocks and bonds, people's merchandise on the shelves and in the making in the industrial processes have suffered; everything has suffered. Assessors should be instructed to assess properties as of the present day value, not the value that was put on to it three or four or five years ago when times were normal. In appeals to the County Tax Board some can pay for experts who will testify as to their land values and they must have another expert for the building value, and then they must have an expert to testify as to depreciation. It is a racket. No poor man can afford to pay an expert.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Zemel, the procedure that you speak of before the county board must be something new. I served as a member of the Essex County Tax Board for seven years.

Mr. Zemel: Yes, you did; and it was a pleasure.

Mayor Congleton: And we always thought that if we did not have the knowledge in our records, and an expert was needed to advise us, we used to employ our own.

Mr. Zemel: Absolutely right, Mr. Mayor.

Mayor Congleton: We used to urge people to come without their experts and that it was not necessary for them to employ counsel; and I cannot see any reason today why that should not still be the same practice.

Mr. Zemel: I used to appear before the county board when you were a commissioner and it was a pleasure. If an ignorant person came there, a person that did not know his rights, I know that you at all times gave him his just dues and rights.

Commissioner Gillen: Oh, you don't have to have a lawyer.

Mr. Zemel: If you haven't got a lawyer to represent you and if you haven't got an expert to tell them of the land value, they immediately tell you it is the unit value on the street. My plea is that you take the handcuffs off the assessors.

Commissioner Howe: Mr. Zemel, there has not been one October 1st in ten years that I have not personally appeared before the tax board and instructed every assessor to be brought in, and this is usually the line of talk: "You will be starting out today to make the assessments on all the real estate in the city of Newark. It is up to you to note any change, good or bad, in any piece of property. If in your judgment any property has depreciated to any noticeable extent, make a note of it on your book, and bring it back to your commissioners.

Each piece of property must be assessed on its own basis and must stand as such." And if you will take the trouble to go into the tax board now—and I give you the authority—every address that I have made for the past ten years on the first day of October is written down in the books and you may read it; and if you are around here and the Lord spares me to the first of October, you will be able to go in there and hear the same address. I invite you now to come in with me on October 1st and listen to the address. If there is any clerk in the assessors who is handcuffed I have got the key to open them; and no one knows better than you, because you personally spoke to me before the last taxing period, you complained to me, and I thought there was some justice in it, and I in person took your individual cases before the city tax board and you did not have to hire an expert, I was your expert, and it did not cost you a thank you. Is that right?

Mr. Zemel: One moment. Mr. Howe, before proceeding further I want to assure you there is nothing personal in this matter. I have known you upwards of forty years and I have always been your friend. I am talking of the system.

Commissioner Howe: You did not answer my question.

Mr. Zemel: I will answer any question you put to me.

Commissioner Howe: Was what I said true?

Mr. Zemel: What you said was true. And I did not get any relief.

Commissioner Howe: Yes, you did.

Mr. Zemel: I had to go to the state board and I had to hire experts and I got relief. Not from your board, not from the county board. And remember, whether you know it or not, I am in the real estate business and I am broke today and cannot afford it, and that is honest.

Commissioner Howe: But I want you to know and I want the public here to know that when you told me your story I believed you and I took your case up to this board.

Mr. Zemel: Yes, sir; and I got no relief until I got to the state board and paid for experts.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Zemel, I think you have got a wrong impression underlying the appointment of this committee, and this may be the proper time to correct it, not with you alone, but with the public generally, if others have that same view. The credit needs of the city of Newark had outgrown the ability of the Newark bankers. The Newark bankers were having difficulty selling short-time paper to the New York bankers. This commission after very careful consideration, believed that if we invited the Sinking Fund Commission, and they in turn to appoint as many or as few as they pleased as their associates to make an independent study of our financial structure, and could advise New York bankers as to the situation, it would help. I feel that we have already been justified in that action, because the very day after this resolution passed the New York bankers agreed to purchase $4,000,000 of our paper at five per cent., whereas up to that time we had been paying six per cent.; and they have already taken up $2,000,000 of it, and have the money in hand to take the other $2,000,000 as fast as we need it. We want the advice and the judgment of a group of the largest financiers in our city. We do not need just the advice of just one man on this situation to reassure, if you please, the financial market of New York and the ultimate consumer of municipal paper. The group is made up of the heads of the two large insurance companies of this city who are not only interested in the credit of the city of Newark, but are the owners of millions of dollars of city of Newark permanent bonds and short-time bonds. Mr. Rippel is there because he is chairman of the clearing house, and through that reaches every bank in the city. And they have selected others to join with them.

Mr. Zemel: What you say, Mr. Mayor, only bears out my contention.

Mayor Congleton: Well, I disagree with you. We do not want one man to sit here with the other four to take the place of that committee. In my opinion much more can be accomplished through a group of men with the large bodies that they represent back of them, to reassure the ultimate investigating public of the true condition of the city of Newark.

Mr. Zemel: How much more confidence would be restored into the citizens of Newark hearts if one of those bankers would sit in that chair, knowing the banking business as Mr. Rippel does, as Mr. Bachellor does, as Mr. Hardin does, and Mr. Feigenspan. They would know, as you say, that in New York they would have respect for Newark bonds. The best proof in the world is you appointed them, and since you have appointed them they have respect for Newark bonds and the interest rate has come down. They had no respect for Newark bonds before you appointed them.

Mayor Congleton: Well, whoever takes Mr. Murray's place has got a different line of work to carry on. Does anyone else desire to address the commission?

Mr. Robert Davis, 385 Springfield Avenue:

Gentlemen, I represent a non-political and non-sectarian committee. And I have a resolution here that was adopted at a mass conference last Sunday to fight against the deportation of the unemployed families from Newark and against the system of forced labor. The resolution is as follows—

Mayor Congleton: Just a moment. Haven't you sent copies of it to all the commissioners?

Mr. Davis I am not sure; I am not the secretary.

Mayor Congleton You are not? I will say we all have copies and we have read it, and it is not necessary to read it again.

Mr. Davis Then I will ask what answer we can bring back to our organizations in relation to the four demands that are in the resolution.

Mayor Congleton The matter is before the commissioners and will be dealt with in such a way as we see fit, and we will exercise our best judgment in the matter.

Mr. Davis Am I to understand—

Mayor Congleton: You are to understand just exactly what I said to you. The matter is before the commission. We got your resolution yesterday and today we have nothing more to say to you. Is that clear?

Mr. Davis: Yes. But how will we know of your decision?

Mayor Congleton: You will get fair notice when we come to some conclusion with respect to your resolutions.

Does anyone else desire to address the commission?

Mr. Murray D. Mate, 164 Market Street:

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I represent several delegations of the local carpenters. Their grievance is the employment of some eighty-five out-of-town—I should say out-of-the-state—men on the City Railway construction job. Now, recalling your Honor's own words at the meeting about a week ago at the American Federation of Labor, you stated that any Newark projects should be handed over to Newark men only.

Mayor Congleton: Now, does your question involve the dispute within the organization that you say you represent, a dispute between carpenters and dock builders? Are the men that you say are out of the city and out of the state carpenters or dock builders?

Mr. Mate: They are dock builders.

Mayor Congleton: Dock builders. Well, now, that is just the point. It is a controversy within your own organization, and we have had this up ever since this work started and we have used our best endeavors to put every dock builder that lives in the city of Newark to work on that job; and Mr. Costello, the Chief Engineer, has been there with the men and has seen that every dock builder that lived in the city of Newark and was available was given a job before out-of-town people were given it. An ordinary carpenter cannot do that heavy shoring work, and the representative of the carpenters has told me so.

Mr. Mate: Mr. Mayor, why is it that on the upper stretches of the city railway the dock builders were taken off?

Mayor Congleton: Because it is entirely different work. Your carpenters cannot get down there, and they tell me, the carpenters themselves, they cannot get down there underneath Broad Street and do that great big heavy work.

Mr. Mate: they tell me they are doing it.

Mayor Congleton: I am just as anxious for Newark men to get work as you are, and perhaps more so.

Mr. Mate: Well, it is a whole cycle that affects thousands of people.

Mayor Congleton: Why don't you go to your own organization, have them come to some agreement between themselves; the one national officer represents both dock builders and carpenters, and they are in one union, and you keep coming back here throwing it at us all the time and you cannot settle your own disputes.

Mr. Mate: These dock builders are from out of the state and they cannot argue with that.

Mayor Congleton: Every dock builder on that job has been put on there by a representative of organized labor.

Mr. Mate: Not of this state.

Mayor Congleton: Of organized labor in this state. Now, I have been through this for months and I am getting sick and tired of it, and it is pretty near time the members of the organization got together and settled some of their disputes themselves instead of coming here week after week and trying to give organized labor—

Mr. Mate: In other words, your claim is it is a jurisdictional question.

Mayor Congleton: Absolutely; and it has been from the start.

Mr. Mate: Why were the dock builders taken off the upper stretches?

Mayor Congleton: We have taken dock builders off the lower stretches and we have taken dock builders off the job down at the Pennsylvania station whenever there were dock builders available.

Mr. Thomas Dunsmore, 44 James Street: Is it not a fact, Mr. Mayor, that we have got carpenters working there now?

Mayor Congleton: Whenever it has been possible to put a carpenter, a resident of Newark, on any part of that work, we have done it; and, of course, there are carpenters there,—I hope so.

Commissioner Egan: It is due to his Honor's attitude in demanding from the contractors that Newark carpenters be put to work. The one thing I want you to do is explain your thought as you express it. We have in mind what your problem is within your own outfits between carpenters and dock builders. Sometimes a wrong impression can be existent when discussion comes up in a meeting such as this, when, as a matter of fact, if there is any real trouble it is because of the arrogance of you people, of the leaders of the respective crafts within the boundary lines of organized labor, and you know that.

Mr. Dunsmore: The citizens of Newark want work. The city of Newark has work to give them. Now, any jurisdictional disputes or any trouble some of our leaders are making, we are not interested in. You have carpenters doing what you consider dock building. Eighty-five dock builders pulling down $56 to $80 weekly and seventy of those men could be replaced by Newark labor. We have 243 carpenters and their families subsisting on what trifling amount Mr. Malady gives them. They are working a system down in the Pennsylvania job where they stagger. It is not perfect, but it could be made such if those 243 poor unfortunate brothers could be brought off of relief cases.

Commissioner Egan: How would this idea be: Suppose we invite your business agent—

Mr. Dunsmore: No, sir. They don't belong to Newark.

Commissioner Egan: Wait a minute. You belong to the Newark carpenters, don't you?

Mr. Dunsmore: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Egan: You have a business agent?

Mr. Dunsmore: He cannot talk, because if he talks he talks to the injury of the Essex County carpenters.

Commissioner Egan: We have had that out with Mr. Reilly already. Mr. Reilly took the position he was business agent for the county, which is the district. We took the position that this was Newark work, and we have thousands of citizens unemployed, and even the fact that he represented the whole county, he had to cut the cloth to fit the suit and hire nobody but Newark men on the job. And he reluctantly was required and compelled, if you will, to agree with that attitude of the governing body. Now, he is doing a good job. Your previous business agent and your present business agent both have been pretty much on the job in the interests of the men whom they both represent. The dock builders' business agent does not happen to be a Newark man, that is right, isn't it? What is his name, Clark?

Mr. Dunsmore: Clark.

Commissioner Egan: From Hudson County.

Mr. Dunsmore: No, from New York somewhere.

Commissioner Egan: But most of the men that are looked upon as dock builders on this particular job come from Hudson and Bergen counties. And the position of both organizations is that this particular type of work is the kind of work that the average wood butcher or carpenter cannot do.

Mr. Dunsmore: We do not concede that.

Commissioner Egan: All right, you do not concede it. Suppose we try this out: We suppose we ask you to come in. You are a sage in labor circles.

Mr. Dunsmore: I am working down there.

Commissioner Egan: All right, I hope you are. But you are a man for years in labor circles, unselfishly, I know. Why can't we invite your business agent and the business agent of the dock builders in for a conference in the Mayor's office, and bring into that conference the contractor, and let you fellows come in and join with your representative in this conference, and let us get the best possible out of this controversy. And no one can question the sincerity or the attitude of his Honor, the Mayor, in using every effort possible, pugnaciously, if you will, to protect the interests of Newark labor; but he finds himself always dropping back into the same pocket, an inter-labor controversy, and you know that is what it simmers down to, because Clark bowed out of the picture, and he said to Reilly, representing your council, "Put your own men on this job," and we would not have any trouble, and we would tell Reilly, "You must confine it to Newark residents." I move you, Mr. Mayor—

Mr. Dunsmore: Before you make the motion, Mr. Commissioner, we know that you have done wonders, you have helped us wonderfully; but the point is, you are getting hoodwinked some by Brother Reilly, as Commissioner Egan mentions, by Business Agent Reilly, and probably our other business agents, they are representing Essex County, and it is unfortunate they cannot take a stand for making a deal for Newark.

Mayor Congleton: We have told them what we insisted on; but the fundamental trouble I have been up against is that the representatives of the carpenters and the representatives of the dock builders, after we have battled and battled and battled, have agreed that certain work belongs to dock builders and certain work belongs to carpenters. Now, when it got to that point we insisted upon having the name of every dock builder that was working on the job, and we made some investigation on our own hook, and the information originally given was not true. They had had an address here but they were not residents of Newark. And we got the name of every dock builder that lived in the city of Newark. Mr. Costello went down there with those men and with that list and insisted, at my direction, that every single dock builder resident of Newark should be put to work before any outsiders were brought in. Now, when they say to me that this work is dock builders' work and this is carpenters', what more can I do, when your own representatives agree that that is so? We have put to work all the dock builders we have in Newark. And those men are working. I have tried to make that clear to you that the representatives of the carpenters say that this work below grade, or some rule that they have, is under the rules of their organization dock builders' work. You apparently do not understand the dock builders and carpenters are all members of the same union.

Commissioner Gillen: Why won't Director Egan's suggestion take care of that?

Mr. Dunsmore: If I can take part.

Commissioner Egan: You will be part of that conference, you or anybody else. You are the kind of Scotchman that has an Irish tongue, anyhow.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Herman Lustig, 199 Ferry Street:

Mr. Mayor, The Ironbound Improvement Association used to pay $84 taxes and now the same property is paying over $800 taxes. The Ironbound District outlived its usefulness as a residential neighborhood; other parts of the city they are getting rentals from $15 to $20 per room. Here you get $3 per room—$4 per room is the highest you can get.

Mayor Congleton: I do not mean to cut you off, but October 1st is the date fixed by law for assessing property for the year 1933. I would suggest to you that you have a committee from your Ironbound Association wait upon the tax assessors any time after October 1st—go make an appointment with them—and then you go in there and tell that body who are charged by law with putting the values on property, just what you are telling us. That is the time to do it.

Do not wait until after the books are closed and the assessments made, but go before your taxing officials during the period that they are making the assessments, and that commences on October 1st coming. And I would suggest that you take a committee and go there before that body.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, I would like to bring up a matter for the consideration of the commission and for the attention of the audience this morning, before the citizens of Newark generally, and that has to do with the tax drive. Commissioner Howe one week ago yesterday in conference with his colleagues launched this drive, or prepared to launch the drive for the collection of taxes, starting tomorrow, September 15th. And I think it might be well for our citizens to appreciate the fact that this tax drive, in the first instance, is imperative for the welfare of Newark.

In order to put on the record a little of the history and a birdseye view, we have over $26,000,000 in taxes outstanding in the city of Newark, including the 1932 levy; we have over $6,000,000 of taxes outstanding covering 1931; the payment of taxes for the first half of this year shows in the aggregate, or up until September 1st, a little less than fifty per cent. of the taxes for 1932 collected. The levy in 1932 was reduced $1,200,00, bringing it down to $34,000,000 and reducing the tax rate from $3.98 to $3.80. The total assessed valuation of our property is over $900,000,000. There isn't any question in the mind of anyone who knows anything about real estate that the tax burden at the present time, based upon the present valuation of property, is such a burden that it is almost impossible for our taxpayers, the property owners, to carry the load.

Under the leadership of his Honor, the Mayor, this commission has been functioning just as intelligently and as intensively as any group of public servants could function, and that is more particular since the first of the year. And Newark enjoys an enviable position in the financial world; Newark is respected by the banking circles; and that is due more particularly, partly because of the fine presentation of Newark's position by the chief executive of this city.

The collection of taxes now due is imperative and fundamentally necessary in order to maintain a good government. The question of our position, in so far as temporary bonds are concerned, has been critical at times up until now, but because of the attitude manifested by the governing body, and because of the co-operation extended by our local bankers, we have been able to weather the storm up to the present time. We must collect these taxes if we are to maintain a good government. Mr. Zemel brings out what might be considered an exemplified copy of the attitude of every property owner in this city. Every property owner is suffering under the burden of real estate today. No expert could give an honest opinion concerning the present-day value of real estate. Conditions are so turbulent and so unsettled that it would be impossible for any man to support his position as to the value of any particular piece of property.

The property owner, the mortgagee, the public body, the city, county, and state, find themselves in a critical position. We have in the form of permanent bond issues in the name of the city of Newark an amount almost equal to the maximum debt structure permitted by the law that we must recognize in the financial world, between six and seven per cent. If we do what in my opinion should be done, reduce the assessed valuation of property, the first result would be, if we do not reduce the cost of government, an increase in the tax rate, which would be just a game of checkers. If we reduce the assessed valuation of property, even though it should mean an increase in the tax rate, we immediately impair our permanent securities sold by Newark in good faith and now owned by trustees, estates, insurance companies, and others, who invest their money in securities of that type.

With conditions as they are, and I do not say this with the idea of taking credit as one of the Commissioners, Newark has faced a situation which is critical. In arranging for our tax levy and preparing the budget for 1932, we reduced the cost of government in Newark this year $1,200,000; on July 1st salaries and wages of employees, including the school system, were reduced to a point which saves, in the words of the auditor, approximately $1,200,000; or, a total of $2,400,000 in saving to the taxpayers by the city government this year.

At the same time, in direct and indirect relief for the first six months of this year,—and I take it the first duty of any city is to take care of its poor,—Newark has obligated itself in the amount of over $2,000,000. We find ourselves in the month of August with over nine thousand families destitute in Newark, and they look to Newark, as a municipality, for sustenance,—and it a poor sustenance they receive, based upon their previous standard of living,—but they are fed, they are clothed, they are sheltered, because of the gracious attitude of the taxpaying public of Newark, through the governing body. We expended more money to take care of our poor for the month of August than we spent in the month of February, March, April, May, June or July.

We are in critical times. If we are to maintain our standing, as his Honor put it, we must maintain the confidence of those who act as a clearing house for the sale of short-term securities. Because of the appointment of this committee of three, which has now been increased to twelve, the banking circles in the city of Newark have manifested the new confidence in Newark, and last week they purchased Newark's temporary bonds at a rate of five per cent., which is a better rate than even the city of New York has been able to obtain in these difficult times for their short-term securities.

The matter of collecting our taxes is imperative, because the levy against real estate is a first lien, and if the taxes are not paid, under the law the city is compelled to sell that property for taxes, or buy it in as a city. We have used every effort to refrain from that. Commissioner Howe has been very magnanimous in dealing with the individual property owner who has found himself in straightened circumstances. But if Newark's government, which means Newark and the people of Newark, is to maintain the position that it must maintain, we must collect the taxes that are due the city from real estate taxes and personal taxes. In the last analysis, we do not have much difficulty with non-payment of taxes on real estate because of the law permitting it to be a first lien; but we do have difficult problems in dealing with the collection of personal taxes. But where an individual or a company is able to pay personal taxes and he or the company deliberately remains in arrears, the law will be resorted to, even to the extent of issuing tax warrants.

But the most important thing, as I see it, in this campaign, and it is not the commissioners' campaign; this campaign for the collection of taxes is entirely stripped of politics, because it has been said by the great students of economics that ever since the days before Christ the matter of taxation has been controversial. And we realize that and appreciate that, but we must face a positive situation. In my opinion the time has arrived where the cloth must be cut to fit the suit. The cost of government is being reduced and the cost of government will have to be reduced more in the future. But real estate cannot continue to carry this load, as I see it, and we must, of necessity, do many things: First, collect the taxes that are outstanding; second, use every effort to reduce the cost of government; third, find new avenues of revenue; and if we must resort to the income tax, then we should be organized on it without any unnecessary delay. If we feel it is imperative to have a tax sale in New Jersey as they have had them in New York for several years, and as they have it in Pennsylvania and other states today, then we must do it, because Newark, the city beautiful, means nothing unless it is populated by a public-minded population interested keenly in the government of Newark.

The bankers put it to us very plainly and in friendly fashion some six weeks ago when they conferred with us, and they said, "Gentlemen, we have reached the point where we are up to the last notch of our capacity in lending Newark money. Perhaps we are more interested in Newark than you are because we are interested industrially, commercially, and professionally, and the government, after all, is the fundamental activity that will maintain the proper standing for this city."

We appeal to the public today if they can pay their taxes to pay their taxes that are now outstanding; we appeal to the public today to be more interested in their government, because we who govern the affairs of the city as members of the City Commission are totally incidental, we are just temporary public servants who can be kept in office or removed from office at the will of the majority of the people who constitute the voting population. But your government is an important problem your government today must have the sober-minded consideration of every citizen, whether he be a property owner or a rent-payer, because the rent-payer ultimately pays the tax through the landlord, and if the landlord cannot collect the rent he cannot pay his taxes; and if we do not collect taxes we cannot maintain the type of government that we have now.

Fundamentally, Newark is in the same position as practically every other American city. We have gone through a period of fifteen years of magnified prosperity; tremendous major improvements have been put in the city of Newark and charged back to the taxpayer either as a current expense or a bonded debt. Today you have in Newark every facility that constitutes a good government; your agencies, from every point of view, without going into details, goes from the physical to the protective and the educational and the cultural. Newark has everything. And during this period of fifteen years no group of citizens has ever appeared before the governing body protesting against the expenditure of large sums of money running into the millions to develop the city that you have today. Your park system, your potable water supply, the physical condition of your streets, your remarkably fine protective organization in the Health Department, the hospital, the police and the fire activities, all of these things have developed a unified service that gives you every consideration as a citizen and a resident of Newark. And we do not pick the money out of the air; the money comes out of the pocket of the taxpayer. And as Mr. Rippel said here in this very room one day last week, "They asked us as bankers why we haven't said something about what was going to happen. We did not know this was going to be a depression of world-wide proportions; we did not know that the securities of every type of business in the world were going to go down so low that many investors found themselves pauperized; we did not know we were facing a situation such as we have."

It is easy for the man who is inclined to complain because of his own disturbed mental position, to find something that might be constituted a target, and in Newark the governing body can be looked upon figuratively as the target; and we are here ready to take it, and we have been taking it. But it is not the Commissioners' problem, it is the problem of the citizens of Newark that makes for the whole-hearted, unselfish cooperation of everybody no matter what his present financial position is; and we must collect these taxes, otherwise we will be confiscating property, which after all, will be the last word in stagnation of any community. We must have your cooperation in reducing the cost of government further, if it is possible, even though it be necessary to curtail the services of our city. We must have your cooperation in reaching out for new avenues of revenue so we will be fortified in protecting our attitude in bringing out further revenue from other sources.

I contend the weak spot in the local government today is taxes derived from so-called personal property. We have citizens and residents of Newark who are worth millions but do not own a penny's worth of real estate. And they enjoy everything in the way of the facilities of government, they have the advantages of every public agency at their disposal, and they are able to sneak in under cover and make no contribution in the form of taxes because they do not happen to own any real estate. They tell me that the tax problem on a personal tax basis is archaic and not practical; but nevertheless, it is the law, and while it is the law I say to you, no matter whom it may hurt, the man who does not own real estate in Newark but who is using Newark as his clearing house, his center of activity to maintain a lucrative business, ought to be compelled to pay his full measure of taxes, no matter how technical we may be, even though we have to reach in and demand from the banking institutions of this city the deposits that each and every person has in his bank account so that our property owners—(loud applause—so that our property owners will not be compelled to be driven down into the dust. I do not say this to eulogize Mr. Zemel, one of the biggest property owners in Newark, but he knows how he has suffered as a landlord because of two wrongs; The tenants cannot pay the rent or the property is vacant. How can we expect Mr. Zemel to pay us taxes? I know Mr. Lustig's problem in the Ironbound Section, and I know what it was considered back ten years ago when you had a so-called boom on Ferry Street and valuations went sky-high, and as a result of that the assessed valuations of property was increased. Today Ferry Street is in a deplorable condition, as is Springfield Avenue. Anybody interested in Newark would feel bad to drive through those thoroughfares and see the vacancies there; and consequently, the man who is burdened with a mortgage and burdened with no money coming in from rents, cannot pay taxes; and if we do not get taxes we cannot maintain your government.

We have put this drive on because we feel it is the public's problem. We are concealing nothing in so far as your city's business is concerned. Under the leadership of the Mayor, his colleagues cooperating with him, this committee of outstanding citizens, presidents of banks and insurance companies, have agreed to come in and deal with your governmental problems from a financial standpoint. They are going to study the structure of the government thoroughly and technically and they are going to advise with the governing body in the hope of one thing, maintaining the proper standing for your city and my city.

And I appeal to you, ladies and gentlemen in this audience today, because of my post, acting as the director of publicity in this tax drive, I appeal to you and I appeal to the rest of our people of Newark, through the press, which has been magnanimous in supporting this activity under the auspices of the City Commission, to give us every bit of help you can, unselfishly, so as to get taxes in that are outstanding; and second, to help us with our problems, because no man has a corner on brains. We men here are busy men, and because of this depression our whole day, if we would give it, would be devoted to the individual cases, men and women, citizens of Newark who are in destitute circumstances, pleading with us to obtain employment or to save them from being dispossessed, or to help them out with a little ready money in order perhaps to buy bread for the children and milk for the family. We have our problem, a concentrated form of government. Men come to us, they are not reasonably minded; they have had so much trouble they want to pour it into somebody else's heart and mind and we have to take it unto ourselves, because we try, after all, to use our best efforts to truly and unselfishly represent our people of Newark. But this problem has become so serious that we must ask every citizen, man, woman, and child, to give us their whole-hearted, unselfish support. Tonight in Central High School we have called a public meeting of our citizens and we have made it plain that every citizen of Newark is welcome to come to that meeting. For what? To make it a city-wide organization to take care of the poor and the destitute. And why? Two reasons: Newark as a city cannot continue to pay this vast sum of money out of your pockets; Newark cannot continue to pay millions of dollars a year to maintain our poor and destitute, even though we are all agreed unanimously that the first duty is to take care of our poor. That is reason number one. Reason number two, we feel we are facing a winter that will be the most serious winter that this country has ever had to contend with. Unemployment is so definitely recognized, and misery is so pronounced, that we are reaching out in our helplessness and asking our people to come and join with us tonight in the Central High School to band themselves into a committee so that we will use our best efforts in providing for everybody who is destitute, weak and helpless.

I am going to conclude my little talk, but I am going to again appeal in the name of the commission, in the name of Commissioner Howe, who has this particularly difficult and disagreeable task, in the name of every man of this commission, we need the help of every citizen of Newark, and I am asking you, in addition to giving us your help, that if you do not like us, that does not make any difference; but in this emergency give us your whole-hearted and unselfish support. Eliminate, to a certain extent, unnecessary criticism. Do not let us be destructive, let us be constructive for the other fellow who needs a helping hand. I thank you.

(Loud and prolonged applause.)

Mr. Henry Green: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, tonight that meeting was called under your auspices?

Mayor Congleton: We are gathering together tonight, as Commissioner Egan has said, our citizens, for the purpose of creating a citizens' committee. It is not our purpose, Mr. Green, to go into the cause of this stuff tonight. We recognize a condition. We want to organize a committee to coordinate all the private charities together with the public to face the situation that we have got to face this winter. The question of new legislation and what is the cause of it all is foreign to this meeting, to get all of the citizens of Newark and the private charities coordinated and working together to avoid a duplication, and so forth, and to take care of the people this winter.

Commissioner Gillen: I move we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe introduced the following ordinance, and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance providing for the vacation of an Alley 30 feet in width as shown on Map of Property, belonging to Rutson and Mary Suckley, surveyed by Edward Carter, 1869, and on file in the office of the Chief Engineer, Department of Public Affairs, on page 342 of private maps, the northerly side of said Alley being parallel to and distant about 100 feet measured southwesterly at right angles to the southerly side of Oliver Street; and for the vacation of Chestnut Street as the same is laid out 50 feet in width on map of A. O. Price, Sandford property, surveyed by Edward Carter 1850, and on file in the office of the Chief Engineer, Department of Public Affairs, on page 27 of private maps, the northerly side of said Chestnut Street being parallel to and distant about 192 feet measured southwesterly at right angles to the southerly side of Oliver Street.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, do ordain:

Section 1. That an Alley 30 feet in width as shown on Map of Property belonging to Rutson and Mary Suckley, surveyed by Edward Carter, 1869, and on file in the office of the Chief Engineer, Department of Public Affairs, on page 342 of private maps, the northerly side of said Alley being parallel to and distant about 100 feet measured southwesterly at right angles to the southerly side of Oliver Street, shall be vacated as a public street or highway, said vacation to extend from Van Buren Street southeasterly about 310 feet to the terminus of said Alley.

Section 2. That Chestnut Street as the same is laid out 50 feet in width on Map of A. O. Price, Sandford Property, surveyed by Edward Carter 1850, and on file in the office of the Chief Engineer, Department of Public Affairs, on page 27 of private maps, the northerly side of said Chestnut Street being parallel to and distant about 192 feet measured southwesterly at right angles to the southerly side of Oliver Street, shall be vacated as a public street or highway, said vacation to extend from Pulaski Street northwesterly about 330 feet to the boundary line of said Sandford Property.

All as shown on a map prepared under the direction of this Board, which map is hereto attached and made a part hereof and a copy of which is on file in the office of the Chief Engineer, Department of Public Affairs, known and designated as Map No. 1418-V, dated Sept. 16, 1932. Under and by virtue of the provisions of Section 1, sub-division (b) of Article XXII, of an Act of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, entitled "An Act Concerning Municipalities," approved March 27, 1917, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto.

Section 3. That this ordinance shall take effect immediately and all ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Mayor Congleton: Is there any objections to this application?

Mr. Carl Abbruzzese, 31 Clinton Street, Newark:

May it please your Honors, I appear for Mr. and Mrs. Benedetto Mastodonoto, who own property in the vicinity and whose names appear on the list of those who Mr. Spano alleges have received notice. My clients received no notice. The affidavit of Mr. Spano is to the effect that he served personal notice on these people, and on a large number of people who should have received notice. Our information is that quite a number of those people received no notice whatsoever. I therefore would like to have this matter go over, so that we can investigate whether the people he claims received the notice actually did receive it.

Newark, N. J., September 19, 1932.

Hon. Jerome T. Congleton,
Mayor of the City of Newark,
Newark, New Jersey.

WHEREAS, in the ordering of the Divine providence that presides over the destinies of individuals and nations, our municipal circle has been broken by death in the transfer of our beloved friend and brother, Hon. John F. Murray, Jr.; and

WHEREAS, in his removal the City of Newark has sustained the loss of a loyal executive whose virtues should be held in enduring remembrance; and

WHEREAS, Newark Aerie No. 44, Fraternal Order of Eagles hereby testifies to the worth of its departed friend and brother and expresses its deep sense of the severe loss the city of Newark experiences in his perpetual separation from municipal councils and its activities; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that we extend our sincere condolences to those near and dear to the deceased, and that any dependent upon him shall be recipients of our continual regard and brotherly assistance; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Aerie and that a copy thereof, duly attested by the Worthy President and the Secretary, shall be furnished the bereaved family.

Worthy President.

Essex Trades Council

Newark, N. J., September 18, 1932.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, it has pleased the Almighty God to remove from our midst, by death, our friend the Honorable Commissioner John F. Murray, Jr., of the City of Newark, New Jersey, who has for many years occupied a prominent place in our midst and our hearts, serving the city of Newark as Commissioner for many years. He maintained under all circumstances a character untarnished, and a reputation above reproach. Therefore be it.

RESOLVED, that in the death of Commissioner John F. Murray, Jr., we have sustained the loss of a friend whose fellowship it was an honor and a great pleasure to enjoy, we bear willing testimony to his many virtues, to his unquestionable character and to his stainless life; that in this hour of great sorrow and bereavement we offer to his bereaved family and mourning friends, over whom sorrow has hung her sable mantle, our heartfelt condolence, and pray that Infinite Goodness may bring speedy relief to their burdened hearts and inspire them with the consolations that Hope in futurity and Faith in God give even in the shadow of the Tomb. Be it further RESOLVED, that a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of our deceased friend, a copy to the Newark City Commission, a copy be spread on the records of this Council and that the delegates stand in silence for one minute.

REPORTS OF CITY OFFICERS

The following Reports of City Officers were received and ordered filed:

Overseer of the Poor for August, 1932.

Auditor's Trial Balance as of August 31, 1932.

Mayor Congleton: Has any citizen any matter to bring before the City Commission this morning?

Mr. David Stein, 153 Monmouth Street:

Mr. Mayor and members of the Commission: On Monday, September 12, a banquet was served in one of the hangars at the Airport, at which about seventy-five cooks and waiters were employed to serve dinner. None of these men were residents of our city and none were examined in accordance with the ordinance covering food handlers. The Waiters and Cooks Union, which I represent, and I am also a member of the Municipal Committee of the Essex Trades Council, appealed to Dr. Craster to enforce the ordinance on those New York men, as it is enforced on us Newark citizens. Dr. Craster informed us that if the men carried New York health cards, he would consider that equal to having our health cards. Since no report has been made on the matter, we doubt if any examination at all was made.

In the City of Newark the citizens who work at the catering industry are compelled by the ordinance to undergo a medical examination. Otherwise they are not allowed to work in an establishment. Yet 175 men came into the city of Newark and are allowed to serve this banquet, without being forced to undergo medical examination.

We therefore petition you gentlemen to see that the laws are either enforced or repealed and that those in direct charge be so informed.

Mayor Congleton: The banquet you speak of was the one held in the Airport in one of the hangars, and the meal was served by the Waldorf Astoria Hotel?

Mr. Stein: That is it.

Mr. O. Henry Grois, 704 South Fourteenth Street:

The only interest this council has is to see that the residents and the citizens of Newark be given employment in preference to those outside, and at the same time to swing to our merchants and particularly to the caterers as much business as possible, in order to enable them to carry the heavy burden that has been placed on their shoulders in time of depression. I think that the request of the representatives of the Waiters Union is fair and honest. If this was an oversight it should be checked up. If not, then some remedy should be found in order to rectify the mistake that was made and to safeguard a mistake of that kind being made in the future.

Of course, we have studied it from every angle and we appreciate the fact that some claims come in from New York as well. Nevertheless, this is Newark's metropolitan area and we want to see work that is being done here not done by outsiders but by the city of Newark's own and particularly by the Waiters Union in cases of that kind.

Of course, that is their problem. My problem, that I want to bring up, is one entirely different, so when you are ready to proceed I am ready.

Mayor Congleton: All right, sir, we'll hear you.

Mr. Grois: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I am here representing my bakers' organization with a committee of five other men who are somewhere in the audience, to protest against the action of the management of the restaurants in the various schools throughout the city. In these school restaurants throughout the city the bread consumed is manufactured by Hill Baking Company, of Newark, New Jersey. On May 1, 1932, this year, that concern locked out our bakers. We have kept the bakers on our own payroll and we have tried in every way to keep them happy and as cheerful as we possibly can. In order to cover the point that I want to bring out, I want to say to you honestly and fully without fear of contradiction that there is not one bakery worker that belongs to my organization that receives relief of any kind from the city of Newark. I pay my men who are locked out by the Hill and Javas Baking Companies $16 a week, in order to try to keep their families with some food and to pay for some of the necessities that are still left. In addition to that, I have some eighty more that I continue to pay. When I say "I" I mean my organization—a weekly out-of-work benefit, in order that they, too, may exist. That money I raise through taxation of my membership that are employed or who are more fortunate than those who are not employed, and the assessment is quite heavy, indeed.

Now we are faced with this problem in this lockout. This firm not only locked out our men after they received a voluntary reduction in their wages, but we understand they employed non-citizens and they employed people from the city of New York who went ahead and did the work that our men formerly did. They with no dependents have come in here and taken away from our mouths the opportunity to earn a livelihood in these two shops.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Grois, have you been before the Board of Education in regard to this matter?

Mr. Grois: The Board of Education, Mr. Commissioner, meets on the 29th day of September. I have taken up the matter with Mr. Shirley and I told him that I was coming before the Board of Commissioners to bring it up. He said it was perfectly all right and that he thought it would be all right to bring my point out. It is just this: These schools are using Hill bread. They have no right to use Hill bread to feed our union men's children. We are fighting for a principle. Our children go to school, and if they patronize these restaurants they have to have forced down their throats these non-union products.

Mayor Congleton: Does the Board of Education itself operate these restaurants?

Mr. Grois: I do not believe that they do, but that does not take away from the fact that the responsibility rests with the city. What would the City Commission do if the trade union movement took the attitude that as long as that scab bread is going to be used in these restaurants we won't send our children to school. You would say it is foolish to deprive our children of education, but what kind of education are they receiving if such things are going on, with the very thing that the American Federation of Labor backs day after day in trying to create better and more healthful working conditions for American labor.

We have firms like this, notoriously unfair. They are a menace not alone to workmen, but to the health of perhaps a large part of the community. They defy workmen who have been in that plant for twenty-eight years. Surely after twenty-eight years we were good enough to build up an establishment of that kind and give the best of value possible and give to the people a sanitary product and sanitary conditions. If our homes are in this city and we pay our taxes here and raise our children, and we are not supplied with work after we have built up that business, and instead people who live in New York City are brought here and live in furnished rooms, why, we leave that with you.

We ask that the matter be rectified and not that we wait until the women who runs these restaurants consults her lawyer to see if she can take action. They attempted to restrain us through the use of injunctions, but as I said before, our local union which has continued to be clean and will always continue to be so much so that Vice Chancellor Berry removed the injunction for our restraint and vacated the application. That shows that we are honest and sincere citizens and it shows the regard in which we are held.

If the City of Newark cannot help us by rectifying these faults, there is nothing else to do but to stop assessing these members who are working and to put those not working on the city relief payroll.

(Applause).

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Grois, I think that the entire Commission appreciates your bringing this matter to our attention, but you know that the Board of Education is a separate and distinct body. In order to bring the matter to their attention, I move you, Mr. Mayor, that the Board call to the attention of the Board of Education Mr. Grois's appeal here and express the desire officially on the part of the City Commission that local aid be engaged in all enterprises having to do with public affairs and public institutions.

Commissioner Howe: I second it.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Grois: They always use a subterfuge in the matter of city residents being employed. They bring them over here and establish residences for them. We have firms—

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Grois, you have already heard the motion, which shows that the City Commission agrees with you and will do everything possible for you.

Mr. Grois: I hope the City Commission will do it as quickly as possible, so that our children will not have to continue to complain to us.

Mr. Frank J. Kosh, 63 Mott Street:

Gentlemen, I have been here so often to try to have something done for me by the state. You adopted a resolution and they ignore everything. I wish that you would take some action asking that they give me some temporary employment.

Mayor Congleton: What action do you think we have in our power to take? We cannot order the State Highway Commission to pay out their money.

Mr. Kosh: No, I don't say that you could.

Mayor Congleton: We are in the greatest sympathy with you and we have made an appeal to the State Highway Commission to take your matter up and adjust it.

Mr. Kosh: Yes. Well, they haven't done anything.

Mayor Congleton: I know they haven't. You say they haven't, but I am asking you now how you think we can force the State Highway Commission to go ahead, as you want it done. We have made appeal to these people.

Mr. Kosh: Well, I am a citizen of Newark and I was a taxpayer when I was in business. If the state ignores in putting lights on state highways as they build them, I think that they should stand the damages.

Mayor Congleton: I agree with you in that, but the question bothering me is how we can make them do it.

Mr. Kosh: Well, I don't know. There was an argument in court that the state was forced to put up the lights instead of the city, so if they were compelled to put up the lights, I think the state is compelled to keep cripples created through their neglect.

Mayor Congleton: Well, if there is any legal question it is against the State Highway Commission. We are not in a position to commence suit against it. I do not know what more we can do, sir. I personally have made a n appeal to them urging them to adjust this matter. I do not know what I can do.

Mr. Kosh: Of course, they have written letters to me to come to Trenton. They sent me up to Jacob Hagin and Hagin tried to argue and tell me that I have no claim against the state. He said, "All right, I will try to get you some Job," but that is almost three months now.

Mr. Henry Green, 280 Goldsmith Avenue:

Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, last Wednesday night we had a meeting concerning welfare for the unemployed, and you have a list from which to appoint a committee to act on it. I don't think you have acted as yet.

Mayor Congleton: Yes, I have named the committee. Last Saturday I named Mr. Franklin Conklin as chairman and he named heads of different organizations with some others whom they added to their committee. I may not be absolutely correct, but my impression is that Mr. Conklin is calling a meeting of this committee on Monday to get this committee organized and to break it up into smaller groups to take care of different activities and asking people from different organizations to subscribe.

Mr. Green: From what I got of that meeting it does not look like any plan to meet the situation the way it ought to be met. It means more charity and more food in the church and a drive for second-hand clothes, old shoes and old hats. I don't think the American people want that. We will have to plan action of a different kind. We must secure food, not under the auspices of charity, but food in a humanitarian and human-spirited way.

Mayor Congleton: Has anyone else any matter that he desires to address the Commission on?

Commissioner Howe: I move we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

A P P R O V E D :

JEROME T. CONGLETON
W. J. EGAN
JOHN HOWE

The Board of Commissioners of the
City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., September 28, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioner Howe.

The minutes of meeting of September 21st, were read and approved.

Mayor Congleton: Is there any person who desires to address the Commission this morning on any matter? If so we will hear them at this time while the resolutions are passing around.

Mrs. Carrie Bonnema, 211 Plane Street: Mayor Congleton and Commissioners, as a taxpayer and citizen of this city I appeal to you for justice. My husband made an application for an open-air parking station at 207 Plane Street, complying with the laws and rules and regulations of the city, notifying fifty-one property owners, as requested by the Board. On the day of the hearing two garage owners in this section opposed our application; yet a friend of theirs operated this same station illegally for five months, never giving the city one penny for license or never making application for permit. We gave $10 as the Board requested, and that $10 was not refunded and the application was turned down.

Mayor Congleton: Personally I will make some inquiries about it. As far as I personally am concerned, madam, I shall look into it and see what if anything I can do. I know that the other commissioners will give it consideration, too.

Mrs. Bonnema: May I ask when I will be able to get a reply on this?

Mayor Congleton: I cannot tell you. Just as soon as I have a chance to go into it; maybe a few days.

Mayor Congleton: Has anyone else any matter that he desires to bring to the attention of the commission?

(No response).

RESCINDING RESOLUTION:

Rescinding Resolution No. 9227 passed by the City Commissioners at their regular meeting on Sept. 14, 1932, affecting John McCormack, Chauffeur. Title should be Ambulance Driver.

W. J. Egan
Jerome T. Congleton
Charles P. Gillen

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, By reason of great skill and prowess consistently demonstrated throughout the season just closed, the members of the Newark Baseball Club, under the able leadership of Colonel Jacob Ruppert, owner of the Club, and Albert Mamaux, manager of the team, proved themselves to be of championship calibre, and, outstripping all other teams in the International League won the 1932 pennant for the City of Newark, and

WHEREAS, the Newark team today enters the Junior World Series to contest with the club representing the City of Minneapolis for the Class AA baseball championship of America,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED That the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, acting on behalf of the people of Newark, extend to the members of the Newark team their official congratulations for bringing the championship to the City, together with their sincere wishes for final victory in the Junior World Series, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED That this Board urge the people of Newark to display their civic pride in the accomplishment of the Newark Baseball Team by attending all the games being played in this City and encouraging the players on to victory by their cheers and plaudits.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, The City of Newark joins with the members of the Catholic Church in their grief at the passing of one of the Community's foremost contemporary spiritual and intellectual leaders, the Right Reverend Monsignor Edward F. Quirk, whose death occurred on Sunday, September twenty-fifth, 1932, and

WHEREAS, during the greater part of his religious life Monsignor Quirk labored amongst the people of Newark, rising to eminence in the ranks of the hierarchy of his Church, and achieving a conspicuous position in the civic life of the community; to the service of his fellowmen he brought the rare qualities of wisdom and tact, combined with an exceptional capacity for administrative and executive direction, as the result of which he was invaluable in the development of innumerable civic movements. Specific examples of the high type of service rendered by Monsignor Quirk are to be found in his administration of affairs of the Cathedral Church of the Diocese of Newark; the enlargement of the plant and the expansion of activities of St. Michael's Hospital due to his efforts; and his splendid record as one of the Chaplains of the Newark Police Department.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED That the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, acting on behalf of the people of Newark, record this expression of deep loss which the City and the Catholic Diocese of Newark have suffered through the death of Monsignor Quirk.

The following communication was received and read:

September 13, 1932.

To The Zoning Board of the
City of Newark:

We, the undersigned, residents in the vicinity of No. 705 South 14th Street, Newark, New Jersey, do hereby protest against the granting of a permit to one, Nicholas Spano, to open up an ice-box or ice-house at the above address, No. 705 South 14th Street, Newark, New Jersey, on the following grounds:

1. The said Nicholas Spano has an established business and is in no need whatsoever to open a new ice-box at the above address.

2. The premises are not constructed in compliance with the regulations of the Board of Health and Building Department for such use.

3. Residents within two hundred feet of the above premises have not received written notice of his application for a permit and it has only come to our notice, through the efforts of a neighbor who accidentally heard about it.

4. There is no necessity for a new ice-box in the above vicinity because of present ice-businesses that have been established in said neighborhood for a long number of years.

Respectfully Yours,
(Signed by 18 Residents).

Ordered filed.

Mr. Carl Abbruzzese, 31 Clinton Street: Mr. Mayor, I have here a signed statement including the signatures of eleven people included in the list of those persons who were supposed to receive notice, but who claimed they received no notice whatsoever, of the application before the Zoning Board. They object to it. The primary objection, of course, is that no opportunity was given these people before the Zoning Board.

Mayor Congleton: They have an opportunity now.

Mr. Abbruzzese: Their objection is that there is no necessity for such an ice-box in that neighborhood. There are enough up there. This man has been operating this business without a permit already. He has an established business outside the city. Eleven of these people did not receive notice. There are a number of others who did not sign this. Some are beyond the two hundred foot zone.

Mayor Congleton: Did the people of 709, those immediately next door, sign it?

Mr. Abbruzzese: I checked them off with Mr. Rankin this morning. Mr. Rankin and I checked off eleven of them.

Mayor Congleton: All right, sir, we will hear your objections.

Mr. Abbruzzese: Those are the objections: I understand that the ice-box has not been built in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Board of Health, but he has already been operating this ice-box before even this permit was granted.

Mr. O. Henry Grois, 704 South

Fourteenth Street: Your Honor and gentlemen of the Commission, I am here representing Mr. Spano. Mr. Spano served notice on the property owners. I talked with a number of them and asked them if they had received that notice, and they all claimed that they had. Mr. Spano is a taxpayer in the City of Newark. He owns a considerable piece of property in that locality which is useless to him for anything.

Mayor Congleton: Isn't there a building there now?

Mr. Grois: He has a building where he lives on that same piece of ground. He has not been able to get rent for the last year and a half. He has not opened his ice house under the requirements of the health code, because he has not been granted a permit as yet by the City Commission, but if granted that permit he must go along with the requirements of the health code. He is in the wholesale ice business now and can't make a living. He believes that by running a retail ice depot on his own property the returns of what he has left over from the wholesale ice end of it will enable him to support his five or six children that he has.

Commissioner Egan: You say that some of the parties within the two hundred foot zone have not been notified, Mr. Abbruzzese?

Mr. Abbruzzese: Yes, sir, so they signed that statement they weren't notified. It was only by accident that the granting of the application was heard of by them.

Commissioner Egan: I move that the application of Nickolas Spano, owner, for a retail ice depot, premises 707 South Fourteenth Street, be laid over for a week to have the Board of Adjustment give us a report as to whether all these parties were notified.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Two weeks from today is Columbus Day. Should we fix our meeting for that week on Tuesday or Thursday?

Commissioner Egan: I move that we hold the meeting on Tuesday, October 11, 1932.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Tuesday, the 11th of October, will be the meeting day for that week, because Wednesday is a legal holiday, Columbus Day.

Commissioner Gillen: I move we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Mayor Congleton.

Office of the Mayor

October 5, 1932.

To The Board of Commissioners
of The City of Newark.
Addressed.

Gentlemen:—

By virtue of the authority of Section 4, Article XIX, of an act entitled "An Act Concerning Municipalities," approved March 27, 1917, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto,

I, Jerome T. Congleton, Mayor of The City of Newark, do hereby appoint, with the consent of your Honorable body

John Howe,

Commissioner of The City of Newark, being an official of The City of Newark, as Insurance Fund Commissioner of The City of Newark, to hold office, without compensation, during the term for which he has been elected and until his successor shall have duly qualified, said appointment being made to fill the unexpired term of the late John F. Murray, Junior.

Respectfully submitted,
Jerome T. Congleton.
Mayor.

Ordered filed.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolutions:

BE IT RESOLVED By the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the action of Jerome T. Congleton, Mayor of The City of Newark, in appointing John Howe as Insurance Fund Commissioner to fill the unexpired term of the late John F. Murray, Junior, be and the same is hereby ratified and confirmed.

BE IT RESOLVED By the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that a certain contract dated October 3, 1932, between State Highway Commission acting for and in the name of the State of New Jersey, and The City of Newark, concerning State Highway No. 21, a copy of which is attached hereto, be and the same is hereby ratified and approved; and the Director of the Department of Public Affairs and the City Clerk are hereby authorized and directed to execute the same on behalf of the City, on adoption of this resolution.

Jerome T. Congleton
Charles P. Gillen
John Howe
W. J. Egan

Mayor Congleton: The contract that we are authorizing here this morning, I think, is of considerable interest to most of the people of Newark. The City Commission has finally worked out a modified agreement with the State Highway Commission with respect to Route 21. That route from Poinier Street north will be at grade. The City is relieved from paying any part of the cost of the new right of way from Lafayette Street north, and is relieved from several other obligations that were assumed by the city in the original contract. The State Highway also pays the cost of demolishing and building the new wall at the east end of the Centre Market. Taking it all in all, the new contract will save the city approximately three millions of dollars.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented the application of Nickolas Spano, owner, for a retail ice depot; premises 707 South Fourteenth Street.

Mr. Carl Abbuzzese, 31 Clinton Street:

Mayor Congleton: That is the ice depot across from the Labor Lyceum?

Mr. Abruzzese: Yes, sir. I understand last week that the matter was put over for a week for the purpose of obtaining a report on the conditions. I do not know if such a report has been obtained by the commission.

Mr. O. Henry Grois, 704 South 14th Street:

I understand that Commissioner Egan moved that it be put over for two weeks. There was some mistake relative to the holiday that set in.

Commissioner Egan: What difference does it make to you whether it is a holiday?

Mr. Abruzzese: I am satisfied to let it go over for another week, in view of the momentous decision to be reached by the commission this morning.

Commissioner Egan: I so move.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Building Commissioner an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Hyman Halpern (Rose Halpern, owner) for an outdoor sales station for used automobiles; premises 632-634 South Twelfth Street; for a period of one year;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared lost by the following votes:

Nays: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Sons, Inc., for the erection of an addition to the present provision factory. The factory at the present time has been located on Prince Street, and the concern has purchased property at the back of the factory, fronting on Broome Street. By the granting of the permit it will relieve Prince Street from the congestion of traffic which is caused by the backing of trucks into the curb.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that rules be suspended.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton,

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of M. Reinfeld & Sons, owners, for the construction of an addition to a provision factory; premises 97-99 Broome Street;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

John Howe,

Director of Revenue and Finance.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone who desires to address the commission at this time?

The next speaker was recognized as Mr. Thomas Dunsmore.

Mr. Thomas Smith, 44 James Street:

Mr. Mayor, some three weeks or a month ago you heard my appeal and you promised to do something about it. I waited for three weeks more or less, and last Sunday the Call published what you intended doing.

Mayor Congleton: I don't know what the Call article was. If you will state your proposition that you want an answer to, I will try to give it.

Mr. Smith: You stated in that Call article that since the dock builders had no representation in this city you could not do anything with it; also you could not take too parochial a view on the county carpenters working on city work.

Mayor Congleton: I never said anything like that. I still stand one hundred per cent. for all carpentry work, mason work, and everything else that the city is interested in being performed by Newark residents, regardless of the territory that the local covers.

Mr. Smith: Well, Mr. Mayor, I think we have satisfied your office as to the justness of my claim. The last time I was here you kind of thought that I was stretching the point a bit in claiming that work at the Pennsylvania depot. We have substantiated that information by official information to your office since then.

Mayor Congleton: I received your letter.

Mr. Smith: I guess so. I presume—we have had no action. In the meantime all of the carpenters with the exception of fifteen are off the job and now there are all dock builders. Have we got to wait, Mr. Mayor, until probably the job is finished, Mayor Congleton: I think you have to wait until your own organization cleans up the mess you are in. I cannot do it. I have done everything within my power. When the business agent of the carpenters deals with the representative of the dock builders and says that certain work is dock builders' work, how can I change it?

Mr. Smith: I think you are mistaken, Mr. Mayor.

Mayor Congleton: All right. I have had them in and they have agreed.

Mr. Smith: Will you kindly recall, Mr. Mayor, just when that happened? And how it happened? We have already challenged our business agent to that effect. Now, if you can refresh your memory as to that I should like it.

Mayor Congleton: I can refresh my memory, and I will invite you within two or three days to be present with those delegates and face them with it. Commissioner Egan was present when the thing took place.

Commissioner Egan: What the business agent representing the Carpenters' Union said in the presence of Mr. Reilly was this, in substance: "I am the business agent of the Carpenters' Union in the County of Essex. If there is any work to be done in the county, as the county representative it is not my right to confine Newark work to Newark members of our county organization."

We said this to him: "Whether you like it or not, and no matter what your problem might be as to the county representative, this particular work in Newark belongs to men who live in Newark as against men who live outside of Newark. We are telling you that we insist that you give this work to nobody but Newark men."

Even in that particular conference he shadow-boxed in so far as the Italian unit of your union is concerned, and he had us discuss the matter of labor for the members of the Italian union. We had the representative of that particular union come into the conference and we told those representatives, in the presence of Mr. Reilly, that it was his duty to allot the work equitably to members of his union who lived in Newark. We placed the responsibility entirely upon Mr. Reilly and told the representatives of that particular union that if Mr. Reilly was not equitable and fair in the matter, to come back and let us know. Reilly, however, took the position that there were Newark men working outside of Newark, under the auspices of his union, and that he could not quite consistently confine Newark work to Newark men. We told him that he had no choice in the matter and that in so far as the governing body of Newark was concerned, he would be required to engage Newark men for Newark work. That is the distinct understanding in so far as the representative is concerned, speaking for you and the other members of your union, dealing with the governing body of the city of Newark. (Applause.)

Mr. Smith: We appreciate what the commissioners have done.

Commissioner Egan: Now, Donnie, to get the other angle; you know perfectly well that you are not satisfied internally with the relationship between the carpenters' union and the dock builders' union. In your union circles you are apparently not able to handle your problem, and you reach out and hand to the City Commissioners, a matter that has to do with the internal union activity.

Mr. Smith: Not at all. I take exception. I have proven my statement. I said the same thing the last meeting when I was here. I said that our business agent was wrong when he made the assertion.

Commissioner Egan: Well, do not in the eyes of the public try to blame the governing body for what your business agent is responsible for.

Mr. Smith: I have proven since then that the work did not belong to the dock builders.

Mayor Congleton: How have you proved it?

Mr. Smith: We have, our official body sent down information that that work belongs to the county.

Mayor Congleton: What is your business agent doing in permitting dock builders to work on what you now say is carpenter's work?

Mr. Smith: Because there are some men don't know how they act.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that this be referred by the mayor to the conference and that Mr. Smith be invited to join.

Mayor Congleton: And I would invite my colleagues to attend with me.

Commissioner Egan: One second, Mr. Smith. I want to tell you that so far as we are concerned, we want to give you a fair deal to the best that is possible.

Mr. Smith: Thank you, Mr. Commissioner. There has been an average of 85 dock builders working there for eight months and they have taken within one quarter of a million dol-our jurisdictional disputes; can't you cure it?

Mayor Congleton: I wish it were possible. I have tried to get my representatives on the job day in and day out. On one section of the city railway because your carpenters and the dock builders could not agree, a strike was called, and both groups were out for three weeks. Then they agreed to divide the work fifty-fifty, under the arrangement made by your business agent. Then they went back to work.

Mr. Smith: Mr. Mayor, might I ask one question before we close this argument? Is it your contention that our Newark carpenters can't do the work?

Mayor Congleton: I don't know anything about what your carpenters can do. I say that that is a matter which is within your organization. If you have a business agent who is not doing what you think is the right thing to do, and if the majority of the members of your local agree with you, I should think that he would go out the window fast.

Mr. Smith: Mr. Mayor, wouldn't you think that when our relief committee here through Mr. Malady is keeping 243 men of our craft, don't you think that someone else ought to throw them out? Don't you think it is up to the men here that they should do something to take them off that relief?

Mayor Congleton: I certainly think they ought to be off and that they ought to do that work. Your officers and representatives, as you say, are preventing them from going to work. It is right back in your office.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Smith, you know that there is a contract existing between the carpenters and the dock builders?

Mr. Smith: Did you ever see it?

Commissioner Egan: Pardon me, you know it exists?

Mr. Smith: Not embracing the work.

Commissioner Egan: Generally speaking.

Mr. Smith: We have a contract whereby we do divide work, but not that work.

Commissioner Egan: All right, you do not like that particular agreement.

Mr. Smith: No objections.

Commissioner Egan: You told us a short time ago you didn't like it.

Mr. Smith: No objections if they stay on agreement.

Commissioner Egan: After all, it simmers down to a question between your union and the dock builders.

Mr. Smith: Not at all; these men are in there with a dock building contract and they employ nobody but dock builders. Normally we would not have been able to get one carpenter on the job without the assistance of City Hall, but they have no right to have one dock builder on the job. That is what we are battling for.

Commissioner Egan: Well, we are going to have the conference.

Mr. Smith: They told us a month ago we would have a conference.

Commissioner Egan: Well, we have had other things to deal with.

Commissioner Gillen: Mr. Mayor, I move that it be referred to a conference with the mayor.

Mr. Charles Lockhass, 819 South 19th Street:

Mr. Mayor, I would like to have a few words in respect to this job of the Pennsylvania depot and also the carpenters, and I am going to bring taxes in. It is a very hard matter for anybody, especially men in the carpenter line and building line, to make any money. If he should happen to own a little property or just have his name in it and the rest is mortgage. I have one and owe here over $350 which I am unable to pay, because I could not get a job on the Pennsylvania depot, because we put today 350 carpenters on that job. That is only from Essex County, and the balance of them are from New York City, Brooklyn and all over, and not residents or taxpayers of this city.

Mayor Congleton: I want to say a word to the last speaker. So far as the dock builders residents of Newark are concerned, we put every single one of them down there and had them put to work. So far as I know, they are still working. I am in no position to say what work is dock builders' work and what is carpenters'. That, I take it, is within your province, within your organization. The contractor tells me, and I have checked up on him, that every man that he has employed, be he carpenter or dock builder, when it is dock builders' work, as designated by your representative, has been employed through your local representative, the business agent.

Mr. Lockhass: All right, Mr. Mayor. How about the communication from our secretary-treasurer of the district council designating what work belongs to carpenters and to the dock builders, but I haven't seen any action taken by this commission.

Mayor Congleton: Action has been taken by me. When your representative on that job says that certain work is dock builders' work, I say to you very frankly that I don't know whether he is right or whether he is wrong.

Mr. Lockass: You would rather take Mr. Green's advice?

Mayor Congleton: I don't know who you mean.

Mr. Lockass: That is the general foreman of the job.

Mayor Congleton: I do not mean him; I mean the agent of your organization.

Mr. Lockhass: That agent of our organization, Mr. Mayor, is representative of four thousand men, and I think it is worth while to the commission to take a little bit of notice.

Mayor Congleton: We have taken plenty of it.

Mr. Lockhass: Well, I have not seen any action.

Mayor Congleton: You have not been on the job.

Mr. Alexander Bruce, 299 Schley Street:

Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, I came before you about a year ago upon the city canal work. The carpenters as a whole were very much satisfied with what you done over there. You were able to get the dock builders out of there. It seems that you are not able to do the same thing over in the Pennsylvania depot as you were on the canal. There seems to be somebody restraining you from this.

To bring back your own quotations that there are only eleven dock builders, remember only eleven out of about sixty-four are residents of the city of Newark. Where does the rest come from?

Mayor Congleton: There are no more in Newark, so I am told.

Mr. Bruce: Here is an instance. Just lately they fired every one of our Newark foremen, but they didn't fire an outside foreman. Now, Mr. Mayor, I understand one of our business agents came down here and said if the work was given the carpenters they could not do it. Will you tell me the name of that business agent?

Mayor Congleton: Yes, sir; Mr. Reilly. I would like to make it clear that the work that has been referred to is not work that the city is doing. That work is being done under a contract let by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. We have to the utmost of our ability tried to get Newark people employed, and we intend to try and do the same thing on the post office job but it is not our contract.

Mr. Bruce: Why is it that you see that the other trades get it?

Mayor Congleton: I have not discussed this just alone with the business agent. I have had one of the International officers here—and your dock builders and your carpenters are both under that jurisdiction—and by gosh, he could not get it settled. Can I settle something that you cannot settle through your International officers? Hutchinson sent a man by the name of Flynn here as his representative. I have had conferences and have done my best to get this work specified as carpenters' work. He will not do it, and he is your International officer that I assume you helped put in office.

Mr. Bruce: Mr. Mayor, our general president sent us a communication telling us that if the Mayor and his commission sees fit that only Newark men be employed on that job.

Mayor Congleton: All right, you say that there are only eleven dock builders in Newark, and those we have insisted be put on the job. If your International officer will not say that work that these out-of-town dock builders are doing is carpenter work, but that it is dock builders' work, where am I going to get the dock builders from, or rather, where is the contractor going to get the dock builders from?

Mr. Bruce: Must you need dock builders to do that work? Don't you think a carpenter can do that work?

Mayor Congleton: I don't know. Your International man won't say.

Mr. Bruce: Mr. Mayor, can you use a pick and shovel if you were out of this job?

Mayor Congleton: I do it every day.

Mr. Bruce: So can we do carpenter work. We demand action. I am not speaking for myself, because I work on the canal, and thank you for that; I am speaking for the men that have not worked for three years, who have lost their homes because they could not pay the taxes.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Bruce, in order to have the record clear, you are a member of the carpenters' union, are you not?

Mr. Bruce: I am, yes.

Commissioner Egan: That is an organized union affiliated with the American Federation of Labor?

Mr. Bruce: We are.

Commissioner Egan: This government has always used its best efforts to maintain a friendly attitude toward organized labor, is that not right?

Mr. Bruce: So far we have found it to organized labor, but not to individuals.

Commissioner Egan: All right. We did some work here during the last year known as work relief. In my department I called in all the business agents, and the work was done by card men selected by the representatives of the respective crafts. That is right, isn't it?

Mr. Bruce: That is correct, and we appreciated it at that time, Mr. Egan.

Commissioner Egan: Just one minute. In so far as the city work is concerned, you admit here that you were given your share of the work. That is right, isn't it?

Mr. Bruce: Yes.

Commissioner Egan: This particular job on the railroad is a railroad contract, is it not?

Mr. Bruce: Well, it is partly railroad and partly city, is it not?

Commissioner Egan: Yes. We are contributing toward that contract in so far as the surface work is concerned.

Mr. Bruce: Therefore it is city money you are using on that.

Commissioner Egan: To a certain extent. Now, the point I want to bring out is this, Mr. Bruce: You happened to find a critical setting this morning. You know in your heart that this governing body has used every effort possible to protect the position of the skilled labor affiliated with organized labor. You know that this trouble really simmers down to differences between the carpenters' union and the dock builders' union. You know that the real trouble is this, putting it bluntly—that Clark is able to subordinate Reilly and everybody else in that union.

Mr. Bruce: Can you blame us for coming down and asking for your support?

Commissioner Egan: Of course I do not blame you. Why don't you go back to your union and make your organization stand up and get leadership? Do not come in here and talk before all these citizens generally with the idea of brow beating the mayor, when you know in your heart that the mayor as chief executive of this city has done everything he can possibly do, when you know that the other members of the commission have done everything to maintain proper equilibrium in this community, to see that organized labor, the card men, get all the work that is possible to give them.

Let us call a spade a spade. I do not intend to sit here at this desk and allow these people to go away, after hearing you speak, with the impression that you are a hero and we are scoundrels. You know deep down in your heart that we are using every effort to help your men, and you know, if you call a spade a spade, that the difference is that Clark is able to subordinate Reilly and everybody else in your organization. You know perfectly well that even so far as contractors are concerned, Clark, because the organization is composed of men mostly outside of Newark, holds the whip hand. Let us be fair about it. Do not try to create through the newspapers the idea that the men in your union are being dealt with unfairly.

Anybody can come in here and make a spread-eagle speech. You are an able speaker and are able to arouse the emotions of men. You come in here this morning and you send out key men into every section of this city creating the impression that this governing body is not using its best efforts. We know our problem in so far as welfare is concerned; we know our problem in so far as taxes are concerned; we know our problem in so far as unemployment is concerned; but please let us be fair. Do not try to take unfair advantage. You would not want somebody to punch you below the belt. I am not going to sit here and let you shadow box with me. Do not hit me below the belt. I know you do not mean to do it.

Mr. Bruce: Oh, yes, I mean to do it just as much as I can.

Commissioner Egan: You are one of the fellows within organized labor who, if you have your way, will vote down organized labor. You will practically have the man with a card who today occupies a position, in a position where he will be at the mercy of those who want to keep down and make a galley slave of him. You are not right either above the neck or below the neck.

Mr. Bruce: Mr. Egan, you have placed me as a hero. I am fair. I will call a spade a spade. As to the newspapers, I do not want one piece of that spread across the newspapers. You admit that Clark has brought foreigners into the city. I class a foreigner as a non-resident of the city of Newark. Couldn't you work out some solution at all where it could be Newark men on that job.

Commissioner Egan: All right, Bruce, I just wanted to get the record straight.

Mr. Frank Jones, 44 James Street:

Honorable Mayor and Commissioners, I know the Commissioners do all they can to do their duty, but I am going to do all I can to help put local men on local work and not to a lot of New Yorkers. That work on the canal was started to help the unemployed of Newark, not to help the unemployed of New York City.

Commissioner Egan: Let me say this to you: You are the last orator of the day, so go to it and finish your talk.

Mr. Jones: I can finish it just as quick as I know I am going to get some action.

Mr. O. Henry Grois, 499 South 13th Street:

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, today I appear for the last time here representing the Essex Trades Council as chairman of the city.

Commissioner Egan: You don't mean that, do you?

Mr. Grois: I mean it. I have come here always in the interest of organized labor. I want to leave this with you. There were never four finer shooters for organized labor in the city.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that we take up the question of filling the vacancy in the City Commission caused by the death of John F. Murray, Jr.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: At this time we will listen to anyone who desires to speak to this question. We will sit and listen to anyone and everyone who wants to speak. After that has terminated the members of the commission will go into balloting, I assume. After we begin balloting, no one will be permitted again to speak from the floor while that is on. I make that statement now so that anyone who has anything to say will say it at this time.

Mr. Charles Handler, 790 Broad Street; Mr. Donald Hogan, 95 Broad Street; Mr. Morland B. Soria, 940 Broad Street; Mrs. Nettie Levin, 407 Badger Avenue; Mr. Henry A. Gunther, 300 Clifton Avenue; Rev. J. A. Pullins, 22-24 Nicholson Street; Mr. Morris Scheck, 9 Clinton Street; Rev. Y. H. Putney, People's Baptist Church, 25 Mercer Street; Mr. Michael A. Stavitsky, 60 Park Place; Dr. Harry Revisch, 394 Hawthorne Avenue; Mr. Samuel Recessler, 17 Academy Street; Mr. Nathan Kussy, 71 Farley Avenue; Mr. William P. McDermott, 393 13th Avenue; Dr. J. E. Lee, 134 Monmouth Street; James D. Apostolakos, Firemen's Building, spoke for Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, I move you now that the commission be recessed until two-thirty this afternoon.

I would like to leave this thought with the audience. All of you want lunch so do the commissioners want lunch. I am going to ask the audience, except those in the middle aisle, to sit in their seats until the commission leaves the building. Please at least for my sake, do not try to do any individual conversing with us, because we will have only a little over an hour to have lunch and come back.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Whereupon at one P. M. a recess was taken until two-thirty P. M.

The commission reconvened at two-thirty P. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: The meeting will reconvene. The clerk will call the roll.

Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who desires to speak on the matter before the Commission?

Mr. O. Henry Grois, 499 South 13th Street, presented the name of Michael P. Duffy.

Mr. Louis Weiss, 212 Custer Avenue; Rev. N. S. Hargrave, 517 North Tenth Street, and Mr. Peter P. Adubato, 60 Park Place, presented the name of Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein.

Mr. Meyer Zemel, 826 South 13th Street, spoke for Harry Murray.

Mayor Congleton: Now, the people who spoke for Dr. Ellenstein this morning were given a courteous hearing. We expect as much for anyone else who may speak.

Mr. Milton Handler, 60 Wolcott Terrace; Mr. Benjamin C. Greenfield, 290 Weequahic Avenue; Rev. J. C. Nelson, 9 Crittenden Street; Mr. Anthony Grasso, 77 Summit Avenue; Winfred Grownney, 55 Lincoln Avenue; Mr. William L. Greenbaum, 34 Pomona Avenue; Mr. Morris Shapiro, 55 Goodwin Avenue; Mr. Meyer Linick, 363 Waverly Avenue, spoke for Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein.

Mr. Arthur O. White, 383 Springfield Avenue, urged the name of Michael P. Duffy.

Mr. Simon Englander, Kinney Building; Mr. William Umscheid, 281 North Fifth Street; Mr. Ira Scharf, 1060 Broad Street; Dr. Samuel Schiffman, 107 Spruce Street; Mr. Charles F. Mugae, 900 Garden Street, Hoboken, New Jersey, urged the name of Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who wants to speak?

Mr. Theodore Grotta, 46 Farley Avenue, urged the commissioners to choose an outstanding big citizen irrespective of party affiliations.

Mr. Edward G. Gagewski, 53 Mott Street, read a petition from voters of the Fourth District, Twelfth Ward, asking the commission to appoint Meyer C. Ellenstein.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who desires to address the commission?

Commissioner Gillen: I move that the hearing be closed.

Mayor Congleton: The motion is that the hearing on the matter before us be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen: Mr. Mayor, I think that I can express the unanimous sentiment of the commission when I say that we are thankful to all of the citizens who have come here today to help us try to solve this problem. We are thankful to those who have spoken and we are thankful to those who have not spoken, but but who came, anyway. We are thankful to all of you and we are very happy and very glad to have the advice that has been given to us. I want to say that the hearing has been, to say the least, very instructive and very enlightening. It clearly demonstrates that there is, after all, a vast number of citizens who are really taking a deep interest in the city government.

The man who takes this position should have the proper qualifications. I do not think that the City Commission ought to select someone merely because he is the popular man, because he is a good fellow, because his name is acclaimed here and there. I think that he should also be a man of ability, a man of unquestioned standing, a man of high character, and a man of principle. In that direction I am going to address myself. I am going to place in nomination a man who I believe possesses these qualifications.

Before I mention his name I want to refer briefly to the argument in favor of selecting the sixth man for this vacancy. When the late Mayor Archibald died, for a time I did not believe that that argument held much water, and I know now that there is no legal obligation upon the commission to elect the sixth man. That we must clearly understand. If the sixth man were a man unqualified for the position, we would be very foolish to select him. When Mayor Archibald died, however, citizens came before us at the hearings that we had in this chamber and they argued in favor of selecting the sixth man. The press of the city at the time, I think, was almost unanimous on that question, and the arguments were so convincing that I could not ignore them. They made an indelible impression on my mind, and although I am a Democrat, I voted to place

John Howe in the vacancy that occurred at that time through the death of Mayor Archibald. I have no apologies at all for that vote. John Howe was a good man then. John Howe is a good man today. (Applause.) He was my friend then, and I hope we will be friends until the end of our time. I felt, after all, that the opinions that were so forcefully expressed at the time were what a gentleman here has termed the vox populi, the voice of the people. I believe that we who are public servants are placed here to listen to the voice of the people and to try to interpret it to find out what they want, and then decide accordingly. When we realize and come to feel that a great majority of our people want a certain thing done, I believe it is our duty to do it, unless it is something that is so radically wrong and unwise that we know it cannot be done but something that is reasonable, something that is feasible, something that is right we should do, when we feel that the great mass of the people of the city want it done.

Now, ladies and gentlemen, I feel today that my position has not changed with respect to the selection of the sixth man. You will then ask me why we didn't select the sixth man when Mayor Raymond died and why we didn't select the sixth man when Commissioner Brennan died. Well, I think that that was answered today by Mr. Roessler when he said that when Mayor Raymond died the gentleman who knew his department best, with all its intricate and great problems, imposing at the time heavy financial obligations on the city and requiring great knowledge and thought, was the Corporation Counsel, Jerome T. Congleton. He had for months and months during the illnesses of Mayor Raymond practically operated that department. He took control and ran the department. He knew it from A to Z, and he was placed in the vacancy, and the sixth man was turned aside. When Director Brennan died, as Mr. Roessler said, there was no man who knew Director Brennan's department better than Commissioner Egan. (Applause.) Commissioner Egan is Commissioner Brennan's protege. It was Commissioner Brennan originally who nominated Commissioner Egan for City Clerk and placed him in public life. Out of respect for the memory of Commissioner Brennan, and feeling that we would put in that position the best qualified man in the city of Newark, we selected Commissioner Egan, and we have no apologies for that vote. At the time, however, there was great pressure brought to bear to elect Meyer Ellenstein. I want to say that if the arguments in favor of Commissioner Egan had not been so overwhelming, I would have voted for Meyer Ellenstein at the time.

Meyer Ellenstein has been described to us today, and I know that nearly all that has been said of him here is true. Maybe here and there some enthusiastic friend may have exaggerated his qualities, but on the whole, in the main, everything that has been said here of Meyer Ellenstein is true. I have campaigned with him and have traveled with him through the city of Newark. I have attended any number of gatherings where he was. I have heard him speak. I have seen him mix with the people. I want to say that in all my lifetime in politics in Newark, and that goes back a few years, I have not seen a more popular man than Meyer Ellenstein. I have seen him at all sorts of gatherings, political, social, or private, and wherever he appears he is received with great acclaim. I have wondered why and I have often tried to analyze it. It can only be figured out in one way, and that is that after all, this man has not only a pleasing personality, is not only a fine citizen with a splendid character and reputation, but he must have something that appeals to the rank and file of the people.

Someone has suggested since Commissioner Murray died that perhaps we should select a high-class business man who has held aloof from the rank and file, who has traveled in certain secluded and exclusive channels, who can take the business problems of the city and solve them without the noise of the mob ringing in his ears. Let me tell you that I believe that that would be a great mistake. I think that the man who is selected to be a public servant should know the people that he serves. He should not travel in one particular channel; he ought to be able to travel in any walk of life. He ought to be able to walk with the rich and with the poor, with the great and with the small. He ought to know the people. He ought to know who they are and what they are, what their wants are and what their likes and dislikes are. In other words, he should rub elbows with all the people of the community that he has to serve. Only in that way can he really know what the people of this community want and what they really desire. Meyer Ellenstein has done that. All his life he has mixed with all classes. He has led a most active life. He has been most active, as it has been stated here today, in charities of various kinds. He has been to a great extent a humanitarian. He, it seems to me, above all other men at this moment, is better fitted to occupy this vacancy. As has been said, he was a poor boy in the city of Paterson. He, throwing aside all the handicaps of poverty and of humble origin and beginning, studied and acquired and conquered two professions. My dear friends, there are very few men in this life who can acquire one profession. When a man acquires two he must have a very fine mentality, a very remarkable mentality. That is one of the reasons why I am urging the name of Meyer C. Ellenstein. (Applause.)

There can be no question about his ability and qualifications. There is none in my mind. If there was I would look elsewhere for a better candidate, but there is no question in my mind at all.

Now, there have been statements made about racial groups in the city. Today I listened attentively to the representatives of almost every racial group in the city of Newark. When a man looking for a position of this kind can interest almost every racial group and every denomination of a group in the city of Newark, and if they send their representatives here to talk for him, that man must be some man. He must be a broad minded man, to say the very least.

Newark is a cosmopolitan city. The old American element that lived in Newark years ago, the Yankee element, has moved out into the suburbs, up over over the mountain and into Montclair. Into Newark has come a great immigration from many foreign countries, and today in Newark even the Germans who were so prevalent in Newark years ago, when Newark was known practically as the German city, when I was a boy, have moved out into Union and Irvington. A great many of my race, the Irish race, have moved out. In their places has come this great influx of Jewish population, of Italians, of Polish, Slavish, Spanish, Portuguese, Greeks, and today, we have this great cosmopolitan population in the city of Newark. Somebody said we must pay no attention to that. Well, I disagree with him. I think that where there are large racial groups in a city, in selecting public servants they should be selected so that each racial group will be properly represented.

Now, I think that the Jewish population here—I mean citizens of the Jewish race—represent probably one fifth of the population of Newark. If they do, there isn't any reason in the world why they should not have a representative on this board or on any other board for that matter. If there may be some little prejudice against the Jewish race, coming from the old countries, we can not find it here in Newark. If there is any prejudice against a person of the Jewish race, it must be a very ignorant prejudice. I have watched the Jewish race since I was a boy. I have lived with them on the most friendly terms. I have associated with them. They were my friends and I have always been their friend. When I was Mayor I attended every gathering to which I was ever invited, held by citizens of the Jewish race of the city of Newark and I always found a warm welcome. I have watched them take their part in the city's growth and progress. As a real estate man I saw the wonderful aid that they gave to the growth of the city of Newark. The upbuilding of the city to a great extent is due to the people of the Jewish race, and they are undoubtedly and unquestionably the heaviest taxpayers of any racial group in the city of Newark. They have contributed immensely in that way to the growth and progress of the city, and to that extent I think it would be a very wise thing and a very good thing to have a member of the Jewish race sit on this board. (Applause.)

I feel very strongly on this subject. I think that when the people voted to make Dr. Ellenstein the sixth man they meant just exactly how they voted. They meant that in case of vacancy he ought to be the next man in line. They showed their preference just as much as they showed their preference when we were selected I was fifth man, which showed that they liked four others better than they did me. Meyer Ellenstein was sixth man, and it showed that the people of Newark expressed an unquestionable preference, which cannot be contradicted, and that they preferred him to all the other candidates on the list. Today when the vacancy occurs there is no better guide that the City Commissioners can go by, there is no better rule they can apply in making this selection, than to pick the sixth man, even though there is no legal obligation there.

I have been on this commission from the beginning. As has been said, I am the senior member of it. I have no right to dictate to my colleagues on the board as to how they should vote on these important matters. They perhaps have better minds than I. There is no question at all about their mental equipment. I know that they know how to decide these matters for themselves, but age and experience count in every walk of life and I am the only surviving member of the original commission and I have seen this commission government from its very beginning, from its inception. I have seen it work along and I have seen these vacancies occur. I have seen selections made to fill these vacancies, and I have heard all the arguments advanced. I have lived with the subject from 1917, fifteen years ago. I was in the city government for years before that, before commission government was adopted. As I say again, I think that age and experience count a little bit, and I am going to appeal today to my colleagues to throw aside anything in their minds that might be of political nature, to just look at the sentiment that exists in the City of Newark today, to consider the position that this man had in the final count of the vote in the last election, to throw aside all other sentiment and to consider the great appeal that has been made here today by many of the finest citizens of the city of Newark, New Jersey. I am going to appeal to them to stand up with me here today and vote for Meyer Ellenstein. (Applause.)

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, as I understand the law, the responsibility is upon the City Commission to fill a vacancy caused by resignation or by death. Unfortunately for Newark in the first instance, and particularly unfortunately for the present members of the City Commission, our good colleague, the late Commissioner Murray, has been called to his reward. As the result of that vacancy we are here today publicly dealing with the problem of filling this vacancy. The law is clear literally that it is the duty of the remaining commissioners to fill the vacancy. The form of government itself is, literally and in spirit, a government of the people, written particularly so that we would have governing the affairs of this great city a group of five men who, in seeking election, are not permitted under the law to seek support as partisans. It was my good fortune, or perhaps my bad fortune, to be associated with this government, first in a subordinate capacity, beginning in 1917, and then taking a post on this commission in 1930. In the first election and in the three succeeding elections I as a citizen and a voter totally disregarded partisan politics. I voted for the man. I am very happy to state publicly today that I enjoyed immensely voting for the successful candidates in the last election, Commissioner Howe, our late friend Commissioner Murray, Commissioner Gillen, and our late friend Commissioner Brennan. Whether I may be in public life or a private citizen, in the event of another municipal election I will be guided by the law literally and in spirit, and vote for the man.

Public opinion in this particular instance must be expressed in a political atmosphere. I, too, appreciate greatly this outpouring of citizens today advising the governing body and suggesting to the governing body, counseling the governing body in so far as the vacancy and the filling of the post are concerned. Newark today is the melting pot of the world. We have populated here the peoples of the earth, and after all, the only discipline that a man in public life has is public opinion usually crystallized in a group form and as a rule, at least in the last analysis, presented in the form of editorials either by word of mouth or on the editorial pages of the newspapers of our community.

Commissioner Murray was called to his reward over three weeks ago. We four commissioners have deliberated on this subject very seriously, very sincerely, and in a very friendly way. We have exchanged views without reservation, realizing full well that always subordinated to good government is what might be looked upon as sentiment. We know that our first duty is to use our best judgment in selecting a successor to the late commissioner. We do not, however, happen to be of the genius type, where we have a corner on mentality; we reach out into our city and we converse with our neighbors in order to find out what our neighbor, the exemplified neighbor might feel is the best for the city. Usually public opinion organized from every nook and corner of a city constitutes, as a rule, editorial substance. Politics in the law itself is recognized because, after all, men in public office who are elected must be politically minded. When a candidate presents himself to his people in a campaign he has a platform, and in that platform he has certain planks. He knows fully well, particularly in a city such as Newark, that he must meet with the popular approval of his fellow men otherwise he cannot occupy public office.

We have a well balanced city. We have a city that enjoys an enviable reputation, comparable with that of any other American city in this country today. It is a well regulated city because the voting population of Newark has used good judgment in selecting its public servants, not only since 1917, but prior to that time. We have a well regulated city because we have a well balanced people and because the men who occupy public office use their best efforts, whole heartedly, substantially and sincerely, to maintain a standing worthwhile. We have gone through a critical stage, particularly in the last year. We find ourselves in the current period unable to collect taxes, We find ourselves in the current period finding it extremely difficult to borrow money on short term basis. We even find it difficult to borrow money on a long time basis. With all of that, however, because of the leadership manifested by this governing body, and particularly exemplified by his Honor, the Mayor, Newark today enjoys an enviable reputation even in the financial districts of this section of the United States. (Applause.)

Were I to be guided entirely by my personal attitude in this matter, I would be inclined to totally subordinate myself to the attitude expressed by my colleagues, either of them. I find a difference of opinion, and, ladies and gentlemen, it is an honest difference of opinion. As against my own personal feelings I recognize the duty that is mine, written clearly as a responsibility under the law that not only governs the city in the form of government, but as it has to do with the filling of a vacancy such as exists at the present time. I am certain that there is no thought of partisan politics.

They say that there are two happy days for a politician, the day he comes into office and the day he leaves office. Perhaps that is near at hand for me, I don't know, but whether it be or not, while we are in office we must expect to assume the duties that are thrust upon us under the law. Candidates? Yes, many. Influences? Yes, varied. Desires and ambitions? Only natural in a city such as Newark. I do not take it into consideration so very much, but still and all it has to be weighed in the balance—the matter of the vote in 1929. After all it is something that can be used by the members of this governing body to guide them in this particular instance.

I know that in this city leaders are born and not made, and I know that in a city such as Newark is, complex in population as it is, few in the last twenty years have arisen to the heights where they have enjoyed the love and affection of a great mass of our people. Yes, it is such, and we might as well face it frankly, that it is the Jew. All right, what is unusual about that, politically speaking? Suppose it is the Jew. We have no reason to be displeased because the Jews of this city have found in their midst a man whom they love sufficiently to be regarded as their leader politically, regardless of partisan lines, one whom they esteem so highly that they feel they can publicly express themselves in the hope that he will be one of the governing body of this city. There are other examples in American history. American history tells us that Washington was the leader of the American people in his day and age. We read much of the great Emancipator, the great leader nationally who has gone down in American history indelibly, that great character, Abraham Lincoln. We come to the local picture, if you will. I am the son of an Irishman and we look upon Al Smith as a great leader of our people, one who is recognized in the great State of New York, who has been its governor, one who has been recognized in the nation as the leader of humanity. What is strange about the Jewish people of this city finding in their midst a single individual whom they are perfectly willing, anxious, and ready to recognize as their leader? It is not only that, however. Throughout this city, from the farthest point of Forest Hill down to the nook of Port Newark, way to the edge of the Weequahic section or the Clinton Hill section we find a tremendous sentiment for this citizen Meyer C. Ellenstein. There must be some reason for it.

I have known Dr. Ellenstein not intimately, but casually, we will say, for a dozen years. Who is Dr. Ellenstein? Just a lad who came along? What is his background? The son of poor parents, his father called to his reward when Ellenstein, the doctor and lawyer, was just a boy. He did not have the good fortune of living in the midst of a luxurious family life; he had to work his way up the ladder rung by rung. What did he do? He satisfied his ambitions and recognized his talents and became a member of the dental profession. While he was practising dentistry in this city he took unto himself the laborious activity of studying law at night, and he finished his course in law with honor and distinction. He passed his bar examination for attorney the first time out, a better man than I was, because I flunked. On his first time out for the counselorship he was licensed to practise as a counselor-at-law in this state.

What are his activities in this city? Active in civic circles, active in charitable circles, active in benevolent circles, active in fraternal circles. What has his religion been in this daily activity? Based upon three cardinal words—charity, justice and benevolence, supported by the basic word “fidelity.”

I am not surprised to find in this great city of Newark the whole hearted love and affection manifested for one of the citizens of such a great group of our people.

I think that every citizen will recognize the fact that in this City Hall the men charged with governing the affairs of this city since 1917 have ever subordinated partisan politics in handling the affairs of our citizens; and let me come back for just a moment to a group of citizens—and I do not say this with the idea of being in the least political—taking groups as you find them. When you analyze a municipality you are compelled to recognize groups. Newark is the happy city, and it is the happy city because it is the contented city, and it is the contented city because it is the democratic city in spirit. We permit our people to enjoy the old country customs, if you will, yet even today, in order to maintain contentment and happiness, and what do we see in this great city of ours? Taking out of the mass of humanity a group of people commercially, industrially, professionally, charitably, philanthropically, and civically prominent, what group as a group has done more to make Newark the great city it is today? What group has done more than the Jews of Newark? (Applause.)

I will subordinate all the elements that constitute what might be properly catalogued as political feeling. I will subordinate what might be looked upon as personal popularity. I will subordinate what might be constituted a day's work of the man who is being considered seriously before this governing body today. I will make superior to all those elements what will be for the best interests of the city, to my city. After weighing it in the balance with the intelligence that God has given me, with the conscience that I have in my religion, I feel that the best thing I can do as a public servant in the city of Newark in this particular instance is to cast my vote for a man who I believe has the character, the intelligence, and the personality that will constitute the component parts of a man who will make an excellent public servant in the position of city commissioner.

Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the commission, I do, as I said, based upon my intelligence and my conscience, cast my vote for Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein. (Applause.)

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Commissioners, a great deal has been said both this morning and this afternoon about this form of government being a non-partisan form of government. I rest on that principle and point to my official acts from January 1, 1906, to bear me out that in the transactions of municipal business I have not attempted to play party politics. (Applause.)

Some speakers this morning made reference to the fact that they understood from the public press that Commissioner Howe and I were standing on political lines. That is not a correct statement. There is a difference of opinion. I have arrived at the conclusion that I have arrived at honestly with myself and not for the purpose of trying to promote any party politics.

To fill the vacancy caused by the death of our colleague, Commissioner Murray, I have consistently advocated the selection by the Board of Commissioners of a person who is not now an avowed candidate for election as commissioner at the municipal election to be held in May, because I honestly believe that to take Mr. A or Mr. B or Mr. C who is a candidate already announced does savor of party politics. This attitude applies not only to Dr. Ellenstein, but also to several other candidates, some of them close personal friends.

Those who in 1930 took the stand that the filling of a vacancy in the Board of Commissioners by the selection of the person who ran sixth in the last municipal election was without merit, but who now advance the argument that such a person should now be selected because he ran sixth in that election, to my mind, are illogical, unreasonable, and contradictory. A short time ago Freeholder Dodd died. There was a man who ran fourth when he ran. There was another election last year, when someone ran fourth. Have you heard that that man should be the person put in to fill that vacancy, I have not. It is possible in my opinion for us to find a person who is qualified to carry on the work for the next seven and a half months, who is not a candidate. I know of no good reason why I should by my vote say to the public that I think one person is better qualified than another from among the group of avowed and announced candidates. That is a duty to be performed by the voting public.

With that thought in mind I have suggested and have endeavored to see elected some one from Commissioner Murray's official family to carry on for the balance of the term. Failing in that, I have again suggested the names of some outstanding citizens with experience in governmental work who are not candidates and who under no circumstances, in my opinion, would be candidates. I have suggested the names of Mr. William H. Seely, Mr. Jacob L. Newman, Mr.

Louis V. Aronson, and Mr. Charles R. Hardin. I have also suggested the name of Mr. Franklin Conklin, Jr., who for more than a year has been actively engaged in relief work, which is so closely connected with the work of Commissioner Murray's department.

I want it distinctly understood that I have a very high personal regard for Dr. Ellenstein, and I resent to the utmost the insidious statement that is being whispered from mouth to mouth as the reason why I will not vote for Dr. Ellenstein. It is a malicious falsehood, and I would suggest that those who are indulging their intolerance inquire of Mr. Louis V. Aronson whether when he was a candidate for mayor of the city of Newark he had any more ardent or earnest advocate than myself.

Feeling as I do, I shall cast my vote against the election of Dr. Ellenstein, and I hope that the commission may get together on some candidate along the lines that I have outlined. I have taken this stand and have refused to sponsor the candidacy of close personal and political friends for this appointment because they likewise are announced and avowed candidates. All these candidates, it seems to me, should be placed on an equal basis and no one of them should be given an advantage in his candidacy by the action of four individual voters of this city.

I have stated my reasons honestly. I have respected your views as expressed here this morning, and I trust that you will respect my views and at least give me credit for being honest. (Applause.)

Commissioner Howe: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I have been in conference with you on a number of occasions, and since the death of Commissioner Murray, I too, have been of the opinion that some one connected with the administration should succeed him.

Reference has been made here to the 33,000 votes for my friend Meyer C. Ellenstein, who is as close a friend of mine, almost, as any man on this commission. Reference has also been made to the fact that I was sixth man. That was an unusual occasion, back in the election of 1921. The seventh man had been a city commissioner and had run some 4,500 votes behind me. When Mayor Raymond came to my office in the Tax Bureau and informed me that they were going to select me to succeed the late Mr. Archibald, he mentioned the fact that were it not for the fact that I had run so far ahead of the previous incumbent they might not have selected me, but the people of the city of Newark turned out a man who was in the office, and I, naturally being the next man and some 4,500 votes ahead of the next man, the previous incumbent, was given the preference.

There has been a current rumor daily that I was going to flop to Meyer Ellenstein for the reason that I had received a vote as a sixth man. I have on my desk here a telegram from my good personal friend and Dr. Ellenstein's personal friend and advocate, Rabbi Julius Silberfield, as follows: "Director John Howe: I recall your promise to me if Ellenstein had two votes you would give him a third."

That promise was made in the Progress Club on the day following Director Brennan's funeral. I was invited there. Commissioner Egan had asked me to go to lunch with him and had told me he was putting me on the spot. I said, "I think I know what you want." When I went into the Progress Club, a Jewish club in Newark, there were—some of you may recall these names—Rabbi Silberfield, Louis V. Aronson, Morris Scheck, Jacob Schwartz, Mr. Goldsmith, Albert Hollander, in fact, at least fifteen representative men. At that time they said “Do you know why we have invited you?”

I said, “I think I do.” They called attention to the fact that I had been the sixth man. I assured them then, “If you can get two more votes you have mine.” That was to fill the vacancy of William J. Brennan, a Democrat. Since then John F. Murray, who received forty thousand votes in this city, has died. Now, I have some consideration for his friends and I know what they have asked me to do, so I want to go on record not as an enemy of Meyer Ellenstein, but as one who was ready to vote for him at the proper time, at that time, as voting no. (Applause.)

Mayor Congleton: The nomination of Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein is before the commission. Those in favor will say aye as the clerk calls the roll; those opposed will say no.

No. 1.

The City Clerk: Commissioner Egan.

Commissioner Egan: Aye.

The City Clerk: Commissioner Gillen

Commissioner Gillen: Aye

The City Clerk. Commissioner Howe.

Commissioner Howe: No.

The City Clerk: Mr. Mayor.

Mayor Congleton: No. I declare there is no election.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that the balloting continue.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

(The same procedure was followed in the next succeeding five roll calls).

Commissioner Gillen: I think it is very clear, Mr. Mayor, that we cannot agree at this time and I move that we recess until tomorrow at eleven o'clock in the morning.

Mayor Congleton: The motion is that we now recess until eleven o'clock tomorrow morning. All in favor of the motion will say aye.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., October 6, 1932.

The meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark was continued on the above date in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M., pursuant to recess taken on October 5th.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Are there any further nominations?

Commissioner Howe: Mr. Mayor, I am still of the same opinion that I was yesterday, that the successor to late John F. Murray, should be selected from his department. I feel that the man who was closest to him in the seven and a half years that he was Commissioner was his own brother, and I am nominating him at the request of many of the friends of Commissioner Murray. Mr. Harry Murray for twenty years was employed in a responsible position with the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, and on every occasion except on the last one when Commissioner Murray went away he left his brother, Harry Murray, in charge. The question may be brought up as to why the late Commissioner Murray left another man in charge when he went off on vacation as a result of being ill last May. I personally asked Director Murray why he did that. He said, "My brother has not had a week's vacation in three years, and this will give him an opportunity to get a little rest." I want to make it clear that there was no lack of confidence on the part of Commissioner Murray in his brother's ability to fill his place.

Another embarrassing situation of yesterday's contest, if you will call it such, was that it would appear that Mayor Congleton and I are unfriendly to Dr. Ellenstein. If any of you who were here yesterday will recall, I made the statement that he was as close a personal friend of mine as any member of this City Commission. That still holds good.

Another thing that I said yesterday was that when I was interviewed two and a half years ago I told the Committee that if they had two other votes at that time I was ready to go along with them, but the conditions today are different. We are not filling the position of Director Brennan or any other Democrat; we are filling the position of John F. Murray, a Republican. By that I do not want it to appear that we are partisan here, but the conditions here are positively different, and in view of the fact that Mr. Murray received forty thousand votes at the last election, we must pay some respect to that. (Applause.)

Mayor Congleton: I will second the nomination of Mr. Harry Murray. Are there any other nominations? If not, the clerk will call the roll. As their names are called the Commissioners will announce their votes.

The City Clerk: Commissioner Egan.

Commissioner Egan: In casting my vote for the man whom I am about to vote for, I do it particularly because he is well qualified educationally and in training for this particular department, which has to do above all else with the human side of the life of Newark. I vote for Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein.

The City Clerk: Commissioner Gillen.

Commissioner Gillen: First, last and all the time for Ellenstein.

The City Clerk: Commissioner Howe.

Commissioner Howe Murray.

The City Clerk: Mr. Mayor.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Harry Murray. I declare there is no election.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that we proceed with the balloting.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

(The same procedure was followed in the next succeeding fifty-four roll calls.)

Commissioner Gillen: I move we proceed with the roll call.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Before we proceed with the next roll call, it seems quite apparent to me that Commissioner Howe and I cannot prevail at this time in the election of Mr. Murray. I still am of the opinion that I expressed yesterday, that one of the members of Commissioner Murray's official family who is familiar with the work of the department should carry on for the balance of the term. (Applause) For that reason at this time I will place in nomination Dr. Earl H. Snively, Medical Director of the department, the man who has been in charge of the City Hospital and the Convalescent Hospital and who is familiar with all the activities of the department.

Commissioner Howe: I second the nomination.

Mayor Congleton: The clerk will continue the roll call.

The City Clerk: Commissioner Egan.

Commissioner Egan: Dr. Meyer C

Ellenstein

The City Clerk: Commissioner Gillen.

Commissioner Gillen: I vote for the people's choice, Ellenstein.

The City Clerk: Commissioner Howe.

Commissioner Howe: Dr. Snively.

The City Clerk: Mr. Mayor.

Mayor Congleton: Dr. Snively. I declare no election.

Commissioner Gillen: I move we proceed with the roll call.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

(The same procedure was followed in the next succeeding forty-seven roll calls.)

Commissioner Gillen: How many ballots have been taken, Mr. City Clerk?

The City Clerk: 103 today. 109, including yesterday.

Commissioner Gillen: Mr. Mayor, I move that we recess until tomorrow at eleven o'clock.

Commissioner Howe: I second the motion.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, in also seconding the motion I do it so that the commissioners may go in conference.

Mayor Congleton: All in favor of the motion will signify by saying aye; those opposed will say no. The clerk will call the roll.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen,
Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that we proceed with the roll call.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Before the roll call starts I desire to place in nomination the name of a man who has been a lifelong resident of Newark and who for a considerable period of time has been devoting his time and energy to the relief work in our city. I place the name of Franklin Conklin, Jr., in nomination for Commissioner to fill the vacancy.

Commissioner Howe: I second the nomination.

Mayor Congleton: The clerk will call the roll.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Murray. I declare there is no election.

Commissioner Gillen: I move we proceed with the roll call.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: The clerk will proceed.

(The same procedure was followed in the next succeeding ten roll calls.)

Commissioner Howe: Mr. Mayor, I move that we recess until three o'clock.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, I second the motion for the reason that the Mayor and Commissioner Howe have an appointment which they cannot very well cancel.

Mayor Congleton: All in favor of the motion will say aye.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

(Whereupon at one P. M. a recess was taken until three P. M.)

The Board of Commissioners reconvened at three P. M. pursuant to recess.

The City Clerk: Commissioner Egan.

Commissioner Egan: Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein.

The City Clerk: Commissioner Gillen.

Commissioner Gillen: Meyer C. Ellenstein.

The City Clerk: Commissioner Howe.

Commissioner Howe: More than two years ago through the unfortunate death of the late William J. Brennan, a vacancy occurred in this commission. Shortly thereafter, in the presence of a score of the most representative citizens of the city of Newark, I pledged my vote as a commissioner for Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein to fill the vacancy, provided the other two votes necessary be obtained. Unfortunately at that time, the two votes besides my own were not forthcoming. My appraisal of Dr. Ellenstein at that time was that he was worthy of membership in this body and that opinion has never changed. We have endeavored to fill this vacancy by a member of Commissioner Murray's official family. Failing in that, we have offered our colleagues several outstanding citizens, all of whom they have rejected. We realize that the time within which this vacancy must be filled is fast expiring, although we still believe that the right thing to do would be to put one of Commissioner Murray's official family in office. I believe the deadlock must be broken. Therefore I cast my vote for Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein. (Loud applause.)

The City Clerk: Mr. Mayor.

Mayor Congleton: Dr. Ellenstein having received three votes. I move that the election be made unanimous.

Mayor Congleton: I declare Dr. Ellenstein duly elected to membership in the Board of Commissioners to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Commissioner John F. Murray, Jr.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that under and by virtue of the authority vested in such Board by the statutes of the State of New Jersey Meyer C. Ellenstein is a properly qualified person, be and he is hereby selected a Commissioner of The City of Newark, to serve for the unexpired term of John F. Murray, Junior, deceased.

W. J. Egan
Charles P. Gillen
John Howe
Jerome T. Congleton

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioner Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan: Now, Mr. Mayor, in order to have the records correct I offer this resolution:

RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that Commissioner Meyer C. Ellenstein be and he hereby is designated and appointed Director of the Department of Public Works.

W J. Egan
Jerome T. Congleton
Charles P. Gillen
John Howe

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioner Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, I would like the privilege of making a statement at this time. Our former colleague, Commissioner John F. Murray, Jr., has been called to his reward. The law of the State of New Jersey placed upon the City Commissioners the responsibility of selecting a successor. Much interest has been manifested by the public for the past few weeks; much excitement has existed in so far as the individual candidates are concerned; much feeling has existed, particularly in so far as the candidacy of Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein is concerned. We, the four members of the commission, in conference and in public meeting used our best judgment in dealing with a very serious situation. We had in mind particularly the best interests of the city of Newark. But men in public office, elective office, naturally are the result of politics, which, in another form, is public opinion. Dr. Ellenstein arrived at the heights and the hearts and the minds of a great throng of our citizens, and consequently his being a candidate before this board aroused unusual interest and remarkable enthusiasm.

The form of government recognized in this country is partisan, the two dominant parties, the Democratic party and the Republican party. That form of government does not prevail in the city of Newark. The law itself states clearly that it is a non-partisan form of government. Men occupying these positions have as one of the factors and a basis of candidacy, their partisan affiliations in their respective parties. And we find ourselves in this situation: Two members of the commission affiliated officially with the Democratic party and two members officially affiliated with the Republican party. Taking the two Democrats, my colleague Commissioner Gillen and I, we are actively engaged in partisan politics as the representatives of our people in the County of Essex. On the other hand, his Honor the Mayor, and Commissioner Howe, too, are actively engaged in partisan politics under Republican auspices.

But in Newark since 1917, the city has been guided under the auspices of the City Commission in a non-partisan form. Partisan politics have never been considered more than incidentally. The affairs of this city have been handled by the commissioners of Newark since 1917, up to and including today, by five men who have been non-partisan in their every act and every deed.

Much has been circulated throughout the city having to do with partisan politics; much feeling has developed in so far as this particular vacancy is concerned. Naturally, men in public life, who are the products of politics, must recognize the will of the people as it is presented to men in public office in organized or unorganized fashion. I felt in my own mind and in my own heart that the best interests of Newark would be fully protected in the selection of the man whom we have just selected unanimously, Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein. (Applause.)

He enjoys a very fine reputation in this city; he is not recognized particularly because of his partisan affiliations; and my voting for him today, yesterday, and the day before, was not based upon Democratic politics but was based upon what I thought in the first instance, that he represented the type of man who could fill this job satisfactorily in the interests of all of our people in Newark. And this organized feeling for him in this city indicates clearly that he enjoys an enviable position in the hearts of a great many of our citizens.

I have seen Newark governed from within this building since 1917. I occupied the position of City Clerk until 1930. Fate willed it that I occupy a seat on this commission. Because of partisan politics being recognized as the system of politics in this government, outside of this City Hall I took my position with my party, a Democrat. Inside this building I have never taken a partisan position. I have seen since 1917 more than one man occupy the position of Mayor of this great city; I have seen prosperous times in Newark since 1917. I have seen this great municipality go on in leaps and bounds, building major improvements in order to make this the city beautiful. I have seen the taxpayers of Newark acquiesce in the actions of the City Commission in expending millions of dollars to maintain a high standard of public service under the auspices of this government. And then I have seen, particularly after this period of prosperity and luxury, a period of depression which showed itself on the surface in 1929. And as the individual has suffered and as the company and corporation has suffered, so has Newark the municipality suffered because of this depression. I do not say this with the idea of being in the least political, but I am expressing myself today as one of the five men charged with governing the affairs of this city under the laws of the State of New Jersey. We have had trying times in Newark, particularly in the past year. Newark's credit has been impaired; Newark's ability, based upon its credit to borrow money, has been reduced below normalcy. The customers of Newark, the taxpayers and the property owners, have found it impossible to pay the taxes due the city in order to maintain government. We found ourselves just about a month and a half ago, with approximately $26,000,000 outstanding in unpaid taxes, and we launched a campaign known as a tax drive in the hope of having come into the city treasury money due the city, in order to maintain government. Government, after all, is far more important than politics. Politics is the vehicle that brings a man in the capacity of a public servant to his public duties in public office. But once a man occupies a public position he has to subordinate the so-called honor and glory, and power, if you will, to the responsibility of his office in representing all of his people. In times like these there is no room for popular trend, popular feeling, if the man in public office is going to do the right kind of a job. There isn't any opportunity for minority groups to develop controversy in the hope of confusing and intimidating the man in public office. And I say frankly, today, that Newark is the blessed city of American cities in having as its chief executive the present mayor of the city of Newark, Jerome T. Congleton. (Applause.)

And I want to make these statements, and I do not care what attitude the press may manifest in so far as I am concerned, but I think it is important that every citizen of Newark should have at least that which represents the thought that I am attempting to express today. The public in general, no matter what their feeling may be politically, must totally subordinate politics if they are interested in good government. The business interests of our city are entitled to a most unusual leadership and support at the hands of the governing body.

And I want to particularly talk to the public employees today,—and when I say it I heap myself with criticism because I have been the politician in my job, while this man has been the fearless, courageous, able, public official. We have had to do things in order to maintain our proper position as a city, and because of his position the chief executive of this city, it was incumbent upon him to manifest leadership. In the first instance, he dealt over a year ago with the school system of this city, and later on he dealt, as the leader of Newark with all of the other public employees of the city of Newark. You have to cut the cloth to fit the suit; you cannot spend a dollar if you do not earn it. Newark cannot expend money if it does not have it coming in to spend. We maintain our government based upon a taxing system whereby we set up no reserve. We prepare our budget at the first of the year and we estimate the cost of the government for the current year, and we levy taxes for the amount that is represented in that estimate or in the budget to maintain the government for the present year. In 1931 we levied taxes in an amount which was more than six millions of dollars greater than the amount which we have collected up to the present time.

Yes, we have done great work in Newark, physically, protectively, educationally, and culturally. But the bill is being paid and will be paid by the taxpayer. The Mayor found it necessary, as the chief executive, to take a particular position in so far as public servants were concerned, and we find those public servants not manifesting the intelligence that they must manifest in times like these if we are going to maintain government. And as a result of that we find a nasty, contemptible set up propaganda creeping into the highways and byways of Newark, particularly showered upon an individual, in the person of his Honor the Mayor, but more particularly, a hurricane upon Newark as city. There isn't any room today, ladies and gentlemen, for petty politics in handling governmental affairs. These are trying times. There isn't any room in this city in the form of the law or in the spirit of the law for handling the affairs of Newark that will make partisan politics anything other than an incidental feature of this government.

Much has been said since the passing of our good friend, Commissioner Murray, about the Democratic party hoping to take hold of the city government; and much too has been said about the Republican party doing the same thing. I speak only for myself, but I say to you that today, tomorrow and so long as I remain in the City Hall as a City Commissioner, I will not conduct my official duties as a partisan. I will not manifest any partisan politics in dealing with the important problems of this government. And I want to particularly speak to this audience today. Naturally, because of this tension existent, a drama has been unfolded: First interest, then enthusiasm, then an intense feeling, then anger, then madness, and then bitterness; all constituting the respective paragraphs of a picture in drama. Nothing to be surprised about, the natural reaction of the human being.

I want you to bear in mind above all things that this is your city. I hope and pray that the future will prove that we four members of this commission at this table today have made no mistake in selecting the man to occupy the vacant chair.

I want to make this other thought plain, and then I am done; I have no idea what his thought may be, I have no idea what his future ambition may be; I would be inclined to think that he is perhaps of the same frame of mind as I am, that if it were not for the hope of rendering unselfish service to our people we would be only too happy to sing the swan song, because a job in public office today is a job in the full meaning of the word. But I hope for Newark's sake that he will be spared the physical strength and I hope he will still maintain the unselfish attitude toward his city to continue to serve in the interests of Newark as public official. (Applause.)

And I speak about our present Mayor, Jerome T. Congleton, and I am not political. (Applause.) I am not political. I know I embarrass him, and I perhaps embarrass my other two colleagues when I take this attitude in my talk today. I am interested in my city, and I want Newark to be governed by the right kind of intelligence and character. And I want to make this public declaration now, that if I choose to remain in public office,—and I expect to remain for the time being, and I expect to present myself to the public next Spring for reelection—(Loud applause.) and I take it because I am more of a practical politician than he is that I have more popularity in this city than he has then if I am before the public next Spring and you do not have your city at interest above politics, then I do not want anybody in the city to give me a vote if you are interested in Newark, unless you vote for Jerome T. Congleton. (Loud applause.)

Newark knows in the editorial avenues of this city,—and I say editorial because I mean the kernel of thought that is boiled down to the essence of thought,—Newark today knows what this man has done for Newark. He does not need this job. What does it mean materially? He can make more than that in any two months as a lawyer, and he is an able lawyer. One more word, and it has to do with an intimate situation: It has to do with Newark's family, Newark's great mass of public employees. Only in the last week the representatives of the school teachers made it plain that the school teachers had never been political before, but because of the Mayor doing his plain duty in handling important and difficult problems, the spokesman of the school teachers made it plain that they would not be friendly politically to the mayor should he seek election in Newark again. That same feeling has existed and been spread by word of mouth by many other employees. And I want to say to you in the name of Newark and in the names of yourselves as occupants of public jobs, that propaganda must and will cease. Ladies and gentlemen, no matter how little you read, no matter how much you take interest in public affairs, if America was ever in need of unselfish substantial thought it is today. And what applies to America applies to the city of Newark, a diversified industrial city, a great mass of humanity, who must, if we are to maintain the proper standard, have leadership in government.

And in conclusion let me say once again, that while I am active, and perhaps I am too active to satisfy some people,—in partisan politics, it has no effect upon my official duties as a member of this governing body. The four men of this Commission are rendering sincere service to the city. And the man above all of us, and that goes for me and my other colleagues, who has done the gargantuan job for Newark in these unusual trying times, is his Honor, the Mayor, Jerome T. Congleton. (Loud Applause.)

(Mayor Congleton arises, shakes hands with Commissioner Egan and thanks him).

A voice: Three cheers for Mayor Congleton.

(Three cheers given by the audience).

A voice: Three cheers for Bill Egan.

(Three cheers given by the audience).

Commissioner Gillen: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I wish to congratulate very heartily Mayor Congleton and Commissioner John Howe for their attitude in this affair. We must all respect each other's opinions. I know that most of this audience are friends of Dr. Ellenstein, and to them who are here and to those who are not here I would like to say that this contest has been conducted in a very fair and honorable manner. Mayor Congleton and Commissioner Howe were in quite a different position from that occupied by Commissioner Egan and myself. They had their own opinions, and I believe they were honest and sincere in everything they did. Shakespeare says, "All's well that ends well." And there is an old adage which says, that "A wise man may change his mind, but a fool never." Commissioner Egan and I thought from the beginning that because of Meyer Ellenstein's position on the ballot in the last election, being sixth man, that he was entitled to our support all through this contest, and I know that we had it in our minds not to deviate at any time from the vote that we cast.

Mayor Congleton and Commissioner Howe had different friends to meet with, different conditions to contend with, and they felt that perhaps someone else would have been better in this position. They were honest and sincere in their action towards us and in their expressions from the beginning in the balloting, and I want all of Dr. Ellenstein's friends to respect their honest opinions and their sincere contentions and to appreciate to the full extent the fact that notwithstanding the fact that they felt so strongly for some other candidate other than Dr. Ellenstein, that they did finally feel that the people of Newark had perhaps expressed a preference, and they did finally agree to subordinate their own personal opinions and they voted with us for Dr. Ellenstein. So I feel every friend of Dr. Ellenstein in the City of Newark, and I feel confident that they will, must give credence and full credit for the manner in which Mayor Congleton and Director Howe handled themselves in this contest. They stuck to their men as best they could, and that is what they should have done; and when they finally felt that perhaps public opinion favored the man whom we have chosen, they came over with us, and in that respect they showed that they were real men, ready to change when they knew what the people wanted. So I congratulate them heartily, and I would like every friend of Dr. Ellenstein in the City of Newark to do likewise. (Applause.)

Mayor Congleton: Is Dr. Ellenstein about? If so, we would be very glad to have him come to the desk.

(Dr. Meyer C. Ennenstein was escorted to the dais by City Clerk O'Toole and received a tremendous ovation.)

Mayor Congleton: The City Clerk will now administer the oath of office to the doctor.

(The following oath was administered by City Clerk O'Toole to Dr. Ellenstein. "I, Meyer C. Ellenstein, do sincerely profess and swear that

I do and will bear true faith and allegiance to the government established in this State under the authority of the people, so help me God.

"I do further solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of the State of New Jersey, and that I will faithfully, impartially, and justly perform all the duties of the office of Commissioner of the City of Newark, according to the best of my ability and understanding, so help me God.")

(Loud Applause.)

Commissioner Gillen: Mr. Mayor, I move that when we adjourn we adjourn to meet next Tuesday, October 11, at eleven o'clock, in this council chamber.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Dr. Ellenstein.

Commissioner Ellenstein: Mr. Mayor and my colleagues: I am fully appreciative of the opportunity presented to me by the Mayor and the members of the Commission of our city to serve my city. But I am regretful that this vacancy was created through the untimely death of Commissioner John Murray, a man whom I have known for many years and whom I had learned to esteem and respect. And I revere his memory in taking his place in the government of the city of Newark. It shall always be my sole purpose and aim to conserve and serve the best interests of our city without malice or vindictiveness toward anyone.

To you, Mr. Mayor, and fellow members of the Commission, I am profoundly grateful for the confidence you have reposed in me, and I assure you it will always be my aim and that I will give my all to co-operate with you in every direction for the best interests of the City that we are placed here to serve.

To my friends and well-wishers, I want to say that I extend my wholehearted appreciation, which I know words will fail to express, for your cooperation and your loyalty in my support; and it will always be my purpose to see that I never violate that confidence that you have reposed in me, and I do hope by my conduct in the future to make you feel happy and proud of the fact that you have stood by me so loyally. (Applause.)

The following communication was received and read:

Board of Adjustment
City Hall

The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:

Supplemental Report
Re: 707 S. 14th St.

At your meeting of September 28th a request was made for a report on the matter involving the application of Nickolas Spano for a retail ice depot at 707 S. 14th Street, particularly as to the service of notice by the applicant on surrounding property owners.

In all matters before the Board of Adjustment jurisdiction cannot be taken by the Board until satisfactory proof of service of notice on property owners is filed with the Board. This is a statutory requirement. The Board provides a form of affidavit for the convenience of applicants, which when filled in and sworn to by the applicant is accepted as sufficient proof. This form has been approved by our Legal Department.

In the present matter such an affidavit, signed by Mr. Spano, and properly acknowledged, was filed with the Board of Adjustment prior to action by the Board. The form of the notice served follows the form supplied by the Board. The list of property owners entitled to notice, which was filed as part of the application, are the ones referred to in the proof of service as having been served.

Respectfully submitted,
R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Ordered filed.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Building Commissioner, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Nickolas Spano, owner, for a retail ice depot; premises 707 South Fourteenth Street;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

W. J. Egan
Jerome T. Congleton
Charles P. Gillen

Mr. Carl Abruzzese, 31 Clinton Street:

This has been up before the board before. This man is in the wholesale ice business in Plainfield, is the owner of trucks and there is no reason why the zone should be altered to accommodate him in view of the protest filed.

Mr. O. Henry Grois, 499 South 13th Street:

Mr. Spano, a citizen, a resident and taxpayer of the city of Newark is worthy of your consideration. Mr. Spano is really without funds. The reason that he is able to have two trucks to carry on his ice business is because I advanced the money to carry on his ice business. He has property on which taxes are due. So far as the wholesale ice business is concerned the sooner he gets out of it the better for him.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard in this matter?

Commissioner Ellenstein: Not knowing any of the details of this, I would like to be excused from voting on the matter.

Mayor Congleton: There being no objection, Dr. Ellenstein will be excused from voting on this matter which has been pending before the board for some time.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Ellenstein not voting.

The following petition was received and read:

We, the below mentioned property owners owning property on both sides of Delancy Street, in the City of Newark, State of New Jersey, hereby petition the five Commissioners of this City to pass an ordinance requesting the laying of sidewalks on both sides of Delancey Street, starting at the intersection of Pulaski Street and running to Point Road. Some of the sidewalks are already laid in front of some of the houses but in front of other houses there are no sidewalks thereby making it very difficult for us or our children to pass over when it rains, causing us to go out of our way and into the street thereby causing us considerable bother, nuisance and trouble. We earnestly petition those in charge to see to it that all property owners have a proper sidewalk so that we taxpayers and rent payers can properly pass thereon without inconvenience such as exists in all other parts of Newark.

Signed by Dominick Cardillo, 212 Delancey Street, and 8 others.

Ordered referred to the Mayor's Department.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to address the commission on this morning?

Mr. Joseph McGovern, 39 Fillmore Street:

As representative of the Twelfth Ward Fourth District Democratic Club and the Newark Falcon A. C. of the Ironbound District, we have a floral tribute we would like to offer to Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein, your new commissioner. I wish to congratulate and commend highly each commissioner, individually and collectively, for their selection of Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein. I have known him for many years and I have known of dealings of his in many respects that treated mankind with a good heart and always rendered sincere service.

It is my privilege from that district to bespeak our feeling in all sincerity of the heart and give Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein, the new commissioner, our hearty good wishes for success and the hope that you may prosper in the office in which you are about to undertake. I beg of you to accept this token of our esteem.

Commissioner Ellenstein. My friend Joe and my friends of the Twelfth

Ward Fourth District Democratic Club and the Falcons: It surely touches me to have you come down here as you have in goodly numbers and present me with this beautiful floral piece. You can carry with you down below the Pennsylvania Railroad that my thought and my ambitions will always be with your group beyond the railroad in what is known as the Ironbound Section. My voice does not permit me to give full vent to my feeling in the matter in the way in which I would like to express it. However, suffice it to say that I am deeply touched by your offering and it shall live with me everlastingly. (Applause.)

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Commissioner Gillen: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

An ordinance to provide for the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving of Academy Street from Plane Street to Wickliffe Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder) or new oblong granite block pavement; the grading, curbing, flagging and repaving of Summit Street from Bank Street to Academy Street and from Academy Street approximately 300 feet northerly with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder); the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving of Colden Street from Academy Street to Warren Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder); the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving of Silk Street from West Market Street to Academy Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder).

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, Do Ordain:

Section 1. That Academy Street from Plane Street to Wickliffe Street shall be graded, curbed, flagged, paved and repaved with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder) or new oblong granite block pavement; that Summit Street from Bank Street to Academy Street and from Academy Street approximately 300 feet northerly shall be graded, curbed, flagged, paved and repaved with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder); that Colden Street from Academy Street to Warren Street shall be graded, curbed, flagged, paved and repaved with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder); that Silk Street from West Market Street to Academy Street shall be graded, curbed, flagged, paved and repaved with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder). All of the above to be on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation or on the old concrete base properly built up as directed, with the necessary new curbing or resetting of curb, together with other appurtenances incidental to the paving or repaving of said streets, including the laying of concrete sidewalks at street intersections and elsewhere wherever needed, and the laying or relaying of a sidewalk, or sidewalks, or such portion or portions of sidewalks as may be disturbed or may become necessary or expedient, or the grade of which may be affected on account of the laying of the pavement or the setting or resetting of the curb, under and by virtue of the provisions of an act entitled "An Act Concerning Municipalities," approved March 27, 1917, (P. L. 1917-319) and the supplements thereto and amendments thereof, in accordance with the plans, specifications and profiles dated October 18, 1932, and now on file in the office of the Department of Public Affairs.

In order to avoid the necessity of excavating and tearing up the improved portion of said street after the making of said improvement, the owners of any and all lands on the line of said improvement, are hereby ordered and directed to make the necessary connections with the sewer, gas and water mains to the curb lines in said street for each lot fronting upon said street within thirty (30) days after the passage of this ordinance. Upon failure of any such owner to make or cause said connections to be made, the same will be made by the Department of Public Affairs, in which case the costs and expenses of making said connections will be assessed upon the lands benefited. Each 25 feet of frontage upon said streets for the purposes of this improvement shall be considered a lot.

Section 2. That said improvement shall be undertaken as a general improvement and the cost thereof shall be assessed against the City at large, under and by virtue of the provisions of the act above referred to.

Section 3. That the sum of $96,600.00 is hereby appropriated to pay the cost of said improvement, and for the purpose of meeting said appropriation and temporarily financing said improvement, temporary bonds or notes shall be issued from time to time in an amount not to exceed $96,600.00, under and by virtue of the provisions of an act entitled "An Act to authorize and regulate the issuance of bonds and other obligations and the incurring of indebtedness by county, city, borough, village, town, township, or any municipality governed by an improvement commission," approved March 22, 1916, (P. L. 1916-525) and the supplements thereto and amendments thereof, which bonds or notes shall bear interest at a rate of not to exceed six per centum per annum. All other matters in respect to such temporary bonds or notes shall be determined by the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance who is hereby authorized to execute and issue said bonds or notes.

Section 4. That this ordinance shall take effect immediately and all ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Mr. Gerald McLaughlin, Lefcourt Building:

This application is for the extension of the Dugan Brothers present plant along the Morris Canal at Berkeley Avenue and Third and Fourth Street. The proposed building is a combination garage and paint shop and repair shop. It will embrace work now done in Brooklyn. It will help unemployment.

Commissioner Egan: The objection came from people in the neighborhood who were afraid of trucks going past their property to and from this property.

Mr. McLaughlin: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Egan: That has been corrected by the agreement of your client to use Third Street.

Mr. McLaughlin: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Egan: You assure us your clients will engage Newark labor instead of bringing it in from out of town as they have in the past?

Mr. McLaughlin: I assure, Commissioner, that as far as it is practical and feasible, Newark labor was called for in the bids.

Mr. Edward Fenias, 1060 Broad Street:

May I urge the application on two specific grounds: One, no one in the neighborhood has appeared in complaint, either officially or informally. We have canvassed the neighborhood; too, unless this permit is granted the business of this individual will be so seriously damaged that he may be obliged to withdraw from business.

Commissioner Howe: Do you know whether this has been turned down before or not?

Mr. Fenias: I was called in about a month ago and appeared before the Board of Adjustment, and the matter was passed by the Board of Adjustment.

Commissioner Howe: Has it ever been opposed by this board, do you recall?

Mr. Fenias: I don't know.

Mr. Rankin: It never reached this board before, Commissioner.

Commissioner Howe: Is this limited?

Mr. Fenias: One year, I believe.

Commissioner Howe: Does any citizen have any matter to bring before this commission?

Mr. Henry Green, 280 Goldsmith Avenue:

You are giving out tickets for groceries. The City of Kansas City buys groceries by the carload at a low cost and it gives the people wholesome food. Warehouses are offered the use of to the city. I do not see why our Welfare Department cannot buy these essentials in wholesale quantities. We ought not to buy at retail prices, especially when some of the retailers were brought into court.

Commissioner Howe: I think that is worthy of taking up in conference.

Commissioner Howe: Does any other citizen have any other matter to bring before the commission?

Mr. Dominick Orgo, 235 Eighth Avenue, urged that more information be furnished the public regarding the status of the city market.

Newark, N. J., October 18, 1932.

The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, that the following applications for variations from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

7 Ferdinand Street, William Schubert; retail ice depot; for one year.

249 Plane Street, Essex Construction Co.; convert present factory building to public garage.

The Board of Adjustment
R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Received, copy to be sent to each Commissioner, and further action postponed to November 2, 1932.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that we adjourn.

o

Newark, N. J., October 25, 1932.

A special meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark was held on the above date in the Mayor's Office, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present:—Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The following communication was received and read:

The City of Newark, N. J.
Office of the Mayor
October 24, 1932.

Dear Sir:

I hereby call a special meeting of the Board of Commissioners in the Mayor's Office, Tuesday morning, October 25, 1932, at eleven o'clock, to take the necessary action relative to certain city financial matters, specifically to authorize the issuance of $225,000 Emergency Relief Bonds.

Very truly yours,
Jerome T. Congleton,
Mayor.

Hon. Peter J. O'Toole, Jr.
City Clerk,
Newark, N. J.

Ordered filed.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The City of Newark desires to take advantage of the State aid for dependency relief authorized by Chapter 394 of the Laws of 1931 of the State of New Jersey, and has prepared a program for such relief by said city, as provided in said act; and

WHEREAS, $1,000,000 has already been appropriated or such relief and additional sums of approximately $675,000 will be required for the period comprising the months of October, November and December, 1932; and

WHEREAS, the State Director of Emergency Relief has agreed that if the city appropriates $75,000 additional per month for the months of November and December, 1932, and January, 1933, that the State will appropriate sufficient moneys to pay for said program for the months of October, November and December, 1932, in excess of the $75,000 per month to be appropriated hereunder;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the sum of two hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($225,000) be and the same is hereby appropriated for emergency relief in the City of Newark, to be expended at the rate of $75,000 per month for the months of October, November, December, 1932; and the proper corporate officers of the City of Newark are hereby directed and authorized to issue temporary loan bonds in the sum of two hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($225,000) for the purpose of temporarily financing emergency relief, an object for which the City is authorized to issue bonds by the aforesaid act; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that each of the temporary loan bonds authorized by this resolution amounting in the aggregate to two hundred twenty-five thousand ($225,000) shall state in general terms the purpose for which it is issued, shall be dated as of the date of issue, shall mature not exceeding six months after date, shall bear such rate of interest not exceeding six per centum per annum and be issued in such denominations and be executed in such manner as the Director of Revenue and Finance may determine, and the Mayor, Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance, the Auditor of Accounts and the City Clerk be and they are hereby authorized and directed to execute, in the name of the City the bonds authorized by this resolution subject to the provisions of Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Director of Revenue and Finance be and he is hereby authorized and directed to sell said temporary loan bonds at not less than par, either all at one time or from time to time.

City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., October 26, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of the meetings of October 19th and October 25th, 1932, were read and approved.

Commissioner Egan introduced the following ordinance for information:

An ordinance relating to, and providing for the licensing and regulating of certain kinds of sales of merchandise, defining offenses and providing penalties for the violation thereof.

Mayor Congleton: When shall we have a public hearing on this?

Commissioner Gillen: How about a week from today?

Commissioner Egan: I think we ought to give plenty of time on that so the civic organizations and others interested can familiarize themselves with all its details.

Mayor Congleton: The ordinance will come up three weeks from today, and the City Clerk will have copies made and mailed to the various civic organizations, the Chamber of Commerce and others, who are interested in the matter.

Commissioner Egan moved that a public hearing on this ordinance be held November 16, 1932.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Frank Calabrese, Lefcourt Building:

Mr. Mayor and City Commissioners, I appear for Dominick Recigliano seeking a portable gasoline permit at 63 Fourteenth Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: This is for portable tanks?

Mr. Calabrese: Yes. I believe it was denied by the commissioners about ten days ago. On Fourteenth Avenue there are no trolley tracks, and I believe that a portable gasoline station at that place would not endanger the welfare of the people in that vicinity. The applicant is a world war veteran and has a wife and two children.

Mayor Congleton: Do I hear a motion?

(No motion.)

Mayor Congleton: I hear no motion, Mr. Calabrese. I hear no motion to re-open the application for portable tanks that has been denied. Personally, I am against it.

Commissioner Ellenstein: Do I understand, Mr. Calabrese, you said that this was rejected by the commission ten days ago?

Mr. Calabrese: About ten days ago.

Commissioner Ellenstein: It was not ten days ago because I have no recollection of it.

Mayor Congleton: It is a very recent one.

Commissioner Ellenstein: I do not recall it coming before the commission while I was here.

Mayor Congleton: There is no motion, Mr. Calabrese; there is nothing for the board to act upon.

Commissioner Ellenstein offered the following resolutions:

RESOLVED, that the following changes affecting the payrolls of the Department of Public Works be and

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: I will ask the City Clerk to read this resolution which is offered by the entire commission.

WHEREAS, the present legislature of the State of New Jersey passed two acts known as Chapter 250 and 251 of the Laws of 1932, the effect of which is to allocate for the relief of the unemployed and dependents of this State $20,000,000 of the $3,000,000 authorized in 1930 for highway improvement; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the terms of said acts the same do not become operative until the people, at the general election to be held on November 8, 1932, assent to the provisions of the same; and

WHEREAS, the present funds of the State that are available for the relief of the unemployed and the dependents in New Jersey will be completely exhausted by the first of December, 1932, and it is absolutely imperative that additional funds be made available to carry out this work after that date; and,

WHEREAS, if the voters of this City do not approve the aforesaid acts so as to make available the funds provided therein, it will be necessary to impose additional taxes immediately to raise this money;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that Chapters 250 and 251 of the Laws of 1932 be and the same are hereby approved; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that it is the opinion of this Board that regardless of party affiliations the voters should ratify the aforesaid acts by voting "yes" on the two referenda relating to the same at the general election to be held on November 8, 1932.

Mayor Congleton: The members of the commission in offering this resolution desire to stress the importance of the carrying of these two referendums, as we view the situation. The city of Newark, up to October 25, since January 1, in direct aid to people in need, has spent $2,023,000. That does not include the amount that the city spent and that the state contributed too for work relief, which runs well into $2,000,000. If these referendums do not carry, it is my humble opinion that it will be necessary for the Governor to reconvene the Legislature promptly for the purpose of providing funds to take care of the people in distress throughout this winter. And the only way which the Legislature will have of raising money will be in the form of additional taxes. Now, all of the people that were so strongly opposed to a sales tax and the people who were opposed to an increase in the gasoline tax, and other forms of taxation that were proposed when the Legislature was in session last year, I want to serve notice on you if you do not want some kind of new taxation you had better take an interest in the passing of these referendums this year. It does not increase the bonded debt of the State, but it is merely transferring $20,000,000 that has already been voted by the people for the building of state highways, to the Emergency Relief Fund; and I am sure we are all agreed that in times like these we can well afford to postpone the building of additional state highways and devote that money to the caring of the people in need. They cannot be permitted to go unhoused; we cannot permit them to go hungry; and we cannot permit them to go unclothed. So we are endeavoring to call this matter to the attention of all of the voters of the State, especially in this community; and if you do not want some new and additional taxes, then you had better vote for the referendums.

(Applause.)

Commissioner Gillen: The Mayor very properly stated this is a non-partisan appeal. Because you are a Republican, for instance, and Mayor of the City of Newark, and the Governor of the State is out on the stump appealing to all the people of New Jersey for the adoption of these referendums on the ballots. And he also warns that if we do not adopt these that the chances are we will have a direct tax placed upon us, which would be a very bad thing at this time. So I think the appeal ought to be listened to by all citizens, and, regardless of party affiliations, everyone should vote for it.

Mayor Congleton: It is strictly non-partisan, passed by a Democratic House and Republican Senate, and the bill signed by a Democratic Governor. And in all of the meetings I have been attending lately, regardless of their nature, I have been trying to call this matter to the attention of the citizens and voters of our community.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, I would like to say a word about this resolution as it is being passed by the governing body of the city of Newark. It is looked upon as imperative, regardless of partisan politics, to pass these referendums in order to provide this $20,000,000 that is now in the Highway Department to be used for relief measures during the coming winter. As was indicated clearly during the last legislative session, something unusual had to be done to relieve the miserable conditions existing in this State. An attempt was made by certain legislators to offer a sales tax in the State, as you indicated, and also a gasoline tax of an additional two cents a gallon; and some attempt was made to have considered by the legislative body an income tax. We in Newark realize full well from dealing with our problem of money, that it is almost impossible to collect the taxes due and outstanding, owed by the property owners of this municipality. Last Thursday night in this city, his Excellency, A. Harry Moore, Mr. Edward Duffield, president of the Prudential Insurance Company, and Mr. Chester I. Barnard, State Administrator of Relief, in a mobilization committee meeting in the Mutual Building on Broadway, presented a case that to say the least is alarming; and to use the words of Mr. Barnard, which reflect the view of all of those men who were assembled in that auditorium, he stated clearly that the public relief activity of this State would be very, very busy in attempting to put bread in to the stomachs of the hungry of our people of New Jersey. In urging action on the part of every individual citizen of this State, he made the public statement that at least fifty per cent. of the people of this State are in destitute circumstances. He indicated clearly in his statement that he and his associates officially charged with this very tedious and difficult public problem, were very much concerned about the welfare of our people during the coming winter months. An appeal was made to every citizen, who could, to aid as much as possible in the Community Chest activities of this and every other municipality of this State. If this bond issue of $20,000,000 does not pass, your prediction, Mr. Mayor, will be factual in every respect. These are trying times; and regardless of any thought on the part of the man who is active politically, all political features should be entirely subordinated to the welfare of our people. In the first instance, we must pass these referendums in order to provide money to feed and clothe the hungry of our State. We must cooperate to the fullest extent in our Community Chest campaign. Much could be said that it does not look like we have proper leadership today; and I want to say publicly, as one member of the governing body, that I do not believe the leadership that should exist in this country is existent today. Only yesterday the United States Steel Corporation passed a dividend paying preferred stockholders millions of dollars, and they were required to take the money out of their surplus in their own treasury to look after the stockholders of the United States Steel Corporation. If there is any equity left in this country at the hands of those who are charged with guiding the industrial activities of this nation, it would strike me as more fitting, more proper and more equitable for the big brains of the country to use those millions of dollars to provide labor for the men and women of our country who are walking the streets and who have nothing to offer other than their services, in order to provide for the necessities of life for those for whom they are responsible. (Applause.) The time has arrived when every citizen must assume full responsibility in this critical period. The first move, officially, in New Jersey, in order to provide funds, is to pass these referendums on election day so New Jersey will have available these $20,000,000. Newark is no longer able, out of its treasury, to maintain this relief work as it should be maintained. I have here in my hand a resolution authorizing the issuance of $1,000,000 in temporary loan bonds to take care of our poor people. We have been required to expend a tremendous amount of money this year to provide for those of our city who are in need. The first duty of any city is to take care of its poor. Newark is doing its full measure of service and duty. The State now asks, under the leadership of the Governor of this State, supported by Mr. Chester I. Barnard, State Administrator of Relief, to have this referendum passed. The citizens of every community are asking the people to show more interest and to be more responsive in the Community Chest campaign. We have in Newark a Citizens Committee assuming responsibility by looking after our relief problem in this city, and it behooves every citizen, no matter what his position might be to give that committee the fullest cooperation and support in order to make it just as comfortable as possible for the families that find themselves destitute because the head of the family is unable to sell his labor to bring in sufficient money to provide the necessities of life. If ever there was a time in New Jersey that we must have leadership and whole-hearted, unselfish activity on the part of our citizens, it is at the present moment. And I hope too, joining you, Mr. Mayor and Commissioner Gillen and the other members of this commission, that the citizens of the city of Newark will come forth in full force on Election Day and vote for these referendums, and let it be just another starting point that requires heavy service on the part of everybody. We cannot let our citizens who find themselves unable to find employment, to suffer during the coming winter months that are just ahead of us. (Applause).

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Ellenstein: Mr. Mayor, I think it ought to be forcibly brought to the attention of the voters it is absolutely necessary to vote for both amendments in order to make the vote effective. The first amendment is that $20,000,000 be withdrawn from the State Highway Commission. A vote for that alone would not suffice. Then the second amendment allocates $20,000,000 to the State Welfare Committee. And I believe it ought to be forcibly brought to the attention of the voters that it is absolutely necessary to vote for both amendments in order to make their vote effective.

(Applause.)

Mayor Congleton: That is very important, and I hope everybody will take notice.

REPORTS OF CITY OFFICERS

The following reports of City Officers were received and ordered filed:

Overseer of the Poor for September, 1932.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter he desires to bring to the attention of the commission?

Mr. Anthony Grasso: Mr. Mayor and commissioners, I have prepaid stock. I am willing to give my prepaid stock as a payment toward my taxes for my property, and I know several people who will do this. Now, my proposition is to have people that have prepaid stock and would like to pay their taxes to take the prepaid stock to the Home Loan Bank and ask them if they will relieve us from the burden of at least twenty-three per cent. of the interest on that money.

Mr. Henry Green, 280 Goldsmith Avenue:

Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the commission, last week I suggested that the city buy food for the unemployed in carloads at wholesale prices.

Mayor Congleton: We had that question up in conference and it has been referred to Dr. Ellenstein for the purpose of making a study, and I know he will be very glad if you will talk to him, to tell you what his plans are. We have not been asleep entirely, Mr. Green.

Mr. Green: In Italy they also have the unemployment insurance. The minute a person steps out from his job they receive—

Mayor Congleton: We haven't got that. What is the use of discussing it? And we cannot put it into effect.

Mr. Green: Mr. Mayor, there is use of discussing it. We have been discussing a little while ago the unemployed situation.

Mayor Congleton: But we haven't any unemployment insurance and we cannot put it into effect, and you know it.

Mr. Green: I do. I understand what municipal affairs are. Commissioner Gillen knows, he was a member of the Board of Works when I used to appear before that commission.

Mayor Congleton: Yes, and I was a member of the council when you used to come there too. I have known you for a good many years.

Mr. Green: Yes. And you are down on record at that time as being one of the progressive ones when you were a younger man.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter they desire to bring to the attention of the commission?

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

A resolution providing for the issuance of temporary bonds for relief of the poor.

WEEREAS, The City of Newark desires to take advantage of the State aid for dependency relief authorized by Chapter 394 of the Laws of 1931 of New Jersey, and has prepared a program for such relief by said City, as provided in said act, and it is estimated that the sums hereinafter appropriated therefor will be required for relief of the poor as provided in said program; and,

WHEREAS, the total of all bonds or notes authorized to be issued for such purpose, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 398 of the Laws of 1931, of New Jersey, including the temporary bonds authorized by this resolution, amounts to the sum of two million, two hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($2,225,000), which is less than one-half of one per centum of the average of the assessed valuation of taxable real property (including improvements) in said City for the three next preceding years;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, as follows:

Section 1. Pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 395 of the Laws of 1931 of New Jersey, temporary bonds shall be issued from time to time in an aggregate amount not exceeding one million dollars ($1,000,000) for relief of the poor in said City, as set forth in said program prepared and approved by the Board of Commissioners, as provided by Chapter 394 of the Laws of 1931 of New Jersey.

Section 2. Any such temporary bonds issued pursuant to this resolution may be renewed from time to time in the manner provided by law. All such temporary bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum (6%) per annum.

Section 3. Power is hereby delegated to the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance to determine all matters in relation to said temporary bonds, subject to the limitations and restrictions prescribed by law or by this resolution, and he is authorized to do all things necessary or convenient for the issuance of said temporary bonds. The proper officers of the City are hereby authorized and directed to execute said temporary bonds from time to time, upon the request of said Director.

Section 4. No temporary bonds shall be issued under the authority of this resolution until the program hereinafter described has been duly submitted to and approved by the State Director of Emergency Relief of the State of New Jersey. All moneys received by said County from the Treasurer of the State of New Jersey in aid of such program shall be placed in a separate fund and utilized only for payment of the principal of temporary bonds issued pursuant to this resolution.

State Council of New Jersey

Trenton, N. J., October 25, 1932.

Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark,
Newark, New Jersey.

Gentlemen:

The 63rd Annual Session of the State Council of New Jersey Junior Order of United American Mechanics in Annual Session assembled at Atlantic City on Thursday, October 13th, took official recognition of the splendid cooperation given by your Honorable Board to the organization, both in preparation of, and in carrying through the George Washington Bicentennial Celebration held in your city on Saturday, September 17, 1932, and I was directed by unanimous consent of the members present at this session, to express to you our very sincere appreciation for the very excellent courtesy and service, which assisted so materially in making the success which was achieved.

Very truly yours,
Edwin T. Barclay,
State Council Secretary.

Ordered filed.

Commissioner Gillen: Mr. Mayor, there has been considerable said lately about the printing of ballots. It has always been considered good business to give this job to a thoroughly reliable firm, notwithstanding the fact that lower prices might be obtained by asking for bids. I think there is considerable proof now that you can ask for bids and get much lower figures from reliable and competent printing firms. And I would move you now, sir, that hereafter the City Clerk be directed, whenever it is necessary to have ballots printed, to ask for bids for the printing of the city ballots.

Commissioner Howe: I second the motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, before we adjourn may I make a motion that we, in acknowledging receipt of the letter of the State Council of the Junior Order, express the appreciation of the city of Newark, through the governing body, for their gracing Newark with their presence at their annual convention parade, which brought into the city thousands and thousands of people. They have shown themselves satisfied with the manner in which we treated them when they came here, and I think in the name of Newark, and particularly in the interests of our business people, we should thank them for their patronage to Newark in designating Newark as their parade place.

The roll being called, the motion

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.
City Clerk.

MINUTES OF MEETINGS OF THE Board of Commissioners

November, 1932

Newark, N. J., November 2, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gilen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioner Ellenstein.

The minutes of meeting of October 26th were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to provide for the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving of Academy Street from Plane Street to Wickliffe Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder) or new oblong granite block pavement; the grading, curbing, flagging and repaving of Summit Street from Bank Street to Academy Street and from Academy Street approximately 300 feet northerly with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder); the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving of Colden Street from Academy Street to Warren Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder); the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving of Silk Street from West Market Street to Academy Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder), and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Joseph Zemel: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I appear on this ordinance on a matter of principle. I notice Section 2 of this ordinance provides the work is to be done as a general improvement. It seems to me that this work if it is to be done, ought to be done as a great deal of other work is done in this city, as a local improvement. In other words, if any property is benefited by this work it ought to pay for it. It may not be. Nevertheless, it seems to me the assessors for local improvements can ascertain what part if any ought to be borne by adjoining property owners. I need not go into the facts of what has been done in other cases; there are any number of widenings, curbings and gradings that have been paid for in part by adjoining property owners. And it seems to me all people ought to be equal here. If and when Ferry Street is widened or paved the property owners must pay a part, when Market Street is paved the property owners must pay a part, and I think all fairness requires the people benefited by this paving ought to be required to pay a part. Therefore, my thought is that this ordinance ought to be amended to provide that this work be done by the city as a local improvement and any part the assessors may determine as a benefit ought to be assessed on the properties at that time .

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Zemel, I agree with you in general principles; but let me call your attention to a few facts and possibly you may agree with me. That part of Academy Street that is now in existence has been ruined by the trucking in connection with the City Railway, all of that driving in and out. The part that is widened to be paved is all city-owned property and no assessment, of course, could be levied against it. Then when you come to the intersection of Colden Street, Summit Street, and High Street—it is stated as a general improvement, but we received from the county a substantial sum of money which will cover that part of the work, when we had to build new bridges in connection with the City Railway and the change of grade. Up to that time those old wooden bridges had to be maintained by the county under some old agreement, maybe one hundred years old. We got a lump sum; and my recollection is it was something like $300,000 or $350,000, which we are using in part to build those bridges and to do the paving and the approaches to them. So, as a matter of fact, the real sum that will go on the city after we get through is a very small sum.

Mr. Zemel: Of course, I was not aware of that Mr. Mayor. In that event, I have no objection.

Mayor Congleton: You see, the part where Academy Street is widened is city-owned property and we cannot levy an assessment.

Mr. Zemel: Thank you.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard on this matter?

(No response).

No one else appearing, Commissioner Howe moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance to provide for the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving of Academy Street from Plane Street to Wickliffe Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder); or new oblong granite block pavement; the grading, curbing, flagging and repaving of Summit Street from Bank Street to Academy Street and from Academy Street approximately 300 feet northerly with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder); the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving of Colden Street from Academy Street to Warren Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder); the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving of Silk Street from West Market Street to Academy Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder).

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the ordinance by sections:

Title declared open to amendement.

Section 1 declared open to amendment.

Section 2 declared open to amendment.

Section 3 declared open to amendment.

Section 4 declared open to amendment.

The ordinance was declared open to amendment in all its parts.

Commissioner Howe moved that the ordinance be adopted on second reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe moved that said ordinance be ordered to a third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe moved that the ordinance be taken up on third and final passage.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe moved that the title of "An ordinance to provide for the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving of Academy Street from Plane Street to Wickliffe Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder) or new oblong granite block pavement; the grading, curbing, flagging and repaving of Summit Street from Bank Street to Academy Street and from Academy Street approximately 300 feet northerly with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder); the grading, curbing, flagging and repaving of Colden Street from Academy to Warren Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder); the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving of Silk Street from West Market Street to Academy Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder)", be taken for its third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the title of the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to provide for the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving of Academy Street from Plane Street to Wickliffe Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder); or new oblong granite block pavement; the grading, curbing, flagging and repaving of Summit Street from Bank Street to Academy Street and from Academy Street approximately 300 feet northerly with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder); the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving of Colden Street from Academy Street to Warren street with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder); the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving of Silk Street from West Market Street to Academy Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top—1½" binder).

The ordinance having been read three times, was then declared to be upon its third and final passage.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance Changing and Establishing the width of the sidewalks of Foundry Street between Ferry Street and Roanoke Avenue and requiring the removal of obstructions, projections or encroachments thereon.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, Do Ordain:

Section 1. The width of the sidewalks on Foundry Street between Ferry Street and Roanoke Avenue are hereby changed and established, as follows:

John Howe,
Director of Revenue and Finance.

Mr. Charles Handler, Kinney Building:

Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the commission, yesterday before the Board of Adjustment there was an application passed to grant permission to erect a dining car at Raymond Boulevard between Market and Commerce Street. It was passed unanimously without objections, no objectors appearing.

Mayor Congleton: The location is where?

Mr. Handler: Raymond Plaza West between Market Street and Commerce Street. It is a little triangle there, and the structure will be about fifty feet in from Market Street.

Mayor Congleton: You want the rules suspended?

Mr. Handler: For this reason, on our leasehold arrangement we have got to be in there by the 17th of November.

Mayor Congleton: I am not willing to vote to suspend the rules until I have a chance to look into it myself, because there is a lot of tearing up and construction work and everything going on down there now.

Mr. Handler: I do not believe there will be any tearing up at this particular spot.

Mayor Congleton: That is what I want to find out. I am sorry to see a lunch wagon go there across from the new station. I think the property ought to be devoted to some higher use.

Mr. Handler: It is too bad you have to term all those structures "lunch wagons" but this particular structure will be a very beautiful sight and it will cost in the neighborhood of $20,000 to erect.

Mayor Congleton: I have seen a lot of them and they are still lunch wagons.

Mr. Handler: Mr. Commissioner, on that restriction there is only two years and there is no other use or investment that you could put on that property now. But in a period of two years when things are adjusted down there there may be a permanent structure put up.

Mayor Congleton: I know what those two-year periods are. You come back here and say what a big investment you have and what a hardship it is on your owner because he has his whole life's savings in there.

Mr. Handler: In two years' time the value of the neighborhood would demand a higher structure and the land would have to be put to a higher use.

Mayor Congleton: Do I hear any motion to suspend the rules?

Mr. Handler: The usual rule is two weeks. Could you lay it off for one week? You see, we have to be in by the 17th of November, and the reason we cannot get our lease, which is advantageous to us—

Mayor Congleton: That is more than two weeks from today. Two weeks from today will be the 16th.

Mr. Handler: That runs it pretty close to the line. I would like to urge a suspension of the rules, but, of course, if you find it is against your views in the matter I will waive that request.

Commissioner Egan: I move it be taken up next week.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard,

Mr. Frank Calabrese, Lefcourt Building:

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I appeared last week on behalf of Dominick Ricigliano who has filed an application for portable gasoline tanks at 63 Fourteenth Avenue. It was denied by the Commissioners. I am now appealing to you for reconsideration of the application. I have outlined the reasons last week why I feel it should be granted and I leave it to the discretion of you commissioners.

Commissioner Howe: I offer such a motion.

Commissioner Egan: I second the motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton

Mayor Congleton: When will you have the matter brought up? The motion is that the matter be taken up two weeks from today and that the applicant give the same notice he is required to give before the Zoning Board and to the same parties.

(Laid over to November 16, 1932.)

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter he desires to take up with the commission?

Commissioner Howe: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

IN RE: EMERGENCY RELIEF AND CONSTRUCTION ACT OF 1932.

The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Gentlemen:

I have examined the act entitled: "Emergency Relief and Construction Act of 1932."

That act provides that the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is to make available out of its funds the sum of three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000.00), to be used for furnishing relief and work relief to needy and distressed people, etc.

My examination of the act leads me to believe that the application for relief must be made by the GOVERNOR of the State of New Jersey, who in turn must furnish a certificate, certifying the necessity for such funds and that the resources of the State or Territory, including moneys then available and which can be made available by the State or its political sub-divisions, and private contributions, are inadequate to meet its relief needs—the loan to be repaid with interest at the rate of three per centum (3%) per annum, beginning with the fiscal year of 1935, by making annual deductions from the regular apportionments made through future Federal authorizations to the States or territories for the construction of highways and rural post roads, etc.

The same act provides that the Corporation shall not be authorized to deny an otherwise acceptable application because of constitutional or other legal inhibitions, or because the State has borrowed to the full extent authorized by law.

The constitution of the State of New Jersey, however, prohibits the Legislature from creating any debt in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) without the assent of the majority of the voters.

I may add that if the twenty million dollars ($20,000,000.00) bonds referenda are assented to by the people of New Jersey on November 8, 1932, the Governor will not be in a position to furnish the certificate required by this act because funds will be available for the various municipalities.

Respectfully,
Frank A. Boettner,
Corporation Counsel.

A P P R O V E D :

JEROME T. CONGLETON
JOHN HOWE
CHARLES P. GILLEN

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., November 16, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of the meeting of November 9, 1932, were read and approved.

On information: Hearing on an ordinance relating to, and providing for the licensing and regulating of certain kinds of sales of merchandise, defining offenses and providing penalties for the violation thereof.

Mayor Congleton: This ordinance is before us for information and hearing, and we will be glad to hear anyone who desires to speak.

Mr. Ogden H. Bowers, 790 Broad Street:

There are three reasons why we ask to have the ordinance passed: We want to protect our members and other merchants from unfair competition; second, we want to protect the buying public; and third, we want to have people feel when they come to Newark that we do not have false statements made about merchandise. We have no thought of interfering with regular business. We know Newark merchants have special sales. It is these so-called fake sales that we want done away with if possible.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. J. Heller, 149 Ferry Street:

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I represent the Ironbound Businessmen's Association. We are in favor of that ordinance, but we are not enlightened on one point, and that is it looks to us that we are not allowed to make legitimate sales. In this paragraph here—

Mayor Congleton: Which paragraph are you referring to?

Mr. Meyer Selzer, 109 Ferry Street:

Section 1. Part of it I am just quoting—"Or closing out the goods, wares, or merchandise of any business for less than the current or going retail prices thereof." Can you enlighten me on that? In other words, if a party wants to sell merchandise at a sacrifice he cannot do it.

Commissioner Gillen: Do you mean if a store is going out of business?

Mr. Selzer: No, closing out at the end of the season, or reducing the prices of merchandise.

Mr. Heller: If we want a dollar sale it looks to us we are not allowed to put in the window—

Commissioner Egan: That ought to be eliminated because nobody understands it.

Commissioner Ellenstein: I think that refers to goods sold under misrepresentation and does not refer to any legitimate sale. Of course, it would not be constitutional, anyway; it would interfere with a person's right to contract.

Mr. Selzer: If you go further on it says, "Without filing with the Director of Public Safety an inventory thereof."

Commissioner Ellenstein: That just refers to goods sold under misrepresentation purporting to be goods of bankrupts, or the like.

Mr. Selzer: Is there any way of clearing that up?

Commissioner Ellenstein: It can be cleared up and made more specific.

Mr. Selzer: Otherwise we are in favor of the ordinance.

Commissioner Gillen: What is the difficulty with filing an inventory?

Mr. Selzer: Sometimes at the end of the season you have an inventory, the smaller merchants.

Commissioner Gillen: Another fellow comes in and keeps on selling and buying junk.

Mr. Selzer: That is a thing the neighbors should be watching and report that.

Mayor Congleton: There is no intention of interfering with the transaction of legitimate business. But what we are opposed to, we are attempting under this ordinance to get at anybody, even though he is carrying on a business regularly, advertising a bankrupt sale or closing out sale, and after the close of business at night, having trucks come from all over loaded with merchandise, put it in the back door and try to sell them next day to people on the representation that it is the ordinary stock that this merchant has been carrying, when, as a matter of fact, it is some cheap stuff that he has picked up somewhere else. That is the purpose of it.

M. Selzer: We are in favor of the ordinance if that part is cleared up.

Mayor Congleton: We will give further consideration to the point you make and endeavor to clear up any ambiguities about it.

Mr. J. D. Nusbaum, 151 Ferry Street:

If we want to run a dollar sale—

Mayor Congleton: It won't interfere with that.

Mr. Nusbaum: We are very much in favor of this ordinance as it stands.

Mayor Congleton: All you need to do is walk up Broad Street today and see it. It is not good advertising to a city for people passing through to get the impression that everything in Newark is bankrupt.

Mr. Alex Loeb, 807 South Eleventh Street:

I wish to call your attention to the fact that the Eighteenth Amendment will soon be repealed—

Mayor Congleton: Are you going to speak on this ordinance?

Mr. Loeb: I am going to speak on the benefit of the city.

Mayor Congleton: We will hear you later. We are going to confine ourselves to this ordinance.

Mr. Irving Stern, 31 Clinton Street:

Mayor Congleton and Commissioners, I represent a group opposed to this ordinance. And I refer you gentlemen to Section 1. The fee for such license shall be and the same is hereby fixed as follows:

"For a period not exceeding ten days, $100.

"For a period not exceeding twenty days, $200.

"For a period not exceeding thirty days, $300."

Now, to strictly construe this section of the ordinance would mean that any merchant, and retailer or any business man who seeks to conduct a sale in the city of Newark must apply for a license from the Commissioner of Public Safety and pay for a thirty-day period $300.

Mayor Congleton: What kind of a sale?

Mr. Stern: Any of the sales as aforementioned, or any sale wherein he intends to sell his goods at a price lower than the going retail price. There is no such thing as a fixed retail price. The proposed ordinance further provides that but one such license shall be issued to any merchant during the year. Now, it is quite evident that every retail merchant in the city of Newark runs at least two sales a year, and if this proposed ordinance is passed such things will be impossible. During these times special sales are necessary. Every business man seeks to dispose of his merchandise. He must do so in order that he exist, and more than one sale is necessary, and a $300 license fee and a limited period of thirty days is prohibitive. Also, why shouldn't the buying public receive the benefit of sales?

Mayor Congleton: This does not prevent them from doing so.

Mr. Stern: Section 1 prevents any sale.

Mayor Congleton: Without filing an inventory where he is going to deal in bankrupt sales.

Mr. Stern: The section very specifically points out any sale whereby the retail merchant seeks to lead the buying public that his price is lower than the going retail price. There is an ordinance on our books passed, I believe, in June of this year. "An ordinance to license newly established merchants, itinerant vendors, and transient merchants, and to provide penalties." It is provided in our statutes that there is a penalty, and it is a misdemeanor for anyone to falsely advertise or represent his goods. Now, if these ordinances or statutes were enforced there is no necessity for this proposed ordinance. If it is intended to prevent fake sales it does not convey that idea to me. I construe this to include any merchant who seeks to run a retail sale and to sell his goods at less than the going retail price. As such I believe this proposed ordinance is unconstitutional. I believe it is beyond the police power of any municipality to seek to prevent sales such as is going on in the ordinary course of business. I believe it is unfair to the smaller business man and unfair to the buyers, because it will drive them out of business and will take away the benefits which may be given to the buying public.

Mayor Congleton: I think there is some merit in your criticism of some of the language. There is no intention of having this ordinance do some of the things that you have said; and so far as I am personally concerned, it is an effort to prevent the very thing that you will see advertised up Broad Street right today, where they come in and take empty stores for a few days as Thanksgiving time is approaching, or Christmas time is approaching. I saw one last night where they are advertising bankrupt sales from sixteen different places. Now, you speak about this ordinance being unfair to your small merchant. I think that is absolutely unfair to your small merchant, because I know of cases where they have put up signs in the window "Closing Out" or "Bankrupt Sale"; and as I said before, after darkness overtakes them, big vans come up with cheap stuff and they put it in the store and sell it out again, trying to make the public believe that they are selling goods that this merchant was in the habit of carrying when they are not, they are inferior, and it is a misrepresentation. That is the fellow I am after.

Mr. Stern: Every one agrees with you there; and if the merchant to whom you refer were taken in hand and placed under the conditions imposed by this ordinance—

Mayor Congleton: That other ordinance that you refer to does not cover this situation.

Commissioner Gillen: There was a store operated by the Landay Brothers. About two years ago they went into bankruptcy. They had a store on Broad Street, and they sold out all of their bankrupt stock to another firm which was in that line of business; and they kept pouring in a lot of junk from every place they could get it, and they were selling it as Landay Brothers bankrupt stock, which was entirely unfair to every other merchant in the same line of business in Newark.

Mayor Congleton: We think we can reach them a good deal faster with an ordinance like this than to seek an indictment by the Grand Jury and trial and conviction by the petit jury. We think in this manner we can regulate to help the people.

Mr. Stern: It is entirely too broad.

Mayor Congleton: I think there is merit in some of the criticism you make about use of language. We will study that further.

Commissioner Gillen: Why not take that up with the Law Department?

Mayor Congleton: When you started to speak you said you represented a group of merchants. Will you state for the record the name of the group?

Mr. Stern: I will mail you a complete list if you so desire.

Mr. Edmund W. Wollmuth, 24 Branford Place:

Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, I am speaking for Mr. Jerome Wiss, chairman of the Retail Trade Council of the Chamber of Commerce, which is well pleased with the ordinance, and agree that this is an additional step in the protection of the legitimate merchants and supplements the itinerant merchant ordinance which was adopted by the commission some time ago. If this ordinance is adopted, with some revisions in the verbiage to make it clearer, this ordinance, the itinerant merchant ordinance, and then the State statute which has to do with false advertising, those three instruments will offer a measure of protection to the legitimate merchant who is here all year round.

Mr. William L. Greenbaum, 164 Market Street:

Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the City Commission, I represent Mr. Samuel Lerman who has been in business in the city of Newark for eighteen years. His business consists exclusively in buying stocks of bankrupt firms and sells them to the public. He runs a legitimate business and gives the public the benefit of the reduced prices on furniture which he purchases at reduced prices. I believe, "This ordinance is enacted for the purpose of raising revenue and for the regulation and control of certain kinds of sales of merchandise." Now, if your idea is to raise revenue, as you say in the ordinance, why don't you tax chain stores? They take everything out of the community and put nothing in it. An individual like my client lives in this city, has an investment in real estate where he runs his business of $125,000, and pays taxes to the city of Newark, and the very effect of this ordinance means it is going to put him out of business at least for eleven months of the year and that he is going to pay a $300 tax for thirty days. Now, it does not seem fair, it looks to me like class legislation. Now, another objection that we have: My client is an honest man, conducting his business in strictly honest and ethical lines.

Mayor Congleton: He comes down on Broad Street and rents a vacant store for which he pays not the rent that will pay taxes, but he is conducting something, in my opinion, that is absolutely unfair competition; and if he wants to stay in business permanently he ought to take a lease on the store and conduct his sales. But he comes down and takes a lease on a place that happens to be vacant, for a short period, and is trying to carry on business in unfair competition. If it is your client that is advertising those sixteen bankrupt sales.

Mr. Greenbaum: My client has a place on Mulberry Street for which he paid $125,000.

Mayor Congleton: Why doesn't he conduct his sales down there? He comes up on Broad Street among the people who are paying substantial taxes year in and year out.

Mr. Greenbaum: All right. Assuming he will go back to Mulberry Street, under this ordinance he could not even do business there.

Mayor Congleton: I think that is a fair criticism. That is why the ordinance has not been introduced on first reading, even; it is introduced for the purpose of getting the views of various people.

Mr. Greenbaum: It also happens that we paid $81,000 for this store when the firm which conducted it before went into the hands of receivers, and that is how we came into that place. $81,000. That is a lot of furniture.

Mayor Congleton: For the property?

Mr. Greenbaum: For furniture. That is a lot of furniture. We have a place on West Kinney Street. Under this ordinance we will have to close up shop on Mulberry Street, and that does not seem fair. We have been on Broad Street for a year and a half.

One more criticism. In paragraph 8, "A license may be revoked by the Director of Public Safety for the violation of the terms of the license or falsification in applying for the license, or when, in the opinion of the Director of Public Safety the business so licensed is conducted in a manner contrary to law or to public morals or to the public health or to the safety of the life or limb of the public." That paragraph is very broad. It puts in the hands of one man an absolute dictatorship, the power to put a man out of business.

Mayor Congleton: With respect to your last criticism of the last paragraph, that is not a bit different from the power that is now vested in him under many of the other licensing ordinances.

Mr. Greenbaum: Well, under the other ordinances I think you provide, sir, for penalties.

Mayor Congleton: He has the power to revoke any of them.

Commissioner Egan: I move you, Mr. Mayor, that this ordinance be referred back to the Corporation Counsel, and that all interested parties be invited by the Corporation Counsel to confer with him so that these differences of opinion can be ironed out before it is considered any further by the governing body. We are going to refer this back to the Corporation Counsel. Suppose you or anybody else who is interested in the ordinance, give your name and address to the stenographer and then the Corporation Counsel will invite you into a conference so you can sit around the table and discuss these things.

(The following names and addresses were given to the stenographer: J. D. Nusbaum, 151 Ferry Street; Leo B. Weisgal, 685 Broad Street; Abraham A. Eisenstein, 60 Park Place.)

Mayor Congleton: That will be the procedure unless there is some objection. The matter will come up before us later.

(Referred to the Law Department for conference and revision.)

The following communication was received and read:

Real Estate Board of Newark
60 Park Place

Newark, N. J., November 15, 1932.

Mr. P. J. O Toole, Jr., City Clerk,
Office of the City Clerk,
City Hall, Newark, N. J.

Dear Sir:

At the meeting of the Board of Governors of the Real Estate Board of Newark held yesterday, the proposed ordinance relating to, and providing for the licensing and regulating of certain kinds of sales of merchandise, defining offenses and providing penalties for the violation thereof, was brought before the Governors for consideration.

Motion was made and unanimously carried that the Board of Governors of this Board approve the passage of this ordinance.

Very truly yours,
Louis Herman, President.

Ordered filed.

The City Clerk presented an ordinance changing and establishing the width of the sidewalks of Foundry Street, between Ferry Street and Roanoke Avenue and requiring the removal of obstructions, projections or encroachments thereon, and stated that today was the time fixed for the hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

No one appearing, Commissioner Egan moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance changing and establishing the width of the sidewalks of Foundry Street, between Ferry Street and Roanoke Avenue and requiring the removal of obstructions, projections or encroachments thereon.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellen-stein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the ordinance by sections.

Title declared open to amendment.

Section 1 declared open to amendment.

Section 2 declared open to amendment.

Section 3 declared open to amendment.

The ordinance was declared open to amendment in all its parts.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordinance be adopted on second reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that said ordinance be ordered to a third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

An ordinance to provide for the paving with asphalt macadam pavement and the construction of the necessary drainage systems of Raymond Boulevard from Market to Washington Street, and Raymond Plaza West from Market Street to River Street, and Market Street from the west side of Raymond Plaza West to the west side of Commerce Street and Ferry Street from Market Street to Edison Place.

The Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, do ordain:

Section 1. That Raymond Boulevard from Market Street to Washington Street, and Raymond Plaza West from Market Street to River Street and Market Street from the west side of Raymond Plaza West to the west side of Commerce Street and Ferry Street from Market Street to Edison Place shall be paved with asphalt macadam pavement, provided with the necessary drainage systems, together with the necessary new curbing or resetting of curb, together with all other appurtenances incidental to the draining and paving of said street, including the laying of concrete sidewalks at street intersections and elsewhere wherever needed, and the laying or relaying of a sidewalk or sidewalks, or such portion or portions of sidewalks as may be disturbed or may become necessary or expedient, or the grade of which may be affected on account of the laying of the pavement or the setting or resetting of the curb, under and by virtue of the provisions of an act entitled, "An Act Concerning Municipalities," approved March 27, 1917, (P. L. 1917-319) and the supplements thereto and amendments thereof, in accordance with the plans, specifications and profiles dated November 16, 1932, and now on file in the office of the Department of Public Affairs.

In order to avoid the necessity of excavating and tearing up the improved portion of said street after the making of said improvement, the owners of any and all lands on the line of said improvement, are hereby ordered and directed to make the necessary connections with the sewer, gas and water mains to the curb lines in said street for each lot fronting upon said street within thirty (30) days after the passage of this ordinance. Upon failure of any such owner to make or cause said connections to be made, the same will be made by the Department of Public Affairs, in which case the costs and expenses of making said connections will be assessed upon the lands benefited. Each 25 feet of frontage upon said street for the purposes of this improvement shall be considered a lot.

Section 2. That said improvement shall be undertaken as a general improvement and the cost thereof shall be assessed against the City at large.

Section 3. That the sum of $191,600.00 is hereby appropriated to pay the cost of said improvement, and for the purpose of meeting said appropriation and temporarily financing said improvement, temporary bonds or notes shall be issued from time to time in an amount not to exceed $191,600.00 under and by virtue of the provisions of an act entitled "An Act to authorize and regulate the issuance of bonds and other obligations and the incurring of indebtedness by county, city, borough, village, town, township, or any municipality governed by an improvement commission," approved March 22, 1916 (P. L. 1916-525), and the supplements thereto and amendments thereof, which bonds or notes shall bear interest at a rate of not to exceed six per centum per annum. All other matters in respect to such temporary bonds or notes shall be determined by the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance who is hereby authorized to execute and issue said bonds or notes.

Section 4. That this ordinance shall shall take effect immediately and all ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Section 1. Pursuant to Chapter 400 of the Laws of 1931 of New Jersey, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, negotiable bonds of The City of Newark, New Jersey, to be known as "Public Work Bonds," and to be dated not later than March 1, 1933, are hereby authorized to be issued in the aggregate principal amount of $1,070,000, for the purpose hereinafter stated for which purpose it is necessary to raise said amount of money.

Section 2. The money to be raised by the issuance of said bonds shall be applied to the refinancing or payment (1) outstanding temporary loan bonds or notes of The City of Newark, of an aggregate face amount of not less than $1,070,000, heretofore issued pursuant to the provisions of said Chapter 400 of the Laws of 1931 of New Jersey, to pay for public works, improvements, or other governmental activities in accordance with a program prepared and approved as provided by Chapter 394 of the Laws of 1931 of New Jersey, or (2) temporary loan bonds or notes issued pursuant to such act for the purpose of renewing such outstanding temporary loan bonds or notes.

Section 3. It is hereby determined that the State of New Jersey has made its full contribution in aid of the purposes for which bonds are authorized to be issued by this ordinance.

Section 4. The following matters are hereby determined and declared, pursuant to the requirements of Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended:

(a) The public works, improvements and other governmental activities for which bonds are hereby authorized to be issued either have not yet been completed, or were completed subsequent to March 1, 1932.

(b) The average of the different probable periods of usefulness of the said public works, improvements and other governmental activities (computed in the manner prescribed by Section 4 of said Act), taking into consideration the amount of bonds to be issued on account of the several purposes, is nine years, ending March 1, 1942.

(c) The average assessed valuation of the taxable real property (including improvements) of The City of Newark, computed upon the next preceding three valuations thereof, in the manner provided in Section 12 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended, is $731,311,183.00.

(d) The next debt of the said City, computed in the manner provided in said Section 12, as amended, is $45,544,315.22.

A Resolution Providing for the Issuance of Temporary Bonds for the Relief of the Poor.

WHEREAS, The City of Newark

desires to undertake relief of the poor in excess of that outlined in the program for such relief heretofore prepared by the Board of Commissioners and approved by the State Director of Emergency Relief of the State of New Jersey on the 30th day of November, 1931, or any other program submitted to and approved by said Director, and no appropriation has been made for or funds provided for such relief of the poor other than by the resolutions adopted by the Board of Commissioners on the 25th day of October, 1932, hereinafter described; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED By the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that The City of Newark shall undertake relief of the poor in excess of that outlined in any program described in the preambles of this resolution, and that pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 398 of the Laws of 1931 of New Jersey there shall be issued for that purpose temporary loan bonds of The City of Newark of an aggregate face amount not exceeding One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,500,000).

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the moneys to be raised by the issuance of said bonds shall be expended from time to time in the manner provided by law to pay the cost of furnishing food, clothing, shelter and the necessities of life to persons residing in said City who are unable to maintain themselves or those dependent upon them.

FURTHER RESOLVED, That any such temporary bonds issued pursuant to this resolution may be renewed from time to time in the manner provided by law and that all temporary bonds issued pursuant to this resolution shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum (6%) per annum.

FURTHER RESOLVED, That power be and hereby is delegated to the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance to determine all matters in relation to said temporary bonds subject to the limitations and restrictions prescribed by law or by this resolution, and that he be and hereby is authorized to do all things necessary or convenient for the issuance of such temporary bonds, and that the Mayor, Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance, City Clerk and Auditor of Accounts be and they hereby are authorized and directed to execute said temporary bonds from time to time upon the request of said Director.

FURTHER RESOLVED, That all temporary bonds issued pursuant to this resolution shall be issued in substantially the form prescribed by the resolution adopted by the Board of Commissioners on the 19th day of November, 1931, entitled "A Resolution providing for the issuance of temporary bonds for the relief of the poor."

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the resolution adopted by the Board of Commissioners on the 25th day of October, 1932, entitled "A Resolution providing for the issuance of temporary bonds for the relief of the poor," and the resolution adopted by said Board of Commissioners on the 25th day of October, 1932, providing for the issuance of $225,000 temporary loan bonds for dependency relief, be and they hereby are rescinded.

October 26, 1932.

To The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Addressed.

Gentlemen:

I respectfully submit a resolution concerning the classification and title of Joseph A. Ward, now clerk, this department, for your disposition.

Mr. Ward, an attorney at law of the State of New Jersey, is assigned to legal work, as well as acting in executive capacity in the Department of Public Safety. It is my opinion that he ought to be classified as a legal assistant; it being more consistent with the nature of his employment.

Yours respectfully,
Frank A. Boettner,
Corporation Counsel.

Ordered filed.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

RESOLVED: That the title and classification of Joseph A. Ward, Clerk, Law Department, be, and is hereby changed to Legal Assistant, Law Department, subject to and in

To The Board of Commissioners,
of the City of Newark,
City Hall, Newark, New Jersey.

Gentlemen:

Due to the fact that I was sworn in as a member of the Essex County Board of Chosen Freeholders this day, I feel that I should resign immediately as a member of the Board of Adjustment of The City of Newark, New Jersey; said resignation to take effect at once.

I sincerely enjoyed this work, and trust that I have measured up to the confidence reposed in me during my term of office.

Very truly yours,
Carl G. Lehman.

Ordered filed.

BE IT RESOLVED By the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the resignation of Carl G. Lehman, as a member of the Board of Adjustment, to take effect as of November 9, 1932, be and the same is hereby accepted; and the City Clerk

Mr. Samuel Voltaggio, Lefcourt Building: I represent the applicant. The place has been used as an automobile garage for about a year and a half, and the only change now is so that the tenant may make repairs to other cars that are brought into the place for the purpose of repairs. We have the consent of about eighty of the individuals that own property adjacent to and within two hundred feet, and there was no one opposed it.

Commissioner Gillen: You will make a lot of noise, won't you?

Mr. Voltaggio: No, there is no lathes or anything inside.

Commissioner Howe: It isn't lathes that make noise, it is hammers that make noise.

Mr. Voltaggio: The repairing they do is to the motors.

Mayor Congleton: This application is for five years. I am not willing to vote for five years until we see what it is going to produce.

Commissioner Gillen: I move the permit be granted for a period of three months for the purpose of study, and see what complaints may come from noise.

Mr. Voltaggio: May I at this time urge the place has been used for a year and a half and we haven't had any complaints whatever.

Mayor Congleton: You haven't been making repairs.

Mr. Voltaggio: Yes. During that time they had a permit or license to operate a garage, and now I understand we had to get a permit from the Zoning Board.

Commissioner Gillen: I will amend my motion and move that the permit be granted for one year instead of five years.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Building Commissioner, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following use for which application was made be allowed;

Application of John Holden & Thomas G. Smith (Estate of R. W. Parker, owner), for an automobile parking station; premises 594-602 Broad Street; for a period of one year, on condition that present fence is to remain and all signs meet the approval of the Board;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED

By the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Commissioner Egan: I move the application be laid over for one week. Mr. Colyer, President of the Fidelity Union Mortgage Company, asked me if I would not give them an opportunity—there is some question in connection with it they would like to have cleared up. They have no objection to the parking station as a parking station, but before it is dealt with they would like to take it up.

Mr. Michael Bretkopf, 790 Broad Street: Any information they want we will be glad to give them.

Commissioner Egan: In the meantime Mr. Rankin will confer with Mr. Morrison Colyer of the Fidelity Union Mortgage Company.

Mr. Seymour D. Shapiro, 24 Branford Place: This is on the corner of Avon Avenue and Eighteenth Street. This garage has been operated by the same man for twenty-two years. We propose to change the existing doorway into an open arch by putting an I-beam there so that more easy access to Eighteenth Street will be had. This is an improvement to the property and not a detriment. All the adjacent property owners have been notified; no objections have been made.

Commissioner Egan: Is that the existing gasoline station there?

Mr. Shapiro: Yes, it has been there for twenty-two years.

Commissioner Gillen: The gasoline station is on the corner?

Mr. Shapiro: Yes.

Commissioner Egan: The gasoline station is there and what you want to do now is make it larger?

Mr. Shapiro: No, we propose to break out the existing doorway, which has two doors about eight feet wide, and put a large I-beam there and make an open arch on Eighteenth Street so that the gasoline station will be larger.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Building Commissioner, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Anna Dekunckah (John C. Lloyd, et al., owners) for the renewal of a permit for an automobile parking station; premises 25-27 East Alpine Street; renewed for one year ending October 21, 1933, on condition that a wire fence be erected along the street line, and that entrance and exit of vehicles be confined to one driveway;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED

By the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mr. Louis Kasoff, 120 South Orange Avenue: That is the big wide square where the new highway goes through. The property is located in an industrial zone now, and no objectors to it.

Commissioner Gillen: There is a high bank there?

Mr. Kasoff: No, it is level ground.

Commissioner Gillen: It is not level there now.

Mr. Kasoff: They have their driveway into the iron shop right off the sidewalk.

Mayor Congleton: I would like to look at it myself before I vote upon it.

Commissioner Egan moved that the resolution be laid over until November 23rd.

Board of Adjustment
City Hall
Newark, New Jersey

November 15, 1932.

The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, that the following applications for variations from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

432-434 South Orange Avenue, G. Krueger Brewing Co., owner, gasoline station;

39-45 Belmont Avenue, Paramount Realty Co., owner, gasoline station;

695-697 Irvington Avenue, A. & P. Service Station (Saul Holding Co., owner); gasoline station, for a period of eight years;

324 Clinton Place, Louis Robbins (Max Cohen, owner); two portable gasoline tanks, for a period of one year;

1007-1011 Eighteenth Avenue, Carl Schroeder, owner, gasoline station, for a period of eight years;

318-320 Bloomfield Avenue, Frederick Spitzhoff, owner; gasoline station, for a period of eight years;

267-271 Sixteenth Avenue, Gerber Holding Co., owner, gasoline station, for a period of eight years;

29-33 Blum Street, Charles Carell (Estate of Stephen H. Plum, owner); automobile parking station, renewed for one year;

399-401 South 12th Street, Charles J. Hilser (Joseph Hilser, owner); automobile body repair shop, renewed for two years;

The Board of Adjustment,
R. B. Rankin,
Secretary.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the communication be received, a copy sent to each Commissioner and further action postponed until November 30th.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The following communication was received and read:

WHEREAS, Bergen & Passaic Pomona Grange No. 11, P. of H., have presented to this body a resolution that was adopted by them expressing their resentment to the imposition of an unjust levy of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per year, thru the creation of an ordinance by the City of Newark, N. J., on each member of the Newark Farmers' Market Ass'n, who offers his farm produce for sale on the market that is owned and operated by their own organization; the Newark Farmers' Market Ass'n, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, That the Milltown Grange No. 151, P. of H., go on record, favoring the adoption of the resolution as presented by Bergen & Passaic Pomona Grange No. 11, P. of H., and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That Milltown Grange No. 151, P. of H., go on record, vigorously opposing any such unfair and unjust action by the governing body of the City of Newark, N. J.,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be sent to the Hon. Jerome T. Congleton, Mayor of Newark, N. J., the Newark Farmers' Market Ass'n and Bergen & Passaic Pomona Grange No. 11, P. of H.

Chas. Skistimas, Sec'y.
Milltown, N. J., Nov. 9, 1932.

Ordered filed.

Mr. Frederick Spitzhoff, Mountain-side, N. J.: Mr. Mayor, may I ask you to ratify the action of your Board of Adjustment yesterday? They have granted a permit for a gasoline station at 318-320 Bloomfield Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: Personally, I do not feel like voting to suspend the rules on gasoline stations. I make a practise of inspecting all these after they come to us, and I would like to carry out that practise on gasoline stations. Does anyone make a motion?

There is no motion before us. It will have to take the regular course. We usually go out and inspect these sites before we vote on them.

Mr. Spitzhoff: There is a garage on the premises now.

Mayor Congleton: It will have to take its course. We will go out and inspect it.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who has any matter to take up with the Commission?

No one else appearing, Commissioner Gillen moved to adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

The City Clerk presented the application of Sarah G. Kearney, owner, for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 168-172 Frelinghuysen Avenue; for a period of ten years, on condition a fireproof fence be erected on the north and east, and that lighting fixtures and signs meet the requirements of the Board; and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Commissioner Egan moved that the application be laid over one week.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented the application of John Holden & Thomas G. Smith (Estate of R. W. Parker, owner), for an automobile parking station; premises 594-602 Broad Street; for a period of one year, on condition that present fence is to remain and all signs meet the approval of the Board; and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Commissioner Egan moved that the application be laid over one week.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented the application of Joseph Cocuzza, owner, for the alteration of an existing building for use as a gasoline station; premises 74 Lock Street, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Commissioner Egan: It seems to me, Mr. Mayor, without even looking at that, that it would be a dangerous thing to permit a gasoline station at that corner now after these improvements we have just made. We expect this to be a busy intersection.

Mr. Rankin: This is a two-story building. They want to take the first floor out.

Mr. Louis Kasoff, 120 South Orange Avenue: That was up last week, if you remember, and you wanted to visit the site.

Mayor Congleton: Some of us have, and we are very much in doubt about granting the permit. Can you state any good reason why you think it ought to be granted?

Mr. Kasoff: Only this, Mr. Mayor, the property is located in an industrial zone now, and in accordance with our zoning law we are entitled to have a gasoline station, with the exception that you have a rule that every case has to come before the Board. And the neighborhood is such that a gasoline station would not be a detriment to it, it would not obstruct traffic; the neighbors did not object to it, not one of them, so I honestly cannot see why we should be turned down.

Mayor Congleton: What are you using the property for now?

Mr. Kasoff: A structural iron shop; and for the past four years the owner has found the property to be a burden on his shoulders because business has been bad.

Mayor Congleton: So has the gasoline business. That is one of the reasons that moves me in some of these matters, people that have been in the gasoline station business for years. The constant application here is that somebody needs it because his other employment is no good and he only wants it to tide over. What about the folks that have been in the business and have put their whole lives' savings in it, and have been in it for ten, fifteen and twenty years? I think they are entitled to some little protection. We are getting too many gas stations, in my opinion, in the city, just like we had too many saloons at one time.

Mr. Kesoff: I don't remember too many saloons. I don't think we had enough.

Mayor Congleton: Well, that is what has given us what we have got now, because we did have too many and they were not properly regulated.

Mr. Kasoff: Do you feel that the gasoline station there would make the competition—

Mayor Congleton: I think it is a very bad traffic point myself, for a gasoline station coming right out of the new Raymond Boulevard cut, and we had thought it was such a congested point that Director Egan has put traffic signals in there. I myself am not prepared to vote for it this morning.

Mr. Kasoff: I have been to the site there quite often, but at that time the street has not been improved as it has been now. In those days traffic has been slight. What it may bring I don't know.

Mayor Congleton: I have been going over there a great deal since it has been opened for the very purpose of observing it. I think it is a bad place for a gas station, myself. That is only my own personal view. If some of the other commissioners would like to look into it further—

Commissioner Ellenstein: I would like to Mr. Mayor, and therefore, I would move it be laid over for a week.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The following communication was received and read:

Ironbound Manufacturers' Association, Inc.

P. O. Box 504, Newark, N. J.

November 16, 1932.

City Commission,
City Hall,
Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:

The Ironbound Manufacturers' Association respectfully submits for your consideration a recommendation made at its annual meeting held on November 10, 1932, that the Morris Canal Bed be used for the Newark section of the proposed Route No. 10 of the State Highway System.

The canal bed seems ideal for this purpose. Already a large portion of it has been converted into a highway, namely that section from Plane Street West. To this will be added another link from Plane Street to the new Pennsylvania Depot. Later this month, with the opening of the super-highway across to Jersey City the ramp at the Newark end will descend to grade at Lockwood Street at the top of the canal bed. Thus, there will remain but the small stretch of a little over a mile from Lockwood Street to the Pennsylvania Railroad development.

If this undeveloped portion of the canal bed were made part of the State Highway System, it would give a complete route for Route No. 10 through the center of Newark at a minimum of cost and would solve the problem which is now vexing the business interest of our City of bringing people into Newark instead of by-passing them around us. It would also provide us with another highway from New York and Jersey City, as well as a route to the northern section of our State.

Very truly yours,
Ironbound Manufacturers' Ass'n.

Joseph H. Gunn,
Executive Secretary.

Ordered received and referred to Conference.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter he desires to bring to the attention of the commission?

Mr. Sidney W. Furth, President, Hillcrest Manor Improvement Association: There is a matter before your body for approval on which I would like to speak a few words, with your permission.

Mayor Congleton: What is this one? The gasoline station in Maplewood?

Mr. Furth: Yes, sir.

Mayor Congleton: That is not up today.

Mr. Furth: May I leave this with you?

Mayor Congleton: You may leave it, but if you can come to our meeting next week when the people that are probably making the application will be here and speak to it, you would be very much more effective if you are here then to speak in opposition to it.

Mr. Furth: I thank you very much.

Mayor Congleton: What is that location?

Mr. Furth: Irvington Avenue, 695-697.

Mr. Albert Woods, 385 Springfield Avenue, appeared as a representative of the unemployed workers of the City of Newark and presented a resolution containing the demands of the unemployed and part time employed workers of the City of Newark.

On motion the resolution was ordered filed.

The following persons also were heard on the same subject: Miss Rebecca Grecht, 302 West Runyon Street, Mr. Bernard Razanski, 306 Lafayette Street, John Perrone, 67 Springfield Avenue and Mrs. Bessie Blumen, 848 Hunterdon Street.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

No one else appearing Commissioner Gillen moved to adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

A Resolution Fixing the Form and Terms and Providing for the Sale of $2,336,000 Bonds of The City of Newark, to be Issued Pursuant to Ordinances Heretofore Adopted

BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, New Jersey, as follows:

Section 1. There shall be issued at this time bonds of the aggregate face amount of $1,064,000, pursuant to the ordinance entitled "An Ordinance authorizing the issuance of $1,070,000 Public Work Bonds of The City of Newark, New Jersey," adopted by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark on the 30th day of November, 1932, and said bonds shall be ten hundred and sixty-four in number, numbered from 1 to 1064, inclusive, in the order of their maturity, and shall be of the denomination of $1,000 each, and shall mature and be payable in annual installments, as follows; viz.: One hundred and thirty-three bonds on December 15th in each of the years 1934 to 1941, inclusive.

Section 2. There shall be issued at this time bonds of the aggregate face amount of $1,272,000, pursuant to the ordinance entitled "An Ordinance authorizing the issuance of $1,275,000 Poor Relief Bonds of The City of Newark, New Jersey," adopted by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark on the 30th day of November, 1932, and said bonds shall be twelve hundred and seventy-two in number, numbered from 1 to 1272, inclusive, in the order of their maturity, and shall be of the denomination of $1,000 each, and shall mature and be payable in annual installments as follows, viz.: One hundred and fifty-nine bonds on December 15th in each of the years 1934 to 1941, inclusive.

Section 3. The said Public Work Bonds and Poor Relief Bonds shall be dated December 15, 1932, shall bear interest from their date at a rate to be hereafter determined, payable semi-annually on June 15th and December 15th in each year, and shall be coupon bonds, registerable at the option of the holder as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest. They shall be signed by the Mayor, countersigned by the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance, and the seal of The City of Newark shall be thereto affixed and attested by the City Clerk. The coupons to be attached to said bonds shall bear the fac-simile signature of the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance. Both principal and interest of the bonds shall be payable at The National State Bank, in The City of Newark, in gold coin of the United States of America of the standard of weight and fineness existing on the date of said bonds.

Section 4. The said Public Work Bonds shall be issued in substantially the following form:

No. No.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
THE CITY OF NEWARK

$1,000 Public Work Bond $1,000

The City of Newark, a municipal corporation in the County of Essex and State of New Jersey, for value received hereby promises to pay to the bearer, or, if this bond be registered, to the registered holder hereof, the sum of

One Thousand Dollars ($1,000)

on the 15th day of December, 19 ,

Section 5. The said Poor Relief Bonds shall be issued in substantially the form prescribed above, except that the following paragraph of said form shall be stricken out, viz.:

"This bond is one of an issue of bonds of like tenor, except as to maturity, issued under and pursuant to Chapter 400 of the Laws of 1931 of New Jersey, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, and an ordinance duly adopted by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark on November 30, 1932." and there shall be substituted in lieu thereof the following paragraph, viz.:

"This bond is one of an issue of bonds of like tenor, except as to maturity, issued under and pursuant to Chapter 398 of the Laws of 1931 of New Jersey, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, and an ordinance duly adopted by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark on November 30, 1932."

Section 6. The bonds shall be sold at public sale upon sealed proposals, at two o'clock, P. M., on Tuesday, December 20, 1932, at the office of the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance of The City of Newark, in the City Hall, after notice of such sale published in the manner required by law. The Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance is hereby authorized and directed to cause such notice to be published and to receive such proposals, and the power of the Board of Commissioners to award the bonds and reject bids therefor is hereby delegated to him.

Section 7. The notice of sale of the bonds shall be in substantially the following form:

NOTICE OF SALE

The City of Newark, New Jersey, $2,336,000 Bonds

Sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned at his office in the City Hall, Newark, New Jersey, until Tuesday, December 20, 1932, at two o'clock, P. M., when they will be publicly opened, for the purchase, at not less than par and accrued interest, of bonds of The City of Newark of the following authorized issues, viz.:

$1,064,000 Public Work Bonds, maturing $133,000 of bonds on December 15th in each of the years 1934 to 1941, inclusive; and

$1,272,000 Poor Relief Bonds, maturing $159,000 of bonds on December 15th in each of the years 1934 to 1941, inclusive.

All of the bonds will be of the denomination of $1,000, will be dated December 15, 1932, will bear interest from their date, payable semi-annually on June 15th and December 15th, and will be coupon bonds, registerable at the option of the holder as to principal only or as to both principal and interest. Principal and interest will be payable in gold coin of the United States of the present standard of weight and fineness at The National State Bank, in the City of Newark.

The bonds will bear interest at the rate of four and one-quarter per centum (4¼%) per annum. However, if the bids received do not permit the award of either of the issues of bonds as 4¼% bonds, the bonds of such issue shall bear interest at such higher rate, not exceeding five and one-half per centum (5½%) per annum, as may be named by the successful bidder. The rate named must be a multiple of one-quarter of one per centum per annum, and must be the same for all of the bonds of such issue. In awarding the bonds of such issue, only the proposals naming the lowest rate named in any proposal for such issue will be considered.

Bidders, in submitting their bids, must use the bidding forms which will be furnished by the undersigned upon request.

The several amounts necessary to be raised by the sale of said two bond issues (exclusive of the amount of any interest accrued on the bonds), respectively, are the maximum authorized amounts of said issues, respectively, as stated above; and no more bonds of either issue will be sold than will produce the amount necessary to be raised by the sale of such issue (exclusive of the accrued interest), and an additional sum of less than $1,000 for such issue. If less than the maximum authorized amount of either issue is sold, the unsold bonds of that issue will be those last maturing. The bonds of each issue will, unless all bids therefor are rejected, be sold to the bidder or bidders complying with the terms of sale and offering to pay not less than the amount necessary to be raised by the sale of such issue (exclusive of accrued interest) and to take therefor the least amount of bonds of such issue, commencing with the first maturity, and if two or more bidders offer to take the same amount of bonds of the same issue, then the bonds of that issue will be sold to the bidder or bidders offering to pay therefor the highest additional price (such additional price being less than $1,000). In addition to the price bid, the purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Any bidder may condition his bid on the award to him of both of said issues, but in that case, if there is a more favorable bidder for either one of the issues for which he bids, his bid will be rejected.

Proposals should be addressed to the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance, City Hall, Newark, New Jersey, and enclosed in a sealed envelope marked on the outside "Proposal for Bonds," and must be accompanied by a certified check for two per centum (2%) of the face amount of the bonds bid for, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company to the order of the "Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance of The City of Newark," to secure the City against any loss resulting from a failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be returned upon the award of the bonds.

The successful bidder or bidders will be furnished with the opinion of Messrs. Reed, Hoyt & Washburn, of New York City, that the bonds are valid and binding obligations of The City of Newark. The bonds will be prepared under the supervision of the Continental Bank and Trust Company, of New York City, which will certify to the genuineness of the signatures of the officials and the seal impressed on the bonds.

By order of the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark.

Dated, November 30, 1932.

John Howe,
Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance of The City of Newark.

Section 8. The Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance is hereby authorized to cause said bonds to be prepared, and to obtain the opinion of Messrs. Reed, Hoyt & Washburn, Attorneys, of New York City, as to the validity of the bonds, to be furnished to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, and the Mayor, Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance and the City Clerk are hereby authorized to execute said bonds, and the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance is hereby authorized to deliver said bonds to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, upon receipt of the purchase price.

The following communication was received and read:

To the Honorable, the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark.

The application of The Prudential Insurance Company of America, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of New Jersey, respectfully shows unto the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, in said State, as follows:

1. The applicant is an insurance company of the State of New Jersey, organized and existing under the laws thereof and duly qualified and empowered to carry on the business of writing insurance upon the lives in said State and in other states of the United States and for many years has been and still is engaged in such business.

2. At various dates subsequent to the tenth day of February, 1930, the applicant, pursuant to the authority granted by Chapter 202 of the Laws of 1929 of the State of New Jersey, invested certain of its funds to an aggregate amount, including all similar investments, not exceeding five per centum of its total admitted assets in the purchase of the real estate hereinafter described in the City of Newark, in the State of New Jersey, for the purpose of constructing thereon apartments and tenements. On the twenty-sixth day of April, 1932, the Commissioner of Banking and Insurance of the State of New Jersey, pursuant to Section 2 of the said Chapter 202 of the Laws of 1929, as amended by Chapter 156 of the Laws of 1931, in writing extended the time within which the present application might be made to the first of May, 1934.

3. On the thirtieth day of March, 1932, the applicant entered into a certain contract with the City of Newark, a municipal corporation of the State of New Jersey, whereby the applicant undertook to make the present application and upon approval of the same by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, the said City of Newark undertook to purchase from The Prudential certain portions of the real estate so acquired by The Prudential, as aforesaid. Copy of the said contract, marked Exhibit "A," is annexed hereto and made a part hereof and reference is hereby made to the same for the terms thereof.

4. The real estate thus acquired by the applicant, as aforesaid, the improvement of a portion of which is deemed by the applicant to be necessary to the project hereinafter set forth, and the purchase by the City of

Newark of another portion of which is provided for by the terms of the said contract, consists of two tracts, each comprising an entire city block, adjacent each to the other in the City of Newark, viz:

First Tract—All those tracts or parcels comprised within the block bounded by Waverly Avenue, Barclay Street, Spruce Street and Somerset Street, situated in the Third Ward; and

Second Tract—All those tracts or parcels comprised within the block bounded by Spruce Street, Barclay Street, Montgomery Street and Somerset Street, situated in the third Ward.

The location of the said real estate is shown upon the map attached hereto and made a part hereof and marked Exhibit "B," and the portions of said real estate deemed by the applicant to be necessary to the project hereinafter set forth and the portions thereof to be purchased by the City of Newark pursuant to the said contract, are likewise indicated upon the said map marked Exhibit "B."

5. The applicant proposes, at its own expense, to improve such portions of said real estate thus acquired as are not to be purchased by the City of Newark pursuant to said contract by constructing thereon new housing facilities in accord with the proper standards of sanitation and safety and pursuant to the following project:

It is proposed to erect along the sides of the blocks fronting on Somerset and Barclay Streets, on lots thirty (30) feet in depth, tenements approximately twenty-six (26) feet in depth, so sub-divided on each floor as to provide cross ventilation for most of the apartments. The interior portions of each block are to be conveyed to the City pursuant to the contract marked Exhibit "A" attached hereto for park and playground purposes, to which convenient access will be had through wide openings between the several apartment buildings, as indicated upon the map attached hereto marked Exhibit "B." Six (6) buildings will be erected on each block, four (4) of which on each block will be five (5) stories in height and two (2) of which will be six (6) stories in height. All buildings will be of fireproof construction throughout.

6. The applicant has caused to be prepared by Edmund C. Stout, Architect, of 763 Broad Street, Newark, N. J., plans and specifications for constructing new housing facilities upon the northerly of the said two blocks, being the "Second Tract" above described, pursuant to such project, true copies of which are hereunto annexed and made a part hereof, the said plans being marked and serially numbered Exhibit "C-1" to Exhibit "C-5," inclusive, and the said specifications being marked Exhibit "D." The said plans and specifications as prepared for the said northerly block are likewise to serve as the plans and specifications for the improvement of the southerly block or "First Tract" above described, with such modifications as may be required by variations in conditions and dimensions of the two strips to be improved upon the said southerly block or "First Tract."

7. The cost of the entire project covering the improvement of both blocks, as aforesaid, if carried out pursuant to the said plans and specifications, is estimated by the said Edmund C. Stout, Architect, at Two Million, Four Hundred and Twenty-seven Thousand, Five Hundred and Ten Dollars and Ninety-four Cents ($2,427,510.94), including the cost of the portions of the real estate so acquired necessary to the said project, as shown by the exhibit hereunto an-nexed and made a part hereof, marked Exhibit "E." The cost of such portions of the real estate necessary to the project has been ascertained by deducting from the cost of all of the real estate so acquired the amount payable to the applicant by the City of Newark as the purchase price of the portions of said real estate to be conveyed to the City of Newark pursuant to the said contract.

8. The applicant estimates the rentals of such new housing facilities necessary to assure to it a return of five per centum upon the cost of the entire project after payment of

- (1) All taxes, insurance, costs of operation and maintenance, and
- (2) An annual amount sufficient to amortize the entire cost of construction of such new housing facilities at the end of a period of twenty years from the completion of the same in accordance with the schedule hereunto annexed and made a part hereof and marked Exhibit "F."

WHEREFORE, the said The Prudential Insurance Company of America, pursuant to the provisions of the said Chapter 202 of the Laws of 1929 of the State of New Jersey, as amended to date, respectfully applies to the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark for approval of the project hereinbefore set forth and prays that the said Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark may determine that the project herein set forth is in the public interest and may approve this application and authorize and empower the said The Prudential Insurance Company of America to undertake and carry to completion the said project, all in accordance with the provisions of the said Chapter 202 of the Laws of 1929 of the State of New Jersey, as amended to date.

THE PRUDENTIAL INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA

By Edward D. Duffield,
President.

November 28, 1932.

"EXHIBIT 'A' "

THIS AGREEMENT, made in duplicate the thirtieth day of March, 1932, Between THE CITY OF NEWARK (hereinafter called "the city"), a municipal corporation of the State of New Jersey, party of the first part, and THE PRUDENTIAL INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA, a corporation organized under the Laws of the State of New Jersey (hereinafter sometimes called "The Prudential"), party of the second part, WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the City desires that in the interest of the public health, safety and morals certain blocks of unsafe and unsanitary dwellings, hereinafter described, in the City of Newark should be replaced in part by new housing facilities constructed in accord with the proper standards of sanitation and safety and provided with appropriate parks and playgrounds, and

WHEREAS, The Prudential is willing, pursuant to authority of law, to acquire the tracts of land upon which such unsafe and unsanitary dwellings now stand and to construct upon a part of such tracts such new housing facilities and to convey to the City certain other parts thereof for the purpose of such parks and playgrounds:

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto in consideration of the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth do hereby covenant and agree with each other as follows:

1. The Prudential agrees forthwith to take all possible steps to acquire, pursuant to the authority conferred upon it by Chapters 201 and 202 of the Laws of 1929 of the State of New Jersey, the following described tracts or parcels of real estate in the City of Newark, viz:

First Tract—All those tracts or parcels comprised within the block bounded by Waverly Avenue, Barclay Street, Spruce Street and Somerset Street, situated in the Third Ward; and at the lowest prices obtainable which The Prudential is willing to pay therefor, or such parts of said tracts as it may be able to acquire, and to submit to the City a project for the construction upon such tracts or parts thereof of new housing facilities occupying only strips not more than thirty (30) feet deep running from North to South on the block fronts on Somerset and Barclay Streets so that there shall be left vacant an interior strip running North and South on each of such blocks approximately one hundred and forty (140) feet wide and separating the housing facilities constructed on the respective street fronts.

Second Tract—All those tracts or parcels comprised within the block bounded by Spruce Street, Barclay Street, Montgomery Street and Somerset Street, situated in the Third Ward;

2. Upon approval by the City of the project thus presented to it by The Prudential pursuant to the provisions of Chapters 201 and 202 of the Laws of 1929 aforesaid, The Prudential, upon the acquisition of the said tracts or parts thereof, will forthwith proceed to construct and carry to completion such new housing facilities.

3. Upon the acquisition by The Prudential of the said tracts or parts thereof and the approval by the City of the said project the City, in consideration of the acquisition of such tracts or parts thereof hereinafter described by The Prudential and of the undertaking on the part of The Prudential to construct such housing facilities, will purchase from The Prudential such part of the vacant strip approximately one hundred and forty (140) feet wide running North and South through the interior of each of the said blocks as The Prudential may have acquired for the purpose of parks and playgrounds to be maintained by the City for the benefit of the public at large and will pay to The Prudential as the purchase price thereof such proportion of the total price paid by The Prudential for the said tracts as the area of the strip so purchased bears to the total of the said tracts acquired by The Prudential, and, in consideration of the premises, the City will acquire for such park purposes, either through private treaty or through the exercise of its powers of condemnation, such portions of said tracts as shall not have been acquired by the Prudential, as aforesaid; provided, however, that in no case shall the City pay a sum in excess of One Million, Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,200,000) for the acquisition of the aforesaid vacant strip, approximately one hundred and forty (140) feet wide, running North and South through the interior of each of the said blocks.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused these presents to be signed by their respective officers thereunto duly authorized, and their respective corporate seals to be hereto affixed and attested on the part of the City by the City Clerk, and on the part of The Prudential Insurance Company of America by the Secretary or Assistant Secretary, all on the day and year aforesaid.

EXHIBIT "E"

Estimate of the Cost of the Project

I, EDMUND C. STOUT, the architect who prepared for The Prudential Insurance Company of America, the applicant named in the application to which this exhibit is annexed, the plans and specifications contained in the exhibits heretofore annexed, marked respectively Exhibits "C-1" to "C-5," and Exhibit "D," do estimate the cost of the entire project represented by such plans and specifications, on the basis of Forty-five Cents ($.45) per cubic foot, and including the cost of the portions of the real estate described in the said application as necessary to the said project, at the sum of Two Million, Four Hundred and Twenty-seven Thousand, Five Hundred and Ten Dollars and Ninety-four Cents ($2,427,510.94).

Edmund C. Stout, Architect.

November 28, 1932.

EXHIBIT "F"

Estimate of Rentals

I, WILLARD I. HAMILTON, Vice President of The Prudential Insurance

Company of America, the applicant named in the application to which this exhibit is annexed, and the officer under whose immediate supervision the project set forth in such application has been prepared, do estimate the rentals of the new housing facilities described in Exhibits "C-1" to "C-5," inclusive, and Exhibit "D" annexed to such application, necessary to assure a return of five per centum upon the cost of such entire project, based on the estimate of cost as set forth in "Exhibit "E," after payment of all taxes, insurance, costs of operation and maintenance and an annual amount sufficient to amortize the entire cost of construction of such new housing facilities at the end of a period of twenty years from the completion of the same, at the average sum of Twelve Dollars and Sixty-five Cents ($12.65) per room per month.

If the period of amortization shall be extended by the Company to forty years and if the return to the company be reduced to four per centum per annum, then I estimate such rentals at the average sum of Ten Dollars and Two Cents ($10.02) per room per month.

If the period of amortization shall be extended by the Company to fifty years and if the return to the Company be reduced to four per centum per annum, then I estimate such rentals at the average sum of Nine Dollars and Seventy-five Cents ($9.75) per room per month.

The above estimates include heat and janitor service.

Willard I. Hamilton,
Vice President.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented the application of Carl Schroeder, owner, for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 1007-1011 Eighteenth Avenue; for a period of eight years, on condition that lighting fixtures, signs and fences meet the approval of the Board.

Mr. Schroeder: Gentlemen, I am a taxpayer in this city for the last twenty-years. I thought I might make a living out of there.

Mayor Congleton: You are a fine citizen, Mr. Schroeder; I know you very well.

Commissioner Ellenstein: How wide is Eighteenth Avenue there?

Mr. Schroeder: Sixty foot and the station is forty feet from the line.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the application be laid over to December 7, 1932.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Ellenstein offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Frederick Spitzhoff, owner, for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 318-320 Bloomfield Avenue; for the period of eight years, on condition that the lighting fixtures, signs and fences meet the approval of the Board, and that a brick wall six feet high be erected between the gasoline station and the frame building now on the property;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

M. C. Ellenstein
W. J. Egan
Jerome T. Congleton

Mr. Spitzhoff: Mr. Mayor, there were no objectors of property owners within the distance of two hundred feet on that property.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Mayor Congleton.

Nays—Commissioners Gillen, Howe.

Commissioner Ellenstein offered the following resolutions:

Post No. 461

Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U S. A.
543 Orange Street

Newark, N. J., November 29, 1932.
Hon. Jerome Congleton,
City Hall,
Newark, N. J.

Dear Sir:—

A movement is on foot for the establishment of a Relief Station in the Roseville Section of the City of Newark.

The purpose of this movement is to take care and relieve some of the suffering of those that are in need during the coming winter.

This movement is being sponsored by Mr. Valentine Kane, and backed by the banks and leading merchants of Roseville.

The members of Connelly Post No. 461, Veterans of Foreign Wars, are in back of Valentine Kane 100%, and beg of you, the Mayor of the City of Newark, to grant this man, in this humanitarian movement, a hearing on the matter.

Respectfully yours,
Jesse McCauley Miller,
Adjutant.

Ordered filed.

Commissioner Egan: The board will now hear Mr. Kane.

Mr. Valentine B. Kane, 556 Seventh Avenue:

Mr. Mayor and members of the City Commission: On September 18 I received an invitation from his honor, the Mayor, to serve on a committee for the unemployed of the city of Newark, and about two months ago I was invited by Mr. Thompson of the Department of Public Welfare to make a survey of the Poor and Alms Department. A big packer who operates a chain of stores in the city of Newark told me yesterday that he would turn his whole plant over to the city of Newark and that people would be able to buy food at wholesale cost. This Chinese boy that you see sitting over there has prepared a menu for me at $4 a week that will feed the average family in luxury. My plan is that we establish a relief station in every ward in the city of Newark, open the police stations and fire houses. That the sixty or seventy thousand school children in Newark be given a little barrel to take home and the people who can will deposit a coin in the barrel and it can be brought back to the teacher, and that money turned in to this relief fund and food bought for the poor. That the four hundred thousand people that go to the moving pictures of this city be addressed by the young lawyers of this city, known as four minute men.

Commissioner Gillen: I move you, Mr. Mayor, that this matter be referred to Commissioner Ellenstein.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The following petition was received and read:

Hon. Jerome T. Congleton,
Mayor, City of Newark,
Newark, N. J.

We, the undersigned, respectfully petition your Honorable Body that you use your influence to have the Mayor's Committee or the City Commission establish a food and clothing relief station in Roseville, instead of compelling five hundred families to walk to Washington and Court Streets.

Signed by Mrs. A. Golden, 249 No.

6th Street, and about 450 other signatures.

Presented by Valentine B. Kane.

Referred to Commissioner Ellenstein.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter he desires to address the commission on?

Mr. Albert Woods, 385 Springfield Avenue:

Mr. Mayor and fellow commissioners, last week the Unemployed Council, an organization of unemployed workers, appeared before you with a petition. We specified certain complaints, such as a lack of hot lunches in the schools and no shoes for the children. I want some statement about the evictions and the shutting off of gas and electric in the homes.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to address the commission?

Mr. Henry Green, 280 Goldsmith Avenue:

Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the commission: I came here and asked that you pass a motion here for an investigation by the police and firemen as to how many people are out of work suffering from this period of unemployment, so that we know to what extent the suffering takes place. I see you appropriated $1,250,000 for relief purposes. Whom are you going to relieve?

Mayor Congleton: That is money that has already been spent, Mr. Green, and this resolution and ordinance that you heard is providing for the financing of that money.

Mr. Green: Pretty soon you will need another amount.

Mayor Congleton: Yes, I think you are right.

Mr. Green: And I suggested that you buy this food wholesale at wholesale prices. Here we have a municipal lodging house, and I think you turned the management over to private interests. Am I right or am I making—Commissioner Ellenstein: You are wrong, Mr. Green.

Mr. Green: Is the city managing it?

Commissioner Ellenstein: Yes, with the assistance of the Citizens Relief Committee.

Mr. Green: You turned it over to the Citizens Relief Committee?

Commissioner Ellenstein: Oh, no.

Mr. Green: You have municipal employees there?

Commissioner Ellenstein: Yes, we have municipal employees there.

Mr. Green: You don't serve them any lunch in there.

Commissioner Ellenstein: Yes, we do; we serve a lunch. And beginning with this morning each one receives as many cups of hot coffee as he desires and as much bread as he desires.

Mr. Green: You took the Pollard building, the city will pay rental for it, and that was turned over to private—

Commissioner Ellenstein: No, it was not. It is under the supervision of my department, Mr. Green, and all employees that receive any pay are under my direct supervision.

Mr. Green: Are they going to be fed by the municipality.

Commissioner Ellenstein: Absolutely. Most of the food is contributed.

Mr. Green: Contributed?

Commissioner Ellenstein: Yes.

Mr. Green: The city does not buy it?

Commissioner Ellenstein: Whenever we can avoid buying it we do so.

Mr. Green: That is not the way it ought to be done; and you are a medical man, a professional man—

Commissioner Ellenstein: What has a profession to do with the obtaining of food?

Mr. Green: It has a certain amount of intelligence and biology attached to it, and it is closely related to sociology, and you would be able, with a dose of economics, you would see into the economic situation probably—I am giving you some credit now—

Commissioner Ellenstein: Of course, my education along biological lines is limited. However, biology and economics are too far apart to discuss in the same breath.

Mr. Green: I protested about the poor people having to stand in Military park in cold, wind and rain, to be fed sandwiches and tin cups of coffee.

Commissioner Ellenstein: Just a minute, Mr. Green. Now, I have listened to you—this is the second occasion—and at no time did you ever come to me personally. And I want to say to you or anybody else, that my office is open to you or anybody, no matter how lowly his position may be, financial or social or otherwise, and any just complaint that you or anybody else has, you can come to me and the door is wide open for you, and I will sit down with you and give you as much time as you desire, and more too, to correct that condition. I want to say to you too, that only yesterday—or rather, the day before yesterday, on Monday, I saw fifty-eight citizens in my office from nine o'clock in the morning until seven at night. Now, that is applying myself diligently, isn't it? I think even you will agree to that. You were welcome to be there.

Mr. Green: And I don't want to come in there. I never came to Mayor Congleton in his private office, I don't go to Howe nor Gillen nor Egan; I come here as a public citizen on public matters.

Commissioner Ellenstein: Let me tell you something: I did you the courtesy of listening to you very intently.

Mr. Green: You are not getting sore, are you?

Commissioner Ellenstein: Now you are interrupting me, and I did not interrupt you, Mr. Green.

Mr. Green: It was not done with any mischievous purpose.

Commissioner Ellenstein: I said to you you are evidently seeking the interests of the citizenry, and I appreciate that, and I think you are sincere about it. If you are, you want to get the best results, and you can obtain the best results, not by taking up the time of the members of this board, but by coming to me directly, and I promise you that I will do everything in my power to correct it. More than that you cannot ask. Let me tell you about the commissary department: you may not be aware that the state contributes to the money that is expended by the department in the interests of poor relief, and they are diametrically opposed to a commissary department, based upon investigations and past experiences by experts in that direction. They say there is too much unperishable food that would be used, and from past experiences they are opposed to it, and we are to be guided by what they recommend. In the city of Irvington they have a commissary department, but the one at the head of relief there would very much rather not have such a department, they are only compelled to do that because of the fact the grocers won't supply by grocery checks as we do here in the city of Newark, due to the fact they have to wait too long for their money; and so they are compelled to take up the commissary department. Now, I am limited as to what I can do. I am not prepared to say—I have not had sufficient experience to say whether or not the commissary department is the most economical way of handling the situation, and I am guided, therefore, by experts, and guided by state relief headed by the one actively engaged, Colonel Seers, and I don't think a more conscientious or diligent man exists in our state. So far as the municipal lodging house is concerned, I have spent several nights over there. The night before last we housed 560 men, and we are making every effort under strict hygienic conditions. The clothes are sterilized, they are given sleeping shirts to sleep in, they are compelled to take a bath before the clothes are returned to them, and they take a bath before they go to bed. They are in bed at eight-thirty. Everything that is possible to be done for a human being is being done.

Mr. Green: Is there a sufficient amount of hot water?

Commissioner Ellenstein: Yes.

Mr. Green: Some of the elderly people have been compelled to take ice-water showers.

Commissioner Ellenstein: You don't know that of your own knowledge?

Mr. Green: I do.

Commissioner Ellenstein: Any time you want to go with me I will be glad to go with you and show you that is not the condition.

Mr. Green: You have an arrangement there to furnish sufficient hot water for these unfortunates?

Commissioner Ellenstein: We have shower baths and sufficient hot water and soap, and they are given a clean sheet every night, and that laundry is done by the City Home at no cost to the city. We have five municipal employees as compared to twenty employees last winter, and everything possible is done in an economical fashion to make everybody comfortable. So you have no basis for criticism since you don't know of your own knowledge; and if you have any criticism, come to me and I will do everything in my power to correct.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Miss Ruth Miller, 347 Springfield Avenue:

I, as a representative of the youth of the Unemployed Council, in view of the fact that a delegation was here last Wednesday demanding free hot lunches in the schools for the children, and clothing and shoes. We suggest that the commissioners and the mayor have a conference with a delegation, a committee from the Unemployed Council of Newark, to discuss the problem and to take definite action.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Anthony Grasso, 249 Lake Street:

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I come here every week and I hear Mr. Green making all these motions. I want to ask Mr. Green what has he done personally to help?

Mayor Congleton: Now listen, we are not going to sit here and have any personalities at all.

Mr. Grasso: We want to get down to brass tacks on this, because he is making a display here every week.

Mayor Congleton: We don't mind that.

Mr. Grasso: And we want to know what he is doing about it himself. I am a taxpayer. I came here for something else. I see you are going to open the Weequahic section High School. I don't think that school should be delayed.

Mayor Congleton: Have you taken the matter up with the Board of Education?

Mr. Grasso: No, I have not; they are going to delay—

Mayor Congleton: I don't know anything about it; it is a matter that is before the Board of Education. Is there anyone else who desires to be heard?

Commissioner Gillen: I move we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Joseph Cocuzza, owner, for the alteration of an existing building for use as a gasoline station; premises 74 Lock Street;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for application above set forth.

Mr. Frank Calabrese, Lefcourt Building:

I am speaking for the applicant. This locality is a manufacturing site and a gasoline station would not endanger the locality. The applicant is paying about $500 taxes for the property and he is receiving no benefits.

Mayor Congleton: There is a business being carried on in there and you say he is getting no benefit from the property.

Mr. Calabrese: He has a factory, but you know what business is today.

Commissioner Gillen: That is a good building, practically a modern building, a factory building, isn't it?

Mayor Congleton: A substantial brick building. And you want to tear out the first floor to put in a gasoline station.

Commissioner Gillen: That would not destroy the building altogether.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared lost by the following votes:

A communication from S. W. Fuerth, President of the Hillcrest Manor Improvement Association, Inc., of Maplewood, N. J., protesting against the recent decision of the Board of Adjustment which favored an application permitting the erection of a gasoline station at 695-697 Irvington Avenue, was read and on motion ordered filed.

Commissioner Gillen offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of A. & P. Service Station (Saul Holding Company, owner) for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 695-697 Irvington Avenue; for a period of eight years, on condition that lighting fixtures, signs and fences meet the approval of the Board;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for application above set forth.

Mr. Sidney W. Fuerth, President Hillcrest Manor Improvement Association, 719 Irvington Avenue, Maplewood, N. J.:

I protest against the decision of the Adjustment Board which favored an application. Such decision was unfair and contrary to the evidence submitted. Neither the applicant nor his counsel presented any convincing proofs that a change in zoning at this point to permit the erection of a gas station is desirable. Over eighty per cent. of those duly qualified to act in legally protesting this proposed change have so protested.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Alex Wanczyk, 85 Mountainview Place:

Mr. Mayor, I am a taxpayer quite a number of years in Newark. I have 420 feet in that section. I have three properties across the street, all rented and the people just notified me if the gas station is going to be granted there they want me to reduce rents or they will get out.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else in opposition?

Mr. Morris Wurgaft, Kinney Building:

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners: The objectors are all but four out of the two hundred feet area, and the other four, three are in Maplewood and one of them is the owner of the gas station which is immediately on the opposite corner of where this proposed station is going to be. I submit that the residents of Maplewood have no standing before this body--

Mayor Congleton: I think differently myself. Where we are on a border line I would not want Maplewood to do something to us.

Mr. Wurgaft: There are two stations right there.

Mayor Congleton: You say there are two right there in that neighborhood. Isn't that enough to supply that neighborhood? We are getting too many gas stations, in my opinion. This is generally a residential section. I have been up through there and they are building very nice houses.

Mr. Wurgaft: Mr. Mayor, when that gas station was put up in Maplewood on the opposite corner, the Hillcrest Association, which was interested in the property, did not think of going up to Maplewood to object to that, and they are coming down here now to object to this Newark resident. This Maplewood proposition is what they are interested in, to protect every man in Maplewood.

Mayor Congleton: That is not to be sneezed at. If I was a property owner in Maplewood and something was going to build over the line in Newark I would try to protect my property.

Commissioner Howe: Who owns this property now?

Mr. Philip Eisen, 695-697 Irvington Avenue; a Newark owner.

Commissioner Howe: You bet they own it.

Mr. Eiser: It is a Newark owner that owns that property. He owns about five hundred feet of land in the immediate neighborhood.

Mr. Fuerth: There are so many Newark objectors.

Mr. Eiser: There is no Newark resident only this one, gentlemen, and I served about eighteen residents of Newark, and none of them ever appeared because they are in favor of it.

Mayor Congleton: This gentleman has three houses right across the street and owns 120 feet. I think he is entitled to some consideration.

Mr. Eisen: How about the owner of the property adjoining not across the street. This other station is fifty feet away from the station.

Mayor Congleton: And the owner next door, what has he on his land, the one that you say does not object?

Mr. Wurgaft: Vacant land. And he is ready to build a house on it.

Mayor Congleton: Vacant land; and he has been letting it lie idle and this other gentleman has taken his land and improved it and has people living in his houses. I think he is entitled to a great deal of consideration myself.

Commissioner Howe: I move it be laid over for a week for inspection.

The roll being called, the motion was declared lost by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe.

Nays: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton I am against the adjournment. The motion is lost.

Commissioner Egan: I move the question.

The roll being called, the motion was declared lost by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioner Gillen.

Nays: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented the application of Carl Schroeder, owner, for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 1007-1011 Eighteenth Avenue; for the period of eight years, on condition that lighting fixtures, signs and fences meet the approval of the Board.

Commissioner Egan That is opposite the fire house, and the report of the Fire Department is that they do not recommend that it be passed upon favorably.

Commissioner Howe moved that the application be laid over to December 14, 1932.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, on September 9, 1930, the Board of Adjustment, and on October 1, 1930, the Board of Commissioners approved the application for the construction of a gasoline station on the premises 487 Raymond Boulevard; and

WHEREAS, the said applicant was unable to proceed with the work of construction within the allotted time; therefore be it

RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that an extension of three months from date be granted to the said applicant and/or his assigns, from the 7th day of December, 1932; said extended permit to expire March 7, 1933.

aldo Maioran; gasoline station for a period of eight years;

861-869 Frelinghuysen Avenue,

Charles F. Eager (Charles & Irving Kessler, owners); renewal of permit for automobile sales station, for a period of two years from May 20, 1932;

136-160 Carnegie Avenue (State Highway No. 25), Tulsa Petroleum Company (Carnegie Steel Company, owner); gasoline station, for a period of eight years;

69-73 New Street, N. J. Toilet and Towel Supply Company, owner; renewal of permit for automobile parking station, for the period of one year from November 4, 1932;

333-339 Elizabeth Avenue, Irving Kimmel (Annie Greenfield, owner); gasoline station, for a period of eight years.

The Board of Adjustment,
R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Received, copy to be sent to each commissioner and further action postponed to December 21, 1932.

John Howe,

Director of Revenue and Finance.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

A resolution providing for the issuance of temporary bonds for the Relief of the Poor.

WHEREAS, The City of Newark desires to take advantage of the State aid for dependency relief authorized by Chapter 394 of the Laws of 1931 of the State of New Jersey, and has prepared a program for such relief by said city, as provided in said act; and,

WHEREAS, over $1,000,000 has already been appropriated for such relief and an additional sum of $225,000 will be required for the month of December, 1932; and,

WHEREAS, the State Director of Emergency Relief has agreed that if the city appropriates $75,000 for the month of December, 1932, the State will appropriate sufficient moneys to pay for said program for the month of December, 1932, in excess of the $75,000 to be appropriated hereunder;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the sum of $75,000 be and the same is hereby appropriated for emergency relief in the City of Newark for the month of December, 1932; and the proper corporate officers of the City of Newark are hereby directed and authorized to issue temporary loan bonds in the sum of Seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) for the purpose of temporarily financing emergency relief, an object for which the City is authorized to issue bonds by the aforesaid act; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that each of the temporary loan bonds authorized by this resolution amounting in the aggregate to seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000), shall state in general terms the purpose for which it is issued, shall be dated as of the date of issue, shall mature not exceeding six months after date, shall bear such rate of interest not exceeding 6% per annum and be issued in such denomination and be executed in such manner as the Director of Revenue and Finance may determine, and the Mayor, Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance, the Auditor of Accounts and the City Clerk be and they are hereby authorized and directed to execute, in the name of the City the bonds authorized by this resolution, subject to the provisions of Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Director of Revenue and Finance be and he is hereby authorized and directed to sell said temporary loan bonds at not less than par, either all at one time or from time to time.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter he desires to bring to the attention of the commission?

Mr. Joseph S. Zemel, 289 Market Street:

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I represent the Ironbound Improvement Association, and I also appear as a citizen of Newark. We protest against the confiscatory assessments and confiscatory tax rate. Property values in Newark have fallen since 1927, 1928 and 1929, nevertheless the Assessment Commission of Newark has not cut assessments. We must have a tax rate in the city of Newark which will be not over $2.50 a hundred. The assessed valuations in the city of Newark are in the neighborhood of $900,000,000. The total amount of taxes collected for the fiscal year ending December 1, 1932, was in the neighborhood of $22,000,000. The total amount collected in the previous year was in the neighborhood of $23,000,000. We have to pay out $34,000,000 or $35,000,000 for running this city.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Zemel, I just want to clear up one thing—that does not change the big picture that you have painted—but you speak about $34,000,000 of taxes that we levied. You are correct in that, $34,388,000. But I want to take this opportunity of making it clear to you and your association and other taxpayers that are present, that the commissioners of the city of Newark are not the ones that levy the entire $34,000,000. $9,000,000 of that is the city's share of the county tax over which we have absolutely no control or say except as we go before the freeholders when they are having hearings and when they are making up their budget, and urging them to keep their budget down to the minimum. Now, when they have fixed their budget and certified to us what our share of that tax is, it is final so far as we are concerned. Newark's share of the county taxes, included in this $34,000,000 for 1932, as I recollect, is a little over $9,000,000. Is that correct Mr. Brady?

Commissioner Egan: That is right.

Mayor Congleton: And there are other items that go to make up our budget that we have no control over. If you would take and analyze the tax budget you will see that under the mill tax for the building of state highways, the taxpayers of the city of Newark have paid into the state treasury, since 1917, I think it is, when the mill tax commenced, approximately $11,000,000. We have no control over that. The state speaks about paying the soldiers a soldiers' bonus. They do not pay it out of the state income, it is on your tax bill every year. We have to raise it. That is the way they started the building of bridges and of tunnels now controlled by the Port Authority: They levied the taxes on your real estate and on mine, and we paid two and one-half millions to the state for that purpose. For state institutions and agencies. So when you are analyzing the tax figures—not that we are trying to run away from anything that we are responsible for—I do think that in fairness to the entire situation you should take and analyze it by what is the city rate, what is the county rate, what is the state school tax, and so forth and so on, so that you will see that this great tremendous increase that has taken place in the cost of government all over is not solely the doings of the members of the Board of City Commissioners.

Mr. Zemel: I realize, Mr. Mayor, that it is not solely the fault of this board. But the fact remains that if our assessments in Newark—

Mayor Congleton: The point I want to make is, we are glad to have you come and do what you are doing, but you ought not to rest here, you ought to now, with your association, if you want to help keep the county tax down, go to the freeholders who are now making up their budget. Very few people go there. The point I want to stress is they come to the governing body in each municipality as though they were responsible for the whole thing. So far as this Board of Commissioners is concerned we are quite alive to the situation that because of the times the cost of government must come down, and we are going to do everything in our power to have the budgets cut; but it is up to the taxpayers, in addition to the elected officials in the municipalities, to lay their case before the freeholders and before the state legislature and get some of these mandatory appropriations that are put on your property and on my property, lifted and paid out of their state income.

Commissioner Gillen: We pay nearly sixty per cent. of the county cost.

Mr. Zemel: If the tax assessments in the city of Newark were put at the proper figure, if the assessed property in Newark instead of being assessed at $900,000,000 were assessed at the true value, namely, $400,000,000, then we would not have to pay such a large percentage—

Commissioner Gillen: What would your rate be then?

Mayor Congleton: You would pay just as much in money.

Commissioner Gillen: You would have to pay the same amount in money.

Mr. Zemel: Not to the county.

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

Commissioner Gillen: Suppose we make a substantial reduction down neck, don't we have to do it all over Newark?

Mr. Zemel: Wherever properties have fallen.

Commissioner Gillen: Suppose you reduce it from $900,000,000 down to $400,000,000, as you say, which would be a ridiculous reduction, of course, to make under any condition, your rate would be $10 instead of three dollars and something.

Mr. Zemel: Hardly, sir.

Commissioner Gillen: Your rate would be eight, nine, or ten.

Mr. Zemel: When the county goes to work and figures out what taxes they are going to levy upon the city of Newark, they figure in what the total assessed—Mayor Congleton: Don't you suppose if we reduced our assessments that the other municipalities in Essex County would do the same thing?

Mr. Zemel: They have already done it.

Mayor Congleton: No, they have not. The result would be, just as Commissioner Gillen points out, we would still pay a percentage of the money. It would just push the rate up.

Mr. Zemel: We have got to have some relief or else you will own the property.

Commissioner Gillen: It will be reduced; you reduce the ratables, you reduce the assessments, and your rate is going up just as surely as your assessments goes down; because if it is reduced on Ferry Street they have got to—

Mr. Zemel: I think by a proper adjustment of the budget expense it will not be necessary to raise the rate at all.

Commissioner Gillen: We are trying to do that; we are even discussing the question of a sales tax or income tax to take some of the burden off.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Zemel, while you are on your feet, may I ask if you will give the stenographer the name of someone of the officers of your Ironbound Improvement Association. When we had up before us the ordinance to prevent these bankrupt sales, and so forth, we attempted to send copies to all of the civic associations of the community with any number of people that we thought were connected with the Ironbound Improvement Association, and we could not find anybody who would take the responsibility of being their representative up to that time, to whom we could send a copy of the ordinance.

Mr. Zemel: The president is Mr. Joseph Leonardis, Ferry Street, corner Jefferson; the first vice-president is Louis Adler, 50 Shanley Avenue; the second vice-president is Mr. J. D. Nusbaum, 151 Ferry Street.

Commissioner Howe: What does it matter if your house is assessed at $10,000, a tax rate of $1 and you spilt it in half and make your assessment $5,000 and the rate becomes $2. And incidentally, no matter which way it is you pay $100 in taxes.

Mr. Zemel: I think if you figure it out you will find that the tax is not quite $2 if you spilt it in half. We have to contribute proportionately to our assessed valuation to the county and to the state.

Commissioner Howe: What the county loses one way we pay another, because we now pay sixty per cent. of it, and of the appropriations about 87½ per cent. is mandatory. You want to go to Trenton and get laws that will allow us to adjust those things.

Mr. Zemel: How am I going to do that, I am not in the legislature.

Commissioner Howe: We have not been able to do it. Maybe you can.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Zemel, as I understand the tax structure, our budget figure is $34,000,000, in round figures, for 1932. $17,000,000 of that is chargeable against the city as a municipality, which includes mandatory appropriations and debt service. $9,000,000 of it represents our share of the county cost of government, and $8,000,000 of it represents our share directly from the taxpayers of Newark to the Board of Education of the city of Newark. Computing that mathematically you will see at a glance that fifty per cent. of the taxes levied against the property owners and other taxpayers of Newark, is chargeable to the government of Newark, which includes mandatory expenditures; and the other fifty per cent. is chargeable to the county and the educational system. The Mayor conveyed to you the thought that in dealing with this very, very serious problem, that it would be necessary for not only the governing body of Newark to interest the taxpayers of Newark to impress upon the county and the school system and upon the legislature, if you will, the absolute necessity of curtailing the cost of government. We arranged yesterday to attend the budget conference of the Board of Education.

Three of the members of the City Commission are on the Board of School Estimate: His Honor the Mayor, Commissioner Howe and myself. We, at the proper time, will deal with the other members of the Board of School Estimate who are represented in members of the Board of Education. This entire problem is unusually serious. From a legal standpoint it is complicated because of the different units of government having to do with the expenditure of this money, and it is also complicated from a legal point of view for the reason that many of these items are mandatory. Now, you must bear in mind in connection with this entire problem, the matter of our debt structure, which is very closely and necessarily correlated with the matter of assessed valuation of property. We have, in round figures, outstanding as a debt against the city, $110,000,000 represented in bonds that have been sold by Newark and are now owned by insurance companies, banking institutions, estates, corporations, and individuals. You know, I am sure, as a lawyer and as a citizen intimately associated with public problems, how deep seated that question is, when it comes to a matter of maintaining a substantial credit position for the city of Newark. After all, that is your fundamental basis of operation so far as the present situation is concerned. I do not think anyone with any knowledge of government or with any common sense could do otherwise than fully agree with the sentiment you expressed here this morning. In my opinion real estate today has no value comparable with real estate as of 1928 and 1929. The property owner finds himself, because of reduced rents or non-payment of rents, or vacancies, utterly unable to carry his property. As a rule he has interest carrying charges as well as taxes, and when he adds taxes and interest carrying charges and maintenance of his property he finds himself, generally speaking, with little or no equity in his property. And your summation of the case indicating that the ultimate result of conditions continuing as they exist in confiscation of property, is a sane and sound statement. This entire situation is so serious that even though this governing body and the Board of Freeholders and the Board of Education and the legislators of the state, if they were all super men, and none of them are, including the members of this commission, would not be able to deal with it with full intelligence unless they had the complete technical cooperation of every interested taxpayer and citizen. And as one member of this governing body, I am happy that you and your associates came before us this morning, because after all, the men who occupy public office are temporary public agents. You citizens who own the property of this municipality maintain this government financially, and unless you do manifest unusual interest in unusual times you cannot expect to obtain the results that you, the ultimate payer of these costs of government, are entitled to. And I am glad that you came here this morning, and I hope you will live intimately and technically with this subject until the budget of the city of Newark is finally adopted, because I know of no reason why any man interested in his city as a property owner or a taxpayer should not show every thought possible in the hope of solving this problem. You must, however, not only come in and deal with this governing body, but you must support your contention directly with the Board of Freeholders, directly with the Board of School Estimate, directly with the Board of Education, directly with the Legislature of this State, and, if necessary, directly with the Governor of this State, in order to give us a condition in this city that will least preserve the precarious position of the property owner today.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Adler: The Ironbound Section in the last three years, the way that we have it rented, ninety-five per cent. of the income goes for taxes. It would not take long until all the properties will be turned over either to the banks or the city, because they cannot meet obligations, either taxes or water rents. We have tenants for eight and ten months without collecting rent, receiving water bills, and the Board of Health notified me if I would not pay the bills they would have me arrested and fined.

Mr. William Selenfreind, 39 Baldwin Avenue:

Gentlemen, I got tax bills in 1925. This was assessed $12,700. That was 1925. 1932 and 1931 I am assessed $16,400. The income in 1925 I had $270 per month; 1932 I only got about $175 a month. It is impossible to pay the taxes. 541 Market Street, 1925, was assessed $6,200; 1932 it is assessed $8,000. And in addition to this they assessed me $715 street assessment. I cannot pay 1932 taxes.

Mr. Zemel: Mr. Commissioner, for the purpose of the record, I had one figure wrong. The amount collected as of December 1, 1932, was $20,767,616.

Mr. Seymour Klein, 20 Clinton Street:

Mr. Mayor, at yesterday's conference the commission voted to re-open and rehear the application of the Gerber Holding Company for permission to erect a gasoline station at 267-271 Sixteenth Avenue. I ask at this time the commission pass a resolution formally so we may properly notify the adjoining property owners.

Commissioner Egan: I move you,

Mr. Mayor, that we re-open the hearing on this application, said re-hearing to be held on December 14, 1932, and that the same notice be given to adjoining property owners as required by the Board of Adjustment.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Anthony Grasso, Lock Street:

Mr. Mayor and Mr. Commissioners, the city ought to have some kind of a check on people that move from one place to another and no not pay rent. I think the city should cooperate with the people who pay taxes. It could be done in the First and Second District Courts, checking these people that are doing this thing not only now, but have been doing it for years.

Mayor Congleton: We will see what we can do. Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Sam Koldorf, 398 Orange Street, protested against the chain stores claiming that they should be especially taxed.

Mayor Congleton: You know we cannot tax these chain stores any differently than we tax other stores.

Mr. Koldorf: They did in some states.

Mayor Congleton: But the state legislature had to pass it. They do not tax them on the items; what they do by statute in other states, they charge them a certain license fee for the first store, the second store is double the first, the third stores is double that, and so on. We get out of them everything we can in the way of taxes under the laws that exist. We will take it up and see what we can do with the legislature. The legislature does not meet until January.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., December 14, 1932.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of the meeting of December 7, 1932, were read and approved.

Commissioner Gillen introduced the following ordinance, and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance authorizing the issuance of $1,200,000 Public Park Bonds of The City of Newark.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark do ordain as follows:

Section 1. Pursuant to Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916 of New Jersey, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, negotiable bonds of The City of Newark, to be known as "Public Park Bonds," and to be dated not later than July 1, 1933, are hereby authorized to be issued in the aggregate principal amount of $1,200,000, for the purposes hereinafter stated, for which purposes it is necessary to raise said sum of money.

Section 2. The money to be raised by the issuance of said bonds shall be applied to the payment of the cost of acquiring certain lands in the block bounded by Waverly Avenue, Barclay Street, Spruce Street and Somerset Street and in the block bounded by Spruce Street, Barclay Street, Montgomery Street and Somerset Street, for a public park, whether including or not including playgrounds as a part thereof, pursuant to the provisions of the ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to authorize the acquirement of lands in The City of Newark for park use, and to authorize the execution of a contract with the Prudential Insurance Company of America for the acquisition of the same, and providing for the financing thereof," adopted by the Board of Commissioners on the 15th day of October, 1930.

Section 3. The bonds authorized to be issued by this ordinance are authorized to be issued in lieu of or to fund a like amount of Temporary Loan Bonds or Notes heretofore authorized to be issued for such purpose, pursuant to the provisions of Section 13 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended. The proceeds of said bonds shall, to the extent necessary, be applied to the payment of any such temporary bonds or notes issued for such purpose and outstanding at the time said bonds are issued. No such temporary bonds or notes shall be issued after the bonds authorized by this ordinance shall have been issued.

Section 4. The following matters are hereby determined and declared, pursuant to the requirements of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended:

(a) The properties for which bonds are hereby authorized to be issued have not yet been acquired and are of the class described in Subdivision (F) of Sub-section (2) of Section 4 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended.

(b) The probable period of usefulness of said properties computed in the manner prescribed by Section 4 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended, is fifty years, ending on July 1, 1982.

(c) The average assessed valuation of the taxable real property (including improvements) of said The City of Newark, computed upon the next preceding three valuations thereof, in the manner provided in Section 12 of said Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, as amended, is $731,311,183.00.

(d) The net debt of said City, computed in the manner provided in said Section 12, as amended, is $47,254,893.02.

(e) The statements required by said Section 12 (showing said net debt, etc.) have been made and filed with the City Clerk, as therein required.

(f) No part of the cost of acquiring said properties has been or is to be assessed against property specially benefitted thereby.

Section 5. This ordinance shall take effect in the manner provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that January 4, 1933, at 11 A. M., or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place when and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage, and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading as provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan introduced the following ordinance, and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance regulating salaries in The City of Newark.

WHEREAS, several ordinances of The City of Newark now provide for automatic increase in wages, salary or compensation of certain officers and employes named therein;

THEREFORE, The Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark Do Ordain:

1. Whenever such automatic increases shall be provided for, no officer, employe, agent or servant in the employ of The City of Newark, or holding any position, whatsoever, therein, shall be entitled to receive any such automatic increase in pay, salary or compensation, by virtue of such ordinance or ordinances, from the City of Newark during the continuance of this ordinance;

2. This ordinance shall take effect on the 16th day of December, 1932, and shall remain in force and effect until the 31st day of December, 1933.

3. All ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed.

Commissioner Egan moved that the application be laid over until December 28th.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. Joseph Calo, 407 North Fifth Street, requested that the city pay him rent for 22 families who are not paying their rent.

The matter was referred to Commissioner Ellenstein.

The following communication was received and read:

WHEREAS, the City of Newark did heretofore lease for a period of years to the City Center Corporation the Municipal Market fronting on Mulberry Street and lying between Commerce Street and Raymond Boulevard; and

WHEREAS, the said City Center Corporation did agree to pay to the City of Newark an annual rental of

; and

WHEREAS, it appears that the said City Center Corporation has failed to keep its covenants and agreements to pay said rent as aforesaid; and

WHEREAS, it now appears that there is due and owing to the Municipal Corporation of the City of Newark from the City Center Corporation a sum in excess of $300,000; and

WHEREAS, it further appears that a Bond for the faithful performance of the conditions and covenants of the aforementioned lease was signed by Albert G. Preen, Norton Klinghoffer, Theodore H. Cohn, Isaac Schackter and Isadore Klinghoffer, Esqs., binding themselves to the City of Newark, individually and collectively for $1,000,000;

BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the members of the Newark Taxpayers Association in meeting duly assembled on the 30th day of November, 1932, are of the opinion that the Municipal Corporation of the City of Newark should, without delay, demand payment of the aforesaid amount from the City Center Corporation, and upon failure of said corporation to meet said demand, it should be promptly evicted from said market, and suit should be brought upon said Bond without further delay for the purpose of indemnifying the taxpayers of Newark.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution over the signature of the President and Secretary, be served upon each member of the Newark City Commission.

Resolution passed unanimously.

Reginald Parnell,
President.

Abraham Gwosdof,
Secretary.

Ordered filed.

Mr. Reginald Parnell, 460 Clinton Avenue: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the City Commission, The Newark Taxpayers Association, November 30th last passed a resolution pertaining to the City Market. The Association is under the impression that the City Center Corporation owes the City of Newark back rent in excess of $300,000. We understand that there are six men—five men, in fact, who are on the bond to guarantee payment of all rent due. We feel that a demand upon these gentlemen should be made, and upon failure to comply with the demand and pay this $300,000, the city should take action to enforce payment.

Commissioner Gillen: That matter has already been taken care of, the City Commission has already agreed to take care of it.

Mr. Henry Green, 280 Goldsmith Avenue: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the commission, some time ago I came here and proposed that the City of Newark buy food and essentials for the poor in wholesale and large quantities. You referred the thing to Commissioner Ellenstein. That bread line in Lincoln Park should be done away with. These people ought to receive the food under a roof.

Mayor Congleton: The City is maintaining just exactly the kind of a place you speak of. The food that is being handed out in the park is not being done by the city, it is some volunteers, and the people who are being fed there, by going around to Washington Street where the city is maintaining a place, can get free food there. But for some reason or other they prefer to go to Lincoln Park. So that you may know my views on the question of wholesale buying, Mr. Green, I have no hesitancy in stating it. I have given a great deal of thought and attention to it, and while now and then frauds will creep in, even if we are buying it wholesale, a great many of the small storekeepers have done their bit to carry many a needy family just as far as they could; and just as long as they can supply the families, the city paying it, I think they are entitled to be helped just as much as the others; and I am for helping as far as we can, the small storekeeper to stay in business and make his own livelihood.

Commissioner Ellenstein: Mr. Green, I want to say to you that some two weeks ago you appeared before the commission and I asked you to communicate with me. You made a statement at that time that the men down at the municipal lodging house were not getting a warm bath. Now, that was not based upon any knowledge of yours. As a matter of fact, we have a three-hundred gallon tank of hot water there and an additional reserve tank with a capacity of three hundred gallons, and every man that goes in that municipal lodging house receives a hot bath, both morning and night, and his clothes are taken care of and sterilized properly. And there is no man that appears at that lodging house, which is under the supervision of the Citizens Relief Committee, outstanding citizens of our city, in conjunction with my department--there is no man that appears there that is not given a hot meal and given a breakfast, so that he receives two meals a day. Now, there isn't any person that you know of that was ever refused treatment there. I asked you two weeks ago if you had any complaints to make on that score to communicate with me, and if you received no satisfaction it then was the proper time for you to come before this Board of Commissioners. Now, I do not see any significance but that primarily you are motivated by the fact that you come here in an endeavor to seek publicity, and nothing else. If you had any interest of anybody else at heart you would come to me and I would then satisfy you that everything was done that is humanely possible; but on the contrary, you did not appear at my office, but come here again and voice your criticisms, which are in the large measure unfounded. The State Relief Committee contributes sixty-six per cent. of the outdoor relief, and their opinion is that we are not to put in a commissary, and that is based upon actual experience had by those men, and based upon the opinion of scientific men who have studied this angle from every possible source. They know more than you and I do about this, and we are obligated to follow the dictates of the State Relief Administration. (Applause).

A communication dated December 14th, from Herbert I. Segal relative to changes in taxing methods was received, read and on motion ordered filed.

Mr. Herbert I. Segal, 8 Centre Street: Mr. Mayor, I represent taxpayers who are assessed over two million dollars. It is the duty of the City Commission to initiate and sponsor such changes in the law which will be for the common good. The State of New Jersey should take over the public school system. The cost of the educational system should be wholly paid by the State. The taxpayer should be permitted to pay his tax bills in monthly installments. The County and State should bear their share of refunds due to reduction of values by county and state tax boards.

Mayor Congleton: We get credit the next year, Mr. Segal. We did when I was on the Tax Board.

Mr. Segal: For the proportionate amount?

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

Mr. Segal: We will take that back. We believe that separate tax bills should be issued by the city, county and state. The municipality should bill only for its own needs in making up its own tax rate on ratables within its jurisdiction. The County and State should do the same. All three tax bills should be mailed through one central body, thereby avoiding an increase in the cost of billing.

Mayor Congleton: That is on every tax bill that you get now, Mr. Segal.

Mr. Segal: Yes, and the taxpayer cannot read it.

Mayor Congleton: It is on there how much the city, exclusive of schools, how much of it for local schools, how much for state schools, how much for the county tax, how much for the state road tax—

Mr. Segal: Is that on the personal property tax? Does that appear on the 1932 tax bills?

Mayor Congleton: Yes, sir. Right up at the top of your bill in red ink—I think it was red this last year—they usually make it a different color from the other to try and attract the taxpayers' attention so they will see how the amount of money they are paying is distributed and not charge the local officials who send out the bills with being responsible for it all.

Mr. Segal: You will find the big body of your taxpayers are not cognizant of that fact. All they are interested in when they get their tax bill is how much they have to pay. By segregating it into three separate bills you would be focusing their attention more accurately than otherwise is possible.

Mayor Congleton: You will find if you will look at your bill for last year, while we had to raise $34,000,000 in taxes, $25,000,000 was for matters this commission has jurisdiction over and the local schools, and $9,000,000, approximately, was for the other activities that you have referred to.

Mr. Segal: We believe by splitting up your tax bills you will more nearly succeed in the focusing the attention of the taxpayers on those tax payments.

Mayor Congleton: If a person could not pay his taxes for some reason or other, his property would be sold three times for unpaid taxes, and increase the burden and hardship on him. What you have in mind is on the bill, and it is done for the purpose of avoiding some of those things.

Mr. Segal: We believe that the tax law should provide for automatic annual decreases for building depreciation. The law should be changed so that only owners of property may vote on bond issues.

Commissioner Gillen: You mean State bond issues?

Mr. Segal: Local bond issues, any bond issues. Provision in the law should be made if the city of Newark or City of East Orange or the county wants to vote a big bond issue, that the taxpayers should determine it.

Commissioner Gillen: That is not the law now.

Mr. Charles Handler, Kinney Building: Mr. Mayor and members of the commission, last week a recommendation came before you from the Adjustment Board for the approval of a gasoline station on Irvington Avenue up near Putnam Street, near the Maplewood line. I was not able to get here. I would like to move for a reopening and reconsideration of that case. The people in the neighborhood, the property owners excepting one, on the Newark side of the line, are in favor of this project. The man who owns the property right next door to ours is in favor of it. The only objector who appeared, in Newark, he appeared once and did not appear any more, never came down any more.

Mayor Congleton: He was here last week, wasn't he?

Mr. Handler: I don't know whether he was or not.

Mayor Congleton: There was a man here said he had property and three houses across the street from the location and that he had received notice within a day or two from his tenants that if the gas station went there they were going to move. I thought he was a Newarker.

Mr. Handler: We had our men go up there since then and speak to the tenants and they didn't know anything about it.

Mayor Congleton: I hear no motion, Mr. Handler.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter he desires to bring to the attention of the commission?

(No response).

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

Pursuant to the authority granted by the resolution, I awarded the first maturing $1,062,000 Public Work Bonds and the first maturing $1,269,000 Poor Relief Bonds to Lehman Brothers, Bancamerica Blair Corp., Kidder, Peabody & Co., Estabrook & Co., et al., who agreed to pay therefor the respective sums of $1,064,760 and $1,272,300 together with interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery thereof, provided the bonds bear interest at the rate of four and three-quarters per centum (4¾%) per annum.

Respectfully submitted,
John Howe,
Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance.

Ordered filed.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance has reported to the Board of Commissioners that he has received sealed proposals for the purchase of the $1,064,000 Public Work Bonds and the $1,272,000 Poor Relief Bonds, as authorized by the resolution adopted by the Board of Commissioners on the 20th day of November, 1932, and has accepted a proposal to purchase the first maturing $1,062,000 Public Work Bonds and the first maturing $1,269,000

000 Poor Relief Bonds, provided the bonds bear interest at the rate of four and three-quarters per centum (4¾%) per annum, submitted by Lehman Brothers, Bancamerica Blair Corp., Kidder, Peabody & Co., Estabrook & Co., and others, who have offered to pay $1,064,760 and accrued interest for said Public Work Bonds, and $1,272,300 and accrued interest for said Poor Relief Bonds; and the Board of Commissioners desires to ratify the award made by the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance: NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, That the acceptance of said proposal by the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance be and the same hereby is ratified and confirmed, and that said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of four and three-quarters per centum (4¾%) per annum, payable semi-annually on June 15th and December 15th in each year until maturity.

Resolution Authorizing the Renewal of $150,000.00 Temporary Loan Bonds on Account of Pavings

WHEREAS, The City of Newark on August 27, 1932, issued its short time obligations known as Temporary Loan Bonds in the aggregate amount of One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000.00) for money borrowed in anticipation of the receipt of money expended for Pavings, said Temporary Loan Bonds being numbered 2766 — 2767 — 2768 — 2769 — 2770 — 2771 — 2772 and 2773, and dated, August 27, 1932, and payable December 27, 1932;

AND WHEREAS, the improvement for which said One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000.00) was issued was for Pavings now in the course of construction or have been completed within six years and is an improvement for which the City is authorized to issue bonds, and the City is without funds to pay said One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000.00) of Temporary Loan Bonds issued;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That in pursuance of the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, entitled, "An Act to authorize and regulate the issuance of bonds and other obligations and the incurring of indebtedness by county, city, borough, village, town, township or any municipality governed by an improvement commission," approved March 22, 1916, and the amendments thereto, there shall be issued Temporary Loan Bonds in the amount of One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000.00) for the purpose of temporarily financing the improvement aforesaid and renewing said One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000.00) of Temporary Loan Bonds issued therefor;

FURTHER RESOLVED, That each of the Temporary Loan Bonds authorized by this resolution amounting in the aggregate to One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000.00) shall state in general terms the purpose for which it is issued, shall be dated as of the date of its issue, shall mature not exceeding six months after its date, shall bear such rate of interest not exceeding six per centum per annum, and be issued in such denominations and be executed in such manner as the Director of Revenue and Finance shall determine, and the Mayor, the Director of Revenue and Finance, the Auditor of Accounts and the City Clerk be and they are hereby authorized and directed to execute in the name of the City the bonds authorized by this resolution, subject to the provisions of Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916;

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Director of Revenue and Finance be and he is hereby authorized and directed to sell said Temporary Loan Bonds at not less than par, either all at one time or from time to time.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mr. Seymour Klein, 24 Commerce Street:

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, Elizabeth Avenue in the neighborhood of this site has changed. The residential aspect has almost entirely disappeared.

Commissioner Egan: What is there now?

Mr. Klein: Immediately adjacent to this site there is an automobile paint shop and there are gasoline stations within the immediate vicinity. There are on objectors here.

Mayor Congleton: Of course, you know that within a very short distance, from Peddie Street to Meeker Avenue, there are already seven gasoline stations and three public garages?

Mr. Klein: I appreciate the fact that there are many gasoline stations in the vicinity. There can be no residences and there can be no stores because you have around there all inferior property.

Mayor Congleton: Perhaps a nice store, if the others are inferior, will get the better trade there. You have several nice factories there that can patronize such a store in the future. I am unwilling to vote for an eight-year permit.

Board of Adjustment
City Hall

Newark, N. J., December 20, 1932.

The Board of Commissioners
of The City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, that the following applications for variations from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

64 East Park Street, Richard S. Pitts, owner; automobile parking station, for one year;

454-456 South Orange Avenue, M. Rappaport, owner; cleaning and dyeing establishment;

335-337 Washington Street, John V. Martin (Leopold Meyer, owner); enlargement of automobile parking station.

The Board of Adjustment,
R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Received, copy to be sent to each commissioner, and further action postponed to January 4, 1933.

Mayor Congleton: Has any citizen any matter that he desires to address the commission on this morning?

Mr. Henry Green, 280 Goldsmith Avenue:

Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the commission: Last Sunday over three hundred men from the municipal lodging house were marched out to shovel snow. Our municipal lodging house was not organized as a hotel where people should pay for their night's sleeping.

Commissioner Ellenstein: Mr. Green, I told you on two other occasions that if you see any injustice done, particularly by my department, my door is always open for you and I am perfectly willing to take these matters up with you. I have told you that if you then did not receive any redress or proper satisfaction then it was a proper time to come before this entire commission. Now, in spite of the fact that I have told you that on two occasions you have never come near my office. I want to extend to you every courtesy, the same as I extend to every other citizen, regardless of what you might say before this entire commission, but I do not see any necessity of taking up these gentlemen's time before coming to me. My door is open to you. I have no objection to listening to your case, if the other commissioners haven't. You have had Monday, Tuesday and today and you never came to my office, although I asked you to do it on two prior occasions. You have no excuse for not coming to see me.

Mayor Congleton: Has anyone else any matter to speak about?

Commissioner Gillen: I move we adjourn.

Mayor Congleton: Before we adjourn I would like to state that the Board of Commissioners have their tentative budgets well in hand, and right after January 1st, perhaps January 3, we are going to start holding a series of informal hearings on the budget before it is introduced or approved. Timely notice will be given to the press as to the time fixed for the hearings. We make this announcement now in the hope that citizens will take an interest in their business and make some kind of constructive suggestions, rather than standing around on corners in groups and condemning everything that we have attempted to do in the carrying on of the city's business.

Commissioner Gillen: I want to congratulate Commissioner Howe of the Department of Finance on the bids that he received yesterday for our bonds. It is the first time in a long time, it seems, that we have had any competition in the sale of city bonds. It is surely an encouraging sign to see the bond buyers coming over here from New York and outbidding our local banks. I wish to congratulate Commissioner Howe and to congratulate the city generally for its good standing and for inviting this competition and getting the low price of four and three-quarters per cent.

Mr. Edward Fenias, 1060 Broad Street:

May it please the commissioners, this is an application to obtain a rehearing in the matter of the chicken market at 133 Halstead Street.

Mayor Congleton: Do I hear a motion to reopen?

Commissioner Ellenstein: I so move you, Mr. Mayor.

Mayor Congleton: Is the motion seconded? The motion is not seconded. There is no action before the board.

Does any other person have any other matter to bring before the commission?

Commissioner Gillen: I move we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, The City of Newark adopted a program for dependency relief as authorized by Chapter 394 of the Laws of 1931 of the State of New Jersey; and

WHEREAS, in pursuance thereof the City appropriated $75,000 for this purpose for the month of November, 1932, as its contribution toward the financing of said program on condition that the State would appropriate $150,000 for the same purpose; and,

WHEREAS, the above appropriations were based upon the estimated expenditures for the carrying out of said program for the month of November, 1932, of $225,000; and

WHEREAS, the City has been compelled to expend for said program the sum of $248,500.82, under the supervision of the State Director of Emergency Relief, which sum is $23,500.82 in excess of the amount originally estimated as requisite for said work; and

WHEREAS, it is the opinion of this Board that the State should appropriate sufficient money to cover the $23, 500.82 expended in excess of the estimated expenditure;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED By the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that Meyer C. Ellenstein, Director of the Department of Public Works, be and he is hereby authorized to make application to the State Director of Emergency Relief for an appropriation by the State of $23,500.82, to be paid to the City of Newark to cover the additional expenditure for the carrying out of the Poor Relief Program for the month of November, 1932.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Ellenstein, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter that he desires to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. Henry Green, 280 Goldsmith Avenue: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, city officials favor small quantity buying. We are going to have wholesale buying of the food in large quantities and distributed to the neediest without any stain of charity.

Mr. Valentine Kane, 356 Seventh Avenue: Gentlemen, in the City of Newark right after the war we had a storehouse at Port Newark piled high with groceries, and the mayor established food relief, food stores in the fire houses, and the people went there and bought goods in the amount of millions. After the new Mayor came in, men that we call in the food line—a bunch of chiselers came in and controlled the bids.

Mayor Congleton: That is not so. Part of the action that we have taken, Mr. Kane, is on the advice of Commissioner Gillen, who was the Mayor that you have referred to. He stated that the city buying and selling after the war was a failure and that a good part of the merchandise was stolen. Every bill is a public record and you can go there and look at them to your heart's content. We are not covering up anything. I challenge you to show me where the money spent has been covered up by us.

Commissioner Ellenstein: Mr. Kane, I might say to you—and I think I have stated it here before, during the month of November—that the State Emergency Relief contributed $175,000 as against $75,000 contributed by the City of Newark. That is about seventy per cent. of what was contributed. I stated here before—I don't recall whether it was to you or to somebody else who appeared before the commission—that I in my department am in a great measure guided by the insistence of the State Emergency Relief, and that they insist based upon experience and the opinion of their experts that it would be unwise for the City of Newark to have commissaries.

If you could get the State Emergency Relief to coincide with your view I think I would be happy and glad to try it. That is the situation. Our hands are practically tied in that direction. Should we not follow the suggestions of the State Emergency Relief they would cut off the relief to the City, because, as you will understand they are giving us more than they are giving any other municipality in the State, because of the fact that they realize that our City is not only in dire circumstances as compared with the others, but the money is spent in an expeditious fashion and spent most economically, and they are willing to go along with the city, provided we follow their suggestions. If you will go to the State Emergency Relief and they will coincide with your views on the commissaries, I as an individual of this commission, at the head of this department, will be glad to try it; but I don't know any more than you do about it, and I am willing to take the opinion of these men who are trained and whose expert opinion, of course, supersedes that of my own.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who wishes to be heard?

(No response).

No one else appearing, Commissioner Howe moved to adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:
